Kadimah 40th Reunion

Editor's Message

Before long, the summer of 1984 will be gone, but we have captured so many special moments in this year's Iton.

This being my last summer at Kadimah, I thought it would be an ideal opportunity to thank Kadimah for all it has meant to me. The Iton provides us with a way to express our feelings about the summer and our aspirations for the years to come. We live together for 6 weeks, taking the bad with the good, and in the end, the good times always stand out in our minds.

With some staff returning after Biluim Israel, and the many new staff members, we managed to become good friends and have a fantastic time. The 180 campers filled their days with sports, swimming, bama, melyad, waterskiing, canoeing and the all important tetherball. Without it, the summer could have not been complete.

The special outings and canoe trips, along with special day programming; such as Carnival Day, Israel Day, Maccabia, Wetics and various trips to the General Store (planned or otherwise), provided us with an opportunity to go nuts.

As for myself, Camp Machar in '78, '79 were the best experiences in life, love, friendship and leadership. For 2 years on general staff, I learned that looking after 18, 13 year olds is hard work but quite rewarding. And my last summer as Goshrim section head made me realize just what Camp Kadimah is made of; hard work, cooperation, appreciation, great friends and love.

Thank for the memories!

Andrew Jones

I would like to extend a special thank you to Jon Falk and Susan Poizner for giving their time to work on the Iton. Without them, it would have never been done, and done so well I might add. Thanks for helping, and to all who handed in articles, this one's for you. I hope you enjoy this year's Iton.

Thanks to Lisa Brown for her beautiful artwork and her willingness to learn how to use the Gestetner. I luv ya.

Message from the Assistant Editor

I'd just like to use the back of Andrea's page to say what a great time it was working on this Iton. No matter how much fun you guys are having reading this, you should realize that the staff working on it have just been having the time of our lives. It's been great working with Andrea on the editing, with Lisa on some of the artwork, and of course with Susan on the unforgettable Iton chug.

It's now approaching midnight here in the Camp Kadimah office, as the lovely Heidi F. types her Farewell to Kadimah. Lewis watches with interest as Andrea gestetners and Lisa stacks. Craig just stopped in, and probably thinks the whole process is pretty existential.

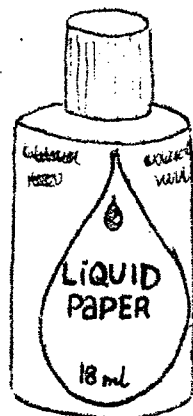

Before the dining hall begins to ring tomorrow morning with the clamor of hungry campers sitting down to Jacques' delicious french toast, your loving staff (including myself, on my night off, yet) will have completely coalated this yearbook. For the first time in anyone's memory, the Iton will be ready a whole three (that's right, three!) days ahead of schedule.

As a reward for all our hard work, Andrea and I can at least look forward to a trip to bustling, metropolitan Bridgewater tomorrow to staple this thing. And, of course, we can all look back together on a job well done (if we do say so ourselves).

Take care and have a great year!

Love,

Jonathan Falk

Message from the Camp Director

Another great summer is drawing to a close at Camp Kadimah. We will cherish the memories and friendships for a long time, I'm sure. This has been a wonderful summer of sun and fun. Who can forget Wetice '84, Mascabia, overnights, special programs, hayrides, socials, rook video night and the terrific banquet? Visitor's Day '84 had to be one of the best in many years. It was so nice to see so many familiar faces from years past.

At this time I want to thank the staff for a fine job during the summer. Your cooperation and efforts were greatly appreciated. A special thanks to Mitchell Brown for his support and fine job in the dual role as assistant director and waterfront director. To Kenny Gordon, section heads, specialists and all head staff, congratulations on a job well done. To Jack and Chava, Hal and Kathy, bravo on keeping our tummies full and taking care of us when not feeling well.

Last but not least, a special thanks to all you campers and Macharnike for your good behaviour (most of the time) and spirit and sportsmanship during the summer. You are the ones we all work for and without you, there would be no camp. We love you all. Have a wonderful year in school and we'll see you all back here next summer. Take care.

Love,

Sheldon

On the Waterfront: Not the Movie

Dateline: Camp Kadimah, August 13, 1984 (CKP)

This summer at Camp Kadimah/Machar, the waterfront was utilized to its fullest extent. We were fortunately blessed with superb weather, leaving all in high spirits and with a great tan.

Many special events added to the daily waterfront routine. Wetics '84 (waterfront-athletics day), beach parties, night swims, Maccabia and anything else that could have been done, but wasn't were enjoyed by all. The arrival of a windsurfer added a new dimension to slacking off. Thanks to Andrew for a new hightower. Next time you fix it, could you please build it straight.

Waterskiing, once again, was a very popular activity. Many veteran campers took fun spins around the lake, while newcomers provided us with some spectacular wipeouts. Keeping with Kadimah tradition, swim instruction was well attended and very successful. Awards offered ranged from yellow (shallow end) to Bronze medallion and Bronze cross.

The canoeing and sailing programs took off in a hurry this summer. Both ran almost flawlessly under the supervision of Leslie Rosoph, Adam Prossin and Skipper Mark Earhard. Thanks for a great job. For more on canoeing, see page entitled "Leslie Rosoph: The man behind the boats."

I would like to pass on a large amount of thanks. To Jon, Heidi, Mike, Selig, Lisa, Bonnie and Morris, you all made our job a lot easier to cope with. Thanks for your hard work, it never went by unnoticed.

We hope everyone has a great year ahead and hope to see you back next summer!

Land Sports Report

A hush has fallen over the usually excited campers at Camp Kadimah. They are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the newest member of Prime Minister Cohen's Workers Party--the Minister of Sports and Recreation, Peter Nathanson. Peter is visiting camp with the hope of discovering new talent to complete Canada's Olympic camp squad. As a seasoned camper, counsellor and head staff member, he is well qualified for the task which he has undertaken.

Finally, the time has come: a golden carriage pulled by an old tractor, arrives at Kadimah's front gate. The carriage grinds to a dusty stop on the ballfield and out strides Peter (still wearing his old straw hat). Accompanying him is the Minister of Leisure, Walter Blostin, somewhat greying and more haggard looking-- but certainly wiser. The search for talent is about to begin in the many and varied areas of Kadimah's sports facility.

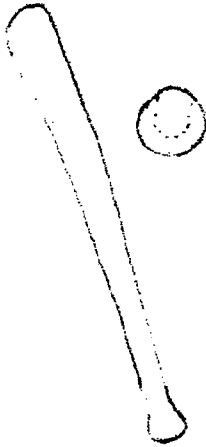

First to the farthest regions-- on the tennis court, the mixed doubles pair of Leslie Gaum and Shawn Sable, are putting on quite a show; very impressive. Right next to the courts, on the auxiliary sports field, a spirited ground hockey game is in progress. As Walter and Peter take in this spectacle, they can't help but be impressed with the tremendous save Allan Frossin has just made on a great shot directed at him by Rod Feiner. Enough of this excitement however, other areas and athletes must still be seen.

Back at the ball field a softball game is in progress. This certainly is always a popular sport and Peter and Walter stop to watch: as the ball is pitched by Jeff Raphael, the team's clean-up hitter, the mighty Lowell Strug swings his bat. The ball is grounded sharply to shortstop where Jon Stein neatly scoops up the ball and throws to first baseman Shael Beckenstein, who digs the ball out of the dirt for the final out. The game is won. WAIT!!!!!! What is this? An exhibition soccer baseball game for Peter's pleasure. Who are those tiny athletes? Hey--they're the Gibbies. What a tremendous show!! But enough of this, Walter and Peter must now view the activities in the Ulam, that massive sports complex in the center of camp.

As they enter the building, they immediately see a basketball game already under way. As usual, spirits are running high but the game is being played cleanly and skillfully. In another section of the Ulam sports complex, two dodgeball games are underway. A furious match of King's Court is being waged by two Goshrim teams-- tremendous competition is obvious. Closeby a game of ga-ga is being played. What can be said of a sport with such a name. Its merits can be seen at a glance.

Finally, the tour winds its way to the ABC field where both Walter and Peter, though totally exhausted, can expect to see plenty. Their first sight is fantastic--Freda Cohen is doing an aerobics class. The class loves it (as do the spectators). A fast moving soccer game is also underway and everybody is getting a KICK out of it. Right after the soccer game is finished a tough football game is scheduled. What a full and exhausting day. Just viewing the events has taken its toll on Walter and Peter--imagine how tired, but happy all the campers must be.

Special thanks to Peter Nathanson, the assistant land sports director, without whose help much of this summer's activities would not have been possible.

Mel Yad Report

From boondoggle to go-carts to cabbage patch kids, we did it all this summer and had a great time doing it. Running the mel yad was a new challenge for me, and it was one that I found to be very satisfying and enjoyable. I was pleased to see all units participating (especially the Macharniks). My thanks go out to everyone for their cooperation. I hope that I will be able to see my way clear to return to Kadimah next summer with some more new and exciting projects

Have a good year. See you all in '85.

Love,

Lisa Brown.

Drama-Bama Report

Some people call it Drama, some people call it Bama. Whatever the case may be I feel that there is one disturbing question that continuously lingers on in each and every one of our bodies. Simply, what is Drama-Bama? If I had a dictionary handy, I would probably give you it's definition, but since I don't have one, who cares!

Quite frankly, I believe Drama is an art in itself. When one thinks of Drama, he usually thinks it's more crucial characteristics such as, concentration, observation, characterization and improvisation. In order for a Drama program to be full, complete and successful, it must incorporate all the above elements.

Camp Kadimah has not had a well situated, or for that matter, a solid Drama program in a number of years. A new Drama program was introduced to Camp this summer. The program consisted of daily peulot and daily chugim. All the sections engaged in these peulot. The campers participated in all sorts of activities and skills that one would expect in a drama workshop. Such activities were warm-ups, mime games, skits and improvisation exercises.

In addition to the daily peulot, there was also a Chug. Basically, the chug was taught once a day, for an hour, for those campers who could not get enough during their peulot.

Furthermore, the Drama/Bama program this summer also presented a weekly Oneg Shabbat program. Every Friday evening, a different section did a camp-wide performance. It being Friday night, the theme was Shabbat. I felt that all the campers and staff know the true importance of Shabbat. The presentations were filled with skits which included all kinds of Hebrew songs and dances.

As I'm writing now, I'm in the process of putting on a minor Machar production. This production which consists of various Biblical scenes, will be presented as a special Oneg on the last Shabbat of camp.

I would like to say that I truly enjoyed being the Drama/Bama director at camp this summer. It was an exciting and fulfilling summer. I met not only new campers but a great bunch of new staff. I guess that is what camp is all about. I feel that it was a successful summer and it's about time that this camp had a well organized and solid Drama/Bama program.

I would like to take this opportunity and thank Bill MacRae for all the time and help that he has contributed to the program within the few days that he was here at camp.

You're probably asking yourselves, what does the future hold for Matt "Scatt" Moyal? Well if I knew, I would tell you. Who knows, if things work out, I would seriously consider coming back next summer.

Well, now I'll be signing off (I think I hear Sheldon calling me... and remember I'm a stickler for punctuality). With that note, I'd like to leave you with this sweet tune (please sing along if you know the words)... "Nothing could be finer than to be with Jill Viner in the morning...."

Sincerely yours,

MATTHEW

Tzofiut Report

Another year has gone by. This time it was 1984 and tzofiut was still tzofiut. To begin with, the addition of just under 3000 extra peulot posed a problem: what do we do with the kids? Well, we started a gibby garden and through advanced technology and a little primitive work we built a permanent migdal with the Macharniks.

On a more positive note, the scouting program was a success this year with the Machar Hityashvut as the highlight of the tripping program. For the Kochot section they were a little unfortunate with their hike due to the unbearable conditions. Last but not least the Gib and Gosh had overnight hikes on Lake Peter which was a success.

In closing, I would like to thank my assistant Bill Chernin for helping to make the Tzofiut program run as smoothly as it did this year.

Thanks again!

Sincerely,

Mark Simon

The Wonderful World Of Canoeing

In 1984, at Kadimah, canoeing was everywhere. Not meaning to overdo the absolutely incredible importance of canoeing, but let's face it, without canoeing this world would be dullsville. Sure, I know you're all saying to yourselves, "Hey, eating is also pretty important", but eating is nothing without a good canoe afterwards.

Without going any further, let's get one thing straight. The canoe program was a complete success this year. In camp, the outstanding skills and splashing techniques of Adam Prossin made for a superb peddle-boat and canoeing extravaganza. It's almost scary when you think of how many boats Adam has untied this summer. So next time you see Adam, shake his hand and give him a big thank-you, unless you're a girl in which case you can also add in a kiss. (note that the kiss is optional).

Now let's divide up into groups and chat about canoe trips. The trips add a certain zest and bounce to the otherwise normal, not hum-drum, Kadimah lifestyle. This year, all the sections in camp participated on canoe trips, including C.I.T.'s and many humble staff members.

This year the Giborim all-star canoe trip broke all previous Kadimah records. They travelled through three lakes, completing their voyage with a much deserved swim at luxurious Tecky Beach. From Cabin C, Morris, Aaron, Lewis, Micah, Willie "Mitch Brown" Strugg, and Steven were all fast paddlers. From Cabin 74, Tanya, Rachel, Lisa, Debbie and my wonderful and talented little sister Joy Laing showed their excellence. Special thanks go out to Howie, Mike and Sam "i've got a lot on my mind" Webber, for keeping their kids cool in the hot sun by unexpected and random soakings. It's fun to be unpredictable! Thanks go out to Amy "The biggest gibby" Newman for her help throughout the summer and to Marci Cohen for providing the inspiration for the trip. Actually the last part about Marci is a lie, but, I thought I'd mention her name because I miss her!

At the time of this writing, Goshrim has had two mega(not small) canoe voyages. On these two trips certain people should be mentioned for both excellent or purely silly reasons. Marnie Stein will only paddle if fed a piece of chocolate every few minutes. What would happen if we gave her a whole bar? Frightening, isn't it? Peter, Adam P. and the author(and Morris G.) wish to thank Jennifer Gaum just for being her sweet, lovable self. Tobi needed a security guard to keep him from escaping from the trip. Beth and Shayna should be thanked for displaying large quantities of talent. Speaking of talent, how could we forget that lovable, amazing, athletic, compassionate Queen of the Goshies, Andrea "fun in the sun" Besnos. Lou and Alan Goldman should both be thanked(according to Sherri Yack) as well as Mike Stein and Jan Nathanson. Speaking of Nathanson$, Peter should be thanked for countless help and humour on the docks.

The third Gosh canoe trip was down the Kadimah Amazon with Philip Abraham and Aaron Surkis as explorers. Let's all join hands, number off and thank Andrea for a fabulous iton, warmth and wisdom.

Now we'll get down to beaucoup de fun, la Kochot section. Kochot went on more canoe trips this year than any other in the history of the free world. This is not open to debate. A total of eight trips, both large and small were enjoyed by many exciting people. Some shall be named for no important reason. Shari "not a nerd" Blostin provided entertainment in her bikini bottom. I'd like to thank Stacey, Alicia, Robin, Lisa, Julie Gloworm and Amy for creating a new meaning to the word slow. Jody Lipkus has a fake aunt we go to visit each trip. Rachel burnt nicely. Elissa should be listed because she lives near me. Sam and Sari told me of the slight difference between life in N.Y. and Antigonish. "There is no difference!" Sharon Rauch is a great kid! Matt and Greg showed that science can travel over water. Adam Shore, Jon Ross, and Paul broke the beaver dam before they could be stopped. It was so sad. They are mean people. Sluggo, Uri, David and Jon showed superior intelligence and good manners while canoeing. Dave Ross should have worn pink. Jon Stein likes Heidi Rubin and that shows extremely good taste. Mike "Mr. Ruach" Yablon displayed outstanding cheering throughout the summer. A career on "20 minute workout" is in the store for him. Jamie could have gone to Keji if someone had driven him there. Quite seriously, he deserved to go. Rob "the fish" Astroff and Robbie "I'm all ears" Cohen engaged in gossip and seeking out private information. Finally the Brian Indig "Express" with Jon Strugg and Scatt as lead singer gave new meaning to the song "Where the doves cry". Short thank you to Risa for being a Kosher canoeist.

Now we move to la creme de la creme, Camp Machar, which is only 16 years old and remember that learning to stern is like having a sweet sixteen. The first trip was for newcomers only, and provided me with many diverse first impressions that were totally incorrect. From the hityashvut, nine brave lads canoed back to camp via safe white water. Thanks to Evan for his fearless style and hairpin turns. We'd like to thank Robert Chippin for surviving. There were two (deux) trips to Keji canoe trips which were as different as night and day. On Keji #1, the high spirits and bubbly personalities of Heidi Brown and Morris Green(scarbelly) made for an absolute thunderstorm of fun. Miriam tried to tell us her spine-tingling life story, but, the excitement overcame us and we dozed off.

There is a vicious rumour that an x-rated truth, dare, doubledare game was played by Gil, Hila, Shawn, Adam, Stewy, Karen, Amir, Sharon, and Jason. Note that for the first time this summer the twins were not listed next to each other. Lesley Gaum(not to be confused with anybody else) sang beautifully and showed us all of her amazing qualities that I hope everybody appreciates. Finally, Cindels--birthday girl--Pink, that dynamo of unnamed activities, helped to explain camp frat rules as I had never seen them explained before. Keji #2 under the awesome direction of Yoram and Hugh had the weather, wine and women. There was no wine, I lied. Brent, Barry and Jordan were all Portage-eager beavers. Lisa and Fran proved that they were not Islands. Eva, soon to be a Hollywood starlet, was dynamic yet a tad hyper. Sherri-heart-a-yak played Dear Abby very well. Alanarama, not a seat wetter, was the most excellent conversationalist I have ever met. This has nothing to do with canoeing but who cares, this is my article. Stacey B. was heavy into rock and roll. Lets all celebrate name number one hundred, Maxelle Yablonsky. She has given canoeing a whole new perspective. Naomi played alot of bad charades with me, and Tracey Beth Ester should be thanked for teaching an uncoordinated person "give me a little kiss" . Now as the end draws near you are all a year older, a bit taller and ready to return to camp. Let's thank Sheldoan, and Mitch the ski, our beloved leaders, who have helped become the greatest thing since canned tuna. Melanie should be commended for her able bodied assist nce and cool calm logic(in all situations).

Well it's very late now and well past all our bedtimes. The tape of Burning Down the House is just about worn out. There is a message that ^{can be} clearly seen by all the names listed. The trips are only fun because of the wonderful people involved. So when you remember your trips years from now, treat them as you would a warm puppy(cuddly). The memories of these trips are something to cherish, but, they won't chew up your slippers. THANK-YOU everyone for all your help. Remember to relax and have a great time.

Love Leslie 2"8

P.S. I'd like to thank Alana And Beth for moral support and especially Morris Gavachansky Green, who is the greatest Jewish, athletic, witty, moustached, magnum P.I.-like, male typist in the free world as you know it and love it.

I'm from Kadimah and I'm hot
That don't mean I sweat alot
I won't work like any man
I'm just here to get a tan.

Camp Kadimah's 60th Anniversary

As the 60th anniversary of Camp Kadimah rolls around, we'd like to take this opportunity to look back upon some of the tremendous improvements that have taken place here over the last 20 years. After all, at the time of the 40th anniversary reunion in 1984, it would have been virtually impossible to imagine all the developments that lay ahead in the next twenty years.

In 2004, the camp is slightly overcrowded, as a package of land stretching from the tennis courts to the bonfire site had to be sold to some Toronto real estate developers. The luxury condominiums have an excellent view of the camp's waterfront, and of course the multi-story car park is available for staff parking during the summer.

Campers and staff pass by the condominiums on their occasional trips to the "general store." The nickname "general store" has of course stayed in popular use; even though Mader's Red and White was replaced by a Dominion in 1994, and expanded into the Barss Corner Mall in 1999, with major occupants Eaton's, Simpson's and the Bay. Needless to say, many of our campers and staff feel much more at home in the air-conditioned comfort and excitement that the new mall provides.

For the lazier campers and counsellors, it is now possible to choose between the Barss Corner express bus that stops on the highway outside the former tennis courts, and the Barss Corner rapid transit subway system, that stops at Ulam Station and Barn Station.

As for the camp itself, the waterfront has been greatly improved by the introduction of computerized buddy tags and a photosensitive turnstile at the high tower. With the new solar heating panel that spans the lake, the waterfront is permanently heated. Thus the camp schedule no longer has to revolve around the gibbies getting their swim instruction last pe'ulah.

The newly installed permanent video and light show in the Ulam has made the Saturday night socials more popular than ever. And, as far as music goes, the hundred-meter broadcasting tower has greatly improved radio reception for CKBC all over Lunenburg County.

However, the broadcasting antenna is no longer the landmark it once was. It has been completely overshadowed by the Camp Committee Observation Tower which has just been built to replace the Machar Migdal. (Nobody seemed to know what the Migdal was for in the first place.) The Observation Tower is a large concrete, steel and reflective glass structure that allows the Camp Committee to observe all camper and staff activities both directly and via closed circuit television. With this new system, videotapes of suspect activities can be beamed by the Camp's satellite (Hafta'ah-1) directly to the Halifax office of the AJC for appropriate action.

Finally, it was unfortunate that Maccabia had to be cancelled for this season. Camp still maintained the excitement of a competitive sporting event, however, since Barss Corner was chosen as the site of the 28th Olympic Summer Games for 2004.

At any rate, it is evident that the miracles of modern technology have brought numerous improvements to the quality of life at Camp Kadimah. Who knows what changes we can look forward to at the Camp's centennial?

Cabin 4 Report

Cabin 4 was originally made up of Matt "Scatt" Moyal and Stephen "Flo" Flomen. Then we found out through the grapevine that Peter "Wind" Nathanson needed a place to bunk. With open arms and kisses (and we're not talking Hershey's) Matt and Stephen welcomed the missing link to what has now become the infamous threesome. You might be asking yourselves why we took in Peter, well the answer is simple. He's a Capers and we feel sorry for Capers. It's not that they smell bad their parents always bring good food on Visiting Day and of course he had a car in camp which was the big factor in our decision. Peter is the Assistant Sports Director and is always on the ball. There is no doubt that Peter will be Head Sports next year.

Now that you know about Peter "Wind" Nathanson and his Assistant Sports job we go to Matt "Scatt" Moyal. This nice Sephardic boy, who knows 1001 ways to use kuss kuss. Matthew first started at Camp Kadimah in 1981 when they were desperate for staff. Matt not knowing what Kadimah was all about accepted his humble, meager salary. Now in his third year on staff, Matt is now the Drama Director and doing a great job. Along with his responsibilities to Drama, Matt engages himself in various camp services ie. Shabbat Services, socials and Shannah.

Last but not least is Stephen "Flo" Flomen or Stephanuamos Flomenski. Why Stephan....., who knows, it's a long story. Stephen started camp in 1975 as a camper and in 1982 became a counsellor. Now he is the Kochot Section Head (don't ask how it happened, no Sheldon is not his relative). Being Kochot Section Head is no easy job and Stephen usually be found in the section herding the kids to programs.

Some of the memories of Cabin 4:

- remember when we all forgot our hats to lunch
- remember when we didn't show up for meals on time
- remember when we were sticklers, yes sticklers
- =remember when the lock is unlocked, it means something.
- remember when we all got the same cowboy hats
- remember when we got the cooler in the cabin (we made many new friends)
- =remember when we went to Tomorrow's, a lounge, and Peter couldn't remember all those people (BOB'S) he met
- remember when we were all judges
- remember when we missed the fire alarm
- Who can remember anymore.

Could you be a counsellor at Camp Kadimah?

Hey kids, (and counsellors too)! Why not take this quiz and see how well suited you are to be a member of the camp's wonderful staff?

1. How would you treat the son/daughter of a camp committee member?
 - a) Give them a single bed, double food and triple attention
 - b) Same as everyone else
 - c) Give them a double bed, no food, and make them take the newspaper. chug
2. What's your favorite food?
 - a) Macaroni dessert
 - b) Peanut butter and jam sandwiches
 - c) Steak
3. Which of the following is closest to your ideal night off?
 - a) Partying at Bridgewater Mall
 - b) Dancing at Sparkles
 - c) Champagne and caviar at the Dairy Kone
4. How should one deal with cabin-hoppers?
 - a) Get Peter to punish them.
 - b) get Walter to punish them.
 - c) get Kenny to look the other way.
5. What are your favorite activities
 - a) Cabin clean up
 - b) Planning yetzirahs and evening programs
 - c) An afternoon at the yacht club
6. What is your first priority in the morning?
 - a) Getting to hafta'ah
 - b) Catching Z's
 - c) Choosing between Topsiders and Nikes
7. What do you like about buggy duty?
 - a) The opportunity to serve your fellow counsellors and appreciative campers
 - b) A chance to meet new friends
 - c) the opportunity to ignore head staff
8. Where would you prefer to go for a Hit Yashvut?
 - a) Hike to Indian Falls to meet the grizzlies
 - b) Hitch-hike to Halifax Airport
 - c) Three nights at the Bridgewater Best Western
9. It's 10pm and your campers are in bed. Now what will you do?
 - a) Find a quiet corner and prepare yetzirahs and evening programs for possible future use, then get to bed early.
 - b) Catch the latest flick playing at the Moadon.
 - c) Sit in the C.L., play tetherball at Cabin 32, steal food from your campers, have some fun with shaving cream, and find other creative ways to waste time until curfew.

Scoring: Give yourself 20 points for each time you picked (a), 10 for each (b), and 5 for each (c). If you scored between 45 and 80, then general staff is not for you. But maybe there's an opening for you on head staff. If you scored between 80 and 120, you're hired! (Better find a part time job for the winter.) If you scored between 120 and 180, let's face it, you don't belong here. Try for a better paying job at a camp like Walden or Timberlane!

How the Staff Spent Machar Day

(A report to Sheldon)

Machar Day provides an extremely important educational experience for macharniks. For the staff, the day proved to be equally educational.

Those of us who spent the day at Risser's Beach would like to share some of our experiences with you.

The first thing we learned about was a certain cheap Scottish restaurant at the Bridgewater Plaza. Its name, however, must be kept anonymous, in accordance with camp kashrut regulations.

Next we learned how to get to Risser's Beach once abandoned at Bridgewater Plaza. The procedure was simple enough: with eight people comfortably seated in each taxi, it only took two taxis to get us to the beach.

Once we arrived at the beach, we immediately began to consume lots of liquid, since it was such a hot day. It was a pleasant change from drinking bug juice out of a garbage can, and we were all cheerful for the rest of the day.

One thing we couldn't figure out was why Sobes and Presement were digging holes in the sand and lying on top of them. Perhaps the walk to the washrooms was a little too far.

We enjoyed dancing to the beat of All Night Long with a crowd of onlookers. The spectators also appreciated a swell wrestling match between Sobes and Neil. (Neil, perhaps suffering from a little too much fun in the sun, didn't fare very well.) As the afternoon took its toll on our imaginations, Jon Falk and Mike Presement attempted to create woman from the dust, with some success, relative to the local girls we saw at the beach. Ellen's attempt to create a life-like sand sculpture of Jeff was fairly successful, except (perhaps due to wishful thinking and wild imagination) for a few features that were vastly out of proportion.

We used up most of the nation's surplus of suntan oil, and finally decided it was time to present our lobster tans back in civilization. (In fact, the whole day was slightly unkosher.)

Those of us who opted for chinese food enjoyed our meal at Ko's Restaurant (King St.), and would like to dedicate this article to our harrassed waitress, Shelley. Shelley provided service with a smile, something rarely seen outside of buggy duty back at camp. But for some reason, she refused to bring us a jar of peanut butter.

Finally, be sure to see the new sequel to that old camp movie favorite, coming out March 17, 1985. That's right, Meatballs, Spaghetti and Cheese is now being filmed on location in Bridgewater, New Germany and Barss Corner.

Thanks, Machar, for giving us an educational and very existential day off.

Your general staff,

Bill H. Chernin

STARGAZING

When the sun goes down and the moon comes up and darkness embodies the very heart of Camp Kadimah, who are you gonna call? THE STARGAZERS! They hide behind cabins and lurk in the shadows, just waiting... Waiting to capture the breathtaking beauty of the New Germany skies. Slowly they creep into the unknown and unexplored territories around the tennis courts. They shiver slightly for fear, yet tingle for excitement over the incredible experience that awaits. Finally they reach their destination and make themselves comfortable on the surrounding grassy fields. They mellow out slowly and each has his head resting on the other's stomach. They are now in the stargazing position! Oh what a night! What a glorious night! The stars are glistening and the heavenly bodies are so vivid, they bring a tear to the eye. It is one tremendous, twinkling vision of ecstasy.

Thank you Jan, Selig and Morris for helping me to discover the true meaning of life as we know it. So look up, see in the beauty. STARGAZING 84, a new dimension in having fun.

MY COUSIN MITCH

Mitch Brown is my cousin. He is my dad's brother's son. He has the same last name as me. He has the same nose as me. He is the assistant director and the waterfront director. Some people think that he has an easy job, but I know the truth. I love my cousin Mitch because he is dedicated to Camp Kadimah. Sometimes he yells at me but I know he doesn't really mean it. I'm sure he loves me as much as I love him. Thanks Mitch, for just being you.

Love, Heidi

MY COUSIN HEIDI

Heidi Brown is my cousin. She is my dad's brother's daughter. She has the same last name as me. She has the exact same nose as me. She is a measly Machar madricha. Some people think that she has an easy job but I know the truth. I love my cousin because she is dedicated to Camp Kadimah. Sometimes Heidi misbehaves but I'm sure she doesn't mean it. I'm sure she loves me as much as I love her. Thanks Heidi, for being you.

Love, Mitch

The Kentuck Craze

The Kentuck craze began just prior to pre-camp in the thriving metropolis of Halifax, N.S. Probably the most neglected of all fast food restaurants, Kentuck is usually passed up for McDonald's or Burger King, which isn't really fair. So we decided to give the Colonel the chance he deserves. After long consultation, we burst through the doors and saw the smiling face of Verna, who proceeded to set us up with half a dozen snack packs, or snacks for short. We were so delighted with the freshness and flavor of Kentuck, that we were engulfed in the Kentuck craze (which in many ways resembles a cult).

Camp began, and we had no Kentuck for three weeks. Needless to say, we were all nervous wrecks. Then it happened: our night off, and Kentuck was both our first and last stop. I can honestly say it was the happiest moment of the summer when we were reunited with the Colonel face to face. The craze then started to get out of control; people were importing it by the thrift box. Luckily no buckets entered camp on Visiting Day. There was Kentuck everywhere! We were going crazy - Kentuck dark meat, white, and breast, fries, and of course, cole slaw!

After Visiting Day, we controlled the influx of Kentuck to the point where we still received it once a week. We'll never forget the Colonel for sharing his secret recipe with us. Colonel Sanders, you are a real friend, one who we will never forget.

We'd like to take this opportunity to salute the Kentuck family: Jeff Feldman, Mike Soberman, Phil David, Evan Zel, Neil Brown, Lou Goldman, Bill H. Chornin, Mike Stein, and of course Heidi Brown. Our bucket lids are open to you!

And, in memory of the Colonel, we posted his picture for all the staff to see in the C.L.

My Summer At Kadimah

I arrived at Kadimah as a little boy, left my home in the city and my friends who are gay. Three summers as a gibbie I did spend, if you think you kids are rotten, we started the trend. Then onward to Goshrim in '73, '74, where I first tried to sneak to the store. Then came Kochot where it started to flex, that I was gaining interest for the opposite sex. Then in 1977, I started my two years in Machar, which were without a doubt my best so far. My friends and the good times were really it. We laughed, we cried, and we caused a lot of sh--. But now I'm on Head staff, and not to throw a damper, but the best times at Kadimah are when you're a camper!

Hugh Smilestone

The Assistants Speak Out

In the beginning, G-d (not Sheldon), created assistants and then He created people who he thought deserved useless figurehead positions.

A startling fact must be unleashed to the entire camp. We assistants control the complete mechanics of this exclusive commune.

It truly is a myth that the people they hired as directors of different activities in camp actually have any clues what so ever. While they get all the recognition, we sit quietly on the sidelines hardly ever displaying our tattered emotions.

All assistants start their days by waking at 5:00 in the morning and then proceeding for a short 10 mile uphill run followed by 53 laps of our distinguished pool. This is evident by our physical being, health and non-chalant, easy-going attitudes. This is to make it perfectly clear that the reason we all came to camp is our love of children and our unstopping concern for their well-being. Even though our collective salary couldn't b a "6/49" ticket camp stimulates our sense of what is proper and necessary.

After our swim the directors approach us and plead for their daily schedules which we have, of course, already prepared. Even then our early morning work is not done, we must dress them and lead them to breakfast. At the meal table we carefully feed them so as not to get their pretty clothes dirty.

After all this is done we take them to the areas of their first peulot where we prop them up in the best sun-tanning position, where they remain until snack. Because of this, it is we, the assistants, who must put up with the endless onslaught of mindless campers for the duration of the daylight hours.

Darkness signals the end of our directors' day. We assistants put our directors to bed; the end of their day but certainly not ours. Reports, more reports, inventory, peulot and chugim plans all must be developped. Thus, while the directors get their beauty sleep, we work continuously into the wee hours of the morning.

What you have just read is a true account of what actually ccurs every day in the camp life of camp assistants, the true heroes of at least this summer.

Sincerely yours, the assistants of 1984.

Adam Prossin (asst. dir. of canoeing)
Bill H. Chernin (asst. dir. of tzofiut)
Lewis Chernin (asst. waterfront dir.)
Peter Nathanson (asst. land sports dir.)

Writing assistance given by Peter, Lewis, Bill H., Adam)

P.S. The reason for Mitchell Brown's exclusion because he holds two positions, one forever forcing him from assistant's status.

To whom it may concern:the following poem is dedicated to all those staff and campers who are seriously concerned in seeking out the true life of a specialist.

People think being a specialist is a lot of fun,
You sleep all day and sit in the sun,
This is not true and I don't mean to bark,
But then again you may be right, just look at Mark.
Actually Mark Simon's a great guy, I must truly say,
Hey Mark, remember that night when we went to Mahone Bay.
Oh! Of course you don't remember that wasn't you,
I sort of made a mistake, it was actually the Hugh Hughie, I bet you remember that night just like a boulder, especially when I scored the bandana holder.
Then there's my roommate, Peter Nay,
Who, believe it or not, is not really gay.
Peter's also a great guy, I must truly reap,
Except for those nights when he talks in his sleep.
Then there's Lisa who's in charge of Melyad,
I helped her one day make some clay but, for all I know it could have been mud,
Last but not least, there's Heidi Forman,
Who, for our sakes hasn't stopped grownin'.
Heidi, I love you, so don't get me wrong,
G-d knows we've known each other for so, so long.
Well now that I've mentioned all the speciali sts, I must really go,
For I hear someone calling, and it's not the Flo.
I love you Kadimah, I've had a great time,
Please forgive me if this poem doesn't rhyme.
Love ya,

SEATT MOYAL

P.S.Kadimah--How can you just leave me standing alone in a world so cold,
Maybe I'm just too demanding
Maybe I'm just like my father, too bold,
Maybe I'm just like my mother, she's never satisfied.
How can we scream at each other,
When this is what it sounds like when doves cry...

-Prince.

GIBBORIM

Giborim Section Head Report

We certainly didn't have time to miss "Ma and Pa" but, we did have a lot of time to have a fabulously fun summer.

You all have a lot of energy and spirit. You should be proud of the participation and sportsmanship that was shown all summer in your activities.

The garden and your marigolds actually grew. Though the corn may not be ready til October, the radishes pulled through. The playground will be there next summer for all of you to finish working on.

To my staff, I couldn't have done it without you. I bet you never thought a summer could be so tiring and rewarding at the same time. I love you all. Hope to see you back next year whether it is in the Goshrim or the Giborim section.

Love,

Amy

Giborim Section Song: Zippideedooda

Watch out Kadimah the Gibbies are here,
Through the summer you will all hear us cheer,
Tho' we are small, we'll outshine all the rest,
We'll show you with our zip and our zest.
All summer we'll be playing,
And when we're done, we know what you will all be saying.
Boating, swimming, sports and bama
We don't have time to miss Ma and Pa,
Everyday there's fun and much more,
Giborim section of Camp '84.

On Saturday they read the name at the social. I wasn't very excited that I was on yellow team again, but when we started to compete it wasn't so bad. It was a lot of fun. At mifkad the last night, I was surprised that it was so close, by 30 points.
Yellow won.

Carnival Day this year was early. It was in between the second and third week of camp. They broke it at lunch like last year and a few others. Anyways, after lunch, Lisa Strugg and I were walking around playing games and trying to earn money, because when carnival day would come to an end, we would have a head staff slave auction. Well after the auction, guess who we got.....Alan Goldman!!!! WOW!!!!

Goshrim Section Report

Before I got to camp, I was a little nervous about how the section was going to run. And you know what? I was right. Looking after 43 10 and 11 year olds, as well as 9 18 and 19 year olds is not a piece of cake. But after everyone got settled into the daily routine, the section ran smoothly. Aside from the daily peulot, Goshrim went on an outing to Ed Amos' Maplegrove Farms to pick fresh strawberries. WE managed to bring back enough strawberries to supply the entire camp for 2 days. There was also the Goshrim overnight hike on Anson Minor Day. It was enjoyed by all.

The evening programs this summer turned out to be really successful. The campers really enjoyed the rock concert, Sunday Night Live, Movies and the Chinese Auction. Overall, the summer was a huge success.

Thanks to the Goshrim staff; Neil, Alan, Mark, Mike, Bill H., Jan, Binnie, Sharon and Lisa for making my job a little bit easier and a lot more fun. I hope everyone enjoyed Goshrim '84 and will come back to Camp Kadimah for years to come.

Luv and much good luck,

Andrea Besnos

Goshrim Section Song-

Tune: Bad, Bad Leroy Brown

On the Chadar side of Kadimah, it's the coolest side of camp,
And if you dare to wander on down our way, you'll see our style cannot be cramped.

Us Goshrim kids are laughin', and always on the move,
We have our fun and when it's done, we're sure you'll all approve.
We're GOSH/RIM '84, the greatest kids you'll ever score,
We're back this year to play and cheer like you've never heard before.
Kadimah, wait and see, we're sure that you will all agree,
Gosh this year has all the gear and that's where you'd want to be

Camp this year was great fun,
We had some laughs and lots of sun.
There were a lot of things to do,
You could swim, you could dance or steer a canoe.
I never get bored, Oh Thank the Lord,
So come to camp and you will see
How fun it is, just you and me!

- 2.They say that at Kadimah, the food is mighty fine. A pea rolled off the table and killed a friend of mine.
- 3.They say that at Kadimah, the pay is very fine. They give you $50, and take back $49.
- 4.They say that at Kadimah, the tents are waterproof. You wake up in the morning, you're floating on the roof.

Camp was really great this year. We had Maccabia too! We have swimming, melyad, Bama and Shirkud and lots of activities for you. But best of all, we have no fear of beautiful Lake William this year. When we leave no one will grieve because we know the next six weeks are near.

Lisa Gaum

I am at camp for my fourth year. There is alot of fun, songs and cheer/ There is Melyad, Bama and boats for you, scouting, swimming and sports too. Maccabia, five days of frun, lots of spirit from everyone. There is Machar Day and Israel Day too, That's a lot of enjoyment for you. Carnival is also here, lots of fun and no fear. If I told you all about it, I'd continue on like a bottomless pit.

Jenny Pink

This year in Kadimah has been a really great summer. Andrea Besnos is a very nice section head. Because of her, our programs are alot of fun. But we can't forget our counsellors, Lisa and Sharon. They're fun too.

My Summer in Kadimah

This is my first summer being in Kadimah. I was really nervous about coming here. Now that I'm settled, I feel that I lived here all my life. It was really funny when I found out I'd be with 3 Jennifers. I'll never forget when I went cabin hopping and Kenny Gordon caught us. I was so scared. I'm having lots of fun here. I have many friends and I hope to come back next year.

Yifaat Gamliel

Did you know that in Swahili, Kadimah means love? And that's true at Camp Kadimah. People say that there are lots of lovers at camp. But is it true??? Does Morris really love Alexis? Is Pinky in love with Marni, or did she just forget her slippers in his cabin last night? Is it true that Debra Stern and Derek Sherman have kissed for more than five minutes at a time? What did Lisa and Mark really do on their night off? Did they really roast marshmallows on the lake, or did they do something else? Does Mike Blumenthal really like Penny? Or does he like Beth? Is it true that Lisa Gaum is now the Rinzler woman? Does Jennifer really like Benjy, or Adam? Nobody Knows!!!!

Rona Barrett of Camp Kadimah

Hughie

Hughie says that he loves camp but he doesn't know why. Then I asked him a personal question, how long do you and Andrea stay up every night and he said 12:00 because he needs his beauty sleep. Andrea doesn't need hers because she is already beautiful. Then I asked him how often he takes a shower and he said, once every day because he believes in cleanliness. He also said that he goes to Halifax once a week. We all love Hughie a whole bunch.

Camper Junk Food Supply, Before and After Visiting Day

On July 28th, practically all the junk food in camp was gone. How did that happen? What is food for? Eating of course. July 29th arrives; junk food galore. All parents bring kids junk. Sunday night--half of the junk food in camp-gone. How? Have you ever heard of parties? Well, if you have, do you know what you do at parties? You kill your junk food supply. By next compulsory letter writing day, mostly all the kids in camp are asking for more junk. As a result-----STOMACH SICKNESS!!!!

Bena Medjuck

This year I think camp is better because sports is good and the waterfront is good. Visiting Day was good also because I got lots of food.

AdamBlock

Camp is a lot of fun, especially Maccabia. I was on blue team and I came second. I like Melyad because I make things out of clay, like tigers and snakes. I hate sports, but aside from that, camp is great

Joey Yazer

My year in Kadimah '84 is great. One of the best things about camp is Maccabiah, even though we lost. I had a lot of fun. Yellow-1; Blue-2; White-3; Red-4. I have two of the best staff in Goshrim. Their names are Neil Brown and Mark Pasternak, whose nickname is Hawkeye.

David Lipkus

Cabin Hopping '84

Almost every night we go cabin hopping to Cabin 30. We have gotten caught every time, except for once. The time we weren't caught, we spent most of the time hiding.

Jennifer Offman

Visiting Day this year was a smash. I woke up that morning very early. Then breakfast and after that was mifkad. They started to bring the parents in and Sheldon wouldn't let us go. I got lots of junk food. It was my first visiting day because this is my first year at camp. Before I knew it, visiting day was over.

Alia Offman

Visiting Day

On July 29th 1984, we were at Mifkad when they opened the doors. Parents were running all around camp, just to find their little tramp.

The excitement we thought would never stop, while kids run around to find Mom and Pop.

When they looked at our cabin, and saw the dirt, they looked at my clothes and said, "What happened to your white shirt".

After mom and dad left, we got into the junk and after a while, the cabin stunk

Cabin Hopping '84

Lesson #1: First make sure your counsellors are gone.

Lesson #2: Then check out your window for shmira

Lesson #3: Sneak out your window or door

Lesson #4: Go to the cabin of your choice and have fun

Toby Carnat and Mike Blumenthal

We go cabin hopping almost every night. We have gotten caught every time but once. The time we didn't get caught, we spent most of the time hiding under the beds. All of our cabin goes except for 2 or 3 people. We usually go to cabin 30 or 32. It's still fun even if you get caught.

Jennifer Silverman

We always go cabin hopping at night, and shmira always puts up a fight.

Debra Stern and I tried to charge the bridge last night, but Lewis Chernin took a spaz with all his might.

He said we wouldn't go to the General store, but I don't think we're going, so it doesn't matter anymore.

Penny Dankner

Carnival Day

This year's Carnival Day was really exciting. I went in the talking contest and found myself there the whole time. Although I was in the talking contest, there were many more fun activities, like shaving the balloon, back massages and dunk the head staff. Carnival Day '84 was one of the best.

Heather Astroff

On Tuesday, July 17th, 1984, it was Carnival Day at Camp Kadimah. There were about 20 games set up to play. One game was called, Dunk the Head Staff. You had to throw a ball at a bucket of water and if the ball hit the bucket, it fell and water poured over the head staff. There was another game called, How many cookies can you eat in one minute? A couple of the other games were; the kissing booth, shave the balloon, squirt the dots, talking contest, clown make-up, bubble gum blowing contest, hop on one foot and a dart game. At almost every game, if you won, you'd get money for the slave auction later that night for evening program. Some kids are, drank and some even had fun. This Carnival Day was one of the best ever.

Robin Cohen

Slave Auction

On Carnival Day, we got money for everything we won. Cabins combined their loot and bought slaves. After you bought your slave, you could dress them up. Make them do your work, give you back massages etc. It was fun. Stephen Flomen and Lewis Chernin are very good slaves, and look cute as girls.

Sara-Lynne Levine

Our Slave

Our slaves were Stephen and Lewis. After we were finished, we were sure that they would sue us, for we dressed them as girls. With their hair in curls and showed them to staff, which made them laugh.

Linda Rauch

What would cabin 33 be without:
Jennifer Silverman's boyfriends
Jennifer Offman's braveness
Jennifer Gaum's good friends Marnie and Marcie
Leah's laughter
Robin's cuteness
Sarah's happiness
Alia's top bunk
Chara's cabin hopping
Marnie's voice
Yifaat's being nice
Marcie's dancing
Lisa's good friend Mark
Sharon's wanting a shower

Heather Astroff

My counsellors are Neil and Mark. They are nice most of the time, but sometimes they are mean. Our section head, Andrea, she is nice but when it comes to clean-up, she starts getting mad.

When we go cabin hopping, we usually go to cabin 33. I sometimes don't go because I don't like the punishments that much.

Punishments of cabin hopping: Mopping and sweeping the chadar, run around the sports field, do toranut etc.

Derek Ross

Our section head is Andrea this year. She is very nice. When you have a problem, you know she will understand and she is always fair. If you knew her, you'd like her a lot too!

Even though we did not make it to free Palestine, we had a lot of fun trying to get there. At the end of Haganah Night, we sang some Hebrew songs. It was great fun

Lisa Gaum

Camp is the greatest. It is the very best, but the Goshrim section is better than the rest. We swim, we dance, we jump, we prance, and we cabin hop too! So at camp, we will have fun, just me and you.

Beth Chernin

Maccabia

One night during the social, we went to watch the new Camp Kadimah movie, and the Head Staff were on the screen dressed in black shirts. Then they turned off the movie and put on the lights. It really was true. They told us to be quiet because they were going to read out the names for the teams. There were four teams; Yellow, Blue, White and Red. Then we had to go to team meetings. I was on Yellow team. The next day was preparation. The next days were swim meet, regatta and track meet. Yellow won the track meet. Some people were working on the banner. Well, the last night of Maccabia we went to the Chadar to have snack. Then Mitchell dismissed us to Mifkad. He read out the points. Yellow won over Blue by only 30 points.

Chara McIvor

Haganah Night-

During Maccabia, we had Haganah night. The whole point of this was to get from the ABC field to the auxiliary sports field. Then we got there, after going through the red cross and immigration. Then we made money out of paper and that is how we got there.

Goshrim Goes Strawberry Picking

One afternoon after snack, Andrea Besnos, the Goshrim section head, told us that the next day we were going strawberry picking. Everybody in Gosh got really excited. So the next day, Hughie Smilestone took us in the van to a farm. We picked about 7 buckets of strawberries and came back to camp. It was good to be back at camp again but we had a great time.

Heather Astroff

Cabin Hopping

Every night, when our counsellors leave, we wait about 5 minutes and then put our shoes on and open the door to check if the coast is clear. Then we sneak across to cabin 30. We stay for about 5 minutes and then we are ready to leave, but we see "SHMIRA" go into our cabin to discover that we are missing. We then see them heading for cabin 30, where we are. We hear them coming up the steps, opening the door and then they start looking for us. If we get caught, we usually just get yelled at and go back to our cabin and wait for the next night.

Talent Show

On Sunday, July 29th, there was a big talent show at camp. The prizes for the campers was a trip to the Dairy Cone. For the best staff act- they would get an extra night off. There were many different acts, like solo dances, singing, comedy acts etc. They were all very good and funny. The judges said it was a very close decision. The next morning at Mifkad, they announced the winners. For the staff, Craig Offman won after singing an original song. It was a real success. Everyone had a lot of fun. Everyone thought that it was the best talent show ever.

Being in The News-Paper

It's very fun. Every day we came here ready to write. It's fun. I've been in this chug for all of them. We take the articles and put them into different sections. I've been in almost every section. Susan and Jon F. are the heads of the news-paper. This is how you describe it: freaky, funky, and fun.

Alia Offman

Favorite Staff.

Last week I went around asking campers who is their favorite head staff. Well, Morris was in the lead but Mitchell was coming strong. He didn't pass him yet, then Mitchell starts to pass. He passed. At the end Mitchell is stuck with 23 points. The runners up are Morris with 12, and Amy with 6. Well folks, it was a close match. Tune in next year!

Cabin Hopping

This year cabin-hopping was a big thing in Gosh. Mainly the younger girls go cabin-hopping with the younger boys and the same goes for older. Cabin-hopping has always been really fun and each year keeps getting better. It's one of my favorite things to do as well as many others in my cabin.

Favorite Swim Instructors

The other day I asked quite an interesting question. I asked a lot of people who their favorite swim instructors were and it ended up to be Mitchell. Then, second favorite was Lewis, third was Lisa. Even though some people think there's a best instructor, in my opinion, you're all great.

KOCHOT

Kochot Section Head Report

As I set back and remember this summer, a few very special moments always come to my mind. These moments will always be cherished by me. All the fun and laughter with you guys have made this summer, my first as a section head, a very fulfilling opportunity. I learnt about how one person deals with 49 kids and 9 staff. Cabin 15 with all its antics and misbehavior from the likes of Karp "that smoked fish", or Mike Yablonsky, made sure my time was always taken up. In Cabin 16, the girls came to camp hating me but soon realized I was only making sure that everyone would have a good time. Who can forget what happened in cabin 14, when Mike Druckman slept on the top bunk above Uri Carnat; we all thought that if Mike even jumped on his bed, Uri would become part of the ground underneath the cabin. Or what about Adam Shore break dancing and at the same time putting half the guys in the hospital from just being spectators. Of course last but not least by any means, is cabin 13, who gave their share of problems during the summer. Like the time Amy Boniuk just happened to be gargling mouthwash every time I came into the cabin to say goodnite, oh well... or Syma Gaum reminiscing about Hebrew School during the year.

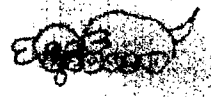

All these moments and more made this summer of 1984, a great experience which could not have been completely possible without the Kochot staff--Adam, Ellen, Gayle, Mike, Jon, Phil, Susan, Selig and Shanah.

Thanks for the Great Summer,

Stephen Flomen

Kochot Section Song: Rock & Roll

We are Kochot of 1984,
We've got the ruach, and so much more,
The other sections ain't got the same soul,
Ours is the one that's on a roll.
Even though the summer takes its toll,
Lasting friendships, chevra is our goal,
Bama, Melyad, Sports and Tzofiut too,
Hey Kadimah, we're a really cool crew.
Gib, Gosh, Machar you know we go with the Flo,
We got him now and we won't let him go,
Us kids are ready now to show you the way,
We're getting so much better everyday.
Everyday-our chevra's getting closer everyday,
Through the hard times and the good times too,
Hey Kadimah, we're the ones for you.

Rollerskating

On a bright sunny day we prepared to go rollerskating. We ate dinner quickly and then went to the roller rink. I thought it would be boring, but we ended up dancing to many favorite songs. On the way back to camp I pigged out on salt & vinegar chips. We went back to our cabins thinking of our enjoyment and full stomachs. I hope we go rollerskating again this year.

Everybody in the whole camp was expecting a great video social. We watched the Triller video. Then we saw a camp movie. Towards the end of the movie the judges were shown and they announced that Maccabia '84 has started. Some people were upset because they were expecting a really great social. Others were happy because they loved Maccabia. The games lasted for five days. Finally it was over. The order was: Yellow, Blue, White, and Red.

Jonathan Ross.

It was a Saturday night. We were watching a camp made movie of video. It was quite interesting. Suddenly head staff came into the video wearing black sweatshirts and holding a sign saying: It's Maccabia. Everyone jumped and cheered at the sight of this. Then Mitchell read off the teams and where they were to go for team meetings. The days past by quickly and the teams Yellow, Blue, White, and Red worked together in harmony. Songs and cheers were written and games played. We worked on Mel Yod displays such as banners, flags and pennants. In the end we were tired and sore but we just couldn't ask for a better Maccabia. I hope you all had fun and learnt the true meaning of this special event.

Anne Israeli

This is my fifth year at Kadimah. It has been a fast year for me. It was a great time because of all the staff. I thank Sheldon Cohen and Stephen Flomen for arranging the time for Kochot section and myself to go rollerskating in Bridgewater. My counsellors this year were Adam Prossin, Jon Falk and last but not least, Selig Wilansky. Thanks Steve and Sheldon for making my year the best ever.

Jonathan Hadari

Dear Kochot '84,

This year has been one of my best years since I've been at this camp. I'd like to thank my counsellors and my section head, Stephen Flomen. Kochot just wouldn't have pulled through without Stephen. This year was a great summer. Maccabia was one of my best times at camp. I'd like to say thank you to my captains Heidi, Selig, Gil and Alana. They were amazing. Well, that's all I have to say. Thank you Camp Kadimah.

Amy Budovitch

Spring

My favourite season is spring,
I see the clouds high in the sky,
And my little brother on the swing.
There's a duck swimming in a pond,
A little puppy, a little kitten,
Oh, of animals I am so fond.
But there's the swan,
Stop and look at the swan,
The swan is white- so clean and pure,
The feathers so soft, perfect for a child to fall asleep on feather pillow.
Its liquid eyes so deep and sincere,
The swan won't cheat or kill you.
The swan swims so gracefully, like a silent dancer,
It has no need for the words that pour out of our mouths.
The swan, like springtime, can come quietly upon you, and leave your heart aching when it leaves.

Jenni Slaven

The Two of Us

Dedicated to my brother, Mike, and I:
So we came to Kadimah, the two of us,
We met new friends, the two of us.
We were put in different sections and different teams,
But it was still the two of us.
Now camp's over and we go back home,
And though we won't stick together,
It will always be the two of us.

Jonathan Stein

This year the food is very good. I like the pizza and the Barbeques. Some meals are the pits.

The sports are very good this year. I liked it a lot when we played mud football. I like it when we play baseball. Thanks Peter.

Brian Indig

Why does Leslie Rosoph like the song, "Burning Down the House" so much? Well we're about to find out. This is Paul Israel reporting.

P: Leslie, who sings the song "Burning Down the House"?

L: Talking Heads

P: Why do you like it so much?

L: Probably I like the singing, the beat, the people in the band, things like that.

P: Well that's very interesting Leslie, I have to go Les, thank you.

L: No problem.

Paul Israel

Well it's Kadimah '84. Camp was lots of fun this year. I owe it to our super section head, Stephen Flomen and my two counsellors, Gayle and Shanah. First of all, I'm Abbie Offman, better known as Nobbie Affma (thanks to Peter Nathanson). I'd like to thank Sheldon and Stephen for the trip to Rissers and Frenchies. Also thanks to Lisa, Robin, Jody, Risa, Alicia and Julie for being so nice to me this year. One more thing: Amy remember sleep with your eyes open and when you least expect it, expect it.

Abbie Offman

One day Abbie and I went out in a sailboat. Before we knew it we were out too far. We were having a lot of trouble getting back. By accident we hit a rock and got stuck. We were scared because there was going to be a big storm. We noticed that there was banging on the bottom of the boat. All of a sudden a hand came out of the water and grabbed my friend. Before I could see what it was it grabbed my arm. Then every thing went blank. When we awoke we were on the senior float in seaweed but safe. We will never know what grabbed us but we have an idea because at the very beginning of camp, some near by indians told the very first campers that there was an old legend of a ghost haunting Lake William.

Abbie Offman and Jacklyn Robin.

One day Abbie Offman, Robin Offman, and I went up to point cabin as a dare. When we got there Robin and Abbie got into a fight. Robin got mad and ran off. All of a sudden we heard screaming! We ran down the path and found Robin's hat on the ground in front of us. Then we noticed footprints off to the side of the path. We followed the footprints for a few feet. We heard rustling in the bushes we looked through the bushes and saw Robin fooling around with her boyfriend. He had snuck up behind her on her way back to camp.

Jacklyn Robin and Abbie Offman

This year for Maccabia I was on Red team. The captains were Phil David, Susan Poizner, Jeff Raphael, and Stacey Burnstein. They were terrific. Haganah Night was the greatest. Even though we lost I had a wonderful time.

Stacey Offman

GO WITH THE FLO!

MACHAR

Dear Machar '84,

"New beginnings always seem to hold hints of insecurity and fear." As the song goes, new beginnings are always difficult. We were all thrown into a situation with people who seemed foreign and with faces that we'd never known before. As we sit here now and reflect upon the last six weeks, we are at a loss for words. How special you have all become to us. How much you've all changed from the first day we met you.

There is so much that we'll never forget. The sandy pancakes and bloody hamburgers on Hityashvut, the 3 minute army drills, I am Eric Block and I'm a bad boy, the Keji trips, the sacrifice program, Machar Day, Machar Day Off, cabin hopping, Evan Zinc, private parties late at night and so much more. Everything you think you got away with, we really did know about it! Yoram knew everything.

But seriously, we tried our best to make this an unforgettable summer and for the four of us, our expectations were met. For Yoram, it was a unique experience working with "North American kids". No problem! For Even and Heidi, it was just incredible finally being back at Kadimah, doing what we had always dreamed of doing-Machar staff. As for Morris, he'll be here at least 10 more years!

A summer without problems is not considered a summer. Fortunately, we worked them out and were strengthened by them. Machar '84 truly became a unit, a camp, to be proud of, and we are all proud of you.

We love you and there will be a void in our lives without you. You really began to grow on us! Hope to see you as soon as possible, Keep in touch.

Love your madrichim,
(the zafik pigs of '84)
Yoram - Israel
Evan - Halifax
Heidi - Toronto
Morris - Halifax

 Jason McIvor-Good stuff in the obstacle course
 David Israel-Good decision to come to us
 NEXE YEAR IN JERUSALEM!!!!!!

Abisror, Yoram

Dear Camp Machar,

I guess the time is drawing near to say goodbye to my summer as a camper in Kadimah-Machar. My first year at this truly "AMAZING" camp was in 1983 and the best two summers of my life were these past 2 years.

I have learned and discovered a lot about friendship, leadership, closeness and acting as one. I love this camp and all the memories it has left me with. I also love the people and the great friends I have made.

The line "Camp Machar will never die" is very true and it will never die, in my mind or in my heart.

Well, I want to thank my staff (Evan, Heidi, Yoram and Morris) friends and Camp Machar for an absolutely fantastic summer. I love you all.

Shragit

Dear Machar '84,

This being our sixth and last year of Camp Kadimah Machar, we would like to reflect back on the six best summers of our lives.

In 1979, our first summer at Kadimah, we recall the days where girls were "Yucchy", and shirkud, bama, and A.C.P.'s were considered "gay". Even though we were homesick, we nevertheless matured and had a strong desire to return the next year, 1980.

In 1980, we considered ourselves cool (we had been to camp before), and we started becoming good friends with the once "yucchy" girls. We discovered cabinhopping, learnt all the ropes about it, and soon realized its advantages.

Our third summer as campers, 1981, we discovered the art of smoking leaves, and what it's like to be with the 'doon. By now, cabin-hopping was a nightly activity, and foundations for friendships with both guys and girls were started. Sports reached a new level of competitiveness and shirkud and bama became almost bearable.

In 1982, we recognized the opposite sex in a different way, and both openly admitted to crushes, and "who do you like?" became a common question. Strong friendships had by now been bonded and off season correspondence began.

1983 was our first year of Machar. Expecting an incredible summer, we were not disappointed. The people and the staff were awesome, friendships from years before progressed to an all time high, and new friendships were initiated. The outing, combined with Machar days one and two, as well as midnights skinny dipping, and all the great things this section did together, made the summer one helluva good time.

Before the summer of 1984, it took one of us much convincing to persuade the other to come to camp. But it worked out very well, as both of us are having an incredible season and both of us are glad we came. We would like to thank each and every one of you from those whom we've been friends with for years, to those new people we met this year.

Farewell, stay cool, keep in touch.

Love always,

Barry and Gil

My Dedication to Machar

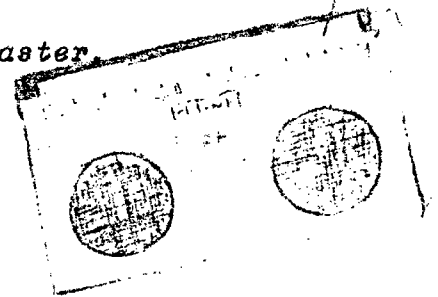

My summer at camp was great;
To be together was our fate.
Our counsellors were the best!
(No offense to all the rest.)
But Heidi, Evan, Yoram and Morris too,
(And this next line is so true:)
Machar is the best,
Beats all the rest!
And thanks to Cabin 8,
All my friends whom I love,

Luv,
Roe

You all made my summer great,
I thank you all from the bottom of my heart.
I know I'll never forget,
My summers at Kadimah were the best,
They outshine all the rest!

AMIR NEVO

To Evan

I've known you for so many years
Since we were in Goshrim,
The man I'm gonna marry
The man of all my dreams.

You are my true amigo
With women you're a flirt,
Whenever you're around them
You look up to see their skirt.

But still it doesn't matter
I love you anyway,
My B.F. forever
With you I'll always stay.

Love Heidi

To Yoram

Oh yes you are Israeli.
You have a special class,
You always say "No Problem"
To things that come to pass.

Machar, it is your section
You love it very much,
But only I know very well
Who you'd like to touch!

Yoram, I will miss you
It's been a real treat,
A D.I.B. so nice like you are Never can be beat!

Love Heidi

To Morris

Camp this year has come and gone
But in my mind will last,
The memory of my good friend Mo
Who helped me so much in the past.

He always likes to shake my hook
At times he is a freak,
But always he can make me smile
Whenever he does speak.

What would I do without him
In Machar of '84,
Stargazing in the moonlight
And so much more.

MOCHAR

He scares me in the morning
He scares me noon and night,
But yes, I'll always love him
Cause he is out of sight!

Love Heidi

Evan Zinc

We were strolling down the bridge but we went too far
'Cuz in front of our eyes was Camp Machar.
They were singing and laughing and havin' a ball
Some were sitting on the rocks but they would not fall.
There were campers and staff and who do you think
When all of a sudden came Evan Zinc!
With his hands down his pants and his nose in the air
He was strutting along without a care
So come on guys let's here our cry

CAMP MACHAR WILL NEVER DIE!!!

Rad Song

New beginnings always seem to hold hints of insecurity and fear.
Never knowing what will lie ahead. Nothing ever seems to be quite clear.
We don't know when we'll find our shining star
But we'll try in Camp Machar.
We will all work hard together to cement a chevra that will last.
We're Machar and we're tomorrow, we will bridge the future with the past.
We don't know when our time will come to soar
But we'll find out in '84.
Our ruach will help to show us the way
When it all seems tumbling down on your shoulders
Nehiyeh chazak.
Once we've laughed and cried together
Learned about the love we've had to share
Yes we know that this love will guide us far
This we'll find out in Camp Machar (x2)

Sports With Peter

(Warning: This is serious and it comes from the heart)
Peter...We Love You! We are here to explain to you that there is absolutely no reason why anyone should dislike Peter Nathanson, for if Peter was not here then sports with Walter would not be the same.
Peter, your derogatory remarks and sarcasm make sports a fun challenge.
Your cynicism is what attracts us to you most. You are a remarkable asset to Kadimah-Machar.

Your criticism encourages us to fully participate in your well organized peulah.

Thanks for an amazing summer!

Dear Machar,

I have attended this camp for nine years now, two of which have been spent in camp Machar. Words can't express how I feel about Machar. 84' Machar is a place where you give and take, and learn and experience. I think that although there are still two weeks left of camp, everyone has experienced each an overwhelming amount of times. From the very first day, we worked extremely hard to create a chevera that would last. By the end of the first week, Machar was unbelievably close. It was our goal; and that goal was very quickly achieved. We should all be very proud of such an achievement because we all worked as one to achieve it. We've had our share of problems; some where many had suffered more than others but throughout everything we stuck together to again regain that special something that Machar had once had before the problem had occurred. This summer being my last summer as a camper was one that will remain forever in my memory of Kadimah/Machar years. I thank each and every one of you for making my last summer at camp so special. A great deal of my thanks must go to Heidi, Evan, Morris and Yoram for without you Machar would not be the same. I thank you for your patience and understanding. Your caring and time. Camp Machar, you are all very special to me and you are all a very important part of my life; a part of my life that will never be forgotten. I love you very much.

Love always and forever,
Cindy

My first year at Kadimah was in 1982,
And not knowing anyone it was hard to be new.

Soon it came to an end and we would all be free,
But I knew that for sure I'd be back in '83.

And sure enough the days flew by, I couldn't believe I was here,
But it soon ended once again and we all had a great year.

When I got home I was so depressed and I'm not the only one that could say,
That with no exaggeration I mentioned camp and my friends at least ten times a day.

Those ten months of waiting dragged and went by so slow,
But for the third time at Kadimah I was all ready to go.

I'd have to say that this year so far is the best,
And for my first year in Machar (like they say) is better than the rest.

As a camper this might be my last year,
And the memories of all the happy faces I love so dear,

Will always stay inside my heart and I know
On the last day I'll be crying when we part.

I will always regret not coming here from the time we were in gib,

And in this case,

Who knows? I might be back to take Sheldon's place!!

- Love, Miriam Gaum

Camp Machar's Migdol

People have been coming up to Macharnicks and asking what in the world are we building. Well, it's a migdol or tower. The second question they ask is why. Well, why not? Machar of '84 is rebuilding the migdol that was once in the same spot years ago. It is a gift we are leaving behind to the future Macharnicks that come.

A few reasons why we would build a migdol are

...nothing else to do in Tsofiut

...Mark Simon wanted a challenge

...Somewhere to suntan

...In case of nuclear war you have a place to hide under

...a place to hide when cabin-hopping

...a love nest

and many more good reasons. There is a book coming out on "How to build a migdol" and "101 uses for your Migdol". For more information ask Mark Simon.

Keji Trip #1, 1984

6:30 in the morning came much faster than most of us thought it would. Twelve of us Macharniks, Leslie, Morris and Heidi were woken up, and off to Keji we went. By 9:00 we were in our canoes heading out for an exciting day (and what a day it was!). We canoed and canoed and canoed and portaged and portaged and portaged and portaged (that's four portages). Like our song we went, we were at Keji and very hot and we were there just to get a tan. Canoeing at Keji is a lot of fun and we were tired when it was done. And truly if we had drowned it would have been very unlikely that we wouldn't have been found. And of course we all know how bad Miriam's verses are and in her mouth we'll stick a mitt! The portages (all four of them) were hard work but we knew we could either spend the rest of our lives there or carry the canoe and continue our exciting day, and so we did. Although the last one seemed like an eternity, we were tough oxen and we made it. Even the fork in the road stopped us!! The waves of Keji lake were incredible. We all had a lot of fun and Leslie Rosoph, if you don't know my life story by now, too bad!! I thank you all for an exciting twelve hours.

Bloodletting

On the third night of camp our Madrichim decided that it was time for a serious program. Heidi, Evan, Yoram, Morris and Lisa all told stories of how they, or the Jewish people had at one time made a sacrifice. After they had told their stories, they asked us to tell of a time we had made a sacrifice. As people were telling their stories, others felt for them. The kids who were in Machar last year were amazed at how in just three days we had accomplished what took them 3 weeks last year. We had already gotten to the point at which we felt the pain of our fellow macharniks. This is my first year at Kadimah, my sixth year at camp and I have never before felt this way about my unit. This Machar has truly formed a chevra that will last.

-Michelle Cass

I can hardly believe that this is my last summer here as a camper. Where did all the time go? I have spent the best seven summers of my life here, learning to deal with feelings and experiencing new things. I was thinking, what should I say for my final message that will leave an everlasting impression of Camp Kadimah/Machar—something that will be remembered? In this message, I would like to recreate the special camp atmosphere for others that aren't as lucky as I to have been through such an experience. After much thought, I decided to make a dictionary. Not just any dictionary consisting of words and their meanings, but one made up of words pertaining to camp, and their deep inner meanings which I have learned and acquired here. It's as follows:

FRIENDSHIP:a special bond between two or more people. The relationships that I have formed here are ones that will last a life time, ones that can be picked up right where they left off. At camp one learns the meaning of a true friend. Someone who will stand by you at all times, and help you through difficult moments, but especially someone to love, and do nice things for. Camp is filled with an air of friendship, and this makes camp the unique place that it is.

EXPERIENCE:an act of learning and doing new things. I have experienced many things here—working with others, living with kids my age. In general, camp is one huge experience in itself. Though it may have its ups and downs, the result is rewarding.

UNITY:being as one. As I have explained, one learns to work alongside other people; an important thing to be able to do. As a result, a chevra is created, a special atmosphere of equality. At camp, we pull through everything as one, we give of ourselves to benefit others. We are all united.

ACHIEVEMENT:getting something done. In Kadimah, and more so Machar, we are constantly faced with challenges, and goals are always set for us. To make the summer successful, these goals must be achieved, and hand in hand with achievement comes the satisfaction of knowing we did it ourselves.

INDEPENDENCE:besides friendship, unity, etc. being independent is also just as important. Camp has taught me to stand on my own two feet, to make it on my own and to do the best job I possibly can. One must not be totally reliant on others. I have learned to be open and to deal with my problems, to be independent

LEADERSHIP:the quality of being a leader, to be responsible, and to know what to do at the right time. People grow up in camp, and camp builds leaders—shining stars who are tomorrow's adults. We have learned the qualities of a leader, while at the same time learning not to abuse one's privileges, of the power placed on our hands.

HOME: a place to live, in which one feels comfortable and content-an extra special place. Well, to sum it up, Camp Kadimah/Machar is my home, and it always will be.

This being my last opportunity to express my feelings, I would like to thank camp for all it's given me, and all it has taught me. I have even learned many things about myself. Without Kadimah/Machar, I would definately not be the same person that I am today. I'll end off by saying Camp, I love you, and I hope you'll be around for a long, long time, because for me; life without you could never be the same!

Naomi Brown

Dear Kadimah/Machar:

I have been coming here for 2 summers and they have been the best summers of my life. I want to thank everyone who made them so special.
I just want to say I'm going to miss all of you and camp so much even swim instruction. I love all you guys.

Hityashvut '84

It all started at 6:00 in the morning with Yoram's harsh wake-up. With our 9 mile walk (except for the 20 odd hypochondracs), it turned out to be a frn filled 3 day event. As for Heidi, Evan,
Morris, Mark and Bill they did S.F.A. Yoram, on the other hand, decided that he was Tarzan and spent 3 hours making a jungle bed.
Although it rained one night, it did not cease our fun entertainment.
With everyone's hard work, Hityashvut '84 was a huge success.

Lesley Gaum, Eric Block, Alan Prossin

Do you remember when:

Brent Sherman woke up one morning outside the cabin?

Robert Chippin put more than four words together in a sentence?

Jeff Raphael didn't wear a yamulke?

Shael Beckenstein wasn't using the toilet?

David Israel wasn't making something with his gimp?

Norman Shumacher didn't have a headache?

Rod Feiner could name more than two Canadian provinces?

Shawn Sable wasn't in trouble?

Jason McIvor wasn't trying to scare someone?

Stewart Sable did something bad?

Adam Devlin wasn't acting crazy?

Yellow Team-captain's message

We did it! We came, we saw, we won!!! The Trick of the Tide drifted in on our side and we came out on top. If we neglected to state our feelings towards our team during the actual Maccabia, we intend to tell you all now. You guys were magnificent!!! You deserved to win because you never stopped believing that we could win. You picked us up when we were down. From the first night you "yeahed" until the final mifkad, you outshined all the rest. Get it-outshined-yellow!!!

Congratulations. We love you all!
Your Maccabia Busting Captains,

Heidi Brown
Selig Wilansky
Alana Ruben
Gil Korn

"Yellow os best, Yellow is best
We're gonna win this year!!!"
(and we did)

Gib/Gosh Cheer:Smurfs

We are the yellow team
We will try our best
Our tide is rolling high
Higher than the rest

Jews we are proud to be
We will never die
Flowing for victory
Ruach is our cry

We'll have a real good time
Yellow we are true
Trick of the Tide is here
We'll prove it all to you, YELLOW

Cheers:Joy to the World

Yellow team's on the go now
Prejudice we will fight
The tide's rolling in
And we're gonna win
The Jews have seen the light

Trick of the Tide
Working with pride
We'll show everybody
What tzahav can do
Our tikva will pull us through, YELLOW

Crazy Little Thing Called Love

Trick of the Tide
A name but so much more
The tide of time
Will echo in our mighty roar
We've got ruach
Trick of the tide will win

We don't give up
We'll fight at any cost
We're proud as Jews
It's mystical we have not lost
We've got ruach
Trick of the tide will win (3x)

Marching Song:You're Never Fully Dressed Without a Smile

Yellow is best, Yellow is best, We're gonna win this year, HOO
Maccabia in Kadimah
Is really a treat
Four teams competing all together, Having fun.
Trick of the Tide
So full of pride
The Jews have survived
To build a homeland we can call our very own.

Among all the nations
We have remained the light
Through bitter times of fear and hate
The tide has led us to create our own state

Red, white and blue
We'll work with you
Our hope will shine through
The waves of hatred will be conquered if we do

So mystical, so wonderful
The trick of the Tide
We're gonna win the games this year
No longer will we fear
Team yellow's gonna score in '84, YELLOW

Dining Hall Song: I Wish

Yellow team is moving
Rolling like the tide from shore to shore
Ta'alulei Hagalim
We have got the strength and so much more

Prejudice and hatred
Have plagued us through the years
But we have overcome them
And pride replaced the tears

Ki anu tsahav, working as a team
Ki anu tsahav, you can hear us scream
Ki anu tsahav, striving for our dream in Maccabiah

Years of persecution
And still the Jewish people stand with pride
Now we have a nation
Brought about by the Trick of the Tide

Cheers: Moses Supposes

*We are the blue team
And we've got the spirit
We've got the spirit harmoniously
The Judges they knowes
That we've got the ruach
As blue team competes so gloriously*

Tune: Follow the Yellow Brick Road

*Faith and Fury is our name
To win Maccabia's our aim
We are the blue and we know who is going to win this game*

*We work all day and pray all night
To hope that we will win this fight
Emuna v'sa'am will guide us with lasting pride
We'll march together side by side...da, da, da....*

We are the blue and we know who is going to win this fight, BLUE

Marching Song: New York, New York

*Start spreading the news
Faith the Fury won't lose
We're gonna be on top of it, Maccabia*

*While maintaining our pride
The Jews will not hide
We'll try to overcome it all, Maccabia*

*We want to wake up, in a world where we are free,
To find the prejudice gone, we are all one*

*Through these next five days
Blue will find all the ways
To keep our strength and spirits high, Maccabia
Emunah v'sa'am
We'll do sports and melyad
We'll work as hard as the Jews have done, Maccabia*

It's up to you, we're true, team Blue...da, da, da....BLUE

Dining Hall Song: Fun, Fun, Fun

*We were sitting in the rec hall, just calmly watching Michael Jack
And then Maccabia started and put an end to our relaxin'
And though we know the effort we put forth might be very taxin'
We'll have fun, fun, fun, till the end of Maccabia 2, 3, 4*

Our faith in Hashem never fails to keep us on the right track, now
And the Fury of others just isn't gonna hold us back, now
So yellow, White and red, you may as well hit the sack, now
Because blue, blue, blue is gonna win Maccabia, 2, 3, 4

Through History the Jews have experienced so much hate, now
But our pride in our land and our torah has kept us great, now
And with other people's we would like to communicate, now
To have peace, peace, peace till the end of eternity (2x)

Original Song: Written by Craig Offman

In a world of indecision
We could make our own lives worthwhile
There's inner stage of sac-religion
But we dream up our own traditions
Our own lives
Seem to sacrifice others
Why can't we run until there's a cramp in our side
There's no direction known until hell
We've got to live our lives without stepping on other's faces
Everywhere you look--religion
Is it just a barrier of inhibitions?
Peering at every corner facade
I could see what we fought for our own lives
They want to kill our pride
Because we only use our mind
There's something stopping us now- a net in our climb
I fear tomorrow will be blended- sublime
We're out with a knife born in hands unfamiliar
We've got to know who's hands we fall into
We've for years-please no conformity
Can we just run away?

Red Team's Captains' Message

Hey guys... 4th place! What else could we have possibly done? We all tried our best, but this time trying that hard didn't mean being number 1.

As captains, we obviously wanted only the best for our team; yet you all have to keep in mind that losing should not cause anyone to hang their heads in shame. For all of us, from Gibbies to staff it was one hell of a learning and maturing experience.

Just ask yourselves, "What other Maccabia team in the past games competed with as much pride as Red Team '84". Not once did any of you give up; not once did any of you try less than the best you could give and as far as we're concerned, that is what made "Rooted in the Wind" the true victors over those 5 special days in July

With love and pride,
Your Captains,

Stacey Bernstein
Jeff Raphael
Susan Poizner
Phil David

White Team- Captains' Message

Dear White Team '84, Children at the Gate;

Well children, we came, we saw- we're number 3! Even though we may not have made it all the way to first place we still came through with flying colours! All that anyone can ask from a Maccabia team is that they try their best and have fun. White Team did just that. We tried our damndest and boy did we have fun! Each and every one of you should pat yourselves on the back for surviving the challenging days of Maccabia '84. Together, we pulled through and in our eyes, came out on top. As your captains we thank you for all your support and for finishing with the true spirit of Maccabia.

With love and pride,
Eric Block
Beth Medjuok
Howie Green
Lisa Galet

Cheers:

We got a "W" for willingness
We got an "H" for our hard work
We got an "IT" for our intellect
And an "E" for our effort, WHITE

Tune: Gimme a Little Kiss

White team of '84-yes we are
Got the ruach and so much more
Melyad, shirkud, bama and all the rest
We'll show you our sportsmanship and zest
Yeladim Basha'ar will lead the way
We'll show you all, that we are here to say
oh-children at the gate we are first rate

And we tower high above the, tower high above the, tower high

Marching Song: Lullaby of Broadway

Children at the Gate are here, entering their future
Their paradise is very near, the children of the future
Maccabia of '84 will prove to be successful
Let's have some fun and a whole lot more, gonna make it special
Well, the white team will surpass the rest, Yeladim Basha'ar
Howie, Eric, Lisa, Beth will help us win

White team, right team, white team
Let's fulfill our dream
Ruach, koach, chevra
You will surely see

Purity and innocence, will lead the way for many Children at the Gate are here, won't be defeated

White team, right team, white team
Let's fulfill our dream
We'll try our best to win Maccabia,,, WHITE

Dining Hall Song: Penny Lane

Maccabia of 1984 has just arrived
And the white team are the Children are the Gate
Our innocence will lead us straight-straight on our way
Ahead of us is victory and not defeat
The whole white team will together all as one
We'll show our ruach and have fun
Yah, we'll have fun, we'll act as one

Yeladim Basha'ar, we'll go very far
With our pride we'll stay alive
We will survive, just like we've done through time

Like the tides our hopes and dreams will always rise and fall
And the faith in us will always see us through—we are Jews
Yeladim Basha'ar we'll go real far
With our pride we'll stay alive
We will survive, just like we've done through time
We are proud of who we are and what we do.....WHITE

Cheers:Original Tune

We're rooted in the wind
It's time to begin
And we will show the way
As we join hand in hand
To build our Chevra we stand
And our ruach will keep us alive...till the end

Anuchnu Shorashim baruach
Anachnu N'heah Hasak
And if all try our best we'll make it
We'll pull through , through to the top

(Repeat first verse)

Tune:Kit Kat

Here we are and we'll go far cause we're united as a team
We'll raise our heads way up high
We'll lead the way
We'll go farther each day
Rooted in the wind, you'll see
We'll sing as one in harmony

Let's cheer out loud
We've got the style
As red we're proud
So give us a smile
Maccabia is here, we'll win this fight, do do od do RED TEAM

Marching Song:Manchester England, England

When it comes to the competition
We're rooted in the wind
We'll pave the path to glory
And we will stand up high, despite your cry, we'll never die
We'll fight, we'll win (2x)

We'll always be strong
And looking at us you know we belong
Cause we've got the spirit and we've got the beat
And we'll never leave here until we defeat, all the others
everyone of the colours

Remembering historical ages
And thinking of the goals we've acheived
Our people have become a nation
Through blood and tears, through sweat and fears, but still we're here
We've fought, we'll win (2x)RED

Dining Hall Song:Help

It all began one Saturday excitement filled our hearts
Rooted in the wind ourshined the rest right from the start
But looking back on all the times that we've got through
We can be sure that we have done the best that we can do

When you're rooted in the wind you can't fall down
And together unity is what we've found
Shorashim Baruch keeps us bound
And we'll continue fighting on till victory

We, as a nation have endured so many hardships
They tried their best, to knock us down, but our roots are still secure

And with every blow we take, our lasting flame burns brighter, keep it alive
Because we are, tomorrow's generation, hear our cry

 RED

Farewell Kadimah '84

Well, it's hard to believe that the six weeks we have spent here together has come and gone. There's something about life at camp which allows time to run away from us and before you know it we all have to return to our respective homes. I know for myself, though, I always leave with tremendous satisfaction reflecting on the many great times I have shared with both my old and new friends

I must say my two bunkmates have definitely proven to be very entertaining and amusing companions. I have had the pleasure of spending 6 fun-filled weeks with 2 very sexy women- Lisa and Heidi Brown. It has not been all laughs though. The constant ragging by Lisa, due to my persistent sloppy behaviour, has forced me to change my casual lifestyle into a strict regime of daily clean-up. I am looking forward to reverting back to my natural messy ways come August 14th. Lisa, you know I love you- I'm just envious that I haven't mastered your infamous sweater folding technique. Oh by the way I think you're really KINKY with those rubber gloves.

Now to Heidi Brown-She is definitely a heart-breaker. Heidi, I know the truth and I know you are not like "THE GIRL NEXT DOOR." I have heard rumblings from the male staff over the course of the summer and you have, without doubt, been #1 on all their hit lists. You see my sweet, they all must feel tremendous intimidation due to a certain someone pining away in Sudbury who has sent you 18 letters in such a short time span (not to mention those never-ending Telex messages). Thanx, also Heidi, for nursing me back to health with your much appreciated cold compresses.

I will surely miss waking up to those wild women every morning. I will now list some fond memories of my summer '84:

1. Canoe Screws
2. I.P.B. stories
3. Jamming with Craigy Louy
4. The red light district and Tennis Court Duty
5. Being healed by candle light in my cabin
6. Unmemorable nights off with the boys
7. Intimate showers with unexpected guests
8. Flashing the DOONER
9. Being locked in the Mel-Yad with Leslie
10. Fun in the Halifax Airport watching repeats of last years Tennis Matches for 5 hours and then having some "real fun" with the Hughster and Bill H.
11. My marriage vows to Alan Goldman
12. Sweating bullets with Amy and Phil in the Ulam and then "cooling off"
13. Regressing to childhood days with Shanah and Jeff about the Flintstones-"Oh my stars", "Fit, Fit, Fit"
14. Beating Evan at Basketball
15. Sculpturing Morris Green and playing Human Barrel of Monkeys and Shuffleboard
16. Running every Maccabia Marathon
17. Finally having visitors on Visiting Day (even though 5 hours late)

As you can tell my summer has been excitement-packed. Well not that exciting but it sure has been fun. Thanx for 3 great years at Kadimah.

I now must bid a final farewell,

Love always

Heidi LIZ Forman
