JUDS
89-91

Dear Sids,

the summer we are to remember each day like it was yesterday. You were definitely 1 if not my favorite camper. I've listened to you use your brain, well more later.

FROM THE EDITORS' DESK

This is dedicated to all Iton lovers everywhere.

The Iton is yours. It is your because it is made by you and for you. It attempts to summarize six short weeks and lets you remember the essence of Kadimah '91 all year long.

From the Gibbie to who has just learned how to spell to the most articulate staff member (no names mentioned), each has contributed in his/her own special way. The Iton, therefore, can personify the true meaning of camp. When you read this Iton over the ten months to come, read not only your particular section's work, but rather the whole Iton as camp is not just Giborim or Goshrim or Kochot or Machar, it is Kadimah.

Thank you to all those who contributed articles and a bit of themselves to make the Iton what it is. A special thank you to Shari, Ali, Abbie, Leah, Alia, Heidi and others for your artistic work that gives a little humour to these pages.

Most importantly, we must thank Adina, Adam, Robie, Jon, and Heidi for gathering the articles, encouraging the kids and ensuring everything was typed. While we're on the subject, the typists must be thanked. We give you our undiminishing gratitude and respect for all the hours you so selflessly donated.

Have a great year.....

Your Loving Editors,

Lesley

FROM THE DIRECTOR'S CHAIR

Kadimah '91 is slowly drawing to an end. The laughter of the kids, the roar of the ski boat, the song was in the dining hall, the friendships, hikes, outings, Maccabia, programs and special days are over - but the memories will live on.

'91 was a successful summer at Kadimah. Over forty new campers joined the Kadimah family. This year we had a record 202 campers, making '91 the largest camp in many years. We welcome the many new campers and staff and the nine campers from Venezuela.

To all counsellors, specialists and head staff, congratulations on a super job. We do appreciate all your effort and assistance throughout the summer. It is so gratifying to see staff returning after a two year absence. The ruach and friendships continue and many of you outdid yourselves this summer.

It is time to thank the many who contributed above and beyond the call of duty. To Mitch Dankner, Mike Soberman and Bill Chernin - you were always there and we couldn't have managed without you. The waterfront has never been so well organized and successfully run. To Wendy, Jamie, Elana, and to all staff - you were incredible. To Shari in Arts and Crafts, Herb in Sports, Heidi, Aviva and shirkud staff, you were amazing.

A special thank you to Anne, Wendy and the kitchen staff. This has been the best run kitchen ever. To Freida, thank you with the vegie menu and snacks, we all are inn debt to you. To Dr. Rosoph, Kathy and Anne we thank you for your concern and care in the infirmary.

To Joe and Ace - our caretakers - we appreciate your many hours of work, keeping the camp in good physical condition.

Finally thank you to Christina Macneil at the camp office for all her assistance before, during and after camp. to all members of the camp committee and parent representative in all cites, thank you for your devotion to camp and continued support.

Finally to you, the campers and C.I. T.'s, for your respect and cooperation throughout the summer. Being a counsellor is not an easy job. We enjoy coming to Kadimah and working with you. It is a most challenging and usually a rewarding job. Our main concern is for your safety and welfare. We plan a well balanced program and hope this summer was fun and exciting. Many C.I.T.'s will return and become excellent counsellors. WE wish you all a safe trip home. Good luck in school and we hope you'll all return next summer - Kadimahs' 49th. Thank you all for a great summer.

Love,

Sheldon

What Do I Do Anyway?

One of the world's oldest questions remains, what exactly does a program director do? In this article I will attempt to solve this mystery. To be honest, I was not quite sure what a program director did, that is of course until I agreed to assume this position.

For me the job began many months ago and it will probably haunt me for many months to come. The first thing I did was evaluate our program in relation to those in place at other camps. It became evident that the program at Kadimah was unique and dynamic and not replicated anywhere in the free world.

The next task to organize the program and decide what programs we would do, and what programs would be placed in the proverbial trash can. I can tell you now that my trash can was pretty full at the end of each day. Slowly but surely the program began to take shape and it actually looked as if it was planned.

I soon found that a programming idea could strike at any time, whether in the middle of class, on a crowded subway car, or as I drifted off to sleep. After months of these ideas rattling around inside of my head, I not only had a headache, but I decided that these ideas should be placed on paper. And thus the program of 1991 was born.

I then packed up and moved to Halifax to continue this project and the Atlantic Jewish Council provided me with the relaxed environment I needed to produce the program. Thousands of sheets of paper later, many sleepless nights, and after several stomach ulcers, the 1991 Program Manual was completed. (Total cost 750,000 dollars.)

The rest is recent history, as all of you participated in the 1991 program. This summer we had clear objectives in the Judaic and Cultural areas, all of which have not only been met, but surpassed. The Judaic and Cultural program is one of the pillars of Camp Kadimah and it is through this program that the campers and staff can learn about their history, Israel and their Jewish Identity. It is my belief that every camper and staff member will walk out of here having gained more knowledge and understanding about Judaism and the issues which surround it.

The summer began with a program on social action which included the miracle of Soviet immigration to Israel, Operation Solomon, and the tragic plight of the Syrian Jews. Each of the sections was introduced to Israel and the forces that worked to create the state. Maccabia picked up on this theme and the Tzionim, Chalutzim, Olim and Haganah competed with as much determination as their namesakes.

The Tish Ha B'av program focused on the factors that enabled tragedy after tragedy to fall on the Jewish people. Yom Ha'Shoah reinforced this theme and ensured that The Holocaust will not be forgotten. On the heels of this program the campers and staff rejoiced on Yom Ha'atzmaut and celebrated the creation of the State of Israel. As this article goes to print Anti-Semitism day is under way and the unsettling story of Jim Keegstra and Malcom Ross will be told.

The staff and C.I.T.'s participated in a professional development day which consisted of seminars on Israel, programming and the goals and objectives of the Judaic and Cultural program of Camp Kadimah. The Friday night programs generated some great discussions and the sectional Yitzira's enhanced and reinforced the themes of the summer.

Naturally, I cannot mention all of the programs of the summer of 1991, but I can say that the overall program was outstanding. Please hold your applause, because what I will say next may leave you disillusioned. I did not do it all by myself! In fact, the true success of the program can attributed to all the staff and C.I.T.'s who assisted me in implementing the program, and more importantly all you campers who participated in the programs.

Please bare with me, I must thank several people. Robert Astroff, you are incredible. The amount of work that you did was well beyond the call of duty. You are my M.V.P. of 1991. I have known you since you were thirteen, and you have really developed into a programming genius, not to mention a fantastic guy. You made my job so much easier, and I mean it when I say that I could not have done it without you. I found out that you have a great sense of humour and you might be more sarcastic than me. I have enjoyed working with you and you showed me that even an "old war horse" like me could learn something from a "young stallion". (Nice metaphor!) Remember the future of this camp is in the hands and beliefs of the Captain's Zion.

Mitch, the forgotten program director. It must be noted that the backbone of the program is the daily program and that was entirely carried out by you. Without you the program would have never gotten airborne and I want to take this opportunity to thank you for making the program fly. I really enjoyed working with you in Toronto, Halifax and at Camp. See if you can guess who I am now -- You're my best friend (Said at a bar). By the way the final score is 8 - 0, 8 - 0, 8 - 0, 8 - 0, 8 - 0, 8 - 0.

Sheldon, once again you have taught me much, but then again I have taught you too. When our camping days are over we will be able to bond over T.V. and Movie Trivia. In a sentence, I cannot think of anyone better to work with, the memories will last forever. When do we start our book?

Bill, I do not need to say much more than without you camp would not be camp, and I would have a cabin all to myself. We have been through so much together, and the value that I place on our friendship far exceeds the amount of money you owe me!

Finally, to all other headstaff and staff who helped with the program, my sincere thanks you're efforts are recognized and appreciated.

By now you are probably saying a program director spends the entire summer writing his report -- you may be right. I have discovered that the job is rewarding and the results of a successful program can be seen on all of your faces, each and every day.

To the campers I will say cherish every single day at Kadimah, because one day you will wake up and realize that you are no longer a camper. To the staff, I would offer the same advice. The majority of you are all former campers of mine, and the opportunity to have watched you grow and mature from campers to staff is the most fulfilling experience of my life.

Whether I have accomplished my goal of solving the mystery as to exactly what a program director does remains to be seen. However, I want you to realize that what I have done has been entirely for you. You ultimately bare the fruits of my labour and I would have it no other way.

In a short time Kadimah 1991 will be memory, but all of you will be permanently placed in my heart and mind. This memory I will carry with me for the rest of my days.

Thank you all for making such an impact on my life, I will not forget you.

Love always,

Mike (Sobes)

P.S. Do not worry C.I.T.'s, I have not forgotten you. My sentiments for you can be found in the C.I.T. section.

BILL'S THEORY ON LIFE

My name is Bill H. Chernin. I have a head. I also have have feet and a family on Mars. I have one of the mast attractive intestines in Canada, lotta good it does me. People think I got a haircut, I didn't I turned my head inside out. If I was a beetle I might not appreciate life as much. If was Mel Gibson, I might appreciate life a whole lot more. If I was a rock, I might think about it at all. Maybe rocks do think, maybe they have lots of great ideas but they can't tell anyone. That would be frustrating, that's why I am glad I am not a rock. That and the fact that none of my clothes would fit me. I am glad I am not a girl. Then I would probably fall in love with myself and eventually break up with myself then I would be schizophrenic. Being one person is hard enough. I knew this really guy who was schizophrenic. He had 18 different personalities and he became a gang. In his first brawl he lost battle, he had seventeen broken knees, six broken arms, and twenty-two black eyes. It took him eleven years to heal and then he claimed he cheated. today he works as a flight crew for KLM. You know whats really scary, to be shrunken to 1/8 inches tall and than be put into Sobe's nose. When I was a child I was mailed to Australia. That was pretty bad, but what was worse they didn't put enough stamps on me so I was mailed back home.

Can you imagine being a vacuum cleaner, if you can you need to see a doctor.

I should warn you I will not mention canoeing, sailing, scouting, marriage, or the catholic church again in this article.

I ask myself what would I do if I woke up and Sobes was in bed and it was on fire? Probably take a picture, maybe shower or go for a walk. Why do people write poetry? If they're that depressed they should shoot themselves. What idiot made suicide illegal? How do you punish a dead guy? Rescucitate him.

"Don't talk to him, he's dead" they screamed. "It's not like I'm making fun of him" I answered. "He doesn't know that" they responded. That's when I knew it was going to be a weird night. One morning I woke up with a bus in my nose, that wasn't to bad, it was the screaming kids that drove me crazy. I knew a guy who had an airport in his ear, once in a while he gets fogged in.

Afghanistan might be a beautiful country but its a lousy word to use in a rap song. If a fat guy gets fat enough will he go through mitosis. Here's something I asked the Machar guys. " If G-d is everywhere than he's here and there's a pretty good chance that I'm him". Baby powder: If you have to powder your baby maybe you should get a new one.

The Roman empire, why did it fall? I have my own theory, because they all liked to eat and than puke they were bulimics, I don't think bulemics can rule the world. That's not to say they can't do a lot of nice things, digesting food just isn't one of them. If I was a lizard I'd need more shoes. If I was a centipede I couldn't afford shoes. If I was a cannibal I wouldn't want shoes, I would want tot eat my friends, which would make it very difficult to make them. How many people want to make friends with a psychopathic killer? Maybe another psychopathic killer. "What do you do for fun?" "I kill people who wear green shoes." "Me too, let's be friends." Being an astronaut might be fun, but it is really tough to make friends in space, there is such a language barrier.

We use deodorant so we don't smell. Dogs need to smell so they know who they are. Can you imagine if dogs used deodorant? They wouldn't know who they are. Big dogs would run from little dogs, mean dogs would be nice, and no dog would know who its owner was. Dog therapy would become a major money maker.

The Mona Lisa is a man, how do I know, I've seen the bottom half of the picture. Birds are mammals and they can fly. I'm a mammal, and I can't fly, that's not fair, that discrimination. While women fight about their right to carry garbage, no one cares about my right to fly. I had a friend who exploded while eating in a restaurant. He just exploded, they wanted me to clean it up. "I didn't blow him up." I said "You brought him here" they said "so you should clean him up." "No!" I said. "he brought me here and I think he should pay the bill." "But he's dead". "That" I told them "has not yet been proven." I still haven't paid the bill and they haven't cleaned him up, I don't care, I didn't like him anyway.

Squish and Hobbie are dead. Just thought you should know. Paulo and Gustavo are real guys, Bill and Mike don't exist, they are inventions of Paulo and Gustavo.

CONCLUSION; Camp is good.

"Wouldn't it be great if we could all grow to be six feet six inches tall instantly" Leslie Rosolph

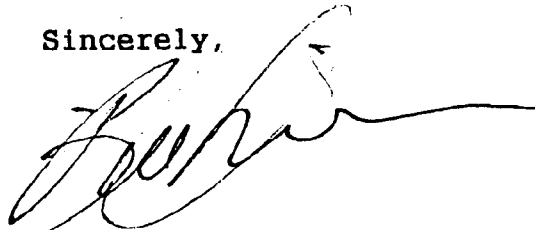

"I'm not fungus, I might be annoying, but I am definitely not fungus" Bill Chernin

"Toe beaks are more useful than toenails" Mike Aronson

And think about this one; In a past life I was a Roman Emperor, then I was a cleaning lady and for a while I was a streetcar. What does this mean?

Thank you Jon, Andrew, Aaron, Jamie, and Leslie. We are the greatest boating staff in history. And we are not Donald Trump. Take care boys, thank you everyone. Sheldon Mike and Mitch, a pleasure as always.

Sincerely,

Bill H. Chernin (1974-1991)

SPORTS REPORT

I can't believe my second summer at Camp Kadimah is nearing its conclusion. It was a great summer. The weather was ideal for landsports and we accomplished a great deal.

Again, instruction, participation and just plain fun were the main objectives of the program. We started the year with a basketball and softball clinic and it was a big success. "T" ball for our Giborim campers was met with great enthusiasm and, as the season expanded, with great competitive spirit. Sports like floor hockey, tennis, soccer, softball, volleyball, and basketball were highlighted and enjoyed by most campers.

Our softball house league was expanded to seven teams which also meant one additional game for every team. Again like last year, the league was very competitive and every team was in contention for the league championship.

A new addition to our house league sports was a basketball league. Six teams were formed to play in the 4-4 league which included a 10 game schedule and, probably for many of our C.I.T.s, and Macharniks, was the highlight program of the summer.

Another highlight was the visit by the Halifax Windjammers. The Jammers, led by Willie Bland, gave a talk on drug abuse and then played a short exhibition game against the Kadimah house league all-stars. The starting five included Louis Wolfson, Steve Indig, Barak Queija, Morris Glazman and David Assouline. Token staff member Robie Cohen also played in the "Classic". The Windjammers stayed the whole day and mingled with our campers and gave us all a big thrill.

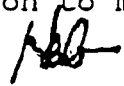

Another great event was the Maccabiah Track meet -- the Giborim and Goshrim had a separate meet and did a great job. The Kochot, Machar and Staff meet was very competitive. A special mention must go out to Candice Lilienfeld, Saul Offman and Uri Carnat for their outstanding performances in the Marathon -- Candice and Uri also won 60 meter races.

The 2nd Annual 12-Hour Hockey marathon also was a great success. Lots of team spirit, comraderie and good team play highlighted the day long event.

A staff event that always is a highlight was the B'nai Brith-Kadimah softball and basketball games. And this year was no exception. Two great games, which results were a reversal from last year. In the softball game, the Kadimah staff outlasted the men 10-8 in a defense struggle, while the B'nai Brith men defeated Kadimah in Basketball 58 to 56 in an overtime encounter. In both games good sportsmanship was displayed and all the players had an enjoyable day.

I would really like to especially thank Penny Dankner, my able assistant, for an outstanding job. Penny worked as a cabin counsellor and on the waterfront staff and still provided a competent and devoted effort to make landsports a big success. Also, to Matt Cohen, Lisa Strug, Loni Sherkin, Ben Gaum, Eric Cohen, Paula Gaum, Norman Cappell and Jason Jacobson who throughout the summer, gave their assistance to fortify the program.

And, finally an overwhelming thanks to all the campers who made my summer really enjoyable. Camp Kadimah is a great experience and I appreciate the last two summers I spent at Kadimah. Its my hope I made some contribution to making your summer as satisfying as mine.

MEL YAD REPORT

Although this was my first summer at Kadimah. It has really been memorable. Upon arriving at Kadimah, I discovered that there were no supplies. This did not stop me from making this year's mel yad program a whole lot of fun. These are the things I will never forget:

1. ADINA CIEPLINSKI: My unique assistant. You are the queen of Tie Die and by far the friendliest staff member towards Machar in the whole camp.
2. My four kilm super heros: SUPER JON
BAT BILL
WONDER MITCH
JAMIE MAN

Thanks for delivering my kilm. Now if only I could only figure out how to use it without blowing a fuse.

3. Thank you, ROB MAIZON, for making my second shabbat memorabile. You really bowled me over...literally.
4. JACOB MEDJUCK you are the only Machar boy who waits for me rather than visa versa.
5. The KOCHOTNIKS who were so enthusiastic..NOT!
6. MICHAEL DRUKMAN for coming to mel yad more times this summer then he has ever come in his whole life. You're my honorary Mel yadder of the summer.
7. Hearing my name being called a zillion different times, a zillion different ways, by a zillion different people at once.
8. ELANA AGULNIK, my pre-social saviour. Thanks for helping out with costumes and cleanups.
9. ALI GUREVITCH for keeping me sane in "Kadimah Art"
10. (LES MISERABLES) At the end of the day, Mel Yad is more messy
And I'm always the one who has to clean up
It's a struggle, it's a pain but thanks to the few who have helped me
'cuz it's worth it, when your projects are done
At the end of the day, I know you're had fun
At the end of the day

Thanks to anyone I may have forgotten.

Love, Shai

P.S. Always remember, "Art is in the eye of the beholder." Those of you who thought your projects were "stupid" and "ugly" were at times some of the best ones.

THE DOCKS HAVE FEELINGS TOO
Another boating report

Good day fellow boaters. Yes, you guessed it, this is the canoeing slash boating report (cool theme music). Life is nice (thanks, Les) and so is boating. If you don't believe me, just ask Bill, Aaron, Rebecca, Andrew or Jamie. Boating this summer started in pre-Camp, when our wonderful sailing docks (yes, with the boats) attempted to make a freak getaway. "Why?", you may ask did they break free. Well, I'll tell you. You see, you campers like to torment these once beautiful floating vehicular objects, and knowing Camp was ready to get started, luck had hit. What was this luck, a lightning storm. Fortunately this getaway wasn't that far. Their so-called successful mission was stopped by the large, monstrous rocks, which just happened to appear in 1982.

The next morning the unsuccessful escape was noticed and boat authorities were notified. Thanks to the rigorous yet silly rescue mission, our beautiful floating vehicular objects lasted the summer. The boating authorities, at the time, included Steve "Wetsuit 1" Maklin, Aaron "Wetsuit 2" Lieff, Norm "The Shy One" Cappell, Mike "Water Baby" Aronson, myself and Andrew "Honey" Honey. Special thanks to Sean Earhard for rigging those suckers (before the escape).

As the summer progressed, campers tended to look rather dry. Bill "Squish" Chernin decided to implement his immature idea, which is now part of the Kadimah boating program. This silly idea is best know for soaking and submerging participants. Yes, this involved our 1000 gallons/second fire hose. We then realized that more and more people wanted to go boating. This is a big change! When they're floating, they hate it. When they're wet they bitch and complain, but still had fun. I don't understand this!!! Maybe Camp should start a submarine program, and maybe then everybody will be happy. Andrew Honey's amazing canoe jumping also added a taste of water to the canoeing program. When he got bored or angry, he simply overturned a full canoe. Did he care? Safety first, fun second. Andrew, we still have to solo gunwale race.

To all Kochot, remember the rainy day boating peulah? Someday you will hear the real story how canoes came to Canada. But for now, don't worry about it. It's nothing big.

On the serious note, canoeing has been a large success this summer. The old, but excellent, instructional tactics of paddling our docks proved very useful the day the canoe docks made their own mad dash for freedom. Jamie, wasn't that one of your best aquatic rescues? We even had an audience. Thanks to Andrew and Jamie, the canoeing program has been very successful. Bill, we still have to teach you.

To Bill, Jamie, Aaron and Andrew, we had the best boating program this camp has ever seen. Well, maybe one of the best. Now, if we get more rain, we will have trips.

To everyone, 'THEY KNOW WHO WE ARE...AND THEY DON'T LIKE US!' This must be said in a deep voice.

forth Bull Hall that is all
JON "BULL" MENDLESON

P.S. Gabe, don't worry, it wasn't that bad. Just to warn you, sleep with one eye open. I will haunt you, for the rest of your life.

P.P.S. To Kochot, they migrated in large herds from South East Asia. Rebecca, this includes you.

MANY POINTS PERTAINING TO SAILING
The Sheik Punjib ben-Al-Achoo Report
(Prince of Wind)

Ah Sailing! A Kadimah tradition as old as Maccabia, as valued as the Chedar banners, as tall as Jon Mendleson! Many people went sailing this summer, including some that we wish had spent the afternoon at Mel Yad instead, and a damp time was had by all.

The many people that did come out went sailing in many boats, including the world famous hadn't-been-rigged-since-1980 Fireball, which was fun until it sank. Then Zena Haberman, Naomi Ginsberg and Kyra Levy sank one of the Code 40s. In the middle of the lake. On my birthday. I know you apologized and everything, but I'd sleep with one eye open from now on guys.

Which brings me to Karyn "I'm really an excellent sailor" Saragossi. Karyn came up to me one day and told me she was "really an excellent sailor". She even convinced me to let her take out a boat. Looking back on it now, what should have tipped me off was all her other mumbling about "Hot water burn baby", and "definitely 326 toothpicks", and "Charlie Babbit, Charlie Babbitt", but I let her go out anyway. When I looked up, Karyn had actually managed to hit a cow with a sailboat, a feat unheard of in Camp history. The cow looked annoyed, Kayla Wexler started crying, Dan Gryfe gave us a brief Talmudic summary of the situation, and Karyn ran over some poor farmer's barley crop. At this point, according to Karyn, the cow walked up, ripped off the rudder, beat Karyn over the head with it until it split, and then threw it into the middle of the lake. Sure Karyn, don't go to sleep.

Speaking of marine accidents, I'd like to thank the C.I.T. guys for causing very few of them, although every time I'd leave Camp, Steven Maklin and Aaron Lief would be waiting for me to get back with several stories of unbelievable heroism, such as "Aaron, the docks broke loose and there were sharks and tornadoes, so we swam out and got them." Mack and Lief, incidentally, possess the only two matching wetsuits in Camp. Which makes me wonder about them. They are very cute. They are a little obsessive about them, however. It was drizzling one day, and when I walked by the C.I.T. cabins, Lief and Mack were out playing in the rain, wearing their wetsuits, perfectly dry. Thanks to both of you, and Norman and Rob "Mr. Landscape" Matlow for all your help.

The C.I.T. girls were the most frequent users of the sailing docks this summer, though I don't think any of them so much as touched a sailboat. Hope you guys got tan. See Paula, I did mention you.

The Machar boys, retarded Pirates or whatever else they call themselves, had to be the wackiest group of the summer. Shaun, Ben, Gabe "Almost Aaron", you guys were fun, even if Gabe did cut off Jon Mendleson's arm with a sailboat.

And Kochot, the Section that sank more boats than the Murmansk run. Simon, Meathead, Suds and Paul formed an Elite crew of people who were as likely to sink a boat as rig it. When you guys got it going, it was beautiful. When you didn't, I spent an afternoon listening to Lieff and Maklin's rescue stories. Dave Cohen, I'll mention you too, even if you should have stayed in cabin 33 with me.

Finally, my fellow staff, Jon, Andrew, Bill, Jamie "Too traumatized to goo in the water" Cohen, we might not have had the most organized program, but we definitely had to most humorous. "Stick the tip in, Paddle harder" Leslie, canoeing is fun, but second to sailing. Next summer we'll talk about killer toads and how canoes came to Canada. Sayonora.

P.S. Gabe's sorry, Jon.

P.P.S. Hi Rebecca, Hi Rob

WATERSKI REPORT 1991

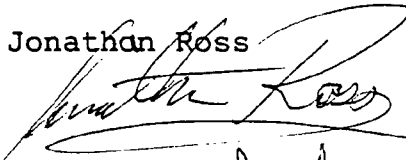

It all began on a warm sunny pre-camp morning. Windex, rags and other powerful cleaning supplies in hand, we prepared to do the ultimate job...cleaning the ski boat! Finally prepared and ready, the moment of truth came as I placed the key into the ignition and prepared for the beginning of the waterski program of 1991. Then it all came to a quiet halt as the curse of the "new" ski boat reigned over our heads from last year. From dead batteries to loose connector wires to broken skiis the waterski program looked like it was sunk. However, through some miracle, that I associate to Camp Kadimah and its lovely campers and staff, we were able to accomplish a continuous ski program that allowed every section and all campers the opportunity to enjoy the gliding across the surface of Lake William.

This summer, campers who have never skied before tried and even those who have not skied since Giborim or Goshrim came back to the waterski docks.

At this point in my report I must take time out to thank those who have made driving the boat a much more interesting, enjoying and of course educational experience. Thanks goes out to Jen Gaum and Jen Pink for the Saturday afternoon escapades. Your shotgunning abilities are most amazing. Of course I can't forget Joe for having his second job as boat mechanic; Jamie Cohen for being the most enthusiastic person to ski and who made others just as excited. There are so many people to thank who have helped me with this program and I apologize if I've missed your names. Beth M. thanks for the experience with waterskiing and all your help. (I haven't forgotten you.) I have one wish for this summer and that is for the boat to start on the first try. For those of you who have skied for the first time. I congratulate you this summer! To all who slalomed this summer, congrats as well. Have a great year and work hard. Only another 320 days until the waterski boat re-opens!

The Waterski Director of 1991,

Jonathan Ross

Dear Sada,
What a stud you are. I hope you had a great summer. Nice colored braces - Cool your hair. Learn to ski buddy! Have a good year. Say
"Hi" to my mother when you see her walking my dog - TAKE CARE!
See always

SHIRKUD REPORT (FIRST HALF OF THE SUMMER)

The following were popular sayings before the beginning of Kadimah '91 season.

"I don't like Hebrew songs"
"I hate dancing"
"I'll never dance!"
"You won't catch me dancing"
"I like shirkud - NOT"

The following were popular sayings I heard throughout my stay at Kadimah '91:

"Hey, this is fun!"
"Can we sing Eli, Eli?"
"Can we do the Train Dance?"
"I love Shirkud!"
"Hebrew songs are easy!"

These latter sayings are music to my ears. I believe you all never really gave shirkud a chance before and never realized just how fun, cool, NOT nerdy it could be. May be you just needed the right motivation. REGARDLESS of the reason, you guys were awesome! Hearing Kadimah sing together and watching Kadimah dance together is an experience more beautiful than a rainbow, a sunset and a sunrise all combined. You surprised yourselves when you accomplished a new dance, not only by doing it well, but also by enjoying it. You made it fun for yourselves and that made it fun for me!

Never stop singing the camp songs and the Hebrew songs we sing on Friday nights. They are a part of you, just like Kadimah is a part of you, no matter how old you get.

Remember the wizard who lived in Africa and went to China to learn to dance a hora! Keep that enthusiasm alive in you all the time.

Thank you Kadimah for being so great during my short stay. It meant more to me than you'll ever know.

Keep music in your heart and you'll never grow old.

Love,
Heidi

SHIRKUD REPORT '91

For two amateurs that had to follow in the footsteps of the Great Heidi Brown, we did okay.

Nerves and uncoordination aside, we joined forces halfway through the summer and managed to maintain a Shirkud program that Kadimah can be proud of.

Each section holds a special and unique place in our hearts and memories...

Gibbies, your spastic steps and cheery smiles.

Goshrim, your rowdy rendition of "I'm a Nut", and the Tushy Dance.

Kochot, your enthusiastic participation and cooperation ... NOT ... (Remember our super peulah on the sportsfield?!!!)

Machar Girls, the joy of knowing that the peulah will run smoothly ... thanx!

Machar Boys, you Chassidic studs ... we know that Shirkud brings a gleam to your eye.

Special thank yous to Debra (your Gibbie leader), and the six C.I.T.s who stumbled through the peulah with us. To everyone who gave us the chance to prove ourselves, we feel we accomplished a lot.

Looking back on the summer of '91, we know that even if "you may wander far and wide", Kadimah will always be "our second home".

Keep smiling and singing!

Lots of love

XOXO

Your Shirkud babes,

Aviva Rubin and

Bena Medjuck

P.S. A special tribute to our faithful leader, Heidi Brown. We love ya.

SLASH REPORT '91

Once upon a time, there lived a young man named Rob. He was really excited about coming back to camp. His job description sounded perfect- Power, but not too much responsibility. Boy was he in for a surprise!!! There were some gaps that had to be filled and the powers that be soon realized that they had their man, and the following changes were added to his contract:

Waterfront specialist SLASH Programming specialist SLASH head buggy duty SLASH office duty SLASH occasional rosh shmira SLASH Rosh Gosh SLASH physiotherapist SLASH psychologist SLASH boat driver SLASH Ad Hoc Maccabia Thematic Consultant SLASH practical joker SLASH rumour mill SLASH Captain Zion SLASH Cryptic Man SLASH slide guy SLASH Leech catcher SLASH bulldozer patrol SLASH golf pro SLASH cheap shot master SLASH spelling advisor SLASH bomb defuser SLASH Mr. Congeneality SLASH Direct and Honest (I wish!!!) SLASH Mr. Subliminal SLASH Machar Day C.I.T. chaparone SLASH . . .

This has been an attractive year at Camp Kadimah. There are a few people that I feel must be singled out. Jamie Cohen, my roommate, friend and "M and M" buddy- thanks for "pinning" my summer together when things seemed to be falling apart. Jon Ross- thanks for adding the elements of youth and beauty to our cabin. Wendy Hyman- thanks for your violent mood swings, it was most entertaining. Mike Soberman, my mentor SLASH short, Jewish lawyer friend- thanks for teaching me great programming mannerisms. Shapple and Hugo, the fashion show ladies- thanks for showing me how to coordinate. Jacob Rosenfeld- thanks for teaching me how to spend a leisurely night in Bridgewater like a true Maritimer. Robie Cohen- nice lid!!! Beth Mednick- I don't think so!!! The H.I.P. waterfront staff- thanks for helping me bring A&BA back to life. I would like to end this article with one last cryptic message to a special person, who will remain unmentioned. In the immortal words of Gloria Loring, "What would you say if I told you ..."

P.S. "... I've always wanted to hold you ..."

P.P.S. To Penny dankner, who desperately wanted to be mentioned in this article- "Hi".

Love _____ always,

Rob _____

INFIRMARY REPORT

If life was perfect their would only be canoeing and chocolat chip cookies. Unfortunately, there is but one flaw in the universe, and we must have an infirmary.

Think of the infirmary as your friend away from home. Imagine it as a comfortable white building where important swimming excuses are created.

I want to thank the infirmary personnel who have helped to make it a popular peulah. Thanks to Kathy, our nurse, phyhologist, social worker and cookie finder

We must also thank Rob "phsco" Astroff, Jamie "clumsy toes" Cohen, Karyn "8+1 =8" Saragossi, Mitchell "teeny mouth" Dankner and Bill "visible ears" Chernin

So now Ann and I want to share a bad poem with you Walk across the bridge and you will find,
A small white building where people are kind;
A place to miss swim and get a note.
Where you can get medicine, not buy a goat;
It's better to stay healthy and be well,
Eat a lot of cookies, we think your swell.

Love;

Leslie

GIBORIM SECTION REPORT

98% of people at camp Kadimah said "They're so cute", when asked their opinion of the Gibbies. We may be the smallest section in camp with only 18 campers, (and 9 great staff), and we may have the smallest kids, but it's O.K. 'cause "Ali is too". Besides, what other section had as much fun as we did this summer?

I never saw Kochot running around camp, desperately trying to drench aliens that vaguely resembled their counsellors; nor did I ever notice Goshrim hunting for lollipops (or planting a lollipop tree). Machar certainly doesn't have a mascot as cool as Yellow Mud - and they never had to save her from kidnapers at the Dairy Kone! Let's not forget our trips to the general store and our special day when we had a Gibby beach party instead of swim instruction!

Cabin A: Sharon, Sarah, Tammy, Dara, and Kayla - You girls are most definitely the greatest FEMALE dancers ever to grace Camp Kadimah!

Cabin B: Aviva, Jill, Jaclyn, Sarah Beth, and Robin - No one is cuter than you girls - not even Charlotte!

Cabin C: Zack, Elliot, Andrew, Daniel, Dan, Tom, Simcha and Nathan - Why are you guys just sitting there reading this? C'mon! "Everybody dance now!"

I'm sure that all the new friendships that were made and all the memories you share will last forever. I can't go any further without thanking my staff: Robin, Adina, Karyn, Jen, Debra, Sarah-Lynne, Jon, Richard, Andrew - THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! Even though there were a few problems, (and there always is) I think things worked out fine and you guys all did an incredible job. Thanx for putting up with me, and most importantly...Thanx for a memorable summer.

Love,

ali

P.S. THE REASON THIS REPORT IS SHORTER THAN THE OTHER SECTION REPORTS IS CUZ "ALI IS TOO"!!!

GIBBORIM SECTION SONG (TUNE: SKINNERA RINKY DINKY DINK)

Skin ema Rinky Dinky Dink
Skin ema Rinky Dinky Doo
Skin ema Rinky Dinky Dink
Skin ema Rinky Dinky Doo
We're so cute

We're cheery in the morning
Unlike the rest of you
We may be very small
But Ali is too, Oh!

Skin ema Rinky Dinky Doo
We're so cute

We're so cute (We're always singing)
We're so cute (We're always dancing)
We're so cute. (We're always smiling)

We're so cute - Boop
Cute - Boop
Cute - Boop Boop be do!
Gibbies!

THE RED BALL FROM HELL

Everyday Mitch D. gives Karen S. the red ball and tells her to play with all us Gibbies. We do different games with it. It is only fun when Karen runs the program. We play with it everyday and we get sick and tired of it so that is why we call it THE RED BALL FROM HELL

THE CIT'S OF 1991

There are 23 of 'em and you can guess who they are. I can't name all of 'em, but there's Stu, Loni, Eric, Melissa, Debbie, and norm. I see 'em a lot and next year they are gonna be counsellors, uh oh !

CAMP IS FUN

Camp is fun. I will miss it. Mel Yad is fun, I will miss it. My counsellors are nice. I like my cabin. I like the people in my cabin. I like Machar Day. I like camp.

By: Sarah-Beth Samuelson

Camp is fun because all my friends are there.

By: Jill Chatt

Camp is fun because I have a nice cabin. My staff are funny and nice too.

MACHAR DAY

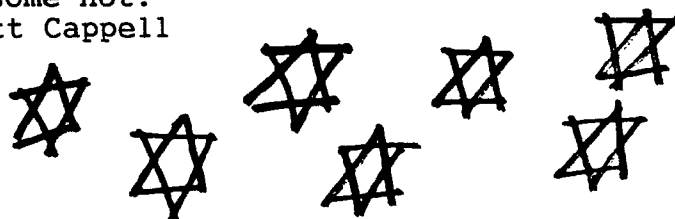

On Machar Day Macharniks came to be our counsellors, and our other counsellors went to Bridgewater for the day off. Our new counsellors were Jason Altman, Scott Jacobson, David Feingold, Alberto, Leo, and Paul. Our section heads were Jesse Guberman and Julie Stevens. They were good counsellors. This afternoon I am looking forward to sports.

By: Dan Jockel

Today's July 23. 5 days to Visiting Day. The important thing is today's Machar Day. They're all good counsellors.

Some cool some not.

GO JOSE!

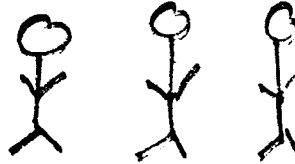

I saw Oakland play against the Blue Jays my home team. The Blue Jays won. My favorite players on Oakland are Mark McGuire, Ricky Henderson and Jose Canseco. Go Jose Canseco!

CABIN C COUNSELLORS

I have 3 counsellors. First Jon Pinsler. He's so careful with his hair and his clothes but he's kinda cool. rich he's nice he tells good stories. Andrew H. he's cool but he's smelly when he comes back from hikes. Andrew L. was once our counsellor but he went to Kochot.

By: Elliott Cappell

I LOVE CAMP

I will miss camp. Camp is fun. I will miss it. Mel-yad is fun. I will miss it. Sheldon is funny and nice. I will miss him too like I will miss mel-yad. I will miss sports too. I love camp!

Dear Giborim 1991,

Hi Gibbies! Well, it's the 18th of August and I'm on shmira. It's my 1st time on and, to be honest, I don't mind it all that much. i guess I should tell you how I feel right now. Maccabia just ended tonight and I was on the winning team. For the 4 of you who were also on Blue, I just want to congratulate you and thank you for all the hard work that you put into the last few days. to the rest of you, I know you all did your best and that you had fun doing it. Yellow teamers and Red teamers, you guys had great songs. White team, what a great banner.

Anyway, enough about Maccabiah. The summer has been going very well in my opinion and I'm very glad that I'm gibbie staff. I really hope you guys know how much I care about you all. Anyway, I'd better go. Keep smilin' and have a great summer. I love you all.

Adina

Hi! My name is Sarah Fahie and I'm 8 years old. This is my first year at Camp Kadimah and I'm having lots of fun. I'm in cabin A. Some of the fun things I've done this summer are Mel Yad, General Swim, Aquaboarding, our trip to the general store, watching "The Little Mermaid" and playing with all my friends. This year for Maccabiah I was on the yellow team. We came in third. I am coming back next year, so I'll see you then.

Hi! My name is Kayla Wexler. This is my second year at camp. I am in cabin A. I like General Swim, GaGa, sports, and best of all, the Gibbie trip to the General Store. I am really looking forward to going to the waterslides. They are lots of fun. I was on Blue team. My captains were Sean Earhard, Syma Gaum, Louis Wolfson and Yona Attis. We won and had fun doing it.

Today's July 23. 5 days to Visiting Day. The important thing is today's Machar Day. They're all good counsellors. Some cool some not.

GIBBIES

Today it was Machar Day. They're real nice to me and I really like them. Today we did Mel Yad, Yitz, Duck Duck Goose and more! I think that the Machar counsellors are better than my regular counsellors? I had a good breakfast and lunch and one of them played cards with me. David's favourite team is the Bruins so is Scott's and Brett's. Jason's favourite is the Rangers. The Venezuelans don't have favourite teams because they don't have a hockey league. Daniel Gryfe got letters almost every day.

By: Tom Jockel the cool dude
P.S. I miss my parents.

I miss my mother and father. From the very first day I have really liked my counsellors, especially Richard. I like everyone in my cabin, and Andrew and Elliott are my best friends. I like them because they're nice to me! They go with me to general swims. I really really enjoy the lake. I like the lake because it is warm once I get in.

By: Nathan Zilbert

COUNSELLORS

Counsellors I love. But my counsellors are awesome. Well...I'll first start out with Adina Cieplinski. Adina's cool! She has a ghettoblaster with a CD player and her best friend is Josh Goldman. Next is Karen Saragossi. Karen has a brother named Mike "The Goose" Saragossi. Karen listens to music all the time and constantly talks to her picture of her friend Rob. Everybody always borrows her clothes. She's cool too! Last but certainly not least is my next counsellor, Robyn Burnstein. Robyn is picky about clothes. she has a cousin named Jessica Burnstein. Robyn is the ultimate bug sprayer. She sprays me every night with bug spray. She's also cool.

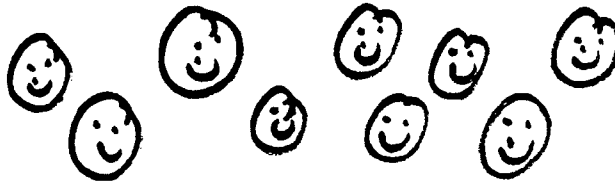

Well, my 3 counsellors, aren't they neat? They do a rap for us every night. I'd better go now. I guess this is the end. Bye!

MACCABIAH

Everyone knew it,
it was no surprise
when the 4 different flags showed up before our eyes.
Our names were called out, between many joyous shouts.
Team meetings were arranged,
into team colours we changed.
Events and cheering,
sun stroke we were fearing.
We were having fun
in the hot Kadimah sun.
Painting, marching, screaming of winning we were dreaming.
Tonight they let us know,
the winner of the show.
White? Red? Yellow? Blue?
Only one team will shine through.
By: Adina Cieplinski

Hi! My name is Kayla Wexler. This is my second year at camp. I am in cabin A. I like General Swim, GaGa, sports, and best of all, the Gibbie trip to the General Store. I am really looking forward to going to the waterslides. They are lots of fun. I was on Blue team. My captains were Sean Earhard, Syma Gaum, Louis Wolfson and Yona Attis. We won and had fun doing it. My counsellors are Robyn Burnstein, Karen Saragossi and Adina Cieplinski. They are good.

THE BOY TEST

The boys of Cabin C held a few Boy Tests. The object was to catch and throw tennis balls like a boy. However, only three people in all of camp managed to pass. They were Adina Cieplinski, Kayla Wexler, and Ali Gurevitch.

The people who passed got to come into the boy's cabin whenever they wanted. They also got to play catch with us, hug us, give us piggy backs and lots of cool stuff.

To the 3 of you who passed the boy test, good job... but you'll never make it next year.

GOOD LUCK

Zachary Borer

Today is my counsellor's birthday and his name is Andrew. And camp is fun. Today I got candy from my mother and father, In three more days it will be Visiting Day.... Two nights after I wrote this I went Cabin Hopping to Cabin's A&B and I jumped and screamed really loud... Yesterday we went to the ice cream store and I got a slushie... And a few days later Zack and Darah got married for fun. Darah was shy and Zack was shy and happy about it... Once I had Karen and Zack as my partners at General Swim. We were number six and instead we said sex.
by; Tom Jockel

One night for evening program we had a wedding and Zack and Darah got married and Zack wanted to kiss her.
by; Nathan Zilbert

JON & MELLISA

Jon Pinsler and Mellisa Gorber really like each other. They walk holding hands and whenever the CIT's come back from a trip Jon hugs and kisses her. One day I bet Jon and Melissa will get married.

Hi my name is Tammy Fried. This is my first time at Camp Kadimah. It's o.k. for my first time because I know a lot of people here. some in Giborim. Oh, I am in Giborim. Some in Goshrim, some in Kochot, some in Machar and a few C.I.T's. I like my counsellors. I am never lonely because I have my sister and my brother. I like camp, its nice!

Tammy Fried

THE STAR

I see out there a shining star that's silver, blue and red and bright, bright. Bright to my eyes with lots of golden thread. Even though I go to bed no longer it is, I guess it's very very very very shiny there!

Darah Gaum

THE GUY WITH THE PUPPET ON HIS SHELF

The trees are tall,
But the children are small and there's no one sitting on a tuffet.

They play all day long and sing their song including the guy with the puppet

Some say he was strange or slightly deranged; maybe he was just dumb.

But they all knew that all he wanted to do was to sit there and suck his thumb

The puppet was tall; too tall to fall and was twenty times the size of a twig
The puppet was scary and also quite hairy in a way that was very big

So if you see a puppet which would be very scary indeed
Be sure that you hide
in a good place like
OUTSIDE!

GOSHRIM SECTION HEAD REPORT '91

"On Friday, we get chicken, our section head's a goose"

I like that, it has a nice ring to it! But what I like even more is the fact that I had the greatest bunch of campers this summer. I must admit that leaving the water ski docks (my second home) was an extremely hard thing to do; but after my first year as a section head, I can now say that it was worth it. I was bound to break the boat, anyways, if I was made more responsible for it, for another year.

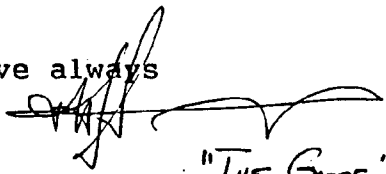

As for my staff, I must say that they certainly are a bunch of characters. Not only do I still feel that I have the best staff in camp, but I am also convinced I have the goofiest staff in camp. What a combination...goofy and great! I thank all you guys and gals for providing me with one fun and adventurous summer. As a matter of fact I am so appreciative that I will take this opportunity to thank you personally. Jen, you certainly are one of a kind; and even though you hardly ever visited me in my cabin, I still love you. Leah, we've had our downs, but we have had more ups and I am very glad to have had you a part of my section. Amy, what can I say, you are a superb counsellor and you will most definitely make an excellent madrich next year (if you ever build up the courage to come back), thank you for all you've done. As for my resident Zionist and Denver Bronco (Bena, in case nobody knew), you have helped both myself and the section at many times. I know you will be a very successful head staff member in the near future at Camp Kadimah, only one thing...get rid of that ring on your toe!! Adam - YOU MADE IT and I knew you would. Now all you have to do is take a deep breath and say, "Boy I can't wait until I come back next year!" Joey - the quiet man of Goshrim! I appreciate what you've done and I thank you very much. Sluggo - the question is, "Are you up to being a third year man?" Thanks a lot. As for my human jukebox, the man who supplies me with all my relaxation music - Mr. Kuriloff! Not only have you done a great job for me this summer, but you also have inspired me to go out and get "passion" and "the Final Cut". Now I come my "staff with an attitude" in cabin 32: Miriam, thanks for a great summer, and I'll be sure to clean my dirty...feet. Heather, Miss basketball Extraordinaire! I wanted you in my section at the beginning of the summer and I never regretted having you for one minute (well, maybe a minute - just kidding!) Tara, thank you for everything you have done and I highly suggest that you see a dentist as soon as you get home. AS for Alia, the tuna queen from hell, I'm really thankful that a staff member of your calibre was placed in Goshrim. You've helped me a great deal and I appreciated that; except, you really have to stop flirting with Macharniks. To the C.I.T.'s who were placed in my section, I thank you too. Oh my G-d, this report is starting to sound like a grammy award winning speech. So before I make it seem like it is too redundant, I just have one more important thank you; and that is for cabins 28, 32 and 33. Without you guys, I wouldn't be getting my paycheck (although I still may not get that paycheck).

Spending everything from Rizzer's beach to the waterslides to the General Store to Kejimakujik with all of you was a blast and I'm going to miss all that this winter. You guys were the best and I love you all and I better receive a letter from each and every one of you!!

As for the rest of camp; my coworkers, other campers, the kitchen staff, Ace, Joe, and Lucky - I wish you all the best for this school year and I promise that I will write you a letter from Europe next year. Just remember...the Goose will live forever (and so will his rib!)

Love always

THE GHOST OF LAKE WILLIAM

It was a cold and stormy night at Camp Kadimah, Everyone was fast asleep except for Cabin 32. They were sleeping under the stairs right beside Squish and Hobbies's cabin. All of a sudden there was a strange noise. It sounded like a groan or maybe a growl. All of the girls were scared that it was a wild animal, like a bear. But then they realized that it was coming from the lake. One girl decided to go and see what it was, but another girl said that it wouldn't be such a good idea, so Karen didn't go. Then all twelve girls decided to check it out. So they went past the office, and on to the bridge, still hearing that awful moaning sound. When they got to the middle of the bridge the sound got louder, and all of a sudden something or someone pulled them into the water. And they never returned. So when ever you cross the bridge think of this story and be careful, because that could be you who never returns.

MATILDA By Roanld Dahl

There began to creep over Matilda a most extraordinary and peculiar feeling. the feeling was mostly in the eyes, a kind of electricity seemed to be gathering inside them. Miss Trundle was a very mean person. Miss Honey (the teacher) was nice.

I loved this book, you should read it. There are 216 pages.
Miriam

It was dark and stormy out. Suddenly there was a blood curdling scream. Anna sat up, "Who else is up?" She asked, "I am" Leyla answered. She turned to her bed buddy Shoshana. "Are you, Oh my Gosh!"

"What?" screamed Anna.

"She, She's not there.

"Anna? Anna?" Anna had fainted. Leyla quickly grabbed her flashlight and went outside.

"Shmira, shmira!" No answer. At that moment Leyla panicked.

"Anna, Anna, wake up. You have to help me!" Just then the door was flung open. Someone was pushed in. Through the darkness, Leyla could see a small figure. It was Shoshana.

"Thank G-D, you're safe," Leyla said.

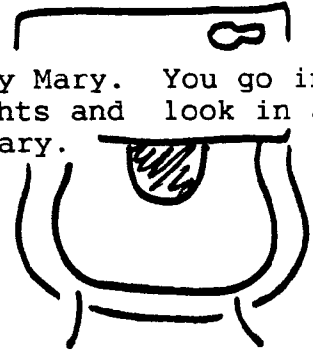

"Shh, go to sleep," shmira hissed. Everyone got in bed and closed their eyes.

GOSHRIM

At our school we have a thing called Bloody Mary. You go in a bathroom with no windows and turn off the lights and look in a and count to 5 or 10 and he will appear very scary.

Matt Fischel (Fish)

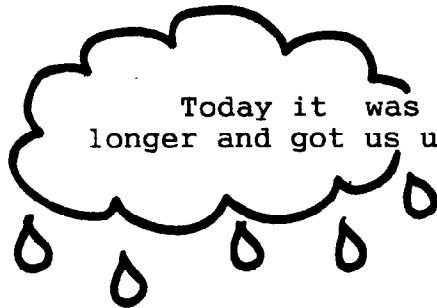

Dear Iton,

Tomorrow is visiting day and I am really excited. We are doing a dance tomorrow on the A.B.C. field. My dad is going to bring me lots of food.

Your friend,

Albert (Toast) Cohen

Today it was raining. They should have let us sleep in longer and got us up later.

Daniel Rinzler

Hi! It's Adam Adler there is 1 more day until visiting day. I have a lot of people coming down tomorrow. I having a great time this year.

Adam Adler

This is Aaron Ginsberg on the leech report. At general swim stay on the beach and look for leeches. I love looking for leeches. I found 4 already. This is reporter Aaron Ginsberg signing off. Goodbye.

I like camp so far. If I had a choice I would come back. Visiting day is tomorrow and i am happy. We only have 14 days left in camp. After camp I am going Adam Adler's home for a week or two.

The Monstrous Mosquito

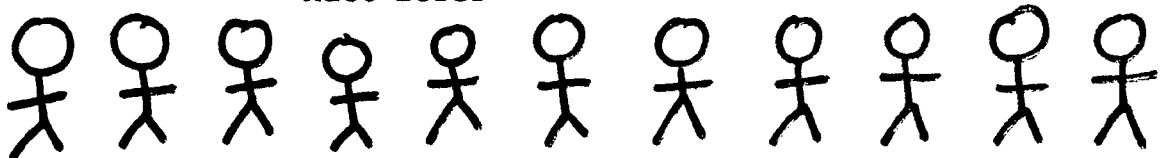

It was August 4th 1991. As I walked own my driveway mosquito came and stung me on the wrist. The mosquito grew and grew until it was the size of my leg. My mom came out of the house and threw a look at it.

Daniel Carnat

In cabin 33 we have 11 kids: Matt B., Adam, Brian, Albert (Toast), Daniel R., Matt F., Jared, Geoffrey, Daniel C., Stephen, and aaron. They all pretty nice people and I'm having a fun time with them.

Matt Borer

Hi. My name is Stephen Dodge and I am 10 years old. Maccabia has already passed and I was on yellow team. Blue team has 4th, then white, yellow, and red. I'm in cabin 33 (Gosh). The counsellors on side used to be Sluggo, and Aaron, then it was David, Aaron, Joey, but now it's just Joey & Aaron because Dave moved to Kochot. From today there's, 21 more days of camp, days until visiting day. Well, I have to now because rest period is almost over. Bye.

Hi! I'm Adam Adler and I'm going to tell you about who my favourite athletes are in the They are:

Hockey

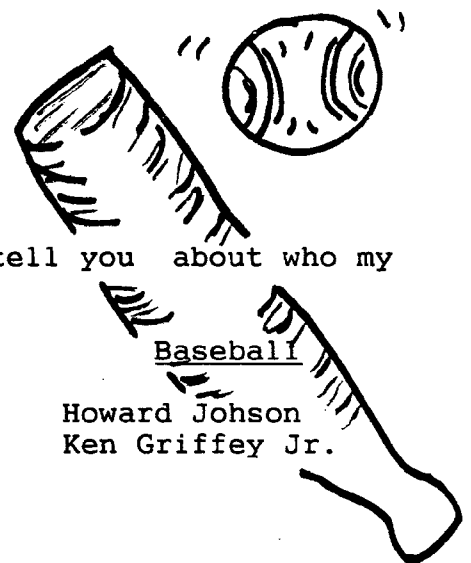

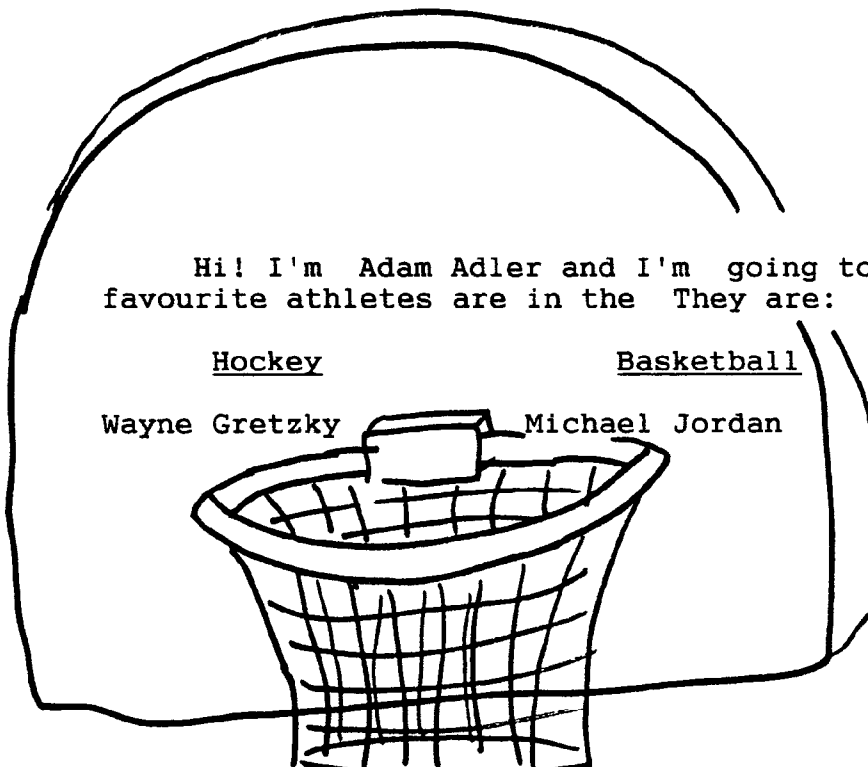

Basketball

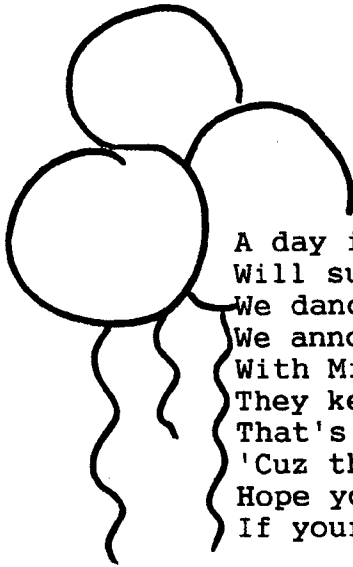

Baseball

Wayne Gretzky

Poem
by Shira Webber and Barbara Jones

A day in cabin 32
Will surely never bore you
We dance fe play we run around
We annoy our counsellors 'till they fall to the ground
With Miriam, Alia, Tara, and Heather
They keep us up in bad weather
That's our poem o; this year
'Cuz the end of the page is very near Hope you have a great summer
If your food gets taken way that's a bummer

Dear Readers,

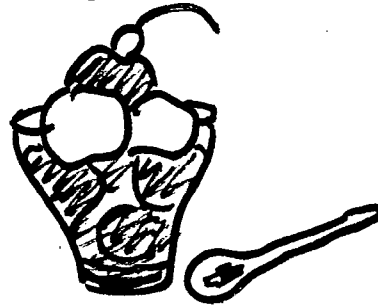

Camp is great so far. Last night, we had sundaes in the middle of the night. Last night we also had a camper hunt. I got caught right away.

Today is Machar Day. Our counsellors are Simone, Suzie, Jennifer, Tracey and Riva. It's been good so far. I wonder what we'll happen tomorrow.

Well that's all I can write.

THE END

Debra Freeman

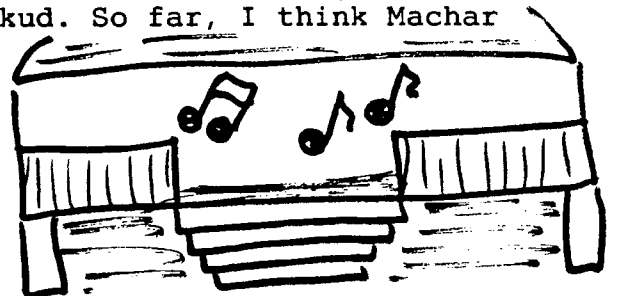

My name is Lynn Bessoudo. This is my third year here. Today is Machar Day. My counsellors are Tracey Klinger, Simone Vigod, Jen Burger, Suzie Samuelson, Riva Barak. A few days ago, it was Maccabia and blue came in first, white, yellow, red. I was on the white team. My captains were Mandi Cohen, David Feingold, Aviva Rubin and Uri Carnat. It was fun!

Lynn Bessoudo

Hi, my name is Debroah Pink. I'm in cabin 32 in Goshrim. I love camp and I am planing to come back next year. This is my third year.

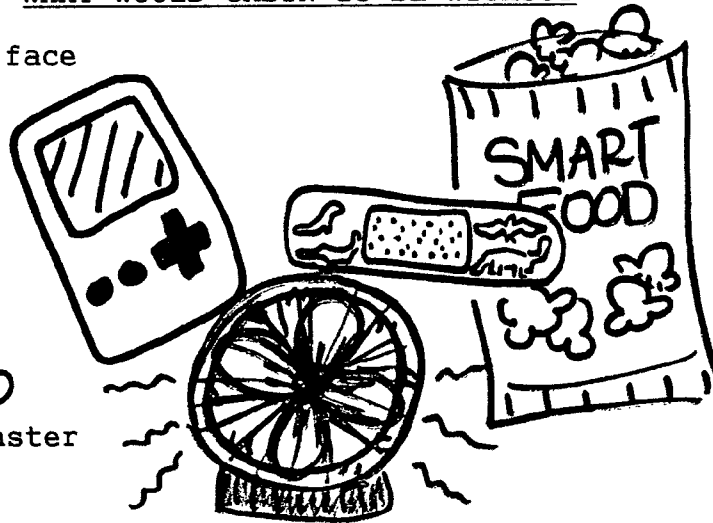

Today is Machar Day and my counsellors are simone Vigod, Tracey Klinger, Riva Barak, Suzie Samuelson and Jen Burger. This morning we and a yitzera and then shirkud. So far, I think Machar day is going very well.

That's all for now

WHAT WOULD CABIN 28 BE WITHOUT

Lauren's snorkle face
Laura's cards
Jessica's bed
Mindy's animals
Hannah's koolaid
Sarah's wrinkles
Elana's books
Anna's gameboy
Shoshi's clothes
Marissa's food
Leyla's dinosaur
Jen's bandaids
Leah's ghetto blaster
Bena's fan
Amy's smartfood

Laura Gergely

Dear Abbie,

I wanted to play gameboy but my friend wouldn't let me, Poo!
A person

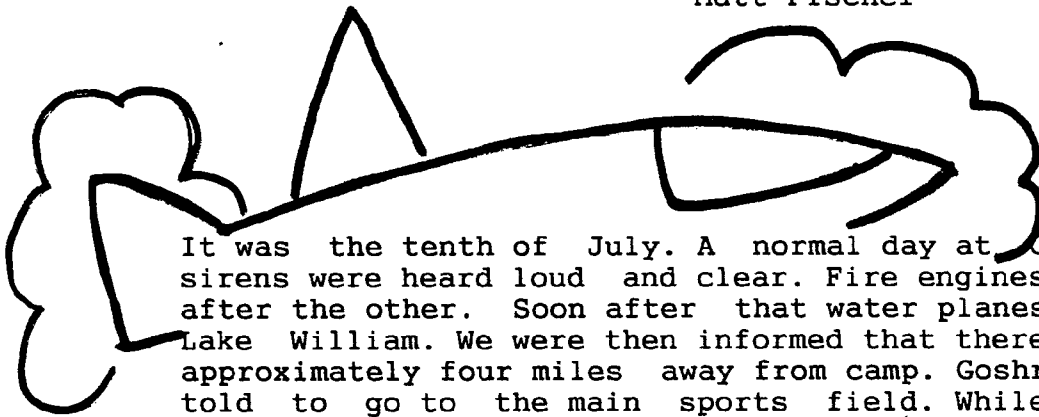

Dear Person,

Get your mother to buy you your own gameboy.
Abbie

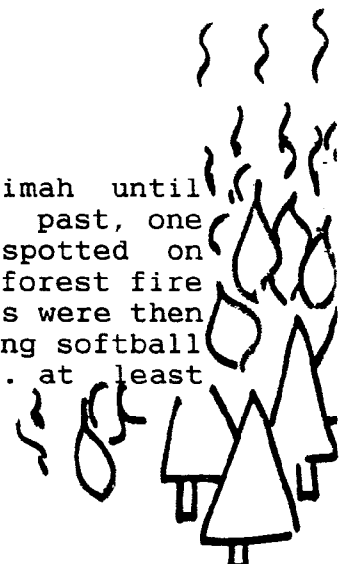

I went on a hike to Keji park. WE had fun but the night was very cold. The racoons came out and they were annoying. I like Keji and I have gone five times. But it was fun this time.

Matt Fischel

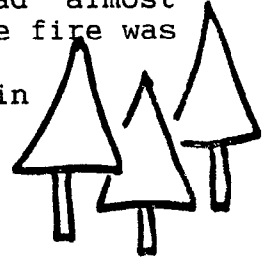

It was the tenth of July. A normal day at Camp Kadimah until sirens were heard loud and clear. Fire engines rushed past, one after the other. Soon after that water planes were spotted on Lake William. We were then informed that there was a forest fire approximately four miles away from camp. Goshrim girls were then told to go to the main sports field. While playing softball planes started flying low as trees towards the lake. at least seven planes flew by. Children ran from every direction with their cameras. Slowly the planes stopped coming and the fire engines quieted down. By about 12:30, the sirens had almost stopped. A few were heard in the morning but by then the fire was under control and almost totally put out.

Lauren Abrams and Jessica Burnstein

Hi my name is Albert Cohen and am in Goshrim. A few days ago Goshrim went on a hike to Keji. We had lots of fun, although I was starving, most of the time. This is my second year in camp and I am having better time than I did last year in Giborim.

Albert Cohen

The best thing that I liked about camp so far was cabin hopping. The one thing I did not like about camp was Keji. I like all of the sports except soccer. I like all of my counsellors. The two best counsellors that I like the most are Dave and Adam.

Brain Altman

my bad day

It all started out when I woke up at 6:30 in the morning with a thump. I got up and felt a pain in my foot. I looked down and my foot was swollen.

I was getting off the bus I tripped and fell on my face. I went to wipe the sweat off my face and I felt blood on my hands.

I ran in the school doors, looked at the door and I was truly late for school. After school I got the mark from my exam and I got a twenty five.

When I got home after school my mom said, "How was your day?" I said, "unbelievable."

Daniel Carnat

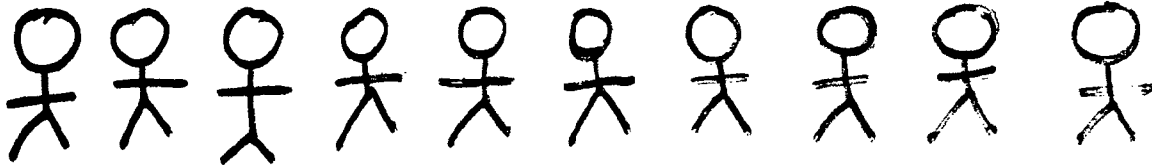

Hello, my name is Matt Fischel and I am ten years old. I have gone to camp for two years and it is fun. When I grow up I am going to be a canoe specialist at Kadimah.

Matt Fischel

This is my second year at camp. A week ago, it was Maccabia, we came in forth place. These are the boys in cabin 33, Jeff, Adam, Matt B., Matt F., Aaron, Daniel, Albert, Stephen, Jarred, Brian.

Daniel Rinzler

Cabin 32 Murder

It was a dark night at Camp Kadimah. Everyone was asleep except for cabin 32. They decided to go cabin hopping.

They decided to charge the bridge. They never came back.

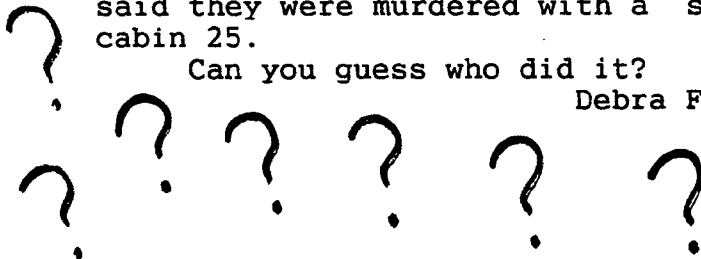

Everyone was looking for them.

They hired a detective named Howie Green. The name seemed familiar but they didn't know where from.

Howie left and then returned the next day with bad news. he said they were murdered with a sharp object. They were found in cabin 25.

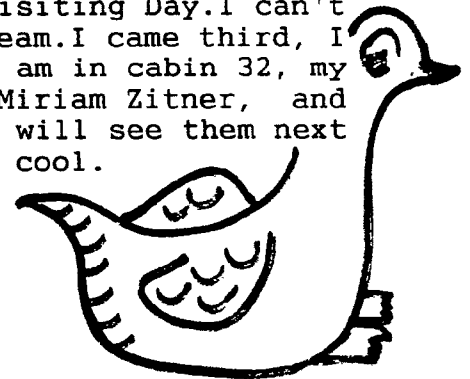

Can you guess who did it?

Debra Freeman and Michelle Vigod

Well camp is two thirds over and tomorrow is Visiting Day. I can't wait!! Maccabia is over, I was on the Yellow team. I came third, I had great captains. I am a second year Gosh, I am in cabin 32, my counsellors are Tara Abrams, Alia Offman, Miriam Zitner, and Heather Astroff. They are the best!! I hope I will see them next year. Mike Saragossi is my section head, he is cool.

Shira Webber

Dear diary entry 9999999999...

Today we did something very fun. Oh, I suppose I have to tell you what it was, eh! O.K., it was a canoe trip...there I told ya...Oh, now I'm supposed to tell you how it was eh! Well O.K. It started off by Mike telling us there was a canoe trip, so I went. I was in the front and Andrew in the back. Daniel Carnat was in the middle. He threatened to beat us up because he didn't have a seat till we got to the shallow water and jumped in. Later we went to a beach and ate, and swam, than we came back. It was fun.

Jared Fischel

The Mystery of Cabin 28

All of cabin 28 was half asleep. Suddenly they heard foot steps coming toward the cabin. The door flew open. Shoshie screamed. "Shosh, why are you screaming?", Amy said. " You just startled me, that's all.", Shoshie replied. Amy left. A half hour later they heard foot steps again. They were right outside. Suddenly we saw a strange figure in our cabin. This time Sarah screamed. We hurried to her bed. There was blood all over her chest. We called Shmira. When they came they said, " What happened?!" We all shrugged. " Go get the doctor now!" Hannah and Shoshie got the doctor. We brought him to our cabin. He said she was dead! There was a knife stuck in her heart. Who could have done it? We all wondered.

Next time you sleep late, beware! This person is still roaming around camp!

Hannah Zitner and Anna Kasner

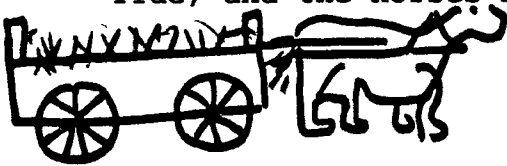

Today is Machar day. It is a lot of fun. First we went to Mel Yad and we made sundays. Then we went to Bama, and we played games. My machar counsellors are Yona Attis and Adrien Adler, Shelby Hirsch and Rinat Greenberg.

Laura Gergely

We had maccabia. I was on the blue team, and we came in first place. We had lots of fun. I also went on a canoe trip. We went swimming in the water, and I saw a turtle. We went on a horse ride, and the horses name was Dick.

Geoffrey Lyons

This year goshrim had a special program that was called " money day". We went into the Ulam with a sheet of money. Inside the Ulam there was a lot of stations. There was bobbing for apples; throw the dice; find the card; throw the spoon; the balloon; find the ball; and Jewish trivia questions. Before we started a station we made a bet of money. At the end of the day we had an auction for prizes.

Deborah Pink

Dear cabin 32,

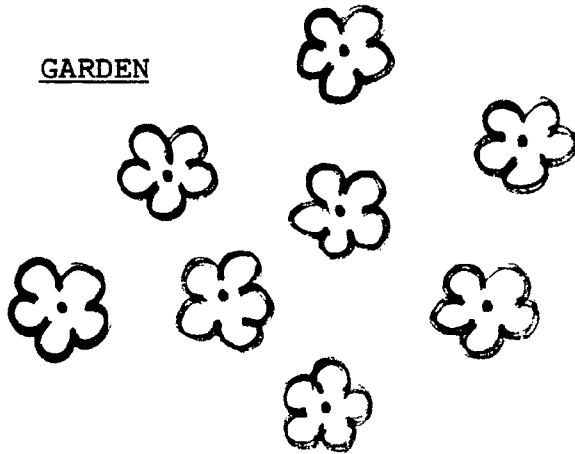

Well, the summer's quickly passed and I feel it's time I write a final message to you. This summer has definitely been a memorable experience. Of course I'll be the first to admit we had both the best and worst of times. When I look back to all the days, it was the good times I remember most. The first day of camp when you all ran to get the best bed, quickly realizing we were very short on shelf space. How could I forget the hike to Keji, where I spent the night with Michelle, Karen and Deborah. My head will forever ache for all those time you hit it with yours. Then there are the knew girls: Miriam, Sam, and Rachel. By the second day you were no longer new, but a part of our family. Rachel, your endless supply of hugs and kisses kept me cheery at the gloomiest times. Keri, Lynne, and Shira when I go home I will miss both you and your puffers. After carrying them by my side for six weeks, I'll be lonely without them. Rebecca, the loss of your teeth me in a too-too playing tooth fairy. Deborah, your extreme neatness reminds me a lot of myself, but your willingness to always go swimming isn't shared. Last but not least comes Barbara. Your mighty laughter and chuckles took over my job to cheer everyone up. Then of course comes my co-counsellors. Heather and Miriam your insanity is definitely what kept us sane. Without you I surely would have had multiple breakdowns. Our initial scepticism about each other slowly faded away. Our likeness and our differences kept us smiling (most of the time). I'll miss our shared bed habits. Before I go, I'd like to say I love you all. Throughout my life at Kadimah you have taught me the most. I'll miss being your friend, parent, teacher, and of course doctor. You are a tough bunch of little Jews (T.L.J.)

Love always, Alia O.

GARDEN

A garden one day was full of hay and another was not at all there cause a horse of course ate it all and then was fat too fat for all.

LEECHES AREN'T LEECHES: THE GHOST STORY OF LAKE WILLIAM

Four teenagers smoking went out to the senior float at night. No one saw them, so they decided to stay on for a while. All of a sudden, one saw an oil slicksort of thing swimming toward them. One tried to give it a smoking. Not Knowing what it was, she got eaten. One boy tried to out-swim it, but he got eaten too. Two were left realizing if you stay in between the boards, you will not get eaten. Morning came and someone slipped and got eaten. The last tried to out-swim it and got eaten. The reason why leeches aren't leechesis because after that it exploded and little black things squirmed all over. Those are what we call leeches. And never let a leech suck your blood or else it will eat you and the black things will live again.

Barbara Jones

CINDERELLA's

Once upon a time, at a lovely camp in the heart of Barss Corner the the eleven little angels of Cabin 28 decided to play Beach Volleyball with their clothesline as a net. They're ever so nice counselors supplied them with a beautiful pink, orange, and yellow inflatable ball. As they began to play their four superb counsellors were called to the Office of No Return never to be seen again. The girl's were frightened because they might have the four new counsellors flying in from Chocolate Swamp. Cabin 28 did not want wicked step counsellor's but sure enough, they got them. The wicked step counsellors made the 28ers write 12 Iton article, wear boots on sunny days and do Shabbat clean-up twice daily.

Saturday was coming up and the girls of Cabin 28 wanted to go to the social and have the best costumes for Horror Night. When they asked their step counsellors to take them to the Mel Yad, to make ther costumes, the wicked counsellors said "why do you need costumes? You're not going" All the 28ers were very upset but couldn't go against their wicked step counsellors. The night of the social came, and the four counsellors left while the eleven little angels each sat on their own beds. "It's hopeless" they thought. Then, POOF... a fairy section head appeared. The girls were surprised but happy. The fairy section head made each girl a great costume and brought them to the social, as they wished. They all won best costume and lived happily ever after.

KOCHOT SECTION REPORT

It has been said that a picture represents/says a thousand words. Whoever coined the statement is merely correct. I guess the picture that is so vividly inscribed in my memory of Kochot 1991 says more than a thousand words. This image represents the thoughts, feelings, instances, activities and programming that make '91 a unique year.

For me 1991 marks a great change for me. Being a section head is a ninety degree turn from doing Bama. But it was a great group of kids and staff that made the summer so enjoyable.

1991 marked the competition of many activities. For Kochot, the fraternity theme prevailed throughout the six weeks, whether it was הַיְהוּי (hey, hey, hey) גִּמֵּל אֵלֶּף גִּמֵּל (shin, lamed, shin) or בֵּת דָּלֵד בֵּת (bet, dalled, bet), that won at each, it was a builder of the great ruach in the section.

At the beginning hityashvut was a great success, regardless of my numerous trips with injured persons. To Marnina, Daniel, Beth, David, Candice and Saul, you all worked well and proved to the section the great leadership and friendly competition that personifies the qualities of good captains.

Then came Maccabia 1991, Return to Zion, a switch back to a traditional roots theme. Kochot played a big role as the mature parts of the teams, and proved to the rest of the camp your determination and workmanship.

The next major event was our trip to Rissers and the Waterslides. Everyone had a good time with the weather perfect for the day.

In the last week, which has not yet happened at the time of press, there are a number of special activities planned including; hockey marathon, a sectional special program, "Trip Caravan Around the World"; and the 50's dance. I'm sure they'll all be great successes.

I guess the most important people to thank besides the kids are my staff. Firstly to Heidi and Syma, thanks so much for being there to assist me, I'll miss you both lots. Robin Cohen, thanks for making me smile and being my honorary camper. Beth Mednick, thanks for being there and caring about the kids. Aviva, Penny, and Kyra, my specialists trio, thanks for enduring the tough times and helping to make the girls happy. Josh, Jacob, Brian and David, thanks for being out of bed on time - ha ha! (just joking), thanks for helping out. Happy and Rebecca, thanks for keeping me in good spirits and Rebecca thanks for the chocolate chip chunk muffins a la Bubbie. To Mike Druckman, thanks for keeping the section safe at once with your authority. Toby, thanks for being a great friend and confident. I'll miss you all. A special thanks to Jon Ross, the "I do everything man", for being there and being responsible.

Well now that I've dragged this on and that the original picture of a thousand words are ten thousand, I'll try to bring it to a close.

The days will quickly come to a close and the summer of Camp Kadimah 1991 will be another year in the record books. Through the hot weather and drought, everyone persevered. Thanks Kochot 1991, campers and staff for making this one of my most memorable summers at Kadimah. Hope to see you in 1992, but we'll play it by ear for now.

I love you all

Jason Hamburg XOXO

P.S. I'd like to quickly acknowledge my close group of friends that have been at my side for the last four years, Mike Yablon (you are a great cabinmate and friend, keep in touch).

Ali Gurevitch, you are very special to me as you already know. Wendy Hyman, see you in Montreal for another year of laughs, and work!

Jamie Cohen, Abbie Offman and all the rest, keep in touch.

Dear Suds

I'm going 2 miss your showers, woody all your lovers (but of course I wasn't one of them ~~o~~ joke) Thank & never taking me sailing. U Better WRITE ME OR I'll Kill U

KOCHOT SONG 1991 (TUNE: "THE OBVIOUS CHILD")

Du Du, Du Du
Du Du, Du Du

Well, we're back in Kochot now
Full Force we've groovin' as one
We don't expect to be treated like kids no more
It's time for us to score
Machar thinks it's a lie, a lie, a lie
Why deny Kochot's style
Why deny Kochot's style

Well. we're gonna get started now
Stand back we're movin' to the top
We say our staff is hot
Our kids are fresh
We're here to soar about the rest
Yesh Lanu Koach
There's no doubt that we're the best

We're gonna have a party
We're gonna have a blast
With Jason and the frats, it's cooler than the past
Well, we're gonna get started now
Stand back, we're movin' to the top!
Kochot!

A FIRST YEAR KID'S PERSPECTIVE ON CAMP KADIMAH

When I first stepped off the bus, Camp Kadimah looked new, strange, small and different. I was immediately dragged to the pavilion and met by my councillors, Heidi Rubin, Robin Cohen and Beth Mednick. I walked across the bridge, barely making it alive through the horde of Macharnicks. I then saw my new home for the next six weeks; Cabin 15. It was not what I expected. It was small with four bunkbeds and three singles. But all the occupants had a grin on their faces. When I started to unpack, I realized I had no shelves and I kept hitting my head on the top bunk above me. The next thing I noticed was the bathroom. Some people would probably say "what bathroom?" Cabin 15 probably had the smallest bathroom in the whole camp. At dinner time, I was shocked when I saw the whole chadar filled with happy campers and counsellors. The meal was good and I was introduced to Kadimah traditions; alley-oop, the nose thing, and the dreaded tornaut. But my biggest surprise was the spirit from the four sections. It is only two weeks into camp but I already feel part of this camp's happy family.

FRAT NIGHT

For one evening program, Kochot had a frat night. There were four stations and each person had to go to a station and do what was required. Then the heads of the fraternities discussed who would be in each frat, and they told us. The fraternities are א.ר.ר. ע.י.ר.ר. א.י.ר.ר. Each person went to their frat and had initiation. All through the summer, we have had frat night to do activities to earn points for our frats. It is a lot of fun.

Joanna Trager

Camp Kadimah is really great. Although there are some bad times the good times are much more often.

At Camp Kadimah, you can't find any better friend because the friends here are the best. So when you realize this, don't think of the bad times, because the good times always come before that.

Heidi Wengle & Elysa Rodier

My name is Jordan Lampert and this is my 5th year at Camp. My favorite activity is sports. At camp, we play a lot of sports. A few days ago, Kochot got back from a hike; it was a mini maccabia for our section. I was on Blue Team and we won. My captains were Daniel Levine and Marnina Webber; my girlfriend's sister.

CABIN 9 OF '91

I have been in Cabin 9 for two years in a row. I love cabin 9 because it is so spacious. Both of the years I have been in the exact same bed. In my cabin there is Candice, Zena, Naomi, Rachel, Gayle, Elysa, and Samara. We are all pretty good friends, though we do have our ups and downs. There has only been two weeks in camp but I am sure it will be great with all the amazing staff and fun kids.

Elaine Zitner

Dear Cabin 9...

By Gayle Fried

I'm going to try to make this rhyme.
This summer was great,
how we got along was mere fate.
What would we do without Dana's clothes and Sam's conversation about her nose.
Candace cause of you our cabin smelt divine,
Naomi your dancing is oh so fine.
Rachel your imagination is wild,
and Yane your playful as a child.
Elyssa your hair is so perfect,
Zena your chicken pox are your only defect.
Cabin 9 I hoped you enjoyed this rhyme and I'll miss you tons.

F-L-C

It's been great this summer at kadimah. Cabin 9 you're the best.

Memories

Zena and her chicken pocks
Elaine and her Blanky
Naomi when Danna S.H.V.W.S
Gayle and her Nudism
Shawna and her poisson(song from Little Mermaid)
Rachelle and her laugh
Kyra's always just kidding
Daniel Levine and his dare on hityashvut
Heidi and her sloppiness

CAMP

Camp is a lot of fun,
Cleaning is always done
You run to breakfast, lunch and dinner.

There's a dance every Saturday,
Levitation was Friday and this poem started today.

We still love the rules we bend,
our clothes we lend,
are nearing the end.

We still remember our memories and melodies of Camp Kadimah.

DEAR CABIN 15...

It is only the second week of camp and we are already having a blast. I am not going to make this long and mushy so I just want Cabin 15 chicks to remember these special moments.

- Frogman
- Robin's Bed
- Pile on
- little mermaids
- kodac moments
- a little to the left and so much more... I know we are going to have four amazing weeks and we will all keep in touch. I love you all.

Love, Jodi and Bluie

THINGS ABOUT KOCHOT

Kochot, Kochot is the second last section before you are a counsellor in training, known as a CIT. Notice I skipped Machar because it is not worth mentioning yet. Before I get into any big details, I would like to say a word (or paragraph) to my fellow cabinmates. I will always remember the night of July 14, 1991 before evening program, Abbie's book, and also remember my cheif.

Love always,
Shawna Rinzler

Everyone has friends with some having more than others but we all have friends. To most, friends are extremely important. We, at camp, are really lucky because aside from the fact that we can enjoy our year round friends, we have friends that we spend 6 weeks with annually. We live, laugh and love (kind of corny) with them more than with others. The only problem is that we only see them for a brief period of time each year. Six weeks out of 52 is so short and I feel stupid (contrary to popular belief) even thinking that I used to say six weeks was a very long time. At camp, I'm sorry to say that it's inevitable not to take our time with each other for granted. Time flies by so quickly shown by Kadimah being half over and seeming to have just started.

August 12th rolls around and for almost another year, communication is lost. Instead of being sad to leave our friends, we must hold on to the memories that have been created until more may be created.

This year I was on red team. We came in last but what place you come in doesn't matter. It's just to have fun. We had great captains. John Mendelson, Lesley Stevens, Candy Lilienfeld and Jacob Medjuck. They were very cool.

Debra Jacobson

Sports at Kadimah

The sports here are o.k. especially when you've got one of the worlds best gym teachers Herb Cohen who can teach you basketball, baseball, hockey and other great sports. There's also boys house leagues which are very organised. Sports at kadimah are the best!!!!

Sam Gorenstein

On July 9 1991 Kochot section was on a Hitiushvut and my counsellor was stung by a bee. His name is Brian Indig. Jason Hamburg then gave him his needle, Then he was rushed to the hospital but the doctor was not there so they went to his house. When Brian was gone I was very afraid that he may die. When Brian came back I was very glad to see that he was O.K. Brian went back to camp with Sobes. The next day we went back to camp. I got off the bus and was glad to see camp.

Dov Arinov

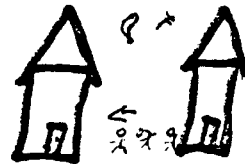

It's only two weeks into camp but already there are so many memories! This is definitely going to be the best summer of my life! So far we've had Hityashvut, Frat nights, Frat spats, two socials, many boys, broken some beds (Robin), had some talks(cabin 15), and just had plain old fun! Thanks again for everything! Love always, Beth Cohen.

You have to admit Iton writing is sort of boring. when someone says, "Today is an iton writing day" everyone groans, "No, not today please!!" but some if us realized that after a while by the end of the year, we appreciate what we did cause some of us live in a small community, and don't get to see our friends as often. So after all iton writing is fun at the end. So listen all you people who hate iton writing remember all the memories you will get at the end of every year. Be grateful for what is happening cause some day during the year you will get terribly bored, then you will pull our your iton and laugh at all the memories you have all in that one book. So remember, have fun writing your itons next year. Love always, Shawna Rinzler - a fellow frogwoman.

Hityashvut Captains Message

Something to save, that's how it all began. That Sunday evening, as Kyra was singing, Hityasvut 1991 broke out, and much to our surprise, we were chosen to be captains. At that moment, we didn't realize the responsibilities ahead of us. The next morning we loaded the buses and were ready for our long adventure at Keji. As the days progressed we were busier than we would have ever expected. When it was all over we were just glad to have a shower, decent food, and sleep.

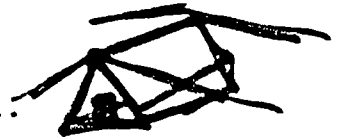

We would like to thank everyone who participated in Hityashvut 1991. It was definitely a most memorable experience.

1st Blue: Daniel and Marnina

2nd White: David and Beth

3rd Red: Saul and Candice

Sincerely the Hityashvut Captains of '91.

The Windjammers

Hello, my name is Simcha Attis and this is my seventh summer at camp. In all my years of camp I've never seen so many special programs. One of the special programs this summer was the Halifax Windjammers who gave a talk on drugs and played basketball. They weren't even trying when they played our team. Well I really like camp and the special programs.

The things I must thank

There is a rock I must thank. This rock lives by the shoreline.

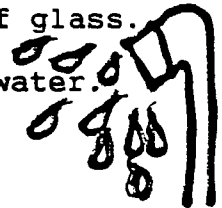

There is a bed I must thank. This bed is wooden.

There is a shelf I must thank. This shelf holds a lot of clothes.

There is a cabin I must thank. This cabin has people in it.

There is a window I must thank. This window is made of glass.

There is a shower I must thank. This shower gives me water.

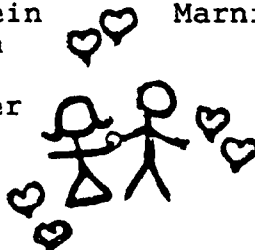

Thanks a lot from Butthead
(Inspired by Toby Carnat)

Frats

In Kochot section there were four frats during the summer. We did different activities with our frats such as sex night, frat feud and others which I had a really good time at. At the beginning of the summer we had to be initiated into the different frats. I hope we do many other interesting things with our frats.

One of the reasons I came to Camp Kadimag is my father came here when he was my age in 1964. He has been telling all of the good and bad times he had at camp, since I was about 5 years old. But on of those things stood out "The raids" all sorts of them: I am having all the same times he had, and I probably will tell them to my kids. Aaron Trager

F.E.F.

During pre camp, Robbie Cohen, Steven Lecker and I, Adam Block concluded that we, amongst the rest of the great staff of Kadimah '91, were quite unique; we had a very special talent. Without being too graphic, our talent lied within our bowels. Just before our campers arrived, we, the men in 7, decided to make a contest based on the numbers of bowel movements for the rest of the summer.

As of today, July 15, 1991, I Adam Block am at 42, Steven Lecker is in the high 30's, and Robbie Cohen in the low 30's.

Rob and Lecker and Adam concluded that it was the meals with eggs in them which made us talk to the toilet more often. The sounds that came out were phenomenal.

As for the initial sounds, they would fly in the air. So from this we made F.E.F. - Fling Egg Farts.

Kochot Gossip

Strolling down lovers lane Jen was the new chick in camp and had a little trouble deciding who to choose. It was either the 2nd year Saul Offman, or the supercalifrajalisticexpaladocious Jason... After the barnyard bash her mind was made up and Jason took the prize. Brooke was the American girl searching for a stud but instead she found Suds. The tracks connected but as far as we know they never got stuck. La da di la da da... Then came Hityashvut. The kids were not the only ones who had fun. We'll never tell what went on under the staff tarps (Rob Cohen 2x). Candace and Marnina have moved up the ladder and are now experiencing bigger and better things. Are Machar guys really that much better? As for the staff gossip of our section just let your imagination go wild. As the weeks have progressed are girls have proven to be more than ready for Machar. Machar you think you've got it all but our girls certainly kick butt! Matt K. and Beth, Jason New Yorker Altman and Heidi W. , also, even though as the saying goes "good things come in small packages"(Ben), all good things must come to an end. Are you trying to hide someone Samara? (Mark!?!?). As for Elysa, well she's falling Miles behind. Within the rookie section of Kochot, our first hot couple has called it quits and decided they are both ready for the older and wiser. Jason has captured Po and Jen likes the spikes in Daniel. Who knows what it is but Cabin's 5 and 4 have become more than friendly neighbors. Not to forget a spark has been lit between Debra and Butthead. Jordan, ya big stud, is showing Shira what he's all about!

So this concludes the Kochot soap opera. Lover's Lane really provided some great stories and memories for us rockin Kochotniks.

It is Machar Day and it is fun without our counsellors. I'm having a great summer.

Dov Aronoff

Dear Jason,

The summer is slowly coming to an end. There are a few things that must be said. Firstly and most importantly, it's been a blast! We've laughed, cried, smiled and shared so many special, unique Kochot feelings. Feelings that we're happy to have been able to share with you.

Although at the beginning a few campers were skeptical about your switch over from bama to section head, we truly believe that you showed and taught at least us that there's more to a person than meets the eyes.

Jason, G-d knows our cabin's had its share of problems & through them all you were there to help us. Thanks a lot Jase. Your help wasn't in vain. You helped us realize what was going on and helped us grow that much more.

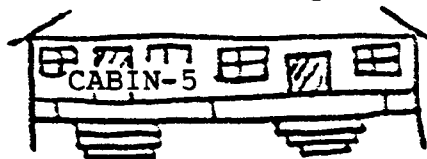

Kochot rocked this summer thanks to you. Thanks for one of the best summers ever & thanks for being our leaning post when we were falling over.

Thanks again, love,
Z and Gayle

P.S. I never got my nails

P.P.S. Jason you showed Thanks for a great summer

us all what spirit we all possess.

Remember. . . .

visiting day picnic, nuts, staff picnics on the porch, More than words, Brooke and Debra shaving, Tiffany's Kermit the frog, the female softball league, being late, eating, eating and more eating, King of Wishful Thinking, Mira flying, the cabin 4 boys, sitting on the rock, levitating, Jen's many men, terrible cabin cleanups ( we tried), being wild at night, borrowing clothes, Joyce's rafterball, the flying cookie, Gramma Perlin cookies, late night talks, dancing, Andrea's camera, Nikki's Israeli music, Rissers beach and the waterslides, Hityashvut, the Kochot play, talking on the rock, sliding down the bannister, eating again, Rebecca, Happy and Syma going crazy!!! WE LOVE YOU CABIN 5 !!

Dear Cabin 5

I'm watching you all play softball right now a few minutes before the Iton deadline so I decided to write you all a quick letter to thank you for such an amazing summer. You are eleven very different girls with three very different staff and I am amazed that we all got along so well most of the time. Nuts 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10,11 and me nut 12. Tiffany you are nut 1 because you really are nuts and I guess I forgive you for ALWAYS leaving your clothes on my bed, Carly, I don't think you stopped talking about food all summer especially lemon chicken, and Carly, congratulations on the girls softball league. Mira, you are defiantly night owl #1 and I've really enjoyed our late night talks. Keep smiling and if all else fails, tap dance, Erika. . . Excuse me! Getting you up in the morning was always fun. . . NOT, sorry about the tooth fairy. Andrea your pictures of the cows were always entertaining, that camera came just in time. Joyce you are quite a dancer, you surprised us all, and my spanish has defiantly improved since you got here. Debra, thank you for all of the hugs and yes, you and Rachel are defiantly the messiest people in camp. Rachel, aside from being the other messy Jacobson, you are so full of energy it is amazing. Always remember that the Toronto Blue Jays will always be better than the Boston Red Sox. Nikki your Israeli music was always an interesting change to our usual music blasting in the cabin (More than words, King of wishful thinking . . .) Brooke you are the craziest kid but defiantly lovable all the time. You received the most mail as a camper in Camp Kadimah history and I've never seen one camper have as much food as you before. Jen you are an amazing dancer and we've all been jealous of your supply of men. You are night owl #2 and thank you for the talks. Well girls what can I say except thank you and always remember the fun we've had this summer and the nutty things we've done. Syma and Happy, thanks for keeping me sane as much as possible. Our late night picnics were the best, Gramma Perlin cookies can solve any problem at two in the morning. I will miss you all

SWIM INSTRUCTION

Gee, swim instruction is the best peulah in camp. I'm in green class and I love doing at least eight laps a class because it is so good for my cardiovascular system. I love swim instruction. More than any other stroke I love elementary back stroke, I think it is the most useful stroke of all.

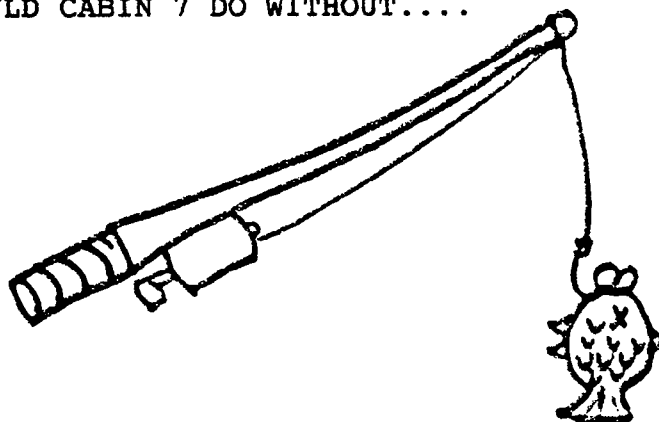

Thank-you waterfront staff!
Love, David Rosenfeld

MACHAR DAY

Machar Day is today, my councellors are Jon Honey, Leigh Lampert, Mitch Abrams, Marc Helwani, Richard Lipkus and Aaron Pink. My section heads are Kiever Calp and Jody Sadofsky. The camp director is Kenny Kunin. I'm having a great time up to now.

MACHAR DAY

This year, Machar Day was not as much of a surprise than in previous years. I knew that it was coming up. After days of work, the Macharniks were very upset with the rainy weather forcing them to change the schedule. Jesse Guberman, Kiever Calp, Willie Strug, Kenny Kunin, and Barak Quieja were among some of the great haed staff. The funniest event of the day was our YITZ, after supper we played the dating game which included asking funny questions ending up with hilarious answers. I think the Macharniks did the best anyone could do with a rainy day schedule, I really enjoyed Machar Day.

Saul Offman

MACHAR DAY

This day was pretty nice even though it rained. It was a great time because Machar learned about being a counsellor, and it was fun.

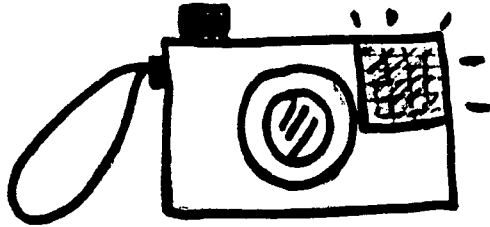

Sam Gorenstein

RIZZER'S BEACH

On July 29th Kochot section went to Rizzer's Beach. It was fun, we had a great time. The water was very cold but refreshing, it was so cold that when you walked in your feet froze to death. Afterwards we lay on the beach to get warm and to dry off. After a while we started to take pictures of each other in funny positions. We can't wait until next year when we go again!

Cabin 9

Camp was gr-8 this year. Cabin 9, I'm going to miss you. I hope that everybody is going to come back. I can't believe the summer is almost over. It felt like we came to camp yesterday. I can't wait until next year in "Machar". It will be the best. I'm going to miss F.L.C., especially when we did it to Sheldon. I miss you and I love you. Keep in touch

Love, Ceba
( Danna )

Yesterday we went to Risser's Beach and to the water slides. It was amazing. We had a lot of fun. It's been a great summer, and I hope to see all my friends next summer in camp.

by: Erica Yazer

Food Parties of cabin 5

The night of visiting day after the talent show (not to mention where cabin 5 proved to be budding actresses.) we decided to have a party with all our food. We started off with Debra's chocolate cake and went on to everything else imaginable. Then with our sugar levels rocketing we went on a wild rampage through the section. We then became ashamed of ourselves because we realized we had been disturbing Rad Hayom. After that all was quiet.

By: Brooke and Mira

In kochot, cabin 9 has to be the best cabin. We do almost everything together. We get along very well, even though we have our bad times.

The most important thing was F-L-C. A secret I cannot and will not tell so just keep being curious.

Another neat thing was levitations. So to all those who have had the feeling, you know what I mean. I know our cabin will be together for a while and I hope everyone will come back next year so we can be together again.

Love ya cabin 9,

Samara Attis XOXOX

Hi my name is Jordan Lampert. The other day we finished Maccabia and I was on blue team and we came first. Today is Machar day. My counsellors are Mitch Abrams, Aaron Pink, Richard Lipkus, Lee(the flea) Lampert, My brother and Marc Helwanni. It's not that bad.

Jordan Lampert

Sailing

I've only went sailing once since I got to camp. It was pretty fun. We tipped over twice on purpose in the laser. I'm looking forward to other times.

By Simon Mcknight

Other poulahs are fun and exciting. I like sports and canoeing, they are alright. I also like shirkud with Heidi Brown this year instead of Conan the Librarian. I still like sailing the best.

By Simon McKnight

My Cabin

My cabin is awesome this year. There is Elliot Noel, me, Jason Epstein, Freeman, Rob Mazen, Adam Wanderer, Dov Aranov, and all the way from Venezuela, Danny Sensel. My counsellors are Jacob Rosenfeld, Brian Indig, Josh Lief and David Lipkus. Dave replaced John Ross who is now in cabin 6. I sleep next to Brian and under Jason. But I like sailing the best.

Toranut and Clearing the table.

Booooooooooooooooooh. I hate it a lot but I like sailing the best.

By: Simon Mcknight

Every year at Kadimah to me, is unique. New friendships developed during these summers and to those who I am only slightly acquainted to, I regret not knowing you better. They do say that a friend to all is a friend to none, but this year at camp has proven quite successful anyhow.

To cabin 9: You guys were the greatest. It really seldom that an entire cabin unites and gets along. Although we had no full time staff, when you guys were there, you were the greatest!

Zena: You'll always be more intelligent and rational than me. We think differently but still manage to get along. Never forget who U wanted 2 Marry.

Candice, I mean Stu: For the first couple nights of camp, I was afraid I'd have to gag you or you'd never shut your trap. I'm sure you'll remember the definitions of glass cases and herpangina for a while. You were a great laugh. Never change.

Elaine and Sam, The siamese joined at the hip: Forget about the first skit of our friendship program after our day off. Yaine (easy) Stuff happens, get a shirt that says it all.

Elysa, the perfect one: I won't make fun of your speech impediment( I might have embarrassed you already). Keep in touch with what's his-faced and all of your many (I stress that word) admirers.

Danna, Syba, Shmo (not): I want your clothes. So does everyone else. Can I have some impulse? Thanks for washing all undergarment of mine. Never forget it and let it remind you of me.

Gayle: What would you have done without my hangy thing? Your possessions hung, were very interesting and colourful. Thanks for introducing me to Fred. Maybe one day you'll be able to introduce me to Avi Steinberg since his name pops up so frequently.

Rachel(Slut #2): I could talk about you for hours. Rape! One night or two night stands (but I don't blame you in the first case)! When you're on the rafters, you're closer to violent and ultra-violent rays so remember to wear your danger shoes. Always remember that if you think you're cool you're not!!

I love all of you guys and hope to see you all back here next summer.

Luv,
Naomi 86-88,90,91

Today is Machar day. It's pretty fun and my counsellors are pretty cool. Since it's only in the middle of Machar day I can't say much more except that: boating is the best poulat in camp.

Cabin 5

I think cabin 5 is a great cabin. I have become very close with my girls. The only problem is that cabin 4 is so much better at everything that it makes me so jealous.

DOO, DOO-WAH
DOO, DOO-WAH-WAH

everything that it makes me so jealous.

Dear Camp Machar:

If I could find the words to express my feelings about this summer, writing this farewell would certainly not be so difficult. However, the words aren't coming as easily as I perhaps would like so I will ask you all to bear with me as I ramble on.

Quite often in summers past, the success of a camp season is not seen until after we have returned to our respective homes. This summer has been different. This season's success has been evident by myself and many of you since the second week. With a new section head, new s'gan, new madrichim, and many new macharniks, what else could be expected besides a host of new, fresh, and innovative ideas for Camp Machar.

From a fun filled Orientation on days one and two through one of the most successful Machar Days ever, with a terrific Hityashvut, Erev Rock and Roll, and Yom Tzahal in between, the programming has been nothing less than outstanding.

However, how many times in the past have I emphasized that it is not the staff who are going to make a terrific summer. Nor is it the programming. We all know that the single most important ingredient to a good summer are the campers. And in this category, I could not have asked for any better.

With a brand of chevra and character uniquely your own, it is you people who have made this summer the tremendous success we all know it has been. No one ever said that seventy-seven crazy fourteen and fifteen year olds would be easy to work with, but you people have been no less than exceptional. From the first few days of camp onwards, the friendships began to grow and develop with a pace I have never witnessed before. Friendships, which hopefully will last a lifetime; that is what Machar is all about. And we can't forget the bonds which have been formed between yourselves and your staff; that too, is what Machar is all about.

When I read my contract for the summer, long before any of us arrived here, no where were the words psychologist printed. Yet through dealing with the many problems which I have been confronted with over the course of the summer, perhaps that job description should be included as well. However, the truth of the matter is, helping many of you overcome the problems in your lives has not only helped me grow as a section head, but as a person as well. I suppose that this should only be considered par for the course.

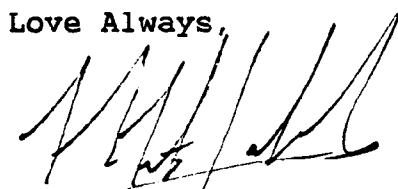

Yet I certainly would have scored worse than par if I didn't have a strong staff to help me out. To my staff, you five people have performed head and shoulders above what I could have ever anticipated. No time before have I ever worked with such competent and dedicated people. Each of you, Lesley, Uri, Stacey and Sean, have been no less than fantastic, and I attribute this summer's phenomenal success to nothing less than your incredible dedication and hardwork. Without you, this summer surely would have lacked the lustre which we have been able to attain. To Abbie, through tough times and easy ones as well, you and I have been able to overcome our own problems as well as those in the section to ensure that the campers had an awesome summer. That is what our jobs are really all about.

Finally, I have to express my feelings about you people, the Macharniks of 1991. True as it may be that it seemed at times I was always walking around without a smile on my face, in reality I can honestly say that this summer has been my most rewarding as a staff member to date. The stress of being responsible for eighty campers is enough to suppress even the brightest smile, and I genuinely believe that this was the case for me for this summer. Yet although the stress was great, the relationships I formed with many of you was far greater, and it was this strength which allowed me to continue from day to day--even if it was with a frown. The satisfaction of witnessing this section grow and develop into a highly functional unit has been amongst the most phenomenal achievements I have ever been a part of.

When all is said and done, this summer has been a tremendous success in my mind and I do believe in the minds of most of you as well. I could go on all day telling you all how much I love you and how much I am going to miss you, but frankly, I think you already know it. When the reality of the summer's end hits me, more than a few tears will be shed over thoughts of leaving you, my best friends at camp. I love you all, my friends from Machar 1991.

Love Always,

P.S. Barring death or serious personal injury, I will see most of you again next summer. I love you all.

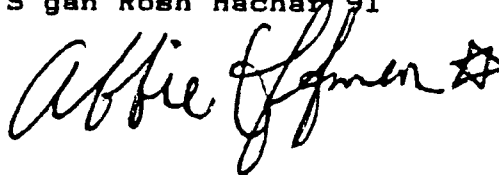

Dear Camp Machar,

It is very strange to be writing my first section (assistant that is) head report. Even stranger though is the fact that I'm writing at home with still ten days of camp left to go. I won't go in to explaining why I'm home, but I will tell you something else. It took me a night in my own bed knowing that you were still all together at camp, to make me realize how important you all are to be. Okay, so I got to watch TV and eat normal food but at many points throughout the day I thought of what you were doing. Missing Rad Hayom was pretty bad but I knew that I was missed and I could hear you singing. I feel much more relaxed now - you know how easily I get stressed - and I'm ready to give you my all for the last days we have together in Machar 1991. I also want you to know that where ever your paths lead you for the summer of 1992 I will support you. Those of you that are not at Kadimah you too will be missed and I will think of you always.

I want to thank all of you for a great summer. At times it was rough but that comes with the territory. I especially want to thank some of you (no need for names - you know who you are) for your support in those times when I didn't know which way was up. I would also like to thank my fearless leader Michael Yablon, we have had our ups and downs but I want you to know how much I love you and nothing on a professional level this summer was ever truly taken on a personnel level.

Well it is time to head back to camp now, and I'm excited to come home. I just have a few closing remarks: never try and do anything with cookie in your mouth, I've got the power and you will submit to me and to little Ace and the M. Princess I love you forever.

MACHAR SECTION SONG '91

This year was a strange year in terms of Machar songs. You see we didn't have one. But, to us in Machar, that did not make a difference. The spirit in Machar is not determined by a song or a cheer, but rather by the Macharniks.

In place of a section song, we have a song by our Machar mascots, the Barnyard Orgy.

LOVEHORSES

I've been so lonely
Since my wife left me
I'm on my way to Tennessee
To see my mare
OOh, OOh, OOH

(chorus)
Because we used to be lovehorses
Then we took our separate courses
And after the divorces
I'm so lonely
OOH, OOH, OOH

Cuz darlin' I need you
And because darlin' you need me too
And because it's so much better
When we are together
Again
(Chorus)

Music and Lyrics by Willie Strug and the Barnyard Orgy

FRIENDS

Friends can live in your cabin and sleep beside you, or above you, or below you. They can live in another cabin half way across camp or half way across the world. No matter where friends live or sleep, they have the same qualities. Friends are people, such as those in Machar, that you can trust and talk to, and just have fun with.

It's so rare to find a good friend that you can do all of these things with. Yet, when I come here to Camp Machar, I feel I can talk to, have trust in, and also have fun with every single person. I love you all as my best friends and if I don't come back to camp in years to come, I hope to keep in touch with all of you.

Love,
Adrien Adler

That Being S.F.M.

It all began July 24, 1991 when we felt challenged by our neighbouring cabin, that being "The Barn ". Giving in to the present rivalry, that being the rivalry at hand, we felt compelled to retaliate against our neighbouring cabin, that being "The Barn". Our neighbouring cabin, that being "The Barn", had created a rather clever repatoire, along with guitar accompaniment by their emotionally stable (that being stable, not "Barn".) leader, that being Uri Carnat, that being brother to Toby and Daniel. This somewhat obnoxious song, that being rude and uncalled for, clearly demonstrates to us, that being mature fifteen year old women who were born on the ninth of two months, that being February and April, their lack of any form of physical activity, that being sex or anything that slightly resembles it. WE came up, that being the direction opposite of down, with S.F.M., that being the Search for Manhood, that being the crusade for any man, which is not available in this camp, that being Kadimah that being our second home, that being right before our eyes, those being blue and brown. So we got contacts, that not being brother to the guy who knows Bob, yet being the kind that changes your eye colour, that being blue and brown, to another colour, that being purple. Despite the fact that this is untrue, that being irrelevant and unnecessary, we seem to have forgotten, that being the opposite of remembering, what we were writing about. So, we leave you with the one thing we do know, which we forgot, so we will just leave you. There we have left you.

THE END (that being completed and stopped)

THE DREAM

It was a hot spring day, the kind of day where you could spit on the sidewalk and watch it sizzle. I was walking up Stanley in downtown Montreal. It was Islamic Neo Nazi Lesbian Week and they were having a small festival with a parade. As I was walking, I happened to glance down at sidewalk for a second. I sensed anger and hatred. I looked up and I was in a large hall. Nobody was around, just abandoned tuxedos and evening gowns. I asked myself several questions, why was I here? Where is it that I am? Who owns all these tuxedos and evening gowns and if so, are they naked at that moment? All these questions raced through my head. I decided to explore the building. I entered this giant hallway where there was this old man dressed as a clown. He approached me and stuck his hand out for support. I grabbed his hand and he collapsed in to my arms, whispering, "You're going the wrong way." suddenly he turned to dust and I found myself in this dark corridor. I walked and walked for hours. All the while noting that there were dead bodies lining the corridor. I stopped to glance at one of the bodies. As I moved his body to reveal his face, I noticed that he was familiar. I checked the next few bodies and they were also familiar. I soon realized that these were all the people I'd ever been accused of stabbing since I'd started coming to Camp Kadimah. Finally I reached the end of the corridor. There was a giant steel door, locked with a giant adlock. Suddenly, I heard a rumbling. The rumbling got louder and louder until suddenly the walls started to crumble, and an entire squadron of German Ranzwer tanks came rolling in and hit the steel door. A Nazi SS officer came running out of the tank screaming. Sure enough, I looked up and there was Paris burning. The Eiffel Tower was a giant rod of fire. Suddenly, its foundation blew up and parts of the Eiffel Tower were trusted upwards into the sky. One of the pieces of fiery metal hit the Hindenburg, which was flying overhead. Consequently, it blew up. Suddenly pieces of the flaming hull fell within metres of where I was standing. I felt the heat as I was engulfed in a giant flame. and then all of a sudden, the floor began to melt and I was sucked under. My vision began to blur and suddenly everything went dark. Well.....

It's a rainy, damp and cold afternoon at Camp Kadimah. I'm lying in my bed feeling sleepy and would love to be at home with a lit fire (in the fireplace) and cuddling up with someone (opposite sex). As I lie here, I'm reflecting how the year has gone (up to date) and I realize that although it hasn't all been fun and games, it hasn't been all that bad at all. At the end of camp when I'm riding home, I know that I'll be thinking about how I spent the last two weeks. I know that for the next two weeks there will be no other place I'd rather be, than here in Camp Machar.

Eric Budovitch

"Girl, you know it's true, Oh, oh, oh I love you"...Hakshevu, Hakshevu, attention in the camp, wake up will be in five minutes. Everybody please get ready for wake up.

The cabin is motionless. A voice emanates from a pile of flies where Sean Earhard usually sleeps.

"Where does Sheldon get this music? The lost and found? Oh yeah...GET UP!!!

"The cabin is suddenly filled with an abundance of commotion. Twenty kids all eager to get out of their beds to go to breakfast, all gathered around the bathroom politely sharing the sinks. AHHH, the chevra.

"Oh my G-D!" Louis Screams. "I think Jason's dead!"

Being the humanitarian that Louis is, "Can I have his mattress?" were his next words. Sean, being the overemotional and responsible person that he is lets the cabin know he feels about the situation in a calm and responsible manner, "If Jason is dead, he doesn't have to go to breakfast."

In one instantaneous and fluid motion, everybody in the cabin falls to the floor and began to complain of chest pains and at once they all die.

Josh screams, "Stop, look at all the dirt you are tracking in!" Being the impeccably neat and tidy person that he is, he releases his anguish by taking a broom to the cabin floor.

Scott realizing his friends on the floors are in need of help, dashes to the rescue by performing artificial respiration on all of them, perfectly, flawlessly; a performance that would make even Jamie "the swim instructor who was constructed from a state of the art machinery" Cohen, quite proud.

At breakfast we all gather around a table we call our second home and clasp for every word we don't know during the blessing. Dave Cowcill loses the nose for the first time, but Louis offers to clear out of his own good will.

During rest period, Daniel and Josh debate the relevance of the bishop in chess. While Dave Feingold and Jody Stretch for evening program. Then General Swim is called.

At General Swim, people forgot their numbers and this pleases Jamie to the point where blood drips from his ears.

When General swim comes around, Elana has to be pulled from the water and when that doesn't work, we bring Stacey "lipstick that looks good in a shoe box but does it look good on you" Offman our resident psycho, I mean, psychologist, to coach Elana out of the water.

At boating, four budding maniacs surprisingly convince Aaron Kuriloff that they can sail, and so Jonah, Steve, Morris and Jacob say goodbye to their friend as they enter the boat fearing they will never return. After the second thoughts have passed, they set off. Later showboating for spectators on the beach, they bring their boat by the docks to impress Aaron, Jonah and Jacob wave to those on the dock as they cook by in the sail boat, but what bystanders could not see because of the sail was blocking their view was that Morris and Steven were paddling their hearts out. When the boat turned, Steve and Morris on the other side stopped and waved while Jonah and Jacob began to pump adrenalin into their arms to maintain a momentary reputation of control and ease as they continue to play the charade of sailors who actually know what they are doing. They dock the boat and upon returning to the cabin, they looked as if they had brought a good part of the lake back with them, and when they wrung out their clothes the water level of the lake rose two feet.

They changed quickly and joined the rest of the camp for supper

After a most sumptuous meal of hairy chicken and fresh crisp vegetables everybody proceeded to wash down with a glass of the camp's own special brew of "Juice with bugs." (a literal translation derived from the English bug juice)

Then Machar as a whole rose as one with such unity, spirit and emotion that the entire camp stood in awe.

To keep the mood, one William Strug and company, rose and with one great motion, treated the camp to yet another rendition of LoveHorses. By then everyone supposedly knew the song and so everybody joined in to make it a heart warming sing-a-long that would make any other camp jealous.

Stacey clashed with her lipstick, Lesley smiled on the inside, Uri grew an inch and Mike told us of his personal problems, and what have you.

The boys rushed back to the cabin so that Sean could get out early, but of course it took forty five minutes for everybody to help Scott remove his socks which seemed to stick to his feet and carry as similar odour to that of cheesy doritos.

When at last O.P.D. walked in and everybody was finally in bed, we said good night to him and then began the evening entertainment.

Scott played gameboy while Jason played with -----? Richard walked across the cabin and remembering the statue of himself that Louis made, out of a milk container at lunch, Richard decided not to sit on Louis's bed in hope that he may live to attend his own birthday.

At that moment, Louis and Dave Miller walked in with a bag of candy.

Upon being asked on their where abouts for the past few minutes, Louis replied, "I was confronting him!" This sounded very muffled and looked rather funny seeing how Louis's mouth wouldn't open very far considering the fact that his teeth were glued shut with caramel candies.

At that moment, Dave Pink, the most outgoing guy in the cabin, pointed out that we were too loud and in between words of blasphamy, he asked us to refrain from talking or at least to maintain a most respectable level of noise, and because we are all true gentlemen, we responded in unison with rather rude hand gestures and then continued to carry on. Being the rather forceful person that Dave Pink is he took out his anger on innocent Keiver who in turn flatted Dave into a waffle "Leggo my Eggo!"

The rest of the night went by quietly and when O.P.D. returned, all of his precious campers were asleep.

THE END

This was my last year as a camper and leave this story as a reminder to those who enjoy confusement.

The story is mainly composed of Inside jokes, but I still believe that most of you outsiders will enjoy them.

I came to camp late, as you all know and I couldn't fit in. It wasn't you that were excluding me, but in fact, the exact opposite. It was me, not letting myself know it here. Always remember

THE WAY FROM THE SUMMER CAMP TO THE WINTER CAMP IS DIFFERENT AND SPECIAL IN IT'S OWN CAMP ETC. I NOW UNDERSTAND THAT EACH PLACE IS DIFFERENT AND SPECIAL IN IT'S OWN CAMP ETC.

Hey Becky, hey Jody, I think we should write some things we always sing. What's that? Oh yah, how could we forget, 1...2...3, here we go.

Why do birds suddenly appear everytime you are near
Just like me, they long to be close to you
Why do stars fall down from the sky everytime you walk by
Just like me they long to be close to you
On the day that you were born the angels got together and decided to create a dream come true
So they sprinkled moondust in your hair and golden starlight in your eyes of blue do do do do
That is why all the girls in town
Follow you all around
Just like me, they long to be close to you
On the day....

Thank you very much Machar 1991 for making this summer one of the best summers in my life. I have learned a lot about myself, how to treat people who is younger than me, and I have made a lot of new friendships, and I hope that these friendships never broke.

Thanks to everyone in Cabin 16 for help me when I ask for help and support me when I needed.

Hi, how is everyone? I'm o.k. Will to tell you the truth I'm very upset. We are leaving in less than three weeks. What's going to happen in these three weeks? I hope more friendships arise and less fights occur.

Around this time last year the second years were telling me to take advantage of next year (1991). I really didn't believe them until it came to loading the buses to come this year. I realized that this is my last year as a camper. What was I going to do next year? I have grown up with the same people for nine years. We are all going to go our separate ways. How many people are planning to come as a C.I.T.? How many people are going to Biluim? I don't know what I'm going to do. What should I do? I'll miss everyone whatever I do!

Thankyou to everyone who gave me advice and who helped me when I needed it the most. To all the first years take advantage of next year. Take it from me, take it day by day.

love,

Dearest Camp Machar,

I have always wanted to write one of those good, sentimental and meaningful articles that sums up my Kadimah years, but I find myself at a loss of words. After experiencing Gib, Gosh, Kochot and Machar, I can truly say that Machar is the "ultimate" section. Machar is special. It is compiled of unique individuals who give their own personal best to the section. This is what Machar is all about and why "camp" Machar is different than all other sections. Having experienced Rad Hayom, one counsellor in the cabin, split ages among the many other wonderful gifts Machar offers, I believe that Machar has changed my life. It has made me appreciate my friends and has taught me a lot about people.

In experiencing these feelings, I have yet many people to thank. I cannot list names as I know I will find myself forgetting someone and having people feel left out. I give a special thank you to those who I knew by face before but only have truly befriended this year (you know who you are). I thank you for always being there with your big smiling faces, to those new Machaniks who made the big effort to come and those new Macharniks who made the big effort to come and introduce themselves, and most of all to my oldest friends and dearest friends who are always there and who understand me. "Just a shoulder to lean on and someone to say everything will be alright." I believe that this statement was portrayed to its fullest this summer. I have used it, and have enjoyed helping out those when they are not at their best. I think it is those times that make us feel stronger.

As I sit here in a pool of tears (what else is new?) I don't know how to say goodbye to my youth at Kadimah. My happiest moments have been spent here. When it comes down to the last few hours, when we are all signing itons, crying in each other's arms and finally boarding the buses I don't know how I am going to survive. Some of you I may never see again so I will say goodbye. So the rest of you, please keep in touch. Remember, the telephone and the post office were invented for a reason. I really love all of you, and I believe that Machar worked this summer because we all say that and mean it. I know I do. I have never found endings easy and this is no exception, use what you learned this summer don't put it to waste. You all have a lot to offer. Thank you once again. I meant every word that I said.

I love you

Love always and forever,
Jennifer Miller XOXO

P.S. I knew I'd forget people. To the staff: Lesley, thank you for setting my head in the right direction. Stacey, thanks for all your help during Maccabia and for always listening. Sean, thanks for our conversations. I learned a lot. Uri, thanks for your big smile and for sharing your thoughts. Abbie, I think we straightened it all out. And Mike, thanks for every thing, especially for believing in me!

Dear Machar, 1991

"..and the seventh angel poured forth his bowl into the air and a voice cried out from heaven saying, 'It is done'"

For many of you, you will never be a camper again. I, like many of you, will not be returning to Camp Kadimah ever again. Our childhood is over, and it is time to move on. I now realize that I will never see the majority of you ever again and it hurts. It hurts to know I will be leaving behind some of the best friends I'll ever have. So I bid you a last farewell, perhaps one day in the future, our paths will cross again.

Our names are Robyn and Carmi and we would like to tell you about our summer. WE both have the same feelings about camp Machar. To be honest with everyone, this has been our best summer at camp! To all the members of Cabin 13, we love you all, and we had a wicked summer with you! WE all got along great and lets keep it that way! Our counsellors were awesome! They were always there when we needed them.

Thanks Lesley, Stacey, Sean and Uri!

Mike, you were incredible, you were one hell of a great section head and hope 2 C U next year as the Rosh Machar.

To all of the other campers, we love you so much and lets all keep in touch.

Thanks for a wonderful summer, hope 2 C U all next year

We love you

This is my first year in Machar and I've made lots of great friends. We do a lot of fun things like we have Army Day, Machar Day and we also have a day off. Machar Day is the best because you get to take over the camp and you can see what it is like to be a counsellor, to try and keep things in order. We also have rad which is when all the Macharniks get together and sing. After rad hayom is over have a lengthy hug session.

Dear Camp Machar,

I've been asked to come to this camp for about four years but have been rejecting the offers. I am really glad that this year I listened to my friends and came. Machar is the best thing that ever happened to me. I love everything and everyone in this unit. I hope that these friendships will really last forever. And the section saying is one hundred percent right. I agree that right now there is no place I'd rather be than a summer in Machar. My memories will last forever. The summer flew by and too bad Machar is over for the second years. Machar I'll never forget summer '91!

Love always,
Erica Ostrega
Machar '91

Dear Camp Machar,

As I sat down to write an article for the Iton, I had no idea what to write about. As I sat in my crowded cabin, the past weeks flashed before my eyes. Erev Rock n'Roll, Hityashvut, Maccabia, and Machar Day were just a few things I remembered. Although camp may be almost over, the memories we all share will last a life time.

So here I am, thinking, what should I write about? I know, I'll say what's on my mind (it's a bad habit that I have) Well, here goes.

I feel cheated sorry I did to blurt it out) I want so badly to fail Machar and to have as many and more memories with all you guys next year. The only problem, I can't. I also feel cheated because, I'm afraid all of you won't remember me, or worse, I won't remember all of you.

However, there is one thing I want to say, thank you. Thanks to everyone who made this summer, the best possible summer of my life.

With love forever
Dawn Krigstin

This is my first year in Camp Kadimah and I love it. This camp is very special. It made me closer to people. I've never been this close with anybody like I am here.

On July 21, there was a holiday of great sadness. It made me learn about the Jews and who we really are. It was sad but it made me realize a lot about my religion.

July 23 was Machar Day. I loved it. I felt mature and respected.

I'm coming back next year for sure. It's going to be sad to leave. I hope I will keep in touch with everyone.

Dear Camp Machar,

Well the summers is almost over and soon Machar '91 will be over too. It's so hard to believe, I mean I can remember like it was yesterday that I was stepping off the bus on the ABC field and being rushed to the shuffleboard courts to get an M on my face. Soon it is going to be a memory, in our minds like getting a new bike, but to me Machar '91 won't be shoved to the back of my head like the other memories. This memory will hold a special place in my heart. like all of you do. As I think back over the summer, I can't help but laugh over some of the crazy things we did to get to know each another, such as getting funny nicknames and playing silly memory games.

To all of the new members of our family, I hope you seriously take a long time to decide on if you are coming back next summer, because as I said each and every person in this section will forever hold a special place in my heart and my summer wouldn't have been the same without you. I love you all and I always will.

Love always,

Heidi

P.S. Thanks cabin 10 for being there when I needed someone to talk to.

Dear Camp Machar,

Although this is my first year at camp, I feel like I have been here forever. the people here are great, even on the first day. People I had never met before came up to me and gave me hugs! It's so hard to believe that I have made so many close friends in such a short period of time! Thank you, Camp Machar, for a wicked summer and I hope to see all of you next summer!

Love always and forever,

Dear Camp Machar,

Even though this is only my first year here, I feel like and wish I've been here forever. This has been without a doubt, the best summer of my life. Cabin 13, thanks so much for being there when I needed you. for these of you who aren't coming back next year, I'll miss you and hope we keep in touch. For those of you who are, I'll be counting the days until we're back together. I'll miss you all. I had a great time and I hope you all did as well.

Well it's that time of year again. yes, it is time to leave camp. Even though this is my first summer at Camp Kadimah, I have learned very quickly what Machar is all about. Machar is about friendships, about strong family bonds. That is what and hopefully you think we are, one huge family, who will stick together through thick and thin. Even the campers who are leaving early all have the feeling and awe of friendship in Machar forever more.

Regretfully, I am leaving early. I have to leave early because I am going on vacation to Edmonton on August 6. So I am leaving camp on August 4. Leaving Machar is going to be one of the hardest things to do for me. I will miss so much, all of my friends here, all of the Rad Hayom. People may think why? Well because at Rad Hayom that is where we get all together and really connect. The hug session afterwards is even better because not only do we get to say goodnight in a more personal note but you get to hug the person you really like. And that is the best of all.

Since I am leaving early I will miss so much. I will miss the banquet at the end of the year. As of what I heard about the banquet, it is fabulous. I will also miss the play that we are presenting at the end of camp. The play for this year is "Les Miserables." I really wanted to be part of the action, so to speak. I wanted to be a part of the play, whether it be actually playing a part or just being stage crew. I guess, though, even though I am missing a major play and the banquet I can look back and see what I have been a part of. And just to name a few, I was part of Erev Rock N'Roll, Maccabiah, Machar Day and many more things which in my eyes were really cool and lots of fun.

My good friend, Lisa, has been asking me to go to this camp for three years and I didn't want to go because of past experiences with another camp. I guess what I had experienced there (ridicule) traumatized me so much that I never went to camp again. Finally this year Lisa convinced me to go. I went to the camp reunion in Toronto where I met Mike Yablon, our wacky, psychotic, but extremely nice section head. Everybody who I met at the reunion half convinced me to go. The other half was left to me. What a big decision! As time went on I finally decided to face my fear of camp and obviously decided to go. And that is the story of my life!?!

When I first came to this camp, I looked out my sisters in Machar and said to myself, "Wow they are so cool to be in Machar!" And now, I'm here!! I can't believe it! Through the three weeks I have been here, I have learned so much about myself and what Machar really means. To me, Machar means unity and friendship. I am usually not very mental about camp. But I feel that Machar is a very special thing, it is not only a section it is a feeling of being special in a unique section. I know that most people in camp think Machar is just a bunch of conceited kids and counsellors. You can think that but, wait until you get here, you will feel the same way I did. Machar, I love you!!

Dear Camp Machar,

This is my third year at camp. The other summers have been awesome, but this summer has been incredible. First of all I lived my cabin this summer. Thanks guys for being there when I needed you. Only three more weeks left of camp and I am already going to miss everyone. The programs have been wicked. Once again, I am really going to miss everyone so much. We better keep in touch, and to the second year Macharniks have a great time if you are going to Biluim or I'll see you next year and to the first years, see all of you next year!

Love,
Gabi

Love you all

Dear Camp Machar,

Well sad enough to say this is my last summer as a camper at Camp Kadimah. I can honestly say that 1990 and 1991 were the best two years of my life. I'm going miss everyone so much. I would like to thank everyone who made my last two summers so special. I hope to see a lot of people at Biluim and if not I hope to see you in two years when I return to Kadimah as a counsellor (counsellor). I will miss you guys so much! I hope we all keep in touch. I will miss you all!

Love always,

THE GENERAL STORE

One day Mandi said to Yona, "Let's go to the General Store."
"Oh, O.K.," said Yona.
So they went.

CANOEING

One day, the girls decided to go canoeing. I'm excited to go canoeing!" said Candy. "We're not," said Yona and Mandi. So they went to the General Store.

SHABBAT CLEANUP

One day Lesley spoke to the cabin. She said, "It is Shabbat Cleanup." "Oh, O.K.," said Mandi and Yona. and they went to the General Store.

INCENSE

One day the cabin smelled bad. "Let's light a stick of incense," said Mandi. "Oh, O.K.," said Yona. "But wait," said Candy, "isn't that when you have sex with your family?" "No," said Yona and Mandi. "Oh O.K.," said Candy. So they lit a stick of incense.

LUNCH

One day Lesley said, "Lunch is now. Go!" "Oh, O.K.," said Mandi and Yona. "Will we be are having sex with our families?" said Candy. "No," said Yona and Mandi, so they lit a stick of incense.

BASEBALL

One day, the girls decided to play baseball. "I'm excited to have sex with my family," said Candy. "We're not," said Mandi and Yona. "Oh, o.k.," said Candy, "can we light a stick of incense though?" "Oh, o.k.," said Mandi and Yona. So they did.

THE QUEST

(dedicated to the midnight wailers of cabin 14)

I awake from a dream, with a splitting headache. I dreamt I was a head staff member, sitting at head table, going head to head with head buggy, over the morning headlines. I realized that I should have my head examined which led me to my quest.

P.S. The Quest never ends.

Tuesday, July 23, 1991

Well today is Machar Day and so far so good. This morning was exciting. There was a small fire and a few awesome peulot. Our first peulah was called "Stump the Staff", and that's exactly what my group did. We tied for first place. It was a lot of fun. Next we had Melyad and made sundaes. That was also a lot of fun.

MACCABIAH AND MACHAR DAY

This being my first summer, I did not know what to expect from Maccabiah and Machar Day.

When Maccabiah broke during the Windjammers game I had no idea what was going on. For the next four days, I would be in hue competition with my peers. Even though my team came in last place, I still had a lot of fun.

Machar Day was a new experience for me. For one day I got to be the counsellor of the seven Gibbies of Cabin C. Although at times they were crazy, it was still fun.

So far this summer has been great, and I am looking forward to coming back next year.

The cuttings found around the borders of the past few pages are excerpts from our Machar Diary. The Machar Diary is a new but now integral part of our daily lives. Each day at Rad Hayom, one person gets the chance to write in the dairy to not only record the events of the day, but also to share his/her feelings about Machar.

Machar is very special to all of us. Almost every day, something happens in our normal camp lives that makes us stop and reflect on what Machar means. However, someday and for some people this will not occur. The diary forces us to ponder Machar on a daily basis. The summer is too short to let any day go by and not think about how lucky we are to spend a summer together in Camp Machar.

In the months to come, we will remember this summer with smiles and with tears. Some of us will look forward to another summer in Machar, others will be making other plans. Whatever our individual futures hold, the diary, every night of the summer, makes us cherish the moment and makes us realize that RIGHT HERE, RIGHT NOW, THERE IS NO OTHER PLACE I'D RATHER BE.

C.I.T.'s 1991 -- Looking Back!

This is easily the most difficult article that I have had to write. It is 3:00 am the morning before the Iton is being sent into Halifax to be printed and I will sit here all night if that is how long it takes me to convey my thoughts to you.

For the past five years I have been in Machar and it was a difficult decision for me to make to move into the C.I.T. program. I am not quite sure why I made the decision, but I am happy that I did. The experience was entirely new, and from day one I knew that I had made the correct decision.

For most of you this is our third year together, and I could think of no greater finale to your years as campers and to mine as staff, than to spend it together. Each of the past two summers I have written to you the most heart warming thoughts that I was capable, and I only hope that I can match them in this article.

Where to begin? I guess a logical place would be at the conclusion of last summer. Since October I have been thinking about this summer and trying to convince you to come. I really hope none of you regret your decision.

The fact that there are only twenty-three of you allowed me to do something that I was unable to do in the past. It allowed me to get to know each of you intimately. For this experience I am grateful.

"You mean more to me than words could ever tell."

As I type these words the tears have already begun to flow. Years ago I attempted to fight them off, but now I just let them come. Whether they are tears of happiness or tears of sadness I cannot be sure. If I had to guess, I would say that they are a mixture of both.

Let's start with the happiness that I am experiencing. This emotion was best exemplified when we were at Camp Tevya. I was so proud of you, of your spirit, chevra and pride in Kadimah. I really wanted to stand up and yell "These are the C.I.T.'s of Kadimah 1991 and I love them all." I have never been more proud of a group of individuals that I was of you during the trip. Everywhere we went people complemented our group, and each time a smiled and responded by saying "I know".

"We are Kadimah, we'll sing our name loud
We are a people of whom we are proud"

Now we get to the sadness. The sadness is the last "hurrah", for you and me. Your last summers as campers and mine as staff. It will tear me apart to leave this place, knowing that I will not return, and this may very well be reality.

Over the years many of you have become some of my dearest friends and in the future I hope that this will be the case with all of you. I rely on you for support and advice and I really mean that from the bottom of heart.

As for your performance this summer, it was outstanding. You worked hard, and the results were evident in all the areas of camp where you lent your assistance. I do not wish to dwell on this because once again each time I saw you perform, I was filled with a sense of pride.

"You'll Catch the fever when your a C.I.T.
Cause life down at the sailing docks in one big party"

On the first night of the summer we watched the Wonder Years -- Looking Back, and I asked to make every minute of this summer count. Every minute into a memory that would symbolize a part of what Kadimah is all about. Together these pieces would form a picture of the summer of 1991, a picture that would be embedded in all of our minds for time immemorial.

For years I have been searching for a way to define or describe "chevra". It is only at this moment that I feel I figured it out. Chevra is several of us sitting on a picnic talking, Chevra lying awake in the cabins at night, chevra is interacting in the various programs, chevra is arguing a call in ball game, chevra and a simple smile or gaze. Chevra is everything that happens in this place, every word, every glance, and every thought.

It is now well after 4:00 am and while I am exhausted there is something that is forcing to continue to type. The thought of all of you and what you mean to me is what keeps me going, not only tonight, but every night.

There is an age old expression that people save their best for last, while you definitely saved your best for last. You are the future of this camp and I have every confidence that you will rise to the occasion and do both myself and yourselves proud. If you continue as staff with the same commitment and ruach you exhibited this year Camp Kadimah is in capable hands.

This summer has been the epitome of everything that is great, everything that I want to present in my life in the years to come. Looking back, if I ever had to leave, this is the note upon which I would want to go.

I have had it all. Life does not get any better than this. Think about how fortunate we are to have this place, a place where we can seek refuge and isolate ourselves in paradise. Part of me will always remain here and so will part of you. Long after the summer is over. echoes of your voices will ring through my mind, it is these voices that in times of need I will turn to.

This article would not be complete without conveying my thanks to Heidi. "Z", never in my wildest dreams did I ever think you would be back at Kadimah, and am I ever happy that you decided to come. I could not have done it without you, you are truly one of a kind and I attribute much of the success of the C.I.T. program to your efforts. Heidi, after eleven years our friendship is stronger than ever. What else can I say except I love you very much. I'll see you on Bay Street!

I do not know where I am going with this article. I guess I am looking back on the summer and at the same time looking back on the last ten summers of my life here. The significance of both is overwhelming.

I want to leave you with several thoughts. First, no matter what happens I will always be here for you. Any minute of any day, if you need me or just want to talk you can always rely on me -- I will not let you down. Likewise, I am sure that you will be there for me when I need you.

"Wherever you go, whatever you do, I'll be right here waiting for you."

Second, while I may very well be leaving for the last time, the memories and events of the past summer will be placed amongst my most valued possessions. Camp Kadimah is my life, and it will continue to play a significant role in my life even after I am physically gone from the grounds"

"You can take the boy out of Kadimah, but You cannot take Kadimah out of the boy"

Finally, in the movie "Field of Dreams", heaven is described as a place where all of your dreams come true. Based on this, without reservation I suggest that this is what heaven must be like. If I was ever forced to choose where I would like to spend the rest of my days, my response would be - - at Camp Kadimah.

My love for this place and for all of you is undying. Thank you all for being such a big part of my life for the last three years, and in particular this last summer.

C.I.T.'s of 1991, I love all of you and will miss you each day we are apart. Hold onto you memories and our time together will live forever.

"Goodbye my friends"

Love always and longer,

Mike (Sobes)

P.S. C.I.T. Fever .... Catch it! That's Reggie .... Lewis

To the C.I.T's of 1991,

As I sit here on the airplane heading toward my so called "real world" in Toronto, I just can't seem to share the thoughts of all of you out of my head. In only three weeks we managed to build a relationship together that in most cases takes years to establish. The credit for this is yours, twenty three special individuals who have shaped my sense of what the meaning of Camp Kadimah is all about.

Many years ago, I believed that my Kadimah days were done. I had put in my time and had done all I could do. I figured that the kids were the same every year. So it was about time I grew up and gave it all up. BUT you guys proved me wrong. You showed me that every group of kids is different and special. In fact, you proved that C.I.T's are indeed not kids, but young adults capable of conducting a more meaningful conversations than people many years your senior. The programs I observed and watched you execute were professional, well organized, rich in content and informative. You are a bright, witty and very diverse group of people which I suppose are the qualities which give you so much character.

You guys brought the spirit of Kadimah back into my heart. Although it had never completely eluded me, it had lain dormant for much too long. When you performed, programmed and sang at Tevya and Tel Noar, you did your camp, myself and yourselves proud. Many times throughout camp, myself and yourselves proud. many times throughout our trip I had to hold back the tears because I was so proud of all of you. You showed them the meaning of friendship and the sense of community without even hardly having to try, you were just being yourselves and part of the Kadimah family.

I am privileged to have been able to spend even a few weeks with you. I truly hope that in some small way I have contributed to your development as Jews and as human beings who all love of Camp Kadimah. I wish you all every success and if you don't call me when you're in T.O., you're all BIG FAT JUICY PIGS!

Love always,
Heidi (little z)

BOSTON '91

As the rains finally come to Kadimah, the C.I.T.'s left. We woke up at 4:30 to find the first few drops of the summer falling. Things were pretty dull until we were on the plane on our way to Bean-town. As soon as we all found our seats (a process that you would have thought would be relatively simple and trouble free), we heard from our pilot. A consensus was reached, he belonged to a mental institute. There was also the strange man sitting behind us. (Aaron, why do planes land into the wind?) However, with the exception of a split coffee incident, the flight was fairly uneventful.

It was not long until we arrived at Tevya. We were given a tour by Lynn, who would best be described as...fresh (just what does that mean anyways) Our stay there was pretty interesting with the baseball game, PDA's, Pizza, fluorescent water bottles and a four camp bonfire (now who has the best camp? And which fresh program director was drooling in jealousy? Not to the Doucheman)

Our next stop was Camp Tel Noar, which was somewhat less exciting, but it did have its highlights, the waterfight, the "G store", the "welcoming committee", and still no PDA's. The meals were a little strange, for lack of a better word. I'm sure we'll never forget "Sobes is a fish", "1-2-3 hands up!", "Hit it!", or they took my money! Of course, we set to remember this all with our beautiful Tel Noar mugs.

Finally, we had our day in Boston. After checking in at B.U., we went to Quincy market and fanemil Hall. I was with Rob, Steve, and Aaron, and we met some very interesting people. There was the saleslady at the Harvard store and the globe incident, and the cookie salesman, yes Aaron, you are a funny person, just like most Canadians. Then there was this woman with no hair (and I don't mean on her head!) Rob, I can't thank you enough! Finally there were our friends who tried to shoe lift a tape and got caught. Finally we met with Elisha, and then the group split up.

A small group of us soon found ourselves in Cambridge, home of Harvard and M.I.T. Harvard was beautiful and fun to see. Here, of course, we met some interesting people, this time Oriental tourists who thought Aaron was a girl because of his earring. Aaron, Rob and I then went to the Charles River, where I gave them a taste of rowing at the Harvard boat house. Aaron was impressed and Rob was bored. Then we met to the subway station to meet Sobes who was 15 minutes late.

That evening we went to Fenway park for a Bosox game, which was a lot of fun, even if the Sox did get thrashed.

That night was the most fun. I can't write all about it, but it did include the convience store, "hey homes, what's happenin'?", the world's coolest cop and many pairs of legs, and until the sun rose.

Anyway, thank you Sobes and Heidi for a great time.

Norm

Tevya

BOSTON

On one of the many manure smelling hot day in July, I was called out of the bunk to talk with Mr. M. Soberpunk. I got out , looked around the corner, approximately, five female C.I.T.s with Tevya water bottles. I stopped frozen in my tracks, and stared at the vill ainous site. They emptied their bottles over me. I was wet, but I didn't mind. I left the scent of the crime to fill my vulmous bottle full of the clean, cold, colourless, orderless water from the sink in cabin 31. I walked slowly out and spilled the water over them with no moral qualms. We then saw that with my great water bottle and there shear numbers, an alliance was in order. We became friendly, then wen ton in aquatic rampage, soaking many in our paths. Bill H. Chernin, Dave Lipkus and others suffered he watery wrath. Oh, did I mention I got Jacob Medjuck's undershirt in the laundry today. I don't know why, Medjuck-Aronson. Hmm...doesn't even rhyme. We're not related. What could have possessed the laundry people to do this? I mean I could understand if it was Rachel Aronson's, because she is my sister and her last name rhymes with mine. Aronson-Aronson. Hmm sounds similar. My sister is a mean and nasty person who is very dangerous to be around. THIS IS NOT BECAUSE OF HER UPBRINGING SHE'S JUST LIKE THAT! The farm across the lake is picturesque, panoramic and quite quaint. I take all this back if it is the cause of the camp smelling like cow dung. There is a chipmunk on the ground nibbling something. I think he enjoys listening to dance music. He is a prostitute. Boston is a city, with too few cows and too many homeless people. It really smells like s__t out there! Sheldon is the strangest person I know he reminds me of my sister (refer to Aronson-Aronson). I'm going to try to make the design for the C.I.T.'s shirts. Later!

Love. Mike Aronson
P.S. That's Mike---Aronson

MEMORIES

I'm writing this article because I want everyone to remember what I'm about to write about...it's not as though it changed the summer or anything, it's just that it was fun and remembering fun things never hurt anyone...if nothing else, this is a "normal" iton article, like the kind we used to write in Goshrim (Why I wrote that little prologue, I'll never know)

So anyways, here goes...

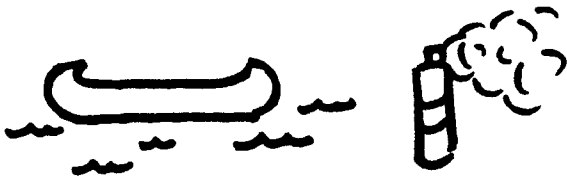

REMEMBER THE TIME WE HAD A HUGE COMPULSORY BOATING PEULAH AND WE TIPPED EVERYONE'S CANOE AND GOT VERY WET!! WASN'T THAT GREAT?! AND REMEMBER HOW A BUNCH OF US PILED INTO ONE PEDAL BOAT AND DECIDED TO HAVE A SHAVING CREAM FIGHT? WASN'T THAT HILARIOUS?! AND REMEMBER THAT SHAVING CREAM FIGHT?? WE HAD A BLAST?! YAY!!

There, never forget it. Mel and Bud, our plan must be working...

p.p.p.s. The reason this article is stupid is because I wrote it while lying on the wood on my bed very late at night when I was very tired.

HABISH-ONGISH

One day there were two guys named Habish and Ongish. Although they were not related in any way, they were almost exactly the same. Personalities, likes, dislikes, interests, it was sick. So one day Ongish, being a tad more violent than Habish decided that he was tired of this and he challenged Habish to a fight. Habish accepted. The fighting started off pretty easy, but soon it evolved into a fierce and bloody battle. After months of fighting, the two decided that no one was going to win so they decided to make up and relax, while listening to the Concert in the Park, there favourite. From that day on, it was like a joyous game of freeze tag.

DALIT AND PAULA: THE QUARREL

Paula: Dalit Gafni is my pal. She is cool, pretty and funny but she took my button from Cheers (the bar in Boston) and wants to steal my cool hat. Why doesn't she get a hat of her own?

Dalit: Well, what can I say about sweet and funny Paula except that she gave me a very tacky hat that she found on the ground and only gave me the button because she loves me!

Paula: Dalit, why must you lie? I did not give you that button. You stole it from me and how dare you call that hat tacky?

Dalit: Paula, Paula, Raisen. Get a life sweetheart! So maybe you didn't give me the button because you love me but you sure were a wimp in giving up in the fight for that gorgeous button. Ha, Ha, I won!!!

Paula: Dalit, you gorgeous thing you. Firstly, I am not (I repeat) am NOT a wimp. Secondly, you did not win because that pin will be mine at the end of the summer.

Dalit: O,K, enough fighting with me, the master. The only reason I must keep the button is so I can remember all the wonderful memories that we had at camp this summer.

Love always, Dalit.

Paula: O.K. Master (Dalit), Paula the ruler says you can have the button but only because I love you loads.

Love always, Paula the raisin.

Dalit: I told you she gave it to me because she loves me.

To all the C.I.T'S of 1991...

We found this poem in Camp Tevya and immediately thought of you-and camp. It tells of growing up and maturing-learning to deal with the bad times as well as the good. Through our years in Kadimah we've dealt with so many different feelings and experiences and are proud to have shared them with such special friends as you all. So, we dedicate this poem to you -

After a while you learn the subtle differences between holding a hand and chaining a soul.

And you learn that love doesn't mean learning, and company doesn't mean security.

And you begin to learn the kisses aren't contracts and presents aren't promises.

And you begin to accept your defeats with your head up and your eyes open with the grace of a grown-up and not the grief of a child.

And you learn to build your roads on today because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for plans.

And future's have a way of falling down in mid-flight and after a while you learn that even sunshine burns if you get too much.

So you plant your own soul instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers.

And you learn that you really can endure that you really are strong and you really do have worth.

And you learn, and you learn.

THE CABIN 30 BATHROOM

The bathroom in cabin 30 is a place which is not visited very frequently. We never blow our noses in the bathroom, but if once in a blue moon, we do, we be sure to lock the doors and spray air freshener galore.

We didn't spend much time decorating our bathroom, in fact it was quite boring, with nothing to read but we managed.

There's never more than one girl at a time in our bathroom, we get so much privacy it's annoying. We would never chow sown in our bathroom because we never had any food, no parents would ever send us packages. And of course when we were in the bathroom we would take a long drink from our clean Tel Noar cups. HOLY! The cabin 30 bathroom was such a boring place to be.

Last summer I came not knowing what to expect, I had the time of my life and I counted down the days till the next summer. I came back with the biggest smile on the my face, and I must say that the smile was definitely not disappointed! The only time that will be disappointing is to say goodbye. You guys are wonderful and I'll never forget you.

Love Always, Dalit

LISA- Sweetheart, to you I dedicate all the Buff Puffs in the world! Shine all you want Shine Head!!!!!!

PAULA- Raisen, Raisin, I give you was more satisfactory on your gymnastics and tanning oil that will make you black.
P.S- if I get the button, can't I have the hat too??

SHARON- To you I give the ability to only want to come back to Kadimah and not Hatikva.

TANYA- Tap shoes and many buttons that rhyme with itch, HA HA.

SHERI- Boxing gloves to beat up all red heads with and tons of scrub and snuff.

DEBBI-Devorah where are you?? To you I give a new cabin for visiting days so you won't have to worry about where it's gonna be... I also give you that bikini from the magazine, dream on!

RACHEL- To you I'll only dedicate something if in return I get my hands on those shoes!! Smooch, Smooch...

MELISSA- A real life size dinosaur and a million packs of gum (you know I don't mean gum!!!!)

NAOMI- You deserve a flute, a nice shiny silver coloured flute.

LONI- Bandaids!! And a new doll for your bed.

LOVE YOUR EGG HEAD, Dalit.

DEAR C.I.T'S

Well, we are only into the third week of camp but these three weeks have been the best and I'm sure the next three weeks will be just as good or even better.

From leaving three weeks early in 88 and 89 and then not even coming in 90 I am finally here for the whole summer and when I knew that I was coming the whole summer I was the happiest person alive.

I am going to miss everyone a lot because not seeing your closest friends for a year is very hard to go through unless some camp friends live in the same city as you (Melissa, Loni, Sheri) We have all shared great memories like Boston, water fights, Kedji, bathroom parties, sleepovers, P.D.A's, " HIT IT", _____ is a pig, and the list goes on. I love you guys a lot.

LOVE FOREVER, your pal

TO THE PARTY DOWN BY THE SAILING DOCKS...

Wow what a time we've had together. Words almost can't explain how great we were together. For some people its been their first summer for others its been another great summer at Kadimah. For me I must say its been a blast for my sixth year. I didn't come last year and I almost felt out of place when I did come back to join all the people I had missed when I went across the country. My closest friends didn't come back but it wasn't that hard to find new ones. At the first of the summer I was being the biggest dweeb saying I wanted to go home (remember Dalit) but you guys were able to snap me out of my dweeb world and you made me into a natural pinhead like everyone else. I owe a lot to everyone for making my summer great even though I wanted to be at home, but I'm definitely glad I came. I wouldn't want to spend my last summer as a camper with anyone but you peeps!!

We were put into cabins with snotnosed little kids, and we put up with the cliques. But all in all they're not that bad (there Jon I said it O.K). We cruised around Boston, shopping till we dropped and found that Tevya and Tel Noar have the spirit of a pea.

In this overly hyper section of pinheads in which we exist, there are some people who helped me through all the hard times and were with me through the good times. First of all, there was all of cabin 30. I can honestly say I had many person to person conversations with almost every person, but some deserve mentioning. First magenta bum, who helped me realize (even though I already know) that it pays to be short. She's a lot thinner and taller but still taught me lots. Don't worry magenta bum, everything will fall into place whether it be tomorrow or some time later. Then there is Sheri, someone I could talk to about guys, which I did. And if I ever need T's I'll come to you. There's also Dalit, whom I talk to when I needed it. You picked me up when I was down and I needed someone to let me know that life is what you make it. Dalit, The Doors Rule! As you venture over to the other side of our sweet smelling cabin, after walking through our wicked SEX bathroom, you can find the people like Tanya who let me know I slept too much. There's also Deb's whom I also talk to when the bad times struck along with when the good times rolled by. I can't forget the one and only Sally. You helped me through everything. I talked to when I needed a shoulder to lean on and when I needed someone to reassure me that everything will be okay! I guess that we were sort of there for each other. Thanx babe!

The guys are another story. There's only a few of you who I can mention certain things about even though many others did the same. There's Jason, whom I can always go to if I needed someone to ignore me and just say yeah yeah! There's also Benga and Matt who just about did the same as Jay. Ben you got your Zeppelin, and I've got my Doors(Boston). I can't forget Jon, whom I had semi-intense conversations with. Oh by the way mike A... you're crazy! What I'm mostly saying is I'll miss everyone lots and I hope to see you all sometime in the future. You have been with me through the good times and bad times but hey that is what camps about. I almost forgot the two leaders. Sobes of course... I will never forgive you for the mirrors and that is from me and Lisa. Heidi you read what I had to say to you on the banner. I love you.

There is one person who I almost forgot who deserves mentioning because she gave me such a puppy dog face, yes you Loni. All I have to say long legs is that I live in Stewiacke and I helped you with your laundry.

Well, it's sayonnara for now guys. I'll miss you lots. Love ya!

HOW ABOUT THOSE BLUE JAYS

On June 26 when I left for Halifax, The Toronto Blue Jays had a 1 1/2 game lead on The Boston Red Socks for top spot in the A.L. East. Since that time the Jays have won 17 of their last 20 games and now on this day lead The Red Socks by 9 games. While we have been here at Camp Kadimah The Blue Jays have been playing their best baseball in their franchise. Everybody has been contributing. Joe Carter, Roberto Alomar, Devon White and now even John Olerud have led the offence while the present 5 starters, Jimmy Key, David Wells, Todd Stottlemyre, Juan Gazman and knuckle caller Tom Cardioti who we just got from Cleveland. Speaking of Cardioti, the trade was made with Dennis Boucher, Glen Allen Hill and Mark White to get Tom. Although we gave up a lot it has turned out to be an excellent trade as Cardioti leads the A.L. for the lowest ERA. What all this means is The Blue Jays lead the division by 7 games over the hot Detroit Tigers are 9 games over the slumping Red Socks. It seems the Jays have the division wrapped up but no one knows who they will be playing in the A.L.C.S championship series.

BY ERIC COHEN

The other day I was sitting on the rocks in front of my cabin (cabin 31) when I noticed a strange odour. The sharp-cheese smell was emanating from the water. I bent down to see what it was and discovered a young, neon, Norwegian narwhale glowing under the small waves. It was a female. I asked her what her name was and she replied "Magma-breath". Magma-breath and I had a nice chat about marine life and the aquatic food chain after which she invited me for a ride to be careful of that mad-man/goose SARAGOSSI. He often drives by oblivious of those around him or what a speeding propellar could do to them. She let me off on the other side of Lake William. I walked up to the farm and invited a cow to sit on head staff table. After many bribes he finally agreed to be painted green as a symbol of environmental friendliness. We swam back but became hungry so we ate peanut butter and jam sandwiches.

THE END

THE BATTLE IN THE WEST

It's almost certain that The Toronto Blue Jays have their division wrapped up but they're going to play in the A.L.C.S is still a great naster. 6 out of the 7 teams in the division have a chance of winning it still. First there's The Minnisota Twins who have had a remarkable turn around. They finished near the bottom last year but this year at this point lead their division. At one point this year the Twins had won 15 straight games and 19 of 20. Then there is the Texas Rangers who have stayed in the hunt also. They also had a 13 game winning streak one time this year. Right behind them are the Chicago White Sox who have turned their season around. They had a poor first half but have began to play some good baseball and at this point are only 4 games out of first. Then there is the California Angels who probably have the best starting pitching in the division with Chuck Finley, Mark Langston, And Jim Abott, but are in a slump and have fallen behind in the race. Then their is the Oakland Athletics. They have won the division three straight times but are having a horrible year. They have managed some how to stay in the race. Then there are the Seattle Mariners who are having their best year in their franchise history. They are 8 games back, rough but they still have a chance. All of the teams that have been mentioned all have chances but only one of them will be there to play the Jays, which one I don't know!

#1- Is killing flies considered work? If so, is it permitted on Shabbat? If to the latter question the answer is negative, we have committed a cardinal sin. Today alone, we have killed 266,482.3 flies armed only with our hats, shoes, bathrobes, tacks, shotguns, matches, and a raw herring named Jesus. Needless to say, it was a very messy experience.

#2- Who constructed the tables in the dining hall and can we meet this crafted artisan? Every day, when we go to the Chadar we can't help but admire and worshipe the superior workmanship. The way the wood meets the metal is superlative. The way the rubber edges penetrate proficiently into the hand carved notches is in a word, orgasmic.

#3- Why do we need fire? Well, in reality we don't. As we all know porcupines can provide good nourishment when eaten raw. Thus it is obvious to any common village cave man who dwells in air conditioned housing, across a lake with big trout in Africa, that fires used for heating boiling, wokking, frying, burning, jumping, skipping, hopping, and/or scuba diving other meats and members of other meats and members of other food groups is unnecessary. Also fires are not necessary for the heating of one's heads, toes, nails, buttocks, arm-pits, bladder, pic-nic table, foilage and/or luncheon meats. To keep warm we must change ournames to Wilburt, emmigrate to a samall island like land mass nearthe equator, and simultaneously jog-on-the-spot-while eating rediculously spicy foods containing paprika, salt, pepper, mayo, elephants, a little German, tree stumps, aquatic plant life and Joe's shed (this of course would be made with love). Oh yes, and by hte way we should grow fur and gain the ability to see around corners. Therefore it is a forgone conclusion that fires are stupid, tedious, wimpy, paranormal, unjustified, hazardous, cumbuersome, jolly dogs, hard-to-carry, transportable, nuissances and should be abolished by next Tuesday.

#4- Why are the cabins painted white? In our opinion the cabins ought to be painted a nice shade of green. This would camouflage the large, ugly buildings from us during the day, children would be able to bump their heads violently on the outer cabin walls and others could call them "morons". This would provide the camp population with hours of fun-for-the-whole-family entertainment. The view wolud be panoramic, nice, and pituresque; people would use their cameras, thus supporting the film industry.

Dear CIT's of '91,

Writing articles like this is certainly not an easy thing to do... Thing is, the funny thing about "chevra" and friendship is that they can't really be put into words- they're really best expressed by the feeling you get when you recall a certain memory, or look at an old picture or something like that... since I really can't write down emotions, I just thought I'd help you form some of your own by giving you all something to remember. Believe me, you'll never run out of memories.

So to the CIT's of '91... Never forget the fun we had.

I'll start with Ben- Benga, Ongish, my wrestling partner and of course my fellow sleep-in-your-clothes-and-change-at-3:00 am-friend. I never thought pushing and shoving could make me laugh so hard. Oh, and TRY GOING TO THE INFIRMARY WHEN YOU'RE SICK. Ben, I could go on for a while- it was an awespme summer. A-A-A-A-A-H-H-H-H-H!!! YAY!!! (P.S.- send me a ;letter and address it to Jordana).

Jason, my friend of over ten years, we had a great time this summer just as we've had over the past six years- you realize you are a supermodel... I hope it didn't bother you too much that I always kept the bathroom light on, but at least I got to hear you talking in your sleep! Oh, and Jay, you're very lucky to have had suchj a great girlfriend this summer. I mean that.

Eric, our resident Phil Collins singer and cheese-o-phobe, it was really great meeting you this summer. I'm glad we became good enough friends that you were able to confide in me about certain things over the six weeks we were together. I know you'll think of us every time you dig into some meat or use a spritzer to brush your hair.

Mike, my fellow leader and initiator, we did some great things this summer. Never forget the leg exercises, Heidi's banner, Finland, I Like Chinese, the screaming contest, the bathroom noises skit, the Monty Py-a-thon and everything else.

Ian, there's plenty to say but I'm just gonna say one thing..."Nice!"

Matt, what can I say... may your countenance be as bright as the luminous firmament.

Stu, I'm proud to have been the very first CIT to have met you at the beginniing of the summer. I told you then that I knew you'd have an incredible summer, and I'll tell you now that I'm sure you did. Our tour around Israel will never be forgotten.

Rob, R-O-B, you're an ___-hole, a ___-head, a ___-for-brains, a b_t_h, and a very good friend at the same time-- let me know when you figure that friendship out...

Aaron, my friend since '85, it was great talking to you throughj the athroom door every time I wsa in there- and I'll never forget how hard I laughed when you dropped the lasagna on the floor in the Chadar at the beginning of the summer.

Steve, I think I saw your hair once this summer (but that's OK.) Too bad tou missed the sex-a-thon, but at least we got to be a-holes together at camp Tevya. I'll thrash ya, Steve.

NORM! Let's be nosy together- or better yet, let's just make fun of other people when they act nosy about a conversation on nosiness... Norm, I'll always respect the amount of time you manage to spend with the Gibbies. And, of course, you'll always be my #1 cow.

Now to the girls... I'll start by saying that the day a new group moves into your cabin will be a very sad day. You guys have personalized your cabin very well and made me feel just as at home there as I feel in my own cabin. I can't imagine that if this was Camp Tevya I wouldn't even be allowed in! (PDA!PDA!PDA!)

To begin with, Sheri, I could devote an entire article to listing all the programs we've done together. Most importantly, the sex-a-thon was legendary- and never forget Agnes Pinard the retired ballerina. Even though we had an overdose of each other to the point that you kept running away from me, I still love you. (We slept together in precamp, didn't we?)

Melissa, or should I say Melorama, I could write this whole article about you and you know that as well as I do. No two people in the whole world have more jokes than we do- never forget the infamous Jefferson kiss, my O-D-ing on carrots, picnicing with the kitchen girls, our "I Miss Jon, I Miss Mel" joke, the clarinet noise, your animal obsession, dancing two songs in a row talking about _____ the whole time, your clearing for me because I eat slower than anyone in camp, my collection of your black shirts, planning the last half of camp on the beach at Camp Tel Noar, singing (well, sort of singing) "Oh once there was a wizard" in front of the camp, our recipe for cleaning bug juice off of clothes (scrub briskly.....Thank You), and of course your immortal words... "Six Million Vicious Murders Were Killed". HEY MEL! I FOUND THE SPRITZER!!!! I love you, Mel (Mr. Annoying Man).

Lisa, babe, as our saying goes, I've known you as long as I've known my mother. You knew all along that I'd be here this summer, so you can just say I Told You So now. I'll never forget dancing with you at the socials (ooh baby), and walking in on Melissa, Jon, Sheri, and Dave was an experience that will stay in my memory for a very long time. Lize, you'll make some guy very happy (or make that, many guys-- just kidding).

Paula, bud, what can I say... You know I've been waiting to see you since the day you left in '89. Never forget our talks, our awesome death program, and of course the fact that I was the first to notice your raisin (or s)

CABIN 21 : ADVICE ON HOW TO USE YOUR HEAD

In 1989, cabin 21 was simply, cabin 21-female headstaff that no one cared about. In 1990, the beginning of a new decade, cabin 21 became "Cool Cabin 21", yet still no one really cared about the headstaff babes that lived there. Now, in 1991, there's a new breed of female headstaff : The Harem Globetrotters...defenders of female Kadimah rights...the voice of equality...knowledgeable and superior...people care...people know...who we are and what we stand for. In case you're a nobody, we'd better introduce ourselves: Elana Agulnik - Senior waterfront, the banana dive queen. She wishes she got head. (Of waterfront that is.) Abbie Offman - S'gan Rosh Machar, B.Gail, Whadda Geek. Her biggest pet peeve is not getting head. (Of Machar that is.) Ali Gurevitch - Section head of Giborim, Allister, Allison. She likes head. (Of Kochot that is.) Shari Becker - Head of Mel Yad, apple shapple, Sherri, Shaaari. Always willing to give. (The key to the mel yad that is.) Wendy Hyman - Head of waterfront, Wendlefish. She got head. (Of waterfront, that is.) And now she's getting some assistance.

To our dearly departed roommates whose memories will forever remain in our hearts, (not our heads!) Dani and Heidi, gone but not forgotten. (Not dead, that is.) And to our dearly departed guests who gave us head (aches that is): Havenu Shalom Alechem!!!

Assuming that you're a nobody, (cuz you don't live in cabin 21) and you're probably not in a position for head. (Staff, that is.) I guess we'll have to explain to you what we stand for. Well, to begin with: It's a hard knock life for us
It's a hard knock life for us
Lining up to use the can Just because I'm not a man

what's in the dark is perfect
bark

Don't you feel like you never know
happenin',
Don't you feel like you're always
Being sure that our every move
And yet Mitchell starts to

Chorus

pick have_____ life

Of the cabins we got no
Just because we don't It's a hard knock

in our cabin for a golf

There's no room course

room in our cabin for a fridge
wake up in the morning to brewed coffee
Unlike those men who live across the bridge

There's no
Don't

Chorus

Never getting any rest
Just because we all have _____

It's a hard knock life!!!

But who's complaining? (We are!) We may never have had (not head) seven bathrooms for seven babes but there's no longer seven babes. This leads us to our explanation of what happened to us when we were no longer forced to eat danish for breakfast. It led to the destruction of the shrine, (which was in excess to begin with!) And subsequently (Oooh- big word! Definitely Yablon terminology!) led to spontaneous Guns "N Roses, oops, I mean spontaneous redecorating which resulted in our lounge. Aaah...finally a cabin befitting head (Staff- of course) as well as visitors. [Which we do get every once in awhile. Ever since our summer cleaning. (Not spring.)]

Next, we'd like to take this opportunity to discuss appliances. (Lack of, that is.) Of course we have a fridge and coffee maker like every male member of headstaff - NOT!!! However, being the resourceful women we are, we've compensated: we can admire our full lengths from both directions. (simultaneously if we so choose!) Even though we know we're cool, we have two fans, a stash of goodies that would put those men to shame, and finally, on Sunday morning, we have the privilege of waking up to Reverend Nathaniel B. Slaunwhite singing the praises of the lord - HALLELUJAH!!! He often gives us head. (Aches, that is.) This leads us to our description of our interesting insect relationship. Cabin 21 gave birth to a fly hater, a fly spotter, a fly killer, and a fly disposer. The war had begun... it was the babes against the bugs: (Tune: Od LO Ahavti Di)

a fly
the eye

Eye ya yeye, We're gonna kill
Cuz we're gonna spray it in Thinking that we were out of our HEADS, our fifth roommate brought us some flytape and Raid. (Which is what we got when we made our trade). The Mingle Jingle followed suit. No we weren't drunk, we're just very cute!

Mingle, mingle, mingle,
This is our Mingle

Jingle (Tune: Mayim)

We take great pleasure in bidding adieu with a joyous and extremely uplifting tune so often heard in Camp Kadimah. (Eli Eli)

Shari, Wendy, and Elana
We're all from Montreal

Ali,

Abbie is sure to visit
So this isn't goodbye
Except to you nobody's Who haven't gotten head (of anything, that is) all summer

Love the cheesiest, most exciting, (but you wouldn't know that cuz only mitch and Yablon come to visit) cabin in all of Kadimah history! (21 that is!)

The Harem
Globetrotters,
Ali

KIWI IS A FUZZY FRUIT!

On July 11th, 1991 at approximately 4:30 pm. 6 great, responsible girls set out to take over the party filled streets of Bridgewater, Nova Scotia. Two of us lived in Montreal, two in Halifax, one in Waterloo and one in Fredericton, however for that one evening our identities were stripped and we became new people.

The wonderfully comfortable taxi-van dropped us off in the middle of all the action, the one and only Bridgewater mall. Some shopping was done along with the use of every pay phone there. One of us had the brilliant idea of having her laundry cleaned professionally. While the 5 others mocked her originally, they were green with envy when her clothing returned intact and perfectly clean. We all entered a quaint restaurant but completely voluntarily we decided that it just was not the restaurant for us. Searching for the perfect cafe, we all agreed on BIG RED'S (we were all allowed in there!) After that gourmet meal we decided to relax at a nice little place in the mall, but they didn't want us there either (big mistake, big, HUGE!!!!) Then, with tremendous perseverance we went to relax (ha!) at the cheesiest cowboy western.....restaurant, ya, that's it restaurant. We do-si-doed, ate and did everything Western style. Most importantly though, we made an extremely important discovery, KIWI IS A REALLY FUZZY FRUIT!!!!

I LOVE ALL 5 OF YOU AND I HAD A BLAST!!!

LOVE,

Karyn "KIWI" Saragossi

WHY EVERYONE SHOULD WANT TO BE LIKE STACEY OFFMAN

Stacey Offman is a Madrich this summer. She is very tall. She has Victorian-looking pale skin. She always wears bright pink lipstick. She has real blond hair. Her golden locks are naturally curly. She has a cute nose. She kinda, in a way looks like Madonna. She goes to McGill. She has a popular last name at Camp Kadimah. She is a nice person. She has really cool, colourful suede shoes. She just does not get zits. She writes songs for Maccabia really well. She fakes having fun at Maccabia really well too. Besides all that, she spends the high holidays with one of the coolest families in Montreal. The list is endless!!!!!!!

UNDER A BRIDGE

It began in a ssmall cafe with three,
Where the owner gave things out for free.
On our way out things weren't the same,
We then met a forth who joined the game.

The Zellers mall was our next stop
But two of us didn't want to shop.
So under the bridge we did go,
What happened there is for us
to know....

Ack! Fifteen minutes past curfew and no food in the cabin to nibble on! Only one option... cabin hop.! Craftilly, the staff of 28 donned sneakers and dark clothing, and crept stealthily out the forbidden back exit. With pillows stuffed authentically beneath blankets, and one eye on the look out for the dreaded Shmira, the small squad on munchie maniacs tip toed silently along the path toward the curious land of C.I.T. males.

When they arrived (it was obviously during the very late evening) many of the men (ed. note NOT!) had already signed off for the night. So they sat up and talked to three remaining studs ( see above bracket for ed. note)

All was well until two vicious machar staff shmira stalked authoritatively through this land of C.I.T. The gosh staff invaders scurried "Windjammerly" back to 28 and dared not leave their cabin again that night.

Maccabiah 1991

"I will even gather you from the the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of ISRAEL."
(EZEKIEL 11:17)

Return to Zion

RETURN TO ZION

The literal translation of Zionism is Return to Zion, or return to the land promised to Abraham by G-d -- Israel. In contemporary times the first Aliyah to Israel, Biluim, took place in 1881. Today, descendants of the first Aliyah are following in their forefathers footsteps and making the historic journey from Russia to Eretz Israel.

The modern dream began with Leon Pinsker and Hivvei Zion, the lovers of Zion. From the Ghettos and villages of Eastern Europe, the Tzionim realized that the Jewish people need a homeland in which they would occupy the majority. They translated this dream in to reality and from this vision they the Jewish people began their century long emmigration to Israel.

With nothing but the cloths on their back the new immigrants immediately assumed the role of pioneers. Doctors, lawyers, and tradesman became the determined Chalutzim that would ultimately transform a barren swamp and desert into rolling green valleys that would sustain the Jewish people.

When the entire world attempted to put an end to the emigration of the Jewish people to Israel -- they still came. The Olim began immigrating illegally. By cover of darkness they risked their lives to return to Israel. Over the last one hundred years the Olim have continued to come, each one of their journeys has strengthened the State of Israel.

Upon their arrival the new immigrants were surrounded by hostile enemies, enemies that wanted to see the Jewish people driven into the sea. Once again the Jewish people would not be denied and they took up arms to defend the land that they had fought so hard for. The Haganah was the foundation of the Israeli Defence Forces, and with limited resources and an abundance of bravery they prevented their adversaries from achieving their goal.

These are the foundations upon which Israel is built. Our forefathers who came to Israel one century ago, came with a vision to create a homeland for the Jewish people.

This chapter of our history is being rewritten today. Thousands of Soviet Jews are immigrating to Israel each month, and the numbers keep increasing. They do not face the same physical barriers as their ancestors faced, but the obstacles in their path are many. The Second Aliyah will strengthen the country, but the transition period poses many new challenges to the State of Israel.

The State of Israel was founded on dream, a dream which is still very much alive today. As long as the Jewish people from around the world continue to immigrate, Israel will remain strong. The State of Israel was created through Zionism, and it will continue to exist, if Jews from the diaspora Return to Zion.

JUDGES' SONG
Tune: Centerfold

Chorus:

Na Na Na Na Na Na
Na Na Na
Na Na Na Na Na

Here we come
Dressed in black
To watch you all compete!
Maccabiah has started
So join the judges beat.

Show us all your spirit
Come and join the games!
Red Yellow Blue and White
Hey! Cheer with all your might.

Kick It!
Chorus

You'll get your chance
Sports, bama, boating and dance.
Bring it all together now
We're sure that you know how.

Word!
Chorus

BLUE TEAM SONG (TUNE: COPA CABANA)

Return to Zion, that's where we're heading.
We've got our backpacks on our back
And our suitcases are stacked.

It won't be easy
We'll have to settle as newly immigrants to arrive
To integrate we'll have to strive.

We've come from far and near Determination here
We are young and we will surely never live in fear .

CHORUS:

Being the olim, made up of blue team
Striving as one to fulfill our dream
We're trying to get there
'Bout British we don't care
Yerushalayim, The Promised Land

Throughout the decades, a homeland we've made
We've got the chance to congregate, sometime in 1948
We face the challenge, just as we do now
With blue team on the rise, you'll be pleasantly surprised
So we keep up the flow, to farm and plant and sow
We are young and we will surely always know.

CHORUS

BLUE TEAM CAPTAINS' MESSAGE

Dear Blue Team,

We, your captains would like to thank all of you for pulling together and giving such a tremendous effort during Maccabia '91. We hope you all had a fun three days, and like us, learned something about the importance of teamwork, spirit, sportsmanship, and the role of immigration in the building of Israel. You should all take great pride in winning, but more importantly, you should take pride in your teamwork that led to victory. To sum up our feelings about Maccabia, we will repeat what we wrote on the banner, "Together, we earned it. Blue Team #1, Maccabia 1991."

Love,

WHITE TEAM SONG
(sung to One Love)

Chorus:

White team, chulutzim
Having the way to Eretz Yisrael
Pioneers, through the years
Building a home in the Promised Land (x2)

Swimming and Boating, we like to play
Led by our captians, we are singng loud all day
This all started with a basketball game
And after we win it all we will never be the same

chorus

Returning to Zion in Maccabia
Jews are going home, they are making aliya
We are the white team of 1991
Working together, everybody having fun

chorus

WHITE TEAM CAPTAINS' MESSAGE

Dear Chulutzim,

Our first day together, we told you all to have fun, win or lose. Well we won some and lost a few but through is all, your spirit and enthusiasm were great. We all pulled together, pitched in and put in four days of singing, cheering, running, swimming, boating and marching white.

We were four captains but nothing would have worked without your complete cooperation. So as well as we did, it's all thanks to you. We were the pioneers, the leaders who paved the way for Jews to return to Israel, and white team '91 was the leader in making new friends, playing hard and having fun. So till next Maccabia, thanks for the honour.

Dave, Uri, Mandi, Aviva

P.S...Yes, building a home in the Promised land...WHITE

YELLOW TEAM CAPTAINS' MESSAGE

From the moment the teams were announced, a little look was given by each captain, capturing the feelings of how such an incredible bunch of people could be placed together.

Through the 4 days of competition, we, the Haganah, learned many vital lessons of spirit, cooperation, sportsmanship and friendship.

It was an incredible experience and we thank and appreciate all the hard work and cooperation our team displayed throughout the most organized Maccabia ever.

Through our eyes, yellow team obtained the full meaning of Maccabia 1991 and that is all we could ask for. The defenders were vital in the Return to Zion and shall ever be remembered.

Love your captains,
Robie Cohen
Penny Dankner
Jonah Jacobson

YELLOW TEAM SONG (TUNE: "LET IT BE")

When we think about the land of Zion
Haganah we do recall
Sheltered by our people, they were there
And on the borders they did stand
Protecting our homeland
Always for the people they were there
They were there, they were there
They were always there
Soldiers were defending, through the night
Soldiers were defending, through the night
And when the Arab nations can pull together and agree
We will be together holding hands in unity
Though there is still fighting in our homeland
The world will see, Haganah will be there
Protecting you and me
There were there, they were there
They were always there
Haganah still standing, leading Israel in their plight
There were there, they were there
They were always there
Haganah still standing, leading Israel in their plight

RED TEAM SONG
(Sung to Sisu et Yerusahlin)

Red team had a dream to find the promised land
To find a Jewish homeland where we all could stand
We strive to make this dream become reality
To make a Jewish homeland where we all could be free

Tzionim is our theme
As Jews we stand up proud
Fighting for our holy land
Maccabiah '91, red team's number one
We have lots of ruach, la la la la...
(repeat first verse)

RED TEAM CAPTAINS' MESSAGES

Maccabiah this year was a big success, for us as well as all other teams. We might have come in last place in the final tallys, but in our hearts and minds we came in first.

Your spirit, determination, and cooperation were wonderful and we can not thank you enough. Those factors are the key points in a fun Maccabia and that is something we know you all had. For us, the captains, this has been our best Maccabia as well.

We were the Tzionim, the dreamers and visionaries of a Promised homeland. We made the first movement towards the establishment of a Jewish state in 1881 and in 1991 we paved the way for a great Maccabia!
