Amnon's Report

In Israel I never heard about Nova Scotia or Canada so therefore I didn't know what to expect. I came to a foreign country where everybody speaks a different language than me. Everybody knew each other from previous years and I was new. Thank you all for the warm friendship that you all gve me. I became one of you very quickly.

My goal was to teach scouting and I had the chance to do whatever I wanted. Thanks Bill and Rob. I taught you the things that seemed to me the most important and useful. I think you tried to learn and you did. I hope from now on you will have a scouting program every summer.

Through the summer I told you about Israel and about the army so you could hear it from one who was there. In my opinion the Jewish community should come visit Israel and learn about it with their own eyes. I think you are all doing wonderful work, continue like that.

I want to bless you for the fiftieth anniversary next year. I hope to see you in Israel as soon as possible.

Love

Amnon

Anat's Report

Before Amnon came I didn't know what to expect from camp, Canada and from you. While Amnon was in camp he gave me a good report about the green country, the crazy weather and especially the warmth amongst everyone.

It was very exciting for me to be able to teach you Hebrew songs and dances that you did not know. I enjoyed watching you dance and sing everything that Aviva and Shana taught you. I learned many English songs that I never knew.

Thank you all especially Aviva and Shana

From the Infirmary

This was both my first summer at Camp Kadimah and as a camp doctor. I was told that there were two clinics a day, but I only found out after I arrived at camp that they were both twelve hours long. Camp doctor is a full time job, and I quickly found out my most important responsibility and purpose. That is to give out swim excuses and cherry flavored lozenges. But we have had our share of minor injuries and emergencies. Sometimes there were so many people hobbling around on crutches and taped up knees and ankles, that I thought I was working in a camp for the disabled. And when Gabe Kuriloff needed minor surgery on his knee at ten p.m. on the couch of the infirmary, I felt that we were in the M.A.S.H. unit on T.V. Thankfully we were able to handle more things in camp this year. Several lab samples were sent out, and I am sure that Mike Druckman did not mind taking them into Lunenburg. Once one headstaff member wanted a referral to a sports medicine doctor but I finally convinced him that I could handle athletes foot.

But my skills as a doctor were constantly being challenged. For example, Barbara Jones required knowledge of internal medicine, external medicine, rashes of all kinds, allergies to everything, and also nipped picked mosquito bites. And Richard Lipkus tested my memory of the anatomy by injuring a different part of his body everyday.

In spite of being extremely safety conscious, campers and staff faced dangers in many areas. For example, there were waterfront-related injuries like Rebecca Perlin (who shouldn't have picked Jamie to wrestle with on the deck in the first place), and Marnina Webber who REALLY did the splits in the water, and Rachel Jacobson who proved that her head is harder than wood (but just barely).

There were a suitable number of sports injuries and two finally figured out why tetherball is not an Olympic sport. It's because it hurts so much when you hit the rope! There were no cases of Tennis Elbow, but Aaron Shevo discovered Video Finger. That's when you abuse your pointer shooting fourteen hours of home movies.

Nighttime was always busy. Tammy Fried still doesn't know how or why she fell on her head from the top bunk. And strangely enough, Lisa Gaum couldn't tell us either how she dislocated her kneecap on the dark steps of the Chadar at 11 p.m. Luckily, there were four strong, muscular, handsome counsellors nearby to help her to her cabin. Mike Yablon also needed emergency care after he ran into a clothesline one night. And, by the way, Mike, we still don't believe you were frantically looking for dry clothes at 1 a.m. Then there was Laura Gergely who tried to break her neck doing acrobatics on her bed before lights out (or maybe after lights out). Not wanting to be outdone that day by his sister, Andrew decided to get an ear infection at midnight.

The infirmary was well equipped and a popular place to stay, what with the hot water, a shower and room service. In fact, Gita Brenner and Simone Vigod liked it so much they stayed for days!

It's a good thing that Camp Kadimah always gets Family Doctors because there are so many families here, like the Pinks, Cohens, Gaums, Mendlesons, Jacobsons, Zitners, Tragers, and Attises. In fact, the Attis' parents have promised me that to help with all the medical needs of all their children, next year they are coming with two cases of antibiotics, three cartons of ear and eye drops and their own personal physicial. Thank you!

All in all, we had a very successful year. No one got appendicitis, broke any bones or fell in poison ivy. And the children LOVED coming to get their shots for our extremely extensive meningitis vaccination programme, where we vaccinated practically all the campers, counsellors and even kitchen staff.

My thanks go to Allison Matheson, our camp nurse, for being extremely competent, and caring; and to Howard Conter for stocking the infirmary so well. And last but not least, I thank all the wonderful campers for being so great to work with! Be well and keep well!

Sincerely,

Norman Pinsky

A Flight To Life -- Oh Jerusalem

We wake up in Treblinka, we sleep down at the wall
Bear witness to the death camps, then follow their great call
King David's city waits for us, walls on which we cry
They call out for the memory of the children who have died

My eyes rise to the mountains..Me'ayin yavo ezri
Calling out from Auschwitz, 'G-d, please make us free'
A shofar and menorah gave hope the only light
Warsaw Ghetto heroes showed the world our fight

Chorus: Oh, Jerusalem, 6 million voices keep you free
Oh, Jerusalem..Im eshkacheck tishkach yemini

G-d took us out of Egypt with a great strong hand
"Let them go" cried Moses, a powerful demand
He led them from the ashes, only those not damned
And walked us out of Europe, into the Promised Land

The bodies of our brothers are gone not long ago
Souls bound up in heaven, back to G-d they go
While marching through the death camps, we asked "how and why"
The only answer seems to be, Am Yisroel Chai

Chorus

Our of Ethiopia came Jews as black as night
Brothers from Mother Russia arrive on every flight
The worldwide Jewish family together we must stand
A light unto the nations from the Promised Land

Together we are witness to the evil man can do
Tights tramped by nations always start first with the Jew
To fix the world with Kingship of G-d we have been blessed
Sp stand with us in victory of life over death

Chorus

Lay Down Your Arms

Dear G-d, please hear us -- listen to our prayer
And help us do Thy will upon this Earth..
Let the children suffer war no more
And let a peaceful world be given birth.

Every hand that holds a sword can hold a baby
Every heart can learn to love...
Lay down your arms
Begin the journey home
And join the human family (X 2)

The road is long and steep
What we sow, we reap
Children need you:
Let us lead you
Promises we make we all must keep

Shirkud Report

....I'm sitting here trying toorganize my thoughts on paper.....

The first and most important people to thank would be you. WHY? Because if it wasn't for the spirit and energy that is inside each and everyone of you, my job would be hell. We all know that Camp Kadimah has and will always have the most R'uach then any other camp in the world. Kadimah meaning forward gives us the one and only though to remember, always to move on.

Let me briefly tell you what my goals were for shirkud this summer, well....I didn't really have any. For those of you who didn't know my job was supposed to be; in a cabin with kids in Kochot and assistant shirkud,WHAT HAPPED!!!!!!???? Well...cabin 21 girls (Stacey, Heidi, and Mary at the time) move over another blonde is moving in. As the summer slowly moved on my position became more clear to all. My goals through the summer were accomplished. Being able to teach the old and new dances, to sing English and Hebrew songs, many of which have been around ever since the early Forties. Thanks to all thoughts who brought me new material to work with. My biggest accomplishment this summer was the CHOIR. I hope that for the years to come the Choir will make it's place in Camp ("Stay Alive").

Shana and Anat witout you by my side the program would not have been complet. I LOVE YOU both, and will never forget what you taught me and our fun filling Peulot together. Thank-You

The best way to summerize this summer is from one of the most popular songs on Shabatt....." Once there was a wizard...."

To each section I leave the following song:

GIBORIM " I'M A NUT"

GOSHRIM " IF I HAD A HAMMER"

KOCHOT " LOLLIPOP TREE"

MACHAR " GING GANG GOO"

C.I.T " PINUS AINUS"

Waterski Report '92

We have a new motor (one that works!). My wish came true from last years waterski report, that being that the boat would start on the first try. Numerous people have asked me what I could possibly write in this report. So big deal: the boat arrived a week late and broke down twice having to be pulled out of the water twice. But hey! Ever since those bad times have passed it's been clear sailing (or should I say clear skiing) ahead. Ninety horses are now pulling Kadimah across Lake William with ease. In fact in four days six first time skiers were born. To this date as I write this report another six campers have learned to ski and about a half dozen others have learned to drop a ski and successfully ski around the lake. Not bad for someone who held the sign "Unemployed" around his neck and inquired about obtaining "Camp Social Assistance." As I go off on one of my tangents away from waterskiing I must mention the picking up the meat in Halifax is the worst job! A close second is picking up the fish. Oh, then there's the trips to the dentist. Thanks to all of us here at Kadimah, that dentist in New Germany is having the vacation of his life. Seeing as the boat is back (presently) working well, I am no longer bothered by people wanting to know what I do in camp and why I am even here. OK, back to where I left off. It's hard to thank everyone for helping me out with the waterski program, especially if you forget anyone. However, Ace, you were an awesome shotgun. Have you considered it as a professional career? Jamie, my ski buddy, there's always more for us to learn. I'll have to beat you on the flying dock start. There was only a six minute spread that you beat me with in regards to getting up on one ski. Then there's Hammy who was a great mediator between us, the committee and the boat people. If I had a penny for everytime someone asked if they could come on the boat I'd be enjoying a great vacation with the dentist from New Germany. (I'm off on another one of my tangents). There were some new ideas that I used this year for the waterski program. The first was the introduction of waterskiing as a demonstration sport in Maccabia. The results were very successful. The second involved a new method to get those skiers, who could not get up by themselves, up. I placed the skier between my legs and together we would ski. The search and rescue team involving the motorboat and crash boat were sent on a tough mission this year: Reclaim our docks from cottage owners across the lake. Five docks, in total, were retrieved thanks to the search and rescue team. (Baby powder and stay puff marshmellow men will be remembered) I hope that everyone had a great summer. The waterski program was one of the most successful ever, thanks to all who came down skiing or aqua-boarding. We are now looking at only another 320 days until skiing begins again! Long live the Quagmire!

Your Waterski Director for the '92 season,
Jonathan Ross

92 WOW

"Here comes the rain again....." seemed to be the theme for the first part of the summer. During that the 92 WOW rose to the occasion and showed the rest of camp how to run a rainy day program. Swim instruction on land is now being considered a possible replacement for shirkud in the regular schedule. The sun finally came out, and 92 WOW showed we are even more capable of teaching swim instruction in the water. We stopped collecting pogeys, with the exception of Jon "UIC" Ross, who valliantly protected his docks from the boating pirates. Ian "Spaz" Slotin has the dubious honour of creating a new waterfront award, The Slotin Award. "Crazy" Mike Aronson revolutionized waterfront snack and elevated it to an eagerly anticipated event. Amy "orange" Stein should take lessons from Mike on the proper way to get snack. Loni "legs" Sherkin and Lisa "keener" Gaum have provided much entertainment and energy this summer. Jen "Ace" Pink has kept us laughing with her comic relief despite her attempts to be a bitch. Jason "compass" Jacobson's discipline techniques (for example taking off his shirt) have kept his all female Machar class interested. Rebecca "Gravel voice" Perlin has likely learned why the "no throwing in waterfront staff" rule was created the hard way - by trying to throw in the boss. Robin "Duke" Cohen and Heather "Joe" Astroff always seem to brighten up the waterfront; unfortunately, not as often as we'd like. Maybe next year.....But this year wouldn't be complete without thanking the WOW-some H2O staff 92 (we're not worthy!), the boating staff, Rob Matlow for his help with the music, and everyone who has helped out with buddy board and eyebath. So we bid you farewell for now and we'll see you in Montreal!!

Love, Wendy "Wendlefish" Hyman and Jamie "SGT" Cohen

P.S. This is Van Earl Wright hoping your summer is SM000000TH

DEFINETELY NOT A CAREER CHOICE FOR YABS - "One of the Wind Jammers Big Man passes to another Big Man" (croud response) "Get off the mike Mike"

IT'S NOT JORDAN IT'S MILES - Miles "Air" Rubin skyed over the Wind Jammer's Big Man with a spectacular dunk.

CAN HE MISS? - Marc Helwani with 24pts ,shot the lights out during the Lakers vs Pistons Dairy Cone Basketball League.

NEW CIT SPORT AT CAMP KADIMAH '92 - Rafter pillow . Fiengold's version ,Rafter bed! Dave your a great sport.

ROBIE'S NEW GAME AT CAMP KADIMAH - Hide and go seek clip board! If you misplaced it once you misplaced it hundreds of times! I think we are one of a kind, we would both make lists and then end up misplacing them. However, I must say when you had your clip board you were very organized. I was very impressed with the preparation you did prior to camp because it takes an extra special person to do what you have done. I think it really paid off because you were an outstanding Co-Sports Director . I really enjoyed working with you and I had a lot of fun. You're a great friend and I wish you and Robin all the best of luck at McGill.

I can't believe the summer has come to an end. I guess time flies when your having fun! I would like to thank Camp Kadimah for a great summer , it was a great experience. I must give special thanks to Becky , Ben, Andrew L., Simcha, and the CIT placements for your great help. I must also credit the campers because it was your participation and enthusiasm that made the sports program successful. I thank you and hope you 'll take the skills and confidence that you gained at camp home with you and continue to engage in sports throughout your life time.

CATCH YOU ON THE REBOUND !

Kadimah Sports

Camp Kadimah is a place where I would have loved to spend my summers as a child growing up. Unfortunately I was not able to experience the Kadimah life as a camper, however, I was fortunate to spend this summer as co-sports director with Robie Cohen. I would like to thank Joel Jacobson and other committee members for making this possible.

Prior to camp I was very anxious to find out as much as I could about Camp Kadimah. Mike Yablon tried to inform me about Kadimah life and left me with the impression that "The camp is very sexist." From this tidbit of information and me being female and acting as sports director I didn't know what to expect. So I went with an open mind and great expectations to put the last 4 years of studying at Acadia University to actual practice. My goal was to provide an equal opportunity for both females and males to participate in a wide variety of fun activities throughout the summer.

LET THE GAMES BEGIN ! Kadimah Sports 1992 kicked off with Softball Spring Training for Machar, Kochot, Goshrim and ice breaker games for Giborim. The opening ceremonies for the female and male Softball House Leagues and the first pitch by Simone Vigod made Spring Training come alive. The rain put a damper on the ball schedule so we were pressed for time to get as many games in as we could during rest periods.

In addition to the daily fun sport peulahs there were many other special events such as the Giborim Rafterball Tournament, Giborim and Goshrim boys Hockey Shootout, Goshrim Tetherball Tournament, Goshrim boys 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament, Goshrim Girls World Cup Soccer Tournament, Kochot and Machar Girls Tennis Pyramid, Machar girls Scoopball Tournament, Machar boys Dairy Cone Basketball League and 2 on 2 Basketball Challenge against Shawn & Yabs and Me & Robie, Hockey Marathon, Kadimah All Star Softball Team and CIT's Dream Team.

The Gibbies are so cute and full of energy that kept me on my toes constantly. I soon learned that team sports were definitely not recommended and injuries were definitely a concern after 2 injuries occurred during musical hoops. It took a lot of creativity and great imagination to think of games using hoops, bean bags and playground balls to meet their needs. Thanks Freda, the girls loved a Tisket A Tisket, I must have sung it a million times. The boys were hitting farther than Truck in tennis baseball. Four square, Spud and Ga Ga were very popular with the Gibbies.

The challenge for the summer was trying to teach Gosrim boys how to play Ultimate. After several attempts they finally conquered it, Micah you caught on very quickly! All it takes boys is a little cooperation & sportsmanship. The girls were by far the best at circle volleyball and soccer.

Kochot were always enthusiastic, ready to go and very fun to work with. Not to mention names but there are a number of great athletes within this section. They seemed to like all sports that were offered: floor hockey, basketball, nukum ball, scoopball, shuffle board, softball, tennis.....

Who said Machar girls were only interested in sun tanning? I thought it was effortless to get them to participate. The big attractions were wrestling, skipping, basketball, softball, shuffle board and aerobics. The boys were very strong in basketball, however, failed to beat the big guns in the 2 on 2 challenge! It was also amusing to watch them during aerobics. Yabs you can take most of the credit for that one. Your a great sport to dress like Richard Simmons!

Overall, I thought all the campers were very enthusiastic to learn and as result there was great improvement throughout the summer.

BLOOPERS, GOOD PLAYS AND SPECIAL EVENTS

THE BATTLE BETWEEN DANIELS - Daniel Carnat's (goshrim) determination to beat Daniel Zatzman's time in the Hockey Shootout Obstacle Course. After several attempts Carnat proved to be the fastest male in Giborim and Goshrim.

BLUE TAKES THE LEAD - Shelby Hirsch's spectacular offense with 5 goals in one game puts blue up by one and then on to win Hockey Marathon '92.

KADIMAH ALL STARS COME BACK - After being down 10-2 in the 2nd inning against the teckies they were able to pull together and squeeze out a 18-17 win. Congratulations guys for an undefeated season!

proud of Miles, Helwani, Silverman, Assouline, Saul, Barak, and Shana. So many of these young adults have such an incredible head on their shoulders that sports peulah ran itself with socializing, learning, and having a great time. On this note congratulations Riva, on being the best all around athlete this summer!

There were many special programs at Kadimah this summer and a few happened to be sports related, so I shall continue. Hockey Marathon was just fabulous with Blue Team overcoming a twenty goal deficit and defeating Red in a thriller 118-116 after twelve hours of hockey. The scoring touch was demonstrated by Heidi, Shelby, Ben, and Mark. On that same day, the Windjammers won a squeaker over a makeshift camp team in overtime 42-40. We really are professionals! There was another team, the Kadimah all-stars made up of three Goshies, three Kochot, and seven Machar that showed class and character in posting an undefeated season against our friendly neighbors. At their field camp was down 10-2, but came back to win 18-17. Avi Mintz, you have a contract was the team until the year 2000. Jacob Rosenfeld's words of "Don't call us again, we'll call you" as I was rounding second base summed up the surprising general staff softball victory over head staff, hinting at their eagerness in moving up in the ranks. Softball games were played against Bnai Brith, R.C.M.P., and Ace's team allowing the little kid in all of us to come out. The crowds were saddened with the Truck's mini power slump. The women's softball team soundly crushed all teams in their way led by Mary, Candy, Gabi, and Loni. The camp basketball team was fine tuned with a win over the C.I.T. Dream Team and then moved on to Mitch Beck's team and Bnai Brith.

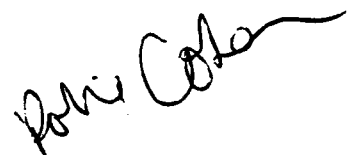

The Dairy Cone Leagues second year in existence was the most entertaining one. The six teams battled out the regular season and the playoffs still remain. The male and female softball leagues have been worth their weight in gold by the kids and should provide for some excellent competition down the stretch.

I might as well take advantage of this opportunity with a few brief personal messages. Firstly, my summer has been made infinity times easier working with such an incredible person like Mary. You are a rare individual being able to do so much so quickly here at camp and I'm so glad we became good friends. I would not want to work with anyone else but you. There's not much to say but a big smile and laugh when thinking about my roommates Truck and Jock. The good times definitely rolled. To all the staff and Cit's that gave us their time, we thank you dearly (Karen, Becky, Indig, Lecker, Josh, Matt, Tanya, Norm). I apologize right now for forgetting so many but my unfortunate procrastination has led to me doing this at 5:00 AM. Astroff, you're a good friend and I appreciate all that you have done for me and this camp. To my dear sis, I love you and am so happy you came back to Kadimah and had the best summer ever. Being out on the hot ballfield all day long can take its toll on a person and I survived by enjoying all you wonderful Kadimah kids and a very special person with my name. Robin, the time was not there but we managed fine and the future has never looked brighter.

Sports is fun and apart of all your lives whether you like it or not. I hope you liked it!

With all the love in the world,

Robie Cohen

P.S. Thanks Ali and Hammy for the help
P.P.S. The Boys Of summer will always rule!!!!!!

SPORTS WRAP UP

"Ali I'm tired"--"We've got spirit"--"Can I get snack with you?"--"I need a buddy will you be my buddy?"--"When's the next regular day?" Whoops, wrong beginning - this is what happens after 6 weeks at Kadimah, let me try again!

Home-Run, 3-pointer, great serve, goal, double dutch, volley, touchdown, throw-in... The sports program for the summer was designed for participation by as many people as possible in getting a light workout, having fun, and learning the basic fundamental skills. This was the goal but along the way there were 100's of people, factors and intangibles that were needed to allow for success.

The summer of '92 began quite early for the sports guru with the placing of a sports wish list and a commitment to variety and improvement with the female sports program. When reading my job description it seemed so simple, play and teach sports all day long. I've definitely found out that there's much more that goes into being Sports Director. I tried to prepare myself by putting together a huge sports planbook (Hennessy handbook) and attending different sport clinics. Kadimah kids have this natural inclination of loving and craving sports so the only problem was that we could not get enough in. With the early rainy days and the Ulam quake facilities became a minor problem but this allowed the concept of an "open gym" to flourish.

I love the Gibbies, they're so cute, just like Ally. Have there ever been as many little knowledgeable jocks in camp before- I say not! At first I was a bit nervous with 4 injuries during frozen tag. Then things took off in every direction with tennisbaseball, soccerbaseball, ultimate, a day of parachuting and the Superstar Program. The big 5 of Dan, Noah, Spindoctor, Matt and Justin would not be denied always being in the thick of things.

Goshrim is the perfect age for molding kids into decent sportsmanship minded athletes. This certainly was needed this summer! Was there ever a moment Dan Gryfe wasn't asking to play basketball or the Carnat question of when the tetherball tourney would be held. Cabin 33 absolutely had the Eye Of The Tiger with sports whereas people like Marissa brought humour to the peulah. My Celtic's hat is off to Levitz, Toast, Karen, Hannah, Michelle, and Leah for overall excellence.

Whenever sports was called on the loudspeaker the fastest section to the field was always Kochot. The enthusiasm stemmed from the top and helped make this one of the best sectional sports peulah of the day. Being general staff for this group for two summers helped pave the way for a complete working/personal relationship. Some of the new sports picked up in Kochot were: scoopball, aerobics, newcomeball, skipping, and shuffleboard. No matter what the sport, Keri, Rachel, Carly, and Jen were always seen involved and leading all the rest to a great time, thanks! The females almost got a win against their male counterparts headed by Freeman, Cohen, Lampert, Raskin, and Sadofsky in softball this summer. Times could be a changing, maybe the Expos will win it all!

A grin is on my face when thinking about Machar, for a few reasons(?) Machar has the largest number of people, thus has been a challenge in getting everyone involved at once. The meat and potatoes of sports always happens to be softball and basketball and this year was no different. We had an addition of Kadimah Wrestling started by Psycho Samara and the Philly Fanatic Natalie. Fun runs outside of camp occurred with Heidi Lipkus setting the perfect pace and the grueling marathon dominated by Rachel, Saul, and Honey. Being a gym rat at that age myself, I am very extremes. When if somebody stole your girlfriend you challenged them to a duel and shot them. When if two families didn't like each other they'd all shoot each other. When if you got a cold instead of snivelling and coughing for a day you would just die. When if you were poor you didn't drive to work, you wore tree bark and ate dirt. In times like those it doesn't seem so far fetched that for a practical joke you'd tattoo "BOOB" on somebody's forehead while they slept.

Swimming - Emmersing yourself in a substance in which if you should stop moving you will die. Sounds like a blast to me.

Rain - A feeble attempt by the waterfront staff to make us all swim.

Without my eyes I couldn't see the world around me, without my nose I couldn't smell the world around me, without my skin I couldn't feel the world around me. Without any of my senses I'd just be a part of the world around me. That's how plants feel. Be nice to plants, they've got it pretty bad.

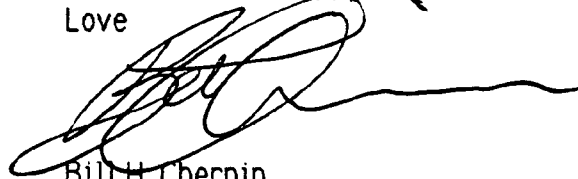

Did you ever think that people are like cars, We're big machines and doctors are like machanics. Like cars all countries are composed of domestic and import models. We have our brand names on our birth certificates and we have magazines which rate our preformance like Time, Newsweek and GQ. Unfortunately we have no quality control and no factory recalls. If we did I'd clear out a few factory defects.

Birth certificates - proving we were born. Yes if I don't see somebody's birth certificate I really suspect they're an alien visitor. Yay! government.

There are so many other things I's like to say and think about but I'm pushing a deadline so I have to end it. I never mention people in my articles because I will undoubtedly forget somebody. I will single out Sheldon and Sobes because I love them and they're great. I'll also single out Mariam for these reasons. The tripping staff is awesome and you'll all find a place in Valhalla. Goodluck to all my friends and lets stay friends until the big bad guy comes to get us. Leslie Rosoph is a great mechanic and I love him to.

Thankyou and goodbye, be well and be happy.

Love

Bill H. Chernin

1974 - 1992 and on and on.

THINGS PEOPLE DO

The history of man reads like a joke from a bubble gum package but its not as funny. That's pretty sad. Sadness is the opposite of happy. The question is what lies in the middle? Some people would say "every day". If that's the case this would be a tragedy. Don't make your life a tragedy, make it happy.

This does seem to be a depressing way to start an iton article. Why have I done this? Why am I in this state of mind? Has someone just stapled my feet to the floor of my cabin so that I can't move. So I can't go for either a glass of water or the bathroom. So that I'll have to stand there all day and all night, every moment of every day, wearing really clean t-shirts while my jeans become the dirtiest in human history, and for fun I watch the fungus growing out of my wounded feet? No, this hasn't happened. Do I write this as I ride through a four day heat wave in a bus with the society of the great unwashed? No. Do I write this as I have a frisbee stuck in my mouth removed by a farmer with only the aid of a rope? No. Do I write this just after a car accident in which I was thrown clear and just as I start to believe I'm Ok I realize the parking meter I thought I hit I actually landed on and now I look like I'm just standing around watching when in fact I'm in too much pain to tell anyone I need help too.? No. I did it because I did it, the same as all human history.

Here's something we all do but none of us think about. Something that will slow us down in casting moral judgements on others. Flybites! Yes flybites. They don't bite us because they're mad at us and they don't bite us because they're hungry. They bite us to reproduce, they need our blood, and yes, we are all involved in bug reproduction. Sometimes several times a day. That's gross and we don't even know their names. " Lie down with bugs and wake up with eggs" my mother always said.

Did you know the spinx never blinks, LaLaLa. It's true, he does walk around at night but I'm the only one has ever seen him, lucky me.

The Eiffel tower was built by a man who wanted to get away from it all with out leaving the city. It turned out to be to expensive for everybody so we invented the walkman. I hope I'm not sued by Sony.

Carnivores: This is a really weird idea. Animals that just eat other animals. They just walk around, grab somebody else and say to themselves "He looks good" and eat him. This has severely retarded the social lives of animals all over the world. It's a little nerve racking to go out and try to make friends when somebody your talking to might eat you. This is why animals don't have homes. They'd be to easy for the predators to find. We'd see lions hunting with phone books and planning Bar-B-Q's in the goats neighborhood. So the next time you see an animal all by himself and you think to yourself "what a snob" think again, he just doesn't want to be eaten.

I just read a book on dinosaurs, suffice it to say I'm glad they're gone or people would have pretty crappy social lives too.

Tattoos - Permanent Body Art. Somebody a long long time ago invented these as a practical joke. They discovered that if they pricked their friend with a needle and there was ink on it, it would mark them permanently. Think about it, this is from the days when everybody did everything to

The Truck Report

Now that I have figured out how to use this computer, with Bena's incredible assistance, my article may commence. The 1992 camp season has been a great success from my point of view although the weather has not cooperated the way we would have liked. Between running to B'H2O and Halifax for unknown reasons I have had a great summer and would like to thank everyone for making it a great success, especially Larry, who has the best outside shot in this area, and Jock, the most athletic man around.

When the summer started it seems that me and Jock were spending more time in Halifax than at home, Jock being with me due to the motorboat being broken down, you fixed that Jon. Robie also had his turn coming with me a trip to b'H2O turned into a trip to the airport, fun trip, eh Larry. Although all my trips were vital that everything got done the priorities were still Ostroff's ruffles, Robie's Big Mac, and Jock's Gatorade.

This summer was also a historical one, beside blowing the engine of the car, I also, along with Jamie, became the first Kadimanicks too not only play on a teckie softball team but to win the Barss Corner championship. Thanks Sheldon for letting us play.

Well the summer's over and I would like to thank Bill and Sobes for not only being great to work with but also for being two of the greatest counsellors I ever had and for teaching me so much, see you two at the volleyball court. Sheldon you used to intimidate me more than anyone else when I was a camper but now I know the true man behind the beard. To Bena for late night conversations and massages, we are forever friends. And of course to Robie, Jon, Robert, Michael, Jamie, Josh, Jason, and Sean, who ever thought we would make it this far?!

One last thought...Who beat the Legion?

Love,

Michael "Truck" Druckman

This article would not be complete without mentioning two people who played a large part in my summer. Jodi and Shana, I really enjoyed getting to know the two of you this summer. I had a great time planning "activities" to entertain you, you guys were great sports and I consider you both close friends. Thanks for everything!!!

"Maybe THIS IS Heaven on Earth!"

Thank you all for an incredible summer. I will not forget you!

Love always,

Rob

Rob

P.S. This report was brought to you by the letter R, the number 4, and the Children's Television Workshop.

P.P.S. To the Boys of Summer, we will always be together!!!

Maccabia was unquestionably the highlight of the summer of 1992. For the first time in camp history a fifth color, the green team, was added to what had traditionally been a four team affair. The atmosphere on Visiting Day was truly electrifying. It was a wonderful feeling to see the surprised faces of both the campers and visitors when Maccabia was broken. The theme for this year's Maccabia was Next Year In Jerusalem. This phrase has been repeated by Jews for centuries. This theme is especially timely at such a pivotal point of the Arab-Israeli conflict and the upcoming anniversary when Jerusalem celebrates her 3,000th year.

As this article goes to print, the program for Tisha Be'Av is underway. This program will examine the trials and tribulations of the Jewish people through our history

"Heaven is the place where dreams come true"

At this point, I must thank several people. Michael Soberman, you are indeed a great teacher. You have been instrumental in revolutionizing the program at Kadimah. I have been fortunate to work with you over the past three years and look forward to many years of friendship. I have learned so much by watching you.

To the section heads, Ali, Heidi, Jason, Mike, and Sean. It was indeed a pleasure to work with all of you. Your cooperation, patience and hard work has resulted in an outstanding summer.

Bill, you continually impress me. Your patience and easy going manner made you a pleasure to work with. Although I was once your camper, you made me feel as though I were a peer. Thank you!

Sheldon, once again it has been a pleasure to work with you. Each year I return to Kadimah I am more impressed with your love for Kadimah and all the hard work you do to ensure a successful summer.

To Jason, Mike, and Sean, I have known you all since we were campers together, but our friendship undoubtedly achieved new heights this summer. I have a tremendous amount of respect for the three of you. You sincerely care about the welfare of your campers and your patience and sense of humour made my job easier and entertaining.

Robie and Mary, you are incredible!!! You are my M.V.P.'s for 1992. The amount of work you did was well beyond the call of duty. The sports program reached heights never seen before at Camp Kadimah. This was a direct result of all your planning and hard work. Thank you!!!

Robie, I have known you since we were campers in Giborim in 1981. Since then we have been through a lot together. You are an outstanding person and friend. Thanks for the memories!!!

Re: Programming

"Is there a Heaven on Earth?"

It is hard to believe that the summer of 1992 is nearing its conclusion. It was an outstanding summer and a great deal was accomplished. My main objectives at the beginning of the summer were threefold: 1) An active, dynamic, and innovative program; 2) To educate the campers and staff about their history, Israel, and their Jewish identity; and 3) To create a balanced and interesting program. It is my belief that these objectives have been met and surpassed. The true success of the program can be attributed to all the staff who assisted me in implementing the program and more importantly to all the campers who participated in the programs. I was lucky to work with an outstanding staff this summer. In my three years on staff, I have never worked with a staff as cooperative and enthusiastic as the staff of 1992.

As Program Director, my job began many months ago. It is indeed a challenge to plan a structured and innovative program for a full summer for 210 people. As a result of several months of hard work, a comprehensive programming manual was produced.

Naturally, I cannot mention all the programs of the summer of 1992, but I can say that the overall program was outstanding. The summer got off to a fast start, despite the seemingly endless rain. Yom Ha'Shoah and Yom Ha'Atzmaut (Holocaust Day and Israel Day respectively) presented the campers with a tremendous contrast. The campers were presented with an informative and comprehensive program dealing with the history and aftermath of the greatest tragedy to befall the Jewish people. By educating the youth of today, history will not repeat itself. The campers were fortunate to hear first hand from two Holocaust survivors, Herman Newman and Philip Riteman. Israel Day was spent learning about, and celebrating our greatest triumph, the State of Israel.

Based on past experience, campers can learn a lot of Jewish content from games with a Jewish theme or focus. This summer many field games were used to convey knowledge and lessons to the campers. Highlights included the introduction of a field game on the recent Gulf War and Israel's role in this conflict and the return of Haganah Night.

Yom Disney marked the beginning of a new era for Machar Day. For a full day the camp was transformed into the Magic Kingdom complete with Fantasy Land, Adventure Land, Main Street U.S.A., River Country, and Diamond Horseshoe Revue. The Macharniks acted as tour guides and booth operators. It was indeed a pleasure to see the Macharniks run a full day camp wide program with such maturity. Full credit goes to Michael, Sean, Lesley and the entire Machar staff and especially the Macharniks themselves for a truly wonderful day.

To our doctors Les Rosoph, Andrea Radkey and Norm Pinsky, many thanks for attending to all at the infirmary. Your professionalism and concern for our health was excellent. To Allison, our nurse, a deserved thank you. To Anne, Wendy and the kitchen staff, thank you for your fine meals and the running of the kitchen. To Joe and Ace, we appreciated your fine work keeping our camp grounds and maintenance smooth.

Behing every successful man, stands a beautiful, wonderful woman. To Freda, thank you for all the help with the Vegies, the laundry and being a wonderful wife. To Michael Yablon, a special thank you for acting as administrator in Halifax and setting up camp prior to its opening. Machar ran smoothly and to you Michael, Sean and your staff, congratulations.

To Ali, Heidi and Jason, our section heads - you are the ones who deserve a lot of credit for supervising your campers and staff and ensuring their safety and welfare.

I opened by thanking Sobes and Bill. To Sobes, who led the C.I.T.'s as well as serving as assistant director, many thanks for all the work on recruitment of campers, help with the Montreal and Toronto camp rallies and the many hours of work in the city over the long winter. You are one of the most dedicated workers and you are responsible for so many campers coming to Kadimah. I cannot thank you enough. We wish you well in your chosen career and will always remember you as Mr. Kadimah. Bill Chernin, you are a legend in this camp. You have matured into a fine leader (it's about time). Everyone loves and respects you. Thank you for your assistance in running camp. Thank you for your spirit and dedication to Kadimah.

In closing, I want to thank Christina MacNeil, the administrative secretary, at A.J.C. for her weekly visits, assisting on all tuck accounts and administrative matters. We especially appreciated your help on Visitor's Day in the office with all the accounts. To Jon Goldberg, programmer at A.J.C. for your continued help in our program and devotion to Camp Kadimah. To Hank Webber for supervising our kitchen and in weekly trips, with his car loaded with supplies for the kitchen and camp in general - many thanks. To Andrew Wolfson and Mark Rosen and all committee members, thank you for your many hours of commitment and devotion to Camp Kadimah.

Finally to you, the campers - thank you. This is my 12th year as director and you have to be the best group we ever had. You were (with a few exceptions) a great group of kids and we hope you had a memorable summer. We wish you a safe trip home and a happy and healthy year. Kadimah '93 our 50th anniversary is already in the planning and we hope you will be here to help celebrate.

Love,

Sheldon

FOR MICHAEL B. SOBERMAN'S ASSISTANT DIRECTOR'S REPORT, PLEASE REFER TO THE BEGINNING OF THE C.I.T. SECTION. (DO YOU THINK I WAS GOING TO WRITE TWO ARTICLES?)

Editor's Message

Welcome to the 1992 Iton. By far one of the most organized itons in our memory. We recall walking the 1986 iton; walking into a smoke filled office as the editors grabbed all possible typists as they attempted to cram three weeks work into three days. Hand printed Gestetner iton days are long gone as well! The 1992 iton is a computer generated, elegant edition which was made with love for you. Enjoy the work of you and your friends, share these memories. The summer was a rainy one for sure, but only in our mnds. in our hearts, where Kadimah truely is, we find only sunshine!

When I (Lesley) thought of my 1992 summer, iton was definately not part of it! However, together we decided that if "our fingers would not touch the keyboards" we would undertake the the job. Thank ypu to all typists who helped make our dream a reality! To Andrew Levine our heartfelt thanks, you were an intergral part of our iton team. "With out you we would at this moment we typing and/or panicking and not writing this (it is only 1:00 a.m., not 4:00a.m.). To Jessica, Mark A., Yona, Jody S., Jodi G. and all other typists thank you for dedicating your time and your fingers. To all section editors much gratitidue for your perserverance in "coercing" the campers into creating the words of wisdom in the following pages. A special thank you to all who contributed artwork; Aron, Bena and the rest. They add the true polish to the iton.

(Now for the sarcasm) We must thank all the headstaff who were oh so considerate of our deadlines. Need we say anymore as two prime examples sit beside us scribbling away! To Max, it gave us great pleasure to bend the deadlines for you!

So enjoy, remember and write us lots of letters

Love always,

Lesley and Bena

From the Director's Chair

Kadimah '92 has been a most successful season. When that limo pulled up on Visitor's Day and Maccabia '92 officially began - close to 500 people were overcome with excitement and joy as the four, no five staff emerged in the traditional colours to climatic music, each carrying the colourful banners. The Visitor's Day performance was the best ever presented. The choir was beautiful, the dance superb. All the skits portraying life at Camp Kadimah had all captivated. Who wouldn't want to be part of the Kadimah family? This summer we had a record 212 campers. Green team, a fifth team, was added - indicative of our ever growing numbers and a move to add spice to our already successful program.

Despite poor weather the first two weeks, the program ran successfully. All sections managed overnight hikes and Kochot and Machar had shortened hityashvuts. Hockey Marathon, Yom Disney, Yom Hashoa, Israel Day, onegs, socials and outings complimented our daily peulot.

At this point I want to especially thank our councillors and specialists for an outstanding performance. To Mike Soberman and Bill Chernin, you were my right hand men. To Robert Astroff, congratulations on an excellent program. To Wendy and Jamie and waterfront staff, as always excellence on the waterfront. To Jon Ross, our waterski director and Mike "Truck" Druckman - thank you for your fine efforts in your respective areas. To Andrew Honey, Rob Matlow and Aaron Lief, we appreciated your assistance with scouting and tripping. To Aaron Kuriloff, Bravo on a superb sailing program.

I also want to thank Stacey Offman for assisting with the C.I.T. performance. A note of thanks to Lesley Stevens and Bena Medjuck for coediting the Iton. To Lesley, thanks for helping in the office and the hours spent after Visitor's Day adjusting the tuck accounts.

To Andrew Levine, I really appreciated your help in the office. You have come a long way and handled a most difficult job well. Congratulations.

We were very fortunate to have Aaron Shevo from Israel as our Arts and Crafts director. Our program was outstanding. The Visitor's Day exhibit and activities this summer were amazing. We also welcomed Amnon and Anat from Israel to assist with Scouting and Shirkud. Aviva Rubin, as Shirkud Director, led the Camp Kadimah choir and ran our song and dance program. Aviva you were great. To Robbie and Mary, bravo on an innovative sports program. We had several ball games with local teams and the kids had a blast.

A special thank you to Michael Ostroff, also from Israel, who assisted with our C.I.T.'s. Michael although small in stature, was a giant in his spirit and genuine concern for our campers and program. We wish you well in your continued Tour of Duty in the Israeli army.

Dear Cabin 15,

Wow, what a summer! I think you all now appreciate the specialness of Machar, but let's not forget all the rockin' times in Cabin 15!

I know you guys would be amazing - I just knew have a blast together. I'm too lucky to have had the opportunity to be a part of definitely the best Machar cabin in '92.

Naomi, I'll start with you since you were lucky enough to sleep next to me this summer - well -- most of the summer. You're full of great ideas, talents and smiles. I wish you could've participated more in machar daily life this year, but I know you got as much, if not more out of the summer than anyone. Your arrival gave Cabin 15 something to look forward to, and whether or not you were actually here, you were always in our hearts.

Sari, you definitely deserve the award for the most novels read in a three week period...seventeen was it? Eventhough much of your time was spent in the infirmary, I think your home was always Cabin 15. We had our ups and downs, I know, but I think you, me and the rest of the cabin will remember the positive things - never forget all our chats on the rock. Sari!

Next in line is Jodi, Toon, Sherk, Fraggie, or whatever else we call you. Jode, you're great, our second year together even better than the first. Never forget the absence of your brush, all your waterskiing achievements, site-ons, tickle tortures - I will get you back - and most of all Jode, don't forget what happens when the sun goes down at night. See you on Fraggie Rock!

Heidi, Heidi, Heidi, Heidi! You're a true sweetie and I know your advice to everyone about anything is always appreciated. Congrats on the first Green Team ever; green is significant for many reasons, you know! Your RAD hugs are the best - I wish I could make the sound on paper.

Sim, well hen, you made it through, with flying colours, I'd say. That night at the B.B.Q. was a little scary but with our smiles you recovered quickly. Neither of us will tolerate having our minds *?@! with anymore by ???! They can have him. I loved all our late night talks, laughs and cries. You'll be the dust-pile sweeper forever! Congrats on being the first fifth place Machar Captain!

Buffer, hon; I dunno where to begin with you - you're boy crazy (at least you have good taste); Mr. Noodle crazy, lomein crazy and just simply crazy. You're silly and funny and a ho (ha ha!) always make me smile while at the same time you're a true macharник, a leader and an awesome friend.

Steph - you gave us the honour of having an "International" cabin! I know you're last daily just to drive me nuts but your hair does look great. Keep your jules on tight and don't hurt your neck like I did!

Suzie, coops, I mean Beverage, you're the best. Remember to use your sense and not use incense, you'll be a tekky song-writer forever and never will we listen to "Piano Man" again! I suggest you get your colours done!

Mann, thank G-d I was stuck with you again this year. Cabin 15 has become quite the home for us, eh? Although you brought the male life into Cabin 15, I'm sure the banquet with T.C. was better than any M & M. You were an awesome Alice and White Team '92-rocker. I know there are many things that you don't understand, but I hope you understand that I love you so much.

Last but definitely not least is my Balmoral buddy Roche. What happened with "New York" anyways? Why were your socks scattered everywhere? I definitely think you should put your hair like you showed us. not! I hope your mission each night was accomplished as successfully as it was when we went cabin hopping together! Your B-Day is in 362 days!

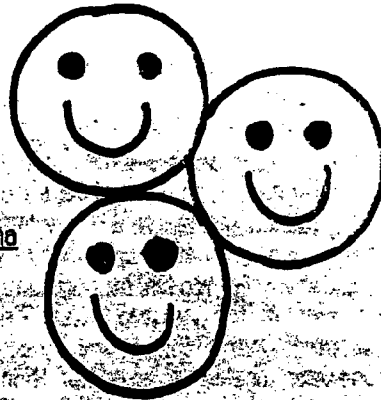

There is so much more I want to say to each of you, so make sure I sign your names personally. Never forget all the times we've shared in Cabin 15. Thanks to each of you for contributing so much to my summer, and for making Machar '92 so special to me.

I love you all
Love your friend,
Robin

Camp Machar '92. Whenever I had a problem, my friends were there with a shoulder to lean on and I don't know what I would have done without them. My memories of Machar will last with me forever. I don't know if I'll be back next year as a C.I.T. or if I'll be at Billuim and I don't know where the rest of you will be. I've learned a lot this summer and had an awesome time. I hope you all had a blast. Keep in touch throughout the year. I'll miss you all.

Love forever and longer,
Lauren Cappell

Love you friend,

Adi
P.S. Smile! (It's the next best thing to do with your lips!)

2 or 3 of us, became a huge kochot-machar battle. There was no stopping us. It lasted for hours until all shaving cream cans were empty. We then had to clean off, of course. Showers were forbidden so we had to resort to "the hose". We enjoyed the pressure of the hose for it was better than ever shower we had had. And that was our favorite day at camp! Let's do it again next year!

Dear Camp Machar,

Well I'm going to start from the beginning. From my point of view. The summer started off really slow. but after the summer started to move on we all started to pull together as a section that night in cabin 14 we all really started to bond. I became really close to people this summer I didn't know that well last summer. This is my last summer as a camper and I'm really going to miss it. I don't know if I'll be back next summer either Biluim or CIT at Kadimah. All I have to say is that I love Machar more than anything and I'm going to miss you all so much. Please keep in touch throughout the year. Whenever anyone's in Toronto call me. I'll hopefully see you all next year but if not in 2 years for sure. A little message for the first years. You guys still have one more year as campers.

I Love You all, Love Robyn Kaiser (89-92)
P.S Cabin 10, Thanks for all the great times.

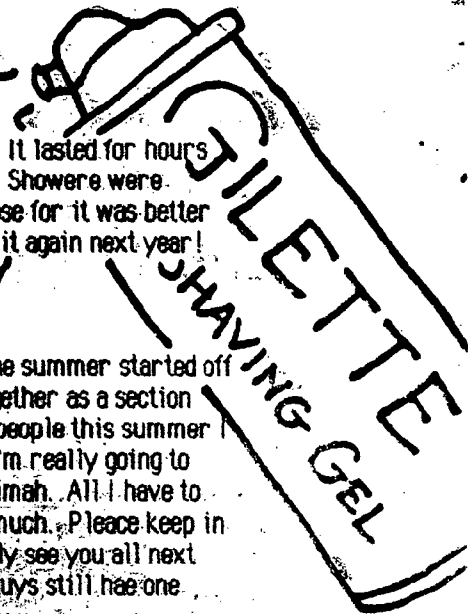

Dear camp Machar of 1992

I can't believe the summer is over. Right now all of you are probably experiencing the same feelings that I am experiencing as I write. I am feeling extreme sadness. I am also finding it hard to express this summer in words. I had a summer filled with absolute happiness, excitement and fun. I honestly cannot recall one moment when I was having less than a fabulous time. Our summer in Machar was filled with spectacular programmes, laughter, and spirit, but most of all, it was filled with building new friendships and strengthening old ones. With 74 campers in our section, we changed a lot of people's attitudes in the way that they had no faith in us that we could never be as good as the past Machars. I knew we could be just as good if not better than all past Machars. I send a huge thanks to all the girls in Cabin 16 (all 26 of you) for making me laugh day and night. Always remember "Thunder" though the night. And that "no one cares for you a smidge when you're in an orphanage". But, we love you Miss Henegan. Thank you to everyone in the section for making this the absolute best summer of my life.

Maccabia 1992 was by far the highlight of my summer as I was chosen as a White team captain. The biggest thank-you to Mike Yablou and all the other Macharim for believing in me and giving me the chance to show what I can do. Thanks a bunch and a half to Craig Silverman who was my co-Machar captain for sharing and making the experience of being a captain even better. By the way, Craig, I had fun blowing your whistle! And I can't think of a better friend I would have liked to experience being a winning Maccabia captain with.

Anyways, Camp Machar, I love you all very, very much. This is by far the best summer ever and I can't think of 73 better people to experience my last year as a camper with.

Love always XOXO

Dear Camp Machar,

It's been great to finally be a part of Camp Machar. You're all quite friendly and have made first years and newcomers most welcome. I really enjoyed this year and I hope everyone else did too. I just have to say a few things to some people,

Jen Fox- next year I want to see you in the social for more than 20 minutes.

Nat B.- Your extra loud voice put everyone in their places. Thanks for being a friend.

Lauren C.- Other people may think you're weird because of your double bed but I understood that you needed to have a fun year.

Steph L.- Your headgear that whistles everything you breathe was very annoying but after being woken up by it, I got used to it.

Shoshanana- Your bagel chips were delicious, thanks, make sure you take care!

Marcy L. - take care of your knees-I'll miss you!!

Licia - I'll think twice before shopping anywhere but ROOTS

Shannon- If you ever come to Moncton, call me!

Dina- I hoped you liked our bra joke, love the slippers

Bonnie- your airheadedness gave everyone a laugh (just joshin')

Robyn- although I wished I had had a muzzie, I loved your high singing voice, you were very helpful at times

Carmi- I wish I could dance as beautifully as you! I'll miss you!

Pam- You are a very exciting person, I'll miss you

Sara- You're a great person but remember not to run into clotheslines. You might not have a hairline anymore, by the way there's a clothespin in your hair (inside joke right Licia?!)

Love always,

Shawna Rinzler

Dear Camp Machar,

As I sit down to write this, I have so many things in my head, so many things to say, but I find it hard to write on paper. Being my second year in Machar, I guess I should be used to the fact that my Machar summers are over. On the last night of camp last summer I remember all the second years telling me to cherish my last summer in Machar. They were all so much more upset and I didn't really understand why, now I know why and I would like to pass on the same message to everyone else cherish Machar. It truly is an experience you will find no where else. I would also like to thank everyone for a wicked summer. I love all of you! Please keep in touch! Love always

P.S Cabin 10 1992 will stroke forever

You were sitting, relaxed on a bed. Your hair was in a high bun with two hair pins and strands of loose hair surrounding your neck. You were listening to music and intently concentrating on a gimp bracelet you were making. Suddenly I imagined you in the future. You looked very old, like a grandmother. Your friends were sitting around you like eager children waiting for a story. Your hair appeared to be silver instead of auburn. You were listening to the same music and making gimp. Gimp was something, at that moment, that old ladies would do, or perhaps a very interested grandchild.

I blinked and at once you were your self again. It was all just a dream or perhaps it was a vision of the future.

A BETTER USE FOR SHAVING CREAM

One afternoon, a couple of Kochotnicks were causing trouble in Machar. We wouldn't put up with their trouble, so we decided to fight back with our shaving cream. It began as a small feud between

Robin, while rolling her eyes, bent down to search under the bed and let out a terrified shriek. Robin reported two sneakers sticking out from under the bed. Little did she know that Natalie's sneakers have a permanent residence in that exact spot. BY that time, the BOOGIE MAN had made a swift exit and was no where to be found. After being laughed at and made a mockery of the Famous # 1 ghost buster of Camp Kadimah, Robin Cohen herself, decided to make her own graceful exit. While Natalie and Lauren drifted back into a state of subconsciousness, Robin decided because that the night was finally at a standstill and her duty was done, she pressed pause.

Lauren Cappell and Natalie Brothman

P.S. Lauren and Natalie are currently int the midst of recovery from a state of psychotic dementia and will someday be all right.

Dear Camp Machar,

There are only 11 days left at Kadimah '92 and thus only 11 days left in my life as a camper. It's difficult to express how much camp means to me. It has been the constant throughout my life as I have moved practically from coast to coast. Whenever I'm sad or frustrated at home I open my lton or close my eyes and think about camp I immediately feel better. Knowing before this summer that it would be my last summer as a camper I prepared myself as well as I could. However, during the second week of camp I became sick and it was suggested that I go home. It was then that I began to feel better. I wasn't ready to leave. After leaving the infirmary, I began to savour and appreciate every activity. I've had an amazing summer and I will always remember it. Who knows where we will all be next summer, but lets keep in touch and try to stick together. I love you all and I'll miss you so much. I hope to see you this year and here is your written invitation to visit Vancouver (and if you're ever awake at 1 or 2 in the morning, call me, it'll only be 9 or 10 my time)

Love always and forever

Simone Vigod (86-92)

P.S. What time is it O.K. ?? S.S.??

Once there was a girl who came to Camp Kadimah and hated it. She came back the next year and loved it. And again, and another year after that. The next year she was finished and she cried. So did all her little friends. They cried together in unison. They became wet with tears. The dampness began to irritate their skin. They stopped crying and began to eat some cheese. Cheese is good for you. We all need some cheese in our lives. They came back to camp and they all remembered each other very fondly. Some of them got married and sent their kids to Camp Kadimah so they could continue the cycle. They will all remember vividly how much fun they had crying and eating cheese. I really hope they do.

The Needle

The air was damp and cold that morning. Mike Yablon wasn't ready for the upcoming event. He had not prepared himself for this test. This blood test. I needed a blood test that morning and Mike, our section head, decided to join me. As we entered the infirmary, his tone of voice became shaky as he explained to me that needles make him sick. Dr. Pinsky walked us into the room and sat us down on a cot. Mike then went on about how much he hated needles, while the doctor got the needles ready. When he returned he exclaimed that he couldn't find the tourniquet. A tourniquet is used to bring a vein to the surface of your arm. Mike now had to hold my arm and be the tourniquet. Mike then went into minor shock as he received this news. He said he had to do this or else he'd look like a whimp, an ego thing. As the doctor stuck me with the needle, Mike watched the blood squirt into the vial, he turned a shade of green, and then white as a ghost. He became a little nauseas and gagged once. He tightened his grip on my arm and the doctor could hardly convince him to let go. After the needle was removed from my arm, and Mike returned to his normal color he began to say things like "I didn't know it was so fast", to cover up the incident. It brought pain to my heart to know our fear less leader was not so fear less.

TRIVY

The Worst Way to Start Off

It all started on July 1, 1992. The weather was the pits and so was the atmosphere. We arrived here at camp at 12:30 in the afternoon. We then unpacked and ate lunch. That was normal but then right away after lunch we were taken to the shuffleboard courts to learn the section song. I thought that was bad enough, not knowing anyone, feeling left out, and having counsellors upset with us about not singing. Finally that was over and the rest of the day went by slowly and I was finally able to go to sleep and not have to worry about anything bothering me. But I was in for a big surprise. When I arrived at camp and chose my bed I didn't realize how much my bed swayed back and forth so whenever Leigh moved I woke up. So the first night I didn't sleep to much and now it's ten times worse, but I'm getting used to it. The only problem is, is that by the time I get used to it it will be time to go home!

Love Ari Weinberg

This was my ninth and final year as a camper at Camp Kadiman. But I will definitely be back as a CIT next year and as staff in the future.

I have enjoyed all nine of my years at camp. If not, I wouldn't have returned of course. I have experienced it all, Gib, Gosh, Kochot and Mechar.

I look forward to being a CIT and staff, but in a way, I'm sad. I will never have to sneak to the General Store again, I will never have to cabin hop again. I will never have to skip shirkud or swim instruction again. I will never be in Machar again or get to ahve rad hayon again.

To all of you who still have the opportunity to be a camper or a Machar nik, take advantage of it because it is too good to miss.

I hope to see you all back here next year. Keep in touch!

Love Always,

Leigh "the flea" Lampert (84 - 92)

Attention!! The siren is sounding wah, wah! Remember the second anniversary of the legendary July 20th 1990, do you remember? Can you think back and remember? David Pink? Miles Rubin? Jon Allan????

It was a warm sultry night. Testosterone went cabin hopping. Estrogen was waiting in the cluttered and infested cabin 7. Any questions? Just remember it, JUST DO IT!

Cabin 7 of 1990: Suzie Samuleson, Simone Yigod

The Boogie Man

One cold lonely, deep dark night, while Lauren and Natalie were lying on their combined double bed (NO!! We are not lovers!!) They were fortunate enough to receive an unexpected visit. To add to the mood, "The Reflex" (Duran, Duran) was playing softly in the background. Lauren, being the night owl she is, was sleeping facing away from Natalie. Natalie also being half asleep, was having an inspirational conversation with her self. (she thought Lauren was paying attention to her.)

Unexpectedly, Natalie did a half twist with a soumer sault directly onto Lauren. A perfect 10. Lauren, being the calm and rational person she is (especially at night) responded by having Natalie under the covers. What happened, you may ask. Well it's all very simple, he had arrived. Who is he, you may ask. THE BOOOIE MAN! Natalie, being the firm believer, as always, convinced Lauren of the super natural being scratching underneath her bed. Robin Cohen, being the considerate machicha, picked that particular strange moment in time to pay them a visit. Upon arrival, she was greeted by two teenage girls on top of one another, hysterical. They cautiously arose from their position to demand of her, a simple task, hunt down the boogeyman and shoot to kill.

this way. You have all found your place in Machar and over the summer I have seen you grow into one big family. I know this smells like "fromage" but I am serious. I know at times I yelled too much and may have asked for too much but for every moment like this there were a dozen happy ones. I hope these memories of Machar stay with you forever, and if I'm in even one of them I'll feel accomplishment. Please everyone of you stay gold and never change.

Love always,

Alla

P.S. I may be different but I'm not "STRANGE"

CAMP MACHAR is gonna be the BEST!!

Dear Camp Machar

At the beginning, we didn't believe that a group of people so large could be this close and this much of a family, but we were proven wrong the first day of camp. Despite the fact that we were outsiders, Machar accepted us with open arms. They led us into a unit of warmth, togetherness, and chevre.

Machar is an experience we will never forget and the memories will be cherished for ever. Machar left a great impact on us and we are grateful. We'll miss you Camp Machar and we'll remember you always.

Love always,

Heather Westleman and Sherrri Braude

Since this was my first year in Camp Kadimah I was not sure what to expect. I had thought that counsellors were there to lead you and be your friends. But what I found when I got here was much better. I found Jack. When he saw me he thought of me as clay in his hands.

When he found out that I liked baseball he took it upon himself to inspire me and train me to be the best that I can be.

He taught me how to hold a bat and then how to swing it. Eventually I understood the game. One evening our House league team in baseball played a game. Jack had been there watching me. I was up with the bases loaded. Jack could see that I was very nervous so he said a phrase I'll never forget, "you can do it kid!". That simple sentence gave me confidence, for I knew he had faith in me. I concentrated hard and stared down the pitcher. It was a full count and I saw the ball coming towards me. I swung as hard as I could and thought the ball would rocket over the fence. As it ended up I struck out, but I will always remember the important role Jack played in my life.

The General Store

For the first time in two years we were taken to the General Store. I was by far the warmest day of the year, walking on the asphalt road it must have been 35 degrees Celsius. After the ten minute walk we waited 25 minutes while the Goshies took their jolly old time. By the time we were permitted inside, everyone thought they were going to collapse of heat exhaustion. We were allowed to spend as much of our own money as we wanted but only 5 dollars of our luck. After we purchased our items we returned to camp. Going to the General Store is for some reason a big deal, but if you think about it, it's just like going to your local drug store.

A few evenings later Sleeping Beauty expresses her talents once again. This time with a much larger audience. During an intellectually stimulating conversation between a few young women and some of their elders. She spoke again. Breaking their thoughts she cried out passionately in the night. "Don't tell him. Don't tell him. I have to tell him, I have to tell him! The group of dignified and refined individuals couldn't help but burst out into giggles and snorts at the words of their friend sleeping beauty. At this time she awoke to find many familiar faces staring at her. When told of what she had said she did not recall and a wave of embarrassment washed over her.

Later that evening, this time with only one witness she rolled out of bed with her close companion, the popple and sat on the edge of the bed and began to converse with Michelle. Knowing sleeping beauty's habits, Michelle was not sure if sleeping beauty was awake or not but by the way she spoke and acted it seemed that she was asleep. Sleeping Beauty cried out "I'm so embarrassed, who was here?" Michelle began to list the witnesses of the rights escapade. As she spoke, Sleeping Beauty turned over and fell back into a deeper sleep. We had all come to the conclusion that our Sleeping Beauty needs help to cure her problem. In the real story Sleeping Beauty's problems are kissed away. We call upon cabins 13, 14, and 31 to help cure our damsel in distress. GET YOUR BUTS OVER HERE NOW!!

Dear Camp Machar,

It is so hard to write a good-bye letter when there is so much time left in camp. The 11on deadline is pressing so I will take this opportunity to write a letter to you all. I wish I could single out each camper and leave a message to you all but I think they would all be very similar. I would say that you have all made my summer more enjoyable than I could have ever asked for. My only hope is that I have made a positive contribution to your summer (in other words helped you to have fun as well). When I first came to the section I had fears, doubts, and anticipations. All those fears have been conquered, my doubts overcome, and my anticipations have been surpassed. I thought that in a group this large that not all of you would be able to get the full experience and feeling of Machar. Well I no longer feel

The Kadimah Legal System

One dreary Monday afternoon (which just happened to be the fifth day of camp) three fine young gentlemen decided it was the perfect time to visit the ever friendly staff at Mader's. As they briskly marched up the hill, they took in some of the lush Barss Corner scenery, waved at the locals, and smiled at the cows. The sight of the Esso sign on the horizon lifted our spirits. As we entered the freshly swept conveniently located shop, the variety of items overwhelmed us. Our shopping was completed and after a quik chat concerning the weather we were on our way. The walk home was most enjoyable and refreshing. Upon approaching the golden trail into camp, the three were very quiet and careful. As they entered the camp, they stashed their goods in the enchanted forest behind the auxillary. Later that day the food was retrieved and the once three fine young gentlemen transformed into cocky little troublemakers. They decided to rub it into their counsellor's face and leave their receipts on his bed. The counsellor couldn't prove anything and they lived happily ever after. Ahh, the Kadimah legal system.

The Story of the Sleeping Beauty

Once upon a time in a beautiful far away place with blue skies and a bright sun there lived a group of girls, dignified and mature group of girls at that. Their residence was a well kept 5 star hotel along a clear blue lake clearer than any other in the land.

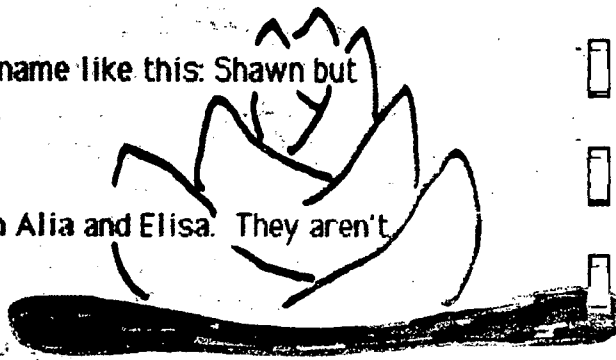

Of all the 25 young women, there was one that stood out in a crowd. More soft-spoken and refined than the others with a laugh so unique that it made the others shed tears. Never one to complain, keeping her views and opinions to herself. She became known for her optimism. The one flaw this figure of perfection possessed was an unfortunate problem of absurd sleeping habits. Late at night in the depths of darkness in the midst of deep slumber our fair lady breaks the silence of the night. It all began late one evening when she arose from her bed asleep and exclaimed urgently, "Shelby Shelby." "Shelby is asleep," responded another girl in the hotel. The fair lady replied intelligently, "then you mean I am talking to no one? oh O.K. Thank You Grace. Goodnight Grace." She then rolled over and fell silent once more. Puzzled the girl she had spoken to speculates who Grace may be as her name is Michelle. Upon being confronted the next morning she has knowledge of the last night's events or anyone named Grace. It was after this that all her friends in the hotel began to wonder if this was a common occurrence. From this moment on our character became sleeping beauty.

Sean

I like Sean he is a nice man. You could spell his name like this: Shawn but Sean spells it like this: Sean. He is a big person.

Flowers

I like to eat the flowers in the lagoon along with Alia and Elisa. They aren't that tasty but it's fun to eat.

Rocks

I know people who talk to rocks. I find them very attractive. I like big rocks. There are different shapes of rocks. There's so different and weird. They remind me I'm tall.

The Bridge

It is a nice place to be not on the chadar side not on the machar side but right in the middle.
I like to spit off the bridge and watch fishies eat it.
Sometimes when I'm mad
I throw rocks at the fish.
The Bridge, such a happy place.

Basketball

It's a very hot sport.
The players sweat alot.
I can play basketball play with a ball.
I like to stand in one spot while everyone is running around.
Sore people sit on the bench and dribble a ball because they know there not good enough.

Boating

Were waiting to use the boats.
Boating is fun when we can use the boats.
The men fixing the docks are sitting on them.
Paddle boats are my favorite.
The water is wet.
That's why we sit in a boat.

Musquitos

They bite and make you itch.
It's not a pleasant thought.

Alla and Elisa

They are both in the paddle boat.
They look like little gibbies wearing extra large life jackets.
They are eager to catch all the boats.
It looks like fun.

Water

Water is wet.
Sometimes it's slimy
my flip flop flochs in it.
Water comes from the sky and warm water comes from the gibbies in the pool.

The Spaggetti

This epic tale is that of a heroic strand of spaggetti. Every word of this article is true, to the exact words of the spaggetti himself.

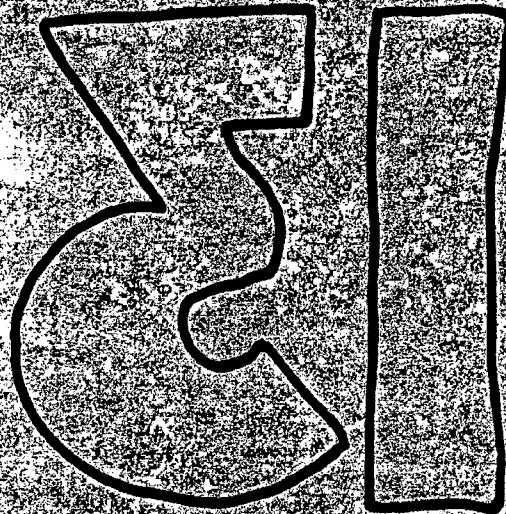

The story began one year ago, on July 1st, 1991. Ever since the Romans began making spegetti a stickier, sogier, smelier batch of spaggetti was never even thought of, than the batch made at Camp Kadimah that dreadful day. After being boiled and rined, the batch was set out for later use. Well waiting to be devoured by spoiled campers, a chemical reaction ocured. Oxygen reacted with the spaggetti to make a result that is very similar to permaseal grout. After the tables were set out, and the bowls of spaggetti were placed on their designated tables, a certain toranut person decided to test the spaggetti. He picked up a piece and threw it at the rafter where it stuck. To this day the spaggetti sits perched on its throne overlooking the cheddar. Cool, eh?

It all started one Saturday night in cabin 13. One very smart Gabe Kuriloff was pacing around the toom in deep thought. As a joke the very tall Barak Queija started to follow him around the room. Barak soon stopped but Gabe continued.

The boy from Kentville joined in and suggested a pace-a-thon. The basketball star wannabe Miles Rubin suggested that we play some music and walk until the CD is over. (lucky for us the CD was one hour and fifteen minutes long. As we started, none of us thought we could finish it but all of us thought it was stupid. About every half hour a counsellor would walk in (bare in mind that this is at 11:30 PM) and question our actions. For a full hour and fifteen minutes, everyone walked around in a circle. Robert Levine was forced to stop due to a basketball injury. Every Saturday night to celebrate the closing of Shabbat we perform this ritual.

Far from home

At home, in England, camps like the one you guys go to are quite unheard of. People stay home in the summer or go on family holidays. So camp is something completely different to me.

Last year when I came to Camp Kadimah on 1991 visitors day, the thing that attracted me to Camp Kadimah was the happiness and smiles. Also every one was so friendly. This summer I've found out my first impressions were right! Yes, sure there are minor cliques, but less than in any other camp.

The programs this summer have been good. And I've learned a lot about my roots and heritage that I could learn about in any other situation at home. Thanks to Machar I've learned about unity, love, friendship with everyone there. All in all this summer has been an incredible experience for an English girl, and even better a great summer for me! Thanks to Kadimah, but most of all thanks to every single person in my section for making this an amazing summer.

By Stephanie Warner

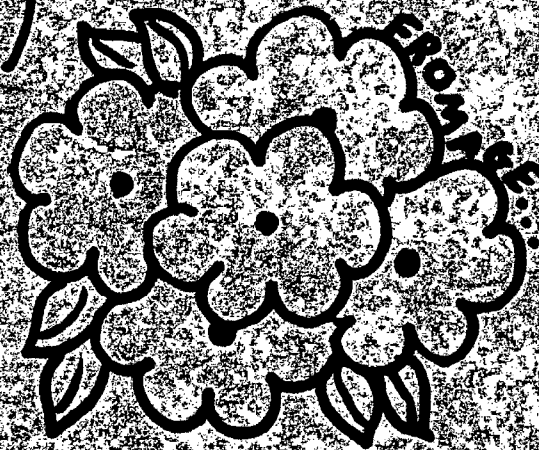

As I sit here on my bed writing this I wonder what the remaining days of camp will bring. And I know that when I read this in the Iton, I will be remembering instead of wondering. It seems amazing that 18 days of camp have already slipped away and the remaining 25 will go so fast.

I came to camp knowing that Machar was something quite special but not quite so sure why and how. In the recent weeks I've learned incredible spirit, an amazing sense of togetherness and friends that will last a lifetime. We have incredible potential and I'm already sure this is one of, if not, the best summer I've had at Kadimah.

Love Always,

Rebecca Wolpin

Bunny Snatchers (Dedicated to Alia)

Oh, once there was a bunny who was very sound asleep. When the bunny snatchers took Alia's bra and wrapped it around the bunny. (we won't mention any names) Then Alia got B.O. because she put on too much perfume and then her pillow smelled. Sean did not like that smell, so he dumped Alia's baby powder on her, but that didn't work.

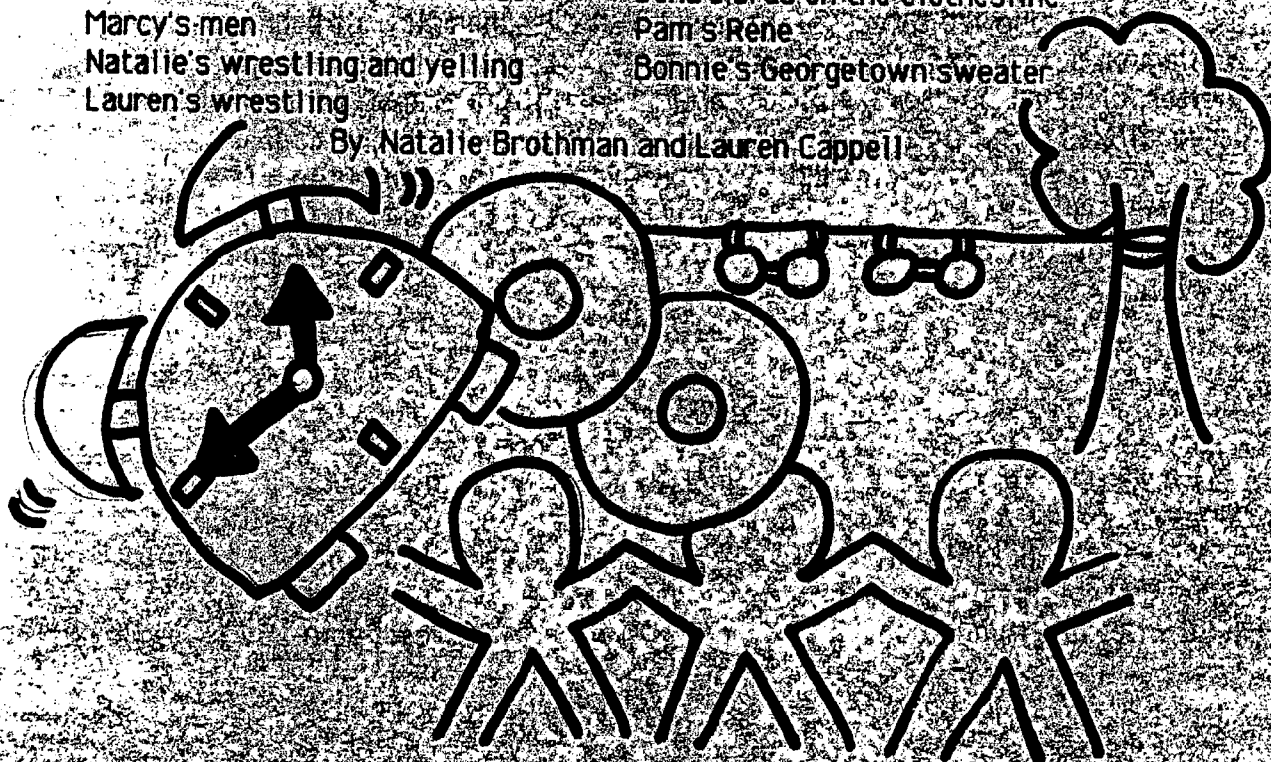

Then Alia got Alzheimer's disease and took her soap which she used and put it back in the wrong place. She also moved her sassaby to a different area and put her cosmetics where her sassaby was. No one else could believe that she put all her dirty clothes in the clean pillow. When the bunny snatchers felt bad because she was making a total fool of herself, and messing up our always spotless cabin (16), she told us we were too nice and always ready to clean up our cabin (16) and she didn't like that at all! There's so much to say, but Alia is always messing everything up so gotta go save her and help her also get back to her usual self (a gross disgusting pig with ears).

Luv always your bunny snatcher friends,
Rachel Aronson and Heidi Wengle

Dear Cabin 16,

On July 1st we all came up to camp expecting a great summer. Though the beginning wasn't great the end sure was. I'll miss all of you! Unfortunately I won't be seeing you next summer so keep in touch. I can't believe the summer is over it seems as though it just began. I love you and will miss you!

Love Gayle Fried

Dear Cabin 13 and Cabin 15,

Simone and Butthead would like to thank you for keeping us warm at night and sheltering us on gloomy rainy days. Special thanks also go out to the following insects who tiptoe through our cabins at night and have a little munch in our food: Mama, Papa, and baby ant. Last but not least we would like to thank the kitchen staff for preparing us three great meals each day for almost 42 days.

Love Always,

Simone V. and Butthead B.

P.S. We missed a couple of Saturday morning breakfasts.

I'm not as thick as you stoned I am. (pause) They proceeded across the bridge naked, admiring the picturesque scenery. While some ran in the rain others waddled and still others crawled. Some were in a hurry to get there, the adrenaline flowed through their system like leeches flow through Lake William on a rainy day. Throughout the camp H2O phobics were seeking shelter, clostraphobics were in search of the great wide open and multiple personalities were in search of someone to talk to. But where was G=d?

As we walk across the bridge, some expressed their anger to a few select raindrops, others held their anguish inside of them causing them to shake rapidly but as we all can imagine, no one snowflake is responsible for an avalanche.

Chorus

Dear Camp Machar,

I am very pleased to be writing this report. Actually, I am just relieved not to have missed the deadline. I would be most displeased if that occurred.

At this moment I am lying on the picnic table in the middle of our fine section. As usual I am in a joyous state, passing a kind word to all those who wander by. Its times like these which really bring us together as a section.

I assume that it is a requirement of these reports that I review and pass judgement on the current summer. As a whole, I believe that the summer went very well. You all had a phenomenal time, or at least you refrained from informing me otherwise. What a comforting feeling.

I had a superb summer. I accomplished both my goals. First, the programming this summer was excellent. For that you can thank Michael and the rest of your staff. They were constantly creative and innovative, which resulted in the creation of a number of classic programs (e.g. Elvis Night). You can also take a share of the credit, for this year camper participation in the programs was exemplary. My second goal, that you all had fun, was also accomplished. Your staff worked hard to cultivate the machar attitude, and ensure that you were all enjoying yourselves outside of the camp structure. While there is always room for improvement, I believe that we were able to provide you all with a banner summer.

I am very pleased that the second year macharnics matured over the year. Your leadership this year was a main cause of our success. I don't know if you will be here or at Billuim next year, but I look forward to eventually seeing all of you as staff members.

Regarding the first year Macharnics, I am astounded at how much you have matured over this summer. You were basically imature at the start, but were able to integrate into the section by the second week of camp. A number of you have become prominent leaders in the section, and I am expecting great feats from you next summer.

I have said all I am capable of saying about the summer. As for next summer, I am looking forward to possibly grabbing the reigns. I hope you all will come along for the ride, for it will likely surprise those of you who are somewhat nostalgic.

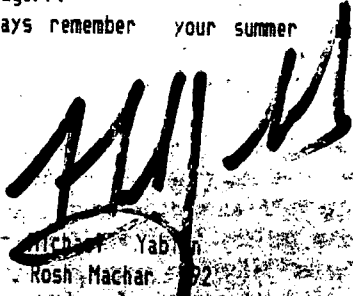

Be part of the solution, not part of the problem. Uuuuuuugh! It isn't a you thing, its a we/us/them thing. What are you doing? Do you understand why? That's just not correct/appropriate. Think I'll be back.

Robopricks/Uncle Jungle Gym

Sean J. Earnard

matured more than I could have possible imagined. What seemed like one of the youngest Machars of all time developed into one of the most successful. Your cooperation has been like that which I haven't witnessed ever before. Some problems arose this summer, but they do every summer, and we tackled them head on and persevered. The strength of any summer can only be measured by the feelings of the campers upon their departure. Although I am again using foresight, I am completely confident that you will all leave Kadimah this summer with wonderful memories of a tremendous experience. Always treasure these memories--they are like none you will ever feel again (alright, a little more Fromager).

Good luck during the upcoming year, and always remember your summer Machar. I know I will.

Richard Yabin
Rosh Machar 92

immediately, you have a phone call (the bold, italicized immediately has to be said in a high-pitched tone, only the way Miriam Zitner or Andy Levine can do it). Needless to say, Bob wimped out!!! That last sentence is a challenge to Robert. Bob's still in the office (Not while you are reading this obviously, but now, being August 1st, typing time).

I can't have a section report without thanking the people who helped me make this summer a success (I hope it becomes a success....more foresight).

Jacob, it took a few weeks, but you finally found the groove that I knew I'd get from you. The superman shirt, the infamous mikad mayim, catfish in sinks--these are the things we will all remember.

Heather, you were without a doubt the greatest Elvis fan ever (Why do I like Elvis so much?) The cabins in Machar have never been cleaner. You were awesome in the cabin, and always willing to help out in any way.

Supervision was awesome. Thanks Robin (I didn't forget about you Jake). You always had a smile on your face. My job is ten times easier when I'm working with smiling people. My job is 100 times easier when I'm working with a competent person who is always smiling. Robin, you are more than competent and always smiling. What else needs to be said.

When I got a phone call three weeks before the summer began, confirming that Jack Gurevitch would be my final male Madrich, I didn't know what to expect. I should have expected a lot because that's exactly what I got. Jack, I can honestly say that I was a little concerned about how you would work out, but by the end of day 2, those worries were quickly quelled. You have been a tremendous asset, one that has not gone unnoticed.

As for the latecomer, Alia: you came into our section a week late, but you settled in in two hours. Your presence was the final stone which helped stabilize the section. You made my job easier, and I know you were much happier after the move.

Lesley, it's been two years that I've had the pleasure of working with you, and I can't emphasize enough that it's been a pleasure. I am the first to admit that we don't see eye to eye all the time, but I just want you to know that I appreciate your input a great deal. Your alternative outlook, although often not accepted, always sheds a different light on a problem or issue. It also helps keep me in line.

And finally, to the S'gan Rosh, Sean. You are one of the most competent people I have ever had the privilege of working with at this camp. Your head is usually in the right place, and without you, the summer most certainly wouldn't have run as smoothly as it did. Machar '92 would not have even come close to matching the success we witnessed had you not been there with me. Enough sunshine up your.....

Other people who I must thank in this article:

It wouldn't be complete without mentioning you Jason. Hannie: you are a dear, dear friend, and your support whether or not I am in the right or the wrong, is a tremendous comfort to me. This job is the most stressful that I have undertaken. You are one of the few people who ease the tension.

Rob Astroff, I never had the opportunity to get to know you as well as I have this summer. Again, you have been a friend through thick and thin. For some strange reason, you and I seem to see eye to eye on nearly every issue with which we are faced.

To Bill Chernin, I must say this: your job description was a little foggy coming into the summer. But you quickly lifted the fog, and I feel that you did an outstanding job administering the camp, and helping me deal with my sectional problems. You are a great friend, and will always be very dear to me.

Sobes, you have taught me more about being a good counselor than anyone else in this camp. What I have learned from you has only helped to make me a better staff member and section head. Camp Kadimah has allowed us to develop a friendship which I know will continue outside of Kadimah for years to come.

As far as thank-yous go, the article wouldn't be complete without thanking you, Sheldon. You have certainly supported most of my actions this summer, and have been more than willing to teach and explain and develop my skills as a head staff member. Our working relationship has never been better, and if you are returning next summer, I am sure that we will continue to build on it.

Finally, last but not least, this article couldn't be complete without thanking you guys, the Macharniks. As I indicated in the first journal entry of the summer, I had tremendous concerns about this group of kids. When you guys arrived at camp, and I looked at all of you, it seemed like the most unworkable bunch of kids I had ever seen. I would like to say I was scared. But as I also indicated in my initial entry, there was tremendous room for improvement. You people have

An Article About Machar

I'm trying to write an article and there are three funny people standing around me and talking. Consequently, I am unable to focus my attention on the task at hand.

Perhaps the problem, however, is not the three funny people, but rather my overwhelming chore-- trying to sum-up six, jam-packed weeks of camp into two pages of a yearbook. Furthermore, the last week and a half hasn't happened yet so this column will undoubtedly require a great deal of imagination and foresight.

Nevertheless....the funny people have all left (for the record they were Lesley Stevens, Bena Medjuck, and Marc Attis; all are avid Iton typists) and now I have no excuse to do anything but type.....Oh, did I mention it's well past curfew and Hockey Marathon and Machar Day and Machar Day Off are all coming up and this late-night article writing session is the reason why I am so tired and have been in a grumpy mood for the past few days. The past few days I just referred to haven't happened yet because it is only August 1st, but when you read this they will have happened (I just used foresight). That last shpiel barely makes sense to me, but alas, the hour is late and I don't care. Anyhow I have digressed, so allow me to get back on track.

.....I just took a twenty minute break with Bob Astroff, Sean Earhard and Druckman to watch our "Elvis Lives" video. I am now in a good mood. That video always amuses me--at 1:30 in the a.m. especially. What's so good about that video is that it clearly illustrates the zany kind things which we were able to do with the section all summer long. Elvis night was great. The maxim step during MiKad was a tough act to follow. Teckie talent night was also terrific (nice shorts Jake). "That's right we're in Machar and you're not....." What else needs to be said! The massive food-fight in the chadar last week epitomized our spirit, and the shaving cream raid on Sheldon's cabin epitomized our courage (alright, so there was no food-fight or an assault on Sheldon's cabin....I hope to G-d there wasn't.....just another attempt at foresight).

You're probably thinking to yourselves, "What about that sappy stuff Mike always tries to sell to us?" Well, I'm making a concerted effort to stay far away from that. As you know, for me that is next to impossible so the next few paragraphs are designated as the sappy section of this article.

.....Fromager.....Fromager.....Fromager.....

Machar means something different to everyone. Some people consider it the eldest of Kadimah's four sections. Others look at Machar as six weeks of spending time with friends having fun, playing sports, etc. Still others consider Machar a unique place where we can grow as people and learn about each other as well as ourselves. My interpretation most closely resembles the third example. To me, Machar is viewed as an experience like no other offered anywhere else I have ever been. It's an opportunity to explore, educate and enrich the lives of over seventy-five fourteen and fifteen year old kids.

Exploring ourselves is one of the most difficult journeys on which we will ever embark. Coming to the realization that we are not alone, that our feelings are shared by many others is not only comforting, but most certainly reassuring. Machar provides such a medium for discovery.

Education is not always found in the classroom. Our six weeks here in Kadimah teach us not only how to canoe or play baseball, but moreover, how to work with other people, how to be sensitive to the concerns of others, and how to be confident in ourselves. Learning to hold ourselves in high esteem is a course not offered in most schools.

Finally, a setting which provides the opportunity to freely discover and learn about one's self and her/his (politically correct) peer group can do nothing but enrich the lives of those who partake.

Machar has taught me so much in the six years which I have been here that I can't begin to tell you. I have learned to work with people, deal with suddenly emerging issues, and share my feelings when I just can't hold them in any longer. If each of you can take home at least one thing which you feel you have acquired in this section, than my job has been successful. I have been fortunate enough to have taken home countless little things.

Enough....Fromager.....Fromager.....Fromager.....

It's ten to two, and Bob Astroff just walked into the office to chat. The funny part of this is that he bet him five bucks to turn on the P.A. and announce "Hakshivu, Hakshivu, attention in the camp, would Anson Minor please come to the office, would Anson Minor please come to the office

From the Cabin 7 Girls

Dear Happy and Alana

Since you are presently making us write Iton articles, we decided to write a letter to you guys because the two of you have made our summer and we want to take this moment to thank you and tell you how much we love you.

All of us except Aviva came to Kadimah for our first time, you guys showed us how awesome Camp is. We also want to thank you guys for always being there for us when we were upset with a proble, or when we were sick you always helped us by spending time with us and cheering us up.

Things we thought would be boring always turned out great with the two of you, like our picnic on the Auxillary, Friday night dancing and socials. You guys always encouraged us whether for swim instructin or water skiing and sailing (and we can't forget cabin clean-up).

Anyways, we're gong to sign off now so thank you for everything you've given us this summer and all we've learned about having fun and getting along with our peers.

We love you guys. You're for sure the coolest. Have a great year and we'll keep in touch.

Love you and we'll miss you through the year,
Love always

Holocaust Day

This summer, people who went on The March of the Living talked to us about the Holocaust. These people went to some of the concentration camps in Poland. In one of the camps, "Majdanek", there is a huge dome filled with human ashes of the people who were killed there.

The people from The March of the Living shared with us their thoughts and feelings from when they walked through the camps.

Later that day a man who survived the Holocaust, Phillip Riteman, came to speak about how he felt in the camps he was held in. It was very sad and difficult to listen to, but it was also interesting to learn about our history.

Holocaust Day

Hello, my name is Yossi. Like many people I was in the Holocaust. But like few, I survived. I was only a mere thirteen years old. Too young to die, but old enough to remember. My parents were killed before my very eyes. I'm very glad that I'm now free, but those horrible memories I'll never forget.

On Holocaust Day we heard many stories, some of them not unlike Yossi's. We were very privileged to have survivors to talk to us, and March of the Living participants to remind us of what happened. At the end of the day a siren went off... In it you could hear six million voices, the six million voices that are now gone.

Today has been great so far. Its a Saturday and its raining therefore there are no house leagues. After breakfast we cleaned our cabin. Then we had an aerobics class with Mary. After lunch we went back to the cabin and listened to music. Happy and I did more aerobics. Hung out around the section for a bit lidget then had snack and now were all in the moadon watching the 1988 camp video. Anyways I love camp and I can't wait to come back next summer for Machar '93.

P.S Just another note to cabin 7(heaven) Thanks for making my summer so wonderful. You guts are all the best by far. Love you all so much. Becca (Travel shopper)

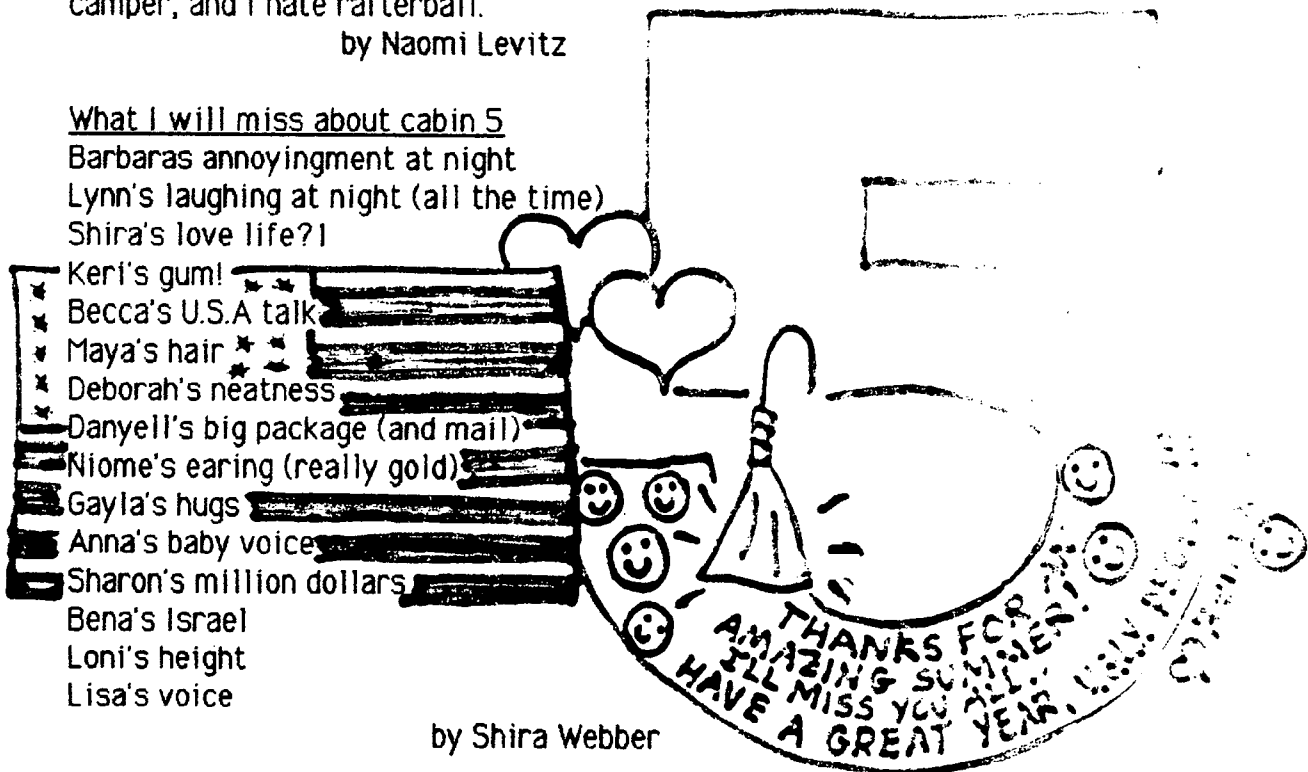

The day Bena learned how to play rafterball

We were sitting around the cabin on a rainy Saturday when out of the blue Bena said "Say will someone teach me how to play rafterball?" and not knowing this I said that I would. A half hour later the score was 93-50 and I was on the losing end. The final score was 100-53. It was not a pretty picture. Well Bena's a happy camper, and I hate rafterball.

Cabin 5 in their own special way

Starting off with Becca three stitches in her knee bumped into a nail and did not do it purposely.

Next is Shira and Keri clutzs of the cabin bumps into everything an accident waiting to happen.

Here comes Barb loud and annoying but when you get to know her she's really outgoing.

Lynn is on her way to being very tall but when she looks up at Loni she feels very small.

Amy, Danielle, Naomi, and Gaela are the new kids in 5 they really must like it because they are still alive.

Debrah's shelves are always very neat when it comes to cleaning them she is very discreet.

Maya's from Texas she came a long way to join in the fun and to stay and play.

Anna and her stuffed animals are here to stay she plays with them every single day.

Rafterball

August 1st, Naomi Levitz and Bena Medjuck played rafterball. Naomi taught Bena how to play rafterball, Then they had their first game. First they were going to play until twenty, then until fifty, then until sixty, then until a hundred. When they say "Beginner's Luck", they mean beginner's luck! Bena was playing and the score was ninety-nine to fifty-two and she was just about to shoot and they called first Peulah! So they stoopped. I decided to finish the game for Bena and it barely made it. But the score was finally 100 to 52!!

Female Houseleagues

For the year '92, there are four female houseleague teams.
The White Jocks: Coach - Stacey Offman
The Purple S-F ers: Coach - Aviva Rubin and Alia Rubin
The Lady Jays: Coach - Rebecca Perlin
The Red Fakes: Coach - Loni Sherkin

These four awesome teams just started playing. To me, it doesn't really matter who wins it because what matters is just that everyone has a good time.

The Day We Did Aaron Kuriloff's Hair

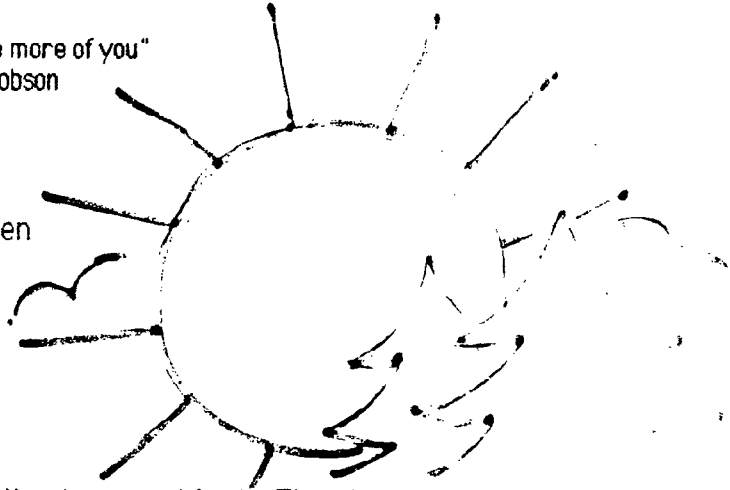

One day when Aaron Kuriloff came to our cabin, we did his hair. First we used a hair dryer and it got curly, we put curling gel in it and hairsprayed it and it was BIG! Then, Lisa teased his hair and clipped it up. He looks like a girl. (No offence Aaron) So he washed it out and left.

Camp Kadimah Reinacts The Gulf War by Hannah Sasseman

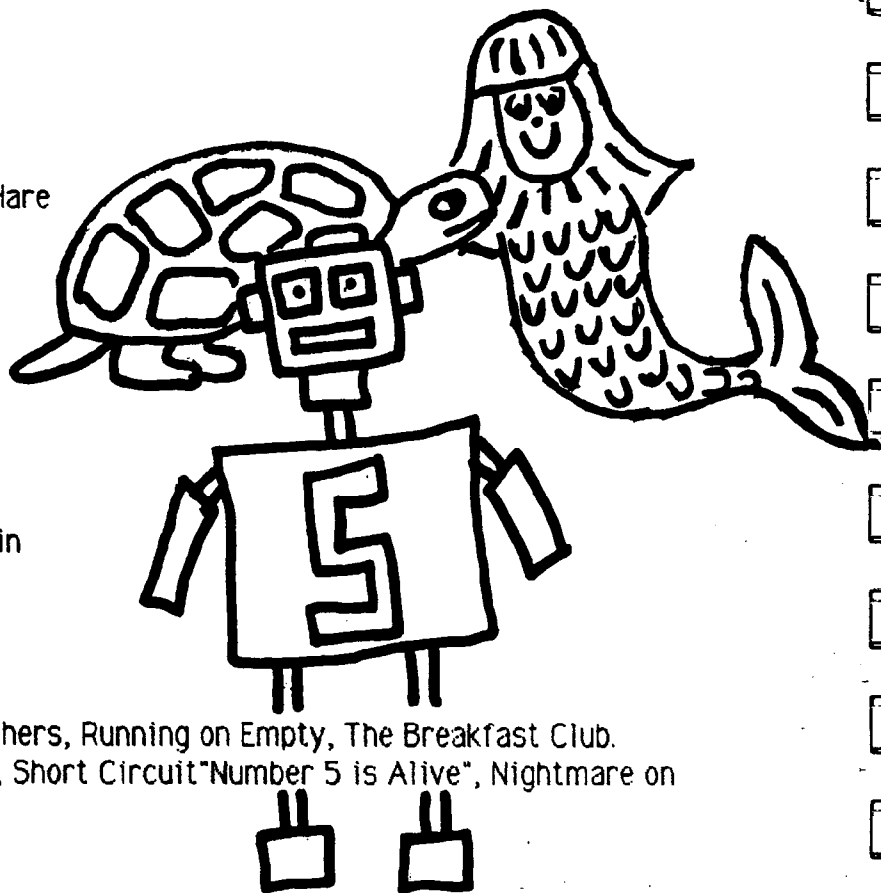

Barss Corner - On the night of July 3rd, 1992 the entirety of Camp Kadimah was preparing for Evening Program. During dinner the camp had been divided into teams of the colors red, white, and blue. When the campers arrived at the gym (ULAM) that evening, the rules for a complicated game of capture the flag were explained: the purpose of the red team and blue team was to try to steal each other's flag and bring it to the pavillion. Also, each team had a bucket of water which they were trying to empty by the cupful into the other teams bucket. If their flag was pulled, they couldn't escape unless a member of the white team got them out. Also, the white team tried to keep the other teams from filling the buckets.

Eventually the counsellors called everyone to stop and sit down. They then explained that this had been a re-inactment of the Gulf War: The red team served as Iraq, the blue served as the U.S. and the white served as the United Nations, acting as peacemaker. The campers found this a moving experience: Jill whose in Kochot said, "I liked it. I thought it was educational because we learned about a bad experience in a fun way." Rebecca also in Kochot said, "I thought it was a good way to explain what was happening during the Gulf War. And we also had fun. At least, it has a ton of it."

Any war, no matter how short, is hard to understand and even harder to explain! This game is a fun and educational way to at least begin to understand this war.

About Cabin 7

JULY 1ST ...
CAMP
STARTS!!!!

I flew to camp on the first day of July.
I was so nervous I was about to die.
When I arrived everyone was so nice.
Nobody checked our heads for lice.
I got to the cabin and whom did I see?
The worlds greatest counsellors: Alana and Happy.
I got to my bed and started to unpack,
As I met my new friends, friendship we now do not lack.
Aviva was the only girl that was not new,
She showed us where to go and what to do.
Becca is a friend I've known for a long time.
When camp is over I won't have to write her a line.
Becky is my way of not getting to sleep,
But when the counsellors come in we do not make a peep.
Jill came from Gosh a day later than us,
But when she arrived we did not make a fuss.
Hannah is my last bunk-mate that I have to mention,
She's the one wearing bright clothes who's always paying attention.
This summers been great, I'm so glad I came.
When I get home this camp will get lots of fame.

By Rachel Gold (Kochot 1992)

Dear Diary,

Sorry I haven't written in a long time, but I've been really busy at Camp Kadimah. I've been doing alot of neat stuff like sport's, mel yad, swim instruction, yitzera, boating, shirkud, tzofiut, evening programs and my favorite one of all showers. Actually, you can cever really have a favorite or worst activity because they're all pretty fun. But not only are the activities fun, but the counsellors and C.I.T.s are the greatest. They're always there when you ned them and they love to have fun. Every Friday night the whole camp sits on the steps of the chadar and Mike Yablon leads a little service. Then we have a nice Shabbat dinner and Saturday morning we have another little service. Every Saturday afternoon, they surprise us with a theme for the social on Saturday night. They have really good music and all the campers have a really good time. I think Kochot gets dressed up the best. Oh! I forgot to tell you that there are four sections plus C.I.T.s. The youngest section is Giborim, then Goshrim, Kochot, Machar and then the C.I.T.s. Wish I could write more. Camp sure is making me busy.

Yours Truly,

Jillian Zuckerman

The Rain Poem

It rains too much in camp.
The weather is supposed to be hot, not damp.
With the rain comes the boots and dirt
And that makes us counsellors very hurt.
You see dirty cabins don't make us glad
In fact that makes us very very sad.
During these many days that rain and pour
Our porch looks like a flea market shoe store.
Being on waterfront when it down pours is quite a pain.
Seeing one must not go into the water when it rains.
Jumping in the mud puddles is fun.
Right after you do that, out comes the sun!

Life in the Infirmary

The infirmary to most people is a place to go when you want a swim excuse or a cough drop. But for me it is my second home. Every morning and evening I go there for two pills, a mask and nosespray. In the infirmary you also meet different people. I am always late for evening program because of it. I love the infirmary!!!

Love, Barbara (Rider) Jones

P.S. To Allison and the doctor, thank you.

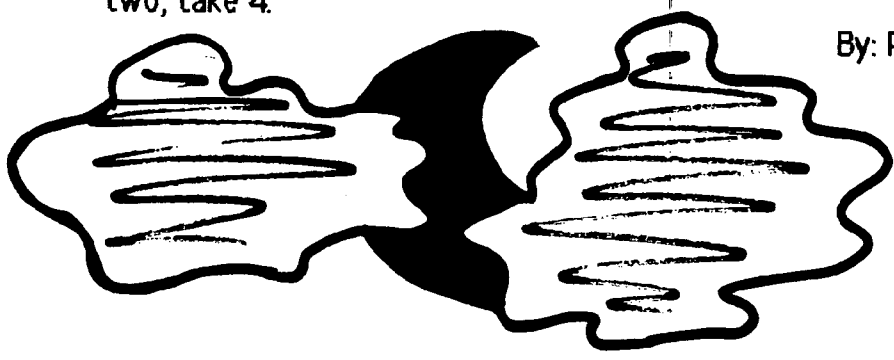

Dear Iton,

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to go to a movie and to get ice cream with camp? Well on Sunday July 12th, Kochot section did that. We got to pick between the movies Encino Man or Batman and then after that, we went to get ice cream. It was fun! Thanks!

By: Danielle Spinner

It was a cold and gloomy night at Camp Kadimah. It was 10:00 at night and the whole section of Kochot was cabin hopping except for one little girl named Lynn Bessoudo. Shira, Keri, Rebecca, and Deborah tried to convince her to come but she refused. When they were walking back to the cabin they saw a mean looking tekkie walking out with a hand gun. They ran into the cabin and found Lynn lying on the floor dead with a bloody bullet wound in her chest. "Cut, cut, hold it. It is supposed to be the tekkie who walked out with a knife and they found her with five stab wounds. Scene two, take 4.

Kochot Song

Tune: Black or White

We came to Kadimah to play in the sun
They said get ready for some serious fun
They told us about the summer
And how we're gonna kick some butt...
(clap clap clap)
So step back you Macharnicks and make way for '92 Kochot

Our main stud Jason is the head of the crew
With all his staff you know we're sure to rock you
The girls are foxy
And the guys - we need some more of you
(clap clap clap)
So step back all Kadimah and make way for Kochot '92.

Swimming boating bama
We ain't scared of Shmira
We're the coolest section
In all of Kadimah

Hey Kadimah
Listen up, pay attention
We didn't think that we had to mention
Our ruach, our spirit
Listen up and hear it
We're not gonna spend our lives being a camper
(unnnnnh)
So step back all Kadimah and make way for Kochot '92
EAT THIS!!!!!!!!!!!!

Club Kochot we got spirit

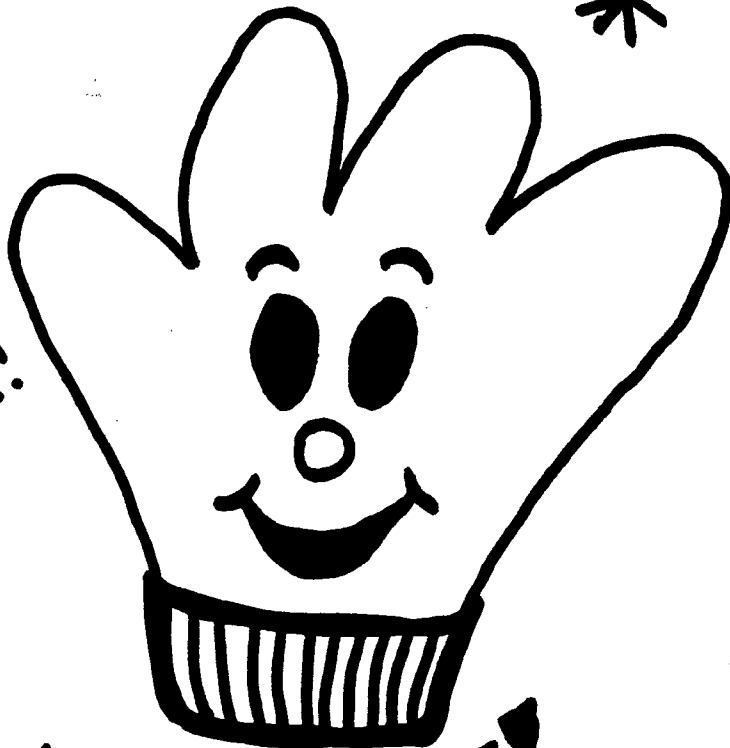

Speaking as the section head of Kochot '92, I think I can say aside from all the rainy days, we have had as a section a great summer. It has been a hard summer as far as programming, but this years staff has been a great help. Without this years Kochot staff this summer would not have been possible. We have had programs ranging from Culteral and Religous aspects to some very rowdy events such as the OOEEY GOOEY night and Bunk Feud. Not only did this years Hityshvut run differently than in the past, due to lack of space of Kegi, so did this years Maccabbia with the new Green team '92 placing second this year. Now onto Club Kochot. I'd like to thank this year's Kochot campers for creating our club mascot Studburger Man. Everyone had great ideas and the creativity shoed that everyone cared and had lots of spirit for our section.

Well, as the summer wraps up, I say good-bye again to all of you and wish you a great year ahead.

Love,
Jason

At Last, in Goshrim

This is my third year at Camp Kadimah. I'm ten years old, I'm finally in Gosh and I'm in cabin 28. My counsellors are really nice to me and everybody in our cabin is friends. I'm on a bottom bunk under Sarah Fahie. Robyn Fallon is leaving for a cruise on the 14th of July and we're going to miss her. There's 11 kids in my cabin. I love it and I'm coming back to camp.

About Cabin 28

My favorite activity is swimming. I love swimming especially in the water at camp. I love the swimming instructors. My swimming instructor's name is Rebecca. I am in Life Saving 3. The kids are really nice. I also like my cabin. I will name all the people in my cabin. They are Darah, Susan, Jessica, Robbyn, Sarah K., Sarah F., Sharon, Tammy, Leah and Rachel. They are very nice people. My counsellors are Miriam, Amy and Jodi. They are very helpful to me. This has been a great 3 weeks. So far I love it here.

By: Sarah Chase Goldberg

Camp is really fun and I thought I would write a silly poem about it:

Camp is very nice.

You don't catch lice.

We don't eat lots of rice.

In the kitchen there are no mice.

They don't have that many dice.

But there's lots of ice.

That's why camp's so nice.

I'm in cabin 28. I'm glad I'm not in cabin 34 because it's too homey. In my cabin are Robyn, Rachel, Sarah K., Susan, Leah, Jessica, Tammy, Sarah F., Sharon, Sarah G. and Darah Gaurn. My counsellors are Jodi Garalnick, Amy Stein and Miriam Zitner. Our cabin is nice. It's right on the water and there is a good amount of kids in the cabin. My favorite food at camp is the ice cream. That's all, Bye-Bye.

By: Jessica Rappaport

Dear Cabin 28,

Here's something from the bottom of my heart. Here's about you.

What would we do?

What would we do without Sarah Goldberg's penny candies?

What would we do without Darah Gaurn's interfering in leatherball games?

What would we do without Sarah Fahle's giving out things that she doesn't like.

What would we do without Sharon Alexander's laughing when not something is not funny?

What would we do without Leah Cohen?

What would we do without Jessica Rappaport's going to sleep so early?

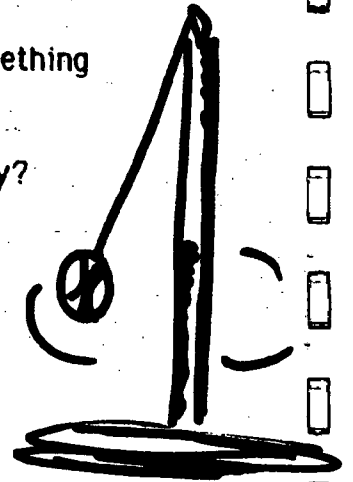

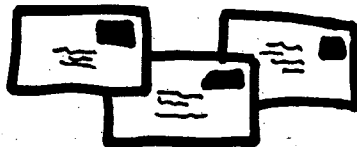

What would we do without Susan Greenberg's Archie comics?

What would we do without Sarah Klein's horse drawings?

What would we do without Robbyn Fallon's telling us to be quiet?

What would we do without Rachel Schlew's getting so many letters?

By: Tammy Fried

If your mother was 23 when you were born and she had a kid every 3 years after that for 13 years, how old is your mother after the 13 years?

If your mother was born November 3, 1945 and she had you July 16, 1992, how old will she be in 11 years?

A POEM FROM YOUR AWESOME COUNSELLOR

One day of summer, I was placed in 34
New clean and on the lake I couldn't ask for more

The day that all the kids arrived I moved to 28
I was happy in my cottage and I had to hesitate.

The girls of 28 moved in, 11 of them at my feet
"What a joke" I thought and laughed this should be real neat.

The cabin's bold and rickety, many names are on the wall
Our girls are loud and spunky, they've got charm good looks and gail.

Took a few days for us all to settle in
But I could tell that before too long we'd all feel like kin

Some of us like comics, some of us like boys
We are usually late for peulot and we make lots of noise.

12 minutes to put on clothes, 8 to tie our shoes
5 to get a hat on, in punctuality we lose.

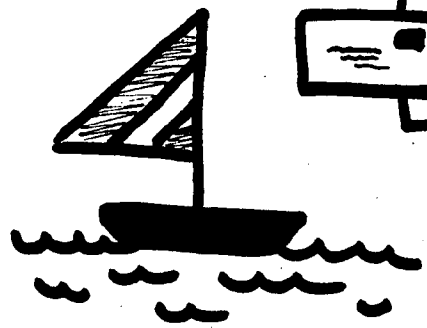

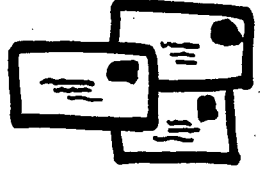

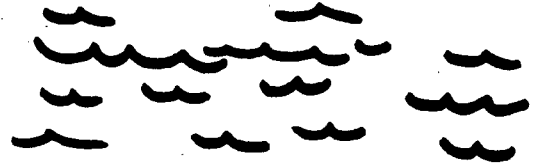

Sharon likes to zerbert, Darah likes to sing and act
Tammy is the cabin mom, and Sarah K. is really wacked.

Jess wasn't sure at first, but now she's here to stay
Leah gives good back rubs and Suze has lots to say.

Sarah G. and Rachel get just so much mail,
Sarah F. loves animals and Robbyn left to sail.

My co-s are Mir and Amy, the fun we have is chilling
(O.K. I'm getting desperate for rhymes.)
With waterfront and office duty, I often feel like killing.

Cabin 28 I love, each one of you I kiss
For summer soon will end, and each of you I'll miss.
Love, Jodi

The Singers

The singers came from Israel and went to defferent places and also came to our camp. They sang Hebrew and a bit of English too. I thought they sang especially well. I mean I could never ever sing that well.

My Birthday and Camp

My birthday has been great. I got a swatch watch and two tapes. One was called "Sun Jammin 2 18 hottest hits" and the other was called "Bryan Adams - Waking Up The Neighbours." My parents called to wish me Happy Birthday and so did my brother Daniel, he called from Biluim.

I love camp. It is so fun. Jessica Burnstein just came to camp today and I was glad to see her.

I love my section head, Heidi Rubin, and all my counsellors.

My first year at Camp Kadimah

My first year at Camp Kadimah is different than other camps I have gone to. I like Kadimah more than the others. Kadimah is AWESOMW!!!!!!!!!! I don't know why others wouldn't want to come. But I'm glad I did. I love Camp Kadimah.

What Cabin 33 Would Be Like Without "Counsellors"

New Cabin

This summer, I live in the new cabin. We also call it the cottage. There are 17 second year Gosh girls in my cabin. It's awesome to have a new cabin because we have lots of shelves and we wrote out names everywhere.

Our Canoe Trip

On our Goshrim canoe trip I was in a canoe with Shoshana Kuriloff, Marc Attis, and Sarah Goldberg. We kept on praying that we wouldn't get stuck but we did - 6 TIMES!!!! Shoshana had to push us out of the sand.

We were riding along when suddenly Mark yelled: "Watch out!". Shoshi and Sarah ducked, so did Mark, but I got hit in the eye and teeth with a pointy branch. I got a lifetime supply of toothpicks! Then Mark got hit with a branch across his cheek. On the way back, all of us started to make jokes about Mark. He started splashing water. Boy! Was it a fun afternoon.

By: Alana Greenberg.

Our Canoe Trip

We went on a canoe trip. It was freezing out!!! I went on the canoe trip with Leyla Attis and Jen Pink. It was fun! There were ten canoes.

C.I.T.'s

Today we had two C.I.T.'s in our cabin. Their names are Alexis and Jody. It's better to have C.I.T.'s and counsellors because you can go more places and do more things.

New Gosh Cabin!!!! (OH MA GAD!!!!!!)

The second year Gosh girls have a better place to sleep, now that cabin 34 is here. It was erected over the winter, and now it holds 21 campers and counsellors. The two bathroom are constantly breaking and being fixed. There are 4 shelves per bed, and fifteen windows in total. There is a front lawn with a picnic table that people dance all over. It is the best Gosh cabin!

Cabin 34 (The Cottage)

Our cabin kicks butt! Even though Sheldon came in one night and yelled at us. We never sleep during the night, and if we were allowed to we would go cabin hopping every night. Our counsellors kick butt, too! Marcie Cohen is on our side, she is very SEXY! Shana Haberman is on the other side, she's very nice. Last but not least, Tanya Gaum. She has very fake black hair!
Love, Karen Mendleson.

Cabin 34's song to cabin 33 -- June: Under the bridge

Sometimes we feel like we don't belong there, sometimes we feel like they don't understand. The cabin we live in is so far away, lonely as we are they're not that far. (clap, clap, clap, clap, clap)

Chorus: Take us to the place we love, cabin 33. Take us to the place we love, take us all the way!

We sit on Zack's bed and play rafter ball. Out goes the light, in comes Lieff. Little girl talking about leaving, we don't want to we're hooked on the guys. (clap, clap, clap, clap, clap)

Chorus

What would cabin 34 be without

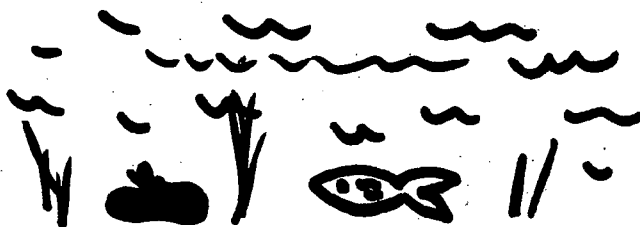

Lauren's Stuffed foot	Miriam's back rubs
Leyla's meningitis bag	Marci's cuteness
Jessica's pillow	Alana's Kool-Aid
Rachel's top bunk	Samantha's matureness
Debra's Jolly Ranchers	Krista's hair
Michelle's pringles	Marissa's laundry detergent
Karen's huge flashlight	Shoshi's cleanliness
Mindy's six stuffed animals	Laura's quietness
Hannah's umbros

What's Wrong With The Lake

Lets start at the bottom. It is full of rocks, mud, sand, fish "Big fish that are ugly", leeches "not a pretty sight" and maybe a shoe or two! Above the water is not too pretty either. A gas leak, and leaves from the trees, sticks, grass and that is about it. The odour is not to tempting at all. It stinks of fish, body odour and oil leak.

I LOVE LAKE WILLIAM, Marci Mandel

My First Year At Camp

Before I ever came to camp, I thought it would be a lot different. I haven't been in Canada for three years. I forgot most of the things. For example, I forgot that there were all of these trees, not as many birds, isn't as sunny or as hot as Dallas, and there are chipmunks. I didn't know there were so many rocks.

A Tribute to Camp Kadimah

Camp Kadimah has every activity I can think of. Camp is where I learned how to Hebrew dance and learned more Hebrew words. Camp is where I learned new songs, to boat, and scouting. Camp Kadimah is where I recieved my endurance, learned to waterski, and Aquaboard. I also learned to play teatherball, and tried to pass my green badge. So you can see I learned lots of new stuff at camp.

My Counsellors

My counsellors are Josh Lieff, Matt Cohen, Marc Attis, Ben Gaum, and Andrew Levine. They are all very nice and help my bunkmates and I a lot. They like to joke around a lot and have a sense of humour. They like to play games with us in sports and they like teatherball. I'm really glad they are my counsellors.

Gosh'im Section Song

Tune: Another Saturday Night

Chorus

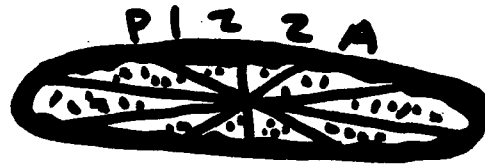

Kadimah, listen to us we've got something to say,
Our rock'in sections gonna blow you away
If you think our hype will last just today,
You're wrong, its gonna stay!

Our guys are really muscular our girls are mighty cute
We're stuck right in the middle
Because we're not so little
In fact we're really quite astute.

Chorus

The woods will be our habitat
We play amongst the trees
Our staff is real creative
And also innovative
Camp pizza has gooey cheese.

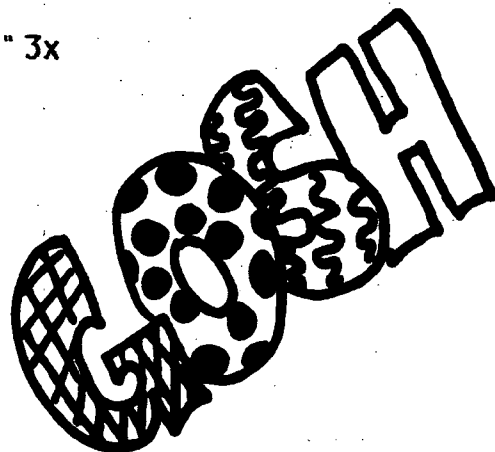

Chorus

Spunk is the key ingredient
Stir it up wityh class
With Heidi as our Rosh
Its hip to be in Gosh
Our summers gonna be a blast!

Chorus

Repeat " You're wrong, it's gonna stay!" 3x

Gosh!

All in all they're a wild crew
I'm privileged to know this rock'n few.

Next, the famous cabin 33
It's where all the girls want to be.
Sitting on Zack's bed, playing rafterball
Or hearing Gryfe rave about basketball
Mark and Micah, the best of friends
To Karen, notes, Toast sends Josh just loves the courts
Carnat adores all sports
Matt, are they really numb?
JoCo, hurry up, and run!
Aaron, a true adult,
With a monologue that was difficult.
33, a group of real close buds
And a bunch of super cool studs.

There's so much more to say,
Going through each and every day,
I learned to love you all more and more
And know you're "astute" down to the core.
Good times at the alley (bowling)
An occasional tetherball rally,
A hike with lots of bugs,
The most scrumptious bear hugs
And though we all had many a good laugh,
Most importantly, I'd like to congratulate Gosh staff.
Throughout the summer, you outdid yourselves
I couldn't wish for anything else.
Matt and Shana, oooooooo
I appreciate all you do.
Tanya, Marcie, you as well
Made the ride smooth and swell.
Jodi, Miriam, and Amy you're so cool,
Fortunately, your patience was a great tool.
Ben, my bud, Andrew on the P.A.
I thank you for each and every day.
Last but not least, Josh, you watched my back
And picked up all the extra slack.
Overall, the summer was grand,
Joy and good times in Goshie land.

Remember "me" always.

Love Forever, Shicki

Kadimah, listen to us, we've got something to say
Our rock'n section is gonna blow you away
If you think our hype will last just today,
You're wrong it's gonna stay!!!!!!!!!!!!

Dearest Goshrim,

Goshrim campers, this poem is for you,
To ensure that your memories of the summer stay true.
Gosh section head was a heap of fun
Therefore I feel this article should mention everyone.

First stop is cabin 34,
Who's atmosphere is certainly not a bore
Always exciting,
Very inviting.

Rachel, always tardy,
Sam, Nancy Drew and Hardy
Jessica came late
Mindy got a date
Hanah, soccer expert
Leyla, aware and alert
Michelle, full of spirit,
With Karen and Lauren we all hear it.
Shoshi can't wake up
Marissa always with a cup (of noodles)
Marci, cuteness in a pile,
Miriam always with a smile
Alana, an enthusiastic one,
Laura always having fun.
Debra's gorgeous face
Makes cabin 34 a lovely place.

On we go to cabin 28
Many incidents of cabin hopping to date
Flea,
What a thrill you can be
Sarah *3, you keep me amused,
But everyone else is rather confused (K,F,G ??)
Jessica I love to see your smile
Darah, a master of style.
Susan, what's up with this?
Rachel, we're all going to miss.
Tammy fell off a bed
On my birthday.
Sharon loves to pretend
Kyla, Giborim did send.

Suddenly they came face to face with a Sasquatch!!!!!! They went to their old log cabin and pulled out their chemistry set and made a potion. They decided what was in it and they gave it to the sasquatch. They waited for a few moments and nothing happened. Then TIMBER! The sasquatch is a hairy beast JUST LIKE CAMP CHICKEN!!

Their favourite poulats are sports and boating. It's been a great year for me, I actually like my kids and not one of them was really really bad. Good times that I hope to remember.

THE ZOO

To get to the zoo, we had to go on a blue and white school bus. On the bus, we sang songs. It was a long ride. We had to stop at a store on the way for Karyn and Ali to get stuff for people who weren't feeling good. When we got to the zoo, we saw lots of animals. I took some pictures. Then, I went on a pony ride. It was very bumpy. For lunch, we had yummy sandwiches and chips. I had tuna and a drink of apple juice. After lunch, we got ice cream. I had lots of fun. At the zoo, I saw a zebra, monkey, doggies, lions, tigers, ducks, skunks, an owl, and tonnes and tonnes of horses. Also, I saw a camel, pigeons, chickens, birds, a peacock, turtles and a turkey. Then, we saw elephants and pigs and cows. On the ride home, I sat with Mya. The ride was long and lots of people fell asleep. I did too. We had lots of fun.

HAGANAH NIGHT

Haganah Night is a game that represents the people who immigrated to Israel during the Holocaust. It takes place in the year 1945. On the Gibbie side of the bridge, there are British soldiers. If they tag the leader of the family, they have to have a sock fight. If you win, you go free. If you lose, you go to jail. On the Machar side, there are Arabs. They also have sock fights with the heads of families. To get out of jail, you have to wait for two Haganah members.

THE CABIN C SONG-to the tune of "I still haven't found what I'm looking for"

Some people stare
And some realize I have

Oh, I don't know where
But I still haven't found any underwear

How Camp Started

Once upon a time, there was a little boy named Sheldon and he had a puppy named Lucky. One summer, his mother said, "You're going to Camp Kadimah in Halifax, well, actually, Barss Corner!" (but, geographically, Scarsdale). Sheldon asked, "How long am I going for?" His mother answered "6, not 61, not 62, not 64, weeks!" Sheldon said, "what?!" "six weeks?!" and when he came back from Camp Kadimah in Halifax, well, actually, Barss Corner, But geographically Scarsdale) he went to college. When he got out of college, he married a girl named Freda and he loved Camp Kadimah so much as he wanted to be director. And after that he had three babies (that is a lot of babies) Sytaci, Mandi, and Tiffany were their names. One day in '92 there came a new little girl named Rebecca Tobe. She missed her mommy and daddy alot actually she threw up on the plane 5 times NOT! And she had a big brother who was 11 named Shane Tobe, she loved her brother alot. NOT! And she had alot of fun at Camp Kadimah and on visitors dayr came a big surprise. Her Dad! which she did not get any food from. But he was nice enough to drive all the way to the General store to get some. And at camp Rebecca liked playing a (String on a rope) tetherball she had some friends camp- Jill, Aviva, and I will write another cool chapter soon.

GIBORIM SECTION SONG

Tune: Muppet Show theme

It's time to get excited
The summer's just begun
New friends and lots of smiles
'Cause Giborim is fun

Our section head is Ali
She's always here for us
With swimming, boating, song and dance
We never make a fuss

It's time to get excited
The summer's just begun
New friends and lots of smiles
'Cause Giborim is the

We're the Giborim of '92!!!
GONGI

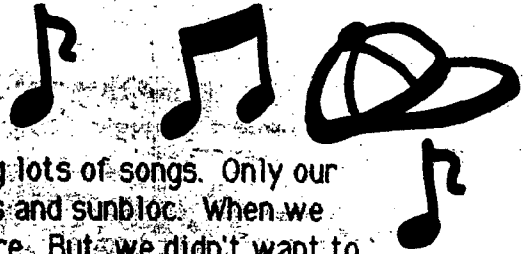

THE STORY OF HOW ALI'S ANCESTORS DISAPPEARED!

They were small. About as small as an ant. They lived happily. All of a sudden, Ali's ancestors began disappearing. Just like that! (snap!). They searched for years. Then, another ancestor disappeared but her friend saw it was a giant human! The friend ran up to the giant and she screamed and screamed. PLOPI She was dead.

THE GENERAL STORE

I had fun walking up to the General Store. We sang lots of songs. Only our Cabin (Cabin 32) went. We all had to wear sunhats and sunbloc. When we got there, we saw Cabin 34. They got to drive there. But we didn't want to drive. Inside the General Store, I got some candy. I got Runts and chips and Toffee. Everybody was allowed to spend three dollars. But I didn't spend that much. Then, we had to walk back. Going back to camp seemed shorter than going to the General Store. When we got back, we played teatherball and cleaned up. Then we went to General Swim. We were tired from the long walk, so later, we had naps. Then, the next week, we went Cabin hopping. We went to Cabin B. Ali was going to come in, so the boys said Adam was changing, but he really wasn't. We snuck out the back door and ran back to our cabin. Then, we faked sleep. And Ali came in and didn't know we went. We had lots of fun.

Gibbie Section Report

Home-run, 3 pointer, great serve, goal, double-dutch, volley, touch-down, throw-in... Whoops, wrong beginning- this is what happens after 6 weeks at Kadimah. Let me try again.

"Ali, I'm tired", "What's for lunch?", "Can I get snack with you?", "What's evening program?", "I need a buddy- will you be my buddy?" These sayings are not unfamiliar to anyone who's spent at least one day in Gibbyland. This year's section was definitely the cutest Giborim ever! Zach, Elliot, Andrew L., Andrew G., Noah, Nathan, Matt, Adam C., Justin, Jesse, Adam P., Jon, Ryan, Daniel, Ariella, Aviva, Jill, Jackie, Sarah-Beth, Rebecca, Kayla, Kyla, Arinn, Lauren K., Amy, Lauren R., Ava, Leah, Sarah- You guys were amazing! Even though we had to yell at you sometimes, you all helped to make my job a lot of fun. I hope you'll always remember the good times we all shared, especially our trip to the zoo (Never forget Booboo), our hike up to the bonfire site (and many trips back down to the toilets!), our visit to the beach (Now we know why our lunch was "sand"wiches) and waterslides, and finally, the most exciting canoe hike I've ever been on (we were the first Gibby section ever to have snack in the gully while gazing at Lake "Pinchas"- Thanx Leslie.)

None of these outings could have been successful without such great campers and wonderful staff. I want to thank all of my staff for putting up with me when I was stressed and out of patience. Without your help, the section would never have been "Like buttah!"

Melissa- Can I have some of your food?

Karyn- Can I borrow a sweatshirt?

Sarah- It's great to have someone to eat a big breakfast with.

Andrew- I heard a vicious, vicious rumour about you.

Norm- Keep counting down the days, they'll be gone soon.

Rob- Nothing makes me laugh harder than your whistle- except maybe spraying rocks with lysol.

Richard- I think we're having Rice-Krispie squares for snack tonight- better get to the C.L. before me!

Stuart- Try not to get lost again in those inner tubes in the hightower.

Ian- I know about the feud.

Aaron- Nothing makes me happier than watching the kids try to wake you up.

Naomi- Thanks for letting me help you choose your "Twinkle" gown.

Jessica- I'll miss seeing you in one of your moods- even though they scare me.

Pennifer Jink- Ohh Mah G- d! Somehow, you always managed to put a smile on my face.

To my only full time second year staff, Karyn and Richard, thank you both for doing an outstanding job. Your responsibility and dedication to the kids was obvious and your constant help was greatly appreciated. To the Iguanas- We all made fools of ourselves at the coffee house- we spontaneously regressed together in public- and it was fun! Thank you all for helping me to get through this summer without losing my sanity and making it a very memorable one.

Much Love

Robie and Hammy, thanx for all your help.

Wendlefish, my cabinmate from the west wing, thanx for everything.

Hammy, I wanted to write something nice to you but I'm too tired to think. love ya.

P.S. Long live the quagmire

This is a rap written by Lesley and Jeff Wolman on the occasion of Les and Ann Rosoph's wedding.

Listen to a story 'bout Les and Ann
A doc and nurse with no fixed address
Les likes to travel around the world
It's in this way that boy met girl

Les, he was the best in school
In spite of this, he was still cool
Around him no one wore a frown
And that's because he was such a clown

Ann's a babe from Cornerbrook
When she walked by, all would look
Growing up in a house of men
Made Ann decide to be an R.N.

Les worked hard to be an M.D.
Eventually taking him to Newfie
Les met Ann upon the rock
And she was attracted to his dangling _____ (locks)

They've worked in places all around
The more unknown, the better they found
Labradir City and Look out Sioux
Winnipeg, St. John's and Ingleside too
But we know their favorite place of all
Is Barss Corner, Kadimah it's called

Camp is where they want to call home
Each summer they will never roam
Camp is where Ann got her ring
Where she became Queen 'cause Les is king

Hawaii's the next stop -- what, didn't you know?
Where surf is up and their friends Don Ho
We hope they live in a very large place
'Cause we all will visit and invade their space

Tonight we honour Les and Ann
Of whom we are all a fan
Congratulations and Mazel Tov
We wish wish you happiness and love

Still More Information that you Should be Expected to Know

Camp Kadimah is your friend, Cherish it. send it warm clothes that you no longer wear because it gets cold in the winter. It can't go to Florida, or even to Boston.

It is an excellent, magical, place that you are all so fortunate to be part of. If camp was like your city life, Bill Chernin would cartwheel into your home, teach your pet a trick, try on your socks, steal a yummy recipe. He might even chat with your neighbours about war or fish. That's why camp is different from the city. You get 42 best breakfasts of your lives, happy dancing feet, lively saturday nights, guidance from your loving councellors and section heads, and of course canoeing.

So, remember your summers and try to write down all the facts. That way, when you tell your kids about camp, it should be more accurate than our parents version. Maybe you'll even get at camp someday. Have a happy year. Canoe at your leisure.

Love, Les and Ann

"Spirit of Summer" (The first real fromage of '92)

One final addition to the staff section of Iton 92 (ahh, the fringe benefits of being an Editor), to take our thoughts back to a more peaceful part of the summer...

Remember way back in precamp when Machar staff ran around rehashing last summer's programs to keep us entertained at night. Erev Rock n'Roll. Even then were patterns being set for the summer.

I dare say that certain people were very appropriately placed in their various rock groups. Examples?? Oh, Alia in Rap (nice screech - it had character), Jodi and Heather in Disco (this truly was THE summer of jive), and me in Folk (I hardly even had to change my clothes!)

This reprint is dedicated to the Spirit of Summer originals - Robie, Jessica, Mary, Rebecca, and Bena. We enchanted the Frenchman, we wowed the club managers (uh, do you have an outdoor stadium, perhaps), and only wrote it all in about ten minutes...

tune: Puff the Magic Dragon

Second day of precamp,
Things are rather calm,
We're staff who've signed their lives away,
But six weeks ain't so long.

The sun is setting slowly,
A gentle orange glow,
We're preparing for that special day,
When kids begin to show.

CHORUS

Oh, Camp Kadimah's groovy,
With grass and trees and birds,
The way we work together is Too wonderful for words.

Our music is quite simple,
It's pure and from within,
Our message is for everyone,
So won't you please join in...

Thanks for a "groovy" summer everyone (no, I don't normally use words like groovy, etc). I love you all, and SING the song sometime, for smiles.

 always, Bena xox

My Friend Rob

I met Rob Astroff many times before I came to camp this summer because he is Heather's brother. I stayed at the Astroff's before camp and I wasn't shy and I think Robert thought I was rude. Now he just thinks I'm evil but he knows that Heidi Rubin is the true root of all evil at Kadimah... Robert is obsessed with me and he spends all his free time conjuring up practical jokes and fun activities for me to take part in. He also does nice things for me. Yesterday we had breakfast together on the sailing docks. If it were not for Rob, my summer would not have been quite as entertaining as it has been. Thanks Bob!

Elvis

I was lucky enough to take part in one night of "laughing, crying, dreaming, and feeling." This summer, when I took part in Machar's Elvis program I had fun. I felt special. Thank you for giving me such an opportunity Machar staff. I'm not worthy.

United in a circle
Close-knit and bonded
Years spent hardening into a mold
Of stories and secrets
Memories that travel
Held 'till you're old.
Perfection is close
Utopia once a year?
Some leave but others become
Gaps are smoothed out.
The mold always maintains Shape and vitality
A constant power
Lasting forever no doubt.
But then one day
An ally joins
A family it doesn't know.
New ideas it may intrude
Old customs may invade it
But hands reach out
And pull it in
THE CIRCLE HAS LEARNED TO GROW.

I just want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for an incredible summer. I also wanted to especially thank those of you who really made me feel like I belonged. It was a bit hard at first but I never would have gotten down that road if you hadn't paved it for me.

My friend Honey

I met Andrew Honey this summer. He's so tough. He defines "Rickdogger". (a word that has been part of my vocabulary since I can remember!??) I have taught Andrew when to say "Well" and when to say "good" and that it is improper to say "don't got nothing". He has opened my mind and shown me that Tekkies are people just like you and I. He has also broadened my Hebrew vocabulary. We've learned from each other. Andrew has funky black biker gloves. He talks about his mom a lot. I wonder if my mom would like him.

DEAR CAMP KADIMAH

Well another fantastic summer has pretty well come to a close. I don't think it could have gone any faster. I would like to thank my co-counsellors. Andrew, Aaron, and Norm for a great summer. I hope to come back next year. Until then take care!!!

Love Rob Matlow.

A Waterfront Song

It was raining, it wouldn't stop
We all thought we'd lose our jobs
The sun was hiding it wouldn't play
Jamie said "it will come one day"
So for now we're singing the blues
'cause we can't wear our water shoes
Jamie Wendy are our heads!
Tell me more tell me more
Like are those muscles real
Tell me more tell me more
Who has more sex appeal
Uh-hun ooo-ooo uh-uh ooo-ooo oh yeah
Now the sun it shines every day
Well not really but we're here to stay
Summer guarding we have a job now
A lid falls in just call 92 WOW
Someday son we'll be getting our boatie
And Jon Ross will stop asking for pogey
Wendy Jamie are our heads
Tell me more tell me more
Will this fun never stop
Tell me more tell me more

ODE to a KICKBOXER

She was quite skeptical before our summer was to begin. Laughs and triple layer banana chocolate chip cake helped soothe her worries. A two for one coupon made the whole ordeal bearable. The day arrived and we were on our way. Suffice it to say she was not laughing at the situation presented to her. (I'll add in now that she did a spectacular job). Throughout the summer's entirety anything that could go wrong did, however one little detail was left out of our expectations..... the men. Who says rumors can't come true?? All in all, I have to say that far and above, head over heels, unanimously SHE RULES!!! I love her and would have been lost without her. (and her mom)

LOVE your Montreal chauffeur

Why everyone should be like Stacey Offman PART II

- She's an all around cool person
- She's on the same level of authority as Ostroff
- She's calm while doing Head Buggy
- She has a belt buckle in the shape of a lions head
- She has lovely curly blond locks
- She has a lovely corner bed in Cbin 21
- She has a fabulous school in a great city
- She can make the C.I.T boys do ANYTHING!!

My Friend Heather

I met Heather Astroff in 1988. I was new at camp, and even though we were in the same cabin, I didn't know who Heather was for the first few days. She used to be really shy and sweet, and now she is snarky, sarcastic and obnoxious. I like to attribute her change in character to the fact that she met me. Heather is one wacky chick. She likes ABBA and velour clothing. Heather underwent many important changes this summer.... I love Heather. I worship her. She's my idol.

By: Jodi Guralnick.

My Friend Miriam

I met Miriam Zilner in 1988 but I don't think we ever spoke. She didn't think I liked her and I didn't think she liked me. Now we pick each others noses and kiss on the lips and she makes me very happy. Boy, am I glad that I lived in cabin 28 with Miriam. She's one heck of a good singer...

By: Jodi Guralnick

My Friend Happy

Happy has been my friend for over 10 years. I love her very much. We came to camp together in 1988 for Machar. We are very different but we have a heck of a good time together. I think Happy's a serious babe but she gets mad when I say that especially since I had that dream this summer...

Special Program Tally

Rumors have circulated for sometime now that certain songs/ prayers/ expressions are fragrantly overused at Camp Kadimah. To examine this very important issue, an independant survey was commisioned for a high price. This tally counted the number of times certain songs/ prayers/ expressions were used on Holocaust Day. The results are published below. Are they in fact overused? You be the judge.

Song/Prayer/Expression	Number of Times Used
1. Lay Down Your Arms	4
2. Mourner's Kaddish	4
3. Hatikvah	3
4. Eli, Eli	2
5. The use of candles	2
6. "He who forgets history is destined to repeat it"	3

THE CAMP KADIMAH HAS DIVERSE TASTE IN MUSIC LIST

COMPILED BY SARAH SHIMKOFISKY WHO HAS GOOD TASTE IN MUSIC

I really wanted to write something for the iton but I wanted to write something that people would read. Actually I wanted to write something that 10 years from now I wouldn't be embarrassed to read. So I wandered around camp doing one of my favorite things, talkingt about music. My intention was to compile a top 20 album list but I ended up with about 65, and some were ridiculous. To make a confusing introduction finally come to an end, here's my list. Some of the albums aren't the best in your eyes but they were in someone else's. so, in no particular order here they are.

STAFF

SPONTANEOUS REGRESSION '92

Dressed to Kill

This article is dedicated to all male staff who are guilty of having no fashion statement what so ever. To begin we will start with the most noticeable and a definite candidate for the worst dresser in camp, Mike Yablon. Although we love Mike dearly the man can not dress. From his terrible grey and purple square baseball cap down to his Ostroff's bargain basement canvas boots. Who cares if these boots are light (lite. This is not the worst aspect of Mike's unappealing wardrobe, the prize winning article of clothing is his turquoise and rosyrad trimmed solar fleeced sweater which he makes a bad habit of wearing whenever the temperature is anywhere under 20C.

Next we have Richard Fenster who takes the cake and icing for the tackiest and biggest hats ever created and worn at camp. Speaking of hats our next victim is Aaron Kurilof and faded black, now grey Pirates hat that is never seen facing forward. What's the deal Aaron?

We haven't had much opportunity to wear shorts but every time we can you will be sure to see Jack Gurevitch in his now famous black UCLA shorts. The smell near the chadar wasn't only the mud and septic tanks the smell of UCLA was there too! The prize for the ugliest foot wear goes to Jacob Rosenfeld. Jac, those flip flops are awful. What colour are they? The bridge which separates Kochot and Goshrim has not affected Jason Hamburg who still insists on dressing like a goshie. A prime example is his rolled up jeans with sweaters and big bundly sweatshirts.

The worst jeans in Camp Kadimah belong to Andrew Honey how do you get those things on? Never before have we seen such tight jeans. Moving away from tight pants we have Mike Soberman's overly baggy zebra stripped pants. Since when have there been blue, black and white stripped zebras? We mentioned earlier Mike Ostroff's bargain basement boots by this we mean those unoriginal beige canvas boots imported from Israel care of Mike Ostroff. We could understand 1 or 2 wearing these boots but not half of the male head staff population. The most frequent wearer of these bargain basement boots are Bill, Sobes, Yablon, Josh Lief and of course Ostroff himself. How many duffle bags did you bring Ostroff? To finish off our article we would like to inform you that not every male staff member at best dresser male or female at camp is Sean Earhard. Sean always looks good even if he is not trying. He always matches even right down to his shoes and he doesn't even own ostroff's bargain basement boots. Sean, maybe you should start a class.

Although we have picked apart your entire wardrobe and daily attire we want you to know that we love you all and now matter how bad you dress, we always will. You're the best.

Love always,

Two critical but loving Macharniks
Zena Haberman and Riva Barak

BLONDIE

Stacey Offman is a female who is to be much admired. She is known for her constant boyfriends, her anorexia, her bulimia, and all her bright comments. She makes all the other females feel better about themselves concerning their eating habits. Stacey is not lazy. You can often find her participating in aerobics with Melissa in the moadon (NOT!). Stacey lives "Down by the water," and she worships Madonna. Not only does she voluntarily act as Madonna in front of the entire camp, but she also shows off her Madonna-like talents in cabin #31. We all love Stacey. She is a great leader.

Love always, Jenn Miller

Dear C.I.T's,

I'm not good at writing these kinds of things, probably because I'm horrible at good bye's. I can't stand leaving camp because I know that I'm not going to see most of you for a very long time. (Unless you plan on coming to Buffalo in the near future). This is the only chance I get at telling you guys how much you really mean to me.

I'll start off by thanking you all for giving me the greatest memories that I will ever have. This summer will remain in my mind and heart forever (unless I become senile). Until then, they'll be with me. I came into the C.I.T program not knowing what, or who to expect. When I got here, and the Kadimah glow shined on everyones face, I knew it was going to be another fantastic summer. Some people told me that the C.I.T program helps you find yourself. Well, maybe I did find myself, but it was usually in the pump house. Other people told me I would have the worst time because all you do is sit around and do nothing. Why am I always so frustrated when trying to think of a program or every time I go into my wonderful cabin 5 for placements, that I always get back exhausted. If there is anything more false about how little we do, please have someone bring it to my attention. I'm sure you will hear this line over and over, but the summer is really what you make of it. Okay, so you do have a lot of free time, but I never heard anyone complain.

So, let's see, I've explained what I found, now onto who I found. There are some people here who I thought would make my summer, to say the least, uncomfortable. Well, I thought wrong. The friends that I have made are probably the closest that I have. I love you guys and you know who you are. As for my "old" friends if you call 2 summers "old". You people have always been there for me and I want you to know that I will be there for you always also. For you new persons you guys are all Kadimah people and fit in really well. Please, everyone keep in touch, for those of you who did last year, you know I will return every letter and phone call I receive.

Enough sappy crap. (Not that it's not true) promise you'll never forget our late night meditating, Erev Misakim' and maccabia-not! always remember that velcro does not attach to leg hair-Debbie! Is that sarcasm I hear in your voice-Yone? Next time try a natural high-Jen B. I really like the name Adam. Try not to fall asleep during the process-Jenn M. Half an hour-Becky WOW! And, for all of Cabin 30, don't get too wrapped up in your subconscious- but practice meditating lying up or sitting down.

I love you guys and I'll miss you all.

Love Dawn

P.S What ever we do next summer let's do it together.

We've been writing this article for almost an hour now. Aron is still videotaping. Do you realize it will take Aron six weeks to watch his little mini-series?

What did we think of Camp Tevya? Hmmm....what do we think? Good food, strange rules - we know what PDA really stands for.

Boston was awesome. Too bad we saw more of the tarps at Fenway than we did of the field. Scott can still be found chasing after beach balls.

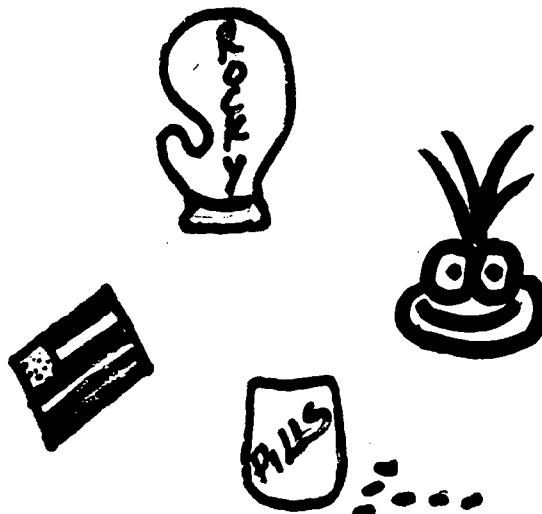

The one thing missing from this summer is the sun. We are true CIT's except for the tanning.

MORRIS AND JENN

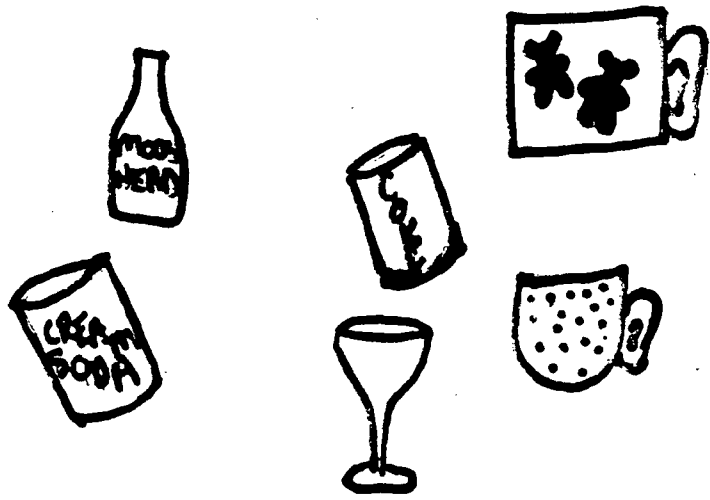

I am writing about my good friend Morris. He is very angelic. He is a "Model A" citizen. Bieng only 16, he's obviously NEVER touched alcohol, nor would he ever think of performing such an obscene act. He obeys all the Nova Scotia laws. You would never catch him driving without a license. He is not known for his awesome hair (a.k.a. Tweekers), but rather for his ability to remain calm and cool in all situations (shabbat, basketball etc.). Morris is a good person, I wish I could be more like him.

I am now writing about my good friend Jenga (a.k.a. Jennifer Miller). Unfortunately, since last year she has had somewhat of a change for the worse. Jenn has recently joined a very violent cult and due to it's secrecy, I cannot mention the name, yet it is important to note she is the official LEADER. This cult has affected her greatly: She promises to drive people home and then leaves them stranded, she goes through violent giggle tortures in which ten people were murdered and 8 injured (this was done in about an hour), and above all she has cut down all the rain forests with her 6 hour stubble. Jenga is truly a menace to our society, but I can handle her anyway. Jenga Rules!

Last August after camp I told myself that I would never return to this camp ever again. I really had a bad summer. In about November I had received papers from camp about the coming year, I threw them away. About a few months later I received another letter telling me about the camp rally that was coming up. I decided to go. I had told Sobes that I had a problem with going to camp and I had told him the reasons why. Then he told me that camp is what I make of it and I shouldn't let anyone ruin it for me. He convinced me to come and I'm glad he did. I've had the best time ever. I have been here for 10 years and for sure this has been the best ever.

When I first arrived to camp I had different feelings about this year. Some people told me that their C.I.T year was their best year ever. And others told me that it was the worst ever. I said that this year is in fact the best year. We are such a small group that we get to know every single person in the section.

I'm not sure why people say that C.I.T's don't do anything. We do alot.

I'd like to take time to thank each and every C.I.T in this camp for making my summer the best ever! Thanks everyone! love always and forever

Lisa Gordon 1983-1992

P.S One more thing camp is like a second home to me when I came on the first day it seemed like I never had left. Camp will always be in my heart.

Mr. Iton Man

I am iton man hear me roar! To bad, Mr. Iton Man wasn't feeling very creative at this moment in time. Life is such.

This morning we had to peel Scott off his bed. I woke up screaming Benzonoah! Morris didn't have PHS-for the first time in his life or did he? jonah was quite blue. Jordan had a tan, and Geremy was a very mellow person.

Keiver was dating sweets. Louis was buying anything he could get his hands on. Adam was saying shalom to Steve, while Steve was gaining weight and dying his hair brown. Brett realized that he was white and Jason quite smoking.

How interesting!!

I wonder what will happen tonight!?

I am fromage man!

I'm going to miss Scott, he is moving to Toronto!

I'm feeling Spastic, is that normal?

We the C.I.T.'s have a great staff. Do we? After much deliberation I say to you my fellow people, the people of this great nation, the united states that with out the hard work and ticeless effort of your staff members we'd be in a world of incuemcutable unfathable, cows. Lefts give them a handy pat on their left pointer toe. I'm not kidding our staff is most good.

Hi me! Not the me all of you know but the me that I know. The me that writes the notes, but not the me, me the other me. The significant other me, you know?

Good Luck,
Love You All

Amazing CIT excuses to avoid Indian Falls

1. We didn't want puddles in the van.
2. We wanted to keep our national ressources clean.
3. We didn't want to make the rest of camp jelous by taking 2 trips in 2 weeks.
4. We really needed to catch up on our sleep.
5. It wouldn't be very hygenic.
6. We really needed to catch up on our sleep.
7. We didn't want to stain our sleeping bags!
8. WE LOVE CAMP TOO MUCH!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

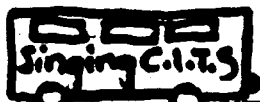

Hi! This is Sandra and Adrien. We are sitting on the steps of the Chadar watching the Maccabia track meet. We are also watching Aron videotape the ENTIRE meet, including the grass, the doctor, and the sun - all of which have nothing to do with Maccabia!!! Ask us why? We have absolutely no clue. But we are not writing this article to make fun of Aron.

To get back on topic, we love Camp. Nowhere in the world could we have so much fun. Where else could we have a mud fight in the pouring rain - and then not be allowed to take a shower afterwards?

Who else besides Stacey, Sobes and Ostroff are crazy enough to venture into another country with 30 teenagers? We are the singing CIT's and of course we all know Ostroff is an Israeli soldier who came to learn how to work with teenagers. What HANDS ON experience.

Who needs WWF? We've got Becky (and everyone else who tried to conquer the bed).

Does our cabin really need that relaxation tape? We think not. Debbie's talking could put anyone to sleep. (Just kidding, Deb)

Dear C.I.T.'s of '92,

Well, what can we say? This summer has been so unbelievably great. This time last summer, we were pretty adamant about returning here. Fortunately, we did. We are all so close now that the prospect of leaving is more sad than it has ever been. Especially since we aren't sure what next summer will bring. Maybe some of us will never see each other again. We don't want to dwell on the sad stuff, so we'll stick to remembering the things that made us laugh. To our cabin, as a group we ruled. We laughed together, read "fantasy forum" together, and yes, fought like hell together. First of all, to Pill. You are a freak. You've been with us forever and you always will be. You always made us laugh with your nadedness. Playgirl, guts, and stupid questions.

To Debbie, our little Muppet. It was your first summer and we know it was a good one. Your excessive talking and short attention span kept us happy. We're glad you have a sense of humour (pumphouse incident). Is my pad on your bed? Sorry for scaring you, Deb.

To Dawn, we came in thinking we would be enemies but we're leaving as best friends. Even though you never told us anything we still love you and always will.

To Gaby, the beast. We appreciated you keeping out unwanted guests with aerosol cans and making everyone shut up. For a "victim" you sure are aggressive. We love you.

To Mya, although you have no concept of hygiene, you kept us laughing with sound affects, impersonations, and snappy "rat" remarks. You're the best. P.S. FTQ.

To Becky, although you spent most of the summer "under cover", we still got our fair share of you. Thanks for the shoes. Half an hour is very long. P.S. Special programming kicks but!

To Gillian, although the majority of the time you were wiping, you still had time to become close with all of us. You are a very sweet person.

To Sandra, you pretend to be so sweet and innocent but we've seen the true you. Nice try at hiding it, dear. Did you forget about the Kadimah grapevine? We love you! But we'll never go to a baseball game in the rain with you again!

To Jody, KEEP IT IN THE FAMILY! With your world record talking and flirtyness, you always made us smile. We love you. Keep your hands to yourself, and size doesn't matter.

To Adrien. First of all, your father is hot! We'll never forget sitting around talking about parents annoying us and your cool retainer. Love ya!

To Lisa, we were surprised at your guts at Erek Mitzakim. Where have you been hiding this wildness?

To Alexis, thank g-d your mom helped us out in Boston even though we still ended up at the J.C.C. The fruit was most appreciated. We hope your first summer here has been all you expected and more.

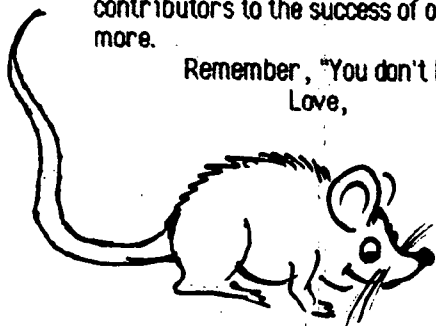

To Jenn, special programming was the best! Even though, you spent most of your free time with your man, we still found time to chat and have fun. We love you! Now on to the boys, you guys made our summer. You were always there when we needed you. Backrubs, talking, gossip, advice, favors, teasing, and spontaneous arousal kept us kicking. We love you more than you know. We will keep in touch. (in every sense of the world). Next year in Jerusalem...or Greece.

To our fear-less leaders. Stacey, you really are appreciated and needed and loved! Ostruff or small Paul, thanks for the talks. We love you but the score is 0-0. Sobes, thanks for everything (if you know what we mean).

In conclusion, we hope we didn't leave anyone out because you all have been major contributors to the success of our summer. We love you all so much and we will miss you even more.

Remember, "You don't know what you've got 'till it's gone."

The Outcasts and Mo.

Yarmouth

In 1984, I first attended Camp Kadimah. I met a nice boy named Morris. Morris was weird looking in '84, but time improved him. Now we are good friends. I tell Morris secrets and he doesn't tell anybody. Morris visited me in Yarmouth. he went to Israel in '89, I didn't.

Love, Steve.

In 1983 I first went to camp. In '84 I met Indig. At first I didn't like him. He smelt like he was from Yarmouth. Now I like him. We do things together, we have a great time. He tells me secrets and I pretend not to tell anyone. That being the story of Kadimah.

Love, Mo.

In 1983 I came to camp. The first person I met was Morris Glazman, a true stud. We became good buddies, but occasionally he would make me vomit by showing me his P.H.S.. I learned to love him even with this syndrome.

Love, Jonah.

In 1984 I knew Morris, Jacob, and Louis, but I didn't know Steve. he looked quite strange, because he is from Yarmouth, but that isn't his fault. I soon found out that he was quite the swimmer, but he does a mean conga too. His yellow fro always got in our way, but we learned to use it to our advantage.

Love, Jonah.

In 1984 I didn't know Jonah. He didn't know me either. Jonah has red hair ; I don't. Jonah tells me secrets. I pretend to listen to them because they're dumb. Jonah is confused, I help him become unconfused. We are friends but he's short. I look over top of him except last year he had a big red helmet head. We used it to our advantage.

Love, Steve.

In 1988 I came to Kadimah! Jonah, Morris and Steve hated me! So I hated them back! They never told me secrets! They told secrets about me! Now they love me and I love them! I think! We all share our secrets! Jonah's still short, Mo still has P.H.S. and Steve is just there!

Love, Keiver.

I came to camp in 1987, OHH what a feelin'! I know everyone's secrets! "And the world is a better place" I wonder if I'll ever have friends like the ones I have at camp. Your mom's calling, but she wants me, not you! HeeHee! I love you all.

Dave Feingold.

Dear Camp Kadimah,

It's a great privilege for me to be able to write this letter to you. This been my third year on staff. I would like to thank Michael Soberman from the bottom of my heart for getting me here this summer. It is no easy task to get a soldier out of the army to come to camp, but you succeeded and I thank you for it. You are a true friend and a great person. Soberman I learned a lot on how to be a leader and organizer from you and thank you for sharpening those skills of mine. Bill as allways you are Captain Bill there were some crazy times but one thing is for sure I enjoyed sharing a cabin with you and Sobes, thanks Bill. Sheldon, our friendship has definatly grown, it was great getting to know you and I thank you for your guidance and time, you are a true leader and I feel that I have learned many things from you. I hope to see you and your lovely wife in Israel. Stacey it was definatly motivating for me to work with you and I enjoyed it very much. Michael Druckman, Josh Lief, Jon Ross, a scary thought: us running the camp and Druckman as the director, you guys were great cabin 10 stories live on, good luck in the future I love you guys. To all my fellow staff members it was a good year we had some good times thank you and good luck in the future. To the ladies in the Kitchen Ann and Wendy thank you for been my friends we had some fun times you are good friends thank you. My little CIT'S it was incredible working with you guys you people mean more to me than I can write down on paper each and every one of you is a special person to me. I have seen you grow in to fine young people, you all brought me a lot of joy, so all the hassle to come over here and leave the army makes it worthwile.

Your parents should be very proud of you because I know that I am because you are all special and I wish you all the luck and happiness in the future in what ever you choose to do. I love my CIT's.

Thank you Kadimah,

M. Ostroff.

C. I. T. Section Song

Rising up, we are C.I.T.'s,
Living life how it should be.
Went the distance now we do as we please,
With Stacey, Sobes and Ostroff at our lead.

So many years have flown by so fast,
Let's make this summer a blast.
Don't lose your grip on the times that have passed,
The spell of Club Penoose has been cast.

CHORUS..
It's the heart of Kadimah that has kept us alive,
Rising up with more spirit than our rivals.
As we've worked through the sections
On our way to the top
Now we're CIT's as we live in the heart..... of Kadimah.

Day and night, we live by the docks,
On our way to see the Bo Sox.
Our skills our tested as we learn how to cope,
As a group, we're Kadimah's only hope.

CHORUS

Rising up, we are C.I.T.'s,
Living life how it should be.
We went the distance now we do as we please,
With Stacey, Sobes and Ostroff at our lead.

CHORUS

when I remember Camp Kadimah I will not think of my final goodbye, but rather the good times that I have spend here.

Now there is nothing else to say by Good-bye. I will miss you and not a day will pass that I do not think of you. Thank you for the memories, the friendship and the experience, it will never leave me.

Remember me, because I will remember you.

Love Always and Longer,

Sobes

... who is Max?? ...

Dear C.I.T.'s of '92,

"The spell of club Penoose has been cast" Having coined this phrase, I can proudly say that each and everyone of you have earned a lifetime membership in this exclusive club. Being with most of you for a second summer, I can honestly say it has been a pleasure the second time around. To all of you "new kids on the block", it has been great getting to know you and I admire you for adding something special and refreshing to an established k'futz.

I had been looking forward to this job for quite some time before camp. Although I didn't know quite what to expect, I figured I would just take each day at a time. Prior to camp, everyone kept telling me, "you have the best job at camp". I can honestly say that looking back on the summer, "I do". What could be more rewarding than sharing a summer with twenty-eight friends, both new and old, of whom are all at Camp Kadimah to let loose, learn and have an amazing summer. "It just doesn't get better than this". Let's not forget all memories we've aquired over the course of the summer as these memories will be all that you have left to hold on to. Thank you for making my summer one of the best yet and for allowing me not to regret my decision in any way to return here to Camp Kadimah. Thanks to all of you for giving me a severe complex as a dumb blond. It has been greatly appreciated. I know the joking has all been in good humour and when I win the Nobel Peace Prize, I won't hold a grudge against any one of you!! As to what the future holds for you guys, I'm not too sure. Whether it be Israel, Staff at Kadimah or else where, I hope you will enjoy yourselves and never forget Kadimah, most importantly, the C.I.T.'s of 1992. Guys, you are no longer campers and I hope what you have learned this summer will help you with your future endeavours as counsellors. I hope we can all keep in touch throughout the year and years to come.

Mike, I can now say that you are no longer just another branch in our tangled family tree. Thanks for everything and bearing with me as I tested my feet in the waters. "Let's make a deal?!"

Ostroff, you have definitely added some "pizazz" (for lack of a better word) to my summer. Thanks for all the laughs and yes, we are friends!!

Take care guys and thanks for one helluva summer! Don't ever forget==> blondes DO have more fun!

Love always,

Stacey i

Stacey XOXO

P.S. "Down by the water..."

There are two people without, whom this program could not have been a success, and I would like to dedicate this paragraph to them. Stacey and Ostroff, much of the success of this program can be attributed to your hard work and assistance. I always knew that in my absence, the section was in capable and caring hands. I know that I do not often say it, but I really appreciate all the contributions that you made to the program, and realize that I could not have done it without you.

While I am on the topic of gratitude, there are some other other people that I must thank. To my cabin mates Bill and Ostroff, I will always look fondly back on the times we had in our cabin, laughing, fighting, eating, fighting, cleaning, fighting and playing with our new toy which is guaranteed to provide us with hours of entertainment. Seriously, you guys are amongst my closest friends, and I really appreciate you being there when I need you most.

To Sheldon, there is not a lot I can say that you do not already know. For nine summers you have been my boss, but more importantly my friend. Aside from my parents, I do not think that there is a person who has had a greater influence on my life than you. You have served as a role model to me, and your confidence in my abilities is all the thanks I will need. While our partnership as Camp Kadimah, may very well be over, our partnership as friends has never been so strong. We have our book and Atlantic City to look forward to. Thanks again.

To all the other head staff and staff, in all years at Kadimah I cannot remember working with such a wonderful group of people. Since, virtually all of you have been campers of mine nothing is more gratifying than being able to watch you mature into responsible staff, head staff and close friends. Thanks for all your help and support.

Now comes the most important thank you of all. I have to thank all of you for having confidence in me and trusting me enough to return here for your C.I.T. year instead of going to "the other place". You are the reason that this been an outstanding summer, and no Iton article would complete without thanking you for being a part of this summer.

To the guys, I consider all of you close friends, the seeds that will foster future relationships have long been planted, and now all we have to do is let them grow. You all have a great future at this camp and really understand the role of a counsellor as it should be understood. I envy you more than you know, because as I am closing out my staffing years, you guys are just beginning.

To the girls, it scares me to think that I actually get paid for spending time with you. I would pay someone else to spend time with you. You are all so kind, caring and affectionate. These three qualities are essential for a good counsellor, and even more important, for being a good friend. When we are together, I cannot think of anywhere else that I would rather be. We have confided in each other on numerous occasions, and I appreciate you being there for me. In fact, I often think that I need you, more than you need me.

As a group you will always be special to me because my first year staff was your first year as Giborim. I was here when you began your career as campers and I am here as you close out your career as campers. Our arrival and departure are perfectly in sync. Over the course of my years on staff I have watched you move through the sections. It as if I have come full circle and been apart of one generation of Kadimah campers, and you will always represent this to me.

SOBERMAN'S ITON ARTICLE, IT KEEPS GOING AND GOING AND GOING.....

Now that I have started this article, finishing it will be the hard part. There is so much that I feel I want to say, and need to say. As we sit an reflect on our memories of the past summer and we must think about how luckey we are. I honestly belief that there is not a better place on earth to cultivate relationships and memories that will outlive us all. Cherish theses memories and friendships because as you move on through life they are the what you will rely upon most for inspiration, security and strength.

Now, I get to the part that I have dreaded for over a decade. This is where I say my final goodbye to Camp Kadimah. Before I began, I knew that this moment would one day come, however, I never imagined that it would be so hard. I am sure that this is the most difficult goodbye that I have ever had to say.

This place has meant so much to me, in fact it has been the single most consitent thing in my life since 1980. I never dreamed that I would fall so deeply in love with this place, and if I had to do it all over again I would not change a thing. I have lived Camp Kadimah for so many years, and I cannot imagine my life without it. I am scared, because I am leaving behind my own personal security blanket, my source of happiness, the place where all of my dreams have come true. My only consolation is that the memories and friendships that I have acquried over the years will never leave me and continue to be a source of happiness and strength.

While physically I may not be present here next summer, in my mind and thoughts I will never leave. They say that people are a product of their environments, I am definately a a product of Camp Kadimah and the principles upon which it is based are the same principles around which I will continue to live.

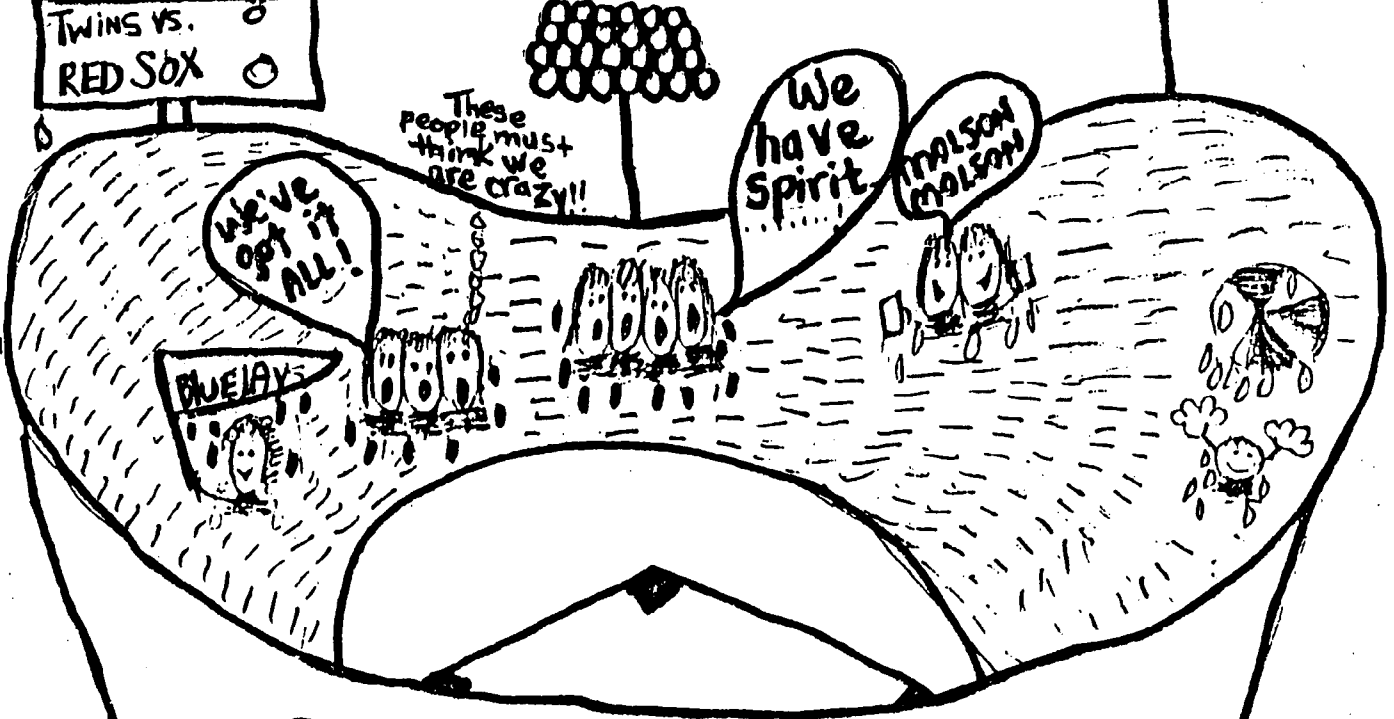

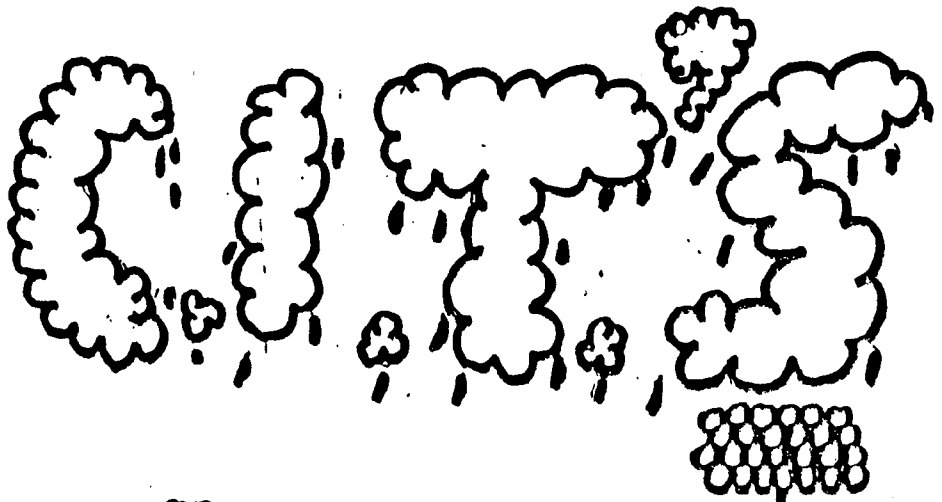

To leave this place signifies the end of one stage of my life, and the beginning of another. My only hope is that the next stage of my life is as fulfilling as this one has been. An individual could not ask for more than this.

To all of you I say enjoy this place as long as you are able, keeping following your dreams and continue to carve out your Jewish identity. The future of Camp Kadimah is in your capable hands, hang on to it, appreciate it, gain all you can from it , because like me, one day you too will have to say good-bye.

I love this place more than any other, and I love all who have been apart of my Kadimah over the years. When I walk out of these gates for what may very well be the last time as a staff member I will be able to hold my head up high because

Dear C.I.T.'s of 1992:

There is little more than one week left in the summer of 1992, and yet again I am pushing the final deadline of the Iton with my submission. From the onset, I want to apologize for that "all over the map" direction that I know this article will take.

As I begin to type thoughts are racing through my mind. It seems that each time I begin to write my Iton article and organizational skills that I possess are nowhere to be found. However, I will do my best to leave you with a message that is indicative of my feeling about the past summer, and most probably my career at Camp Kadimah.

If I were asked to sum up this summer in one word, the word that comes to mind is "fast". It seems not too long ago that I met our new recruits at the airport and brought them to rendezvous with the rest of you at the Halifax Shopping Center, and just like that our summer was underway. It amazes me that we have crammed so much into the past five weeks and that we still have a busy week ahead of us. We have been from Bridgewater to Boston, from Kadimah to Tevya, from Red Sox to the Jammers (not), and believe it or not from campers to staff. We have had more than our fair share of fun, fights, learning experiences, misunderstandings and most importantly memories. You all know my thoughts on memories, without them you have nothing.

The C.I.T. program of 1992 is the largest ever, and the fact that we could logistically manage the placements and programming is an accomplishment within itself. I have never spent a summer with such an interesting group of characters, each of you has a very distinct personality with unique and often bizarre qualities. This collection of personalities fit together perfectly and complement one another. As a group you guys are second to none, as individuals I consider you all my close friends. I have watched you all grow and mature into responsible individuals who, when you return will make caring and understanding staff. Whether you realize it or not you have learned a lot this summer. I have watched all of you in your placements and programs and, what I saw was all the evidence that I needed to know that the C.I.T. program of 1992 was a success.

At the beginning of the summer I told you all that your summer would be what you make of it, you have made a lot of it. I had three objectives at the beginning of the summer: First, that you learn about being staff, Second, that you learn about yourselves, Third, that you have an incredible summer with your closest friends. I am convinced that my expectations have not only been realized, but far surpassed.

I have only one regret about this past summer, that I have not been able to spend as much time with you as I would have liked. Unfortunately, too often I was involved in other areas of camp, and for this I do apologize. However, with every negative there is always a positive, and as a result, I valued every minute that I spent with you.

MACCABIA ARTICLES

I am on Yellow team. My captains are Gabe, Simone, Alia and Steve. Today is the last day of Maccabia. I hope we win. Our team name is The Fifth Cup. My team came in first in the Gib-Gosh marathon. And we also came in first for two other races. I really like Maccabia.

Hi! My name is Leyla Attis. I am on yellow team this year for Maccabia. In Maccabia, we have track, team games and a lot of other stuff. The other colours are green, blue, white and red. My captains are Simone Vigod, Stephan Lecker, Alia Offman and Gabe Kuriloff. We cheer and sing a lot. This year they broke Maccabia on visiting day by driving into camp in a stretched limo.

Hi! My name is Lynn Bessoudo. I'm on the Yellow team for Maccabia. My captains are: Simone Vigod, Stephen Lecker, Alia Offman and Gabe Kuriloff. They are all nice. Yesterday for the Maccabathon, our canoe tipped in the middle of the lake. While we were being rescued, all the other teams had already started to build their fire. We came around fifteen minutes late and we came in second by about half a minute! Amazing! See you all hopefully next year.

P.S. Yellow rules!

Maccabia, the colour war is a very special part of Camp Kadimah. It is a test of skill, spirit and sportsmanship, a time to learn new things and make new friends. Maccabia is about working together, co-operating and having fun. It is about competing but at the same time knowing winning isn't everything. The theme for Maccabia '92 is "Next Year in Jerusalem". Yellow's name is "The Fifth Cup". This name was chosen for our team because on Passover there are yours cups of wine. The Fifth Cup is Elijah's Cup. Elijah is the possible Messiah. When the Messiah comes, we will all go to Israel. Another reason Yellow team chose "The Fifth Cup" for it's name is because for the first time in camp history, there are five Maccabia teams instead of four. I think that Maccabia is one of the greatest parts of Camp kadimah and that we should proudly carry on the tradition.

By: Rebecca Wolpin

This summer, being away from camp for three weeks, I was almost positive that I'd be absent during Maccabia. Because it is usually one of the highlights of my summer, I was deeply saddened when I returned to Kadimah for the last time, two days prior to Visiting Day. I was completely relieved to still see everyone awaiting the event. More so, to my surprise, was the fact that I heard the Israeli ambassador to Canada was supposedly making an appearance at Kadimah. I was yet astounded on Visitor's Day to find out that this was untrue and that the limosine that arrived in front of the Chadar contained head staff in the Maccabia colours. A Maccabia with five teams should be ever more exciting than four. It was also really wonderful that parents were present during the breaking of the games. I can't even imagine the memories it brought back to Alumni. Anyhow, Maccabia can only improve, and we're very lucky that it's so much fun to begin with.

We like swimming a lot and the cheers a lot. We hope the relay race is going to be fun. Our captains are nice. We enjoy wearing white all the time. We hope that we will win Maccabia this year.

By: Kyla Rudnick, Andrew Gergely, Lauren Rosen and Justin Hartzman

Have fun. This summer, we want to win but if we don't it is okay as long as we have fun. So far, we've been having a good time and we think our team is doing very well. Go White Team!

By: Hannah Zitner and Alana Greenberg

The best things of Maccabia are that you get to make friends in other sections and you get to have a lot of fun. Maccabia gives you a chance to challenge yourself, while showing good sportsmanship. Best of all, it gives everyone a taste of the true chevra and spirit at Camp Kadimah. Maccabia is a time for the whole camp to gather and cheer. Due to the large number of campers, we added a fifth team this year. With green joining the group of Maccabia colours, Maccabia '92 is sure to be the best ever. Maccabia was broken on Visiting Day and many parents watched. We're sure it brought back many of their own Kadimah memories. This year's theme was "Next Year in Jerusalem" which symbolizes our need and want to live together in Israel. So see you next year in Jerusalem!

And suddenly those Fun-filled days are gone

We needed something to add a little twist

For days we picked our brains around the office

A break of breaks on V day, From a Limo we popped, OY-VEY!

Play our Games, Run our Race

Try your best to keep the pace

and you'll find that everyone ends up on top

You've got a lot to do, Be sure to have fun too

WHITE

Dear White team of '92,

As your white team captains we take great pride in writing this message to all white team members. Right from the moment maccabia was broken we were very confident that the team had the potential to take it all and win maccabia '92. As we participated to our fullest in all aspects of these games we kept our smiles, and spirits strong. As each day went on we maintained our spot on the top. Winning events like the swim meet, maccabathon, regatta, marchpast and bama proved the well rounded abilities of our team. A special thanks to Jodi Guralnick, Ian Slotin and Loni Sherkin for their outstanding contribution and help. And a very, very special thanks toa all you white team '92 members who make maccabia for all of us. We are the best team Kadimah's ever seen and our coat will forever shine through.

Love your captains of 1992

Josh Lieff, Robin Cohen, Riva Barak, Craig Silverman

P.S No other team will dominate as much of maccabia as we did. And don't forget that we were the first team to kick 4 other teams butts' in these games.

A Coat of Many Colors

White Team Marching Song

Tune: Puff the Magic Dragon

Welcome to the white team of 1992
 Standing strong together will will prove to you
 The strength our coat has given us endures the test of time
 It shields us and protects us and has a special shine
 It brings us all together to Jerusalem of gold
 Jews from all around the world, it will forever hold
 In this Maccabia, we sing, we dance, we scream
 But in our hearts we're striving to fulfill the Jewish dream
 A Coat of Many Colours is the white teams' name
 But also represents all teams in these games
 K'tonet Pasim is our claim to fame
 The spirit that surrounds us, none is the same
 With Rive, Craig, and Robin and Gizmo as our heads
 For these four days we'll wear our coats, each with sacred threads
 We've showed our capabilities in all the things we've done
 In swimming, boating, track and cheer, there's no doubt we've had fun
 So feel the warmth of our coloured coat) red, blue, yellow, green) X2 Cheers to the best Maccabia) Kadimah's ever seen!...WHITE!)

White Team Cheer

Tune: Facts of Life

Hey Kadimah, look around
 Listen to the White team's sound
 In Maccabia of '92
 Look our red, yellow, green and blue
 Our coloured coat will shine through
 In Maccabia of '92
 When you think you're on top
 Watch out, cuz, the white team won't stop
 In sports, spirit, song and dance
 You'll nver have a chance against white
 WHIIITTE.....WHITE!!

GREEN

GREEN TEAM'S CAPTAIN MESSAGE

Green Team '92,

Well we certainly proved that unathletic teams have a place in Maccabiah! We could see from day one that it was our spirit that would put the first Green team in Kadimah history at the top and we put up quite a fight to place second over all, You guys each contributed everything you had to offer and your efforts paid off. Next year you'll walk into the chadar and you'll see one Green banner stand out from the rest and guess what? It's your's! We've certainly set the pace for a new tradition in Maccabia but our spirit and sportsmanship is going to be a hard act to follow. And besides who knows if there will ever be another team with Amnon? And we were by FAR the most environmentally friendly team, and they just HAD to love us! We hope you guys enjoyed yourselves, we tried to be FAIRLY laid back (well some of us anyways) and we tried to make our 4 days together as memorable as possible. Although we were at a dear disadvantage in size (Why did we have less people?), we were stacked with leaders in both Kochot and Machar (you guys were great) and we managed to outscreeam the others from beginning to end. Our creative talents were quite evident throughout: cheers, gimmicks, Tel Aviv rebuilt, a partially improvised bama, etc. But most of all, it was the motivation of each and every team member that proved us to be great. Thanks for everything guys and we can only hope that every greent eam to come holds up to the good image we've set. (YEAH RIGHT)

Love always,

Toby Carnat
Jen Pink
Heidi Lipkus
Shaun Keyes

P.S. What colour's a komodo again?

P.P.S Ya gotta loce it!

Defenders of the Root

"Green Team Marching Song"

Tune: Mountain Dew

Well the games have begun,
and we're gonna have fun,
it's no longer just Red, Yellow, White and Blue.
Well they caught us by surprise when the green team was devised and we're here to prove our ruach to you.

Chorus: We're called Meganay Nashernsngem.
You'll know us by our fierce and mighty scream (Go Green!)
For Defenders of the Root, Maccabia will be a hoot, so stand back cause we're one hell of a team.

Well our home is a land where together we stand and jews of the world can unite.
But our task in't done cause before it can be won,
we must all pull together for the fight.

Chorus

Our roots and our pride stand together side by side, and defense is the key to survive.
In maccabia '92, Green team's gonna prove its true, and for next year in Jerusalem we'll strive.

Chorus

"Green Team Cheer"

Tune: Lollipop Tree

One fine day in late July they played a funny trick, right in the middle of visitor's day four coloured teams were picked.
And suddenly, as tension grew, out came the new fifth team.
In '92 the best teams new, move over cause we're green.

Chorus: Oh, ah hah hah, oh hah hah
Rooting for our team.
Next year in Jerusalem
We're fighting for our dream.

Yerushalyim holds our roots, our future's in its call.
3000 years of hopes and fears, it seems we'll never fall.
But though we're proud, and strong and loud, our fight has just begun.
The worldwide jews must join hands to defend our home as one.

Chorus

RED

Red Team's Captain's Message

Dear Red Team of 1992:

MOL clap clap clap

RA RA Ree Kick 'em in the knees.

We certainly used our creative energy in the cheers which seemed to appeal to the older members a heck of a lot.

All in all, Maccabiah 1992 was most enjoyable and we had a lot of fun. As Captain we tried our best to make sure that this year's Maccabiah was a lasting memory not only because a new team will not see it, but because the red team had a blast and showed us a lot. Following the new methodology of letting everyone have a say in the way we did things here, we hope that you all will have a good time.

The competition was very hard, but we were able to win a few games. However, the real test of our ability as a team was not in the games, but in how we worked together and how we supported each other.

We were very lucky to have a great team of people who were very supportive and who were very organized. We were able to win a few games and we were able to have a good time.

We were very lucky to have a great team of people who were very supportive and who were very organized. We were able to win a few games and we were able to have a good time.

With love and support,
Your Captain,

Tune: Fame

People look and see
Our spirit, unity.
Within the stones we're standing so strong,
In Jerusalem we will always belong.

People look and see
That we are the key.
We can make their memories last.
Don't you know how it's done.
Remember your past.

RED!

Chorus: We're gonna live forever
An indestructible wall
It's a continuous journey
A far-reaching goal for us all

People look and see
These stones are you and me
Our history is what they hold
Reminding us Jerusalem is our goal.

People look and see
Our spirit, unity
Our journey home has finally begun
Now we know how it's done
Remember your past.

RED!

Red Team Anthem

Tune: "American Navy Hymn"

Here we are, red team has come to help you
How it's done, so listen up

Four cool dudes and a killer attitude
You can run but you can't hide

Within the stones is sure to rock you
Up with the hell of a crew

We live in fame or go down in flames
When we're through, we'll leave you singing our name

YELLOW

To all of Yellow Team 1992,

As your captains, we would like to congratulate you all for the participation and sportsmanship you portrayed during Maccabea.

Even though we came in last, we know that in our hearts that we all tried our best and that's what counts.

Thanks for not giving up. Especially in the Maccabathon, where our sportsmanship really paid off. We were in last place most of the race but our persistence led us to a second place finish. Marchpast tested all of our nerves but we pulled through and did a great job.

Our songs rocked. Too bad the judges were deaf. Our banner was the best. Too bad the judges were blind. Our tug of war team was underweight. Too bad the judges can't add. Our bama was wicked. Too bad the judges don't understand it.

Yellow Team '92. 1st to come in 5th (watch out in the Bochan for that question)

Red, Blue, White, Green, join with us in unity.

Your captains:

Gabe Kuriloff
Simone Vigod
Alia Offman
Stephen Lecker

We could not have done it without them but when it comes to leadership and pulling through Elijah's cup can be the only one

Chorus:

We have shown you what we are and why
Now the choice is yours for aliah
We hope to see you next year in the Promised Land
Come join our team and we'll go hand in hand
