CAMP KADIMAH

Dear Camp Kadimah,

We wanted to give camp a special gift. We thought about roses, 300 matching umbrella and rainboot sets, or a lifetime supply of Cinnamon Toast Crunch. We decided instead to present Camp Kadimah with the best Iton ever. If this disappoints you and you still want roses, feel free to call Tori at 682-2036, she is really good at creating romantic bouquets complete with card. For those who are not yet convinced that this is the best Iton, let us tell you more about what you will discover behind the super yellow cover.

As we traveled down the Iton path, we left many things behind including our curfews, sanity and our love for Matthew Cohen. We gained however, much appreciation for Chugim, rainy days, general swim and computer literacy not to mention André and Cyndi Lauper. A funny thing happened on the way to Microsoft Word, it had left the building and taken Jason.doc with it. It remains a mystery how Brett managed to erase an entire program off Michael Soberman's computer. Dr. Les deserves a special programming day in his honour. Hooray for fax machines and Mothers. Sobes, did you enjoy your trip to the Nation's Capital?

Girls just wanna have fun. Things aren't that much different from CIT except one fifth is missing. Kadimah Scotland coming soon to a summer near you. How about them Jays?

Lets talk about Iton. Love the screensaver. Love the Walky-Talkies. Love the PA. Love the Zatzmans. Love the Dook. Love Andre. Love the politics. Love Machar Day. Love Jess. We'll say it again. Love Jess. Love the duct tape. Absolutely adore Rachel Chouinard.

Now is the time in this article where we have an out of body experience. We would seriously like to thank the following individuals. Sheldon, thank you for allowing us the honor of producing the Iton. Leigh, thanks for letting us invade the office and take over your desk, we know it hurt you, but you got time off out of it so consider it settled. Thanks to all the people who came and kept us company especially Sarah Damelin, Melanie Kazman, Jodi Sherkin and everyone else. Thanks to all the people who helped out with typing, food donations, music and moral support.

Without further ado we present the first Iton with four editors, recipes and a yellow cover. Explore, enjoy and relive Kadimah 96.

Love always,

Becca Cash, Zena Haberman, Steph Levitz and Lisa Noik.

Kadimah '96 is drawing to an end, but the wonderful memories will last a life time. Our camp is a special place for Jewish youth, to join together in a safe, friendly environment, to focus on our Jewish identity and partake in a wide variety of camp life activities.

This summer, we had 265 campers and C.I.T.'s - the largest enrollment in our 53-year history. A special thank you to all head staff, specialists and bunk counselors. To Adrien, Davina, Jason, Rachel, Robin, Aron, Michael, Marnie, Jacob and David, bravo on an excellent job. To all camp doctors and Michelle, many thank-you's. To Anne and the kitchen staff, we appreciate the long hours and help in the kitchen. Freda, the veggies love your meals and thanks for all the help now and always. Thank you, Peter, Ace and Colleen for keeping the camp in good shape.

The program ran well, despite less than favorable weather. Thank you, Matt, for your tireless work and fine effort.

To Becca, Zena, Lisa, Stephanie and the Iton staff, congratulations on an excellent Iton.

To Marty and Belarie, whose Grease production was one of the summer's highlights - bravo! TO all staff who assisted, your great contribution was greatly appreciated. Kadimah is very fortunate to have the Zatzmans back and again, thank you for all your hard work.

To Jacob and the Tommy crew, congratulations on a job well-done... an excellent show!

To Suzanne, Shelby, Jessica, Jonah, Jo, Heather, Melanie and Sarah, thank you for great peulot. To Penny, Anne, Louis, Bret, Steve, Gabe and all the waterfront staff, thank you for an excellent summer. To Leah, Stacey and Ari, many thank-you's, as well.

To Rob and Jason, thank you for all your help. Despite the rain-outs, our scouting program was very good, even though we had such bad weather.

To Leigh Lampert, the office ran very well and I would be lost without you. Thank you very much. You're the man!

To the Bossman, Brian Indig, my main man, congratulations on a super summer. You've done it all, and I will be forever indebted to your outstanding work and friendship.

To Michael Soberman, many thank-you's for your recruitment and assistance at camp. Hoping all is well with Kadimah Israel and our 25 campers. In your absence, Jenn & Michael are doing an excellent job, and thank you to them.

To Mark, Andrew, Hank, Wendy, Carol and all committee members, thank you for your support and assistance. A special thank you to Jon Goldberg for assistance with staffing and programming. As well, to Yaacov Feig, we welcome you, and appreciate your assistance and interest in camp.

In conclusion, I want to thank you, the campers. We sincerely appreciated your cooperation and hope you had a great summer at Kadimah. We wish you well in school and look forward to seeing you next summer. Have a great year - take care!

Love,

Camp Kadimah- A Timeless Wonder
By: Marty Zatzman

We arrived at camp late in the evening on June 28. This time Belarie, Noah, Samahra, Sariana and Tosh joined me at camp. I stepped back in time the moment we entered the gates. Little did I know that my journey through time at Kadimah would span four decades and become a pivotal site for my family dreams.

My journey through time began in 1962 as a 9 year old camper in a very strange setting from my home in Dartmouth, NS. In the years that followed I grew more accustomed to the Kadimah routine. The camp in the sixties was filled with only Maritime campers and for most us became the best six weeks out of every year. My family moved to Arizona in 1964 and returned to Dartmouth in 1965. I missed camp in my Bar Mitzvah year of 1966 (had to study) and in 1967 (Expo 67 in Montreal) and in 1968 (Played all summer in a Rock Band). In 1969 I returned as a CIT. There were two of us that year. The summer of 69 was a key year that put me back into the Kadimah-I love you mode. I worked my way up through Junior Counselor, Senior Counselor, and Head Staff until 1974. In 1974 a young senior counselor Bama specialist arrived from Toronto. I was placed in charge of budgeting money for programming. The Bama specialist came to me for $75.00 for supplies. I said NO. We needed a new water-ski and that's how our money would be spent. She left fairly disturbed and went directly to Shaul Landa, the Director who approved the money. She caught my attention very quickly and the rest is history. We married in 1977 and came back to camp in 1978. I was Assistant Director and Belarie was Director of Fine Arts. That year we thought we would be our last summer on the grounds of Kadimah as staff. Years passed (18 to be exact). We had a family of three and as teachers we had the months of July and August off. For many years we taught summer school and took vacation. This year however we grew tired of the same old routine and felt we should return to a summer camp for at least a summer with our children. A good friend was Director of Camp Shalom and asked if we would like to go back there. Our roots were at Kadimah and after some calls to the committee we decided that Kadimah would be our summer home once again.

How would we handle a camp full of staff and campers, most of which were not born the last time we attended camp. The challenge was to adapt to a camp (the largest in camp history) and work with a young but has we found out very talented staff. Thank you Sheldon for your support and valuable retraining. You are the Dean of Camp Director's. Thank you staff and campers for making a fabulous summer for Belarie, myself and the kids. It was great to participate in all aspects of camp life again.

Camp Kadimah solidifies lifelong friendships and is by far the best experience anyone can have at any age. Kadimah became a part of my life at 9 and still is at 43. I hope it will be a part of my life and my family's for many years to come. Thankyou Kadimah for another wonderful summer.

A LITTLE TALE FROM THE PROGRAM DIRECTOR

It was about 3:00 A.M. one evening, about the time each night when the job of the Program Director, Matt, actually begins. For it is at this time when the night sky shifts and turns, deliberating over what it will present to those below for the next day. If the past few weeks have been any indication, it is fair to assume that in a few short hours, steady rain will begin pelting upon Camp Kadimah, thereby throwing the camp into yet another programming spasm. The clouds continue to brew, and Matt still sleeps - although he is having somewhat of a hard time doing so since he has recently been inflicted with an odd skin allergy - a condition which has become very popular at Camp Kadimah lately.

It is now approximately 3 and a half hours later, and Matt is suddenly awoken by a shrill, endless beep. He could have sworn that he never set an alarm clock, yet he insists on pressing every button on the machine beside him. It is only after several minutes of this harrowing sound that he realizes it is emanating from an alarm clock across the cabin. This, of course, is the clock belonging to Mr. Matlow, the most meticulous man in Canada, and winner of the best bed award for six consecutive weeks. Even though Mr. Matlow is organized enough to install venetian blinds on every window in cabin 20, he seems unable to remember to turn his alarm clock off when he goes on his day off. Thus, Matt has been rudely awakened, and it is now time to face an exciting day of scheduling.

The time now is around 7:45, the time each morning when Matt saunters into the office to photocopy the daily schedule which he hands out to every section head, specialist and Elana Zatzman at breakfast. He is overjoyed with the new photocopier that the camp has acquired, as he realizes that if he was forced to use the old machine, he would have to arrive at the office well before Marty Zatzman even unlocks it. This whole morning scene is a bit new for Matt, because last year he not only photocopied but also made the schedule at 7:45 A.M. This year things are a bit different, since he yielded to the pressure of those who demanded to have the schedule the night before. This forced Matt into a level of organization that he previously never imagined, but after a quick identity crisis he was able to recover.

Matt should have known that the early wakeup from Mr. Matlow's alarm was a signal for a rough day. As he sits at the breakfast table in the freezing cold Chadar, wondering why there are 60,000 crates of tomatoes in the kitchen but buggy duty is forbidden to bring them out, he notices that it is beginning to rain. Because the rain will prevent Mifkad, that ceremony when Kadimah people beat their chests after they make a pledge to Jerusalem, Matt must announce the daily schedule to the camp inside the Chadar. He quickly does so, some cheer, some boo, some pray that swim is not in the water, some mutter the Birkat Hamazon, the camp is forced to be quiet for 10 minutes, and breakfast ends.

First peulah finally begins, and Camp Kadimah's talented specialists are put to the rainy day test. In this particular hour, Giborim will do Tzofit in the CL, Goshrim will do Bama/Melyad in the RCC, 40 Kochotniks will play dodgeball in half of the Ulam, the other 40 will go swimming in the Chadar except for Marnina's class which will go to the Moadon steps in sweatpants and a sweatshirt, half of Machar will go boating inside the Moadon, and the other half will do some sort of special program which will be determined after Jacob Medjuck combs all of the leeches out of his hair. Matt spends his hour ensuring that everyone made it to the right place, and thinking about Judaic programming. This part of Matt's life can be quite trying, since he realizes that campers dislike Judaic programming more than even compulsory letter writing day and buffalo hunts. Despite this, he trudges on with the glimmer of hope that maybe some of the stuff campers learn at Kadimah will be instrumental in shaping their Jewish identity.

First peulah ends, and Matt is met with a host of requests from various specialists. Penny is slightly sick of teaching swim in the Chadar, Louis would like the Pavilion so he can play gaga during boating, but Heather and Jo would rather not move to the Moadon and risk ruining the new camp stereo. Jonah and Jess are not thrilled about being confined to the Ulam, but they should be thankful that the Machar Tommy crew is not there building the stage. Bama and Melyad are OK because they operate inside anyways, but they are quite nervous because if the rain keeps up there will be no Chugs and they may lose an hour of Grease rehearsal time. While happily solving puzzles in Wheel of Fortune and Classic Concentration, Leigh Lampert probably couldn't care less what activity people have, as long as he knows if Tzofit is still on the shuffleboard courts. Rob Matlow is very sick of the shuffleboard courts, and is upset because he may need to cancel yet another hike. That's alright though, because that should give him some more time to clean the cabin. The only one who doesn't seem to mind the rain is Yakov - he is always happy, but his mini-Torah might be getting a bit wet.

Lunch finally arrives, and at this point Matt is extremely hungry. His eating is delayed, however, because the camp must worship and serenade the grilled cheese sandwiches before they are eaten. Matt is finally served his meal, and happily eats it while wondering which part of the sandwich is actually grilled. During lunch, the reliably unreliable Nova Scotia weather changes yet again, so Matt prepares to announce that Chugim will take place at 3:30: The Grease people are thrilled since they can now look forward to 4 hours in the wonderfully ventilated RCC; Jason Altman is concerned because he has been asked to run the fishing Chug with one working rod; Dave Feingold is happy to lead photography but wants to know how he can do that without cameras; Aron Levitz is equally perplexed as he has been instructed to lead the tennis Chug without balls; Marnina, Louis and Saul have plenty of balls but they are waiting for Jonah to fill up that basketball hoop with sand a teaspoon at a time; Deb Pakes also has an equipment problem because Brian Indig has bought the wrong sized beads again; Gabe and Steve love the sun but wish it brought wind with it so they could sail; it seems that the only one without a problem is Matt David who is all set to explore the philosophical relationship between politicians and toilet paper.

4:30 rolls around, and it is becoming clear to Matt that this is a time of day which many people resent. For it is now when the survivors of the Grease cast stagger out of the

RCC, when staff begin to tire (especially those who feel that there should only be 4 peulot per day), and when all of Kochot realizes that, despite the sun, the large body of water surrounding their tetherball court is still there. Matt is experiencing a bit of fatigue himself, so he decides that this is a good time to retreat to his cabin and read the McGill calendar because he has been asked by about 17 people to help them pick courses.

After supper, Matt's work becomes a bit hyperintensive. It is at this time when he begins to contemplate the schedule for the next day. This is a process which begins with a look at the Day 1- Day 6 master schedule which, it can safely be said, has never been used in its original form. Requests start to filter in from all over camp, and Matt's attempt to keep everybody happy inevitably involves some serious juggling. Usually, Penny will want Machar to swim as much as Belarie will want the t-birds and pink ladies to rehearse; Jill Chatt will want Shirkud and Shirkud will want Jill Chatt; Suzanne is OK with whoever she gets, as long as that big metal thing is removed from the middle of the floor and the schedule leaves her a bit of time to kayak; Ilana and Belarie will want the section that is rehearsing their Friday night, Camp Kadrama oneg; and the sports people will be alright as long as we can makeup 12 houseleague games and compete against 4 local sports teams.

After submitting the schedule and making sure that everything is in good shape for each evening program, Matt decides that he will spend a little while contemplating the next Jewish/Cultural program at camp. The latest crisis is that Matt has become keenly aware that the tremendous flow of non-Maritimers into camp means that the programming must be suitable for Jewish youth from a variety of different backgrounds. (This diversity is especially apparent when the camp tries to sing the Aleinu and about 40,000 different tunes erupt) Nevertheless, he continues to press forward, determined to create yet another program using only the very basic ingredients of Jewish programming: a few candles, the PA system, some nice singing voices, and a campwide march across the bridge.

The day is now done, and while lying in bed, Matt discovers that he is going to have to contend with yet another distracting noise. He isn't sure exactly what it is....maybe it's Matlow vacuuming.... or maybe it's acorns falling all over cabin 33....wait though, it's probably Aviva Attis who still hasn't left her Grease rehearsal. Whatever the case, the music of the night will not be able to keep him up - after all, he is too excited to sleep because the sun will come up tomorrow and allow Matt to create more lasting memories. This is very important, because soon camp will end and the bus will have to bring him home, along with the eternal memory of scheduling two major musicals in only five weeks. These accomplishments, like so many other things at camp continue to perplex Matt as he falls into his deep, anti-histamine induced sleep. He is happily confused, however, since he simply wants to believe that there is something about Kadimah that makes things eventually work out.

THE END

Before I go (I don't plan to flood this article with thank-yous, but some people cannot go unmentioned) Sobes - I really feel as though you, more than anyone at camp, equipped me with the abilities necessary to do this job; Sheldon - I appreciate not only the respect you give me and the confidence you seem to have in me, but also your efforts to point out where I could improve; to all section heads and specialists - somehow you managed to endure my last minute and chaotic work ethic, and I could not have asked for more cooperation and patience; Matlow - I think the crazy cabin shifting that took place before camp worked out great - thanks for your work on the cabin itself, but more importantly, for making it a friendly place; the latenight folks - you made me feel like I had a real home to return to at the end of each day. Our ability to talk about anything comfortably was a huge part of my summer - I think we should rename the House of Mill the Zoo of Yakov; and Marnina - I can only hope that our relationship helped to distract you from some of the troubles that pained you over the summer, as it did for me. Underneath your moments of unhappiness it was easy to notice that you are incredibly talented in a variety of ways, and your enthusiasm and concern for the things and people you care about is truly inspiring.

That'll do it for now, and I guess I'm left to ponder my future here. As a camper it was always so easy, but now it is impossible to guarantee that I will be back. Having said that, I would rather live in the compost than play on the B'nai Brith softball team.

Good luck all, and don't forget to laugh.

Love,

Matt

BECCA, LISA, STEPH AND ZENA, IT'S NOW ABOUT 20 MINUTES BEFORE BRIAN IS LEAVING TO TAKE THIS TO THE PRINTER, AND I JUST FINISHED I TOLD YOU THAT YOU HAD NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT, BUT THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR BEING ~~SO~~ SO GOOD - NERVOUS ABOUT MY ADMITTEDLY OBVIOUS PROcrastination! - AND THANKS FOR ALL YOUR EFFORT PUTTING THIS THING TOGETHER

The Big Bossman's Report

*Clear as a crystal, sharp as a knife
I feel like I'm in the prime of my life
Sometimes it feels like I'm going too fast
I don't know how long this feeling will last*

After spending 14 wonderful summers, at the greatest place on earth, it is very difficult to express my love and dedication to Kadimah. It's hard to believe that 14 years ago, I walked out of these gates wanting to go home, and now I am the camp administrator.

Camp is my home for six weeks of the year, and is the one thing in the world I could not live without. Kadimah has given me 14 years of great friends and good times and this is the way I return, year after year. There is no place I'd rather be. Treasure your time and experience at Kadimah, because camp provides you with the best friends in the entire world. We may not see each other for months, but when we do it's like we never left. Now it's time to thank those wonderful friends.

To all of the campers, it was a pleasure spending time with you and being your friend. To all of my past campers, it's hard to believe that your days as campers are over now, and I wish you all the best. I hope to see you all back on staff. To Aviva, Jackie, Sarah, Molly, Emily, Becca, and Amy it was great spending time with you guys at night. I wish you all a happy and safe school year, please stay in touch.

Penny, five more years until our date with each other. Your mother would be proud. Thanks for always being there when I needed you. All the best during the year and you did a great job this summer. Also, stay away from my lips and be aware of the action zone.

*And everytime I've held a rose
It seems I only felt the thorns
And so it goes, and so it goes
And so will you soon suppose*

Ann thanks for a great summer and it was a pleasure beating you up all summer long. Thanks for always being there when I needed a shoulder to cry on. I wish you all the best at DAL and thanks for always making me smile.

Leah thanks for taking me skiing and doing circles was a blast. You are a good friend and beating you at WWF superstars was my complete pleasure. Don't worry everything will work out. Looking forward to seeing you in Toronto. The light has finally burnt out.

Poops good luck in school and have fun with Steve in Halifax. Thanks for all of your help all summer long and for always being there when I needed you. Bagel, you did great job this summer and you even learned to stay up late this year. Have a great year in Halifax. Duke, it was a pleasure working with you and I wish you all the best in Toronto. When you see Jen let me know. Stacey, playing Wheel of Fortune and driving you in to Bridgewater was an experience I will never forget. Thanks for all the skiing time and I apologize for breaking the boat. I believe we are closer friends now. Heather, you did a great job this summer and your Friday night time is down to 25 minutes flat. Congratulations are in order. Thanks for always making me smile and your visits to my cabin were greatly appreciated. All the best at Western.

*Summertime has come and gone, and everybody's home again
These are the last words I have to say, that's why this took so long to write, there will be some other words some other day.*

Altman, life in Goshrim no one will understand. Thanks for all of your help all summer long and moving boats with you at 7:00 am was a pleasure. Dave Feingold, my third roommate, thanks for keeping Ostroff and I company and next year you can have my bed and go use your own office. Please learn to keep your hands to yourself. Have a great year at school. Heidi have a great year at Disney and I'll try to be patient and smile more. I know you will have a great time.

Seal 27 - you did a great job this summer and buying you your office supplies all summer long was a pleasure. We both love our hero and I know we will miss her greatly when the summer is over. I need two people to clean the Ulam. Have great year in Ottawa and prepare my keys for departure. Marty, and Bellerie it was a pleasure meeting you and thanks for all of your help all summer long. Have a good year and I hop to see you in Toronto. Jessica, your sports program was great and please go and clean the ball field, Sobes, it was fun working with you when you were here, and I will see you at the Gardens. Miller, Oh Miller, where can she be? Jenn, It was great seeing you this summer. I'm sorry I drove you nuts all summer, but I was just disappointed with the amount of time we spent together. Seeing your happy face and smile always brightened my day. Don't enter the Zone.

Good bye my friend, I may never see you again.

Sheldon, you are a great leader and I highly respect you as a camp director, and even as a friend. We have grown closer during the summer and it has been an experience I will never forget. I'm getting closer to the top. Have a great year and I know I'll see you in Toronto. Best of luck in Las Vegas and Atlantic City.

Ace, Peter and Ann it was a pleasure working with all three of you, and thanks for being so co-operative during the summer. Freda, thanks for all of your help and advice during the summer. Taking you with me on my journeys was fun and entertaining. Thanks for all of your help in the kitchen. Rodent, thanks for always having the schedule done on time and go play on the ball field, Steph, we had a rough year but you conquered all. Congratulations on being a maccabia captain and good luck in school. I hope you had lots of fun creating memories that will last a lifetime.

Finally, to the Moss, thanks for always being there and no one could have asked for a better roommate. I greatly appreciate all of your support and help and I will miss you dearly. Always live by cabin 11's motto and have a great year. Looking forward to seeing you in December. You are a very special and dear friend.

Enjoy your time at Kadimah because if this is heaven, there is no place I would rather be. In the middle of September you will all wish you were back at camp having a ball and still talking or playing with the best friends a person could have. Camp is my favourite place to be and this feeling will never change inside me. Kadimah, thanks for 14 great years and I hope to see you all again.

*These are the last words I have to say.
It's always hard to say good-bye, but now is the time to put this book away....*

Good bye, Kadimah I will always cherish and love you.

Love Always,

Brian "Big Bossman" Indig

P.S. Steve where are you???
P.P.S. Thanks Mom & Dad!!!
P.P.P.S. Write it down!!
P.P.P.P.S. I Love the Bed of Roses

Infirmary Report

Here is a little story that will teach us all about life. Many years ago, a single sign was placed across the road from camp. It read, "DANGER, POISON IVY" The years went by and everyone had great respect for the sign. People would say, "Don't walk near the sign" and all would nod in agreement. Then, one day, the poison ivy decided to move. It couldn't read the sign and spread to a new area. This is where the story turns sad. Innocent campers and counselors, playing and having fun met the poison ivy in a manner they would soon regret. So you see, we all learned the following valuable lessons:

- 1) Poison ivy, just like chickens, can cross the road.
- 2) Nova Scotia needs more signs.
- 3) The guy who made the sign wasn't joking.

Otherwise, we had a healthy summer. A very special thank-you to Drs. Conter, Goldsmith, Chernin, Wieder and Cooper-Rosen, who helped us greatly.

Remember, camp is a very special place and the cookies are an added bonus.

Be healthy

Shalom, Camp Kadimah....

By: Leigh 'the flea' Lampert

"Leigh, did I get any mail?" "Leigh, when's Maccabia?" "Leigh, can I call home?" "Leigh, my parents are supposed to call me and..." "Leigh, can I make an announcement?" "Leigh, did I get a fax?" "Leigh, where is my package?" "Leigh, why didn't I get any mail?" "Leigh, will you write me a letter, so I will get some mail?" "Leigh, can I see the sports section of your newspaper?" "Leigh, where's Sheldon, where's Brian, where's Ostroff?" "Leigh, can I try your walkie-talkie?" "Leigh, do you like working in the office?" "Leigh, do you have a pen? Paper? Stapler? Scissors?" Etc....

After three years of working in the Camp Kadimah office, these questions will, no doubt, haunt me for the rest of my life. If and when I seem perturbed when asked about mail, or when asked any of the above questions, you can understand why!

The truth of the matter is that it is in Camp Kadimah that I am the happiest. This was my thirteenth year at Kadimah, and as one gets older, there are fewer and fewer people from their age group at Kadimah. However, the older I get, the easier I find it to relate to everyone from the young Gibbies, through to the older head staff members at Kadimah. Each day, I find myself befriending Gibbies, Goshies, Kochotniks, Macharniks, C.I.T.'s, staff and head staff alike. Although we only see each other for 6 weeks of the year, and even though we may live across the continent, or even across the world from one another, it is here where I have my closest friends, and it is to this place which I look forward to returning to, year after year after year.

If I were to start writing things to or about each camper that I now want to say something about, this article would not end. In one general paragraph, though, I would like to say thank you to those who helped in the office, those who simply visited me in the office, those who helped me with services, those who shared their food, and those who were simply friends. Although there is an obvious age difference between campers and staff, it is the campers that make this place what it is, and it is the campers who I look forward to seeing each summer, and to keeping in touch with over the school year.

To my Machar girls... you know who you are. At first, as I was typing this article, I started listing each of you, and leaving messages for each of you. However, I quickly abandoned this idea, after realizing that there were simply too many of you, and that I would end-up leaving someone out. You all know who you are, and to those who spent time in the office this summer; those who visited me in my cabin; those who I sat with at meals; those who I spent time with in your cabin or section: To you, I say thank you. You are all a great bunch of people, and I love you all. The one camper and Macharnik that I will mention is my sister, Mindy. To you, Mindy, I say thank you for helping me so much in the office and for being my sister! While mentioning my sister, I will also mention my brother, Jordan, who was on Kadimah Israel this summer, but whom I look forward to spending many more summers with at Camp Kadimah!

Stephanie, as always, loved our time together this summer, and look forward to Ottawa this coming year!

To Ann and Les and baby Leah, although you came late, it is always good to have you here to talk to. Maybe next year, you will respond to my faxes!! Again, Mazal Tov! Michelle Isenor, always a pleasure to help you on your quest for health numbers!

Jessica Fraser - thank you for your oh-so-pleasant visits to the office and for the chocolate cheesecake. Heather Devlin - you were great to have around as a substitute when I was otherwise occupied! I sincerely hope that you will no longer be a deprived child!! Loved our hot date on our night off! Ann Raskin - had to mention you, but what can I say? Love the Raskin! Same applies to Mike Rinzler and Jen Miller. Jo Mirsky, your serenades were both lovely and appreciated.

Daniel Bender, I am glad that you finally showed-up at camp, but sorry that we did not get to have another day-off on Lake William, this summer. Maybe next summer! Rob Matlow (Seal Team #2), again, a pleasure working with you this summer. As always, organized, helpful to me, and a close friend.

Marty Zaztman (Seal Team #4), as well as Belarie: A pleasure meeting both of you and working with you this summer. You were helpful to me in the office, and not too demanding. Marty, your trips to the General Store for my chocolate milk, newspapers, etc. Were most appreciated.

How could I mention all of these people without mentioning the rain? Mr. Rain, you overstayed your welcome this summer, you were detested, you suck!

Moving down the list, Michael "Mossman" Ostroff (Seal Team #6), you're next. As you once said, we do go back a long way. As usual, our talks and adventures, as well as our song-writing adventures, our song-singing adventures, and our everything were amusing, entertaining, and memorable. A few things to remember... "Sunday, Sunday" "M.M.M." "C.M.I.A.W.H.P." "Middlemas' business" Mike, you are a true friend, and I wish you all the best this year, as you travel the world like a lost nomad.

Penny Dankner - another summer of working with you has been enjoyable and interesting. Doing late night with you has also been fun. I hope, and I am sure that, all will work-out for you this year in Fredericton. You are another true friend, and let's keep in touch!

Brian Indig. Seal Team #18. The Bossman. Boss. Sir. You were the man. Your efficiency and punctuality has made my job easier, and you add to this camp. Being a third member of cabin 11 was a pleasure, and I thank you for your hospitality. While thanking you for this, I should also thank you for all of your patience in dealing with me, and for being my liaison between the real world and camp. That is to say, thank you for buying me my Globe & Mail almost every day, as a standing order. You are another true friend. Good luck in Toronto, and stay in touch.

Freda Cohen. The one thing I must thank you for, and give you public credit for this summer, is for introducing Camp Kadimah to a line, or a response which I have adopted, and which I use constantly. That is, "Thaaaaank —> You!"

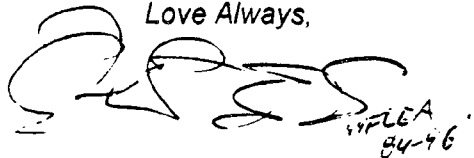

Sheldon, Sheldon, Sheldon. Seal Team #1. Boss. Sir. In thirteen years here, I have gone from having my weekly chats with you to working closely with and for you. We have developed both a professional relationship and a friendship. I enjoy working with you and appreciate your help and advice. I hope that you will be back at Kadimah in the years to come, so that we may continue working together.

When I think of returning to city-life and school-life, it seems a little dull compared to life at Camp Kadimah. (Mind you, given the weather we had this summer, the winter weather may be appreciated this year.) However, as I think of this coming year, I am reminded that another summer for all at Kadimah is only a few months away!

Camp Kadimah, thank you for yet another memorable summer. Wishing each of you the best of luck for this coming year, be it at school, at work, or while traveling abroad. May we all stay healthy and I look forward to hearing from everyone throughout the year. If in Moncton or Ottawa, I would encourage you to call.

Love Always,

SPORT REPORT

With one week and six days of camp remaining, I'm sitting in cozy cabin 25 with Suzanne and Penny, faced with a blank piece of paper, wondering desperately how I can be expected to write a "Sport Report". The Kadimah vet forewarning "It'll fly by!" was no word of a lie! ... It did not however, fly by without incident.

Week 1? It rained. We wasted no time in being exposed to dodgeball, kings court, and the infamous "gaga". Friday evening, many hours were spent toying with the houseleague schedule. This year there were 7 male and 7 female teams. Competition for field time, you ask? I'd been forewarned by Jamie Cohen: "You don't screw up houseleagues". Had a few ump-mares that night.

Week 2? It rained. The water level was rapidly reaching our cabin; and there was much talk of celebrating the 10th anniversary of the '86 flood in style. But spirits were not dampened. Chadar tables were cleared away to make room for double dutch, round robin table tennis took place in the back corner; floor hockey ruled the Ulum, and mud wrestling resulted from every ultimate game.

Week 3? Matt calmly gave me the word Monday night: "We're having Maccabia tomorrow". The strategy was well thought out. It never rains for Maccabia. Hence, the four most beautiful days of summer followed. Colours were vivid, spirit was large, energy was electric. Giborim ran marathons, while Marty Zatzman made a splash.

Week 4 was packed with excursions out of camp, "Grease" rehearsals, and visitor's day prep. House leagues even had to be temporarily put on hold in the midst of the week's hype.

Week 5 is now upon us. In peulot campers are getting one last taste of softball, basketball, soccer, volleyball, soccer baseball, football, ultimate frisbee, rugby, tennis, badminton, orienteering, fitness, table tennis, ball hockey, archery, king's court, and parachute. Tetherballs have all been restrung 10 or 11 times, and shuffleboard is making a comeback! Every rest period and post-dinner time slot is being bombarded with rained out house league games. Goshrim ultimate frisbee houseleagues are underway, and hockey marathon is still being anxiously anticipated.

Undeniably Kadimah has seen another great year in sports. As a new comer, I was thrilled to be so warmly welcomed into the Kadimah family, and to have been a part of such a successful program. Thanks to Jonah Jacobson, my over-excited assistant who saw many "best games of his life". Thanks too to all the house league coaches for their continuing support and spirit.

Have an awesome year! Hope to see you all again next year!

Love,

Jess

J. A. W. S '96

Who knew that J. A. W. S. '96 could mean so much!!! This summer, despite the weather, the waterfront has been a huge success. The spirit of every section could be found at one time or another down on our docks. The swim classes went well and you all worked really hard even through the sub zero temperatures!!!

There were many amazing programs this summer... Maccabia, the infrequent but always wonderful beach parties, the J. A. W. S. competition in which the gibbies and goshies absolutely came up with the most original idea's for what J. A. W. S. means, the trips to Rissers Beach, and probably the most frequent programs were the amazing rainy day programs - it's amazing that you all learned to swim in the Chadar, the C. L. and the Moadon! Thank-you to all of the campers for being so patient and for loving the waterfront even in the cold and rainy weather!!!

Now it's time to move to the waterfront staff of '96... WOW is all I have to say! You guys are a great team and have made the waterfront really work this summer. Ann (your tan... what tan???) Raskin, you are fantastic. Thanks for all of the rainy day prep, and thanks for being the best assistant anyone could ever ask for. Have a wonderful year kiddo - I'll miss you! Dave (yeah, waterpolo!!) Pink, nice show in the maccabia marathon! You have been a great asset this summer - thanks for all of your dedication and hard work. Aaron (yes, you're still on waterfront) Pink, you are great! Your classes had lots of fun this summer. Rebecca (my classes are great) Fine, another great year on swim staff! Rachel (Miss triathlete) Pink - you rule!!! By far the best swimmer in camp Kadimah (maybe of all time!) thanks for working so hard and always smiling! Marina (so... what do you think about head staff?) Webber - by far the happiest and most smiley waterfront staff, You are an awesome instructor and have been a huge asset to our waterfront team. Zena (if you're happy and you know it do some sidestroke) Haberman, you are as unique and wonderful as you were when you were my camper. You rule kiddo - thanks for the wonderful programs and dedication. Heidi (my tan is really the best, it's just peeling right now...) Wengle, you are a great instructor and your smile was always appreciated. Candice (ewwwwowowow) Wolfson, you are great with the kids and your great spirit on the docks will always be remembered. Jodi (can I go get snack) Sherkin, the diving chug was a hit and your instructing was great. Beth (My lesson plans are coming) Cohen, you've been fun to have on the waterfront team. Marnie (do I seriously have to rake out the beach) Feldman you are awesome... you had a huge job this summer with both Machar and waterfront and you did a fantastic job of giving both jobs 110%. Thanks again kiddo - you always kept us smiling!

To a few outstanding campers this year... Andrew (can I PLEASE do the music) Field - thanks for the awesome music at general swim!. To all of the Macharnicks in the Annual leaders course - Congrats! Good job guys! Thank you for your enthusiasm, dedication, and love of the waterfront - I look forward to hearing about when you are on waterfront staff!!

Now to move onto the boating docks... Stacey, Leah and Ari waterskiing was awesome. Thanks for keeping it safe and fun - you guys are great. Gabe and Steve... wow!!! Sailing this year was out of this world. I don't think this camp has ever seen such an organized and wonderful sailing program. Louis, Bret, and Lindsay - the kayaks were a great success this summer. Thanks for running a great dock.

Finally, moving away from the waterfront, there are a few more people I would like to thank in closing... Sheldon, the past 7 years on staff have been amazing... I have learned so much from you, had many good times with you, and will miss you very much. Bellarie, I fell in love with you over the phone before we even met... you are so wonderful - thank-you for our talks, our laughs and our times together. Marty, thanks for always being there to help with the program (that pesky music set up that I refuse to learn how to do on my own!!!) Brian - we've survived seven years on staff together - you rule Big Bossman. I love you! Moss - come HERE!!! You've done a great job with Machar. Thank you for being so supportive and fun to hang out with this summer... I'll miss you and I'll miss the cabin 11 hangout guys!

Camp Kadimah you are awesome... this is my second home and I will love it and all of you always. Have a wonderful year everybody - I'll miss you all! Remember the waterfront of '96 - the best ever and the best there ever will be. Take Care!

Love Always, Penny Dankner

Tripping / Scouting Report

Well, what can I say other than, we were cursed by the weather. It is very unfortunate that we didn't have a chance to take out more trips than we did. However, I hope everyone enjoyed themselves and maybe learned something new.

I would first like to thank Jason Lipkus. I honestly could not have done things without you. I wish you a wonderful year and I hope your shoulder gets better. Louis (LUCUS GOONACUS MAXIMUS) thank you for all your help on the trips. Especially at Indian Falls. I'm looking forward to this coming year! Louis, Bret and Lindsay, you guys did a great job with boating this summer thank you very much, the kids had a lot of fun. Les, thanks again for all the advise and I wish Ann and yourself the best of luck with everything. Matt, thanks I had a blast. Best of luck in law school and I hope we can meet up in TO. this year. Sheldon, Rinzler, Marty, Ostroff, Sobes and Matt I enjoyed taking all your money, thanks for everything. I wish everyone a wonderful year and the best of luck in all your endeavors.

TAKE CARE CAMP KADIMAH

*Love,

Boating Staff Report - By Louis Wolfson

Well, my 13th summer at Camp Kadimah is almost over. It seems as though this summer flew by especially fast, zoom, zoom, zoom (Gastineau). With the added responsibility of living without lovely little children, I think I realized a different type of camp life.

All in all the boating program of 1996, went extremely well. Most importantly I would like to thank Bret and Lindsay for making the peulot run so smoothly and making sure instruction was up to par. Even though Lindsay didn't join the staff until the first week of camp, she kept mine and Bret's heads on an even keel. She was the voice of reason, in times of trouble. Thanks Lindsay for all the little things you notice as I now have a complex. (Just joking) See you next year.

Bret, Bret, Bret, what can I say? Things worked to perfection. The milk (Homo) and cookies everyday were superb as were your one liners..a la..."I'd plow it"... "The kid loves it"... "Dix-neuf" etc. Etc. I believe we became close friends while running a well distinguished boating program which received top evaluations from all. I can't write everything down here so don't "beat me" we'll talk in the Cape with Snoop.

I almost forgot, Robbie Matlow, the elder statesman. As usual it was a blast, thank you for giving me advice, especially during the hike, you wouldn't have finished that fateful canoe hike without me, it was too bad you crashed. (Joking) Before camp was fun, remember our time slips or Carol won't pay us. See you at school and we can knock out Ben G. again.

Now I have time thank the other people who truly made my summer of 1996 truly memorable.

Penny: Thank you for running the waterfront, it was safe as always (in the Dankner era).

Brian: You will get your shirt back, you proved to be an excellent admiris trator and a good friend. However, I will not call you "Big Boss Man" in the shower

Sheldon: Thanks for the 1 on 1 advice and your concern. It was a pleasure getting to know you. Could you please do "Smokin" for a loon and I have figured out the "trip" game.

Marty: Marty, Marty you are a smarty. We got along great and i appreciated your being around, as you proved to be a level-head in times of disorder.

Ostroff: Love it, Love it, How's your Tammy? Do you want some Sudafed? It was fun if not frustrating driving with you. Love Monmany forever! The French are truly lovely in Monmary!

Soberman: Even though you left, we had a good time together. Thanks for the mattress, it feels good. Thank you for all the help during the year as well!

Matt Cohen: You are the best at whatever it is that you do. The Boys voted you for Peter Stone. The softball loss was all your fault as well as the relay race (joking) but not about the race. Take care and I will see you in T.O. and Halifax.

If I have forgotten anybody in the Head staff category, I am very sorry.

And now the moment you have all been waiting for, my serenade to Stacey.

To Stacey: Roses are red.

Violets are blue.

My name is Lou

and I love you!

For the past 3 summers I have had a steady date to the Banquet. Thanks for putting up with all the "Boys" stuff. You are the best even if you don't teach me how to slalom.

To my darling sisters, Candice and Diana, I love you guys. Candice, see you at school, we will probably drive there together. Diana, you are so cute and are a great canoer. I feel weird writing to you guys as we speak everyday. I love you and will end this part of my article on that sentiment.

TOP SECRET...TOP SECRET...THE BOYS ARE BACK IN TOWN...

Ostroff: even though there have been less meetings you are still chairman of the board. I love you. Monmany.

Scott: Sudafed Baby, say it by name. So happy you came, we had bets on you and you came through beautifully.(Sleezy, you're dirt and I love it) We had a blast both nights off. Scott, go rent the movie "Weekend at Bernie's" See you at school, don't worry Scotty, I will look after you with Rosey.

Feingold: Taran, Taran, Taran, Taran. Loved her very much. As usual Dave, we got along beautifully, Machar survived with you in a cabin afterall. So...Kudos Yankee, it was fun shooting with you before camp. The Pink family is off limits to you and yes, you and I both have problems. Speak to you frequently.

Jacob: Well Buddy, you are huge. But your calves are so small you must pull up your pants. We got closer in June, and I am thankful for that as I am sure you are....Scrumptious. Some day I will build you a dance studio with a weight room. By the way, David, myself and you all share the common problem. See at school in some capacity.

Jason: Chester, chester, chester how lucky you are to sit around and put gum in my jar. We both had a good time this summer, although you visiting me and Jonah late at night without our knowing left us a bit suspicious. You are a good friend, so you know that only kid you about things. That's what I do, joke around. So go to Chester and read a book.

Jason Altman: Last summer we became friends, this summer I can trust you with anything. Trust me that's a good thing. We had a great time together. I missed our frequent late night talks, but we did manage a few this summer. Take care Squishy and we will speak soon. Wouldn't it be neat if I called you now? Think about it, wouldn't it be freaky if I called you while you were reading this huh? Later Buddy.

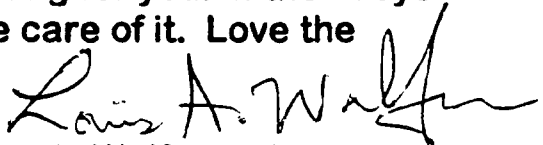

Bret: I said it all before, you are truly one of the good ones. Call Herman as it is gonna be nuts in the woods. Dix-neuf or cabin uno numero uno. Choose - no difference. Go to sweet 16 as you'll love it. You and I are going to Buffalo to see a game:

Love the tequila glass....did you leave the door open...wanna go on a mission...spray the Vapo....would you do it with Jonah's.... Speak to you soon Bret.

Jonah: Jonesy, Jo Jo, Jo, Through the decades we transpired to greatness. I would like an Oreo sandwich now, would you? Can you teach me how to look at that in the morning? Jonah, take some initiative. It's a home run. Jonah, from 1983-1996 we took control, now we pass it on to...Give it to me...Rankoo..Rankoo..Rankoo..Can you see your reflection in the ceiling? Why is that? After camp let's kick it at the Palace. You are a professional dancer from Toronto, you know.

"I know Samantha dear, I hope you are feeling fine"
Don't take any garbage, love Wheat Kings and Thunderoad. You can have the cabin tonight and August the 3rd. Love you....LATER

Peter Wagner - I think that you know how much I appreciate all of your work and I enjoy spending time with you.
It was fun getting the canoes and working for you. If the "Boys" have a problem, we know you will take care of it. Love the fishing videos.

Louis Wolfson 1983-1996

P.S. Here's a song I would like to leave Kadimah 1996 with,
"When you're down and troubled and you need a helping hand...take Sudafed, it works everytime."

Bret's boating report for 1996...

Well it all started back in 1984. Let me take you back. It was Lewis, Steve, Jonah, Morris, Lipper, Jacob, Jesse and myself. We were small with so much potential. Our years as campers were all right but when we hit staff it all changed.

Now in the 96 its just Lewis, Jonah, Lipper and me. The others didn't return for reasons beyond my control. Boys who are not here with us "I NOW SEE WHY YOUR NOT." Now as far as boating goes this year it was a well rounded program in general. Too bad Amanda Kelman isn't here, God rest her soul. We by far had the best boating year of my 13 years here. We lost a few boats in the rapids but hey its all good. We now have Kayaks they are very fun. In spite of all the weather (rain sucks) it has been a real blast this summer. On the docks it has been my best year and you know what they say always leave when things are sweet not bitter. I think the program is, and was up to par. Eagle or Bride even. We didn't take out all the trips we wanted to but you can't please everybody. I would like to thank everybody but it would take up the whole iton. So I will try to hit most of you. Those who I have missed sorry but I still love you.

To Lewis: Well as far as on a professional level things worked 100% better than I thought. We had our rough moments with higher powers but we stuck together and pulled through it with flying colors. As for everything else...you will see it in this article. I think this year we became closer than we ever were and that my friend gives me great pleasure.

To Lindsay: Hey baby all I have to say is not bad for a Rookie. You are the coolest girl I have met in a while, almost perfect. I'm glad that you became boating staff you were a huge help. Who ever got you there deserves anything that person desires. Keep taking those drops. beep beep....4hrs. You made me happy and kept a smile on my face.

To Jonah: One thing...."Your lucky you are my homie" Wow what a summer, where to start. As with what I said with Lewis, I feel closer to you as well. When you come to the Cape the real fun starts. Party. Jonah this summer we have both taken shots from everybody and their dog but we won't go down. They can never break us. Enough of the Aaron Leiff story ITS PLAYED OUT ALL READY..... What is the good word JO-JO-BEE? What else, oh yeah who in this camp likes cheese? RATS I can think of a few. We have done some serious things that really were not so serious but that is the way it goes in this camp. THE BOX SAID NOTHING BUT I SURE DO LOVE ELAINE. Stay tough Jo and don't forget to mark your hours down in gib.

To Melony: Well what can I say. You were there when I needed to talk even though I am a very mysterious person and hard to read. Your talks meant a lot to me. Thanks for a great summer. Hope to see you this year providing the funds are available. Keep in touch. Talk to ya.

To Lipper: Well another summer and you still do nothing. haha Been to chester lately? SLACKER. You have been with the boys and been in trouble with the boys but like they say always stick together no matter what. Through the year I will be in LAFFALAX often so we will party much. Hope to also see you on my island after camp and when you are there no book and Pepsi. Just whisker fish and orange drinks. You are the mother figure of the group and we may bug but you do keep us in line. Thanks boss.

Altman: Butrous, Squishy what ever it is this week. You are a class act. Always there and stuck with us through it all. In my opinion you are one of the boys. You have also been with us through thick and thin. Altman I will miss our late night talks about WHISKER FISH. It's great being us don't you think? oh oh give it to me. Good pick up on Pinkus. LAAAATER. DON'T EVER ROLL OVER FOR ANYONE, YOU AIN'T NOBODIES.....(FEMALE DOG).

Ostroff: You know how I feel about the whole situation. Thanks for the shirt. We still close and you know this man. Remember where you came from that in itself will take you places in life. You were always there for me and I will return the favor.

Penny, Rob, Sheldon etc.....THANKS THAT'S SUPER..

Ace: One of the main men in camp. Thank you. for putting up with me for the last few years. You have done alot for me and you know if you want to see the lovely Sydney Tar Ponds give me a call.

Ann: You also are the best and the main woman in camp. You know what you did and thank you very much. To the girls in the kitchen you are also very close thanks for the great times.

Loren Abrams: Told you I would mention you. You made it all happen.

Samantha Waxman: Remember what you said to me.....FIRST And believe me in a second I will be there. As I sit here watching you at Tommy practice I will say no more because I am in fear of Ostroff. Keep in touch baby.

Rosie: You have followed in the Legend's footsteps quite nicely sorry if you didn't want the trouble but like the rest of the boys we stuck through it nice and tight. If you remember anything remember this: girls come and go friends are there FO LIFE.

Steve Davidson: What a funny little guy you are. I have two lines of wisdom. 1)Blood is thicker than water. 2) Girls come and go but friends are there for you always. Listen punk you are family and I will always love you and be there for you. REALIZE THIS MAN.

Ryan Spinner: I love you man. You are the cornerstone for the second coming of the legends. Stay cool you are the boss.

To the boys of 28 of last year: Well boys sorry I couldn't be there for you so much this year but I will tell you this: I may not be here next year in body but I will be here in mind and soul. And in future years I will be back to check up on you guys stay close. If you don't you will be missing out on something special. I love all you guys.

Stacy MacLean: Well, also a funny person. Listen stacy we have had our little tiffs but remember this I've known you a long time and we will always be close. True friends don't let silly things separate them. I hope you feel the same. I'll always be there. Period.

Peter Wagner: What can I say about my father away from my real father. Peter you are the greatest. Anything you ever need and want just call or come to me. Thank you for the hospitality at your house, it meant alot. You have given your all to Lewis and I and I respect you to the fullest. Where you and I come from respect is a very large thing. Peter you are the greatest.

Well there it is folks who ever I missed I am sorry but there is a space limit. TO THOSE I MISSED PURPOSELY YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE AND WHY.

Now in conclusion there are 3 special ladies I would like to say a few words about:

Zena Haberman: Thank you for putting up with my late article. This year we really talked for the first time and I'm sorry it didn't happen earlier.

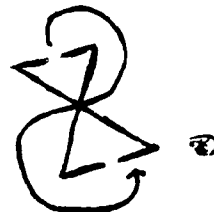

Shelby Hirsch: My best friend in the whole world. You were always there for me since we was born. I love you, thank you.

Cara Braude: Well what can I say.? I love you,. You are a funny little thing. You mean the world to me. (even though you think you don't) you made my summer complete. This isn't a sob story so listen girl, you know how I feel because I have told you. Believe this. Like they say save the best for last. It has been a fun last summer together. I love you baby.

Well as the article comes to an end I would like to put a few words of thought to the boys: SUDOFED, PETERS, I SURE LOVE ELAINE, BUTROUS, THE MISSIONS, I'D KILL IT/PLOW IT, RINZLER I DIDN'T FORGET YOU, LAAAY-TER, LATE NIGHT TALKS, CABIN 1, CABIN 4, OUR ONLY ONE CURFEW BREAK, GOGGLES, BLUE, PEAKOUT, KNIFINGS, RAPIDS, OH SAMANTHA DEAR I HOPE YOUR FEELING FINE, WHEATKINGS, TROUBLE, TAKING SHOTS, LETS SLEEP FOR 5 MINUTES, TAKE OUT, MY B-DAY THANKS TO ALL INVOLVED ESPECIALLY JONAH, TWINEY TWIN TWIN, FRIDAY, HEAVYMETAL, CLOSE FRIENDS WHO MEAN EVERYTHING TO ME, WHATS THE GOOD WORD FELLAS, THIS IS THE END.....

IT HAS BEEN A GREAT 13TH YEAR AT KADIMAH BUT LIKE I SAID IT MAY VERY WELL BE MY LAST YEAR. I WILL REMEMBER ALL THE GOOD AND THROW OUT THE BAD. I LOVE YOU ALL. THANKS FOR ALL THE MEMORIES.
LAY-TER DAYS.....!

A WEATHER REPORT FROM THE SAILING DOCKS.....

For a program that at it's heart involves sending kids out on a flat body of water with very tall lightening rods, we had an awesome summer. We had a lot of fun and most of the time the boats worked. Driving around in Super-Sonic the Crash Boat, we learned a great deal about sailing, about you, and about how to right turtled boats. We hope you learned as much.

With one windsurfer, many buddy boards, and echoes, 1 lazer, and one floating oxcart, this summer was one of the best ever. Maybe next year we'll all get to go sailing in a hurricane, but until then remember, keep your weight low and in the center of the boat. Sit forward, watch the sail and the water, worship the wind.

SKI REPORT

Rain, rain go away! Don't come back another day. Despite all of the rain this summer, life at the ski docks was eventful. Although we abandoned the aqua-board this year, we added a new member to our family. The Banana Boat, also known as the pencil, the Ski Bob, the love boat and Moby Dick. was a big hit, when the ski boat was actually running. It was so popular that almost nobody wanted to ski, but we soon changed that.

We had many first time skiers this summer who were eager to learn and successful. As well, as those old - timers who expanded their horizons in the world of ski.

The tube was over-used and therefore it broke, but it was a great ride. Many in a bathing suit lay at the bottom of Lake William thanks to the tube. Needless to say, we saw a lot of young flesh this summer. Now, it's time to thank those deserving of it. First, to Ari, an incredible assistant, without whom none of this would have been possible. You deserve the ski award most, just for being able to put up with us. On day we'll meet again at Disneyland. We're a shoe in to drive the rides. It's been fun, thanks. To our fourth staff member on the ski docks, Scotty, thanks for all your help. In our hearts, you're one of us. Brian, your next job should be at Esso, you've certainly got the "quick service with a smile" down pat. Try to stay away from the ski boat so we can avoid your curse. Watch out for those doughnuts - hold on tight. But seriously, thanks -we love you. Leah has yet to see the light at the end of the tunnel. Thanks Penny for all of your guidance and for letting us turn back time so we could return to the swim docks, we missed you. Anne, you didn't get to flip the tube, but you certainly made up for it by riding the horsie. Thanks for making us laugh and greeting us all the way from the swim docks. To Gabe, Stevie, Bret, Louis, and Lindsay, your rainy day programs "rocked our world." We know that you (Gabe) secretly moved the buoys further out each day, but you still couldn't manage to keep your boats in your generous amount of space. We love you anyways. Bret, thanks for getting out all the knots in my back. You do give the best hugs in the world. I won't soon forget your "one liners" and deep down, we know that your just a big softy. Matt, thanks for keeping us busy for all 5 peulahs everyday, we loved it! Rinzler, you were our favorite person to visit, thanks for all of the funny stories. Rob, keep smiling, you've got the best ski face of all time. To the "head of boating" (Louis). Thanks for all your guidance and support, in more ways than one. We love you lots, especially Stacey. Truly, thanks for being there. You're the best baby. To Adrian, it's been fun playing tricks on Brian. We enjoyed our candid conversations about pretty much everything. To Davina, Ilana, and Jo, we couldn't have asked for better roommates. We had our own personal alarm clock and some good times, thanks. Most importantly, to Tweedle Dee, you're great and to Tweedle Dum, you're great too. Thank you to all of our certified ski bums.

Love, Leah and Stacey.

Shirkud Report

Insight into a conversation between Heather and Jo, the great leaders of the great Shirkud peulah

J: So Heath, What do you think after your years of experience of Shirkud this summer?

H: Well Jo, I can honestly say, that Shirkud '96 rocks my world

J: Don't steal my line man

H: Well what can I say, that you rock my world?

J: Yes, but you're still stealing my line, stop it!

H: In all sincerity, despite the depressing weather we have formed an incredible team, and together we've tried and hopefully succeeded in uplifting people's spirit through our singing and dancing

J: After singing well over fifty songs in shira over the course of the summer, singing a camp wide rendition of Shir le Shalom and learning tons of new Israeli dances. I feel as if my first summer at Kadimah has been a complete one.

H: Not to mention our accomplishments where Grease is concerned.

J: Wasn't it incredible to see the very first Gib-Gosh-Kochot (with Machar & C.I.T. help) play? Despite all the hard work and long hours, it was all worth it in the end - They Rocked The House!

H: I couldn't be prouder of our cast. They put up with a lot and put on a fabulous performance in the end.

J: Bellerie, Ilana, Marty and Suzanne were awesome weren't they? I can't believe we made such a fabi team.

H: I couldn't agree more. But, there were two people that added a spark and a lot of help to the Shirkud program. I think we both feel the same way about Melanie and Sarah. We love them dearly. And I know that the Rikud program would not have been the same without them.

J: Yup, they were pretty cool, man. Don't you think the Gibbies were the coolest Greasers you've ever seen?

H: Absolutely, and with the Goshies adding a unique spirit.

J: And with the Kochotniks came a vibrance and talent that we weren't even expecting.

H: Machar brought maturity to peulah through a deeper level of understanding of the meaning within the message.

J: I've really enjoyed working with you babe. Although the sun may not reach inside the pavilion, I think the warmth poured out of it.

H: I couldn't agree more. Working with you has been both a pleasure and an incredible experience which I will never forget.

H & J: Camp Kadimah, have a wonderful year, thank you for an incredible summer!

FINE ARTS 1996

In introducing the reports for both Bama and Mel Yad, I want to begin by thanking each of the Fine Arts specialists for their hard work, dedication and professionalism.

In Bama, Ilana Heimlich brought to us at Camp Kadimah a love of Theatre, knowledge of Jewish life fabulous script writing skills and a style that is quiet yet superbly organized and prepared. We watched for that huge smile (complete with dimples), as she created the most vivid stage pictures --and always with at least 21 kids at once-- balanced in every possible interesting way, for everything from Oneg Shabbats to Grease. In peulot, Ilana used the planning we had done in Toronto before camp to best advantage --working with both scripts and improvisation to share some of the best drama education activities (from Boal to Jonathan Neelands) with us. Her Onegs speak to her enormous flexibility: for the Kochotniks, to coincide with Holocaust Day at camp, she created a piece that not only used a whole range of important Holocaust sources --in poetry and song-- but she also wrote into her script, a story from her own grandmother's experience during the Holocaust! For the 2nd Oneg, Ilana took the time to research the history of Camp Kadimah itself, so that this "Time Capsule" Oneg not only featured spoofs of head staff and Goshy staff, but also the development of the Goshrim unit as a separate entity at camp, and why they are known as "Goshrim" or "bridge builders". Her final Oneg was different again. This time, she made use of a lovely children's story entitled, The Always Prayer Shawl. She created an adaptation of the story to involve all the Gibbies in a sweet retelling of the importance of continuing Jewish traditions and an appreciation for the precious bond with grandparents. Ilana-- though we know you are headed to do some archeological study in Israel next summer, we just want you to know how much we dig YOU!! Break a leg, kiddo!

In Mel Yad, Suzanne Caines' green eyes lit up with fun and ideas as she helped to conceptualize nine major projects this summer at Camp Kadimah! A skilled artist, sensitive teacher and a graduate of NSCAD, I had only to describe the large scale project I wanted to produce, and she immediately began to suggest innovative ways to make it happen. And happen it did! We quickly found a way of bouncing ideas off one another, together working to really push ideas to their fullest. What a range and depth of projects we created this summer! We could not have managed without the help of the talented Shelby Hirsch, who kept us informed about Camp Kadimah traditions and practices and, with care and pride, made certain our space was clean and the brushes and sink spotless!

I want to highlight just a few of our special projects: the Suitcase Project was created by Machar and Kochot kids, and began as part of Camp Kadimah's annual Holocaust Day. Using the book I Never Saw Another Butterfly, each camper was given the name of an actual child who had been at Terezin concentration camp. We matched campers with a Holocaust child who had been born in the same month as their own birthdates. In this way, our campers were able to identify with a particular face and story. Their task was first to build a suitcase out of styrofoam and paper mache, and then paint it -- in this way creating a suitcase that might have belonged specifically to that child. Suzanne worked with me for hours (and hours and hours!) installing all the suitcases together into a single large scale piece. It is a moving memorial which will remain permanently in the Moadon.

Another fabulous project that, too, leaves its mark on Camp Kadimah is the "Map of Camp Kadimah" mural. After about 10 days of working on both sides of the partition up in our RCC home (kids began asking who I was gonna be that day-- Bama or Mel Yad!), I grew tired of the bare walls. It occurred to me that the sliding panels could serve as a perfect 'canvas' for a full scale project. Not only that, but it would be great if it could be something that might involve the whole camp! So we asked all the kids to make drawings of camp life. These were saved --everything from the Gibbies, Goshrim, Kochot, Machar, CIT's and even some staff, who kept popping up to see what we were up to and what progress we had made! Wethen reproduced the drawings directly up onto the newly whitewashed panels (thanks to Jen Miller and the CIT crew!). From the gorgeous simplicity of the Gibbies' sun and high tower, for example, to the sophistication of the RCC or bridge, every one in camp took part in creating this lively, colourful work of art. If they didn't contribute by drawing images, then they were invited to help paint the mural. Less experienced participants painted the large blocks of water or grass, while the artists among us worked on the more complex boats or cabins. And to be certain of following the developing patterns of colour, they painted always under the watchful supervision of Shelby, Suzanne or I --during peulot or chugim, or even in the evenings or during rest periods when people came up to the RCC wanting to work on the mural. Everyone knew we were working to create something really special! The final result is a beautiful and vivid tribute to Camp Kadimah by our own Camp Kadimah community!

Finally, the theme of identity has been a very strong one this summer. From contemporary Jewish identity in response to the Holocaust in the Suitcase Project, to the detailed "Alone in Your Bedroom" figures; from the representations of the self in the Hands and Feet canvases (based on an idea from a book compiling the best of Canadian university instructors' visual arts projects) to the wooden wall plaques; from creating identities in the magnificent clay heads to representing ourselves through plaster cast "dinosaur" hands. Each project has given us a chance to discover ways of representing ourselves and who we are.

Clearly, 1996 has been a very full summer here for Fine Arts at Camp Kadimah. About 2 1/2 weeks into camp, Sheldon Cohen remarked that we would soon have every wall of every building at Kadimah covered with art! There is some truth in that! The many amazing projects are a real accomplishment (not to mention the stunning Visitors Day Mel Yad display of the work this year!). I am so delighted to have been surrounded by excellence. One of the highlights for me has been the number of kids who looked at their bedroom figure, or their head and said "wow-- I've never made anything good in art before". I love these moments of recognition! Of course, they were right, the calibre of the work has been outstanding!

Finally, my introduction would not be complete without mentioning our show, Grease. Marty and I came to camp prepared to do the play strictly with Macharniks. However, in the effort to accommodate Machar's programme, we actually ended up creating history! For the first time ever, we mounted a production that involved every single unit in camp! And, because Maccabia was moved up due to RAIN RAIN RAIN, we somehow had to manage to pull Grease together in just 10 days! We did it! The result was that we saw Gibbies as Jr. Pink Ladies and T-Birds; Macharniks (and one Kochotnik!) in the band; Machar, CIT's, Kochot and Goshies on crew; and Kochot and Goshrim as our chorus, dancers and actors! Many many thanks to all the kids who gave up their rest periods and general swims, even when the sun finally came out! I'm sure you know that the creative "team" that put this show together is a team to remember: the huge spirit and voice of the ever cool ("rock my world") Jo Sky (otherwise known as Joanna Mirsky); the scene study skills of our own Ilana Heimlich; the technical and musical skills of Marty (you're the one that I want) Zatzman; the dancing dreams of Heather Devlin (with special thanks to Sarah Damelin) and sets by Suzanne and Shelby and their Chug crew! It was a pure delight to push prod encourage design yell kvetch and laugh with this talented bunch!

Always Be Together!

BAMA REPORT 1996

It has only been a few weeks since I first came to Camp Kadimah and already it is time for reflection. It seems like only a few days ago I was planning for the summer. Then the time arrived. The campers came and Peulot began.

Firstly, this year at Camp Kadimah, I am proud to say that Bama is a part of a greater department known as the Fine Arts department. You'll usually find us in the RCC. Over the past 6 weeks the RCC has become like a home to me. It is a place that has seen a lot of excitement, dramatically speaking.

As Bama, I have the wonderful opportunity of getting to know each section in a different way. In Bama we become other people, go to different places and learn things about ourselves that we never knew. It is a time for fun, learning and above all discovery. Gibbies, you make storytelling and tableau so much fun. However, Goshies we will always be able to Bopety Bop Bop with the best of 'em. Kochotniks, you've come a long way, from hot seat to conflict to what should you do? Machar, your "hunting" skills are impeccable, I would trust you on a Trans-Siberian Express anyway!

Most memorable to me this summer in Bama would have to be Oneg Shabbats. Taking an idea and watching the kids work, and seeing them shine on Friday nights made my week. When you remember our Bama Onegs of '96 always think of:

- 1) Kochot: Holocaust Oneg, 4 groups "sit on the masking tape line. Not behind it or in front of it"!
- 2) Goshrim: Ostroff auditions, Time capsule items, the 10 Commandments!
- 3) Giborim: Adam and Hammah-- even though Adam is the only one in the story! And if you forget a line... make it up!

A special thanks goes out to Ian Epstein for being the LOUD VOICE behind the Kochot Oneg; Anna Kazner for your love of Bama and of course statue games; and finally, Belarie Zatzman. You are my teacher, my friend and my rock. Thank you so much for giving me lifelong gifts. Thank you Camp Kadimah for loving Bama and for always "going with it".

GREASE 1996

FROM: ILANA HEIMLICH

Penny: "Any announcements?"

Matt: "There will be a Grease rehearsal during rest period and general swim".

How familiar did this phrase become to those involved in Camp Kadimah's production of Grease? In only 10 days, Giborim, Goshrim, Kochot, Machar and CITs worked together with a team of Directors to put on a show that was unforgettable. With a live band let by Marty Zatzman the show was really a hit! The singers shone under the tutelage of Joanna Mirsky. The dancers stole the stage with dances choreographed by Heather Devlin. The actors took us back in time with their "greaser" attitudes as a result of many a rest period with Ilana Heimlich. The set came to life with the backdrops which were painted onto huge flats by Suzanne Caines. To make sure the four of us had everything under control was Belarie Zatzman. From designing the set to giving notes to moving planks for stages or arranging rehearsal schedules, Belarie was always there.

Songs featured in this version of Grease were:

Grease is the Word, Summer Lovin', Sandra Dee, Grease Lighten', Hopelessly Devoted to You, There Are Worse Things I Could Do, Hand Jive, You're the One That I Want and We Go Together.

Kids of Scene 12 always remember "Godzilla", "bug collection for biology" and Harris' "maybe we can go for a COKE or something?". Special thanks goes out to: Naomi Levitz --"you have one of the hardest jobs". You were a lifesaver. Naomi Herman-- keep on lighting up stages! Andrew Fields -- for being there all the time to handle our sound needs (hey, next dance maybe we'll hand jive?!). Perry Silverberg-- what can we say, you are priceless! Ace Venoit -- for hanging curtains, cutting out the car for us and always fixing our toilet and sink! Elana Zatzman and Yolana Wassersug --you girls were always there when we needed you -- and then some! Sarah Damelin -- you voluntarily joined the craziness and did a wonderful job. Jon Born and Jon Greenwald --you guys can put Marlboro out of business with your cigarettes. Anna Silver -- your voice is ... how you say... magnifique! To everyone else, thank you and we love you. To the Gibbies, you guys RULE. To all the cast and crew, well what can we say?

A WOP BABA LU MOP AHH WOP BAM BOOM!

FROM: JO SKY

In the beginning, I was afraid that the first gib-gosh-kochot-machar play wasn't going to make it. I can admit it. I was scared. The band was too loud, I couldn't hear the chorus, Danny needed help with the low notes and Kenickie needed help with the high ones. Suddenly I heard Summer Lovin' in center field and the band was so tight they were a Pink Lady sweater and we were rolling. To the Grease cast, you were truly amazing, and as musical director, I have never had a prouder moment. Thank you to all cast and crew and to those Macharniks, staff and CITs who made it work. Belarie, Heather, Ilana, Marty, Suzanne, we could not have made a better team. Grease, you rocked my world!

FROM: HEATHER DEVLIN

It is hard to believe that Grease has come and gone so quickly. During the endless hours of preparation I'm sure we all thought the end would never come, but now that it has come to an end, I know that I want some parts of it back. I miss working with the "Grease Team". Belarie, not only was it a wonderful opportunity to work with you because of your experience, but it was also a pleasure. You always seemed to provide the emotional support necessary to carry on with our hard work. Ilana, I must say that I am very impressed with you. After all these years of knowing you, I had no idea that you were so talented. Jo, I think that everything was said in our report- I love you! Suzanne, the sets were absolutely amazing! However, a special "I Love You" goes to my beautiful dancers. I think you all know how proud I am of you. Yes, Grease 96 rocked!

MEL YAD 1996

Mel Yad will be remembered for all the hard work and effort that went into the many projects in the summer of 1996. For the Gibbies the third Temple project was milked to perfection (doves flew the coop???) while Kochot and Machar discovered their inner selves through the hands and feet canvas piece. The Goshrim section, prevailed over extinction by enduring slimy Vaseline in order to create their dinosaur hands project which will live on forever in Camp Kadimah. Although many of you had nightmare of coiled heads collapsing, you persevered and came up with intriguing and unique clay heads.

Some of you realized that Mel Yad was not only for art but also a structural way to relieve your frustrations. This recognizable energy flowed into developing the mosaic archway in honour of Jerusalem 3000. Going back to our roots, we found a connection with people from our past where we acknowledged their struggles in the Suitcase Project, as a Holocaust remembrance piece. To unify all sections, the campers put together a Kadimah mural, which will always stand to represent the great summer of 1996. Special thanks goes to Perry Silverberg for all of his hard work on the Grease sets and the Hands and Feet canvases. The camp mural would not have been done without the help of Jessica, Jo Mirsky, Michele, Debbie and Jen Miller. To all the CIT girls that were "slave driven" Jessica Greenbaum, Marla Loftchick, Adina Berkal, Jen Showsternman and Pazit Gaul we give many thanks.

And last but certainly not least, I personally want to thank Shelby Hirsch for the use of her plaid shirt that was permanently on me this summer!

Although Suzanne, you wouldn't agree to give me a set of keys, those hectic walks at rest period made up for it!

And to Belarie: for all the late nights, explosive firings and map drawings I am forever indebted to you. I'm glad you'll always know there was someone at camp with who to create grand visions! Keep cool and always create!

After all is said and done, this summer 'geads and bimp' were always a fave. Sorry guys there's none left!!!

Giborim Section Song

To the tune of "Hakuna Matata" - The Lion King

Giborim, what a wonderful group
Gib '96, ain't no better troupe
We have no worries, our ruach lasts us all day
We're almost problem free, on the ABC,
Gibbie '96

Well, You think we're cute and small
We're really strong and loud!!

And on Lake Willaim
Where we ski and swim
With Adrien and Davina
We will never fail
So step aside, Gosh Kochot & Machar
Gibbies are here to stay,
We're gonna have fun and play
At Kadimah '96

Gib-orim, Gib-orim, Gib-orim, Gib

We have no worries, our ruach lasts us all day
We're almost problem free
On the ABC
Gibbie '96

Giborim Section Head Report

Giborim, what a wonderful group. Gib '96, ain't no better troupe! The beginning of our section song couldn't be more true. With only 4 returning gibbies from last summer and 19 new gibbies, we truly formed a dynamic group.

From the spirit and excellent sportsmanship during maccabia, to the seriousness of our Tisha Ba'av talk, our fun and sun at Rizzers beach was so excellent that we stayed too long to go to the Dairy Cone.

We all had a blast on Hagganah night, as well as on Machar day. And eventhough we had so much rain and so little swimming, we still managed to have fun on all the regular days too.

To Charisse and Lena, I told you staying till the end of camp would be worthwhile. To Barbara, your Forest Gump silliness is very cool. To Tanya B and Shira, are the two of you attached at the hip? To Natasha F, those eye drops for pink eye sure are refreshing, aren't they? To Samahra, you have such a cute family. To Tonya J, ain't is not a word! To Alyssa, your smile and cheerfulness was always a pleasure. To Natasha B, you are too funny. To Stephanie, you are cute and unsuspecting, but I know your tricks. And to all of Cabin B, thanks for letting me in on your "boy talks".

To the boys of cabin C, with Adam's bear, Josh's shmoltzing, Aaron's messiness and Homer Simpson spins, Jesse's moving to Goshrim, Daniel's affection, Mikey's "I'm alone sitting in the forest, yeah, yeah, yeah, " Nathan's wrinkled tummy, Jordan's surprising enthusiasm in doing the Gibby oneg, Eric's quarter bed and sour soothers, Mark's clean clothes and hyperness, and Jeremy's great imagination. You guys are great and a challenge at times.

To Lindsay, Neely, Adi, Celine, Ari, Matt, and Ami, I know it's been a difficult summer. However, through our tough days we managed to keep the kids happy and that's the most important aspect of the summer. I really do appreciate all your hard work and eventhough I didn't tell you too many times throughout the summer, you guys did an excellent job. Thank-you. It's the consellers that really make the kids' summer.

There are many other people I must also mention in my article for various reasons. Sheldon, I know we had a few disagreements this summer but overall I think we understood each other and where we were coming from.

Freda, thanks for the daily laundry. To JasonLipkus (I like Jason), I know you are very, very, modest, but please, accept the fact that you have been a huge help in Gibby-land. Thank you for all the time you spent with us. The kids really do like Jason.

To Jo and Jess, you guys were also a great help with the girls. They loved spending time with you. All the infirmary trips that you guys made after meals were greatly appreciated.

Rob, I know you didn't have much choice in coming to Giborim, but I'm glad you did. What would Jeremy have done if his older brother hadn't taught him to make his bed so well?

Penny, thanks for all the advice and for listening to my worries and complaints.

Matt, you are easy to work with. No matter what time it is or how little notice I give you, you were always willing to accomodate my section!. Maccabia and Boker Yakov couldn't have come at better times.

To Heather and Ann, I missed seeing you guys this year! What happened to our time? It seemed we only met when we went to visit Boss.

Which brings me to Boss. How did you sleep last night, Boss? Were your sheets a little short? Or were there bagels in your bed? Or did you wake up only to find your underwear in mailboxes inside the office? Thanks for the Shabbat flowers and the food. By the way, my fire buckets are filled, lights are turned off, cobwebs are down and my clotheslines are cleared.

Girls of Cabin 21, I don't feel as though I spent nearly as much time in the cabin with you guys as I would have liked. But the times we just sat around and laughed were great. Those are the times that make camp what it is.

Leah, you are a new found friend. All the time we spent thinking of new things to do to Brian. All the times we sat and talked about, well, not too much. Thanks for some good pranks.

Jenn, I'm so glad you loved your C.I.T.s this summer. I missed you. I missed working with you and I missed spending all day together. This was our first summer in eleven summers that we weren't together! That's crazy. But change is good Davina, Fido, Tsk, Aunt Jamima, D, whatever you want to be called. You're the best. What would my summer have been without you by my side? It could have been disasterous. But no we worked our butts off and I think we did an excellent job. I'm so glad we got a chance to work together again and to spend so much time together.

This brings me to Robin and Jason Altman, Between maccabia, complaining, rainy day programming, and section head meetings, where did we find the time to do our jobs? I'm not sure, but we managed to squeeze it all in. I'm sorry I missed all your late night meetings, but I need my 7 or 8 hours of sleep. It's been fun.

Jason, you're the best cousin in the world! I love working with you, I love spending time and hanging out with you and hopefully, I'll get a chance to love travelling in England with you (if we ever get a chance to plan things). I love you!

*Adrien Adler
1986-1996*

Adrien Adler

Imagine a peaceful community, one made up of 21 innocent children and 9 patient staff. The members of this family always get along, always treat one another with respect, and always clean up without being asked. When it rains they cheer with joy because they know the replenishment and nourishment of their precious earth depends on this precipitation from the heavens. The community supports the existence of and discourse between a variety of political viewpoints. Most importantly, this group understands the value of good table manners. "Please" and "thank you" are always heard at meal times and the children would never ever do anything but calmly wait to be served by their consellers.

Sound familiar? Maybe not, but Giborim is still the best section in camp. Where else but Gibbyland can kids spend hours on end playing tetherball without a ball(tether-rop), sliding down the same slide, and playing atternasports. Gibbies are incredible because they're imaginative, willing to have fun without worrying about what other people think, and above all they're honest. Each and everyone of you added something to our section: Aaron-the sound of your squeal will stay with me for the rest of my life Jeremy-services just wouldn't have been the same without your original Adon Olam tunes. Nathan-Tsk on you! You finally stopped tickling me. I love your birdcalls! Adam- You tackled me during the first couple of days of camp! Thank you for always being so polite at meals (seriously)

Eric- You're a great kid. I'm so glad I got to know you better this year. Tsk! Mikey- What a talented song writer: "I'm alone in the forest..." You chew gum a lot. Daniel-Tsk on Lauren and Tsk on Rachel. You're a funny guy. O.K. I'll lie down with you. Josh-stop shmaltzing. And yes, I'll say goodnight to you last. Marky-I still don't believe you remembered me from two years ago. Thanks for the nicknames. Jordan-Whenever I think of you I'll imagine you in blue. I love your laugh! Stefanie-too bad Laura wasn't here this summer. I know we both missed her. Don't smile! Alyssa-Want to play spit? You are always fun to be around. Thanks for being so great. Makeup sucks! Natasha F.- You were so good about the pink eye. Yes, you can have a piggyback. Take care Natash. Tanya B.- I know that you've thought that I'm weird since the first day of camp. But I'll scratch your back anyways. Shira-You're so agreeable and you have cool pens, you and Tanya are a cute pair. Charisse-I'm so glad you stayed and I know you feel the same way. Lena-our nickname idea really didn't work out. To bad our names rhyme. Nailpolish on boys?! Natasha B.-What a talent- you can make people laugh just by laughing. Hahahaahahaha. Samahra-you and Sayanna remind me of my sister and I, 10 years ago. So cute. Barbara-I won't call you Barb! Why do I always think you're from Toronto? Tonya J - I love the haircut. Stay out of my private life!

To the staff - I know we had some hard momomnts but ultimately the kids did have fun. I hope you did too. Neely, Adi, Celine, and Lindsay - you guys are great with those girls. Thanks for keeping them so happy. Ami, Matt, and Ari - the boys really are a handful (especially at bedtime). You all learned to be patient.

Adrien - you're the best! I loved working with you this summer. You're one of the most honest people I've ever known and I respect you so much, as a friend and a co-worker. Three years in Gib together and we still haven't learned have a conversation without "What? I can't hear you" at least ten times. Have a wonderful, wonderful year. I'm jealous that you and Lizzie will be in Halifax together without me. I love you Ade!

To everyone else who made my summer special - you have no ides how much you mean to me. I don't think it's necessary to write a message to each of you. Just remember how much I'll miss you this year, and come visit! One exception - Beck, I love you and I'm thrilled that you decided to come this summer. See you at the grumps, chuck.

*OK. Time to end this. Bye everyone. See you in Toronto, Montreal, or Philly.
Take care.*

Love Always,

Davina Fido

P.S. Leprechauns unite!

Kayakers Go Bye-Bye

Once at Camp Kadimah two boys decided to go kayaking at open waterfront. There was one left because they were so popular. We'll take this one" they said. "Well there's only one left" Louis the head of boating said.

By: Eric Goldberg and Josh Spatz

I like swimming because I like the water. My teacher's name is Candice, she is nice. I enjoy swimming and playing games with my friends.

By: Mickey Fox

The Waterfront

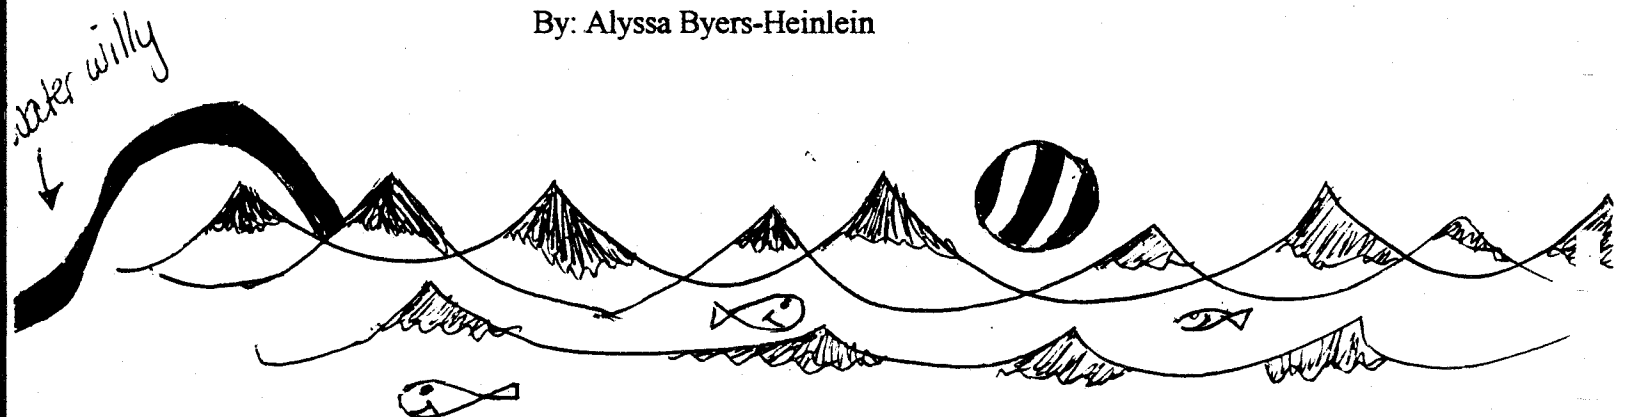

I always have to get in by the ladder. Nathan never wants to get in but sometimes he does. I always "TSK" to Rebecca. Rebecca is nice and loud. Sometimes Fido comes with us and interrupts the whole swimming class. The water's always cold. Sometimes we only stay in the water for not that long. Sometimes I like the water but not always. I always (mostly) need a flutter board. The End.

By: Daniel Cohen

SWIM

The water at Lake William is sometimes warm and sometimes cold, but it is better then it was at the beginning of camp. My swim instructor is Zena. I am in the color blue. Zena is the best instructor in the whole world. My favorite toy when we have general swim is the tube. I love the eye baths they give, I ask for two of them or more. My favorite person that gives the eye baths is Adi.

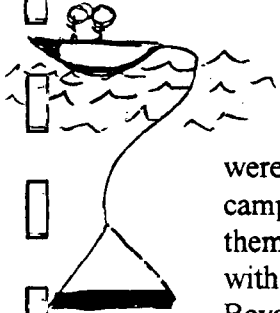

By: Alyssa Byers-Heinlein

My Favorite Things to do at Camp Kadimah

I love water-skiing, well not really water skiing but going on the banana. We were flying, I had so much fun, I was flying in the air! Well, another thing that I like at camp is MelYad, where we do art, lots of crafts and we mold clay and after we paint them if we want and lots of other stuff! We do art with Shelby and Suzanne. I like sports with Jessica-Jess. When it is raining we have sports in the Ulam. We play Kings Court. Boys against girls and some times gibbies against staff! FUN! Well, that's all for now.

WHAT A BEST FRIEND IS

Best friend poem dedicated to Charisse Roza:

B is for best
E is for elegant
S is for super
T is for talent

F is for friend
R is for related
I is for I missed that very best friend a lot
E is for exciting
N is for neat and cool
D is for death-breaking body

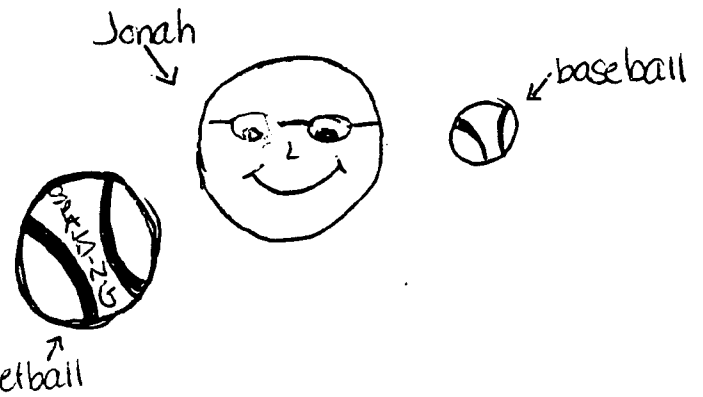

And a Best Friend is someone you can trust as long as you live Best Friends Forever!!

By: Natasha Budovitch

At Camp Kadimah sports are cool
There is lots to do for everyone
But most of all, King's Court is the best
It's better than all the rest
Jonah and Jess are so cool
That is why sports rule!

SPORTS

By: Barbara Airst

Swimming, arts and crafts, drama, water-skiing and sports and my friends who are Charisse, Shira, Tonya, Lena, Samahra, Alyssa, Natasha, Steffi and Barbara., are my favorite things about camp.

By: Tanya Baggaley

My name is Eric Goldberg. My nick name is RICE. I live in Cabin C with 9 typical people. My favorite thing to do in camp is sports. Well I like eating but that's not active. I was here last year too. I love camp.

By: Eric Goldberg

The thing I like most about camp is the friends because they're fun to play with and just super to help with your problems. To all my friends I dedicate names. 1. Giggle box-Stefanie Covens. 2. Laughing sound machine-Natasha Budovitch 3. Early birds-Shira LeVine. 4. bunk armelessa-Alyssa Byers-Heinlein 5. hypermaniac-Tanya J. 6. Jumping jelly-Barbara Airst. 8. Giggle puss- Natasha F. 9. night owl-Charisse Roza 10. tickle cat-Tanya Baggely 11. friendship girl- Samarha Zatzman

By: Samahra Zatzman

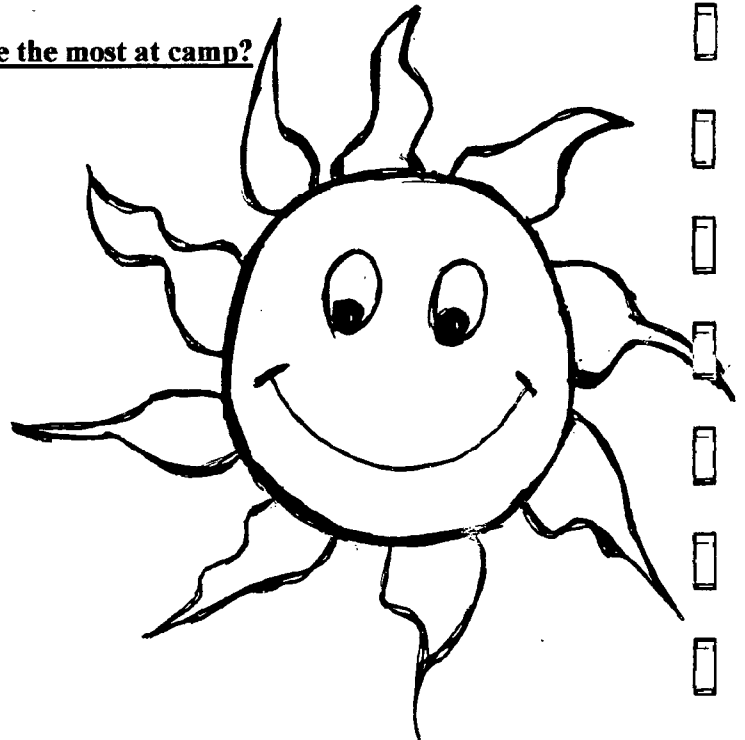

My favorite thing is making friends. Here is a poem about my friends:
Shira is always first in bed, Tanya B., is late for supper. Barbara's always jumping and jolly. Alyssa is always lots of fun! Stefanie is always very funny. Lena's always very serious. Natasha F is like me. Samara has a good heart. Charisse is fun. Last but not least, me I am very funny.

ALYSSA GOES TO CAMP KADIMAH

When I first got to the parking lot I met four people and now we are really good friends. I was hoping to choose a bed but the names were put on the beds. I think I got the best bed in the cabin because there is lots of space on my top bunk. The first week was the hardest for me, especially at night. But after the first week it wasn't hard at all. We play lots of fun games. I like soccer, water-skiing and baseball. The water was very cold at first but after my dad sent me a wetsuit it was not cold at all. It rains a lot. My favorite grown up in the camp is Jessica the sports leader. My favorite place in the camp is the Counselor's Lounge. My parents called twice- the second time I did not want to talk to them. I got five packages and at least 13 letters in two weeks. I went to one other Camp before Kadimah. I didn't like the other camp as much as Camp Kadimah. It was called Camp Gelbern. The water was much colder. I like the food at Camp Kadimah. I like every single meal except one, but it isn't on the menu anymore. I love evening programs. All of our counselors are very tired by the end of the day. I like the red bug juice and the purple but not the orange. I wish they had showers in the cabins and I wish that the cabins were bigger. Everybody wishes they were bigger. I got the best counselors this year. THE END.

By: Alyssa Byers-Heinlein

WHAT I LIKE ABOUT CAMP

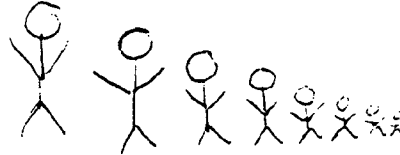

There are lots of things I like about Camp. Sports, swimming, singing, dancing, but I like swimming the most, the water is warm, it is fun. Bye-Bye.

By: Aaron Cohen

Why I can't choose a favorite thing at camp

There are so many things that are fun. I like baseball and soccer and swimming and water skiing (even though I can't get up) and arts and crafts and gimp and beads and drama and song and dance and sports and I guess that is everything. Oh I forgot a few things ping pong and rest period and tennis and gaga and scouting and to bed first and even clean up. I like the socials and I now I'm going to like the banquet, and that's why I can't choose.

By: Alyssa Byers-Heinlein.

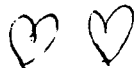

What it's like to be a ginnie in Grease

Well you don't only get to have your own part and all ginnies even the ones that didn't sign up get to be in it. We get to do 1 song and 1 dance with a song. 1 at the beginning and 1 at the end. But it's very fun and we never stay for the whole rehearsal so it's a surprise at the actual show. For song and dance we rehearse for grease. I wonder why it is called Grease? We had to wear pink shirts and black pants. I did not have any pink shirt so I had to borrow someone's.

By: Alyssa Byers-Heinlein

I like camp a lot. It is fun. I love someone in Cabin B. It is fun swimming. And water skiing. I like sports and boating. I like camp. I like some girls in cabin B. I love someone in cabin B. And she is very nice. I like her very much. I like all the boys.

My Dumb Counselor Named Davina

She has many funny nicknames; Fido, TSK, Aunt Jemima, and French Fry. She fell asleep at the movie and then when it was over she said she liked it. I like Matt's nicknames; Supercow, Super, Cow, Da Cow. My nickname is Dan the Man. Adrien's Nickname is Adi. My counselor named Ari dances funny and shakes his bum. He's a silly counselor. Jesse likes to bark. He sleeps underneath me. I'm not a troublemaker and I like photography too. I like French Fry's camera. I like the word TSK. I always say "Tsk on Rebecca"

By: Daniel Cohen

CABIN C

Cabin c is a cool place
Neat and fun, a real pace
Cabin C is really neat
And at night you always get a treat.

The counselors are really nice
And Mark is really afraid of lice
Jesse thinks he's hard and tame
And Jordan's good at card games

Eric always wants his hope
Aaron got bumped with a rope
Mickey's doing what-so-ever
And Nathan hasn't been here ever

Jered is getting to know all these places
And Daniel sees a whole bunch of new faces

And when I will have to leave
I'll be carrying all the memories
So now I am glad to be with the boys of Cabin C!!

By: Jeremy Matlow

When I came to camp the kids said their names. I liked their names, a lot. On Sunday I stayed over-night it was good. I liked it, it was fun. I liked the kids a lot, I was in Cabin B I was happy Mom was the cook. I like Mom's cooking it was fun- really really fun!

Dear Bellery, Heather, Jo and Ilana,
Grease was a great play - How did you put it together?...I don't know but it was great.

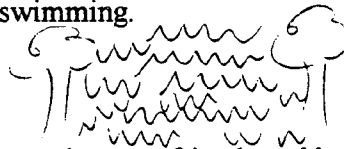

From, Charisse Roza

My favorite thing is Mel Yad because I like playing with arts and crafts, and I also like tzofiu and boating because I also like camping and I like going half on water and half on the float.

By Stephanie Covens

My favorite thing about camp is the activities. My favorite activity is swimming because when it is hot, I feel like going swimming.

By Shira LeVine

My favorite thing about camp is meeting new friends and having fun and my favorite things to do are boating, swimming, and MelYad. I like to meet new friends because if I didn't meet any friends, I wouldn't have anyone to play with and I wouldn't have any fun. I like boating because it's fun and sometimes it's challenging; I love challenging things! I like swimming because it's fun and sometime refreshing when it's nice and hot outside. I like Mel Yad because in Kindergarten I used to do a lot of arts and crafts and I just loved it!

By Natasha Fransblow

The first summer and the first day I met some friends. I thought that maybe camp wouldn't be so great because I was new. But I was wrong. I like playing cards with my new friends.

What is a Best Friend?

A Best Friend is someone you can count on. They're someone you can trust! A poem dedicated to best friend Natasha Budovitch.

B is for best
E is for elegant
F is for friend
T is for talented
C is for cool
N is for neat
F is for fun
S is for sitting by her at every meal.
That is my poem for Natasha Budovitch. That is what best friends are for.

Best Friends Forever !!

By: Charisse Roza

Dear Cabin B,

My final decision to come to camp this summer and to work with the Giborim section made me both scared and excited. I wondered if you would like me and if this summer would be a success. You girls have made my first summer as a staff member one that I will never forget. You are an amazing group of girls who are each filled with your own special spirit and ongoing energy. Never forget our special boy talks and quiet times with Under the Woods. Girls, you have kept me on my feet through rain and shine. Good luck in the future in both home and camp life. I hope to see you all next summer at Kadimah '97.

I love you all,
Love always,
Neely Lerman

WHY I LIKE.....

The playground - because the slides go fast and the monkey bars are fun
The swing - because it is fast and fun and you can bring stuff on it
The evening programs - because of the ones where Jonah ate chocolate sandwiches and when the boys dressed up the girls and Haganah night.
The view - because of the lake, the RCC, the main sportsfield, auxiliary sports field and the bonfire site
The swims - because of general swim, instructional swim, canoeing, paddle boating, banana boating
The tetherball court - because it is fun!!
My cabin - because of my bed, my friends, my counselors and my jobs
My toys - because of cards, A.K.O, Scrabble, my walkman and tape
Extra Time - rest period, in between every peulah, evening program, general swim
Jobs - because of sweep\dustpan, toranut, clothesline
Chugim - because of Grease, gimp and beads, baking and photography
Camp Food - because of lasagna, macaroni and cheese, pizza, cereal, muffins and subs Snacks - because of popsicle, sundaes, cake and cupcakes.

FRICKLE

Hi! My name is Eric and I'm writing this iton article with Adrien. Last year Adrien used to call me Frick. But this year she calls me Frickle. Neither of us really know why she calls me Frickle, she just does. Maybe she calls me Frickle because I am fickle. Maybe not. I love camp and so does Adrien. The End.

JASON

JASON

We don't know why he doesn't like it when we say, "I like Jason". But, it's fun, and we like Jason. Jason hangs out with us a lot. There are sunflower seed shells all over gibbieland from Jason. We don't mind though, because we like Jason. Sometimes, Jason is a meany because he won't wiggle like Jonah when we ask him to. Jason has yellow shoes and weird brown shoes too. We also like teasing him about his last name, Lip-Kiss. Tzofiut is so much fun because we like Jason (we like Rob too). WE LIKE JASON. WE LIKE JASON. WE LIKE JASON. WE LIKE JASON.

GOSHRIM SECTION SONG

To the tune of "Foot loose" - Kenny Logans

This summer, so cool
Two months no school
Come join our flock,
We're going to show
you how to rock

This camp is shakin'
With Goshies jumpin' around
Don't think we're faking,
We're gonna make the earth pound
Stomp Stomp Stomp Stomp Stomp

CHORUS:

Everybody dig
Goshrim, Goshrim
Tear off your towels and swim
Please don't tease, give us pizza with a lot of cheese
One great 4 - 8
Just old enough to date
Rim
Goshrim
Everybody dig Goshrim

We're not the Brady Bunch
Stale pretzels make a loud crunch
At Shirkud we dance and sing,
Our clothes have no static cling

With Rach and Jason
Our section's charting new ground
So don't try chasing those Goshies painting the town
Stomp Stomp Stomp Stomp Stomp

Chorus
Oh Oh Oh Clap Clap Clap Oh Oh Oh

Everybody dig, everybody dig - (girls)
Everybody dig, everybody dig - (boys)
Everybody dig Goshrim! - (all)

Goshrim and Other Peoples

Camp is a funny place where funny people do funny things. Goshies are funny. Goshies have spunk. Goshies rock the world of some individuals. Some individuals talk to rocks. Some individuals are not mentally stable. However, Goshies are usually mentally stable. This is a definite asset when running a section. An entire section of lively, bouncing, kids. Goshies are quite possibly the happiest people in camp. From this broad, general, somewhat exaggerated blanket statement, I have come up with a theory or thesis if you will. Everyone wants to be a Goshie. There, you see? Very simple. Case in point, I am a big Goshie. Think about it a Goshie world is very simple. Things are fun or they smell. Sports are good, while swim instruction is always cold. Swim = leeches. It's the way things work. Trust me, I know. Grilled cheese is good, while pizza = cereal. On a side note, I feel it was a beneficial executive decision to bring back grilled cheese. People like it. Anyway, once you get older, you only get hairier, and things get more complicated. Girls look at you funny, and you smell worse than ever before. It just gets messy. Life is all about playing Monopoly, having water fights, dressing up like big girls, Bridge tournaments, banquet dates, and really long safety pin chains. Where else can 7 boys sleep in one bed to protect each other from Ansin Miner.

We have now reached the point in the article that doesn't exist anymore. It used to exist. I thought it was quite good actually. The computer however had somewhat of a difference of opinion and decided to delete my work from the hard drive. Super. To my assistant section head who thought for the longest time before this year that I didn't like her. Silly Rachel. Love love. I think everything worked out just fine. Now I would like to let my staff know that they should keep on rockin' in the free world, shave their heads, grunt and spit a lot, and go out to buy a Harley. Thanks. Overall, we played some sports, went to Grease, went to swim, when we didn't have Grease, went to Shirkud and sang Grease, went to meals and ate a lot of grease, which didn't leave much time for showers, so the kids were often greasy. Love Grease.

Wisdom is nonsense that makes sense. If your going to drop it, drop it jelly side up. Footprints in the sand aren't made by sitting down. Even if you make a nice home for it with rocks, and twigs, and leaves, and things, the caterpillar will still try to get out of the jar. Squeak ... squeak ... give it to me ... squeak. I think it is about time we had some words with Butrous Butrous. Come on, just one more hand. Low in the hole. I recently took a class in early 80's terrorism. Love the repeatedly unexpected visitor. To the late nighters. Love Fraggie Rock. Gordan Marachino is the leading pioneer in his field. Why don't we just have Maccabia? Good idea. Jay, why don't you just lead the fishing chug? Super. BYE cake. Nice touch. Snackov. Boker Yakov. It's 3:00 a.m. I think I should go back. Love late night.

A wise man once told me that time would take its toll and all good things would come to an end. I kicked him in the teeth. Pessimists are so negative. Obvious but true. I am all for optimism. Things are good. If someone stabs you in the spleen with a spatula, deal with it. Things could be worse. They could put on Grease 2. Some people have really nasty rashes. You don't. Some people rolled around in a variety of plant life to get those rashes. You didn't. Smile. Life is good.

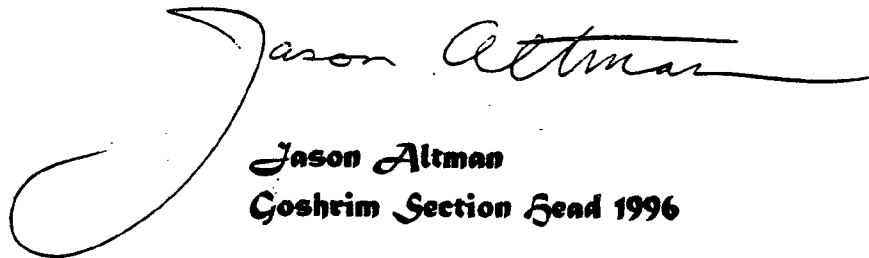

Now some poetry. Kick it.

As I write this, people eat snack.
Wondering if I should come back.
Remembering, how long it took me to pack.
Putting all my clothes in a great big sack.
Wearing big pants to cover my butt crack.
Refilling my prescription of lovely Prozac.
Reading a book by Jack Kerouac.
Damn drunk drank to much cognac.
Someone should have given him a smack.
Riding in my pink Cadillac.
Really craving a greasy Big Mac.
Wondering if I should paint my cabin black.
Would I receive a load of flack.
Or would they cut me some slack.

Or gather a big army and plan an attack.
Maybe I'll just hide and live in a shack.
Change my name to Zack.
And become a Lego maniac.
Try and find that in an almanac.

In closing, a few words to live by. Two's company. Three's a crowd. Four is an adult movie. Rock on.

Spread the love around,

Jason Altman
Goshrim Section Head 1996

The Life of a Goshrim Assistant Section Head

After spending two years in the cramped confines of Giborim, I broke free, along with 15 of you, into the world of Goshrim. Though we still have momentary longings for the beloved playground, we all looked toward this move with excitement. And oh, the changes that accompanied the move.

For the most part, the changes that occurred were overwhelmingly positive. There is much more cabin hopping, a later curfew, and we stay 20 minutes later at socials (okay, not ALL of us were particularly impressed with that change).

And so I came to a conclusion: Goshies are all about change. Some of our girls change into women for the day with the aid of their counselors' lingerie and socks. We also have male campers who possess the ability to transform themselves into strong female vocalists (i.e. Whitney Houston) and their bodyguards. And then there is Cabin 8, which never fails to change from a filthy pigsty to a sparkling palace in 2 hours for Friday night, and back to a pigsty in half the time.

I have many thoughts on Goshrim. Why is it that no Goshie can walk by a tetherball without hitting it? Why are Goshie girls perpetually in fear of Jason walking in? Why did the buses never come to take us to the beach? What did the Grease kids REALLY do when they disappeared for four hours each day? Will any of us ever figure out the new garbage system (that has nothing to do with Goshrim but I do ponder that)?

Though there are the unifying themes that all Goshies agree upon (i.e. a strong distaste for swim instruction), each of your cabins possesses a distinct personality.

Cabin 5: Whether you are doing the Time Warp, dealing with Banquet date problems or arguing vehemently against the injustices of how infrequently we let you cabin hop, you are always filled with energy and vigor.

Cabin 7: Never in the history of Goshrim has a group of kids gone cabin hopping as much as you have! From your spunky colors of nailpolish to your experience in the bathroom (Steph), you always find new ways to do things.

Cabin 8: With whom else would I dance to Ghostbusters repeatedly for 45 minutes? You constantly amuse yourselves with Magic, Monopoly or running around me in circles chanting "Ay yay yay yay" Who gets the last hug?

Cabin 9: It is now 5 weeks into the summer and you still think if you hide your cookies well, I'll believe you never got snack and give it to you again. "What's for evening program, what's for evening program?"

Cabin 10: I have learned to accept your obsession with MUSHY cookies though I don't condone it like Jason does. From our cultural games of bridge to your hyper screams of the cabin song and loud calls of "a boogey boogey" you guys always bring a smile to my face Goshie staff are the best. Does everyone know that? They should. You guys made my job so much easier and my summer a lot more fun.

Jason, I have told you before how much I admire and respect you and the job you do, but you weren't on the camper rock so I am not sure how much effect it had. Jay, I learned so much from you and I loved working with you. Let's add it to the agenda, Option 1/Option 2, lack of / plans of action - we got along pretty well for people who didn't speak much before this year. Hey Jay, how's your half of the family?

Isn't it great to be a leprechaun girls? TSK on Kierkegard! Days off of the road, 10 min a night with Machar staff, no monopoly but a bit of blackjack, August 1 Fid, maybe we are more alike then we think. Lo-Dash-Rin, you are the wind beneath my wings - it has been a great 2 years. Fido, maybe if we dig up snakes all problems will be solved. I love you both and this time luck has nothing to do with it.

The two most important people to mention have been left to the end. Isaac and Gabe, I love having you boys at camp more than you know. Isaac, you have give me reason after reason to proud of you this summer (not the muffin incident). And Gabe, though you fall in the water and hurt yourself in new and innovative ways every day, it gave me much pleasure to see you so much this summer. I am so proud to call myself your cousin.

Thank to the Iton staff for accepting my negligent behavior. You would think of all people I would understand but I turned out to be the worst offender of them all. Sorry.

Last thought: Goshies are fun. If you are not one, be jealous. I love you all and Ben, if you send me more hate mail, I might just come back next year.

Love, Rachel Solomon

SECRET SKILLS OF CABIN HOPPING

- 1) Always go with a buddy and never go with more than three people
- 2) Never go on a rainy day
- 3) Never go to a cabin that already has people in it
- 4) Get your counselors out of the cabin if they're not on Shmira
- 5) Don't talk about it in front of your counselor
- 6) send light signals to the cabin
- 7) Make sure there is a nice Rosh Shmira
- 8) Make sure your section head isn't around
- 9) Make sure there's nobody that would rat on you (i.e.: Macharnicks)
- 10) Make sure you have a good excuse in case you get caught.

WHAT CANOEING WOULD BE LIKE WITHOUT LOUIS

It would be very bad. Louis is the best canoeer and a very good teacher. If Louis wasn't there, canoeing would suck!

P.S Louis Wolfson is very very strong and he is my brother.

By Diana Wolfson.

I'M VOTING 4

TOP 10 LIST OF EXCUSES FOR NOT GETTING IN THE WATER.

10. You have an ear infection
9. You're afraid of getting hypothermia
8. You're being punished and aren't allowed in the water.
7. Have a condition where strange things happen when you get wet with the exception of showers.
6. You're afraid of getting stuck under the docks.
5. You're afraid the high tower will fall on you.
4. You're afraid of waterspiders and leaches and sharks will take over your body.
3. You're really scared you'll turn into an icecube
2. You have a serious fear of tidal waves blowing you all the way to Mexico
1. Your great-grandmother drowned in Lake William and ever since then your family fears water.

SONG-TUNE: Swimming in my swimming pool.

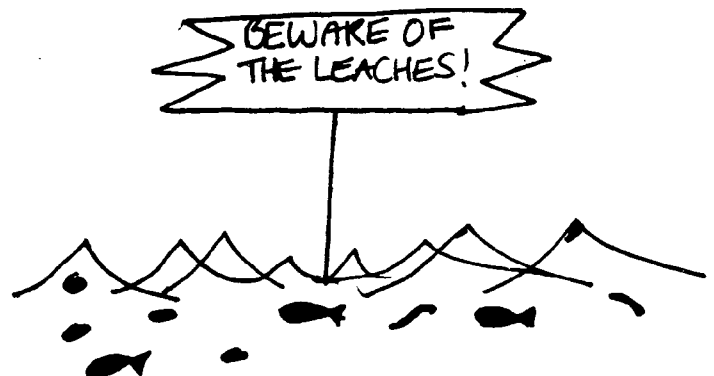

Swimming, swimming in the freezing lake. When you must jump in at swim instruction, in the freezing lake. When you must jump in at swim instruction, in the freezing lake. Don't you think you'll get hypothermia or get bitten by a leach. Oh don't you wish you never swam in the freezing lake.

By: Shira Tsinman

WHAT YOU HAVE TO DO IN SWIM INSTRUCTION

1. Get in the freezing cold water after arguing with your swim instructor.
 2. BEWARE of leaches
 3. Do Laps
 4. Get out, with your swimming teacher-talking about Marnina's butt
 5. Get back in and do more laps
 6. Get out
 7. Peulah's over
- EVERYBODY SAYS HOORAY!!!!!!!!!!!!

SWIMMING STAFF

I think Camp Kadimah has the best waterfront staff in the known universe. They make swimming funner than it really is.

RACHEL PINK TO THE TUNE OF RUBBER DUCKIE

Rachel Pink You're the one. You make swimming so much fun.
Rachel Pink You're the best instructor there could be. Ba do dum dee dum.

By: David Cashman and Rachel Beaulieu

WHAT THEY TELL YOU TO MAKE YOU GET IN THE WATER

1. Come on in, It's warm.
2. Once you get in and do it all, you can get out.
3. I'll throw you in

SWIMMING

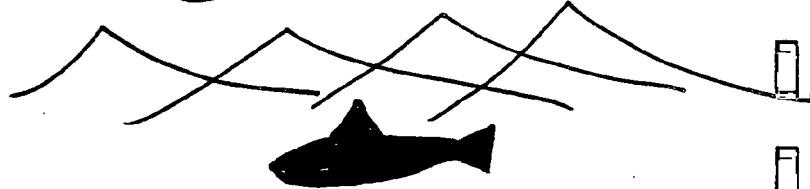

I like swimming, it is fun. The water is wet. I like it like that. There is a turtle. He is green. I would kill him if he was not. Today I had lunch.

By: Eric Abrahams

TOP 10 WAYS TO GET OUT OF THE WATER

1. crying
2. whining
3. leeches
4. cold water
5. Bribe them
6. Yell "water abuse"
7. Run away
8. Threaten the swim instructor
9. Doctor's excuse
10. Cut while shaving

ALL WASHED UP ON THE WATERFRONT!!!

On July 21, 1996 two of my counselors Becca Cash and Debbie Pakes took myself, Joe Ben-Israel, Melissa Jones, Diana Wolfson, Ali Flam-Gitman, and Rachel Beaulieu out on the senior float to wash our hair! Cool, HUH?

By: Sharon Himmelman
P.S. We're going to do it again and again!

SWIMMING

I like swimming because the water is always refreshing and the kids in my swim class love/hate to swim and it's funny.

MY BAG

I'm never using Miami Airport again. Every time I have to take a flight I'll use the Fort Lauderdale Airport. First they said that they lost my bag. It was sitting in their airport the whole time.

GIMP

In Florida they call gimp lanyard. When I came here the only stitch I knew was box. Now, I know everything but diamond. I love gimp!!

BRING OUT THE GIMP!

JOEY, I MEAN JON YAZER'S ITON ARTICLE

Obviously, JAWS 96 is the Jewish Affiliation of Water studs (since everyone on the waterfront is a stud). Jewish Active Water Staff is really messed up. Why are people afraid of leeches? They hurt less than a fly. I'd also like to add that the water at Kadimah seems to be getting warmer. (NOT! It's getting colder. Sometimes I act really weird) Well that's it. TTTTTTTTTHHHHHHhat's all folks!!

Me (Joey Yazer)
Ha, Ha -Me (Jonathan Yazer)

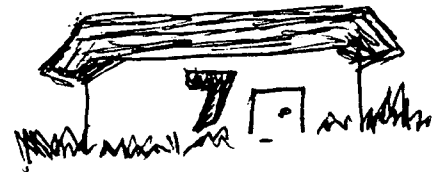

Dear Cabin 7,

We decided that at some point in the future you would all need something to remind you of us. Therefore to each of you we theoretically leave one item of our own.

Sharon Himmelman - Becca's bed to jump on, whenever she wants
Rachel Beaulieu - Heidi's spider clips
Melissa Jones - Becca's hat
Stephanie Nightengale - Debbie's loofa
Diana Wolfson - All of our brothers and sisters
Tessa Smith - Zena's sleeping bag because it fits on a bed.
Allison Flam-Gitman - A Tooth Fairy who lives next to you!
Debbie - Zena's kettle
Heidi - a CHAT diploma
Becca - Zena's Behind the Attic Wall
Zena - Debbie's Painter jeans.

Bye,
Love,

Four of Bubbah's Angels - Becca, Heidi, Debbie & Zena

GOSHRIM COUPLES

- 1) Daniel Pink and Elana Zatzman
Are you going out next year?
- 2) Shira Tsinman and Brendan Rosen
How many years have you been going out?
- 3) Stephanie Nighingale and Jonathan Greenwald
Stephanie, I am going to his house
- 4) Gabe Stein and Cara Gold
You make a great couple
- 5) Samantha Feingold and Andrew Spinner
Lovers at first sight
- 6) Allison Flam-Gitman and Jonathan Born
Just Friends
- 7) Ben Ludman and Joe Ben-Israel
You make a very small couple
- 8) Clifford Fleiser and Melissa Jones
You make a tall couple

A LETTER TO GIBS BECOMING GOSHIES

Dear Gib's becoming Goshies,

Gosh rules. It is a privilege to be gosh. Although there are some important traditions that we Goshrim '96 started which you must follow and pass down to your children.

- 1) Go cabin hopping every night (going out the window sucks)
- 2) Hang out at the guys' cabin (if you are a girl) every second you have with the exception of playing tetherball
- 3) Love your C.I.T
- 4) When you cabin hop, go to the opposite sex's cabin, if not UGH!
- 5) If you get cabin 7, cheer, cheer and cheer some more, because its awesome.
- 6) Make of who your counselor has a crush on
- 7) Keep your cabin messy.
- 8) Be friends with your cabin mates and counselors.

Observe these traditions that I, Melissa Jones and Rachel Beaulieu charge you this day.

NAMES

There are many names in Cabin 5, names like David, Sandra and many more ..I wrote my name which is Aviva Cohen, now it is all over the cabin. A lot of people are Cohens. A lot of people in Cabin 5 were Kochot kids but I am in Goshrim. Albert (Toast) Cohen's name is right over my bed.

MY FIRST SUMMER AT CAMP

Camp Kadimah is a great camp for sure. There is so much excitement and fun here. Since it is my first year I've decided to stay for as long as I can come here. The lake is very pretty and nice(mostly when it's sunny out) Here is everything a kid could wish for. Every second something is happening sometimes even it can be boring. But most of the time it's awesome fun(extraordinarily awesome) We learn here and do what we like sometimes. I am extremely curious about this camp here. I don't know why I just am. Visitor's day was awesome too. Even though my parents forgot to bring bathing suits. But my parents watched me swim and that was good enough for me.

Canoe Trip

Stage one went on a canoe trip today. It was so awesome. We went all the way to Lake Robert, and back. While we were there we went swimming. Then we had juice and potato chips and chocolate. We also had to clean up after because they said we had to leave it the way when we came. On the way back the rapids were wilder then when we were coming. We went under a bridge (the same one we crossed to go to the general store) We came back and put our canoes back on the dock. We went back to our cabins and got changed. Then Jason made us write this article.. That is what happened on the trip.

By: Rachel Lloyd

Stage one's canoe trip

It all started when Leigh called stage one to the office, we knew that it was a canoe trip because stage two had theirs. We went back to our cabins to get our bathing suits on, hats on, sunscreen on, and a t-shirt on. We waited for 2:15 so we could go to the docks, when we went to the docks Louis put us in groups and then we went on our way.. Our boat had a fight with Jason Altman's(we won). When we got there we went swimming and then we ate. On our way back we hit other boats and got stuck. We were close to camp we saw Leslie the new doctor kayaking, then we were back at camp.

GIMP AND BEADS EXTRAVAGANZA

There was a new chug in camp this summer. It was called Gimp and Beads. It was very popular. There was only one problem. We had no beads. That is all.

Kochot Section Song

To the tune of "Home for a Rest" - Spirit of the West

You'll have to excuse us
Kochot is the best
We've been gone for a year
But our spirit did not rest

We arrived at Kadimah
We knew we'd belong
We've got Robin and Aron
We're 83 strong

Kochot '96 is the obvious choice
Join the fun see us laugh
Hear our unified voice
You'll have to excuse us,
Kochot is the best,
We dare you Kadimah
step up to the test
We've got ten tables
Just like Machar
When it comes to our AHHHHHH!
We are better by far

Kochot rules
Slap (x5) stomp, clap

With our staff and our style
And kids from Plantation
We'll rock you Kadimah
We are a sensation

At the end of the summer
We will have shared
Lots of friends and good memories
No summer compares
You'll have to excuse us,
Kochot is the best,
We dare you Kadimah,
Step up to the test
We are louder and stronger
Then all of you are
When it comes to our AHHHH!
We are better by far

Kochot Rules!!

Mission Impossible

I was strolling along a flhoral shore and found 1 rose'n 2 pink rozas. My arm then landed on a pearl and some fisch lerkng about. I thought to myself, I would never want to switz places man for then, I would be much wers hoff. I then spinnered around and saw a man in the field. Pardon me sir.... As he gaspared for air, I knew he must be a singer. Instead of singing though, he just wanted to chatt. His name was Mikel Berg. He had just won the politzer prize and was nice enough to share his stocker of tsinaman mandell brott, bhambergers, rubin sandwiches, ice cream cohens, pretzlers, and tobelerones. Suddenly though, he ran after my tummy and zilberted - I mean zherberted me. I said to this greisy man, "damatov you, zimmer down and have a hartz man!" He left a rotten sztain on my tummy and then gave me an ehr lich! I then poriahed him off me and threw him far kas he wasn't cooperating. Thinking he was rather manly, he took off past the cornfields and into le vineyard. I started chasing after him and heard someone yell in the distance, "Zatz the man, zatz the man, zatz the man." So I kept running but fell down in a ttis because I saw a green baum fryan on a braoom in the sky. Too bad both my head and my cap landed on a roch, man. Several others - including my friends' Samuel's son and Jon's son- appeared out of nowhere. "Shh, OK, lein up everyone so we can counter this attack. Conditions worsened. Night 'n gale winds fell upon us. We then heard a dog berk aloud, a saw a gurring bear steim out of his nose, and a bornstein cow wearing gold bergustocks. I was smithered by all of these creatures and screamed "lat mi go!" I then realized we were at the top of a mountain in Strasberg, Austria and our only choice was to cappell down. So we philliped some water bottles and gergeled them down. We were ready to face the challenge...choose your own ending to this "mission impossible".

Yup, a pretty silly story but hopefully it was as fun for you to read as it was for me to write. For fun is what it's all about. If, from our fun this summer, you've learned about the positive qualities of your 82 new friends, about the value of making careful choices, about protecting a chair, and most importantly, that doing all of this while jello wrestling or mud fighting or puddle jumping on a dark road at 1:00 am is the best way to do it... I will be delighted. You're an unbelievably energetic and spirited bunch... never lose that spunk. Just a couple moe things... don't forget to ice all tetherball wounds, red, orange, yellow, green, and blue have ski, and please meet me at the stump!!

Countless thank yous to my staff for your persistent attempts to tame this wild bunch of 83, 82, 81... Perhaps next year we'll all be back to watch Mel and Sarah ramaya, Elaine and Rosie be teased at "laugh at staff", Jodi do "3-2-1 toranut", Steph and Lisa be tekkies, Marcy carry "pens", Marn eat "M & M's", Simon supervise, Saul ride the ringy dingy doo, Ian speak softly, Bender arrive on time, Steve rescue boats, Allison squish and be like a frog, Shelby find sweet spots, Rebecca have the same girls, Candice ask questions, and Jeff simply say "it's all good".

To Aron in particular- believe it or not, our 6 week mission impossible was a success! Your energy, initiative, and focus was phenomenal. You set a remarkable example for our entire staff and even kept me in line! Promise it won't rain. Let's have a meeting.

Simon- eat tuna w/ dijon. David- try it. Buff, Lauren, and Heidi- we'll find time. And finally to late night... a highlight of my each and every day. Love the Bart- no cherries but tootsies and a dance anytime. J- loved drawing explanatory diagrams at meetings during 2nd peulah, stealing the mike, and insisting on Maccabia. Laugh, cry, hug, smile. Jenny- love the lights, love the home, hate the waiting, love the Mill. And Matoos... daaaaaamn jib jib jib j' impressed... a gehed summel mit yez. habababab.

To Kadimah and Kochot of '96... I learned, I laughed, I loved.

All my love,

Dina 1996

Once upon a time, there was a kingdom in the far off land of Kadimah. The land known as Kochotnia, had a beautiful, gracious, but not overly tall Queen Robin. She ruled fairly, but often had to stand on telephone books, or picnic tables to survive her domain.

The Queen, as wonderful and perfect as she was could not handle it all herself, so she put a "want ad" in the Iton and came up with a stylish, good looking, smart and somewhat taller prince. Who happens by chance to look alot like the author of this article.

Now the prince loved his Kingdom and all who lived in it, but was always puzzled by the fact that they all looked rather young. He figured though, that it was probably something in the Goulash that made them this way.

This Kingdom was full of adventure. One Kochotnia legend tells of waterfalls, that were once a Native Indian camp site. When the Kochotniks visited this place, there was much rejoicing and eating of BBQed food. Now as the legend goes, the Kochotniks had awakened a horrible beast(for once it was not lucky), and while they sat by their fire, they heard the terrible beast howling. The sasquatch was coming. They decided to wait out the ight even though they were in danger. However, it soon started to rain. Kochotniks, decided that it was one thing to be eaten alive, but it was another thing entirely to be soaking wet. So in the early morning they packed their bags and made their way down a trecherous path, through what seemed to be lakes (that is except for about 20 of them who went back in a magical Avis Truck) And there was again much rejoicing.

Another legend tells of the haunted province 34. It is said that at night if you leave the cabin to swim in the enchanted lake, ghosts appear, wreaking havoc and covering the cabin in toilet paper. Toilet paper by the way is much more cost efficient than the slime used in Ghostbuster's, so 9 out of 10 ghosts now use toilet paper. The ghosts were later caught, made to apologize and later starred on every talk show telling their story. Once again, there was much rejoicing.

Of course one of the most famous legends is that of the diapperaring Kochotniks. There was a mention that a salesperson had brought Grease to the area. Everyone could buy into it. Suddenly, the Kochotniks started disappearing for days at a time. No one could understand where they were going or why. Finally one day they all appeared in a spectacular show of light and sound. And once again in keeping with the true spirit of Kochotnia there was much rejoicing.

And that is the story of Kochotnia, of course there are many more legends, but I'm having trouble remembering what I had for breakfast this morning, nevermind the legends.

THE END

I'd just like to do a few shoot outs before I end this article. To Cabin 33, I enjoyed sitting in your circle of friends, and no matter who has my hat, I'll always take you guys to play tennis.

To Cabin 28, you'll be rotating from now to forever, but you'll always throw the best parties.

To Cabin 34, for every talk I give you, I get hugged, I can't take it anymore, but that's what happens when you throw 18 girls into one cabin I guess. Careful of those ghosts.

To Cabin 30, you didn't have the pleasure of having me again, oh well, your loss. Never lose your ghostly ways, just don't get caught next time.

To Cabin 32, beware of bungee jumping bunnies and cliff diving bears. Stop bringing peanut butter or we'll put him in the box. Just remember twist, twist, twist, pull. Aug 1.

To Cabin 31,...get down.. to Hockey Marathon.... Hmmm I'm bored let's take a day-off... everyone can just bite our styles...anyone for a game of tennis..it's cleanup, go to sleep...turkey for me and turkey...way out of control...it's time for the royal rumble...anyone want to go for a ride in the Avis vaal...MI96 the final...

To all of Kochot thank-you for one of the most exciting summers of my life, you guys were great. I wish you all the best of luck in the future. If you forget everything about me, remember 1 thing:

Everybody in the house come on and let me hear you say....

See ya,

Aron

CK SPORTS

The house leagues of Camp Kadimah are cool. The basketball leagues are really fun and I look forward to them every Saturday when we play sports. The softball leagues are all doing great and the coaches for every team are wonderful. I am very happy with my coaches in the 2 house league sports I play. I enjoy basketball and softball so this is a great experience to be able to play with and against my friends. Hopefully we will have many more games!!!

OOEY GOOEY NIGHT

One evening program this summer that was really fun was the Ooey Gooey night. The things we had to do were shave balloons (we got shaving cream all over ourselves). Then we got to Jell-O wrestle against Aron Levitz (staff). Then we had a mud relay. First they dumped water on us, then we had to do ten snow angels on our front and back in the sand, then you crawl under a bench and do 5 hulas with a tube. The last thing was slipping and sliding in water and soap (but that didn't really get us clean so we had showers after).

MACCABIA 1996

For all of us it is our first year at Camp Kadimah. The experience of Maccabia '96 was amazing, we loved it. All the activities brought out great sportsmanship in everybody and everyone had a lot of fun. The Maccabathon was a lot of fun including lots of relays. In regatta we did lots of boating which was also fun. In the end the only thing we could say would be we had a lot of fun. It doesn't matter what place you came in because we're all winners!

By: Alissa Mikelberg, Jackie Pearl and Debrah Manly

The breaking of Maccabia didn't come as a surprise to anyone. All the people that were here before told me when it would be. They all explained about Maccabia to me, but nothing could possibly prepare me for the reality of Maccabia.

The thing about Maccabia that struck me right away was the extreme spirit. I don't understand why a lot of people say they don't like Maccabia. I saw it as a challenge, a goal and I went out to meet it. If you think about Maccabia that way, there is no way you can dislike it. I will conclude this article not by saying: "Let there never be another Maccabia," but with "Let there always be another Maccabia"

THE FIRST DAY OF CAMP

The first day of camp
Cabin 31 is cold and damp
The toilet is as shiny gold
Even though it was very white and old

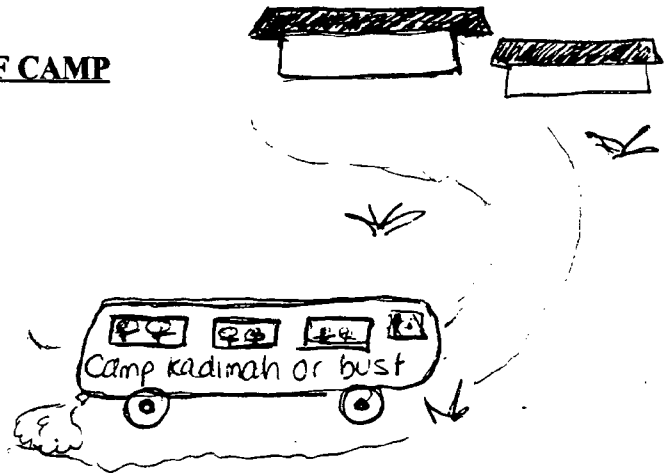

The screens were very nice and tight
And no mosquitos were waiting inside to bite
On and on the summer zoomed by like art but things and gadgets soon started falling apart
In cabin 31.

But we love it anyway!

RICE KRISPIES

The other day I was eating my Rice Krispies. I decided to listen to the sound it makes. I heard crackle crackle crackle. No snaps or pops. And this really disturbed me. So, I think I will sue Kellogs for false advertising. Wish me luck!!

TALENT SHOW 1996

RICE KRISPIES

For this year's talent show cabin 32 did: Veronica's pregnant aerobics. One person sat on another and the person on the bottom was the person on top's legs. It was a lot of fun. The song was Baby got Back. The partners were: Jackie Pearl and Alyssa Mikelburg, Ava Tsinman and Rebecca Pardo, Erin Roza, Leah Zilbert and Sara Zatzman, Debra Manly and Arinn Ryan and Shayna Fischler and Sherri Berkal. In our section talent show we came first, but for the camp wide we did it to a different song.

CABIN 31's DAY OFF

This article is about July 30, 1996, cabin 31's day off. Cabin 31 day was a day where cabin 31, just cabin 31 went around and had fun. We started off the day by sleeping in until the rest of camp was finished breakfast. Then we played Ultimate Frisbee, and after that we had lunch. Then we watched Royal Rumble; when it was finished we went to the picnic area across the lake. Then we had dinner back at camp and that was Cabin 31 day,.

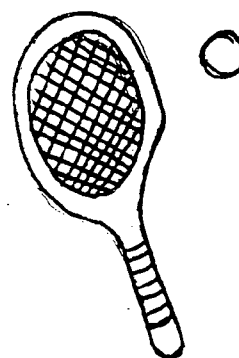

By: Mike Brott

On July 30, 1996 we, our cabin 31, had a day off. First, we slept in until 9:30 a.m. Then we had breakfast. After that, Brian Indig went to get us a wrestling movie. We mimicked all of the wrestlers by wrestling ourselves. Finally, we went across the lake. There was a park with a swimming dock. This was the best day of the whole summer.

THE TRIP TO INDIAN FALLS

All of Kochot went to Indian Falls for a trip. We had to take a bus to the falls but then we had to walk through big puddles to get to the camp ground. Then we set up. Our staff and some people went swimming in the falls until supper time. After diner everyone relaxed around the camp fire and listened to stories. Aron told a scary story but I don't think the story was all that scary. Just after we got comfortable, the rain began to fall. We were shuttled back to camp in the van. I enjoyed the ride. We got back to camp at 1:00 in the morning, and got a sleep-in the next day. Everyone had fun , and we are looking forward to more trips to Indian Falls.

AARON COHEN AND JEREMY PORIAH'S REFLECTIONS

Simple Simon is a very simple man. Some say that he sits on his bed all day and does nothing, but that is not true. Simon does things like: " Simon lie down time" and " Simon supervise the cabin time" (When there is no one there).

Jeffery Hersh is a man who, to some, is too good of a counselor. He loves to say: "It's all good" and he loves to add " guy " to all of his sentences.

Saul Offman came two weeks late and acts like he has always been here.

Dear Cabin 33,
My summer this year was awesome. I always enjoy when I don't feel great and you made me feel better. You guys are always there for me and anybody when we need you! I know our cabin has its problem but we are still best friends. Thanks for a great summer.
Love, Leah

Dear Kochot '96,
Well the summer is almost over and you guys have been a big part to make our summer the best ever. We've been through a lot together including Indian Falls and Rissers beach. Even though we lost two of our Kochotnicks, we are still 83 strong in spirit. We love you like our sisters and brothers and when we are back home the only thing on our minds will be Kochot '96 RULES. We will always remember the times we shared, good and bad. You are our closest friends and apart of the fond memories we share. We wish you the best of luck in the school year and we hope to see you next summer.

KOCHOT '96 RULES!

Love always, Rebecca Tobe, Lauren Rosen, Adina Herbert and Emily Hartzman

ODE TO CABIN 33

Here's a story of a lovely cabin with 14 hyper s--crazed girls
All of them have talents of their own and we've seen them all HURL!

Jessica Epstein-from Florida is the sailor of our ship
Nomi Caplan with all her fan mail
Julie Horel head gear and all

Becca Tobe, rhythmic gymnast, misses her brother a lot.
Ariella Attis runs round
Friggin' this and friggin' that.

Aviva Attis, henry tummy likes to giggle all the time
Jill Chatt and her imitations calling Sara Beth Samuelson Jillifer is fine

Amy Mendleson is our hormone
Nishika is what she wants
Leah Attis is heard for miles her lifesaver suckers she flaunts

Adina Herbert looks like Uma
what's really going on with her & Gus
Anita Schlein takes her time
[LOOK]

Lauren Rosen really loves her bed and is really possessive of her stuff
Emily Hartman , A.K.A Audrey
Loves her kisses and her hugs so much

Two days after visiting day, our section went to Rissers beach. The water was nice and the waves were fun. We had a really good game of ultimate and it was fun. They had really good ice cream there.

Another trip that we went on was an overnight to Indian Falls. It started to rain at about midnight so they said pack up your stuff, we're going back to camp. We had to walk through a long path that had these big puddles in the dark. Believe it or not it was fun.

So far this summer has been good and I hope it will stay that way.

NOAH PINK'S RAIN SONG

Introduction: Here's a song that I had to write to give out the good side of all of the rain that we got this summer.

When I woke up this morning

I noticed everything had changed
Yes, yes I noticed the sun has gone away and the rain is here to stay

But that's OK
because today is a Sunday, not a Monday
so I'm sleeping in

So LET IT RAIN rain hard or soft a lot or a little just let it rain

Dear Kochot,

I had an amazing summer. It was a blast. The staff were unbelievable. I enjoyed all the programs this summer. I'll miss you guys.

Love, Zutzy

IF THE WORLD WAS UPSIDE DOWN

Ian wouldn't be unsullied
Rosie wouldn't make fun of people
Elliot would love and live in Plantation
Spinner would sleep on a bed of nails and not worry about his hats
Matt would be less intelligent
Noah would be an only child

Jesse would remind us of Tom Cruise
Mark wouldn't care about his chocolates and wouldn't be funny
Justin would hate Adam Sandler
Stocker would like Zena's Princess
Adam would be unpopular with girls
Zutzy would be bad athlete
Arieh would never juice people
Nathan would be 4'11

YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN
An ode to those who died in the Holocaust

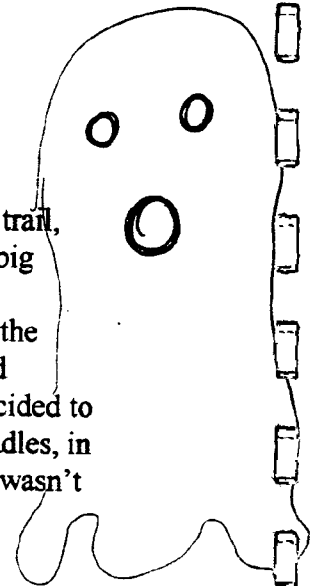

So many killed, so many gone
So few left to carry on
It is nearly forgotten and thus
We must tell what happened to us
The past is done with, so some say
But we must carry it with us everyday
The pain they bore, they hunger they fought
Cannot, will not be forgot
The horrors they faced, way back then
We will fight to prevent it from happening again
Those kids never grew up or went to school
Why can't the world stop being so cruel?
We owe it to our children to have no war
There is nothing that it is good for
To each of the six million gone
It is for you we carry on
To our children we will tell the story
Tell them everything, painful and gory
We will never forget that we are Jews
And through life, with each path we choose
We will take into consideration
To always tell each generation
To you, who were murdered because you were a Jew.
We'll always remember, We'll never forget you.

INDIAN FALLS

We went to Indian Falls a few days after it rained. We took the bus to the trail, then walked twenty minutes to the campsite. The trail was a river. It was full of big puddles from the rain. When we finally got there we set up and got changed for swimming, but we weren't allowed in the falls because they were too rough from the rain, so we swam in the calm part. We told ghost stories around the campfire, and toasted marshmallows after dinner. Around 11 o'clock, it started to pour. We decided to go back to camp. We had to walk twenty minutes down the road, through the puddles, in the pitch dark. Then we were shuttled twenty at time in the van back to camp. It wasn't the most fun trip, but it certainly was an adventure! BY:LAUREN KLEIN

WE LEAVE YOU...

To Cabin 28 we leave you a bad looking counselor, a normal counselor.

To Cabin 30 we leave you air freshener, a cabin not near septic tank.

To Cabin 31 we leave you girls cabin hopping to your cabin, and more clotheslines.

To Cabin 32 we leave you a bigger cabin, and a way to cabin hop.

To Cabin 33 we leave you a really mean counselor, and one porch not two.

To Cabin 34 we leave you a toad, and a decent cabin song.
Hugs and kisses. We love you Kochot!

SCARY STORIES AT CAMP KADIMAH

Anson Miner, Mad Martha, Sasquatch, Cow lady, Beast at Point Cabin are all stories that are told over and over. Some people get scared and some people love them. Some are so scary everyone gets scared but there are some that are so ridiculous that everyone starts to laugh. Stories may be told when you go on a trip or even in your own cabin. I think that the best time is at a camp fire. When our section went to Indian Falls, Aron Levitz told us some scary stories and it was a lot of fun.

TOP ELEVEN THINGS TO DO WITH BAGGIES

- 11) If you have a paper route, put newspapers in them so when it rains they stay dry.
- 10) Fill them with baby powder and call it cocaine.
- 9) Rip them for fun.
- 8) When you go to Rissers put sand in them to show your friends how exciting Nova Scotia is.
- 7) Put them over your head.
- 6) Keep your veggies in them so they'll stay fresh in the fridge.
- 5) Put miscellaneous items (rocks, twigs, dirt) in them.
- 4) Put undergarments, dirty diapers and licorice in them.
- 3) Keep your walkie-talkie in them.
- 2) Whenever you hear a cool big word, put it in a baggie.
- 1) Keep your dentures in them.

WE LOVE BAGGIES!

HOW ABOUT SOME MORE TIME OFF??!!

TRY THIS...

During rest period, half of you will be officially "on duty"; the other half of you can treat this time like a peulah off (try to save showering for actual peulot off so as to avoid causing a stir w/ the kids and/or other sections).

So... you'll have an extra 1.5 hrs off every other day!

MACHAR SECTION SONG
TO THE TUNE OF "GANSTER'S PARADISE" - COOLIO

As I walk 'cross the bridge past cabin 11 rest my buttocks in the hammock and I'm in heaven
But that's just perfect for a Marcharnik Like me and I love "Mazola" twister on the ABC
Shabbos morning at 8:30 we're sleeping in we're heavenly cool with occasional sin
90 campers and 10 staff we're just not meak
For guidance we'll listen to the sigan of the week

Been a camper most my life
Livin' in Machar is paradise
Only get to do it twice,
Livin' in Machar is paradise
We're all crazy Israelites,
Livin' in Machar is paradise
27 Bums! It ain't so nice,
But livin' in Machar is paradise

CHORUS

It's great the camp recycles you know how it goes - for dinner, burgers and lunch, sloppy joes swim, swim, swim, swim, I hope I pass
Don't dis 'cause on Machar day we'll own you're ass
It's the spirit camp Machar has that appeals to me
Plus the simple act of R-E-S-P-E-C-T
There's a magical fever that's in my blood and I feel it everytime I circle up for Rad
There's a phone, a fax, a motor boat, plenty luxury
But with several backed up crappers
Please use the port- a - potties

CHORUS

30 kids on buggy, we still could use some others
These are all my sisters!!
These are all my brothers!!
If the cabin's clean and all is peaceful in our summer home,
then we'll go bust out our jammies
'cause tonight we're going to roam!
All the Gibbie wanna be just like me, on my kness, shakin'spice, makin' nice gonna roll the dice.

CHORUS

Dear Camp Machar,

What can I say about you guys? You're a phenomenal group of 90 kids! You came very divided this summer. But, I believe that after 6 weeks, you became one group. Machar Day was amazing. The play "Tommy" - you proved to the rest of camp that magic can be accomplished in 4½ days, and that's what Tommy was - pure magic! This summer, I hope you all realize, the staff you had were the best staff ever assembled to run Machar. I hope you guys remember throughout your life anything can happen, just like your theme for the summer. Over a 6-week period, we tried our hardest to work with you and mold you into a group. This summer, without a doubt, we succeeded in accomplishing that. The rest of camp sat in awe while we sang our song, which is the greatest! I even learned a few of the words! As for Machar's participation in Maccabia, I think it was the best ever! You Macharniks demonstrated leadership and spirit which was unrivaled by any other section. I want to wish you all a happy and healthy year, and look forward to seeing you guys run camp when I come back in the future to visit Camp Kadimah and Camp Machar! I have made friends with many of you, and I believe that we will be in touch for many years to come! Stay well, my kids.

To my staff - you certainly were the the all-star team. Your leadership and your knowledge, as well as your programming skills shined through this summer. I cannot thank you enough for all your hard work, and your long hours. No other staff in camp have such a demanding job as that of a Madrich or Madricha. You guys prove that to be true by putting everything you've got into our section. Your strength will stay with you throughout your life. Thank you again, and I may have learned something from you guys. Take care and be well. If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen!

To Marnie Sugarman - thank you for all your help. You brought a lot of experience and organization to Machar. You stood up to me, and that was great. You are a very talented and organized S'Gan. You are a fine leader and a good friend. Good luck in the future. I'm sure we will remain friends.

To Jacob Medjuck - without your ruach and love for the kids, Machar 1996 would not have been what it was. The kids love you for who you are, and don't change that. It shows to me the true nature of a person's character. Your production of Tommy was amazing! You proved yourself and started a legacy for others to follow. Thank you for your love and your caring.

To David Feingold, my right hand man - I took you under my wing to teach you something, and I hope you learned. You will, one day, be an outstanding leader. I wish you all the luck and happiness in the future. Take care of yourself, my boy, and be good.

To Sheldon Cohen - by far, our best year together! Not only did you not have to go through one person - you had to go through three! Your leadership and guidance, yet again, taught me right from wrong. I thank you, from the bottom of my heart. I will always see you as a wonderful leader and a true friend. Love ya!

To Freda Cohen - what would I do without you? You always take my side, because you know I'm right. I love you to death. Thank you for caring. You're a wonderful mother to 265 kids! Thanks for all.

To Michael B. Soberman - what a wonderful summer we had! We got along famously! Unfortunately, you were only here for two weeks! But, those two weeks were great! Thanks again for your guidance, your understanding and your friendship. I've got your back!

To my room mate, Brian "Bossman" Indig - by far, the greatest! You are truly the Big Bossman. The way you carried yourself this summer is an example for everyone to follow. You are still the best roommate I have ever had, and a true friend. I hope that, one day, I will be able to repay your kindness. Your time will come - it is eminent! Good luck in Toronto. Love you always!

To Penny Dankner - we certainly shared a lot together this summer. I think we both learned a lot this summer. Thank you for your close friendship and your caring. Wishing you all the best of success in law school. I would not want to face you in court! May the future bring you all the happiness that you so rightfully deserve!

To Les & Anne - a hearty Mazal Tov. May Leah bring you all the happiness and joy a child can bring. You are true friends and, Anne, you will have to sit with my sister-in-law and have a chat on feeding. Les, to the best doctor I've ever know, I take my hat off to you! Leah could not ask for better parents! To Michelle - thanks for all your help in the infirmary. Your medical knowledge is equal to that of a doctor. Thanks for helping Machar out. We will see you in the future.

To Marty & Belarie, it was great working with you. Grease was phenomenal. Marty, I'm just a heart beat away, always watching you!

To Leigh Lampert, my new room mate - you should have been in cabin 11 at the start! You are an asset to have around. C.M.I.F.B.T.C. Let's take the Take-Out out! Late night suppers, even later Rosh Shmira, and to having a blast hanging-out. I will keep in touch this year, cannot thank you for all you do for me. You are a friend forever!

To Mike Rinzler and Jen Miller - as an ex-CIT man, I think that you both did a phenomenal job! Michael, let the dice roll! See you at the office, buddy!

To Matt Cohen - thanks for your programming. We never did have our discussion on that country we both like so much. One day, we will. Take care and good luck!

To Rob Matlow, this year, it was my turn! Your skills at the game have improved. Let the dice roll, because it's now your turn.

To all the section heads and assistant section heads - I hope you had a great summer, but by far, Machar rocks! Good luck in the future and take care!

To the Iton Staff - thanks for the extension, and congratulations.

To the boys - it was a wild and rocky trip. We will always, come what may, be tight. You guys are still the best back a man can ask for. Take care of yourselves.

To Camp Kadimah - it has been 7 glorious years. After such a wonderful summer, it is time to end on a high note, and to say good-bye. You have been my life for many years, and the friends I have made here will carry me throughout my life. The memories I have will stay fresh forever. To Kadimah, past and present, keep the magic, because this is the Magic Kingdom!

I love you all, and hope that we may all keep in touch and see each other in the future. Keep the memories alive. Anything can happen. (It's a kind of magic!) Wishing you all the very best of health, happiness and success.

Love Always,

MICHAEL "MOSSMAN" OSTROFF

Dear Camp Machar,

Read your T-shirt. Read your T-shirt. Read your T-shirt. My advice lives within the 1996 Machar T-shirt, some is obvious, some may need to be DISCOVERED.

Nothing and no one is set in stone, no one is ever complete. A thinker, a person not afraid to self evaluate himself, will continually become a better person.

Don't be afraid to take that chance. The only way you can fly is to first leap.

Passion turns the world. Find your passion and let it propel you while staying strong at the wheel.

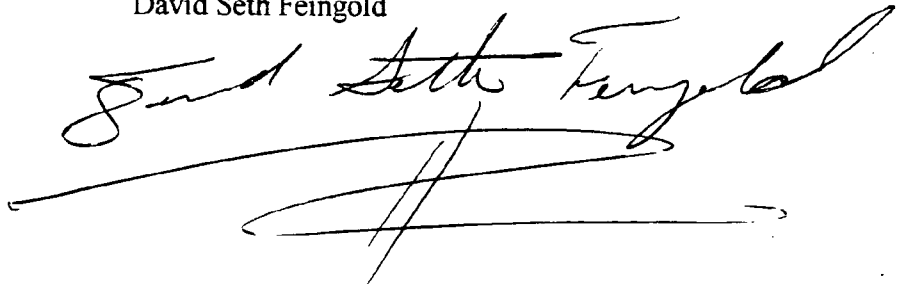

The sky is the limit only if you let it be. Expect the unimaginable and you just might attain it. Expect the unimaginable and people may give it to you.

Dream...Dream....Dream...DREAM!!

Who will you be?

With my love,

David Seth Feingold

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "David Seth Feingold". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned below the typed name. It features a long horizontal stroke at the bottom that extends across the width of the signature.

S'gan Report

My friends,

By the time you read this article, Machar of Ninety-Six will be a buttered muffin. For half of you the camper thing is done for ever. I hope that your years here were special and have taught you something. Never stop learning. When you think back on Camp Machar I want you to remember: co-operation, happiness, enthusiasm, communication, leadership, humor, honesty, respect, understanding, fear, challenge, creativity, and friendship. (Attitudes are contagious so please try to keep your positive focus).

Some of you have been with me every year since I started on staff, you taught me how to be staff. We've watched each other grow and I hope that you're ok with the way that I turned out. I hope that some day you see in yourselves what I have always seen in you. You carry your potential around with you like a knapsack. Some of you don't even know its there. Some of you have already begun to unzip it and reach inside. You're all very powerful people. Be strong about yourself. You're the only you and you are beautiful, you are strong and you can fulfill your hopes and dreams whatever they are.

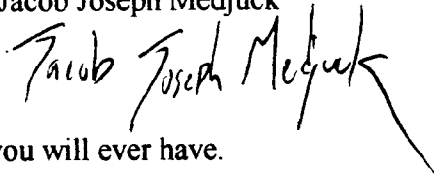

Follow your heart. Let it be your lighthouse. Remember what you learn along the way because someday you will have to teach.

Camp Machar is a very special place. It never finishes completely. There's always more to the story. Every year the book is passed on to another generation of Macharnicks. The book is huge, its almost thirty years old, and your stories are now being added to it. Feel a part of the whole, and remember the memories that you made. I love you all very very much. You are a part of me. Be good to yourselves and each other. Love and care.

Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Your friend,

Jacob Joseph Medjuck

P.S. - love is the most powerful tool you will ever have.

P.P.S.- you all make me puke.

Dear Camp Machar of 1996,

Rain rain rain, Maccabia, Army Day, Independence Day, Yom Chanichim, Tommy, Machar Day - for the past six weeks we as a section have proved that ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN! This summer Machar was a magical place to live in and each of you has been an intricate part of Machar's success in '96

As your S'gana from beginning to end I've enjoyed watching you grow. Through laughter and sadness, trial and error each of you committed yourselves to Machar by spreading and absorbing the enthusiasm, spirit, and knowledge. At times my job seemed effortless and at times I felt exhaustion - but through it all - to share Camp Machar with you was a pleasure and together we've created everlasting memories.

To those of you who will be returning to Machar next year I wish you success in the school year and remember it's only 10 months until camp comes again. As for the second years, as your camper life comes to an end, your choice for next year is your own - and we have no doubt that you are destined for greatness. Always remember that dreamers wake the nation.

With undying love and pride in Camp Machar of '96,
I believe in you, you must believe in yourself!

S'gan Rosh Machar,

MACCABIA 1996

It all started when the section heads got in the ring. It was what we thought was going to be the battle of the sections. We later discovered it wasn't the battle of the sections, but the beginning of the battle of the colors. Maccabia began on Tuesday and lasted until Friday. During those days, we played many games, ran many marathons, and had lots of fun.

After four long and tiring days full of screaming, we found out the winning team. Last place was the White team. The first place team was Yellow. It was the first time in many years.

I'm not generally a Maccabia lover, but I have to say, this one time it was amazing!

By: Danielle Spinner.

This year's Maccabia rocked with Deb, Josh, Scott and Heidi as my captains. We had a wicked time from cheering events and working on marchpast (left, left, left, right, left.) The weather was great and everyone got to participate. Raising Gaia was our name and because we worked so hard in the four days we came in second. I got involved this year and had lots of fun. Thanks Blue team of '96.

TO MACHAR OF 96

Half the summer has gone by already. It feels as though I just got here. I'm really enjoying my summer and it's all because of you guys. The warmth and the love is all there. I've had many moments of laughter. I've made new friends and got together with old friends. I feel a strong bond every time I circle up for Rad. The staff this year are amazing. I feel I can talk to any one of them about anything. I hope the summer carries on like this. I don't want it to end. I love you guys a lot.

By: Marci M. M

Dear Camp Machar,

It is my second year at Camp Kadimah and my second year in Machar. All I can say is I love it! For starters, we have the best unit head in camp and the best set of staff ever. The programs that our staff put together are always well organized and I always feel involved. The staff put together the best unit song that they have ever had in camp. Our song is so WICKED that on Visitor's Day we got to sing it for our parents. We are the only unit who gets roam and rad! All in all - we ROCK!

I love you all, Nicole Crone

Dear Camp Machar of 1996,

This year has been by far the best year, I don't know why but for some reason everybody and everything just clicked. Although it saddens me that it's my last summer as a camper here, I love all the memories I have with Machar and with my friends. Hannah Zitner - The first time I met you, I just wanted to be part of your life. I can't really explain why but you're a person I really admire. Machar 95 you made me feel welcome and despite our differences we managed to stay friends all year long and especially Machar 96. I can honestly say I love you. FRIENDS FOREVER.

Rachel Mendelson- Rach. yours is probably 1 of the hardest to do. We kind of in a way grew up together. I have known you since you were born, and I really have loved all the time we have spent together- the good and the bad. I have so many memories and I thank g-d that our parents met and introduced us. You are like a sister to me never let anyone tell you otherwise that you are perfect just the way you are.

Michelle Vigod- We started this summer together on the plane and since then we have become really close you always have to remember you are the BEST hug giver and have really great taste- In watches especially. Machar 96 has been awesome and I am so happy we shared it together. Never forget you are my baby and I love you.

Jessica Burnstein- My texture face. Thank g-d that night I didn't get poison Ivy. Loser! do, seriously you are my all year round friend and although we always plan but never do, I love the "Park" by your house. Thanks for always being there for me and all my problems. Next year I promise we will go camp shopping together. Call me sometime Kay?

Mindy Lampert- Well chikeepoo it's been 2 summers now- at least this summer I wasn't that messy and we didn't share a bed. If there was 1 thing I could change in my life it would be to have come here and known you in 88. You have been a big part of my summer and I know that I will miss you so much when we're at home. I will continue the tradition though and call you every Sunday. You're a great friend and I'm really lucky to have you there for me. Thank you.

Shosh Kurlioff- My Mike Hunt friend. It has been great in your cabin for 2 years in a row. I know that I have never been on your side but you always live up the whole cabin. Although you live all the way in Philli the country that is. I still hope we can keep in touch as we did last year. Sorry about the Yale sweatshirt thing, I would like to thank you for sowing my toe that day at diving...ummm sit there and laugh much! But I love our friendship and our friendship clips- how does the liquid get to your mouth? I love you more and more and I hope you have the best year of your life and that you keep smiling.

Zack Borer. "Just be yourself and don't change you" contrary to last year with a Borer, this year I was friends with one. I really loved our talks at socials and the way we could talk about anything and everything. You know the way I felt ALL Summer and although you didn't chose that path I loved the way things are. If its what made you happy I'm happy. Zach , you are a great person and I really consider you a great friend of mine, I hope we stay in touch and say hi to your brother for me. Love You!!

Tammy Fried and Robbyn Fallon - Well you guys made my summer, Tams- I love our sleepovers and Robbyn I love running to the infirmary at 11:30 to bring you your puffers- Keep In touch.

Sammy Redlick - Well my love, we became really close this year and you were always there for me when I needed you to hold me up. We had lots of fun times."You grab mine and I'll grab yours"Have fun at CHAT -Its where its at! See ya

Matt Goldstein - WOW! This summer I think that you were the person I opened up to the most. We would talk (sleep) for hours basically about everything. Sometimes I wish that I was able to talk to other people like we did so I guess our talks impacted and affected my life. Have a great year and call me. I hope that 96 was a mazing for you cause you deserve the best. I will see you in the city.

Paul Rivietz - Paul you are a very special friends. Although sometimes I am dorky, I hope that we feel the same way. I love you.

Shmon (Marnie Feldman) At the beginning I think everyone was a bit unsure. But time in time out you and I got down the Machar routine. You really fit in and you are 1 of the nicest people I have ever met. SHMOOKY AND SHOM = BFF. Good luck in the future, hold your head up high and never put it down. You are awesome and I love you. HAVE FUN , Love ya always.

Big V (Heidi Lipkus) and Bethipoo - Well you two. I must say that you guys are the greatest. You aren't very lenient in the morning but all in all you are great gals. Heidi - I love biting the ends of your lollipops and giving you snorting kisses. Beth - I love taking to you about...lotsa things. I had an amazing time in you cabin and Machar 96 was all that much better because of you. Thank you for being there when I needed you. It was appreciated. Always remember, no glove no love.

Ostroff -You always say that your summer would be complete if you have changed or influenced someones life. Let me tell you these 2 summers which you have been a part of I will remember forever. I think that you made Machar happen-you and your team. When I think about what I myself have accomplished I can't help but thank you because you had a big part in allowing me to think, learn and set goals. Continue to help others like themselves.

The conclusion: Never stop dreaming. Break the rules, Go with your heart, the World is wide and ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN.

Love, Adena Farkas 95-96

Dear Camp Machar,

I came to camp this year with a feeling of excitement, yet anxiety of the up coming 6 weeks. Now, 4 weeks into camp I realize that in actuality I never had anything to worry about. Despite my previous doubts Machar, you have showed me one of the best summers of my life. I have made many friends and established undying memories. Camp Machar, you are the beginning and the end of all of them. I love you.

Love, Karen S.

SITTING ON THE SWING

As we sit here collecting our thoughts we look back to July 1, the first day of camp. We all remember the way we were excited, scared, happy and sad. We did not know what to expect of Camp Machar '96. We were scared what cabin we would be in, if we would be with our friends and if we were going to like it.

Now, 4 weeks into the summer we have learned to adapt to the camp life. We feel accepted by everyone and everything. Initially we were not looking forward to Maccabia, but remembering all the games, we laugh and realize that it was a lot of fun.

When we look around (on the swing), we see the many faces passing by and we realize that we are all individuals. Despite our differences, we are accepted as a whole - Camp Machar of '96.

We now have to go because we hear an unpleasant creek in the swing that gets more broken as more people get on! Thank you Camp Machar for being there.

Love, Karen Mendleson and Danielle Spinner.

SONG DEDICATED TO MY BUNK-MATE KYLA(INSIDE JOKE)

MACHAR IN THE CHADAR

Everyday I look around the Chadar at my colleagues. They all day dream.
Especially Daniel Rinzler. He is the funniest. If you ever have a chance to look at him in the Chadar, do so.

By: Jordan Benson.

This is my first year here at Camp Kadimah. So far, I'm really having a great time. All the people here are nice, including the awesome staff. Maccabia was so cool this year. I was on the Yellow team and I thought that it was really cool that Yellow team won first place for the first time since 1984. All the games and activities were so much fun. I think Michelle, Isaac, Stephanie and Ben did a great job to help the Yellow team do so well. I'm really enjoying my summer here, but it's going way too fast. Pretty soon it will all be over and I'll be back in Florida thinking of what an amazing time I had at camp.

By: Elana Epstein.

MACHAR DAY OFF

For Machar Day Off we went to the Bridgewater Mall. We had supper there and played in the arcade. Afterwards we went to the movie theater and watched Independence Day. It was a great movie. We might go on another day off and go to the beach and water slides. Machar Day Off was really fun.

By: Mark Bessoudo.

Dear Camp Machar,
There are big ships and small ships, the best ships are FRIENDSHIPS! I've made amazing friends at this camp and I love you all. Friends forever.

Love always and Forever ,Joanna Mansfield.

ARMY DAY

On July, 1996, at 6:50 a.m. we (Machar) were woken and pushed to our limits to experience and learn what it's like to be in the Israeli army. The different units included: Paratroopers, sea commandos, intelligence, golani, etc. We started off by doing the morning exercises, but even though they weren't as strenuous as they really are, we felt pain after doing dozens of sit-ups, push-ups, jumping jacks and that was just the first twenty minutes. Imagine the rest of the day. Throughout the day we learnt different techniques taught in the army including throwing a grenade and learning how to ambush a building. All in all, we achieved what we were sent out to do and learnt a lot about the Jewish cultural aspect of being in the army.

By: A.W, T.F., A.G.

Although the rain put a damper on our summer, it has cleared now and we have even been able to have some of camp's special activities such as a day off, Maccabia, and army day. These events are very meaningful and crucial to Macharnicks not only because they are fun, but because they make Machar, along with all the amazing campers staff and other programs. With 90 campers and ten staff we're just not meek!! And we are having an absolutely incredible summer in Camp Machar! (I know this is cheese, but I have to write something....I do like milkshakes)

By: Shoshana Kuriloff

Dear Camp Machar,
The first thing I want to say is thank-you for the best summer I've had in a long time. There was to many great programs and special days to write about all of them. I loved seeing all of my friends again and spending the summer with them also meeting new people and spending time with them as well. I can't express how many emotions I felt throughout the summer. There were times when I felt so ecstatic and joyful and others when I felt sad or was just in a bad mood. But whatever emotion I was feeling there was always someone there for me.

I want to say cabin 3 that I love you all and I'm happy that I got to spend the summer of '96 living with you. You made my first year of Machar very memorable. Even though there was some TENSION between some of us we usually got along fine and I know I'll never forget you. Thanks as well to Beth and Heidi for putting up with our TENSION and for giving us the respect you did, and trusting us with things like cleaning our cabin without a work wheel. So thank you Machar for everything and a great time.

Love Always, Jennifer Winn, see you next year.

Dear Machar,

Right now I'm sitting outside remembering all the fun we had. When I think back to my first summer in 1993, it was great. I have made many new friends since I have come and I hope the friendships will last forever. The most special part of Machar is Rad Hayom, even if you have a bad day, rad will make a sense of togetherness! This is my last year and I just want to say: I love you, I love you.

Love, Elisa Mayer

TIRES

Although burning tires is bad for the ecosystem, it adds a great smokey flavor to ham

By: Ben Alexander

Tonight we had an evening program familiar to us second year Macharnicks. Our counselors shared with us details and events which they have lived through and have been faced with. They made us feel sad, and more understanding. Each one of our 10 staff had a story to tell us. I cried for each and every one of them. I think most of Machar did as they passed the flame on, from candle to candle, they each had their turn to open up to us. I really enjoyed this program. Thanks guys. Mindy Lampert

Left, left, left, right, left. It's 6:45 in the morning and with our guns in our hands we're running to the auxiliary sports field for our morning exercises. After many hard exercises we finally headed to breakfast. But it wasn't that simple, first we piggybacked to the bridge, then we crawled on our knees and elbows and then we ran, just to get to the Chadar. After our 11 minute meal, we got split up into our groups of intelligence, sea commanders, paratroopers, nahal and Golanit. They were all very challenging from running back and forth, to walking in cow doo doo it turned out to be a fun day. ARMY DAY 96 RULES.

CAMP MACHAR

The summer's only halfway through
But us Macharnicks have much to do.
Our friendship and love have gone so far,
Living here in Camp Machar.

Waking up at 7:15 is such a pain,
Before we go to bed we pray for rain.
As our day begins, there's lots planned for us
Yet no one here puts up a fuss.

Our fantastic staff is what makes camp great they keep getting better at an astonishing rate.
We end each day with Rad Hayom,
Singing three songs and saying Shalom.

This summer in Camp Machar has been great and no one wants it to end.

By: Carly March, Leah Cohen, and Marlie Cappel

MACHAR DAY OFF

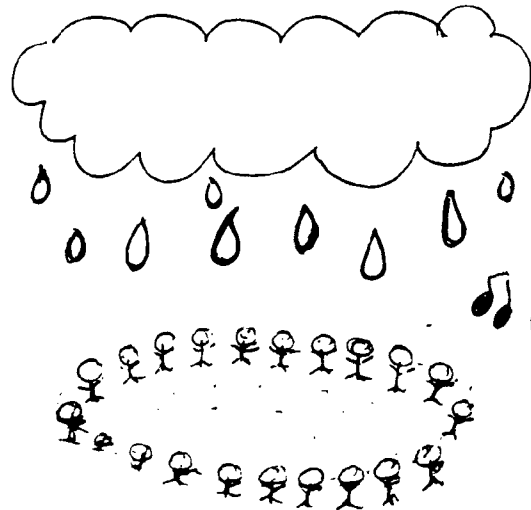

Well, what can I say, Machar day off was a blast. We first went to the mall. Zellers, A and W, Shoppers, and last but not least, San Francisco. And you can't forget Dairy Queen, across the road. In groups walking around in the mall and eating ice cream, cookies and real crunchy, yummy fries. In the music store, then the dollar store we all had so much fun. Then off to the movies. We saw Independence Day. In our point of view it was pretty good. There were some stupid parts in it but most parts were good and exciting. Well, I hope we do it again this summer. IT WAS WICKED!

By: Maya Kesler and Ilana Kirsh

Dear Camp Machar,

As I sit here thinking that there's only 13 days left of camp it hits me that I've been a camper for eight years now and I only have 13 days left. That's a really hard thing to think about.

During the past 8 years I have become good friends with quite a few people. Even though some of us have drifted apart, I feel that there will always be a remaining friendship between us.

I would like to thank Camp Kadimah and all the great people for allowing me to share all the amazing friendships and memories that I have had here.

I would like to thank Camp Machar for giving me 2 pretty great years of my life. Thanks to Heidi and Beth for being the greatest counselors I could ask for. You guys always helped me out and took great care of me. I really appreciated the fact that you guys were always there to talk to and that you also listened. Ostroff, well I could go on forever. You are a great guy. Thanks for all the things you've done for me. I really appreciate it. You have taken great care of your kids. Without you this section would not have run as well as it had for the past years. Thanks a lot for all your time in assisting me with all the problems that have occurred in the past/present. You're a great person, keep it up. I hope to see everyone next year at Biluim. I may return but I may not so now I will say farewell to Camp Kadimah. I am very grateful that I was able to come to camp Kadimah and share all the wonderful memories that I have experienced.

Always, Marissa Attis

RAD HAYOM

The best thing about Machar in my opinion is Rad Hayom. Machar is very privileged to have this because no other unit does. Every night after evening program we gather in our area and everyone stands in a circle holding hands. It gives me a feeling of unity and togetherness to be connected to our entire unit of 90 kids. I don't think I could even go to sleep here without it. We sing three songs about friendship that have been going on for years and years. Nothing bad is ever said or discussed in the Rad circle. It is a ritual that goes on every night-rain or shine. It is one of the best elements of Machar to me because it includes friendship, unity, togetherness and trust. "I am me and you are you and who am I to judge what you should do? But in Machar you'll see friends are there and they will forever be."

TO CABIN 3 OF '96

24 girls living together is not easy but we all managed to pull through. It has been a good summer and it couldn't have been without the help from you guys.

To Shosh-you are one great person. I can always find you with a smile on your face. You always find a way to make the best of a situation and I admire you for that. You have such courage and you are a born leader. Change for yourself, Shosh, not for anyone else. Have an amazing year and please keep in touch.

To Aislin- my neighbor. It was great seeing you smiling with your friends. I hope you had a wicked time in Camp Machar. Be careful playing tetherball. I don't want you to hurt yourself. You are a crazy chick and I want to say I love you. I'll miss you and I'll hope write more.

To Marci-Another crazy chick. It's for your own experience, right? I loved popping those bubbles. I hope you had an amazing summer and I hope it was what you wanted it to be. You deserve the best Marci, so don't go for anything less. I love you and I'll miss you like crazy. I hope we'll keep in touch and maybe I'll see you during the year.

To Anna- I thought your stories about your back were so interesting. Please tell me more. I loved your hand massages, I'll miss them a lot. Have a great year and let's keep in touch.

To Silvia-my other neighbor. You had a huge amount of candy and chocolate(oreo and mars) I like your tank tops. It was nice meeting you this summer.

To Elisa-The upper deck of our bed. You're great Elisa and I love you for the gal that you are. I want ya to know that I love you and you aren't the only one that loves you. Have a good year and please write.

To Elana- Elana, Elana, Elana, get up. The girl from plantation. I hope you enjoyed your summer at camp and I enjoyed living with you. I'll miss you and I hope you'll have a good year.

To Marlie-It was very nice meeting you. You can wear my cords if I can wear your silvers. You had an amazing amount of Mr. Noodles and I don't know how you could have eaten them all. Take care and please write.

To Meredith-you made the cast I knew you would-I'm very proud of you. It was great living with you and I hope we will keep in touch during the year.

To Alexis-Guess what? I got more Kleenex. I love traditions too. It was great getting to know you and I hope you had a good summer. Have a good year and be in touch

To Jenn Winn- You were one of the quieter ones. I hope you had a great summer. Have a good year and I hope to see you around.

To Leah-I loved dancing with you in shirkud. I enjoyed living with you this summer. I loved sailing with you in chugs. I don't think I'll ever learn how to do it. Have a great year and please write.

To Carly March- Although you were sick, it was great getting to know you. I want to visit you this year, O.K.? I hope you had a great summer and have a nice year. Please write me.

To Tammy- We lived together and our sisters were together. I think I'm going to Massad next summer. It was great getting to know you and I am happy we were friends. Please write

To Carly F.G.-You are a very special person and an important part of my summer. I hope you had a good time and I wish you the best during the year. Please keep in touch.

To Robbyn- I really enjoyed living with you this summer. You're a great person, only change for yourself. Write me!

To Marissa-Hey there, how are ya? Let me tell ya, all in all this was an incredible summer, it just took me a while to adjust. I hope you had a good time and have a good year. Take care

To Adena-I'll never forget singing our section song together in the same spot on the bench. Although I didn't seem to show it, I really do care about you and I hope we can be friends. I consider you one of mine.

To Rachel-Hello cousin, I'm not sure what to say. I love you very much and I'll miss you too. I hope you feel the same way. Be in Touch

To Jen Perlov-Hi Jenny, Just kidding, hey you don't be silly....yeah, yeah, yeah! I hope you had a good summer and I hope you have a good year. Please write.

To Mindy-Thank you for being the individual that you are. You are a great person Mindy and don't ever forget that. I hope you had a great summer and have a great year. Please write

To Hannah-I could have killed you on visiting day. But let me tell you, I really want to be her friend, I doubt it 'll happen. Hannah, I know you are jealous of my skiing abilities, but please forgive me because you are just as good. I love skiing with you. I hope you had a good summer and let's get together in the city...call me

To Julie-I think my sister loves you but don't worry I love you too. It was great living with you this summer, I wish you good luck in the future. Please write me during the year.

To my counselors Beth and Heidi I don't know where to start. I really want to thank you for making my summer more enjoyable. I had a great summer but it wouldn't have been the same without you guys. Thank ;you for being the people you are and don't ever change. I hope you guys had good summers and I wish you good luck in the future. Please write me. To cabin 3 of '96 I love you all and I will miss you..

Love Always, Karen Mendleson 1989-1996

THE MORGUES HAIR

Our father whose art is in heaven
Howard be his name

They deliveries come
The chicken will be done
ON the hearth as it is on the BBQ
Give us this day
As I cut off our chicken's heads
Forgive us for trespassing
As we live those who must pass over us
Lead us not into Tim Hortons
But deliver us our bagels
For wine, it's the good life with Cream cheese and lox
For Tom, Richard and Harry, all men.

ARMY DAY

Last week we had "Army Day". It was really fun although I was very glad when it was over.

Training in the morning was a lot of fun because we had to learn a lot of different defensive moves as well as strategic moves. I am very glad we had it this year and I wish we had it last year too!

By: Aaron Ginsberg

I am in cabin 15. This is my fifth summer at camp. Lauren Cappell is the counselor in my cabin. In first year Kochot she wasn't in my cabin and last year she was in my section. Now that she knows me really well I am her favorite camper. She thinks I am way up high and everyone else is you know, way down. She loves me. I really think she's my hero. She's so cool. Seriously, she's going places. You go girl! I look up to her, probably because I am the only one who can. Being short is cool-just because Lauren makes it cool. In fact, if I had a choice, I'd stay this way forever, just so I could be like Lauren. WOW, she's amazing. I get special treatment since I am her favorite, she is thinking about moving to Boston, that's where I live. Lauren and I are bosom buddies; she has the bosom and I have buddy tag. We are really good friends you could just call us Batman and Robin or better yet, Kyla and Lauren. Lauren helps me with everything, even writing Iton articles like this one. I love her.

By: Kyla Rudnick (edited by Lauren Cappell)

P.S - Jen is a liar.

I am also in cabin 15. This is my second summer at camp. Lauren has never been my counselor before, needless to say, I am by far her favorite. There is no doubt in her mind that I am the best. Kyla thinks she gets special treatment but if she stayed up late one night she'd die of jealousy. Kyla can't do anything on her own. She gets Lauren to do everything for her. At least I can write my own Iton article!! Batman and Robin are kinda dumb. They are nothing compared to me and Lauren. We are like Ernie and Bert. Kyla thinks she's one of us. She's okay but really we see her as our rubber duckie. She makes bathtime so much fun. I love Lauren.

By: Jen Herbert

P.S Lauren wipes!!

P.P.S - I am in Cabin 15. In fact. I run Cabin 15. Really I rock Cabin 15. Our late nights are awesome. Isn't that ironic? Don't you think?

I am really going to miss everyone here. Um....like I said earlier this has been the best summer of my life. I definitely want to come back next year, and I hope that it will be as great as it has been this year. I love all you guys!!!

Love, Anna Davis

Dear Camp Machar,

There are big ships and small ships but the best ships are FRIENDSHIPS!! I have made amazing friends at this camp and I love you all. Friends forever.

Love always and forever, Joanna Mansfield

Dear Machar,

I felt close to almost everyone of you from wake-up to Rad I love the whole day. Micah, thanx for the lullabies, Karen I love you and your fuzzy ears. Zack, thanx for the advice. I can go on and on but I just want to say to all of Machar I am very sorry if I hurt any of you and I love you all.

ARMY DAY

Last week, Machar had something called Army Day. All the staff were Army generals and we were privates. I was in a group called Sea Commandos. We had to walk in the water with our clothes on with fake wooden guns.

We all had to do what the generals said or we had to do push-ups and sit-ups. Later on in the day, we had two missions! It was a blast.

By: Zach Borer 91-96

“ Just open up yourself and it will come. Be open to new people and new experiences and it will change your life.”

Jacob's words forced the minds of the Macharniks during one of our first Rad Hayom's of 96.

It was a great summer, to put it into a few words. I want to thank my counselors for the wonderful and inspiring programming of this year's Machar. Our days were packed with special activities that made us learn about ourselves-who we are to the outside world. We tried to test our limits on army day. Jogging, crawling and swimming to our missions destination. Many nights we discussed love, goals, dreams and regrets, while sometimes we just listened to stories of our staff. The night that we received our T-shirts is an event that will never fade out of my memory. It impressed me, it imprinted into my thinking the words of caring, dreaming, expecting and risking.

This was my second year at camp and my second year in Machar. It's sad to say that I'll never be able to be in Machar as a camper ever again. It's a twice in a lifetime opportunity so don't waste it.

Camp Machar is a lot more than simply spending some time away from your parents, or finally learning how to swim. It is a place where you discover who you are, what you stand for, it is a place where you meet people that you are friends with for life. Machar is too special to be described, it is a feeling-in the words of last year's section song....."all want to know what it's like to be part of a group with unity, courtesy, and individuality." We are in a section that embraces both unity and individuality. Machar is a section to love and care about.

This is to Stroffy, the best section head any Macharnik could ask for. During the summer, he devoted all of his time and himself to making us as happy as we were, and I love him and wish him the best. To Jacob, Marnie and Feingold, thank you for a great summer and maybe I'll see you next year. Marnie (Shmon) and Simone, my bunk counselors, thanks for always being there and I love you all very much.

Going back to the words of Jacob:

"Keep yourself open to new experiences and it will change your life."

Machar of 1995 and 1996 changed mine.

Love Always, Rufina Litvak

OUR SECTION SONG

There is no doubt about it. This year's Machar section song may just be the best song in Camp Kadimah history. I know it you know it, the camp knows it and even Sheldon Cohen himself knows it and admits it. The song is great. Now that we've established that fact, there is still one question left unanswered. Why is it so good? A simple question with a not so simple answer. But to help us answer this I have come up with a list of possible explanations:

- 1) It is funny - Who doesn't get cracked up while listening to it? I think the line "with several backed crappers, please use the porta-potties" says it all.
- 2) Those nifty little hand movements - Yes, the rest of camp does make fun of them, but heck, I like 'em.
- 3) We all know the words - Hey, that always helps
- 4) It was written and produced by Jacob Medjuck - could this, in itself, make the song what it is?
- 5) Its tune (Gangsta's Paradise) by Coolio. Collio\Cool, get it?
- 6) We sing it in a nice spot. Right in the middle of the Chadar Ochel.
- 7) The better camp food this year - it improves our singing
- 8) The sound effects - Aaahs and Rayns - they certainly add
- 9) The best section ever is singing - need I say more?
- 10) All of the above

I think that everybody can make their own choice as to why our song is so good just as long as we all agree that it is. I think we should all thank Jacob Medjuck and his helpers for writing it and the entire section for singing it so nicely. What a song.

MACHAR FRIENDS

Laughs and good times
Is what Machar friends are about
Being there when you need
And not shutting you out
Understanding and listening
Is what they do
Machar friends last forever
I am so glad I have you..

ODE TO CABIN 15

Cabin 15 has some very special people living in it. Here is a poem about them.

Nicole tells the best stories in her sleep
Lauren always gets people to sweep
Kyla's s.p.s.s. are a fave
Sharon has a neat summer wave
Jodie's clothes are everywhere
Laura loves to dry her hair
Darah's envy is a must Swirsky is someone you can trust
Jenny pees 24\7
Ilana lives in 21 heaven
Joanna loves to go against the rules
Over Feingold Karen drools
Even though our Cabin is small
We're so cool, we've got it all.
CABIN 15 RULES

By: Jodie Zimmerman and Kyla Rudnick

Wow! Machar has been an experience! One that I will never ever forget! There are 112 special people in Machar and even through Most of you won't be mentioned in this article! I love you all!

Sharon - I LOVE YOU! You are my best friend forever! I don't know what I would do without you! We have only been together for two summers but it feels like I have known you forever! I'll never forget cabin 32 and our power leaps. How could we ever forget the alcove, upstairs and downstairs. I love our talks at night, especially when we are flying high because of our iced tea mix! Whenever I am in our bathroom all I can think of is M.Y. Look who it is, its Isaiah the dog! Who Is Selig? Share-Bear, you are the best friend anyone could have! Don't ever change! I love you! B.F.F!! "Friendship cups with elephants on them forever! You are the best I love you so much Share-Bear!!!!

Alexis - "Hey there cocoa bear, whats up with you. Where do I begin? Last summer we didn't really know each other in the beginning but towards the end I realized how special you are. I'll never forget Christmas Break 95! I love Lox, Stock and Bagel, our waiter and his partner are thinking about us always! How come you haven't worn your "Red Jeans" lately. We've had many "HAPPY" moments this summer. There are so many happy siblings and relatives at camp! But none as happy as Dave! Even though he hasn't had a happy shave in awhile I know that we both still love him! Polo Dave rules! I love you! B.B.N.C

Darah Faith - I love you so much! I'll never understand how you sleep on command. PNOSNV forever! Blue satin friendship bras always! Your healing is too much for me! I love you so much, don't ever change!

Zack and Clinty - I love you guys! Zack, your fuzzy ear rule and I love biting them. Clint, I will never understand why you like sausages so much! I will never,ever forget the baseball game that we went to. Brunfield is a lover. Zack, thanks for saving me from the creepy guys behind us. BOYFRIEND! I really hope that you two don't end up going to the banquet together again! I love both of you!!! Clint - I'm expecting 3 calls from you daily!B.F.F!

Carly - I love you so much! You were such a nature girl! Last summer we were the new girls. But not anymore! I'll never forget our conversation on the main sports field near the road! I don't know how I managed to no call you daily during the year. "You've got something in your left nostril and if I were you, I'd pick it with this finger!" Tank Girl rules! I love you forever! Don't ever change! NATURE GIRL! Nothing talks and rumbles w/ Toast forever!

Matt Ross - It all started with the pluckers, then HUBRIS (I know what it means) excessive pride or arrogance. You are always there to listen to my problems. One day me and Sharon will pluck you !! I love you!

Robbyn - I love you so much! Purple string rules forever! Pull the purple string Mr. President! I love you! You know that our friendship candles rule! Keep on smiling because you have so much to smile about! Don't ever change because you are the BEST!!!!!! I love you so much!
FRIENDS FOREVER!!!!

Michelle and Shosh - Both of you were good friends with Dana and I am really glad that I am just as close with both of you! Mich, POW! Independence Day rocked my world! Pec's on the bench and watching the b-ball games together! Shosh, I feel as if I can talk to you about anything! I love you both!

Tammy and Meredith - I love both you girls so much! Mer, Triscuit sucks! Look who it is, its Isaiah the dog! I love you! Tammy - cabin 32 of 95 rules forever! You guys are the best don't ever change!

Toast - I love our rumbles! Its like a sponge! Your nipple tattoos rocked my world! I love you !

Deb- I love you so much! Just when you think that no one cares I know that you will always care! One day we will find the one, even though Dave is a one. I love our fro's they rock! You can use my shampoo whenever you want!

There are three types of people:
Those who make it happen
Those who watch it happen
And those who say: "What happened?"

MACHAR 96 MADE IT HAPPEN!!!

Love always, Karen Born

Dear Cabin 3,

Well, it is only the third week of camp and Tammy and Aislin are sitting in the cabin thinking about what to write. Well, we guess you could say it has been one heck of a summer. Well, the cabin was full of smiling faces and a few tears but all in all it has been a "PHAT" summer with Adena, Aislin, Alexis, Anna, Beth, Carly F-G, Carly M., Elisa, Elana, Hannah, Marci, Marissa, Mindy, Meredith, Rachel, Robbyn, Shoshana, Silvia and Tammy! Here are some reminders of Cabin 3:

- Elana's music
- Robbyn's sleep-talking and walking
- Jenn P's foot in the way
- Leah's bed

Well, anyways, you know the rest, sorry this is so dumb. We hope you enjoyed this! That's it! We love you and will miss you! Camp Machar was the best.

Lots of love, Tam and Ais

WHERE WILL CABIN 3 BE IN 20 YEARS?

Hannah will be an art-a-roni jewelry designer
Julie will be an Olympic Gold Medalist Swimmer
Jen Perlov will be a good girl
Mindy will be the secretary of state
Rachel will be an astronaut
Marissa will be a world class dancer
Adena will be a tanning salon owner
Robbyn will be Mrs. Matt Goldstein
Tammy will be a pharmacist
Carly march will be a doctor
Carly Flam-Gitman will be a feminist rights activist
Leah will be the tallest women in the world
Jen Winn will be the mayor of Dartmouth
Marlie will be the owner of the entire Mr. Noodle corporation
Meredith will be a hair dye specialist

Karen will be a professional waterskiier
Elisa will be a blond dancer
Shosh will be the owner of Victoria Secret
Aisilin will be on a potato farm in her village in P.E.I.
Heidi will be Dear Abby
Beth will be healthy and eating solid food.

Love, Shosh Kuriloff and Rachel Mendleson

ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN

On July 21, 1996, we received our camp Machar T-shirts. Prior to receiving them we experienced a very moving program. Our staff taught us about preserving our hopes and dreams. At the conclusion of the program we gathered around a bonfire located in the middle of the pool. Hand in hand we learned that anything can happen and wondered about who we will be in the future. In the end we received our t-shirts which will always remind us of this meaningful program. This is when we joined together as one strong Camp Machar. CAMP MACHAR IS PARADISE!! A very special thank you to Stroffy and Staff for making our summer so special. We love you all!!

Love, Maya Kesler, Jodie Zimmerman and Jodi Silverberg

TO MY COMPANIONS, KAREN AND KAREN

Karen Swirsky- I think our parents were happy that they met. What do you think? It was really great getting to know you this summer. It was cool to know that we have the same name. I hope you like Camp Machar more than Kochot, because it should be. I am glad that I got to know you because you're a great person. Have a great year and please write.

Karen Born - What can I say? You are so nice, so happy, so cheerful... You are a born leader, (get it, Born? Ha!) I know, I know, I am such a geek, It was so nice getting to know you this summer. You were a special part of my summer. I know we weren't very close but you are a definite friend in my book. I love your hair. Someday, I want to give you a fro. Please keep in touch during the year, because I would like it if we could write. Have a great year.

To the both of you-How cheesier could I get? A letter to my two Karens. Too much cheese if ya ask me. I hope you had a great summer and I hope you have a great year. Please keep in touch.

Love, Karen Mendleson

RAD HAYOM

Rad Hayom is a special event that only Camp Machar participates in. It is a time when all the campers and staff get together, form a circle where we all link hands and sing songs.

Rain or shine, Rad Hayom still takes place. One night, when it was pouring rain, we did Rad Hayom outside. It was one of the best moments of my summer

For me, Rad Hayom is the time of day when I think about my day, what I did, how I'm feeling. I don't like Rad Hayom, because it is the only time of day that camp Machar is together. I feel like there is this small connection, a bond that is formed between us every time we circle up for Rad Hayom. It's like for this certain period of time, we are all connected, we are all friends sharing the same thoughts. It's strange that such a simple activity can mean so much to me and to everyone else in Camp Machar. Rad Hayom is something that I will always remember and the feelings that I find during Rad Hayom will be with me for years to come.

THE CREW

The crew was formed on July 7, 1996 on a windy Camp Kadimah day.

The story,

On a windy day 4 guys sailed in the lake, the seas were rough, but they pulled through. Through all the cursing, water and excitement, the new sailing crew was formed.

The ending

Even though the crew just started, this article is ending.

Dear Cabin 3 of 1996,

First of all, I think we had an amazing summer. You guys all made my first year Machar one to remember forever. Amanda Marshall Kicks! Guess now I'll write to each of you individually.

Julie Roza - I really tried to whisper at night except I truly don't know how I never ever meant to ditch you that day. I love you.

Mindy Lampert - Mind, we should go and slack off some more. Army day was definitely my idea of being rude to a staff member. I am gonna miss your demonstrations towards Lindsay and me but regardless I'll never forget you.

Marissa Attis - Well, you are one of the famous Attis'. Well, I didn't get to know you too well because you slept most of the time. The time I spent with you made me realize how much I really need you to direct me in correct direction.

Robbyn Fallon - Robs, I am so happy we became good friends. We were just putting on bug spray but oh well what a shame we got them thrown in the lake. M.B.F. Massage your..C.T.C. We still must write J.T.T and tell him he is not god. Demi Moore, a really good actress. We had a lot of good times and bad ones. Shannon is a geek. You helped me through a lot, Keep in touch. Coconuts.

Carly March - Can I wear your pants, I know you just washed them but.. Carly, most of the time you were in the infirmary but I still got to know you and I love you. See ya around. Oh, how come you got so many packages?

Hannah Zitner - We had nice talks every so often, about everything. I always love your advice and thanks for taking my crap. Palindrome. You are maybe by far the most energetic person I know. You were right, I should talk to ...I'm gonna miss you, your dress, and blanky. Do you remember: Yeah, I guess I do sometimes.

Rachel - Only 2 more laps. Push, push you can do it, I know you can. You are an amazing person and never change. I was kind of unsure about being in your cabin but now I am glad and I love you dearly.

Jen P. - Everything I have to say to you is basically you are one of the best people and C.T.C was never for us.

Adena - Well, I guess we are both jappy but, I'm sorry for all of those times I treated you badly but what can I say you really are a great person and without you cabin 3 would not be complete.

Tom - Thank you so much for being so concerned, you are the only one who understood fully and who stood up. We have to visit. Montreal bagels are gross, actually they are hard and icky. Its OK to have the throwing up feeling. Thank you so much for teaching me what you did I would have never done it without you.

Carly F-G - So, what's happening with you and Paul? You are so informative and what would ever be done without you. You have a say in everything and that's the way I like it. The first day I didn't even recognize you. I hope you had fun getting shaving cream on you then finding another bottle and getting him even worse.

Leah - How come we didn't make perfect iced tea this year? If I tried to wake you would you wake up? I know you're coming to Toronto so you don't have to tell me.

Jenn W - I loved sleeping beside you, you got to hear every word of my complaining. You are always cheery and remember it si Dartmouth.

Alexis - Just get in the water, you finally did it. I told you could do it, next time have faith. Why does our bed shake? I am sorry for being so messy but I am not as bad as I could be.

Silvia - Well, I love your buddy tag and also you are a great dancer. Keep in touch and keep up all the artistic stuff.

Karen - I gave you back your cheers shirt and I knew where it was. Do you ever believe me? I am so happy we were in the same cabin. I don't mean to be loud and every night, it's always Meredith please whisper, I am really sorry and I love you.

Elisa - Hey there! So, about that party you were one of the few people who actually listened to me and took my crap. I feel for you. I will miss you so much Aislin - Along with Tammy, you were a great teacher. P.E.I. has red sand and has potatoes. Why did you move from everyone. You taught me a lesson I will never forget.

going perfectly w

Shosh - How come no matter what you always smiled and never turned a smile upside down. "Shoushe" when you come to Toronto visit us all. You are doing a great job as a local lad and never change a bit.

Marcie - Hey! You have been a great person to be with. I could share it all with you and I know you would never hurt me. I am going to miss you so much. Most of the things I would like to say are way to personal to say in an Iton article.

Anna - I am so glad you were in my cabin. You fit in really well and I am glad you had the pants I liked Your hand messages were quite good (even though I never got one). I hope you come back next year and if not well we will get together.

Elana - WAKE UP! He is mine and don't even think about it. Indigo girls are the best. How could you not have done it, you are 14. I will miss you, have fun with GABE and continue to be a sweet psycho girl.

Marlie - Well, you come from a land quite similar so you understood everything. You fit in amazing and even though you weren't haven't o much fun at first I am sure you ended up having the best time of your life.

Beth - I know I was just a bit messy but I tried my hardest. I also didn't mean to wake you up in the mornings, I tried. You were one of the best counselor I could have had. I know I was not the best camper but I hope you still love me.

Heidi - You are always too enthusiastic about mornings and every thing else. I am so sad that the summer is over. I am going to miss telling you my problems and getting answers. My summer would have never been complete without you and Beth. I love you.

Love always. Meredith Krangle

ARMY DAY

As we sat quietly in the Ulam the lights dimmed, everyone was quiet, and they announced "It's army day." We all had mixed feelings about this! Some people were happy, some were scared. As we sat there they told us to line up and gave us each a wooden gun. The next day they woke us up at 6:45am and we had 5min to get dressed and be on the auxiliary sports field for morning exercises. Were those ever fun! NOT. We were all pretty tired by the end of those exercises but that is when we realized it was only the beginning! Through out the day we ran, swam, crawled and jumped around the camp. We were all very tired and sore by the end of the day. One thing I learnt about army day is that I never want to be in the army. Over all I think that army day is a neat experience and I'm glad we had it.

FRIENDSHIP

Friendship may be a simple thing,
But lots of love it will bring.
Things to share and talk about,
It's something we just can't do without.

All our lives friendship lasts,
Through the years we'll look back,
Remembering laughs and happy times,
Along with the cries and sorry sighs.

Friendships don't die,
but continue to grow,
So be sure to cherish the friendships you know.

By: Miriam Noel

Dear Camp Machar,

This year was my first year in Camp Machar and at Camp Kadimah and I used to go to Camp Shalom. These past 6 weeks have probably been the greatest summer of my life. Everyone was so friendly seeing as I had basically no friends because I knew no one the first day of cam. I now know everyone of the 90 campers in Machar! I will miss all of the second years tremendously and the first years till next year! I enjoyed this summer lots and I'll miss everyone! Bye, I love you lots!

Lauren Greenspan.

Machar is meaningful to us and will be forever.

Always fun and amazing never letting us down.

Cherished memories of friends for life.

Has been and always will be a place for friendships to grow.

A Macharnick we will always be at heart.

Rad Hayom is a special place where we all can be at peace.

DO DO DO DO

C.I.T.'S OF '96 ROCK ON DO DO DO DO X2
LET'S CELEBRATE

WE'VE GOT A CAMP GO'IN ON RIGHT HERE
THAT ONLY LASTS FOR SIX WEEKS OF THE YEAR
WE'VE HAD OUR GOOD TIMES AND CAMP YAVNEH TOO
RULE 23 WE DON'T CARE ABOUT YOU

COME ON NOW CELEBRATION
WITH GARY WE HAD A GOOD TIME
COME ON NOW CELEBRATION
WE HAVE SUZANNE BUT NOT ALL THE TIME

WE'RE ALL HERE TO HELP YOU IT'S
OUR PLEASURE
JENN THE MIKES, ANN WILL LEAD OUR WAY
SO COME ON

THERE'S A CHEVRA GOIN ON RIGHT HERE
MORTAL KOMBAT AND SHAFT ARE ALWAYS NEAR
WE DO THE NAST AND WE'VE GOT HAND TOO
WE WENT TO NEW HAMPSHIRE AND SAW HELL TOO
IT'S TRUE

COME ON NOE CELEBRATION
WE'VE GOT PLACEMENTS AND SPEACIALTY TOO
WE LOVE CAMP AND WE'LL BE SURE TO ROCK YOU!

WE'RE HERE ALL TOGETHER TO HELP YOU IT'S
OUR PLEASURE
JENN THE MIKES AND ANN WILL LEAD OUR WAY SO SOME ON DO DO DO

ROCK ON C.I.T.S. '96

JENN'S ITON ARTICLE TO THE C.I.T.'S OF 1996

Who else could survive 18 hours on a bus together and not only be on talking terms afterwards, but continue to walk arm in arm? Has there been any other group of C.I.T.'s that have worked as hard as this year's group? There seems to be this general notion in the camp that all the C.I.T.'s do is shower and suntan. There have been summers where this may be the case, but this summer was a different story. Mind you, with the rather peculiar odour coming from the composters, you'd never be able to tell if they were clean or not. Also, the minimal amounts of sun we had this summer eliminated the latter half of this myth.

There's a lot of pressure involved in writing these articles. I am not going to make a list addressing all 21 of you, but I will recall on some memories that we've all shared over the past five weeks. Admittedly, I was a bit apprehensive about working with the C.I.T.'s this summer. I was nervous that I might treat you as gibbies and be overprotective of you. By week one, I found myself proven wrong. You did not need the same amount of attention in the morning to get ready for breakfast, you needed more. You even fear the water more than the gibbies, and need even more quieting down at meal times. But even if we were quiet, we still couldn't hear anything anyway. All kidding aside, I must tell you that I had an excellent summer. It was hard to get mad at you in the dining hall because the reason that you would talk so much was because you guys are such good friends. Also, I must admit that some of the adaptations to the birkad are humorous, as are the faces and gestures you make. And alright, I will also admit that I think Mortal Kombat does have a catchy tune to it.

I was very impressed with how well the seven new C.I.T.'s fit into camp. Particularly the girls, you guys made a real effort to include the new girls and make them feel welcome. It also made me extremely happy to hear the excellent reports from the specialists and the other staff with how you were all handling your placements. It made both Michael and myself very proud to see you helping out, whether it be taking a kid in a boat who doesn't have their deep, or carrying your campers laundry bags.

Almost every night at about midnight I look at my watch and ask myself where the night went and what it was that I have been doing. The answer is always the same. It's usually that I was lying on of your beds either getting or giving a backrub, or sharing one of those stories, you know the ones I mean. What I'm trying to say is that I just really enjoy spending time hanging out with you guys. Michael and I couldn't have asked for a better group if we picked it ourselves.

Speaking of whom, I must now turn this article in his direction. I remember being captains with you two summers ago and we barely knew each other. Perhaps it was better that way. No, I'm only joking. It's been wonderful working with you this summer. Even better, I'm thrilled with our friendship, and I anticipate our future McDonald's dates and maybe a couple small shows, not too many people, don't worry. Thanks so much for being so supportive of everything throughout the summer, and I hope your health improves.

To the poss, I thank you for hours upon hours of endless entertainment and laughter. It's a combination of chewing gum and a foreign sneeze. Little Rob, I loved coming back to our little home and seeing the light on. I'm sorry for all the late nights that I missed because I was sleeping. House, House, House, House of Mill, Mill, Mill..... let's try and think of some new lines. And finally to my friends who have stuck together over the years.....I hope this is not the last iton article that I will write with all of you in my mind as a part of my summer.

Bye for now,
Love Jenn

*Thanks guys,
Love Jenn*

CIT REPORT

Ok, CIT'S, I know you are all very excited about my article but please calm down and be quiet - I've got a hand and I know how to use it (believe me!)

We have had a great summer together. All of you have made my life so easy -easy enough to allow me to sleep all day. Thanks very much for that.

As you all know by now, I am a man a few words. AS a result, it is very difficult for me to try and summarize the entire summer's highlights. We have experienced so much together in just six weeks that it would be impossible for me to attempt to recap them in a few passages. Therefore I have compiled a Top Ten List of Reasons Why I loved Being c CIT in 1996. It contains a brief description of some of the highlights and low lights of the summer.

- 10) Window watching in Boston
- 9) The VIP's coffee talk
- 8) A lovely night at Camp Yavneh
- 7) Submarine Sandwiches (more meat please)
- 6) Intimate Karate lesson in Boston
- 5) Sleeping in Cabin 74
- 4) "Stimulating Periodicals" in Cabin A
- 3) A beautiful midsummers night at Indian Falls
- 2) The "Truck in the Ditch" Incident
- 1) Doin' the nasty!!

CAMP
YAVNEH!

To the lovely and talented Jennifer Miller, I ant to thank you for making this summer as perfect as it was. Thank you for the personal health advice and for the countless hours of conversation. There is so much more I would like to say to you but you would probably have ne thrown in jail for saying it.

In closing I just want to say thank you to all CITS of 96. You guys are a fabulous group of people and you deserve all the credit for making this summer the success that it was.

Love,

Michael Rinzler

Dear C.I.T.S pf 1996,

First off, you rock my world. It has been a great summer.

Anna Kassner (Moe)- Do it for him, he'll be very impressed. Jimmy, I don't know how to love him...mmm yum. Those white t-shirts. I love you... Please don't break it. Come home army boy! I'm a metallica monk. 666- oy. That's not a honey, it's a hynie. Medical/ law. Anna man, I love you. "The letter" (cheerleading! Nuff said.)

Pazit Gal- I love your wicked blanket! Shop-a-holic woman! Hard Rock salads! I love BBYO. Our bathroom gossip rocked!

Rachel C- My name is up there, look, LOOK! Chiquir talks. Sobes bag. Can I steal the ____? The rose, Rach, Can I borrow your ____? It's so hot! She doesn't shower! Pranks! Head- in window! Cup search! This is gross, take it back.

Adina B-You're so happy! Thanx for all the hugs. Neil, Oren, nuff said. Tell Abbey I love you. I love sitting on your bag.

Cara- you always seem to be half naked. Really, I love the Goshies telling me that there was always some girl in her bra in the C.I.T cabin.

April-Thank you for explaining that fish thing to me. I'd have never figured it out. The shower house is haunted, I swear.!

Ruth- googly eyed C.I.T. I don't know how you do it, but you are just always cute!

Danielle- You Rock! Little screws are falling on the floor! Go Waterfront! It wasn't that bad!

Jessica- Somehow, we are always in the same group! Grammy nite! Go programming. We should have just been dwarfs again!

Kari- Thank you for introducing me to the world of Ani DeFranco! I will miss our stupid little conversations. Let's stay close.

Jen S.- Where to begin. I won't lie. We have grown apart this summer for better or for worse but you still rock my world! B'nai B'rith Girls! Special Friends! He's scary! Are you using your lap?

Jen G- Mr. Roper I'm sorry. You only look like him sometimes. It's been a wicked summer, please keep in touch.

Marla- I know I'm a moron, and a klutz. Hand talking. wTripping in the Chadar. I'm really not that stupid.

Elise- yay sweatshirt! The chodus mix- nuff said. 'Marvin slap this boy. Social breaking stress. Where is this strange place we've landed? Men are morons.

Adina S. - My shower buddy . You take soo long. Make up your mind! Yay Gibbies!

Jonah- I am so proud of you for wearing that senators shirt. Please get involved in Magen BBYO. It really is a good thing. I promise I will call during the year so that we may have more silly conversations.

Perry- Thank g-d Grease is over! Yay! All I can think of is "Perry shut it! It's been a pleasure doing business with you! I know , I felt your stress. Yay silliness during Friday evening program sichot.

Ben- Well all you do is laugh at me! I wonder if it isn't grounded! Really, I'm not that stupid! Have a great year. You truly are g-d (not)! I just thought you might want to hear that.

Dov- I don't think I ever sat and talked to you, so I don't really have many memories to share. Have a wicked year.

Jeremy- My thinking buddy. Even though you may not know it , you have helped me through a lot. It's nice to know you're there. I'm always there for you however cheezy that may sound. I hope we keep in touch throughout the year. It is hard to write down emotions so I'll just tell you that I care about you a lot.

With love and pride in C.I Ts of '96, you, placements, Irvings and bus rides, I remain always yours.

Naomi Levitz.

P.S Remember that wherever the day takes you, you will be there.

"Fly Away" by Pazit Gal.

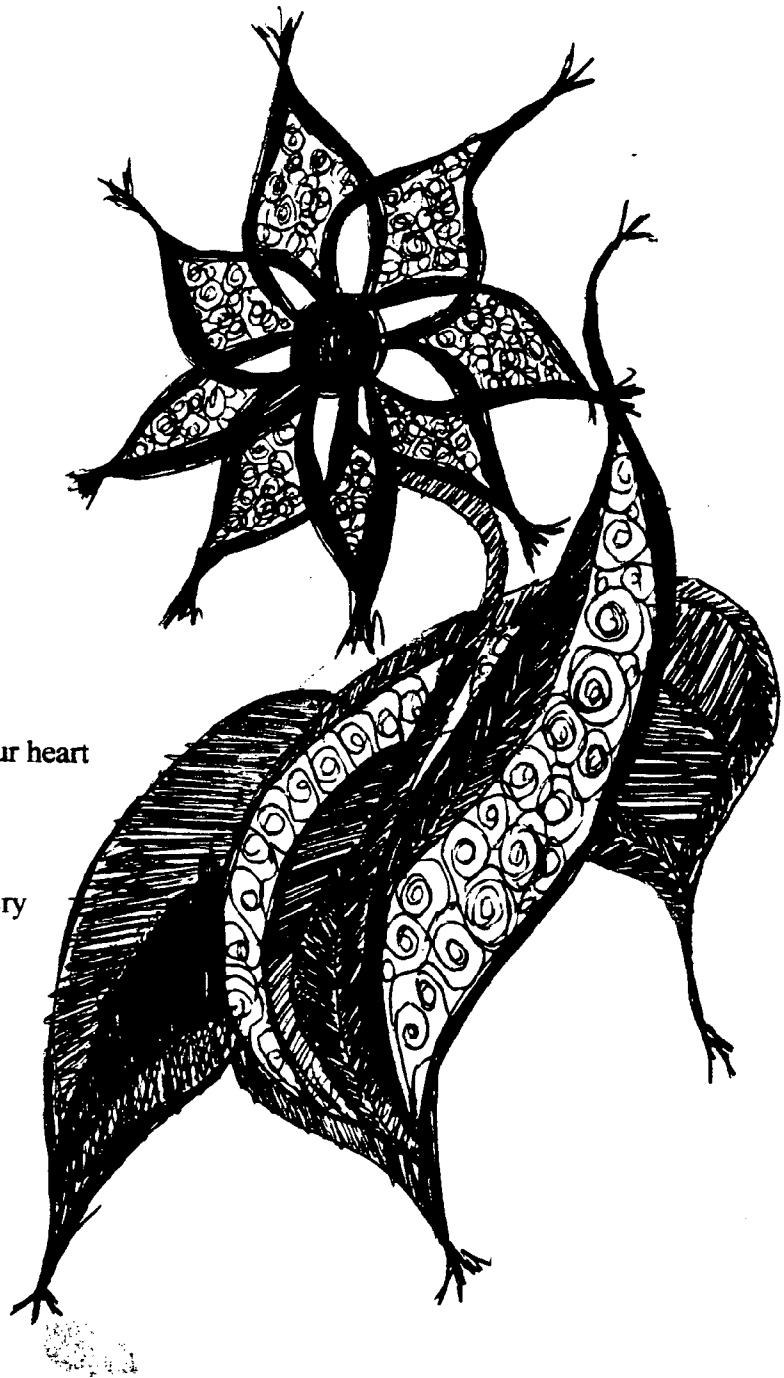

Your life is a gift
Gift of love
When your soul
Flies as a dove

There are different faces that wear their masks
And everyday
They break apart

Break into different spirits
With unique approach
Approach of love
That was never taught

Never forget your own beliefs
Of life and their needs
Needs of peace and friends
Memories that touch your heart
Every time someone pinches your heart

I'm feeling peculiar
When I stare at the sky
And every thought is a part of a cry
A cry that cares about the souls
That will never be shown.

The 3 Jennifer's

It seems as though there was a particular phase that meant expecting parents went through over approximately a decade in which it was the name of a girl on a popular soap opera. Well as a result, there are three girls in C.I.T.'s who share this name this summer. Jennifer Shousterman, Jennifer Greenbaum and Jennifer Miller. It's not so easy being a Jen. There's always someone else in your class with the same name. There are never any initialized things left in your name like Jennifer's room or this pencil belongs to Jennifer. And every time someone begins to say "generally" our heads turn. You get used to not answering to your own name because the odds are that it is another Jen's attention in demand.

We have a lot in common though. Both Jen S. and Jen G. spell Jen with only one "n", Jenn Miller with two "n's". Both Jen S. and Jenn M. spend a lot of time in Rinzler's cabin.

Now take a moment to reflect on all your friends Jennifer and all the difficulties they encounter in everyday life. The next time you see a Jennifer give them a hug.

Signing off,

Jenn 3

A Quote from "Adilmof"

As the summer draws closer to the end, I sit and wonder about how the time has just flown by. Together we have made this summer great and we also proved to others that there is much more to the C.I.T.s than just sitting around and doing nothing. We had an amazing time with our inside jokes..Mortal Kombat.. shaft.. the powerade bottle and Dov, "Do the nasty", etc,,, and our Boston trip. To cabin 74, I'll miss everyone of you in my own way. To cabin A, what can I say? You're a class of your own. It was great. Always remember if you need a friend I 'm just a line away. keep in touch and have a kick'n year.

From a dear friend,

Kari "Adilmof" Adilman.

xoxo

Friends

How can I describe friends? For starters I can tell you that friends are people you can trust and confide in. Friends will always be there to lend a hand or listen to your troubles. When You're down they are there to make you laugh or even try to find a solution. To me, friends are the most important people to have around. Your friends will always be there for you and so will I. Thank you all for being there throughout the summer and thanks for being the best friends I will ever know.

Kari Adilman.

It's Tisha B'av, And Perry Is Nowhere To Be Found.

We are the fasters and this is our article. Perry is not here. Cara is denying eating a cookie, Marla chewed gum, Elise brushed her teeth, (don't worry, we all did - except Rachel). Anna had a Coke, and Rachel is an angel. She didn't do anything wrong. Once again, Perry is not present. It is dinner and the kitchen staff did a wonderful job not making us want to eat. The Green Day music in the background helps too. Cara being Cara is playing her games. Perry probably is too, but we wouldn't know because Perry is not here. Perry is probably wearing leather underwear and snacking on corned beef and Grey Poupon somewhere in camp. But how would we know? We wouldn't, he's not here. Oh! There he is, driving the Hostess Potato Chip truck our of camp. Bad Perry. Don't you know it's a serious holiday? We're all a little hungry and David Fumero is looking more yummy than normal. Marla's dog, Oliver can give himself t--e. That's disgusting Marla. Rachel says fishing is a very interesting because it's like two fragile lives connected by a thin strand. Come on, Rachel. Grow up. We had a long philosophical discussion about Anna's mother. She wrote Anna a letter while she was drunk, we're sure. She loves Anna more than strawberries with fresh whipped cream. Bad Mommy. She went to AA cuz she lost her purse. Anna's mom thinks she's Tina Turner. So does Perry, uh oh conflict. But wait! Perry's not here, so Mrs. Kassner wins. Weed the traditional Friday night chicken go? You guys won't get that, only us 5 get it. Perry would get it if he were here, but he's not. We are stereotypical freaks, and Anna is our leader. Simon says...Anna loves Reese's pieces. She washes her hands with Dove soap. PERRY HAS BEEN SPOTTED! We repeat, we have found Waldo! He's headed for the kitchen! Oops, I just poked Cara in the face with a pencil. Hello Jessica! Jess just joined us, Jess Fraser, not Donnenfield. She's a crazy sports person here at Camp Kadimah. She's leaving on a Macarena hunt. That's about all from the Fasting Gang.

Love Always,

Nonsense

This is Jen and Elise again. We are writing this article for one reason. To fill up the C.I.T. section in the Iton. Topic #1- Pet peeves. Well we got a lot of those. 1. People who chew with their mouth open, ewwww! Do we really need to see what food looks like during the chewing process in the middle of breakfast? We can learn about digestion in biology. (Thanks). 2. People who don't brush their teeth. Is it really a shlep to brush your teeth (with toothpaste) for 3 minutes, 3 times a day. Even worse is the visible tartar build up and gingivitis. 3. The dripping tap. The sign is right above the sink!! Read it!! Topic # 2- Underwear. What is so hard to understand? Don't wear the ones that hike up your butt because that is just gross, but is it really necessary to wear ones that are almost as low cut as shorts? Gimme a break. Calvins are good. They are comfortable, and still look good. Especially the sport briefs for women. We highly recommend them. Topic # 3- Watch alarms. Why do people set their watch alarms to go off every hour? Can you not look at your watch and say "Oh, it's 6:05. It must be the sixth hour". And everyone's goes off at different seconds so in a big group of people, at 6:00, all you hear is beep, beep, pause, beep, beep, beep, many beeps (this must mean it's truly 6:00), a few beeps after (their watches must be slow), and the odd beep for the odd person who sets their watch for 6:03 reminding them to take their pill.

Topic # 4- Compost. Being in cabin 74, we get the lovely compost smell often. Suggestion? Compost ELSEWHERE! We do not enjoy the smell of sour milk and moldy cheese. Suddenly the smell of our own washroom is heaven.

Topic # 5- C.I.T.'s. WE ROCK! End of story.

Boston '96

Sunday July 14 at 10:00p.m. our adventure began. As we rolled out of Camp Kadimah, our excitement prevented us from sleeping. Just as we all fell asleep we had to change buses at 3:00 in the morning. We said our goodbyes to "Ralphie the dude" and we met our new driver "Zoomin' Gary".

Our first, second, third and fourth stops were at "Irving's Big Stop" gas and restaurant place. On the way we watched Mortal Kombat, Desperado, Waiting to Exhale, Get Shorty and Heat. These movies kept us occupied throughout our 18 hour journey.

Dressed in pyjamas and half asleep we walked through Freeport, Maine, an outdoor-shopping center where we received several rude comments looks and gestures about our attire. As we were overcome with the excitement of departing the bus we reached camp Yavneh. We were escorted to our sleeping chambers, referred to by Yavenites as Jerusalem 90210 building. Believe you me it was no Beverly Hills. This is a camp where our version of doing the nasty was doing the Berkat. This camp was so religious that the cabins had two fridges inside, one for the milk and one for the meat. As we were interacting with our fellow C.I.T.'s (Kerem). We were often asked why does your clothing say Roots?

In the evening we presented a program to them an anti-Semitism. As we began to prepare for a good nights sleep we were faced with several difficulties. Due to the hard, dirty floor/benches, the extreme heat, and the millions of bugs, sleeping was made impossible. If that's not bad enough the Yavenites were singing extremely loud in Hebrew until 11:00p.m. In the morning we were all eager to eat breakfast. However, as we were sitting there we were forced to listen to opera music. Strangely enough the Yavenites happened to know the words. After all that we were very glad to see Gary drive up! He took us straight to the dorms of Boston University. When we got settled in we headed for Quincy Market which is an outdoor shopping place. From there we proceeded to the Boston Red Sox game. When we arrived back at the dorms, several of us gathered in a room and watched the people in the dorms across from us.

The Oreo Theory (or friendship)

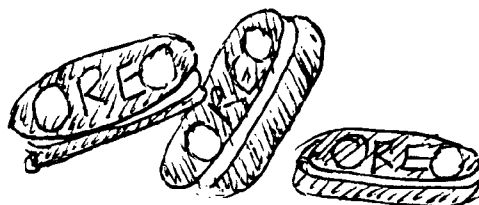

Elise Kazman and Jen Shousterman are here to explain the Oreo theory. In can Oreo you have the cream, and the cookie. Apart they are both good but put together, they're amazing. Best friends are like oreos. They are good on their own , but put them together, they're even better. Let us elaborate. Elise and Jen lead two extremely opposite views on relationships, the future, clothing , hair, men etc. But don't get the wrong idea. We do agree on some things like underwear. We like it comfortable but not something your Bubbie would wear. We also agree on hygiene. Showering is a good thing- especially at 5:00 in the morning) Flossing is also good. In short, clean is good.

We met on a sunny day at Camp Kadimah, July 1, 1994. to be exact. Elise was wearing sweats (surprise, surprise) and Jen was wearing her TYR and a striped yellow towel. We were standing on the beach before Jen was going to take her deep. From our first conversation we knew that we'd become good friends, but to tell you the truth we didn't think we'd become best friends. But hey, neither one of us are complaining.

To end, we would just like to say: Always eat your Oreo together, not apart

Dear Jeremy Ehrlich,

Seriously, you're my favorite C.I.T. I know them all, and you're in a league of your own. Just because you're a gooph. Still, your sister is cooler - no offense. Stop giving me attitude, and then maybe we can hang.

Love, Lauren

Dear Elliot, woops, I mean Lauren.

Sorry about that, it's just that well you know... well maybe you don't know. Smarties are good, they taste like chocolate. Why does chocolate taste good? Why? I don't know. What do I know? I'm really not sure. If I let you do your thing you would fly? Rock are hard!

Love, Jeremy.

Jerusalem

מחנך ד"ר אהרן בן-ציון

THEME:

JERUSALEM 3000 - ALL ROADS LEAD TO YOU

Through a rich and diverse history, it has always been clear that the heart of the Jewish people resides in Jerusalem. All elements of Judaism can claim to be rooted in its experience with this city, from Abraham's covenant with God which initially promised the land to the Israelites, to the current battle for peace with their Middle East neighbours. In between these landmark events lies thousands of years of war, peace, religion and education - the road to all of these things, as well as to the future of the Jews, leads directly to Jerusalem.

Inspired by this recognition of the centrality of Jerusalem to Judaism, these Maccabiah games have adopted a theme which incorporates certain crucial elements of the Jewish people, and their relationship to the city. Some of these, though extremely prominent in Jewish history, must yield to others if the Jews are to enjoy a prosperous future. First, it is evident that the road to war leads to Jerusalem. In ancient times, military conquest has resulted in the exile of the Jewish people from Jerusalem - the Babylonian destruction of the first temple in 586 B.C.E. and of the second by the Romans in 70 C.E. both sent the Jews into dispersion. In modern times, the City of Gold has been stained by bloodshed in the War of Independence of 1947-48 and in the Arab-Israeli War of 1967.

In the Six Day War the Jews reversed over a thousand years of history by capturing Jerusalem and in particular, the Old City. While this great triumph returned the Jews to the core of their homeland and enabled them to claim it as the capital of the State of Israel, it by no means signified the end of conflict. The battle over the city rages on, and has become a key piece to the larger Middle East peace puzzle. As our theme attempts to convey, it is high time that the warriors yield to those who wish to travel on the road to peace.

The primacy of Jerusalem in this new struggle cannot be overestimated. In 1977 for example, Anwar Sadat realized that peaceful overtures are most powerful when they flow through Jerusalem. His monumental visit to the Knesset triggered a process which culminated in a peace treaty with the State of Israel's most formidable foe. From Pharaoh to Nasser, from Exodus to Suez, Egypt relentlessly stifled Jewish prosperity in the Middle East. The dramatic transformation from enemy to friend revolved around Jerusalem. The Camp David Accords now serve as the catalyst for a challenging peace process which continues until the present. As the final status talks begin this summer, all actors are aware that the fate of Jerusalem remains as the single most sensitive issue on the agenda.

If and when peace is ultimately achieved, the signing of official treaties must yield warm relations and tolerance. To capture this critical achievement, the symbol of a book is employed in the theme. The book could be one of history, whereby the Jews must be aware of their own past, so to ensure that the incidents of horrific destruction do not occur again. Certainly, this education cannot be completed without knowledge of Jewish life in Jerusalem. The city has been a source of hope for the Jewish people no matter where they have been. As they marched across the Red Sea, endured the slaughter of the Spanish Inquisition, and laboured vigorously under the plan of Nazi genocide, Jerusalem has always served as a beacon of light.

Furthermore, the road to tolerance necessitates that the Jews and their neighbours understand each other's past. As part of this effort, it is essential that each group become sensitive to the importance of Jerusalem to all people. This task is rooted in the notion of religion. Jerusalem serves as a holy epicenter for the world's three monotheistic faiths - Judaism, Christianity and Islam. It is crucial that books of a different sort, those of scripture, be instrumental to the education of all - so that the Torah, the Testaments both Old and New, as well as the Qu'ran, may be believed by some but respected by all.

Jerusalem's history books are littered with tales of conflict and turmoil. Hopefully, a deep appreciation for the claims of others will enable the story of the future to take a dramatically different tone. As the city celebrates its 3000th birthday, Jews around the world are called upon to pay tribute to the immeasurable importance of Jerusalem to Jewish life, in the past, the present and the future. In so doing, all must recall the pledge, "If I forget thee Oh Jerusalem, may my right hand wither." And "why", Jerusalem may respond, "am I so indispensable to Judaism?" And we shall answer: "Because All Roads Lead To You."

WAVEMAKERS
YELLOW TEAM 1996

SONG to the tune of Thriller by Michael Jackson

We're the Wavemakers
Fighting for the right to our homeland
Against the current Continuing what our ancestors began

3000 years, and still it seems like nothing has been resolved
But we march on, delaing with whatever come on way
We here to stay!!

CHORUS

Yerushalim, for you we must be brave
Red, white and blue watch out cause yellow team is making waves.
Yerushalim, we're on our way
If I forget thee let my right hand decay.

It's just a stage
Our final goal is peace and unity
Right here right now
Making waves is gonna set us free

We must be strong
And stand up tall to keep our faith alive...
Oseh Golim, are gonna win Maccabia this year.
WE HAVE NO FEAR!!!!

CHORUS

CHEER to the tune of Shafteh Mayim

Yellow team, the Wavemakers
We're headed toward Jerusalem
Yellow team we strive and fight to preserve the faith of our nation

Yellow team of 96
We'll win Maccabia
Yellow team of 96
We simply won't give up

Hey Hey Hey Hey
Yellow x 4 Making waves is what we do
Yellow x 4 Jerusalem this is for you!

CAPTAINS' MESSAGE

Dear Yellow Team of 1996,

Well, it has been twelve years coming and we were the ones to finally do it. The other teams say that they had a good time but we won!! Every single team member helped lead us to victory, except for Riva Barak (we couldn't find her) We all came together and had a wonderful time. Thank you so much to everyone for your spirit and support.

Love, your captains,

Stephanie Levitz
Ben Alexander
Michelle Vigod
Isaac Stein

P. S - YELLOW IS GOOD. REALLY GOOD!!!!!!!

RAISING GAIA
BLUE TEAM 1996

SONG to the tune of "Just Wait" by Blues Traveller

We built you up and then they tore you down
Our Conflicts and our differences pulling us apart
3 thousand years of violence in Jerusalem
Giving us a reason to change the way we are

CHORUS

Just raise
Just raise
Raise
Raising Gaia

The time has come to celebrate our unity
Recognize diversity in Mother NATURE
The spirit of our parts the laws that guide us
The spirit of tomorrow, tomorrow and today

CHORUS

Now we look to you, to you in the centre
Gaia in our hearts and all our prayers
Raising Gaia to the morning sunrise
Remembering that all roads, all roads lead to you

CHORUS X 2

RAISING GAIA!!

CHEER - to the tune of Rise and Shine

The games have begun and blue team is #1
The ruach and choach of Gaia shines like the sun
With Scott, Deb Josh & Heidi we'll have fun
All roads lead to you

CHORUS

City of Gold our living spirit lies with you
Raising Gaia up towards the sky of blue
Above all, for all, we'll raise you through

Blue Team '96

Red, white and yellow we're heading for a new horizon
Peace in Israel is for what we've all been striving Helping us to raise up Yerushalim
For the good of all

CHORUS

CAPTAIN'S MESSAGE

Dear Blue Team '96,

Well, first of all we would like to say Congratulations to all of you for a job well done. Yes, people always say it's stressful being a Maccabia Captain and by no means are we arguing with you. But with the AMAZING team that we had, who would complain?

We would like to thank all of you for everything you did. Hey, we know it's not easy cheering for four days straight. But a special thanks goes towards Beth and Gabe.... THANK YOU! We're still in awe.

Guys, even though we didn't come out on top, we had a great time and we all know it was worth the effort, and exhaustion.

So thanks for everything, we had a blast! Remeber...all roads lead to you.

Love your captains,

Scott Jacobson

Heidi Lipkus

Debra Freeman

Josh Levitz

MINSTREL'S HARMONY
RED TEAM 1996

Cheer- Tune: Fat Boy

CHORUS:

Hey Red team,

OH YA,

We rule in '96

Hey Red team,

We'll win this Maccabia, na,na,na,na, na, na.

Hey minstrels we will beat all of the other teams,
we will win the races and louder we will scream,
we see the things they're doing, we hear the cheers they're saying,
To white, yellow and blue, you better start your praying.

CHORUS

Red team of 96, we run, we swim all round camp,
We sing, we cheer all day long,
Come all minstrels and sing your song
Blue want to be the red team now,
White, want to be the minstrels now,
Yellow, want to be the red team now,
Camp come and join the red team now!

CHORUS

Go RED!!!!!!!!!!!!

Song-Tune: Stuck in the Middle with You

As we travel down the road tonight,
Jerusalem comes into sight,
We watch what's going on,
which helps us to create our song.

CHORUS:

Muslims to the left of us,

Christians to the right,

Harmonized, stuck in the middle, we're Jews...(clapX3)

Stuck in the middle, we're Jews

Minstrels know what it is we should do, our harmony lasts throughout time,
which helps the future to unify.

CHORUS

Well we started in Jerusalem and moved in different directions,

Now 3000 years have passed and we're heading home at last.

Harmonized X2

To white, yellow, and blue,
we know what's up for you,
seen the future and been to the past,
The minstrel's song will always last.

Good Luck to the rest of you,
the minstrel's gonna fight,
till the end,
Our harmony shadows you X2

Captain's Message

Dear dear Red team of 1996,

To try and capture four of the craziest days of our summers in a paragraph is no easy task. Periodically throughout Maccabia, head staff would approach us and ask us if the pressure was getting to be to much. Responses varied from no, loving it, on the first day, to Maccabia team names need not be discussed until 1:30a.m. in Matt's cabin, on the second, and finally to please step away from the captain and I am angry at all ninety people on my team on the third and final days. We loved the looks on your faces when we asked if anyone knew what a minstrel was, the spontaneous Red team we won hyperactivity, having two Pinks in the triathlon, the what's your captain's name cheer and the unprecedented red team start running across the main sports field screaming and dancing. The captains cartwheel presentation at mifkad was also fun. We are forever indebted to all of you for your constant, constant spirit all day, 24 hrs a day for four days, your creative ideas and your smiles and hugs when we thought that even another extra strength tylenol wasn't going to fix our head aches. It doesn't really matter that we didn't win because if you guys had as much fun as we did then we were very succesfull. Special thanks go to Lauren Cappell, Lisa Noik, Karen Born and Noah Pink for undying dedication and support. To everyone else we haven't mentioned by name we appreciate everything you gave to the Minstrels of 1996. Take care of yourselves during the year, bundle up in the winter, look both ways when you cross the street and always remember your Kadimah experiences- we hope we will be among them

We remain your red team captains of 1996,
Becca Cash, Aron Levitz, Shoshana Kuriloff & Sammy Redlick

PRISMASTERS
WHITE TEAM 1996

SONG to the tune of "Hold My Hand" by Hootie and the Blowfish

Jerusalem, of 3 thousand years
It's the central focus of all Jewish strength
All the roads, leading up to you
With them all the problems, gotta find solutions too

CHORUS

White is here for youprismaters
Guide the light for you

Jerusalem, captures at its centre
All of the conflicts of the Jewish faith
From its past, to the future
The light that keeps on shining, got the right way through

CHORUS

Leave it ot us, we'll share the pathway
Creating the colours, we are the masters
Prism' turnin', capturing the light
Playin with all the angles, tryin' a make things right

CHORUS

Ba'alei Minsara, for Jerusalem
Ba'alei Minsara, want the perfect balance
Ba'alei Minsara, the prismaters

We're gonna guide it, the best way, the best that we can!!

CAPTAINS' MESSAGE

Prison? Prison? Lauren!!! Oh... Prism! Thus, the prismasters were born. For four days we were ill with white fever. What a blast. We'd like to thank everyone on our team. Gibbies- you all were in 5 events each everytime and you always came through! What a time we had- back from -60 points in the Bochon to our win in the Maccabathon! We'd like to thank the staff on our team for their incredible enthusiasm. But, most sincerely, we'd like to mention all the campers who really rose to the challenge of Maccabia. Ok- we came in 4th, but that's not a liss to us! Remember- Prismasters '96.

WHITE is here for you!!

Love always,

your captains

MACCABIA 1996 - JUDGES SONG

3000 years of struggle, 3000 years we wait
To bless our Jewish state with

JERUSALEM

You are the city which holds our dreams, the one that unites the Jew
And all roads they lead to you, oh

JERUSALEM

In these 4 stupendous days, the victor we anticipate
It's you that we celebrate in

MACCABIA

Where Gaia raises with minstrel's song and prisms we're mastering
As wavemakers join and sing in

chorus

We come to the games with spirit, show our dedication
Enhance our education

AT KADIMAH

We are the ones who will never stop, the future we must discover
The past we must recover

JUDAIC AND CULTURAL PROGRAMMING

As Jews across the world honour the 3000th birthday of Jerusalem, all of us at Camp Kadimah make sure to take part in the celebration. In addition to special programming which addresses the city and the issues that surround it, this year the theme for our Maccabia was a tribute to this special occasion. The theme was Jerusalem 3000: All Roads Lead To You. We understand this to mean that many of the important elements of Jewish life, both past and present, revolve around the city of gold. These include the fight for peace, education, and religious tolerance. Each team in the Maccabia developed a unique vision of what Jerusalem 3000 meant to them, but more importantly, everyone came together with a unified concern for the city which is the heart of the Jewish people.

While Jerusalem 3000 is cause for happiness and celebration, we must alter our frame of mind during Tisha B'Av, which falls during the camp season. On this day, we learn about the many tragedies which befell the Jews on the 9th day of the month of Av, including the destruction of the first temple by the Babylonians in 586 BCE, the destruction of the second temple by the Romans in 70 CE, the crushing of the Bar Kochba Revolt in 135 AD, and the Spanish Inquisition in 1492. At Camp Kadimah, we honour this day by having services in the evening and in the morning, and by participating in programs which help us to understand not only the events that occurred, but also the tough predicaments in which Jews found themselves. While we understand that this is a day which commemorates times of great destruction, we insist upon remaining optimistic on Tisha B'Av. Thus, while learning about the tragedies of the past is essential, the theme of Jewish survival and continuity is also stressed.

In addition to full day programs like Tisha B'Av, we also have other cultural programs scattered throughout the summer. This gives all sections at Camp Kadimah an opportunity to explore a variety of issues which are relevant to Jews all across the world. Some of these programs, such as those on anti-semitism and life in small Jewish communities are centered around Jewry in the Diaspora, Others explore matters facing the State of Israel, such as the birth of the state, the law of return, and the peace process. While learning about Israel, we understand the importance of the relationship between the Jews in the Diaspora and in Israel. Even though not everyone in Camp has visited Israel, we know that we must try to create some sort of connection with Zionism and the land itself.

Our most comprehensive full day Jewish program at Camp Kadimah is Yom Hashoah. On this day, we are able to learn about the Holocaust in a variety of different ways. Some of our education came from a dramatic presentation which tackled the issue of faith during the Holocaust, at other times we had a chance to express ourselves creatively by singing the songs of the Holocaust and making artistic projects. The day culminated with a powerful address from a Holocaust survivor, which enabled us to gain a sense of the individual pain that was endured. This is sometimes difficult to appreciate given the massive size of the tragedy. In the end, we all recognize that while we must constantly further our Holocaust education, it is equally important that we teach all that we know whenever we possibly can.
