BOY

Sheldon

The other day we met a bear. He told us, that it would take approximately 15.27 hours to type all the bunk reports. That's a nifty idea, thought we. Perhaps, we should ask our trusty assistant, Steve Indig to type them. On second thought, Jacob Medjuck would be a far superior choice, as his speediness excites both us and the bear. In the end, it was decided, that Jordan Benson and Daniel Rinzler should leave the office: due to the fact that it was raining Diet Coke. The time is now 2:49:55 am, that means it is after 11. READ THE SIGN! Should you need remedial, Jocelyn Sherman would be happy to teach you how to write a script.

The ants go marching one by one, equalling two, add one more and you have the Iton Staff. NEWS FLASH - - - NEWS FLASH - - - THE WAR IS OVER! THE WAR IS OVER! but there is an unreparable disk error on drive A. Starkle, starkle, little twink, who de bell are you I think... the typing I sit here, the loopier I get. WE ARE ITON STAFF - WE ARE NOT OFFICE GIMPS. WE ARE ITON STAFF - WE ARE NOT OFFICE CHIMPS. WE ARE ITON STAFF - YOU MAY NOT USE THE PHONE!

Down by the bay, where the little tech room is, there sits a Matt, holding a bat, the army came, the army came, the army went, the pages went up to 226.

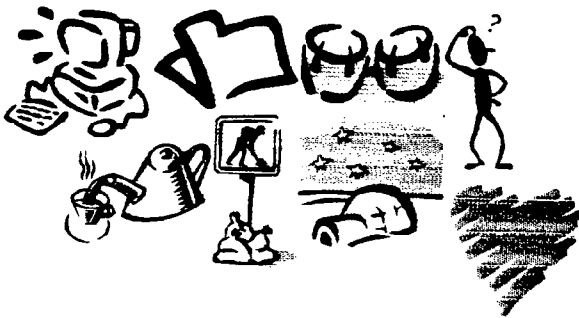

HAKSHIVU HERE, HAKSHIVU THERE, HAKSHIVU EVERYWHERE...ANN RASKIN, you must now make your own announcements or payment will be withheld. Beware or we will stick you under the shift key where you will remain stuck for life covered in salty hummous, a more than generous portion.

And along came the Photocopier fairy and she said: little Iton staffers, I don't wanna see you, picking up the copier and bopping it on the head. clunk, rrrrr,clunk,rrrr,clunk,rrrr,,,, BOOOM!

THE WAR IS OVER.....THE WAR IS OVER.....buy a real printer.....because deadlines are lines that if you cross, you are DEAD! (hint, hint cabin 74 and cabin 4).

Ode to Clip Art

Microsoft publisher, how do we love thee
Let us clip the ways....

In all honesty folks, it has truly been our pleasure to produce this summer's Iton. Truth be told, we didn't do it alone. We have Leah, Kaz, Lisa, Joce, Neely, Jodi, Sarah, Cashy, Brian X 2, Benson, Rinzler, and a host of others to thank. So, thanks.

Leigh, all of our petty disagreements aside, we know we were a pain but you loved all the time off and don't deny it. Sheldon, thanks again for having faith in us. Dr. Les, we missed you this year. Clap for Leah. Sobey's, we know in your heart of hearts, you meant to schedule Yom Hashoah right in the middle of Iton time on purpose. Thanks for the ear and the shoulder and the computer. And to all those out there who think that they want a machine fixed...GET IN LINE. And may the Bunk Reports rest in peace.

And now, we proudly present to you, the first Iton with 3 editors, clip-art, and 2 articles by Michael Soberman.

From The Director's Chair

Although the summer of '97 is coming to an end, we will all share the memories for years to come. Camp Kadimah holds a special place in my heart, and in the hearts of most of us, as a place for Jewish children to grow together in a safe, happy and friendly environment. It is a place for us to focus on our Jewish heritage, build our Jewish identities, and partake in various camp activities.

There were 245 campers and CIT's this summer. I would like to thank all Head Staff and specialists. More importantly, I would like to thank all Bunk Counselors. There is no doubt that theirs is the hardest job in camp! To Jason, Sandra, Heidi & Jacob, bravo on an excellent job! To Michael and Jenn, thank you for your work with the CIT's – an outstanding job, as usual! To Dr. Les and the other doctors, and to Caroline, a special word of thanks for your dedication to Kadimah. To Anne and the kitchen staff, we appreciate your long hours and hard work. A special thank you to Freda, for all of her help in the kitchen with the veggie food, and for her help around camp. And thank you to Peter and Ace for keeping the camp in good shape!

To Marty and Belarie, congratulations on jobs well-done. Marty, the program ran well, and your love and affection for Kadimah is obvious to all. Belarie, your work with the Mel Yad and Bama programs is a great contribution to Kadimah. Your efforts paid-off in the form of Visitor's Day presentations, displays, and many camp-wide programs, which you helped put together. We are fortunate to have you both back!

To Michael Soberman, thank you again, for all of your work at camp and in the city. After being away from camp for much of last summer, your assistance was certainly appreciated this summer. Our friendship continues to grow and Kadimah is very lucky to have you.

To the Bossman, Stone Cold, Brian Indig, you are my main man, and thank you for everything this summer. I will be indebted to you for your excellent work and friendship, and that's the bottom line!!

To Rob Matlow, the Gimp, your assistance in all areas of camp was helpful. Whether running peulot, spending nights at Keji, or helping-out around camp, you were always willing to do what was asked of you, and I appreciate your work. Movie nights were great, but your friendship is better.

Leigh Lampert, the office ran very well, as usual. I would be lost without you. Thank you for your work and organizational abilities. Let's begin negotiating now for year number five.

To the various specialists – Shayna and Steve in Sports, Suzanne and Shelby in Mel Yad, Louis, Bret, Gabe, Stacey, Steve and Jason L. in boating, Ann and Leah on the Waterfront, and Jo, Melanie and Sarah in Shirkud, thank you for great peulot, and for keeping everyone busy!

To the Iton Staff – Steph and Zena – you have put together a fine product, one which we will all look back on in the future. Your many late nights have paid off. Thank you again for a wonderful job.

To Mark, Andrew, Hank, Carol and all committee members, thank you for your support and friendship. Also, a thank you to Jon Goldberg for his help with staffing and programming, and to Yakov Feig for your programming.

And last but not least, a big thank you to all campers. We really appreciated all of your cooperation, and hope that you had nothing less than a superb summer here. Wishing you well in school, and looking forward to seeing you next summer. Have a great year, and take care!

Love
Sheldon

INTRODUCTION TO THE FINE ARTS

It is with great delight that I report that the Fine Arts are alive and kicking at Camp Kadimah! First there is the stunning "Merkaz" Mural (Hebrew for "Centre") --a gorgeous fifty foot painting which depicts a map of Camp Kadimah. The "Merkaz" Mural stands as a wonderful introduction to Kadimah Fine Arts given that every single unit in camp took part in its making. Its completion marked a perfect way to greet our arrival at camp this summer.

Kadimah has art being created and installed throughout the site! This summer's newest large scale mural is entitled "The Garden". It uses the Mel Yad kiln enclosure, now covered with lattice (thank you Ace!), as the gate to this beautiful garden. Representatives from 8 years old to CITs are helping to paint its lush vines. And if you look carefully at the bottom of the mural you will see real 3-D pots --out of which the vines emerge, weaving upward to frame the RCC's picture windows. Fabulous Hebrew mosaic tile name boards will decorate the lower walls of the RCC, as well!

That art has spread itself throughout camp is evidenced by the magnificent handmade original mezuzot that now grace numerous Camp Kadimah buildings. Once again, campers from every unit have been involved in this Mezuzah Project. Some of these incredible designs have been installed on the doors of the Chadar, Ulam, Office and Moadon. The mezuzot replace old plastic or metal ones, allowing campers to participate in creating real community at Camp Kadimah.

In addition to all the other projects described below in the Mel Yad report, I would like to note the 1997 Holocaust Memorial art project, based on artist Shirley Samberg's work. This memorial was created by Macharniks on Yom Hashoah, and it extends our summer focus on the figure. For this "Minyan", we built burlap and wood figures depicting the sense of loss and grief about the Holocaust. They are evocative and contemporary responses to the Holocaust through art.

Finally, with respect to Mel Yad, a huge salute to Suzanne Caines and Shelby Hirsch! How often I heard the cry "stop thinking" as yet another new project was conceptualized! But, in reality, the range and depth of the projects in the Mel Yad would not have been possible without their artistry, dedication, flexibility and great spirits. These "Mel Yad Girls" are one in a million!

There are two other significant developments in Kadimah's Fine Arts for the summer of 1997. The first is to acknowledge --with great delight-- the completion of the five stair units AND a stage extension in the RCC! THANK YOU to the Camp Committee for your commitment to the arts and for making this happen. Another thank you to Peter Wagner, for his amazing skill and craftsmanship in making my design come alive! The stair units are built on wheels making them completely portable. The stairs can be moved to any part of the RCC, and then the wheels can be simply locked down wherever you wish to set up. When not in use, the stair units can be rolled under the stage and out of the way! From plays to evening programmes to Onegs, the stage and stairs can be used in any combination. I know they will add a great deal of versatility to camp programming for many years to come.

BRAVO to all those who contributed to the dramatic life of Camp Kadimah. This year there was more Bama at camp than ever before! Not only did we have the annual Machar play --a two and a half day marathon-- this year, an amazing Beauty and the Beast, but also, not one, not two but three (count 'em) plays as part of the Festival of the Arts AND even a magnificent CIT production of Little Shop of Horrors!! To the luminous spirit and heart of Jo(anna) (Mir)Sky, thank you for serving as my right hand in producing the Festival of the Arts and for functioning well beyond the call of duty-- as usual! And on behalf of Camp Kadimah, THANK YOU Neely Lehrman, Mel Kazman, Sarah Damelin, Jacob Medjuck and Anna Silver! Another thanks to Jason Altman and Sheldon Cohen for pitching in to teach Bama! And finally, to my Technical Director, here and at home-- Oh Evil MZ-- we couldn't have done it without you!

It has been a wonderful full summer -- particularly wonderful because of all those special kids (from CITs to the littlest Goshies) that spent so many hours up at the RCC with us. I will miss you! And now, on to each of the Fine Arts reports--

L'hitraot,
Professor Belarie Hyman Zatzman, Ph.D.

The Program Report

Well with all the weeks of great weather it certainly was easy to run the daily program. Day after Day of sunshine and outdoor activities. The highlights for me would have to be Maccabia, The Festival of the Arts, Campstock, Carnival '97, and Chugim. I also enjoyed our special Karoke Night of Songs, the staff comedy club and the staff barbecue.

The 6 weeks at camp go so quickly every year. When I was a camper (before you were born) the summer seemed to last forever. Kadimah is a special place for Belarie, the kids and myself. We look forward to coming every year, to meet new friends and renew old acquaintances.

Thanks to all the staff who assisted me this summer:

Sheldon-as always I admire your dedication and commitment to Kadimah. We had fun all summer and I hope you return for many more years.

Sobes- I got to know you better and consider you to be one of the key reasons Kadimah has grown and flourished over your years both at camp and in the Toronto office.

Brian Indig-You have mellowed. You are an excellent worker who has a strong attachment to camp. Your organization skills are superb and this will be needed for your career in the future.

Rob Matlow-Great Hityasvut season. You should have no problem in attaining any goal you set for yourself. We rest a little easier knowing you are at the helm with our overnight hikes.

Ann Raskin-The Best on the Waterfront. Well organized and a great leader. Thanks for the Sariana swim lessons.

Leigh Lampert- Remember to get it on paper. Nice job in the office this summer. As always your organizational skills shone.

Yacov Feig- Thanks for saving us on Oneg nights, for the spirit, for the Bar Mitzvah help for our kids.

The Specialists-Thanks for doing your jobs and helping out around camp. I know it is not easy to run 4 or 5 puelot each day and keep up your energy. You all came through with flying colours.

The Section Heads & the General Staff-The toughest jobs in camp. I hope you all enjoyed the summer of 97 and will be back for many more. Your creativity and energy are incredible. Your jobs never seem to end and yet you all seem so happy and willing to do more.

To Peter, Ann and Ace many thanks for a wonderful summer. The place never looked better and the food was great as always.

I hope you all have the opportunity to return to Camp latter in life. It is a fantastic experience to see your children grow and to work with young, creative minds every summer. Kadimah is a second home for Belarie and I and the children. We cherish the experience that comes with Kadimah.

Kadimah Forever

The Stone Cold Report

Roses are Red My Love
Violets are Blue
Camp is the Place to Be
For Me and You

After spending 15 wonderful summers at the greatest place on earth, it is very difficult to express my love and dedication to Camp Kadimah. Every story has a beginning, a middle and an end and now it's time to write the final chapter of my life at Kadimah. I entered your golden gates at the age of 9, not knowing a soul, and now I leave your golden gates a mature and well rounded person. I have met over 400 new friends at camp and I found my best friends at camp. Kadimah teaches you to believe in yourself and have self-confidence. Kadimah teaches you to reach for your dreams and don't give up.

Camp is my home for six weeks of the year, and is the one thing in the world I could not live without. Treasure your time and experience at Kadimah. We may not see each other for months, but when we do it's like we never left. This is what makes camp friendships so special. I know you will all realize this sometime during the year.

Often campers and staff ask me what exactly do you do during the day. And usually I respond by saying I'm in charge of everything so for the record here is a list of items and questions I deal with daily. Where's Sheldon? Where's Sobes? What time is breakfast, lunch etc.? Did I get any mail? Seal 18 Pop! Are you going to Bridgewater today? Can we get these items for? Did I get my day off? When's general swim? Where's Ace? Go get the mail, we have a prescription at the pharmacy, go to the airport, when's Sobes coming back? Check all cabins, all buildings, clean the grounds, organize Saturday sports with Steve and Shayna, open the pay phone, run the dining hall, do announcements, go to the dentist, go to Keji, go to AJC, do errands, fill up the pop machine, lock the payphone, collect lost and found, pick up the meat, pick up the yogurt, collect the pop cans, prepare for V-day, do travel to and from camp, load and unload the laundry truck, tell specialists to clean up their respective areas, do purchasing for all departments in camp, go to the laundry, order the buses for outings, order the karioke machine, do late night, discipline campers and staff, ensure that everyone is wearing the proper clothes and footwear, talk to parents on the phone, buy gas for the ski boats, deal with homesick campers, call mifkad, toranut and buggy duty, organize the banquet and awards, Boss? Stone Cold? etc,etc,etc,

To all of the campers, it was a pleasure spending time with you and being your friend. To all of my past campers, it's hard to believe that your days as campers are over now, and I wish you all the best. I hope to see you all back on staff. To Molly, Jackie, Rachel, Gryfe, Sushi, Harris, Josh, Benji, Ice Tea, Karen, Meredith, Elliott, Noah, and Mikey, it was great spending time with you. I wish you all the best and a safe and healthy year.

Summertime has come and gone...and everybody's home again...

Ann,Ann,Ann...we have grown even closer during the summer and I am forever indebted to you for the special friendship we share. You are the sister my parents never had. Thanks for all of your advice and concerns during the summer. You did an excellent job as head of waterfront. Thanks for keeping me company. Chester and our outing to Bridgewater during week 1 is an experience we will never forget. My days off list is up to date so could you please check your list again for any mistakes you may have made. Thanks for the night time visits and just being there when I needed to talk. You need to learn how to pinch, and punch harder. Thanks for making me smile, I will miss you during the year.

Matlow, popcorn, boatlow, it has been a great summer. You did an excellent job and congratulations on your Keji trips this year. I'm sorry that the tents didn't last the week, and I'll be your milk and egg man any day of the week. Thanks for all of your assistance and help all summer long. You are an excellent Jr. Administrator and you make a great camp director. Empire Theaters has your booth reserved and I wish you all the best during the year - see you at Swiss Chalet.

Shayna, Ellen, Casper, you are a good friend and thanks for the late night talks. You did a great job with sports and everything will work out regarding the real world. You survived six weeks in a boys world and I consider you one of the boys. It was great helping you and Jr. on Saturday, and our trips to Bridgewater and the airport were a pleasure. Everything will work out in Toronto and thanks for keeping my bed warm for me when I was on late night.

Nugget, Jr., Curly I am so glad that you came to camp this summer - you did a outstanding job and hanging out with you was great. We have now spent 13 weeks together - we have grown closer during the year and I love the relationship we have. Have a great year on HFX and good luck with Bambi. WWF Superstars was great and playing basketball with you was an experience I will never forget.

These are the times to remember...

Sobes, Soberman, Michael B. Thanks for all of your help and leadership during the summer. Hanging out and eating with you was a blast. You make a great ref and you should have hit Sheldon harder. Looking forward to our year in Toronto and Nov. 7 at the Skydome. The Moss is back in town and don't call me sauceman. I'm glad your CIT trip worked out well and working with you was a pleasure as always.

And so it goes, and so it goes
And soon will you I suppose...

Miller and Rinzier it was great seeing you back at camp and your CITS had a great time. Rinzier, thanks for all of your help with the driving. Poops, glad you made it to camp and thanks for all your help with administrative duties. Good luck at Dai and say hello to Israel and the Wall for me. Jacob, Jacob, Jacob, Machar survived another year and you are an excellent programmer. I know that you love your kids and would do anything for them. You are almost a little bossman and your stand up comedy is a hoot. Good luck at school.

Leah, it was nice saying hello to you once a week. The waterfront ran well and you did end up driving the boat. Have a good year at school and everything in your personal life will work out. Learn to enjoy each day to the fullest and live for tomorrow. I'll see you in Toronto. Stacey - glad you joined us again this summer. It was a pleasure solving your problems and I'm always available to talk. Don't worry about the future I know everything will turn out all right. Say hello to the big Apple for me and thanks for keeping my daily food intake down to 3000 calories. You can take me for a ski anytime and thanks for the ski instruction. See you in TO.

This used to be my playground, this used to be my childhood dream...

Brett, Louis, Steve, Pink and Gabe, thanks for your help all summer long. Steve, you should get a job with Bell Telephone. I know things were rocky at times but the sailing program ran very well. Louis and Brett, boating was fun as always and the regatta during Maccabia was very entertaining. Dave, you did a good job on the waterfront and thanks for your cooperation. Point Pleasant park will always keep you secrets. It was my pleasure giving you your Stone Cold stunner. Thanks for all of the meals at your house during May and June and leave my stomach alone. Gabe, sailing was terrific and the kids always had a great time. Please clean up your area and would you like to make an announcement. Thanks for all of your help and I wish you all the best. Jo, Suzanne, Shelby, your programs ran smoothly. Shelby and Suzanne, thanks for your help with WWF Superstars. Jo, you no longer need to be afraid of me, but you never know when Stone Cold could strike again. Caroline, thanks for all the swabs, and bottle samples. I now know my way to the B-water hospital and especially where the lab is located. Be happy during the year and thanks for all my medicine during the summer. Les and Ann, glad you joined us again and all the best with Leah.

Friends, friends, friends, we will always be...

Heidi, Heidi, Heidi, I Stone Cold hereby name you Stone Cold jr. Machar ran very well and I know it was very frustrating at times. Thanks for being patient with me and fill up your water, and sand buckets. Have a great year at Dal and remember to keep your dreams alive. Oh, by the way, did I tell you that Jason is coming on Monday? Can I please have 5 kisses?

Smarty and Belarie, it was great having you back at camp. Marty, the daily program ran very well. Campstock and chugs were a huge success. Carnival day was a blast and you can come to Raw is War anytime. Looking forward to Nov. 7 at the Skydome. Have a great year Zatzmans. Altman, you survived a tough year. The camp should buy you a new pair of soles for your sneakers. Sycho Sid told me to tell you that he misses you and the crypt keeper the Undertaker is in the house. Your comedy act with Jacob and Gabe was very amusing. I wish you all the best. By the way, your buckets are full.

Good-bye my friend, I may never see you again...

Seal 27 - Leigh the Flea - you did a great job this summer and buying your newspapers and office supplies all summer long was my pleasure. 1,2 and 3 prepare the picture order and my keys for departure. Thanks for eating all of my food and constantly restocking the fridge, quieting down the dining hall, getting the rags out, telling so and so to clean the CL, it's Thursday night road trip time, having the garbages in the dining hall fixed and changed. Yes, we can shower after 9:00 pm. Have a great time in Ottawa.

Steph and Zena, the war is finally over. I want to wish you both the best all year long, and have fun in Montreal. The lton came out great and you both deserve a medal for the amount of time and hard work you put into creating this book of memories. You can both sleep soundly tonight.

Sandra - your section survived considering all of the problems you had to deal with. You're still only a little boss lady and someday you may become a big boss woman. Try not to bang your head and thanks for the practice sessions. I owe you a lot. Have a good year in Mtl. I told you things would work out. Beth, thanks for all of the hugs and kisses during the day. Have a good year in Mtl. Go to Yarmouth some day and discover your roots.

Freda, thanks for all of your advice and night time visits during the summer. I'll hold your glasses for you every Friday night as long as I don't have to dance. Have a great year and maybe I'll see you guys during Labour Day week-end.

Sheldon, Austin 316, Vince, Seal 1 you are a great leader and I highly respect you as a camp director and as a friend. Thanks for all of your advice and help with my problem and I'll be your partner in black jack anytime. Enjoy your present and have a great year. Mercedes will be here next week and fill up the pop machine. After 15 years our relationship has grown closer and I thank you for that. Please keep 1 can of coke in your fridge because you never know when I'll drop in to visit you and that's the bottom line cause Stone Cold said so!!

Finally, to something special for someone special. It was great spending time with you and I cherished every moment. No matter how bad my day was when I saw your smiling face I forgot about everything else. I greatly appreciated all of your support and help, I will miss you dearly. Have a great year and don't worry about everything because it will all work out. You are a very special and dear friend.

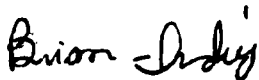

Enjoy your time at Kadimah because if this is heaven, there is no place I'd rather be. In the middle of September you will all wish you were back at camp having a ball and still talking to the best friends a person could have. Camp is my favorite place to be and this feeling will never change inside me. Kadimah, words cannot express the feelings inside my heart that I feel when I enter your golden gates. Thanks for 15 great years and now it's time to close this chapter of my life...

Good night my angel...it's time to say good-bye!!

Good Bye, Kadimah, I will always love and cherish you.

AND THAT'S THE BOTTOM LINE CAUSE STONE COLD SAID SO!!!

All my love,

Brian "Stone Cold" Indig

P.S. Big Bossman, where are you?

P.P.S I love you mom and dad

PPPS Mercedes and Yeller, where are you?

Shalom, Camp Kadimah....

By: Leigh "the flea" Lampert

As I sit here, in my usual spot at my desk in the office of beautiful Camp Kadimah, I begin to contemplate topics and ideas for an Iton article. Unfortunately, the ideas aren't as free-flowing as I would have hoped. Nevertheless, I have procrastinated enough and I will take a crack at it now.

"Leigh, did I get any mail?" "Leigh, when's Maccabia?" "Leigh, can I call home?" "Leigh, my parents are supposed to call me and..." "Leigh, can I make an announcement?" "Leigh, did I get a fax?" "Leigh, where is my package?" "Leigh, why didn't I get any mail?" "Leigh, will you write me a letter so I will get some mail?" "Leigh, can I see the sports section of your newspaper?" "Leigh, where's Sheldon, where's Sobes, where's Brian, where's Marty?" "Leigh, can I try your walkie-talkie?" "Leigh, do you like working in the office?" "Leigh, do you have a pen? Paper? Scissors?" Etc...

For those of you who remember last year's Iton, you will recognize the preceding paragraph as the opening paragraph of my article. Strangely enough, after another year working in the office, these questions never change. A typical day in the office still consists of being asked each of the questions no less than 5 times each. Yet, for some strange reason, I have just finished another year in the office. And, although I think that there are still some years left in my Kadimah future, my time in the office has expired. Working in the office here has been a learning experience – one which, like anything, I have enjoyed at times, and hated at others. However, if I wouldn't have enjoyed it most of the time, I would not have returned year after year.

As I think ahead to the next few days, the next few weeks and the next few months, I have mixed feelings. On the one hand, I am looking forward to returning to Moncton to spend a few weeks at home before going back to school for the year. I am looking forward to seeing Mindy, who was at Biluim this summer, and I am looking forward to the excitement one would expect when entering his undergraduate graduating year, and starting a new part-time job on Parliament Hill. Yet, on the other hand, I am also sad that Kadimah '97 is coming to an end. After fourteen summers here, I am used to camp ending and I know what to expect. I know that with e-mail, faxes and phones, it is easy to stay in touch. Yet, I still know that it will be difficult to wake-up each morning without being amongst 300 of my closest friends. However, I am comforted in knowing that I can look forward to returning to my home away from home in just a few short months!

In keeping with tradition, there are a few people who I must say special thank-you's to now. And, as annoying as it may be for those who are not mentioned, or for those who do not understand some of the inside jokes, or for those who can't bear the appearance of repetitiveness, I would apologize in advance, and ask you to bear with me.

Firstly, Jordan, my brother. After writing in last year's lton how I missed having you at Camp and was looking forward to spending future summers with you, I can now say that I am glad we were back together, and hope that we'll both be here when Mindy comes back! You ran a good race: I owe you five bucks. The briefcase. Vince at Nautilus. Lego my Eggo. Joshy-want-some-coffee. I still say the rage is a huey, and so is sawdust. Parallelograms. Skeletor from He-Man. Septic tank. Mrs. Espiridian. Light Brite, and the combination is 7-1-0.

Stephanie. There are a lot of things I could say and would say now, but will save for another time and another place. I know that going to a new school in a new city can be quite intimidating, but I have the utmost of faith in you. You know exactly what you want in life, you know how to get it, and you have always been successful in the past. There is no doubt in my mind that you will be no less than a huge success in life.

Sheldon (a.k.a. Seal Team 1). I enjoyed working with you for yet another summer. Thank you for your help and advice. I will never forget the episode of "Sobes. I'm in here...", nor do I think you will ever forget it!! Let's work on the plane tickets, but don't tell Soberman!! Again, thank you, and I hope to work with you in future summers at Kadimah!

Sobes. Flying first-class to Toronto with you was most enjoyable. Ostroff would have been proud of your work at having us bumped! Maybe next year, if things ever change, the powers that be will forget about the "seventy-five cent rule"! Who knows what will be next summer, but good luck in Toronto this year.

Marty. What can I say? Your many charts and laminated schedules helped me a great deal in the office this year, although they were hard to figure-out at first! Things ran smoothly, and you are to be commended. To you and Belarie -- I do have e-mail, and let's stay in touch again! And when you come to Ottawa in the fall, remind me in advance, and I will arrange a VIP tour of Parliament Hill!

Brian Indig (a.k.a. "Seal Team 18: Boss: Stone Cold"). I still think that you have severe problems. After all, anyone who, at your age, still follows WWF wrestling, needs help. Thank you very much for the numerous favors, and for handling my account and newspapers. Hopefully I'll see you again a few times this year, and I hope you'll be back again next summer! Ironically, as I type this, our hero calls on the phone to bother me about something insignificant. Again, thank you, and good luck in Toronto. Oh yeah -- remember to update the "day off" list.

Rob Matlow (a.k.a. Seal Team 2: Gimp). As always, a pleasure to spend the summer with you at Camp. Thank you for the drive, and I'm looking forward to going to PEI with you. Good luck at school, and stay in touch.

Ann & Les -- Leah is growing cuter by the day! Good luck with your move, and hopefully you'll all be back next summer, too. And Les, you really must learn the very basics of computing!

Shayna -- it was great seeing you again, after so many years away from Kadimah! Remember "g-night" at the take-out. And, remember to take the take-out out! I am glad that you finally got to try all flavors, too! Good luck with your quest for employment, and let's stay in touch! Yakov Feig -- I know you hated the fact that my services were always shorter than yours. Nonetheless, I thank you for your help in leading services and your creative tunes. Thank you for the laundry runs, too. I wish you all the best for the coming year, and for many happy, healthy years of marriage. Steve Indig -- thank you for your hospitality on the night before camp. Maybe you'll make it to Ottawa for a visit this year. In any case, have a great year, and keep sending e-mail! Jen Miller -- thank you to you, too, for your hospitality & chauffeuring in Toronto the night before we flew back with the campers. Have a great year! Mike Rinzler -- the Patriots are a lost hope. Maybe you will do better at the Sheraton this year than they do in the Superbowl! Ann Raskin -- thank you for your patience with my late bedtimes, while you were on Rosh. Good luck and keep the emails coming! Leah Epstein -- maybe this year, I will finally get to see you. After all, we live only 5 or 10 minutes apart in Ottawa, and I will be expecting at least one dinner! Sandra -- there are many things I could talk about here, but will not. Needless to say, that night that I was on Shmira and someone else was on late-night -- you shouldn't have been in the C.L. at that hour anyway!! Enough for now! Jason Altman -- as per the usual, I had great fun working on the Bochon with you, yet again! As well, spending some time in your section was usually enjoyable. Good luck, and have a great year!

Last year, while writing my article, I began to mention various campers and staff members to whom I wished to leave special little messages, or mention certain inside jokes. I quickly learned that it would be impossible to do this, without offending some, and forgetting others. Thus, I mentioned some things in general. I will do the same this year. As a side note, this is why I hated writing Shabbat-O-Grams, too. Although I thought they were an excellent idea, I knew I would always offend or forget one person, and it did happen. I learned from it, and thus, here are some more general messages.

Firstly, to the girls of cabins 32 and 33. I spent a lot of time talking to many of you, and visiting you in your cabins. Many of you were new to Kadimah, and I think you fit-in quickly and had a great summer. I hope you will all be back next summer -- some in Kochot, some in Machar. Stay in touch, and good luck in the city!

To the "Machar Girls", and again, you know who you are, thank you for the many visits to the office. Your smiles always brightened-up my day, and many of you were very helpful with sorting the mail each day, although I always ended-up getting yelled at for allowing you to miss peulot! Hopefully you will all be back next summer, either as Macharniks, or as C.I.T.'s.

And finally, to the C.I.T.'s, and you know who you are, although I will not mention you by name, I loved your visits to the office and spending time with you. Let's stay in touch, and I hope you'll be back in two years' time on staff.

Can dogs walk backwards? Can snakes roll-over and play dead like dogs can? And what about shrimps? Can they really whistle? Someone once told me that "Life is Like a Shrimp Whistling..." Is this really true? I mean, does my everyday life parallel the life of a shrimp who spends his whole life whistling out loud? Or, if they do whistle, is it really out loud, or do they whistle to themselves? Why do some cows have spots and others don't? Does this have anything to do with the fact that 2 out of 3 people prefer Frosted Flakes to Rice Krispies?

Last night, I was sitting around, you know, eating this big sandwich... and I wondered about all of the irrelevant facts and figures that governments, the world over, seem to come-up with. Are any of them actually true or relevant? What if they were all related, and you could put them all into one big book and re-arrange a few words here and there and come-up with the Caramilk secret. Would it still be as good?

Again, with only minutes to go until my deadline, I contemplate mentioning a few more people by name, but as I explained earlier, I just can't. Instead, I will now sign-off.

Camp Kadimah, thank you for yet another memorable summer. Wishing each of you all the best for this coming year, be it at school, at work, or while traveling abroad, and may we all stay healthy. Please feel free to call if you will be in Ottawa -- I would love to show you around.

As Theodore Roosevelt once said: "It is hard to fail, but it is worse never to have tried to succeed. In this life we get nothing save by effort. The only man who never makes a mistake is the man who never does anything."

Love Always,

A Note From Your Doctor

"It is great to be canoeing
It is better to be healthy"

The campers have been very healthy this summer but still have been able to test our their swim excuses at the infirmary. I want to thank the multitude of physicians who have helped out this summer. Thanks to Dr. Howard Conter, Dr. Matthew Burnstein, Dr. Heather Zitner, Dr. Jane Weckman, Dr. Elizabeth Gold and Dr. J. Weider who covered the first 3 weeks of the summer.

A special thank you to Sandra Hyman and Beth Cohen and their magic fingers and tall Leah Epstein and Jo Sky for their nursing skills.

Thanks to Sheldon and Freda, Marty and Belarie and Lisa Noik for their parenting skills. We wish to acknowledge Rob Matlow for his good health and Mike Soberman for his potential.

Thanks to all the campers and staff who have helped us with Leah. Fortunately for all of us, we have the benefit of having superb Iton creators Stephanie and Zena. Thanks to Caroline for taking care of all of us this summer.

Stay healthy, don't ever smoke, enjoy school. Have an occasional yummy cookie.

All our love,

Ann + Leah + Les Rosoph

Enclosed is a note that was refused by Mr. Ryan Spinner

Dear Swim Instructor,

Ryan Spinner is a kind and pleasant young man. Although he claims that he does not want to swim today, perhaps it would be best to allow him to take swim tests all day long and then again after that. Even if others do not want to swim please allow Ryan to swim as he is very dedicated to Aquatic Activities.

Thanks, Your Infirmary

Life in the Fast - A Note from your Nurse

I could say that being in the infirmary is fun and exciting but...who am I kidding...if you really want to know what it is like, all you have to do is ask one of the many people who come to visit me over the summer.

Kyla and Jackie - I scarred you for life but lime popsicles really was what the doctor ordered. We had good times gossiping of course and bad times, especially with your head stuck in the toilet. You were both the first ones to stay and the ones that thanked me the most to leave. Thanks for the card and it will always be in the infirmary. Jackie, find you own book.

Stuart - you never complained once with strep and covered in a rash. You took it like a man and never cried once. Interesting....

Shelly - you made a major accomplishment, getting eye drops in without saying....ouch...

Mike - one of the sloppiest staff I've ever seen, especially spilling Tantum all over yourself, but you've still got the record 45 seconds!

Shira and Stacy - cutest goshies around, loved the endless hugs and kisses!

Adam - you always found time out of your busy schedule to give me my lesson of the day. I've learned so much!

Elana - I'm asking for an ice machine next year just for you! You really know how to wake someone up in the middle of the night with style.

Ryan - next year bring your own vitamins

Jocelyn - our day will come!

John - shut your lips and have a seat! Shut your lips and have a seat!

Lisa - you mistook me for a camper and that's the best compliment all summer.

Sandra - without you my summer would have been dead. You were the topic of many conversations (CL2, sports shed etc.). Between looking after you, your love wounds, nit picking or flipping pages, I don't know how I found time for anyone else. Maybe I'll find a book of my own with a cover, a story and a nice back. Never stop in the middle of a good book and always keep two hands on your flashlight.

Jo - You're my rock, my shoulder to cry on, my song partner and my sounding board. I'll never forget all you've done for me, eternally grateful! You'll always have a special place in my infirmary.

Andrea and Erin - loved the parties but maybe we'll skip them next year! Have you ever had your hair brushed so much?

Shayna - the first person I met at camp from Cape Breton. Darn, we're some lucky! Out on the myra, ona warm...

Sheldon - you welcomed me with open arms, made this stranger from a strange land feel not so lonely. Thanks for being there, if you need a judge I'll be there and if I scale anymore walls I'll let you know.

I want to say thank you to every camper and staff member for making this a summer I'll never forget. And if I didn't mention you above it doesn't mean I've forgotten about you. To one last staff member, who claims he never comes to the infirmary ( 4 times this summer), thank you for explaining how things work around here and having some patients with me. By the way, it's just a joke! Have a great fall, winter and spring everyone! I'll see you next summer, hopefully.

Caroline

The Mel Yad Report

The Mel Yad program of 1997 started off with clay slab portraits that represented the sections of Kochot and Machar. Not only did they use clay portraits to portray human characteristics, but used wire as a means to express human motion. This project led to a larger scale development of figurative expression using wire as a structural base. Out of these larger creations a continuous theme of metamorphosis arose. One of these larger pieces revealed the 4 stages of butterfly metamorphosis, beginning with a cocoon and ending with a human form. These 2 sections distinguished themselves by using their family names, which were written out in mosaic tiles and placed on wooden boards. These pieces were used as a device to give the campers a sense of identity, and to stress the importance of family pride.

Goshrim began their summer with the building of plaster castles that when finished formed a unified structure. The medium used in their next project was clay. The clay was manipulated to create 4 piece Havdalah sets. These sets are traditionally used on Saturday evening to mark the closing of Shabbat, and were used on the Sabbath at Camp Kadimah.

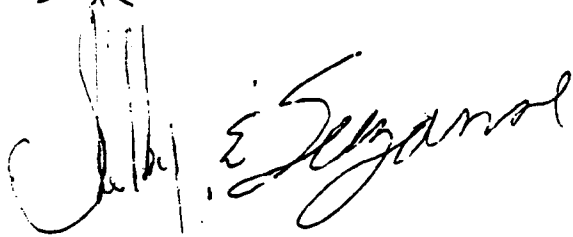

Not only did the individual sections create their own pieces but put tremendous efforts toward our camp wide Mural and Mezuzah projects. The Mural acts as a frame that contains the windows which overlook Lake William. The intertwining vines beginning at the roots symbolize campers growing together and blossoming new friendships. The Mezuzah's were placed in all the major buildings in camp to bless the structures and the people who enter them.

Belarie, we finally got you back babe! After a summer of torture and teasing, I don't know how any of us survived. We love you but not as much as Marty's jersey!! Hubba, hubba.

We would like to thank the Melyad Girls, Nicole, Mandi, Joanna, Rufina and of course Belarie for all of our informative sessions. "Do you know who it is yet?" WE would also like to thank Talya and Sky for all their hard work on Machar Day. (Understand now?!!) And of course to all you dedicated Mel Yad lovers (Goshie Boys) thanks for your visits, but we have no water balloons left!! And last but not least Bret, NOT IT!! I love you and thanks for being around, especially at breakfast!! Hang in there!

And remember, keep it in mind that rust always washes off!!

Love, ~~Shelby~~, Suzanne and Shelby

Sunny day schedules are our best friends
They make us

Happy when we sing me & Bobby McGee

In shirkud this summer we managed to sing more songs and do more dances in fewer peulot

Really, that says we're awesome!

Kochot, Goshrim and Machar were all amazing - each

Unique in your own ways. Thanks for Devoting all your enthusiasm to the inhabitants of the pavilion.

Requests for "Fat Boy" and "Shoop" were endless and if we have to sing

One Tin Soldier or American Pie one more time.

CIT's love shirkud better than boating and we love you more than boating too! Marty's daily schedule

Kicks! How was your night cabin 21? The Shirkud stereo is in higher demand than we are, but that is okay because CIT's love us better than boating.

Oh we're so glad Machar had a taste of how hard running Shirkud, but we hope they know

Ups are far more than the downs. Our

Real love is to be a part of welcoming the Shabbat together

With the whole camp singing and dancing. As

One big family. Come on

Ride the train (woo woo!)

Love love the Jewish portion of our show! We Dedicate our Iton article to the one and only Princess Pat and Captain Jack's mighty crew.

We'd like to thank

- Belarie for all her warmth, support, guidance and inspiration
- Suzanne and Shelby for all the sets for the Play chug (AKA Jo vs. the Volcano)
- All the CIT's who worked with us, Andrew Epstein, Matt Ross, & Miriam Noel for adding that extra panache to the pavilion.

And we have those beautiful Robins (who now know the mayim and Camp Kadimah spirit) are saying farewell to Jamaica as they fly by -

Waterfront

- "Get in the water"
- "But I don't wanna get in the water"
- "Get in the water"
- "Why do I hafta get in? It's cold"
- "How do you know it's cold, you haven't even been in yet"
- "But the leeches will get me"
- "The leeches don't want you, and besides, we have nets" (right Jodi?)

As often as this was heard, the waterfront staff would never become discouraged. Always finding new and exciting ways to make swim an experience to remember.

The amount of sunshine Kadimah received played a large roll in making the summer of '97 a great one. You could always find our lifeguards greasing up in the hightower, preparing for a scorching day. We cannot imagine that there would be a better place at Kadimah to spend our summer, than the waterfront.

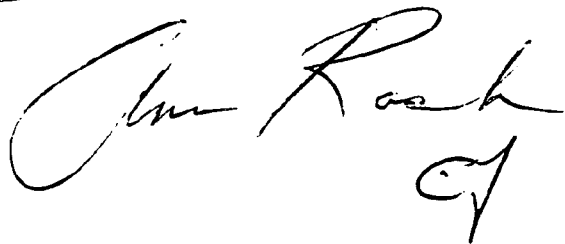

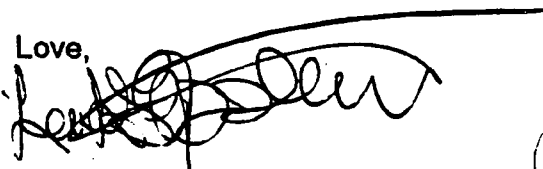

We would like to be first thanking all of our staff for being amazing lifeguards, instructors and friends. Dave, Zena, Rachel P., Erika, Trager, Rachel J., Sarah, Ian, Marni, Jana, Jen, Jodi and Aaron P. 13 great individuals who made our summer a memorable one.

There's Dave's tolerance for our constant abuse, Zena's nails for tickling and fingers for fetching orange popsicles, Rachel Pink's bum, Trager's lawn chair and opera, Sarah and Erika's synchronized and w-walking, Ian's lagoon tripping, Marni's and Jana's nifty tunes, Rachel J's fascination with Ann's whistle, and Jen, Jodi and Aaron P's limited play time (we miss you guys). We would also like to thank the boating staff for running an excellent program. From sailors baby-sitting to Shagadelic, to Randy, this summer's boating program will not be forgotten easily.

Gosh, Kochot and Machar, you rock! Your enthusiasm on the waterfront was outstanding. Congratulations to all of the campers who worked hard and received their badges, and to all of the swimming awards recipients. You deserve it.

We love you Kadimah
See you next summer.

Love,

Ann Raskin and Leah Epstein

Landsports 1997 - And The Villagers Rejoiced

Once upon a time in a galaxy far, far away there lived two wonderful recreational administrators. ( NOT GYM TEACHERS, NOT COACHES, NOT PHYSICAL EDUCATORS) Who on their journey to a little village of it's own managed to break three homeplates before safely securing it to the ground. Weeks went by and the little homeplate survived until Matt Abramsky decided he could date it and escort it to the movies. This sly move, did not sit well with the King and Queen of Landsports as their homeplate was still a minor. Under strict law, Mr. Abramsky was ordered to return the precious homeplate to its rightful resting place. And the villagers rejoiced.

Daily some residents of this little village partook in physical activities. It seems as though the Queen and King of the village could not please everyone as the girls wanted to play with the guys and the guys wanted to play with the girls, and the girls wanted to play with the guys and the guys wanted to play with the guys, the girls didn't want to play with the guys, the guys didn't want to play with the girls, two wanted to play golf, four people wanted to play tennis, ten people wanted to play softball, six people wanted to play basketball, three people wanted to play tetherball, all during one peulah. And the villagers rejoiced.

Almost weekly, local technical workers visited the little village to challenge the resident all-star teams in basketball and softball. All of these outstanding villagers showed their excellence through their skills, sportsmanship, and style. In basketball, the offensive skills of Jeremy Poriah, and Jordie Saperia lead the home team to a wide margined victory. The glove - Daniel Zatzman - clamped down defensively to assist in the win. Unfortunately, due to long labouring hours on the farm, the invitation to the social by some of the female villagers was declined. And the villagers rejoiced.

Weekly, the villagers got together to participate in what the King and Queen like to call house leagues. The male softball coaches were always sincere and not concerned about the outcome of the game as these games are only for "fun" and not competition - right Rebecca Politzer!! With the introduction of the championship trophy, the stakes were much higher - right Sobes and Rinzler!! Looking strikingly handsome in his oversized Athletics jersey, Harris Switzman made a great impact on his team. The introduction of beach volleyball was a huge success amongst the female villagers. The participation and enthusiasm seen on this court exceeded the King's and the Queen's expectations by far. And the villagers rejoiced.

One very special day a group of village alumni returned home to compete in basketball and softball. These balder, older, and uglier villagers provided little opposition for the current residents. Josh Raskin swished two clutch free throws to secure the village win. In softball, as Bambi watched and Jo freaked, the home team with it's power and finesse, managed to hit three homers supplied by the King and his jester - right Louis!!! And the villagers rejoiced.

During a special four day program that is held in the village each year - right Marty-the King and Queen carefully planned and organized a track meet. After careful measuring and great amounts of sweat and tears, a beautiful four lane track was built. The villagers were sternly warned to stay off the track until the day of competition, but some wanted to show their athletic prowess to all who would watch. the King and Queen thought this was bad, very very bad. However, The King and Queen would like to thank the extra efforts exerted by Ace for watering the lines to see if they would grow - THEY DIDN'T!! The day arrived and speed was the key. the villagers came out in full force. Exceptional athleticism and endurance was shown by the marathon runners and tri-athletes - Eric Abrahams, Aviva Cohen, Sara Zatzman, Jon Greenwald, Molly Ehrlich, Daniel Zatzman, Noah Pink, Mya Kessler, Rachel Pink, Saul Offman, Mike Shankman, and Brooke Rudnick. And the villagers rejoiced.

Upon the request of his royal highness a mini-putt course was established in the village. Weekly, the engineers of the village decided to take it upon themselves to redesign, clog, dirty, destroy, break, and corrupt the lovely course. Top scores. turned in showed that Adam Conter, Brad Halfin, and Justin Hartzman all played like Tiger Woods. Because of its laid back nature, Mini-putt provided a great opportunity for both athleticism and social activities. This seemed to suit the needs of one half of the villagers. And the villagers rejoiced.

One sunny day in the village of peasants, many hours(12 to be exact) were spent playing "The Good Old Hockey Game" The captains provided great leadership, and a new trophy was up for grabs. And the villagers rejoiced.

The King and Queen would like to take this opportunity to address some very special villagers for their contributions to landsports '97. S.H. and J.F. thank you for providing the light and reading material in Cabin 2 when there were no light bulbs. We deeply apologize to the people in center field who were rudely disturbed by a softball game that was being played during their very important conversation. *Snap, Snap Snap - do you hear that Marty? No! Exactly, that's because the RCC only has two years of rain in its wood. Jacob, the Ulam is yours. And the villagers rejoiced.

As the sun set on the village, Landsports '97 came to a close. And the King and Queen rejoiced.

Personal Addresses

After a nine year absence away from Kadimah I have to say "where have I been for all those years". It took awhile for me to make the decision to return and thanks to a number of people, my experience has been very positive. This summer was filled with a lot of laughter, good times, late night talks, and new found friends. To begin I want to thank those campers who came to sports peulot with a smile on their face, a positive attitude and a desire to have fun. You are what makes me want to return in the future. Thank you.

Now there are a number of individuals who I must address personally for helping to make my summer a success:

Jo: what would I ever do without your shoulder to lean on, your never ending hugs, and your kind words? You are an amazing roommate and friend. Thanks for being there for me.

Leigh: Slushy delights all the way! Thanks for the take-out conversations and your advice. You are still the very cool "flea" that I knew ten years ago.

Louis: Thanks for keeping me on my toes and supporting me in all my decisions.

Brian: I am so glad that our friendship is what it is. Thank you so much for your words of wisdom, your humour and your pillows. You are very cool. Why? Because Shana Allen said so.

Steve: I don't know where to be. You are an awesome co-worker and most importantly a good friend. Thank you for your hard work this summer. You made my adjustment to Kadimah very easy. Thank you for being you. Good luck this year in recreation management (NOT GYM CLASS, NOT PHYS. ED, AND NOT COACHING). I can't wait until we are colleagues in the real world. Maybe we'll open a leisure consulting firm together. About those little games we played, you do know I let you win!! Steve, thanks for a great summer. We'll have to do it again - only we'll have to make it a packaged deal. You are great

To Kadimah - thanks for another year of memories. Maybe we'll do this again sometime.

Love, Shayna

Shayna Allen

XOXO

Junior's Report

Landsports '97 has been filled with many adventures and good times. I personally want to thank everyone in camp for participating and always enjoying sports peulah.

I will definitely miss Molly Erlich run across the whole sports field to tackle Matt Abramsky to save a touchdown during a very competitive game of football. The one thing I'm looking forward to is giving my ears a chance to rest from Dor Ivri telling me how good his jump shot is and how good Raskin is in everything. Jordie Saperia, I will get my revenge. One day I will dunk on you, and keep dunking many more times. You are a great athlete and person, don't ever change.

Counselors in training, you should be by now the best softball players in camp. Your peulahs were the easiest to run, thanks for providing laughs and good times.

My partner in crime, what would I do without you! I'm very glad you were the head when things went wrong and I'm really glad you understood that when things went right, I was in charge. Your rough and tough, I don't take anything from anybody attitude provided me many laughs and made sports a lot easier to run. Good thing we ran off all those program fans, came in handy right?

There were so many things we we shared this summer that I could go on forever. Don't forget who won mini-putt and our repelling team, it was a great idea! Next year $14,000 package deal and we'll do it all again. Thanks for being you and making my summer so successful. I'd work with you anywhere again. Do I get a trophy too?

Sheldon, I've seen a new side of you this year that I didn't know existed. Thank you for giving me that opportunity and you still owe me three cans pringles.

My boys, I was very happy to have the opportunity to see you guys again. The summer of 95, I will always remember. Stick together and always remain close. You guys are very special to me and never forget that even as time passes by.

Matt Ross, you made me fell very special at the airport when you gave me the Keith Ross Visiting Day hug. You were a great friend this summer and you know what. I'll let you have as many strikes as you want. It's scary for me to watch you grow up and now you are no longer my camper but my friend. Keep in touch, you're the best.

Heidi Lipkus, the time has passed and the clock has struck 12. Oh you Lipkuses! Heidi, you were a great friend this summer and I know that it will continue throughout the coming years.

Julie Rothchild, I did e-mail you back. Keep in touch this year.

Sandra Hyman, one day you will either be a nudist or a stripper or something. You too were a great friend this summer. Hope your head gets better. I just was to point out that we have the craziest relationship. I know you'll take care of my buddy Mo, but at least try to wait a month before your bedroom is no longer needed. Love ya, Sand.

Joe Ben-Israel, what can I say about my best buddy in the whole world. I'm very glad we got to spend another summer together. You did a great job of protecting me from all the other girls. I hope the future only brings you luck and happiness and you remain a part of my life. You can always make me smile and your kisses on the cheek were a great pleasure every day. Don't forget G-D Bless America, right, Jen Miller.

General Matlow, it was great living with you this summer. I now know how to properly make my bed before sunrise. Take care and best of luck.

Jenn Miller, I know you do not want to hear this, but you have not changed a bit. You still have your little Miller nice things. How did my bed get made? I'm very sorry we didn't get to spend more time together, but these things happen. Keep in touch, you are a great listener (not) and friend. When the phone rings at 4 in the morning, I'll know it's you.

Ann Raskin, you love to call Brian all the time but you did make it across the cabin to visit me a few times. Thoroughly enjoyed the time we spent together and you have to take me to Reflections. K.I.I.T.F.

The boyz, Louis, Lipper, Brett and Jacob. You guys are a very big part of my life. You are my best friends and I have cherished every moment and summer we have spent together. Our paths may be curving over the next few years, but we must make sure they cross again. Never forget all the good times as our memories will live forever.

Louis, we have had our ups and downs, but Bird and Magic will always live. Maybe one day we can open a law firm together and sue people and take their houses away. I look into the future and see you being there for me as I will for you. Keep in touch and call when you are in town.

Jacob, you know you can have the Ulam anytime. Your antics and craziness will always be remembered. Don't forget special grip and dances. You could really make me giggle. Thanks for being you.

Brett, you really know how to make me laugh. I know you'll have a great time in Israel but be sure to find me when you are back. I'll find the $250 and we'll call menergise for a little peeler. Take care.

Jason Lipkus, poops, I'm very glad you decided to come to camp. You could be my best friend and I'm glad we had camp to spend more time together. Never change, well maybe a little, but thanks for being there for me.

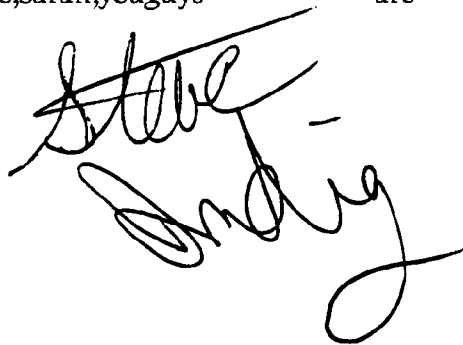

Brian Mark Indig, Bossman, Stone Cold, nuggett, we survived almost 4 months together and didn't kill each other. There definitely is hope for us. Mom and Dad would be proud. You were one of my best friends at camp, so our relation may be changing. Was mom right, you only have each other? Probably. Thanks for being there and putting Stone Cold aside to listen. I told you all those lessons would begin to pay off. The bill is in the mail. Do you owe me any more money?

Kadimah you have been part of my life for 14 years and all have been cherished and memorable. Thanks for being there to hide me from the outside world only if it is a short period of time. Two wise men said "life is single, be happy and Kadimah, where dreams come true". They were right.

Steve Indig, 84-97

PS - T.J, you will get number 4,5,6 soon! Thanks for the messages.

PPS-Mitch,Dave,Sarah,youguys are dearly missed

A Report on Sailing

Well, we couldn't have asked for better weather. Gorgeous sun, warm water and not one leech made the sailing docks the coolest place in camp. We did have one dead fish on the docks, but no campers saw it. Steve stepped on it so that's ok. Participation this year was beyond our wildest expectations. We can't count the number of people who came down and learned to sail for the first time, but we had approximately 10 after the first week and the numbers have grown exponentially since then. We're especially amazed by the gross improvement on buddy-boarding skill. Two hand paddling had almost become a lost art. Next year we are burning the stupid boards.

Last summer we rescued a ton of turtled boats, this summer we rescued 3. This only one testament to the overwhelming improvement in the quality of sailing. We ran a dozen odd races this summer including one during Maccabia. Sailing's become an art again at camp and we want to give our thanks and appreciation to all those who came down to the docks and learned to love our favorite sport. Oh yeah, Windsurfing. Only one board and we still had an excellent summer.

As for our thanks, we've got a lot of them. Charles Rrack and Captain Jack (Yakov) thanks for your caring attention. Jon Born and Ezra, you two were the shortest, lightest, and cutest of our sailing couples this year, consider getting married. Thanks to little Muttlow (G.Love, G. Money, Jer.). You're an excellent buddy boarder. Sharon, Karen and Dara, thanks for the spirit and S.T. Special thanks to our dockhands Andrew Field and Matt Phillips. Also mad props to Eli Z., Amy Mendleson and Little PO, we love you all. Michah Tait and Cook, you gave us your best and we'll remember it. Thanks to Erika for her help and time. Jordan Benson and Twizler for keeping our fridge stocked. We also liked having you out in the boat, Benson. Thanks to Rosie, Hersh, Shelby, Altman, and Dave and Rachel Pink, we never would have made it without you. Shout out to Ann, our master and Queen of the Sea and to Stone Cold, we bow down before you both. Finally, to the long Shanks, we give much love and respect and to Lindsey, thanks for being there for us all the time, for your friendship and just for.

Peace all. Keep learning, keep sailing and Worship the Wind.

Water Ski Article

This summer at the Water Ski docks has been eventful to say the least. At first there was the question of whether or not there were really going to be two boats. That was soon answered when the Jet boat arrived during the first two days of camp. The boat was visually pleasing however, a ski boat it was NOT! That didn't concern us for long because it broke down the first day it got here and it was shipped out a week later. The boat hunt was on. After a long search, we found what 'we' thought would be the ideal boat for camp. That was when "the Shag" arrived. The boys were hard at work preparing our new docks near Point cabin. We now had two boats and only 2 drivers. This is where Louis came into the picture as a third driver. Things began to run quite smoothly with only a few mishaps. Fortunately, Ari and I are ok after the flying rope from the banana and after being beached on the other side of the lake. The blow horn clearly is not loud enough and walkies talkies would have been a lifesaver. Maybe next year for the walkies.

We've had a great time with all of our regulars down at the docks. It's nice to know that people are willing to camp out just to be the first in line at the ski docks. We've seen a lot of improvements in skiers and that alone makes my summer. There are also some professional Banana Boat riders who we also had a great time with (cabin 33).

It's been a wonderful summer thanks to all of you guys. Specifically I would like to thank Ari for always trying to keep me laughing and smiling and for being great on ski in general. I also want to thank Leah for helping me out whenever you could - I appreciated it tons. Thanks for being there for me always. Thanks to Ann, for being there to make me laugh while riding Moby and of course just to hang out with.

Thanks to all of the guards for being great shotguns. A big thank you goes out to Louis. You are the best - enough said!

Thank you to everyone else - you know who you are.

Have a fantastic year,

Stacey McLean

PS - Thanks Brian (not the Esso man)

PPS - Don't be afraid to try new things ie skiing for all of you non-skiers

Scouting and Tripping Report

Once again it's that time to sit down and write my lton article. This is now my 9th summer at Camp Kadimah and every summer seems to get better. I would like to thank a few people for their help this summer (by no means is this list inclusive).

Thank you Ezra and Brian for all your help in peulahs and on overnights. Thanks goes out to Lindsay for your help on the canoe trips. Thank you Bret for all your help at Kedji and Indian Falls. I really appreciate it and could not have done it without you. Have a great year in Israel and good luck in school.

A special thanks goes out to the Indigs for a great summer. I really had a great time and appreciate all your hospitality in Halifax. Last but not least, I would like to thank Sheldon for everything. You're a great friend and movie partner. Best of luck this year.

I hope everyone had a great time this summer. Best of luck to everyone for a safe and successful year at whatever you're doing. Thanks for everything Kadimah.

Love,

Rob Matlow

The Boating Report...

This has been an excellent summer at Camp Kadimah. I am very happy that my 14th summer at Kadimah has been a success. This summer has seen the boating program expand, with the addition of the Shag. I would like to thank Brett and Lindsay and Jason L. for their help on the canoe docks. As well, Stacey and Ari, your were great on ski and you taught me a lot about stuff. Now I know a few things about a couple of things.

In my eyes, this summer has been smooth and issues have been kept to a minimum. Thanks to Sheldon, Sobes, and Marty for your understanding and concern. I really appreciated it.

To Ann, Rob - thanks for coordinating swims, boating and hikes. You guys were great. Join a real frat Rob!

Brett, Cabin 1 has been no adventure and with the addition of Lipper our summer is now complete.

I almost forgot the sailing people!! Fredo, Gabe, and Brooke, thank you for your great job at the docks.

Boys meeting Spring Break at somewhere hot.

Thank you Camp Kadimah

The Boating Report As Seen By Bret Hirsch

Hmmm...I really don't know what to say, boating is good. We had fun. I'd like to thank a few people who made the docks run so smoothly; First and foremost Lewis we have been through some strange times together. To Lindsay it was fun for the second summer in a row, to our come late rookie Jason thanks for coming you were a big help. As I said before the docks ran quite well, for a changed I don't have many complaints actually none. To all the C.I.T'S that came down thanks a bunch. Julie Rothchild was one of the biggest helps along with Daniel Rinzler. This summer I ventured into the land of scouting with Mr. Matlow. Now this was a hoot. Thank you Rob for giving me the chance but remember this: "two cones together is better than one alone." Rob you are a great friend. Now to mention a few people who made my summer the best yet. Here we go:

Sheldon Cohen: Thanks for sticking with me, it took a while but now you see the results and I hope you are impressed. Thanks for everything.

Sobes: Well thank you for everything you did for me before and during camp who knows maybe even Kadimah Israel next year.

Rob: You know I forget many things in a matter of minutes but I remember you coming up to me at the first of the summer behind cabin 7 we went, sat down at the table and we stated our positions with each other. That my friend was the TSN turning point of our friendship. You are pretty porn Matlow, good luck and I hope to see you next year.

Shelby: There is not too much I can say. You are always there for me. Learn to use your e-mail so we can keep in touch when I am in Israel. Rock on.

To the legends young and old: Stay tight, can't nobody hold us down, make sure the units are very close even if some are not around.

Lewis: Well we made it through another summer, this time with less of the boys but hey we made the best of it. What else can I say b.b. you are one of my best friends. Lets keep in touch, hope you and mitch will come to Israel after school.

Lipper: Good thing you came we missed you. It was a sweet summer, maybe be a chance of luck we will be back to do it all over again. I will see you in Israel in January I'm sure.

Altman: Well another summer all I have to say is you Rock and keep on Rocked. Next time I jump into a boat like that warn me a little quicker to dive.

Rosy: Be careful when dealing with living legends. Haha You kick ass.

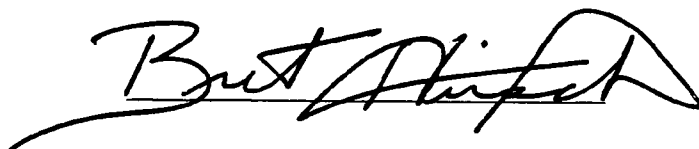

Ari: The best things in life are free, our day off rocked. See you next summer and of course maybe we will have completed some missions by then, love to compare letters sent to us.

Well look at me, I said to my self that I would only write one page now I am on like 3 written. Oh well, this is very unorganized but bear with me. Sam Waxman 2 months and done. So many people to mention. Benson be careful of a certain sister hunter. Dam, well I guess I have to sign off those who I have missed sorry just didn't have time. To the rest of the senior staff it has been an awesome summer lets do it all over again next year. Stone Cold, Ann and everybody else have a good year. I leave you all now with some words of wisdom and strangeness.

Captain's Log Stardate August 1/97 Nine Kadimah take off for a day off. Boys that was the s t. Let me see Me, Rosy, Lewis, Ian, Jeff, Jason, Jason, Steve, Ari, and a few lone soldiers, that is all I will put in this article due to the fear of incriminating my self and or others. B.B., Freado, Teflon Don, The Don, Mr. Freeze, Illumonitti, Puff Daddy, Cabin 1 and its lack of use, Mitch, Joey, David, Well what else can I say there are only 5 living legends left at Kadimah Jacob, Lewis, Jason, Steve and Myself, I would like to mention some that aren't here RIP Jonah, Scott, Mitch, Dave, Kiever, Jesse. I have had a stupendous year thank you for everything, everybody.

Yakov's Corner

Live from the Shtetl, it's Yakov! Oy!!! Well, We've had a lot of fun at Kadimah this summer. I admit that I'm still a little short for tetherball and basketball, for that matter. Yet it still didn't stop me from trying. Furthermore, I've been getting a lot of exercise in skipping around the Chadar (thanks to Kochot and CIT's) and by singing my guts out (yadi,yadi, etc.)

As Visitor's Day is fast approaching, I look back at some of the highlights from a "Rabbi's" point of view. Israel Day was a great success thanks to Zena "ZZ" Haberman, Stephanie "Love em' or leave em" Levitz, Melanie "cool cat" Kazman, David "Hebrew Word" Cashman, Sobes and others.

Kudos to General Leigh Lampert, who aside from being a great bunkmate, Co-Rabbi of services (through his services are too short) and all around great guy, also acted as a great legal council.

Of course, it's been a blast singing with Jo and with all the campers who have humoured me by singing alone too! As Goshies grow and we look forward to Machar's Kochot, there can be no doubt that C.I.T.'s and my fellow staff are a big part of what has made this summer at Kadimah so great! Shalom for now!

Yakov

from the land of gosh

"Oh my G-d, I won a prize!"

You may laugh, but oh, how it captures the summer. The elusive prize is not a soy beverage, a growling tiger, or even a little "sunshine," but rather the vivacious Goshrim 1997 and a whole lot of questions to go along with it.

Where are the Gibbies and what did you do with them? Are you guys really on both sides of the bridge? How are you going to be in two places at once? Are we doing Grease again? These questions have been the source of many intellectual theoretical debates throughout the summer. The answers, however, are quite simple. The Goshies ate the Gibbies, and consequently took over their cabins in a preemptive effort to prevent Machar from taking over. This geographical diversity would allow the Goshies to consume all of camp while never leaving the section. It also justified the sick and twisted cloning experiments to create Jason 2. Finally, no, there will be no more Grease.

This summer I relearned what it means to be a Goshie. I thought I had it down after last summer, but ten months of university takes its toll. They don't teach cabin hopping there. In order to work with the Goshies, one has to think like a Goshie. Case in point - I will take you through the average day. Wake up - My counselors won't mind if I wake them up before the music starts. Clean up - not necessary. Who needs to be on time for breakfast? Toranut only means that I have the right to complain all day. If I go to the infirmary, they won't make me swim. Cereal is good at any meal, especially pizza. Shir kud makes me ill. I need a banquet date by the third day of camp, otherwise I'll never find one. It's not dirty unless I wear it twelve times. Pink eye, not me.

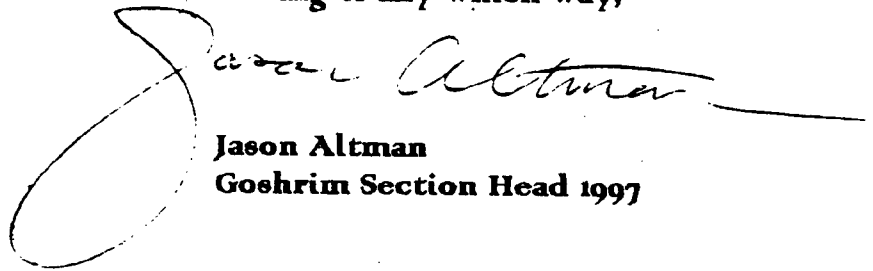

This next section will be dedicated to my staff - my puffer carrying, epipen schlepping, medication dispensing, infirmary going, shmira sitting, conflict resolving, fun having, great working soldiers of steel. This is your section. Goshrim works because of you. A barber once told me that, but he ate some ice cream and had to leave. I guess he just didn't fit in with our little peanut gallery. You are the survivors. Congratulations. I thought by this time you all would be hanging from the rafters and peeing on the floor. Wait, that only happens on Machar day.

OK, I have a bone to pick with technology. You know what I'm talking about, those Tamagachi/Nano virtual pet/baby/alien/pain in my butt pieces of junk that were much more important than anything in the real world, like eating. So I have this idea. We ditch all the campers and replace them with virtual ones. It's a much more practical and safe scenario for operating a successful summer camp. When one misbehaves, you smash it to pieces and throw it in the lake. Just a thought.

Now comes the point in this rambling nonsense where I get to mention everybody's name. Must thank the wonderfully patient iton staff for dealing with my procrastinating shenanigans, which were really only a protective measure from having my article erased from the hard drive. Hey Jacob, it finally happened. Just minus one roommate, add one couch and we are livin' large. Plan into action, and thought connection, always there. I missed Heidi a lot last summer, but I think we got it right this time. Rach, lots of love always, and you know this. Brian, we finally got to spend a summer together, and having you in the section meant the world to me. Sobes, in Lunenburg, Jerusalem, and hopefully Toronto this year. Don't be surprised when Jello boy gives you a ring. Sheldon, just one more meeting in cabin 20. You have been a confident. Stone Cold, thanks for setting the path and leaving such big footsteps for me to follow. Finally to all the boys, my boys - forever and true. It's what makes it all worth while.

In closing, it's your world, do what you want.

Loving it any which way,

Journal Entry #29851:

I am still operating in the field observing these "Goshies". If you remember my previous reports, I spent the last two years observing "Gibbies" (they bear a close relation to the climbing abilities of a Gibbon) It seems that some of my Gibbies moved tribes and have become Goshies.

It seems that some of the Goshies have developed very peculiar skills. One of them I have named RafterBoy, he has the fantastic ability to climb any free standing structure. Another one is called Rye Bread, he has the ability to hear secret conversations that others are having. There is G-Love, who is the thespian explorer. We also love Sushi, who has an addiction to the manipulation of "Devil Sticks" (this practice is lost on me....) Let us not forget Fan-man, this one has the ability to motivate a large group of people to rally around him. Last but not least, there is DC. By far a very strange Goshie, he seemed to have a penchant for taking head coverings.

The observer I was stationed with has helped a great deal (although I think he enjoys bears a little too much) Let me just say in closing that I had lots of fun this season watching and taking notes and I hope to return next year and continue my research. Ta for now.

Sincerely,
Super@Cow

Super Program

This year we had a "super program", where the girls had to chase the boys and tag them, then we were couples. We had to get married and following that we had a special dinner. Evening program that night was a Goshie social, we all danced. The next morning, first peulah was Mel Yad where we made bracelets for the boys and they made us flowers. Second peulah was Shirkud, where we picked our "song". Then we went on a picnic - Honeymoon lunch. We came back, had Chugim. To finish the program we had a divorce court, half of the section got divorced, the other half did not.

Maccabia

Maccabia has now started. Most of camp was surprised at the end of a preview of the Kadimah movie, when it was introduced by 4 head staff. Maccabia started right away. So far it has been lots of fun for both campers and

Cabin B's First Cabin Hop

On July 18th Cabin B hopped across the bridge to cabin 9 & 5. At 9:45 we left the cabin through the back door. We went to Cabin A sprinted across the ABC Field, reaching cabin 30. Then we ran into the Moadon by way of the Kochot cabins because they were at Keji. Then we sent someone to see if the bridge was clear. Unfortunately, Sheldon and Mike Soberman were waiting outside the office. Fortunately they soon went away. Then we quietly made it out of the Moadon dashing behind Brian Indig's car. Then we ran across the road and hid behind the office. There was our chance. Keeping low we bolted across the bridge and ran into Cabin 9 and sent some people into cabin 5, and stayed for awhile. then we got all the people from cabins 7 & 8 to cabin 9 and ended up having all 52 Goshies in cabin 9. Then we went back to our cabin.

My favourite chug is boating. One day at boating I was canoeing by myself and I couldn't go forward so I had to be towed in. I love canoeing and kayaking. I can see the docks from my porch. Louis is my cousin and I see him alot.

The Play

The play was wonderful. Everyone did great. I hope next year's play is just as good. I would like to thanks everyone in the play you did great and I hope you can be in next year's play.

From: Samantha Smith

PS I'm talking about the play chug play! The Festival of the Arts

The Great Cabin Hop

On July 18th Eric Goldberg went from Cabin B to C without getting caught, but the people in Cabin b were making noise so Shmira came into the cabin and noticed that I was gone. And I got caught - great luck.....

By: Eric Goldberg

Cabin 5

Cabin 5 is the cabin that's right
The kids go cabin hopping every night

They never get caught from the cabin to the bridge
With Shmira on the ground we are always on the ridge

With all the other Goshie Cabins
Running on the move
Cabin 5 is always looking

When morning comes
The sun is shining bright
The office music blasts
When Neely pulls the light

All the kids are snoozin and Tired from the night
The counsellors try to wake them
But they just put up a fight

Canoeing, sailing, a + c
it's lots of fun when you swim and ski
So many activities, and so much fun
The end is coming, and it feels like it's just begun

Now it's time to go one home
Eyes are filled with tears, heads are filled with thoughts
Of how much fun we'll have next year

Hugs and kisses blowing
As buses start to move
Bags are packed and ready to go
Good-bye to all of you

Swimming

Our swim class is fun. Our teacher is Rachel Pink. Rachel Pink makes it fun. We always participate. Sometimes we get a little carried away. Like the time, when Renee threw Rachel in the lake fully clothed in a sweatshirt and shorts, and sandals, but we usually have fun.

What Would Cabin 7 Be Without....

Aviva's Nike hat
Cara's Archies
Shira's Hair clips

Stacey's Boyfriend Spinner
Carlie's Cosmetics
Yolana's Cuteness
Sam's Tamigoutchi
Rebecca's Hair
Rachel's Life on the waterfront
Risa's Specific demeanour
Mira's nose problems

Things that Cabin 5 Couldn't be Without

Barbara's - candy
Emily's - stuffed animals
Natasha's - cow things
Shira's Archie comics
Tonya's - make up
Samahra's - books

Love: Tonya

Why Camp Kadimah is the Coolest

I think Camp Kadimah is the coolest because they have all the nicest staff in the world. They also have all the funest and coolest stuff like water-skiing, banana boating, instrument lessons etc. My favourite section head, counsellors and a person that's making this camp run. My favourite section head is Jason Altman. My favourite counsellors are Neely Lerman, Mami Greenspoon, Shelby Hirsch, Jana Suchter, Beth Cohen and Carly Guberman. Last but not least the last person I have to thank is Sheldon Cohen the camp director. So....that is how I think camp Kadimah is!

Cabin C

Hello my name is Jeremy and I am living in cabin C
Although I miss my parents already the people in this cabin are like family.

Daniel Cohen want to learn this and that Adam thinks that everyone is a brat
Daniel Beaulieu loves gimp
And Josh is never a wimp

David is always ready and geared and Supercow (Matthew) can sometimes be weird

Ryan is really neat, and all that's left is me!

When camp is over I'll have lots of memories of my friends/family CABIN C

My dearest Cabin 5,

You girls are definitely the coolest, Spice Girl loving, Nano playing, hair brushing, crutch hopping, anti-cleaning, teeth flossing, banquet date catching, late arriving, junk food eating, infirmary visiting, cabin hopping, ulam sweeping, crazy dancing, letter writing, counsellor hugging, Jason smothering, sun hat wearing, puffer carrying, braces breaking, lion growling, talent show singing, mail receiving, bathing suit losing, staff switching, sunscreen applying, shoe misplacing, fact giving, I don't caring, make-up wearing, root tripping, always laughing, Keji visiting, bathroom hogging, banana boating, story telling, dirty clothes wearing, Indigo Girls hating, question asking, play chug attending, family missing, gimp making, cereal eating, tetherball playing, general swimming, loudly screaming, shmira calling, social leaving, tube rash receiving, turtle feeding, bridge stopping, nail painting, slow walking, cold showering, eye rubbing, massage giving, soccer hating, bed making, medicine taking, chip flavour selecting, sleeping bag stacking, loving, hugging, kissing Goshie girls in Camp Kadimah !! You girls make me laugh, you make me cry but most importantly you make me happy. I know that I moved out of the cabin but I'm still part of Cabin 5 and I always will be. Thank you for the smiles, the tears, the hugs and the memories. Ten years from now, when you are staff and all grown up look back on cabin 5 of 1997 and remember that I am proud of you.

With Love, Beth

Dear Cabin 8, of 1997

Although it has only been a week and 3 days, life at camp has been great! I just have a little thanks to everyone.

Zap - Zahava - you've always been my best bud. Even though we get in arguments, we'll always be friends. Tonight you ARE NOT bumping into any beds or selves, before we go Cabin hopping!

Jenna - You are also one of my best buds. As friends we are very close because you live in Halifax with me. Although you sometimes get angry, you always get over it. And no you are not a goody tooshy, but you're getting to be a softie. (just kidding!)]

Elana - you are my twin sister, and since you are that, I love you. You are always there to stick up for me just like a sister is supposed to be. You're fun to be with, even if you like to get your beauty sleep.

Joe - Joe you're nice, forgiving and exciting. When no-one's there you are. Your jokes are funny. The way you critique people is also funny. Your obsession with my saying "my baby my beautiful baby" is always welcome! Just remember that I'm here for you too!

Arielle - I'm just getting to know you, as it is your first summer here. I am enjoying getting to know you and I love your heels!

Sammy J - I've been with you all my 4 years and what a pleasure it has been! Your obsession with you know who has been funny!

Lindsay - You are usually at the boating docks so I do not get to see you so often. But you're funny and always making me laugh.

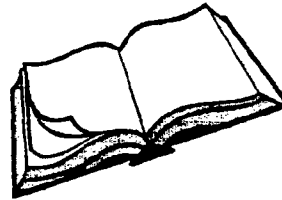

Lisa - You are always there when we need you, when we are sad or upset, in the rain or the shine, BBQ or Roast beef - okay I think you get the point. Your window is the best because we can sneak and peek on shmira!

Debra - I've known you in Halifax so you are not a new face. Being with you is fun. Your bed is fun, your happy face P.J.'s are fun. Everything is fun. When you go to Halifax on your day off you can visit "my baby"

Overall this few weeks has been great! I hope the rest of the summer will be as enjoyable!

My name is Josh. On the first day of swim classes this summer I met my teacher, Ian. He started to call me the Szechwan King, I did not like it too much and asked him to stop calling me that. He came up with the name Sushi. Ian and I have become very good friends until he took my hat and would not give it back for 21/2 minutes. I forgave Ian and we are friends again!

We have the best class! Everyone co-operates with the exception of Joe, although we still have the coolest kids; Andrew Spinner, Adam Armeland, Jenna Conter, Daniel Beaulieu, Joe Ben-Israel and of course our amazing teacher Jana! We love to do rescues and save each other's lives. We are a very advanced class. We learn high-tech lifesaving skills. We have a lot of fun too! We always co-operate and participate everyday!

Show me the money!

The Farm War - dedicated to Cabin 7

Once there were two girls named Jenny and Ali. They noticed something weird in the henhouse. They asked the hens who is that other hen, they said that is the CO-HEN. Jenny and Ali said, " I need some rest " and went to their room and as they were going to sleep they noticed a man in the wall. Jenny said " look, there is a WALMAN. "Ali said I think I am seeing things, maybe I ate too much TSINMAN. " They turned their heads and saw a FOX, through the window, running to the hen house. He's going to steal the eggs. WE have to WINN this war. Let's get the Black - SMITH to help! *****later*****Yes, we killed the fox, dug a hole, Oh No! You got some blood on the WASSERSUG. I just cleaned it! Hey look, I just found some GOLD in the hole. " Look your sweater is ripped , no time to CHATT, you have got to WEAVERMAN it. Let's go tell JACOBSON that the nasty fox is dead! The End.

Dear Camp Kadimah,

Another summer has gone by quickly. Let's being with Cabin 5. Girls who were with me last year, when I arrived at camp to learn that I would once again be your counsellor, I was very excited. We have definitely gotten to know each other better this summer. New comers, you girls fit right in and I feel like I've known you as the others. Overall, the summer has been great with only a few tough spots in the middle. Now that the tough spots are over I know the summer will end on a high note. I will always remember our lateness, cabin circles, meetings, food parties, boy talks, warm ups on the beach, picnics, general swims, play rehearsal, loosing everything, tucking you in, late night talks, clean ups, close-line sessions, tether ball temptations, cold showers, cabin hopping etc.

To my co-staff: Mam, living with you was much better than simply seeing you around the halls at Y.M. Jamming on the rocks at pre-camp. We were stocked with stuff to do, ie books - oh well.

Carly, the summer would not have been the same without you! Never 4-get our crazy sleep walkers and talkers. Markers are banned! They're dangerous.

Beth, you've been missed. Always remember rest period sleeps, counsellor cuddles, hugs and Keji, star gazing with Carly. Thanks for being on of my many camp mothers.

Shelby, you left in the beginning but you were always around (In cabin 4 that is). Our talks meant a lot to me. I hope they will keep up this year.

Jana, what tosay. From the moment I met you outside the airport bathroom, I thought you were pretty cool. Then, we werew assigned the same cabin, well you know where it goes from there. I'll miss our late night talks and pigouts. Naked M. and getting B to bed, quite a challenge.

To the rest of my co-staff, you guys are all amazing and I've had a great time. it was a challenge, but we made it!

Dave, you look gross! By the way, what happened to our program? Lisa, thank goodness you weren't in Kochot, I would have missed your beautiful face way too much! Brian, have you seen the beast lately? Jason, have I told you lately tha you are awesome. Thnks you for taking care of me along with the rest of my moms.

Sandra Hyman, we have to talk - oh I forgot you are too busy at night! Seriously Sand!
Thanks for looking out for me this summer and I did rest, once and a while. Please keep in touch this year!

Becca Cash, were you at this camp?

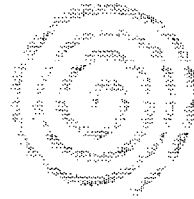

Jocelyn and Steph, you guys are my saviours! Why oh why did I only see you during Mac-cabia? Feel like writing some songs? How about a Bama? No, let's cheer! Have I thanked you enough yet? I love you both.

Jodie, don't worry, I'm not bitter! I will miss you though! Thank you so much for all of your help and if my courses backfire, I will blame it all on you! I love you Jod, and I know we will stay close even though we won't be living in the same room!

To everyone, have a great year and hopefully I'll see you all next summer!

Love, Neely Davra Lerman 93,94,96,97

KOCHOT SECTION SONG # 1 - to the tune of Mr. Jones

Sha la la la la la

Clap Stomp

Uh huh

Got off at the ABC
Started the summer again
Kadimah might of gotten smaller
But we're louder, and we're stronger

You know that the stars come out at night
Oh, cabin hoppin's beautiful
GUYS : and we all want something beautiful
GIRLS: you know, we're beautiful

So don't kill Marty and his show in the morning
Sha la la la la la yeah, uh huh, yeah

Wake up Jo Mirsky, show me some of them Jewish dances and Pass me a paddle, Stevie D.

Kochot are us, and we can do anything
Cause we, are all one section....GIBBIE? yeah

Cut your hair Ezra, or you'll look like Jacob
Please, stare at the beautiful lifeguards
Are there leeches?
No, no, no...we salted the sea

Sandra baby, makes it all happen
When everybody loves you,
You can never be lonely

Well we want to go to Maders
Play with gimp and groove it to the disco
If we knew Leigh Lampert
We'd page ourselves to the office everyday

We are Kochotniks and
We've got the ruach
To, have a really awesome summer
Cause we're gonna be BIG STARS!!!

KOCHOT SECTION SONG # 2 - to the tune of Baby Got Back

We are Kochot and we cannot lie
You other sections can't deny
When we walk in with a smile on our face
Our section rocks this place
We're number one

Got Sandra on top
And you know our ruach won't stop
Let's go cabin hopping
To bad we'll end up mopping

Ohhh, mifkad, we wanna get in line
Our staff our so fine
Saturdays are so lazy
But socials make us crazy

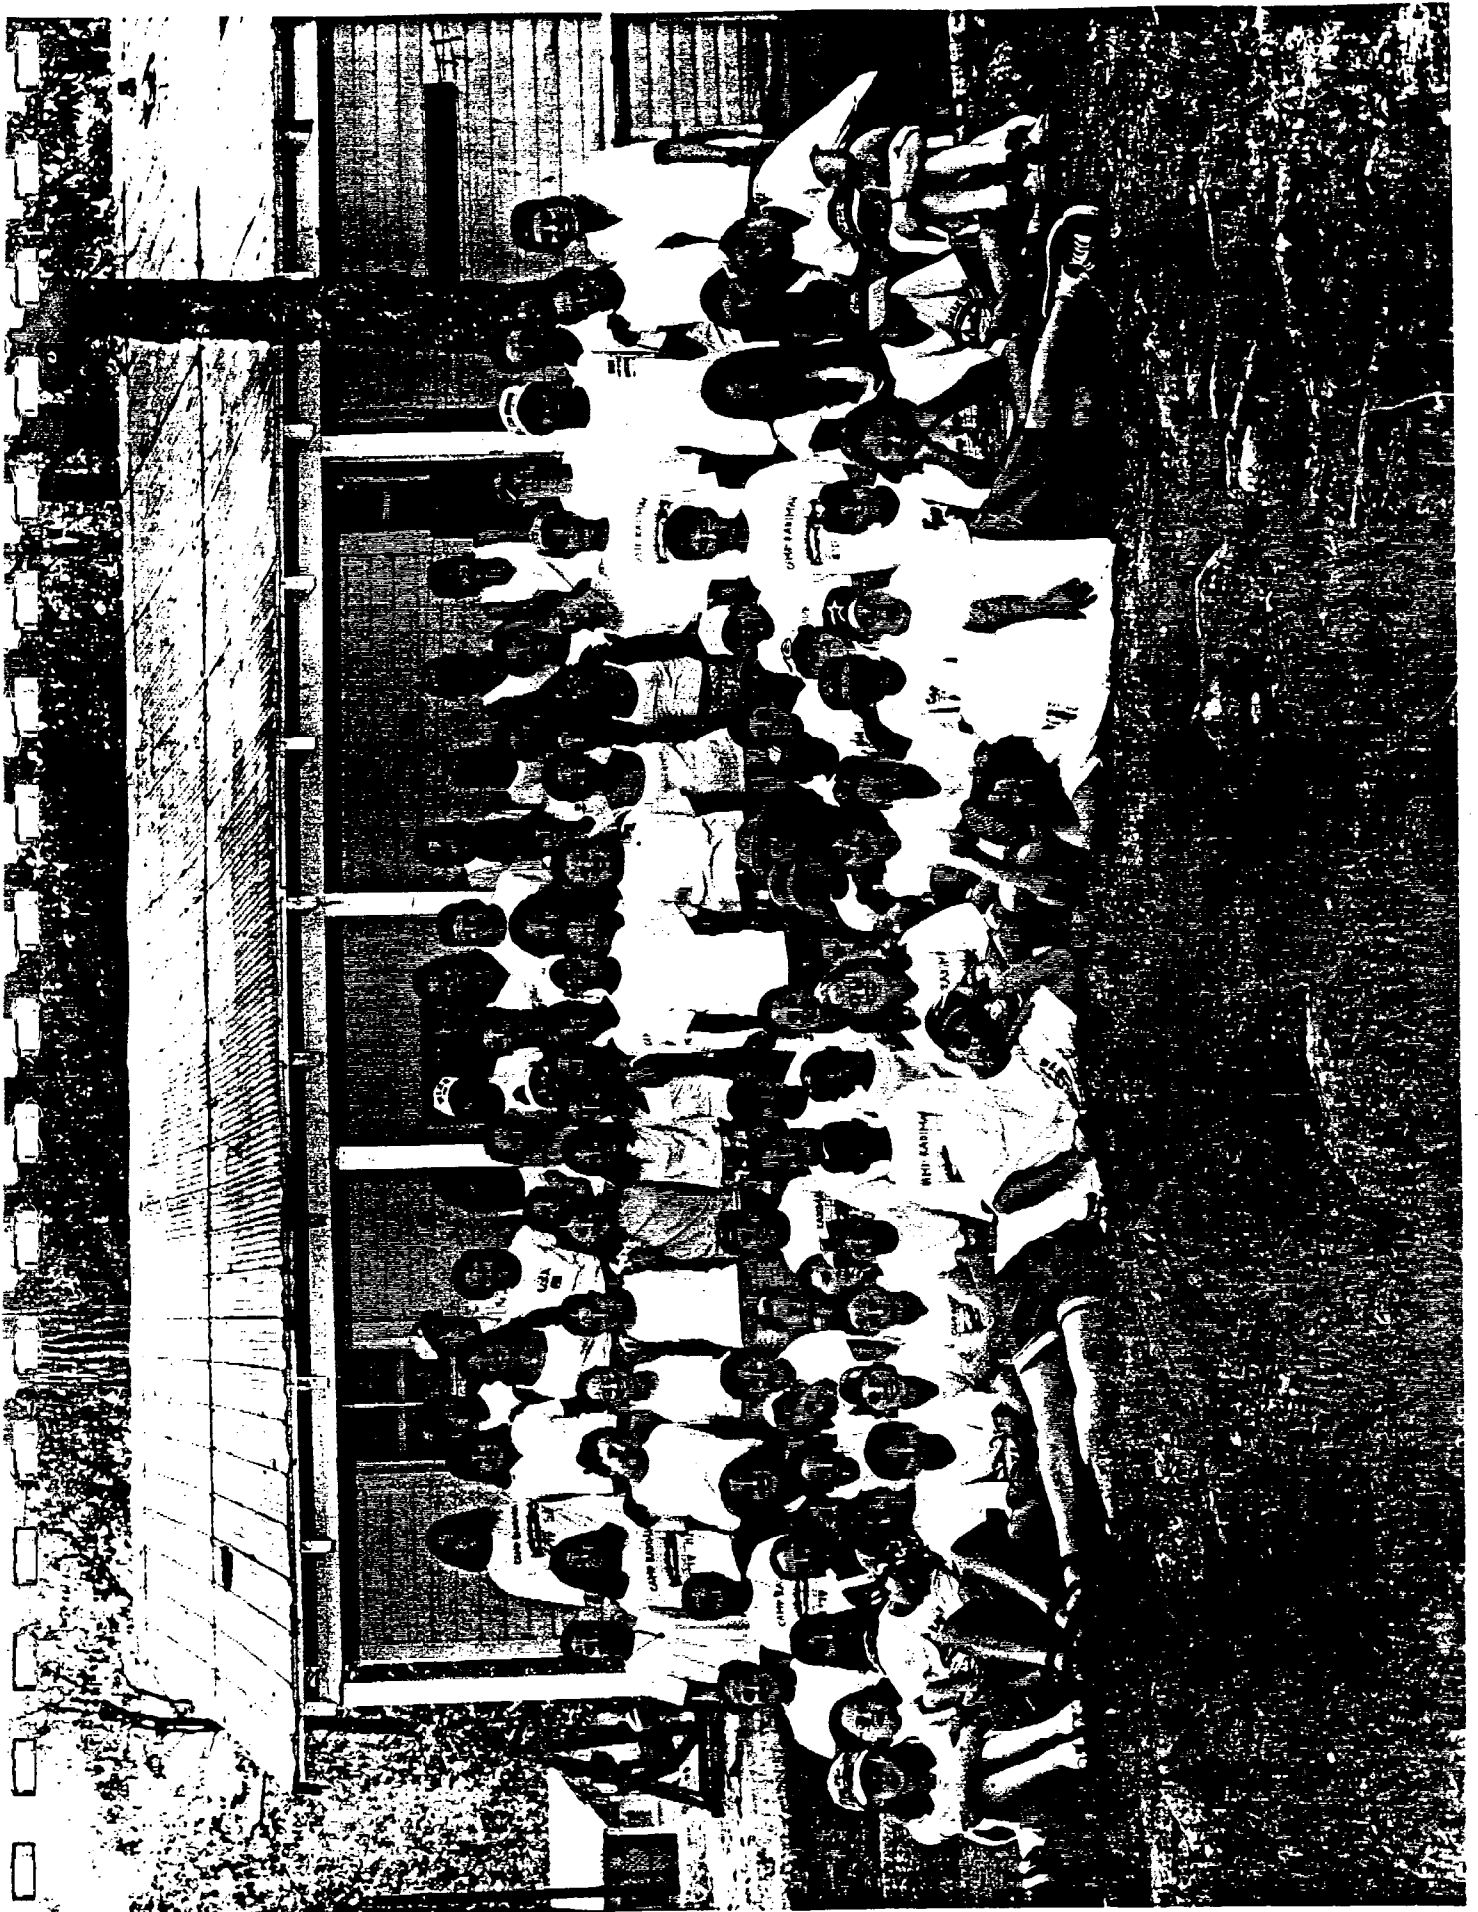

Oooh, Kochot section
Summer of 97
We'll sweat, get wet
Have mem'ries we won't forget

At Shirkud we dance and yell
At dinner they ring that bell
And a duck, and a duck and a duck, duck goose
We're not too old for Dr. Seuss

So Kochot, yeah
Kochot, yeah
Does our section rock this camp? Oh yeah

So train it, train it, train it, train it
Now we're on the move

KOCHOT!

Why I Love Kochot

We have 2 section songs. We have three tetherball courts. We don't have enough buggy duty. We have too much cabin hopping. We are the Chelmites who captured the moon. We are the ducks who captured the goose. We want showers. We want Mo. We want to help us help you. Mifkad lines confuse us. Bad hair days abuse us. Waterfights amuse us. We put on lots and lots of nailpolish. We can't take off Aly's purple outfit. We've gone to Keji and Rizzers. We're always going to the kitchen. We want to go to Maders.

More Reasons Why I Love Kochot

Kochot is a very special place where the campers may spontaneously bark at head staff or throw their section head in the lake. It is here that the chocolate chip cookies are never soft enough and the cabins are never clean enough. It is in Kochot where 73 kids rock my world as well as the rest of camp. Kochotniks are fun and happy and my favorite people to be with. Kochot 97 has been incredible and I want to thank you guys for making this summer so special. I love you and I'll miss you. It's all good.

Kochot staff - you are the best. A stick, a ball, and a rope - they will never get over it! I cannot thank you enough for everything you've done. You gave our campers enough love, attention, and care to last a lifetime. You kept me (somewhat) sane and made my job so much easier I hope you all have great year.

To a few special people:

Buff - I love you. Let's go shopping for shoes for the wedding. I know why you really revoked the rule. The only reason I'm so happy is because of you.

Steve - Thanks for making my phone calls so enjoyable, you could always be a stripper. I'm glad I could provide the light and reading material for your sports shed. We've got an amazing friendship (albeit a confusing one) and I love you. Even though you're prone to interruption, you can join Mo and I in the apartment, anytime.

Lafleur - without you I probably wouldn't have been at camp this summer. I wish we could have spent more time together, but our day off was awesome (thanks for teaching me how to canoe) I will miss you terribly this semester - who is going to walk from Pine to McTavish with me?

Neely - where are you? I needed to be with you a lot more than I was this summer. You are the greatest staff member in Camp Kadimah, even when you avoid swimming.

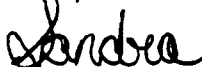

Caroline - I know you will find a good, hardcover book - the plot will be thick and you won't be able to stop flipping pages. Thanks for taking care of my multiple wounds.

Bri - I am and always will be LBL. Thanks for getting me here - who else would you have practiced on? Love you.

Jon - thanks for the concussion. I'll meet up with you in Boston.

Thank you Kadimah for a wonderful summer.

Love,

Sandra

PS - to my guys and girls from Kochot 95 you rule!

My Very First Summer

This is the very first summer I have ever been to sleepover camp. My cousin had told me that this was the greatest camp in the world and I would love it, if I came. For a couple of months I had hesitated and thought that my cousin was exaggerating but in the month of May I gave in. My mother and I called, hoping I would get in. It didn't look bright. But after a couple of days we got a phone call saying that 2 kids had cancelled out and we jumped at the opportunity.

I was counting down the days to come to camp in a good and bad way. I was totally excited to come to camp but I was afraid to leave my parents for the first time in 12 years. My mom said I would make a lot of friends here because she came here when she was younger. And boy was my mother right. I LOVE YOU CABIN 33. WE ROCK.

I went through my ups and downs but I have to say that camp is amazing. Camp is great and I love it. There is friendly staff and friendly campers here. I have to say that my cousin was not over exaggerating - he was right on...CAMP RULES.

When asked the question are you coming back next year I shrug my shoulders and reply maybe even though the answer is clear. There is no way I would miss out on SUMMER 98!

The Laser Quest

One day, Harris and Mark had a wacky idea to go sail the laser. All was well until Matt Abramsky rammed our boat, so we tipped. After that, we could not get control and tipped another 2 times. We gained control of our boat but then 30 feet from Steve's docks we tipped for the 8th time. We then swam the boat in and had fun!

Later, Mark G. and Harris

Riddles

What is grey, has a trunk and big ears?

A rat on vacation

Where are Cleopatra's temples?

On the side of her head.

Why did the two headed duck yell at the mail man?

He already had enough bills.

Iton Articles

The 20th day of the 7th month it happened, Iton articles came (and we went). We couldn't think of anything. Saul Offman told us it had to have content (What's that supposed to mean?) Well, we finally thought of something, this. Well, that's it, I hope you like it.

Cabin 30 of 1997 - song

Sudsy and Ezra out in the sun.
Two cool cousins know how to have fun
Raskin and Ari the other co-staff.
Watching the boys and having a good laugh

*Chorus: And it's summer time and the kids are all dirty..
Summertime in Cabin 30*

The boys are playing Game Boy all day
Wishing the girls would all stay away
Hopin they win at Monopoly play in their majic and acting silly

Chorus

Raskin shoots hops in the gym
And Ari rides the shag
Sudsy's got Sam on his lap
And Ezra's making the kids all laugh

Chorus

Six campers and four staff
we all can relax x2

Thank you for joining us here
We hope that this song holds you dear
Join us in nineteen ninety eight
The boys will be here so don't be late.

Chorus

Tips for Cabin Hopping

1. Never make a lot of noise
2. Always go in small groups
3. You should never ask to go
4. Always have bribes for emergencies
5. If they call your name, get into a cabin as soon as possible
6. Make a fake person in your bed to trick Shmira

If Cabin 33 Was Upside Down....

Sharon would let people sit on her bed. Shira wouldn't play cards. Valerie would get up in the morning. Aly wouldn't like dancing. Tessa wouldn't be at the beach. Rachel wouldn't like Archies. Lesley would stop looking over the wall. Ashley would be tall. Carly would laugh alot. Diana would stop laughing. Ali would stay in the cabin. Jaimewouldn't have an ear ache. Steph would calm down. Darcy wouldn't have frizzy hair. Ilana would talk like a true Canadian.

Melissa would be short. Zena wouldn't have so many boyfriends. Becky wouldn't like the Beatles. Sari wouldn't wear scrubs. And Sarah 's hair dye would stay in

Six Campers and Four Staff

In 1997, the campers had the same cabin as '96 minus 1 camper. Last year when our bunk had 7 campers we had two counsellors. This year, with Suds, Josh Raskin, Ezra Wexler and Ari Weinberg, cabin 30 is the smallest and best bunk in Kochot. The only weird thing is the ratio, 1 1/2 counsellors for 6 kids.

Hawaiian Social - the best night of my life

One Saturday night the CIT's organized a Hawaiian social. The Song "Men in Black" was playing and I saw the hottest guy in camp coming towards me. He started dancing with me. I couldn't believe it! All his Macharnik friends were watching and laughing because everybody knows I'm in love with him. I thought I was gonna faint!

A Day in the Lide of Harris and Josh

We wake up to the enjoying sound of a corny morning show by Shimmy. Then, after breakfast peulah Alef which is usually protest peulah (swim instruction). Followed by two more amusing peulot. After lunch is mac period, I mean rest period. Then another peulah, hopefully a good one, next Chug Aleph or Bet. Then dinner. After dinner we mac once again. Followed by evening program and then bed. See you tomorrow,

The Kochot Camping Trip

One night after supper the staff announced that we would leave the next morning to go to Keji National Park and that's where the 1997 Hityashvut was held. The two teams were Blue and White. The weather was great, and we had a great two days. We sawm, cooked and play games. In the end the white team won and everybody had a blast.

Ten Reasons why Camp is Way Better Than DisneyWorld

- 1) no huge line-ups (except for meals)
- 2) no crazy people in costume (except for counsellors during programs)
- 3) nothing that will make you sick to your stomach
- 4) nothing to dry up your pockets (except for Mader's)
- 5) No need for a cool, refreshing shower (jump in the lake)
- 6) no need to wake up early (we get an extra hour on Saturday)
- 7) beautiful, luxurious bunks
- 8) no parents to drive you crazy (except on Visitins Day, and we don't mind that)
- 9) no merry-go-round music (except for Saturday morning)
- 10) cabin hopping (what's the point of hopping hotel rooms?)

Sailing

I like sailing, It is fun. When the wind blows, you go fast. If you don't know how to sail, you will probably tip your boat.

A View of Camp Kadimah

This is my first summer at Camp Kadimah. After not getting along so well with my cabinmates at my last camp, I decided it was time to switch. I found out about this camp because my cousin, A.J. LeVine goes here and my mother went here many years ago. This camp is so much better than my last camp. First of all, the boys and girls are always together and don't just see each other at socials. The counsellors care if you are in trouble and don't just ignore you if something is wrong. Kadimah is a 9.6 out of 10.

By: Andrew Della Vedova

My Staff

Erika was the counsellor who wanted to be me. She bought the same shorts as me. Brooke was a nice one. She always let us eat her food even though all she had was dried apples. Tiffany was funny and loved by all and she ate a lot. Melanie was dancing all day and all night. Steph had sea monkeys and wanted to be a sea monkey. Don't you see that cabin 34 had the nicest, coolest staff in camp? I do!

Banana Boating

On Monday July 28, I went on the Banana with my friends Jamie, Darcy and the CIT Sam. It was Sam's first ride, she had a lot of fun, we all did. Ari was driving the boat and we were out for almost a half hour. We all had fun.

Hi. My name is Amy Mendleson and I am going to write why I love my cabin mates so much.

Aviva - she is always someone to talk to or ask questions. She's beautiful and she'll stay that way. Aviva, I love you and I will always will.

Lauren - she's perfect. I don't think her area was ever messy and that's why I love her. Lauren, remember what we planned for our future.

Ariella - she always makes everyone laugh with her impressions of people like Steve Urkel. You can never stop yourself from laughing.

Arinn - always had good advice for anyone who asks. She's friendly to everyone.

Leah A. - she's always talking about Michael Jordan or Nike but it's always good to know. She came here with 41 t-shirts and a duffel bag just for her shoes but I still don't think she is crazy.

Jill - always giving massages to all her friends. She's so nice to everyone. She is probably the messiest one I've ever met. But I will always love her.

Anita - she's always quiet so you can never blame her for talking. She's usually reading Archies or magazines so she'll never bother you.

Ava - she's usually always on her bed. She always tells stories and has something to say.

Sara - she always walks like a model back and forth from one end of the cabin to the other and she's always asleep first.

Rebecca - always listening to backstreet boys and fantasizing about Annie. She's always laughing

Erin - she's the sweetest person I've ever met. She's so nice and never complains. She's always wanting to play cards.

Sarah Beth - she has the nicest clothes I've ever seen in my life and it's a good thing we're the same size because then I can borrow her clothes.

Alyssa - she became one of my good friends this year and I'll always love her and never forget her.

Jackie - she's the one to joke around with. She always jokes back with you.

Emily - she's always laughing and giggling. She cares a lot for her friends. She loves everyone.

Leah Z. - she's the most tickleish person I've ever met. I will always love her that way.

Adina - she's always flirting with all the guys and always singing. I love her for always comforting her friends when they're sad.

Jessica - being the new one, she fit in really well. She's the smallest 13 year old I've ever met in my life. But I love her that way.

Tiffany - she's always sleeping or cuddling with someone. She's the funniest person I've ever met. She's always answers all our questions and makes us feel good. I will always love her and will never forget her.

Brooke - she's the sweetest and most generous person. She's always reading but when she's not you can talk to her about anything. I love her tons.

Melanie - She's always dancing. She always makes you laugh but she doesn't try to. She's always happy and if she's happy we're happy

Erika - she's a big teddy bear. You can squeeze her and you can never let go. She's always impersonating people. I will always love her and nothing will make me change my mind.

Stephanie - she's always making sure we're happy.. She has a great sense of humour and I love it.

Well, now that you know why I love everyone so much I just want to tell all of you that I had an awesome summer that I will never forget.

Love, Amy Mendleson

To all Future Kochotniks

If you want to survive a year in Kochot you have to listen to these 5 rules.

- 1) Never talk back to a counsellor
- 2) When there is no tetherball, there is NO tetherball
- 3) Listen to your section head when they say NO cabinhopping
- 4) Don't take advantage of your responsibility
- 5) Have tons of fun

Water-skiing

I had never gone waterskiing and I was really nervous ( but thanks to all the great waterski staff, they assured me I could do it). I was going second, before me was Evan (his bathing suit fell down, by the way), he was also going for his first time. I went down to the dock and I had an idea, but wasn't very sure how to ski. I did not want to do what someone named David Herbert did his first time. His mother said the only thing you have to do is not let go of the rope. So he didn't, but he got draggted around the laked.

So, I still did not know how to ski! (but thanks to the great water-ski staff I leanred how). I got up my first time and got around the whole lake. The same thing happened the second time. The third time the skis I usually use were not there so my thirf time skiing I had to use trick skis. It was fun, kind of. On visiting day I was picked to go waterskiing and my mom was upset that she wouldn't be able to see me ( but thanks again to the waterski staff she came in the boat).

Kochot Hityashvut

On Monday July 14th the Kochot section left for Keji. That's where we held the Hityashvut games. There was a blue team and a white team. We had tents and had to cook our own meals. At the bonfire Saul, Shank, Ezra and Raskin told us a scary story and we roasted marshmallows. I worked on the Crystals banner. It was so much fun. On Tuesday night Snadra announced the winners. White Team won! Yay! Everyone had a great time.

Zena's Big Embarrassment

One night, Zena put on Aly Niznik's dance costume and went to cabin 28 to show Joel Hoch what she looked like but he wasn't there! We took lots of pictures. After we went to cabin 28 we took her to the Moadon and at that time Machar was having their talent show. When Zena got there, Jon Freeman carried her in. She sang Head and Shoulders but Adam Conter made her dance. Zena was very embarrassed when she found out that Steve Indig and other head staff were in there!

Our Camping Trip

On a Sunday night at Camp Kadimah we were about to start eating our supper when 2 people came in sitting in shopping carts wearing the colours blue and white. They announced that Kochot would go from Monday to Wednesday and Machar would go Wednesday to Friday to Keji for Hityashvut. They took us on a bus for about 2 hours to get there. About one hour after we arrived we started playing games against the two teams. On the last night while sitting at a bonfire, they told us the winning tea, which was white. All in all, we had a great time.

Dear Cabin 34 of 97,

This summer has been great, too bad it's over so soon. This summer's been filled with many amazing events, from Oneg rehearsals (and there were quite a few) to Keji, we had a blast. You guys made it all happen, and I wish we could be together forever. Living so far apart from each other makes it hard to wait 10 months, but the 2 months we have together make up for the long wait.

To Alyssa - you always make things better when we're felling down.

To Sara-beth - from beast to bethie you're amazing anyway you put it

To Jackie - if your name is Moose, then why do you have a Yamnie?

To Leah - whenever we have to talk to someone, it always seems natural to come to you

To Erin R - we'll always love you no matter what happens to your head

To Pardo - keep loving those Backstreet boys and we'll love you as much as you love

*****

To Jessica - stop folding your clothes - they're neat already

To Sara - keep working on your model strut, you'll be amazing one day

To Aviva - take a break from the guys - we want a chance

To Lauren - maybe next year you'll make some friends and they'll write you (just kidding, we love you)

To Amy - stay up a bit longer at night and don't be so good at cards

To Ariella - go see the doctor for your rash - it'll all be good

To Leah - go enjoy a banana

To Arinn - don't worry, you'll find it

To Jill - one day we'll all have to do concentration on you

To Anita - don't yell or anything

To Ava - can I borrow your pants? can I use your CD's?

To Tiff - egg selent. Enjoy your fun while it lasts

To Brooke - we wish you luck in your million essays

To Steph - see! an article for you - we love you

To Erika - every time we pray, every step we take, we'll be missing you

Cabin 34 of 1997 rules and we'll never forget the memories made there.

Love always and forever, Emily Hartzman and Adina Herbert

Hello all, I can't believe the summer is nearly over, I still feel like I am sitting on the steps of the chadar waiting for the buses to arrive. This was my first year of staff and I loved every minute of it. My girls - cabin 32, you guys are the best. I couldn't have picked a better nicer group of girls. We have so many memories, (thanks for locking us out). I hope everyone cherishes them for years. This camp is a special place, all I need to do is look around at the smiling faces and feel the love in the air. There are still two weeks left so I won't get sad yet. These two weeks are so much fun. I love you guys so much, I hope to see everyone next year. Please keep in touch, write or call to talk. For all of you that have made my summer special, you know who you are, thanks. KI-96 our memories will live on forever. Have a great year, best of luck wherever your future takes you. I love you.

Love, Jenell Rubin

Ode to Cabin 34

From the minute we walked through the door
We knew we wouldn't shower for a few days, maybe more
We knew we might be dirty forever
But it didn't matter, we're in it together
It's fun in the days but even more at night
Cause we get to see Sara model in the moonlight
Or we could listen to Jill's tales about the parts of females and males
Then we can watch the Attis put on a show
With Leah's stink bombs, Steve Urkel to Aviva saying no
Jackie and Alissa swim at night
Lauren, Anita, Emily and Arinn take a bite of Jessica's alphagetties so often
While Adina complains about Jen not going to Boston
Beast, well she's just a beast
While Amy and Ava feast
Pardo listens to Backstreet Biyz and dreams about you know who Leah and Erin hate to be tickled and if you do, they'll get back at you
We love our counsellors very much
And even when the summers over we'll still keep in touch

We Love You All,
Jackie P. and Adina H.

PS - we all wanna be Reesed pieced.

ESCAPED BAT BOY SIGHTED AT RFD

HAYOM!

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — The mysterious Bat Boy who escaped from a research facility in Wheeling, W. Va., back in 1992 has turned up here — startling fans at the recent Coca-Cola 600 stock car race!

And to the alarm of federal lawmen, the pointy-eared creature has grown at an alarming rate and now stands about 4 feet tall — twice the height he was at the time of his capture five years ago!

"This thing is totally unpredictable and the bigger he gets the more dangerous he is," warned a source close to FBI officials who are conducting a nationwide manhunt for the semi-human tyke.

While the feds have remained mum about the search to avoid public panic, the source says authorities have been focusing on a 35-mile area around Charlotte since the latest sighting. The tip came from 24-year-old race fan Nikki Halperstan, who says she was in a parking area when she was assaulted by the frightening figure.

"I was eating a hot dog after watching the race when all of a sudden I felt something the size of a big chimpanzee jump on my back," said a still-shaken Miss Halperstan. "I screamed and looked over my shoulder — and saw this bald-headed child staring at me with these huge eyes, razor-sharp teeth and ears like Mr. Spock. He grabbed the hot dog right out my hand and scampered away."

At least five persons witnessed the attack, which occurred in the early morning hours of May 26 after the rain-delayed race, according to FBI investigators. Their estimate of the creature's height ranged from 36 to 52 inches. Charlotte officials are worried, but the FBI source says federal lawmen, who have been frustrated in their efforts to track down the youngster, are thrilled. "For the first time in years it looks like law enforcement officers have a good shot at taking this creature into custody."

As Weekly World News and other publications reported, Bat Boy was captured in a West Virginia cave on Sept. 10, 1992.

Researchers speculated the youngster, who had sharp teeth and squeaked like a bat, might be a human child who had been raised by the flying cave dwellers — or belong to a separate species that diverged from mankind in pre-historic times. But before the mystery of the Bat Boy's origins could be solved, he escaped.

At that time, the creature stood only about 2 feet tall, weighed 65 pounds and was believed to be roughly 2 years old.

"Now he's around age 7 and getting stronger and craftier all the time," noted the FBI source. "God help us if we don't catch him soon!"

Tune: They Don't Really Care About Us

By: Michael Jackson

Gib, Gosh, Kochot
Been there, done that
CIT could be me
Or I'll be at Billy
Wife-beater, chick-bait
Sexy staff mate.
You cried, we laughed
Ha Ha Stucraft

All we want to say is that there will always be Camp Machar x2

Rad, roam, red hair
Speedo swim wear
Yad by Yad voice clear
You'll hear us cheer
In the lake with food I ate
Saturday sleep late
Midnight mini-putt
Maccabia kiss butt

Robert Matlow drives the car
There will always be Camp Machar

All we want to say is that there will always be Camp Machar x2

In '97 of the camp we're half
Put the bunny in the box
We're gonna be you're staff

He said, she said
Mifkad, bed head
I'm here, you're there
Melyad, rip tear
Jake-quit, had a fit
Heidi-bite me

We've got BAT-BOY!

All we want to say is that there will always be Camp Machar x2
All we want to say is that there will always be Camp Ma x3
All we want to say is that there will always be Camp MACHAR!

A Message From: Default Rosh A

My Dearest Camp Machar,

15 years have gone into the making of this Rosh Machar. Kadimah is my degree and perhaps Camp Machar will eventually be my masters. Since Sobes and Yablon I knew that I'd stick around until I was living in cabin 11 as Rosh, but I learned something about myself that I hadn't planned on this year.

My Rosh's and S'Gans always had a presence, a character, an understanding that I admired and desired. I aspired to succeed them and acquire their treasures. When the time finally came to fill their shoes, (after a week of window shopping) there was no gauntlet passed. There were few instructions and no alterations of my physical ( or mental ) capacities. This led me to question whether or not I was a "Rosh". Since the job dictated that I was, I had my answer. If I was a Rosh now, but my character hadn't changed, what was I before cabin 11. Well, I think the answer is the name, a Rosh. I've been this since my years as a Macharnik. The point is not that I've had a seniority complex since I was a camper, I've never once said that I was any good at my job. The point is that for a long time now, I've been the man you know and that "Rising to meet the Challenge" is B.S. You are who you are, always. Don't wait to be appointed something to heighten your character. Don't wait for accolades to change you, because they won't. Will success. Don't let success will you.

I am a small fraction of what should be appreciated as Camp Machar this summer. Firstly, I should thank Sheldon Cohen and Michael Soberman. Not a day goes by without hearing Sobes say "You're not normal, you're really not normal Jacob. Not well..... at all". Because of my generation of boys, there are now rules in camp, and I appreciate your courage in giving me this opportunity.

Never in my years, have I worked with a more cohesive, loving staff. Never before have I had such a harder working group of Madrichim. The Macharniks don't know how you stayed up until 2:00 am most nights working for them and then got up in the morning putting on a fresh face and attitude.

Thank you Jocelyn, captain of the sick girls cabin. You're a real strength and a great neighbour. However your girls are on the porch too late at night.

Thank you Jeff, who's father invents food. Your positive attitude is unmatched, Jeff needs to learn that walking to the general store is not supposed to be fun for staff.

Thank you Rosie, whose paddle judging abilities inspire the rest of us. You'll make an excellent animated dog. I hope you get sports next year, you deserve it very much. And I hope you enroll in a 3 step program to address your issue as a day-off-aholic.

Thank you Rachel. What would the section have been without its quota of Pinks. I respect your tolerance and control however you are also a day-off-aholic. Please arrange with Rosie to enroll in that program.

Thank you Becca. You always stayed behind after meetings to pick up my pieces. When I felt like Humpty Dumpty, you tried to put me back together. You keep me on the wall, sweetheart.

Thank you Jenna. You can throw together the most intelligent, successful Friday night programs at the very last minute (as was the usual case, sorry). Your spontaneous creativity and enthusiasm was invaluable. You used tremendous patience this summer. I only hope you left yourself some for life.

Thank you Jodi. With dual responsibilities on the waterfront and in the section I know you had the candle burning at both ends. At Hityashvut, I think you cheered louder than the Macharniks. You came out on top. I'm proud of you.

Thank you Jon. You came in with outstanding ambition and drive. Your dedication to your cabin was immeasurable. You were always receptive to my suggestions and added personal innovations, that helped build a stronger cabin dynamic. You're the future of this camp buddy, keep up the good work.

Thank you Aaron. You sat in bushes, behind trees, in trees and on cabins to spot the "disobedients". Your efforts protected the safety and welfare of many. Glad to have had you back from last year.

Legends, your support through trying times has kept me alive. No matter what, you've got to strut. Slowly, we're disappearing in this environment. Women are taking toy away from me. So, on to the next phase of our plan. Keep the network alive and we'll run small countries together. Love you guys.

Jason Altman, living with you is like Machar all over again. Even though we live like China and have an untraceable smell in the cabin, things couldn't have been any better. I apologize for stapling all of your belongings to the ceiling. You think you're all that and can solve my problems in your sleep, well the next time that you are snoring while I'm spilling, I'll staple your toes to the ceiling. I hope your stocks do well, invest in your friends first and you'll get a solid return, guaranteed. De Niro's Tribeca was witty and I loved the water bucket improv with Gabe. No one else has to know that I ran Gosh and you ran Machar all from our beds with a dysfunctional walkie talkie. You really were Machar stage crew this year. Thanks for your insight and support, sorry about all the meetings on your bed. Love the couch. Love the flashlight.

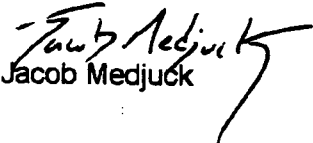

There's only one person left to write about. Heidi Lipkus. This one's easy. I'm nothing without you. You are a tour-de-force. There were times you carried the section completely. You ran around all day long, every day, all summer, and still managed smile. Every situation was a new experience for the both of us. We definitely took the road less traveled, if anything we paved a 4 lane highway for others. Since high school, I've always complained about working with you. I can't remember why. Last year I gave up fighting with you because I was always wrong. Although we're not the romantic partnership our parents envisioned, we're a loving partnership none the less. There's no one I could have worked better with and the more I think about it, the more obvious that is. We've grown our very own Machar, a Heidi-Jacob Chia Machar. Thank you for coming back, not leaving or letting me quit either. My only sadness comes now that we've worked out all the kinks and matured our partnered leadership, but camp is over. I cannot love you or respect you more without brotherly intervention, so quite simply, thank you for fulfilling my dream and you know what I'm talking about.

Camp Machar, it is 2:09 am. I'm sitting on an empty crate of toilet paper, and tied to a shelf in a closet in the office. Every few minutes, Steph Levitz comes and takes a page of mine to type and Zena opens my door so I can breathe.

Thank you all for Beauty and the Beast. Our new 48 hour quality production will remain a Camp Machar record for a long, long time to come. Also, I'd like to thank all of my seal teams who lifted, carried and swept for me this summer.

Basically guys, don't sweat the small stuff. Suck the marrow out of life. And when life gets you down and you don't know how to carry on, remember, Good Times are comin', always.

With Love, your good friend,

Jacob Medjuck

P.S - Camp Machar of 97 is now a memory and takes a special resting place in the history of Camp Machar. Another summer ends, the torch is passed. Congratulations to you all.

Dear Camp Machar,

From day one I knew that this summer was going to be a challenge for all of us. A challenge I'm proud to say you all rose to. You came to Camp Machar as a divided entity, and throughout your time here I've watched you grow to become one. We as a staff started off the summer stressing our ideals of Machar: Unity, Love, Humour, Trust, Respect, Spirit, Leadership, Independence and Tradition. As Camp Machar 1997 you have successfully adopted those ideals, but most importantly you have created your own.

When you look back on the summer, I know that you will laugh, cry and smile. That is what Machar is, it is a mixture of emotions that keeps you strong and makes you grow. From Machar Day, to Hityashvut, to Maccabia and Yom Chanichim, you have made me proud. I've seen you take one whatever task we've presented and make it your own. You have been leaders, teachers, and friends to all those around you and to all that look up to you and can't wait to follow in your footsteps.

I know how things change from day to day and summer to summer, but one thing is definite, and that is Camp Machar. Those of you who are moving on, good luck. I know your decision about your future endeavors is uncertain. It is difficult to decide which road to take. Remember, no matter where you may end up, I believe that each and every one of you will have a summer of a lifetime. You won't let things pass you by. Just like this summer, you will grab it with two hands and "RUN WITH IT". To those of you who are staying in the wonderful world of Camp Machar, be strong. Take your dreams by the hand. You are now the leaders and future generation of Machar. Take advantage of every opportunity and lead all those down the path of a lifetime. Tradition is what makes us one with the past and the future. Stay true, I wish you all good luck and good fortune. You Rock My World!!

Machar Staff: What can I say? We rock! Never have I seen a group of staff work so well together....it's pretty good when our only problem within the summer is that we love each other too much, and we can't stay away from each other! Thank you for all your hard work and effort. You're an inspiration. Here's to showers, late night meetings, wacky pictures and regular chips. I love you guys.

Bossman: Thank you for all of our great talks, you helped me through a lot of frustrations. Thanks for having so much patience with me and my non-stop questions! You're a great friend (I know you are a softy underneath all that Stone Cold).

Stacey and Leah: Girls of Cabin # 6, "sorry, did I wake you up?", "Hi guys", "Bye guys", these were just a few of our PASSING conversations. In all seriousness though, thanks for being such awesome roomies. Even though I wasn't around that much, I always knew where home was. Thanks for our great talks. Good luck.

Steve Davidson : Who would have thought one more summer together. Thank you for solving all my problems. I didn't even mind the embarrassment that much. Seriously though, I'm glad we keep getting to spend this time together. "WICKED".

Steve Indig: Well, buddy....we survived. I couldn't have lasted this long without you. You are my cuddle bunny, always there to scratch my back, plus you kept me updated on my siblings. Thank you for everything, I'm glad we had time to become even better friends. Good luck at Dal, hope things work out with you know who. You should become a psychiatrist.

Jason Altman : What would I have done without you? You were my constant. I'm so glad rekindled our long time friendship. Thanks for all our chats and laughs, you are spectacular individual, please remember I'm always here for you. Love you Jay, even though you broke my heart, ha ha.

Michael Soberman: CAIN! I'm still not quite sure if that's a compliment or not, but I'll trust you that being called a grasshopper is a good thing. Michael, thank you for letting us become closer this summer. It's true, we spent more time talking in this one summer, than we did throughout my other 12 years at this camp...put together! Sobes, you were my guidance counsellor, teacher, friend, and ego booster all rolled into one. Thanks for everything.

Jason (poops): Well, I guess you just can't stay away. Even though you're not where you necessarily want to be, I'm glad that you're here. Thanks for being my friend, you know me better than I know myself. I love you too!

Jacob, Jacob, Jacob: "How do I love thee? Let me count the ways." Who would have thought that so much would have gone on in one summer?! From S'Gan to Rosh to RRRosh, we did it! You are an inspiration. We've definitely been through it all this summer, our ups and our downs, but through it all we survived. I love and respect you and your dreams. Good luck in Vancouver, you deserve the best. Remember, we are soulmates...it's pretty scary when we can read each others minds...wait...make that when I can read your wacked mind.

To those of you I forgot to mention, I'm sorry. There are just too many people to thank. Have a fantastic year, good luck to everyone and remember....DISNEY SMILE!

With all my love,

Heidi Lipkus

Why We Love General Swim

Once upon a time there were two happy campers and Aqualeaders named Sharon and Karen (their names rhymed). They loved general swim and were not afraid of leaches or Gus; in fact they kind of liked going leech hunting and petting Gus's shell. They played on the big, squishy tubes but what they really liked to do was dive off the docks into piles of pretty coloured willies. There buddy tags could always be found on the cheerful number 69 to honour their good friend Arleah Rush. During buddy call they consistently screamed out their numbers to make life easier for the wonderful lifeguards. During the dance contest they shook their booties and it was a great daily treat even though they never won the dance contests they really aren't bitter. After three whistle tweets were sounded they exited the docks while thanking their lifeguards with 2 big smiles plastered to their shining faces. Then they would dry off, wrap their towels around their shivering bodies, put on their sandy flip-flops and go find Rosy to get snack for their fellow Macharniks. Lake William is the best! We love General Swim!

Dear Cabin 16,

We've had an awesome summer with you guys in our cabin. We'd just like to thank all of you for making our summer so special and memorable to us. The 22 of us have spent good and bad times together and have managed to come through it all closer to when we started. We hope you had a great summer like we had and we love all of you - tons of love. Keep in touch and hope to see you next year.

Love always and forever,

Dear Camp Machar,

There is so much to say. Everybody here has made my summer complete in one way or another. Our group is by far the best and you all know that. Our staff rule and were definitely the best. I love you all and even though I was closer to some of you more than others, I have a special place in my heart for everyone. This was definitely the best summer I've had in my life. Keep in touch during the year.

Love Always,
Elana Epstein

Dear Camp Machar,

I've had an amazing summer with all of you! It's July 26 the Saturday before Visitor's Day and this just goes to show how nice you all are because half of you have invited me to eat with you and your family. I've had a few disappointments, rough times and good times but you've all been there for me. Cabin 15 may be a small cabin but we've all become very close and it's great. Jacob and Heidi you really do know how to run a section and you've accomplished a lot. The friends I met in '95 have only grown closer and the new friends I've made are now my good friends. I came into the section having a terrible time but within three days you guys made my summer.

What do you want with me and me and me
You take away our sanity
You make us scream profanities
Even though we bond with our staff
And we make them giggle and laugh
Still by 2 in the morning
We get our final warning
The mix is taken away
We weep in bed all day
As we yearn for the sugary sweetness
Our hearts await the darkness
When once again we can bust open
The 2.2 Kg can of pure fun
The cycle continues forever
And things hatch in our stomach together
But our energy will never stop building
And our rotten teeth will always need filling
But in the end it's all worth it cause it's just me and me and me

Dear Camp Machar,

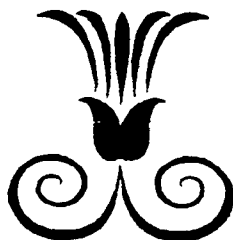

Wow! I can't believe that camp is nearly over. So far, this summer has been amazing. We went to Indian Falls, Keji, the General Store, we had Maccabia and we finally learned our section song. As well, we produced an amazing performance of Beauty and the Beast. Not to mention the things we have to look forward to, Machar Day, Machar day off and our t-shirts, and any other programs we'll get to participate in.

This was my third year at camp and my second in Machar. I think that this summer was very special and exciting. At the beginning of the summer there was so many new people to meet and become friends with. We also had an amazing staff which also made this summer great. Also, even though there was so many new people, we were able to come together with all our spirit and make Camp Machar 1997 amazing.

To cabin 16: We had so much fun! I really enjoyed being in a cabin with 19 other people. You were all so nice and incredible bunk mates. Thanks to Becca and Rachel. You were the best - I love you all.

I want to thank everyone for one of the best summers of my life. Thanks especially to Heidi and Jacob and all the staff. I love you and hope you all have a great year.

Jodi's Junior Lifeguards of Today and Tomorrow

I'm sure everyone in Machar has heard about Jodi's Junior Lifeguard swim class. If not, let us explain how it all started...Zack, Clint, Mike C., Laura, Politzer and Ariella all started off in Life III. In our first swim class, we sang ring-around the rosy, sang our ABC's, and played with big blue balls. At that point, we all decided we wanted to go into Maroon. We all were just too good for Maroon so we went up to blue. At least, that's what we thought. Jodi got a little worried and talked to Ann about our class. Ann then later approached us and made a little compromise. We could be part of the Junior Lifeguard program which would teach us how to blow whistles and walk in "W" formation on the docks, only if we went in the water. So the deal was sealed and Ann ordered us a junior lifeguard booklet. Her part of the deal was kept but we can't exactly say the same. Our only rule is that you come down in a bathing suit but you don't have to swim. We simply sit in the hightower and chat. We love each member in our swim class and for each person we have something to tell.

Zack: Early on in the summer, Clint came out of the water and dried himself with his towel. His towel was sopping wet and Zack decided to put Clint's towel in the lake. Clint retrieved and using his good judgement put Zack's dry towel on the outside of the pool. Zack didn't make it there in time and it sank to the bottom of the lake. Clint felt awful and decided that Zack's towel and his should be buddies at the bottom of the lake. So he threw his towel in too. Meanwhile, Jodi is going crazy trying to get the towels out but nobody would let her. Clint then suggested that it be a class thing and Laura, Rebecca and Ariella all threw their towels in.

Michael C: While all this was happening, he got himself stuck in between the ladder for the slide.

Laura: That she laughs at everything Clint and Zack say and do.

Clint: With all his stories about Sonya and about getting suspended

Ariella: "Well, I thought your bathing suit was supposed to be that way"

Politzer: Don't worry, everyone saw your butt.

Jodi: Saving towels is one of her dreams and saving socks is one of her other dreams and purple is her favourite colour.

For straddling lessons please ask Zack or Clint. We love you all and we will really miss our swim classes together.

Love, Ariella Gaspar and Rebecca Politzer

PS - If you need CPR, don't ask us!

Our Iton Article

For days they'd been talking about writing an Iton article and pondering what subject to write about. Finally, on the day it was due, Alyssa Borenstein and Karen Swirsky realised that it had to be written right away. So they settled down on Alyssa's bed with a box of vegetable thins and some lemonade powder and began to think about topics to write about. When they realised they had no ideas Alyssa ran to ask Becca Cash what to write about. Simultaneously, Karen wrote the preceding sentence while Alyssa returned with Becca's suggestions. They were:

- 1) Hityashvut (which wouldn't have worked since Alyssa missed it)
- 2) Maccabia ( too tiring to even remember)
- 3) Up Coming Machar day (but there wasn't much to say since it was only up coming)
- 4) Cabin 16 ( the best cabin in camp)
- 5) Volleyball (sport....hit ball....over net....enough said)

Anyways by the time all that was sorted out, Karen's crackers were almost non existent and Alyssa's lemonade powder was all over her bed (she later cleaned it up) The girls then looked around the cabin in hope of finding an inspirational idea. Unfortunately, all they saw was Sarah Feldbloom's duct tape hats, Arleah Rush lying in the same place she had been lying for 2 days, listening to Rachel Pink's Ani CD. Oh Yeah, and of course Katherine Devlin sleeping -as usual - No that doesn't happen till 5 minutes after rad. All this made Karen and Alyssa realize that there was no hope of them finding a topic in the near future. In they end they settled on their original idea of how great Camp Kadimah truly is: "Kadimah is good - we love Kadimah"

Dear Camp Machar,

This year rocked! It was one of the best summers of my life.

Lauren Rotenberg - I love you lots You are great. I loved out little talks.

Matt Abramsky - Thanks alot for having little talks with me! You're the best. And thanks for keeping me same during those "rough" times.

Clint and Zack - As much as you guys hated me sometimes and we had our little disagreements, I love you guys.

Meredith - You are so funny ! Your little moods in the cabin made everything so much more enjoyable.

Jeremy Poriah - You rock! You are the best. I love the girls - keep in touch.

I lana Kirsh - I love sleeping next to you for two summers now. You are a sweetie!

Michelle Zimmerman - Day - I'm making you the necklace, don't worry, I love you lots. Don't forget out little things with lamby and blacky. Jokes!!!

Jeff Hirsch - you are the best! I still love you even though you made fun of my smile all the time! At least I smile!!!!

Hon Freeman - Just like I wrote for Jeff, I love you even though you make fun of my smile! Never take my anklet off! If I gave it to you by now!

Noah Pink - I'll remember to never go sailing with you again. Love ya!

Rebecca Farkas - my girl - friend. Just joking! I love you lots.

Katherine Devlin - If you're smart you'll never go sailing again - especially with Noah....just joking, sailing's fun!

Jocelyn - You are the nest counsellor I've ever had! I love you always.

Molly and Kyla - the two "sisters" you guys are best!

Jacob and Heidi - I love you guys!

The C.I.T. girls - You guys are the best, I missed you guys in Machar and I love you always.

For anyone who I didn't mention, I love you all and I'm sorry I didn't get to mention you! You guys are the best. Camp Machar, you are the best and I'll never forget the memories.

I love you all, Keep in touch,

Lauren Ester Greenspan

Dear Camp Machar

Six years ago I never thought I'd make it through one summer at Camp Kadimah. I was wrong. Year after year I found myself only having a fair time at camp but still I returned.

When Machar quickly approached I returned to camp as usual and had the best summer possible. Until this year; I can honestly say that this has been the best summer of my life and it's thanks to all of you.

I'm not going to thank individuals because there are 91 of you but I'm going to thank all of you for making my summer an amazing experience, which I will never forget. Machar will grow old with me and I'll grow old with it's memories. There's a special feeling which Machar contains that I can't explain. It's a feeling of unity, trust, friendship, and love which comes together during the Rad circle. These feelings have made me a better person and have given me skills which I'll use for the rest of my life. I would like to thank the wonderful staff who have made my summer amazing.

Just remember: You all have a friend. Keep in touch

Dear Machar of 1997,

This summer has been great! You guys made my summer even better. You guys were always there for me when I needed you and I love you all. Cabin 3 you were the best. You guys are so much fun and I will miss you guys so much. I will miss our special nights together your yelling at us, Sarah C. was great. Yael, you need more rafters, you swing on Leona, your hair doesn't get any curlier, don't worry Kyla you will still grow. Miriam, cookie Monster will hopefully shut up soon, and Maya that hurts. Guys, our side of the cabin rocked. I will miss you all Have an amazing time during the year. I hope you had a good summer.

Love,

Natalie Bornstein

Dear Cabin 15,

This summer has definitely been quite interesting. Being the 4th week of camp, it's gone by too quickly. I will remember each and every one of you in different ways. First I'll start with Lauren Greenspan - we became much closer this summer in this tiny cabin. I love you. Lauren Rotenberg - "do you have a d—?" love our inside jokes and remember I can kick your butt in basketball. I love you very much! MickZD - I can also beat you in basketball Remember I am violent. Maccabia wuz awesome being on the same team as you. You rule babe! Jordana Cohen - fellow American Thanks for all the food and for letting me borrow "Rent". I couldn't live without disc 2, song 1. Remember to love your freckles and no matter how angry I am sometimes, I still love you. Hi Marlie - the former Mrs. Noodles. Now! I can call you Mrs. Skinny right? You are one of a kind. Marla - better known as Poopstain. wuz up?! Thanks for the face massages. I love you and you can keep laughing at my cottage cheese jokes. To Ilana Kirsh - what can I say? First, congrats on Maccabia captain. You did an awesome job. We also got much closer this year. When you get cold, remember that I won't be there to tug your shirt sleeve. I'll for sure miss you, come to Plantation Okay? Meredith - Oh my God, I couldn't believe we were in the same cabin this summer. This summer wuz definitely a blast. I loved making soup, eating Pringles and definitely staying up to talk on the porch about everything. Now remember last summer" You are 14, how could you have not ...." Now this year was much different, no? I love you babe and our play fighting. Say hi to Dylan and I'll talk to you during the year. Last but not least, Jocelyn - a few words to most won't be able to be out into words but I will try. I know for sure you did an awesome job and you were an awesome counsellor. Please wax and bleach me! No more shaving okay? But at least I have a soft smooth tummy! Thanks for all our talks and for always being there for me. For sure I know I was the best for wake up in the morning and thanks for always throwing me off your bed at 1A.M. I'll stop here....you know the rest. I love you very much, never forget it and I'll try to visit you in New York OK? Americans rule baby

To all of Cabin 15, I'll get to "Spoon" you all eventually so look out!

P.S. Vulgarity rulz!

P.P.S. Cottage Cheez and chicken flaps forever! I love you all and keep in touch

Love,

Elana Epstein 1996-1997

P.P.P.S. it's soda "pasta" and bathroom

Dear Camp Machar 1997

You guys are great, I had the best time this summer because of you all. I've come here for 3 years now and this has got to be the best.

Leona - Your curls are so pretty. You have been a great friend and I hope to see you in the city

Danielle - your cat has got to be the cutest I have ever seen

Maya - you bag! I think you and Leah stumped my growth just a little. Maybe I'll see you in the city.

Rachel - URAQT Pie. You really are the greatest and I know I'll see you in the city. Have fun at Thornlea

Sara - Watch how you sleep babe!

Miriam - you are having fun! I can't wait to have a night without Elmo

Natalie - Who's going to do you hair? Just call and I will be there in a sec....also to see someone else....

Marlee - I'm so happy we are closer this year. I love you lots!

Lauren R. You really are one of the sweetest people I know!

Jordana L. - Beware - They will come!

Michelle - Sporty! Hoss! Love Ya!

Ilana - You were a great Maccabia captain - CU in the city!

Lauren - Thanks for being great

Marla - I'll take you to the Thornlea parties you take me to the St. Andrew's ones!

Jo - Don't worry, everything will be OK (with you know what)

I love you all!

Love,

Yael Strasberg 1995-1997

Dear Machar 1997

Machar 1997 is so incredible. Everyone is so hyper and vivacious. When evening programs get emotional and tears are in our eyes or when we are the happiest we could ever possibly be there is always a shoulder to lean on. Our staff is so fabulous. I don't know how it could be better. Everyone is so special and holds a place in my heart. Cabin 3 is so awesome. We rule. I just have some people that I want to thank.

Darah Faith - Wow! Over these past six years I've been at camp you've always been willing to give me your time. We have shared so many great times. I don't think I would have survived my camp years without you. Thanks and I love you.

Sarah Goldberg - Over the year I'm really going to miss that beautiful smile of yours and especially your distinct giggle. I hope we keep in touch forever and ever.

Whenever I see you I just light up inside, I'm going to miss you so much. But I know we will keep in touch forever.

Sharon - I love you so much. I don't know what I'd ever do without you. You're always there when I need a hug or someone to talk to. We've shared so many good times. I love you.

Arleah - I loved getting to know you this summer. I hope we keep in touch forever.

Carly - Babe, who could have a better friend than you. From your advice to your way of "sorting laundry" You are always there for me. I'll always know if I need a bed to sleep in with you'll be there. I love you. Even if you paint funny.

Meredith - From your first day of camp in 1995 we instantly bonded. If you ever need me I am only a phone call away.

Ilana - I will always remember our evening strolls and of course BFFAEWOMK. It's a small world

Elana - American's Rule! I can't believe I've only known you for two years you're the greatest. And you are a good driver.

Shelly You make me feel like a natural woman. I'll never forget your hilarious softball move. You're so funny. I love you!

Leah - I love your hugs and massages. We've become great friends these past six years. I love you and good luck.

Molly - My very faithful sister. I'm glad we became such good friends this summer. I'll never forget all the great times we've shared. I hope the paths we take in life cross. I love you..

Leona - Have only known you for one summer. It can't be true. You've become so special to me this summer. Keep in touch. I love you.

Jeremy - Great becoming friends with you this summer. I'll never forget you.

Zack - Even though our relationship has gone through both good and bad. I know that our friendship will last forever. Thanks for always being by my side when I need a hand. I love you.

Gryfe - Even though you weren't at camp long this summer. We've still shared five fabulous summers together.. Keep in touch I love you.

Clint - You're so funny. I love you. Thanks for always talking to me and giving me hugs. I think that I am not the only magical one.

Tom - Thanks for being such a good friend these past few years. I'm really grateful for the way you took me under your wing when we met.

Jen S. and Jodi S - You guys are the best. You're so funny and you always care so much - thanks.

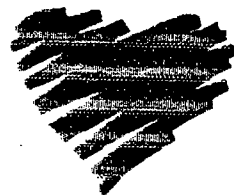

Heidi & Jacob - Thanks for making my camp Machar experience so wonderful. I love you both.

I know I am probably leaving out many of my friends, but I can't go on forever. I love everyone in camp Machar. You all made my summer the best it could be.

Love always and forever,

Kyla Ruth Rudnick

P.S. Keep in Touch

Camp at First Sight

I step off the bus and look around,
Pick up my bags but no familiar faces are found.
I find out the cabin I'm in for the summer,
But I don't know any one that's quite a bummer.
I meet the staff and they're really nice,
I go to the Chadar and our meal is rice.
I heard the meals were pretty bad,
I tasted them and they are really rad.
Our first Shabbat roles along,
I go to the RCC to sing a song
I learned new dances, and met new faces,
Lots of people from different places.
Maccabia was lots of fun,
I ran, jumped and cheered in the sun.
Smoothly as the summer is running,
Keep in mind "good times are comin'"

This is Laura Shiner and Bossmat Gal. This is our first summer here and we are having an amazing time and the memories will never be forgotten.

Love you all, Laura and Bossmat

The Hotel

Once upon a time in the far off land of New Germany there was a hotel run by two mommy's - Rachel and Rebecca, but they were called Rach and Becca by their 20 girls. On the left wing, Rent played all day and on the right wing Ani Difranco screamed all day. In the early morning hours a cute little bird named Heidi flew in and chirped about mifkad in ten minutes. All minor details aside, the Hotel was a happy, fun, nice and good place for all who dwelled there.

The Goodness of Gravy

We like gravy. Gravy is good. We like the stuffing too. Meat is white and sometimes dark. Now we must go to bed. Skittles. Done and Done.

C.I.T. Section Song - to the tune of Cecilia clap, clap, clap

Chorus

Oh Kadimah, we're the CIT's
We're the best can't you see in our camp
Oh Kadimah, we work hard all day
Without gettin paid for six weeks,
we need sleep

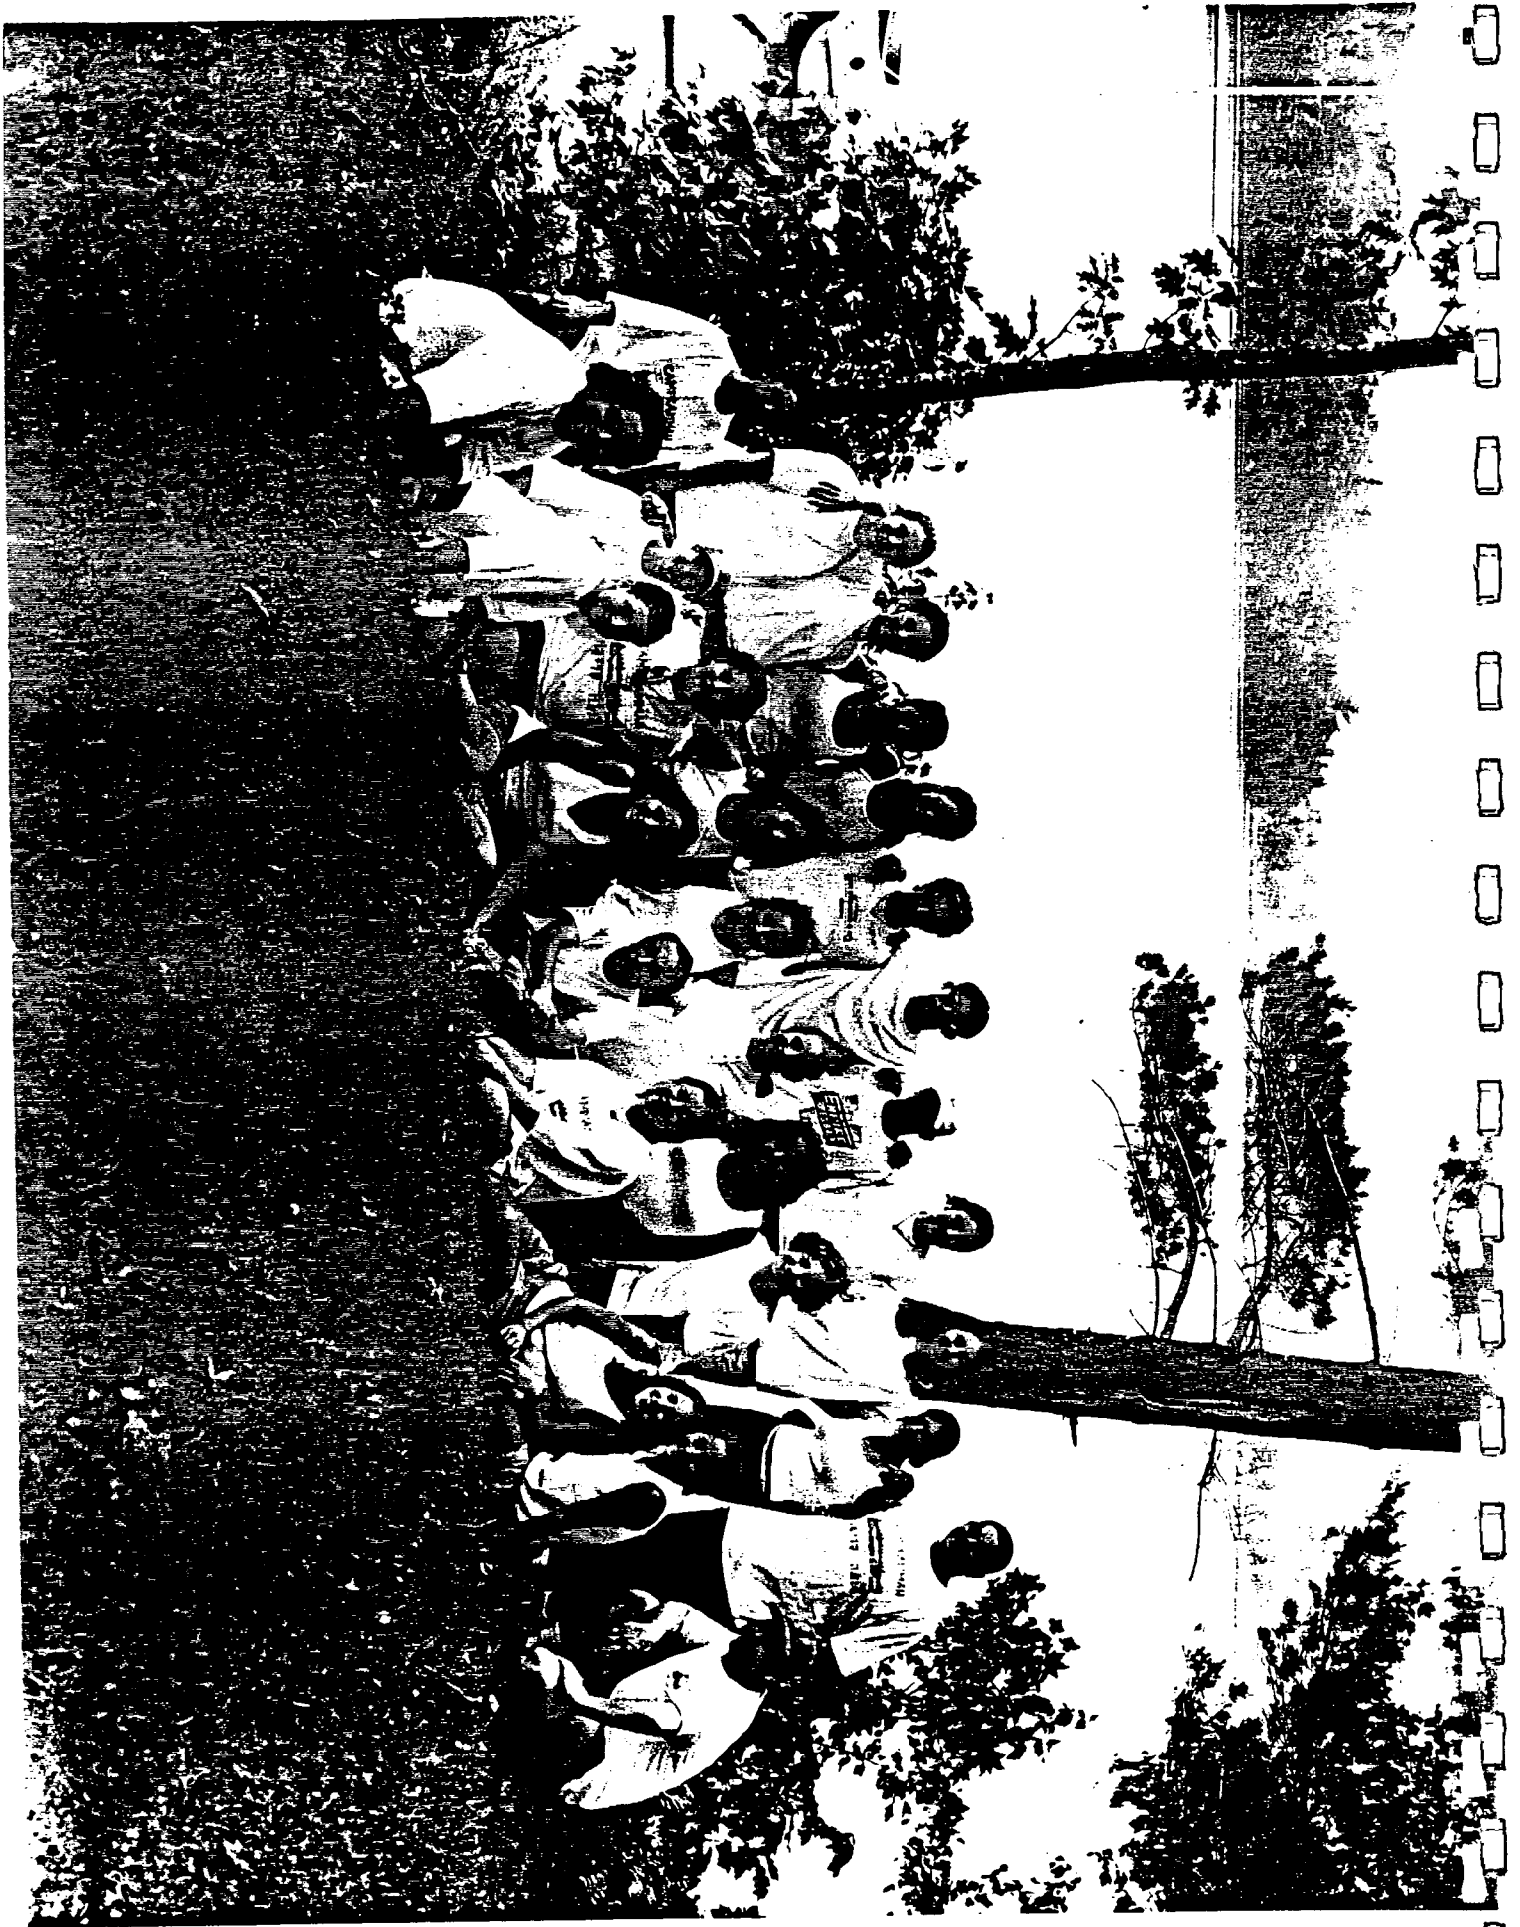

Oh Kadimah, come knock on our door
You'll find us in A and in 74
Oh Kadimah, you gave us cheap seats
In the corner we eat veggie meals which we steal.

No more Boston this time round
The Maritimes is where will be found
Goshrim, Kochot we help all day
With our 12:30 curfew we have time to play

CHORUS

Sobes and Jen and Rinzler too
Complete our outstanding C.I.T. crew
Friendships made, friendships last through the years
Our bonds we reamin strong with our CIT peers

Oh Kadimah, come knock on our door, you'll find us in A and in 74
Oh Kadimah, forever our home, we're never alone, the mighty CIT's.

FROM THE DESK OF MICHAEL B. SOBERMAN

Dear C.I.T.'s of 1997:

I cannot think of a more appropriate way to begin my article than to say: "I love the C.I.T.'s of 1997." You guys are incredible and this summer has been unforgettable.

Once again I find myself writing my article only hours before the Iton deadline, after 14 years I realize that the reason why I wait so long is because I always associate my final article with the end of camp. The longer I can put it off, the longer camp appears to be in my mind. Not an overly rational argument from an otherwise rational guy!

I will begin by apologizing to all of you for the time that I was unable to spend with you this summer. Believe me when I say that if given the choice between hanging out with you guys or doing anything else I camp I would always chose the former. In a hectic world your guys are my solace, my refuge, my voices of reason. I really wish that during the whole year I could escape to C.I.T. land. I guess that is just one other thing that makes Kadimah such a special place.

I did feel confident and comfortable that when I was unable to be around, you were in the capable and caring hands of Miller and Rinzler. Jen and Michael you are guys deserve all the credit in the world for providing the C.I.T.'s with continuity throughout the summer. Your concern for the C.I.T.'s is evident in all you do. Working with two close friends such as yourselves is all one could ask for. I love you guys. Jenn keep speaking the language and Rinzler, M&M Casino will rise again!

While I am on the theme of thanking people. To Sheldon, Bossman, Marty & Bellerie, Matlow, Anne, Altman, Sandra, Jacob and Heidi (aka Grasshopper) and all the other headstaff and specialists, you are a great group to work with. Thank you for all you have done for camp this summer. You guys deserve all the praise in the world.

Now back to the most important people -- the C.I.T.'s. After all this article is dedicated to all of you. I miss you already after only a two paragraph interlude, I can just imagine how I will feel at the end of the summer.

You guys really shinned at placements and your presence really eased the staff's burden at times. Your contributions to camp this summer were immeasurable. You guys really took an active role in camp this summer and from Shabbatograms, to socials, to your play I feel you accomplished a lot this summer. You should all be proud of your efforts, I know that I am.

Early on in the summer we talked about memories and their importance in this your last summer as campers. Well we certainly have our fair share of them. You really capitalized on every single moment and packed a lot memories into one six week period. Speaking of memories, the biggest memory of the summer has got to be our trip around Atlantic Canada. Twenty seven of us on a bus. Guys I loved this time. It was the one time during the summer that I could devote all of my energies to you and only you. I loved hanging out with you on the bus in Cape Breton and in P.E.I. There are times I wish that the trip never had to end. Ironically, probably the only time during the trip that we could all come to a consensus was at the end when we all agreed that I was absolutely awesome. Thanks guys, the next time I go to a coal mine or whale watching I will think fondly of you.

Believe it or not, I have witnessed all of you grow this summer. You all came together to form a group that will share a special bond always and forever. As I told you numerous times during the summer you are the most cohesive group of C.I.T.'s that I have ever had the pleasure of working with. This bond I hope will continue to strengthen over the years and next summer you deserve and should be all together in Israel on Kadimah Israel. After all it is just an extension of this summer, only in Israel!!! Think about it.

I am one of luckiest people in the universe today. More than anything else this summer I have made 24 new friends whose friendship I will cherish forever and that is mighty long time. You guys make me so happy and for this I am indebted to you. To the boys, you guys know what's going on! If you know what I mean. I love hearing you war stories and doing the male bonding thing. Definately one my favourite things. To the girls, from a distance you appear to be 16 of the most angelic people in camp, but after further investigation you are even sweeter than that. You can always put a smile on my face. You (collectively) complete my summer.

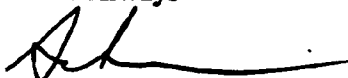

Saying good-bye is never easy. In fact it seems to become more difficult each year. So I will not say good-bye, but rather "see you later". It is less final and our friendships will not end just because camp does.

Please remember that we all took this journey together and this journey will last a lifetime. Just because camp is over does not mean I will stop being there for you. Remember I am never more than a phone call or letter way. Anything you need, just ask.

Before I end this long winded article I will say you guys should be proud of what you accomplished this summer. You deserve a pat on the back and lots of hugs. And so like so much this summer and life I will come full circle and end this article the same way I began by saying: "I love the C.I.T.'s 1997".

Any Questions!

Love Always

Sobes

P.S. I really do not mind all the questions, in fact I am sure that I will miss them. (I cannot believe I said that)

PPS I love you C.J.

To the musicians, the artists, the romantics, the athletes, the gigglers, the intellectuals, the rebels and the dreamers, the CIT's of 1997:

If time had gone any faster, perhaps we could capture this time-flying device, patent it and make all kinds of money. What would we buy? More fly tape to hang over the back table in the chadar? How about a Karioke machine to keep in the moadon permanently? Sobes and Rinzler could sing "The Gambler", the girls could sing "The Rose" and the guys could sing "Baby Got Back".

How is it that time flew so fast? Perhaps it was the quarter to 7 am club that kept us looking forward to wake up. Or more likely, the gosh and kochot staff are to blame for occupying some of our time. Maybe it was the various assortments of laughs that surrounded our section.

As we are writing this article, we are watching one of the play rehearsals. For some reason, it seems a little more professional then our oneg. It makes us so proud to see how well this has come together. From the writing of the script, to building the sets, learning the songs, and the midnight rehearsals, your efforts never cease to amaze us. You are the first group of CIT's to put on their own play, and you should all be proud.

You are also the first group to travel around the Maritimes. Hold on to your memories from those 5 days. We broke some new records on our trip. Do you know anyone else who could digest that much fast food, watch that many movies in a row, or survive the streets of Charlottetown as well as we did? Also, hold on to the address of the Louisbourg Guards and all your "cows" shirts. Seriously, the trip seemed to really help us grow as a group.

I hope you all come back as staff in the next couple of years. And since 15 of you are from Toronto, we should be seeing you around very soon. Whatever you decide for next summer make sure you enjoy it.

Good luck this year in shcool and thank you for being such a special part of our summer.

Thank you Sobes for your help and advice and to our friends for your support this summer. Keep in Touch,

All our love,

Michael and Jennifer

Michael and Jenn

The Stogey Boys

The stogey boys is a name that me and my friends came up with. The Boy's include Jordan Benson, Daniel Rinzler, Josh Levitz and Matt Ross. These guy's are my best friends at camp, and though we get annoyed with each other a lot our friendship grows stronger. I just wanted to thank everyone in the C.I.T. section for making my summer the best yet. A special mention goes to the following people.

Dan- We got in a lot of fights but we still remained really close. Sunrise Meats Rule. I hope to see you in Toronto this year. I have only one thing to say to you Dan... 16-1=15???

Josh- You were my Simpsons companion. We liked the same music, and we got along great. Remember our straight shots of _____ (fill in the blank). I will always remember you as one of my best friends.

Matt- Your musical talents exceed mine greatly. You're the one guy besides myself that considers a new girl every night. By the way be patient!! yaw the no si xes.

Meredith and Ilana- I love you both very much and I hope we can hook up in the city. Ilana I never got your letter. Mer I promise I will call you.

Heidi- My favourite staff member I love you soooo much. I hope you have fun at Disney. Tell Snow White I think that she is hot. Phone me!!!

Cabin 4- You guys always let me in for a game of cards. That is all I have to say. Thanks.

I really wanted to thank everyone again for an amazing summer especially the people above.

It's 11:45 pm on Thursday night. Articles are due at 12:30. I have so many idea's of what I want to write, I just don't know where to start or how I want to create this article. I'm running out of time!

Ok, I can't believe there is only 10 days left of camp. It feels like yesterday when Jodie and I were the only two CIT's on the plane waiting to come to camp to see everyone.

To the people I knew before, I thought I knew you last year but this year I feel so much closer to you guys.

To the new people, I feel like I have known you forever. I'm so glad that you decided to come to camp because I don't know what our section would be like without you.

Never forget all the memories we shared! Our trip around the Maritimes, our peulahs together, creating socials, placements etc.

Our play Little Shop of Horrors is going to happen in 6 days and it's going to be the best.

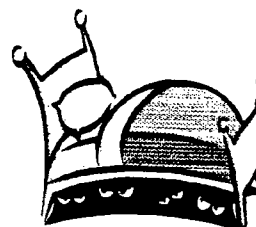

Anyways, I love you all so much and please keep in touch. Call, write, email. I'll be there.

luv ya, Danielle M. Spinner

Why Being a CIT is Good

- 12:30 curfew
- general swim is never compulsory
- we went on a trip around the Maritimes
- we have Jen, Mike and Sobes
- CIT girls have their own couch
- we get to break the socials and pick the themes
- free access to the kitchen i.e. cookies.
- swim instruction is 100% optional
- we have our own private section of the Chadar
- showers - need we say more
- free gambling tips
- use of the CL - where there is a lot of popcorn
- we go and get our own mail
- multiple trips to the take-out
- rule 25 (formerly 27) does not apply

'97 Kneeslapper Joke Collection

During the first weeks of camp, a definition of a "what a kneeslapper" was born. Basically, it is a really bad joke that is just plain cheese. A kneeslapper could be told anytime and anywhere, but it has to be accompanied by a fake laugh and a sarcastic slap on the knee. Here are some examples:

- Did you hear about the new dance? It's called the Broom, it's sweeping the nation. (broom-sweeping, get it?)
- Have you heard about another dance, it's called the Elevator, it has no steps. (I know, it couldn't get any worse)

You get the idea. I would go on with more examples of kneeslappers, we made up, but I'm sure you all had more than enough after two of them. Any pathetic attempt at a joke qualifies as a kneeslapper. Anyway, to conclude, I'd like to add that Kneeslapper 97 rocked the house.

Little Shop of Horrors

This year there was a new addition to the CIT schedule. We, as a group, decided to put on a production, and what better a show than Little Shop of Horrors. It's been tough trying to rehearse with our placements and special days but we have managed well so far. Just looking at everyone painting sets made me feel so good. I know that the play is going to be great and perhaps this can start the tradition of a CIT play. Thank you to all who helped me out with everything and break a leg.

Love you all, Anna Fraida Silver

Dear CIT's of 1997 and Staff

I'm going to make this short and sweet. I love you all, this summer was excellent, our trip rocked, our play was great, hope you all go to Kadimah Israel, come visit me in Newfoundland and thank you for making my summer.

Love, Miriam

The Top Ten Guys in CIT Without Any Order

Josh Levitz
Mike Rinzler

What I Think Camp Rinzler is....

I think Camp Rinzler is a very happy place where you can go and let all your problems drift away. Kind of like the happy place in Happy Gilmour. It's a place where it is always sunny and people are always nice to you. No one ever gets mad there and there is always something to do. At Camp Rinzler, you will never eat fish and chips or macaroni with real cheese for a meal! That is what I think Camp Rinzler is.

Last Will and Testament for Cabin 74

Mandy, to you we leave a sensible, long, loose-fitting pair of shorts to go with a big econo-size bottle of sunblock (UV protection number 1000)

Jamie, we are going to give you a big bottle of turpentine; that bikini you have painted on has just got to go

Nicole, we had to pull some strings with you birth certificate but we managed to leave you with a Senior Citizens Discount Card. Enjoy the savings! Feh!

Stephanie, we give you the copyrights to one laughing style. That way, you don't have to keep changing your laugh every day.

Joanna, we thought that the most important thing to give you was a get out of jail free card. And remember, you can only use it once.

Naomi, we are giving you your own personal dresser-lady who will take off your pj's.

Jordan Lampert, I leave you with the hockey-cow pencil. Sorry that it doesn't measure up to the owl. Luv ya

Sam, you get your own line of perfumes so that Lester can always smell like you.

Jen, for you we only had one thing in mind: A life long supply of contacts.

Jodie, we had to go back in time to get this, but we know you will appreciate the hard work, We got you the original, first edition of the Bible, autographed by g-d himself.

Rufina, you have a coupon for free nasal surgery. We actually like them, but what will your future husband do?

Krista, even though I, Anna, agree with you that swearing is bad, I give you permission to swear just once. I know you want to.

Miriam, we are allowing you the privilege to be short like us to make up for the height difference.

Danielle, we are leaving you a magic 8-ball, that way we can get a straight answer when we ask you the B question.

Julie, we understand that you like wearing lots of clothing, but we decided to get you a summer wardrobe.

Robyn, I am giving you a sheep-skin sweater to match the get-up.

Anna, the ability to swallow pills and the courage to conquer her fear of *****!

Cabin A Last Will and Testament

Benson - more chest

Rinzler - a baseball glove, a hat and a kippah of his own

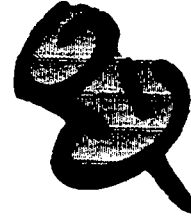

Byron - go go gadget broom

Dave - a moustache
Matt - some fun
Aaron - Byron's fan, Lysol, and 2 inches in height
Andrew - Pepsi
Josh - Bed Boards

Summer of '97

The summer began with many doubts and concerns
Of what was ahead, and what was to be learned
There were 16 girls in the old arts and crafts
A cabin of 8 guys, and three really great staff
We were all really shocked to hear Boston was nixed
And the Maritimes would be the CIT's fix
Without any doubt, our trip was a blast
With only 5 days, the trip went too fast
In cabins we're placed to learn how to be the most wonderful staff Kadimah will ever see
So here's to our friends
Old ones and new Thanks for the memories
I'll always love you.

The Adventures of the Stogey Boys

It all started one fine day in Charlottetown P.E.I in a small dorm room in the University of PEI, where four heavily built, good looking guys planned their missions. Missions #1 and #2. Both missions were to be completed by 22:00 hours. At precisely 18:17:38 of the day they set out to complete their missions. The first mission was simple and was completed in a very short time. They met up with their suppliers " the Balding Eagle" and his side kick "The Dove" and we successfully completed our missions. Mission #2 was not as successful as Mission #1 but they had a good time trying to complete it. After an hour and a half of searching downtown Charlottetown, the Boyz decided that they would go for dinner and abandon their mission. A while later, they arrived back at their dorm. They ordered Dominoes, rock n' rolled all night and partied every day.

The Inspirational Value of Marilyn Manson

Throughout my short time on this planet I have made many feeble attempts to play the game of baseball and failed. Now my skills are still not the greatest but they have improved immensely due to my coach's (Gabe) suggestion to play Mr. Manson's music when I came to bat. I paid off big time.. At the end of the regular season my average stands at .666 (not made up). So to anyone who mocks the power of music and more specifically Mr. Manson, I am living proof that they do good and not evil as most think. Here endeth the lesson.

The Inspirational Value of Marilyn Manson Part 2

Never in my life had I ever been able to tackle the elements of the art world. Let's just say my grades in the subject were always somewhere between the letters C and E. but it was a picture of Mr. Manson that inspired me to do my first freehand drawing and it hasn't hindered since. I am living proof that someone's creativity (particularly the creativity of Mr. Manson) can inspire and bring out creativity in others. Here endeth the lesson.

Wacky Snacky

We may be underage to play
But we're able to sneak in anyway

We don't get snack so we must find an original way to nourish our minds

We're hunger quenching little kids
but we know not to make big bids

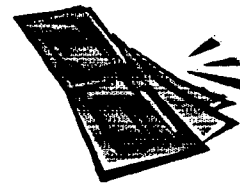

Heel-toe, heel-toe, we walk along the floor
Just remember don't slam the door

Butts, butts, butts galore
We must sneak in through the closet door

So ,much to choose from with so little time
We pass it out along the arranged line

The slightest noise makes us run
But then return to continue our fun

That Hits Close to Home - an Article Dedicated to Danielle Spinner

This summer a lot of things have "hit close to home". This first sentence might have confused you. In fact, several of you may have noticed Danielle and I using the expression and wondered about it. Maybe first a little explanation is in order. This is the usual procedure: somebody says something. Danielle and/or I give ourselves two pats above the heart and say "that hits close to home". Why do we do this? It is just a good expression that everybody should try. The most appropriate time to say "that hit's close to home" is when somebody says something very true that you'd rather not admit is true. It's a nice time filler in awkward situations instead of saying: "so, how about them Bears....". Anyway, please feel free to share this expression and make full use of it.

By: Krista Byers-Heinlein

Cabin A

Cabin A has had two official songs over the summer. They are : Dr. Zauis by the Simpsons and I Like Chinese by Monty Python.

Cabin A is as well the official birthplace and head office of "we hate Hanson Club". You are all free to join.

Our cabin has changed over the summer. Posters have gone up and come down. As well, about half way through the summer, while carrying benches to the Chadar from the Pavilion, Daniel Rinzler broke a bench on his shoulder. It now resides in an L formation in the cabin. Inscribed on the bench is "Daniel Rinzler Living Memorial Half Bench"

We also have our personal habits like flexing our chests, singing and not flushing the toilet. As well, there is a never ending saga of who really snores.

Usually, we just yell about what music to listen to, argue about what musical talent is and wonder who likes Pepsi.

Before our trip while the girls were deciding what clothes to take, we "jimmied" the back door and waited to be raided rather stupidly. Of course that happened.

The reason I'm writing this is because no other guy in Cabin A will write anything - and the truth must be told.

Cabin 74 reunion

vita-
spru
Kris

The year is 2017. The place is Barss Corner. The in-tions had just gone out a week ago and Krista was busy cing up the camp so it looked like they never left it. In fact, ta never did leave, it was the others who moved on to school, jobs and family.
Krista was content sleeping in cabin 74 all year round. It's not like she didn't eat or anything, Martin sent her brownies up every week and come visit her on weekends. While Krista was busy installing the port-a-potties, Nicole was rounding up up all her senior citizens after a long day at the lawn bowling courts. You see, the elderly tickled Nicole's fancy, and every Thursday Nicole took her group somewhere exciting. Last week was extra special, they had a polka dance-off.
Due to the fact that she didn't stretch before hand, Nicole threw out her back.
Let's hope she's well enough to make the reunion.

Now, turning to the other side of the world, we head to Antarctica, the home of Joanna Mansfield. You see, Joanna has a warrant out for her arrest (and even her head in some places) in every other continent. She had no choice but to flee yet again (which can also account for the fact that she can no longer go by the name Joanna, you can now call her Nook Nook). We don't know for sure how long she'll last there. We heard that 1st week she dressed up as a penguin to sneak into the local fish storage hut. Needless to say that this isn't the first time she's tried such an outrageous act of insanity.

Little boy blue come blow your horn, the cow's in the meadow, the sheep's in the corn with Robyn chasing after them. Yes, you heard right, after years of putting up with sheepish insults she devoted her life to the protection of sheep.
She even wrote a book this year entitle "Baah, You Think We Chose to Sound Like This?"

And just who do you think was the first and only person to by Robyn's book? Her devoted cousin, Jamie Gladstone, who took a rather interesting turn in her life. You see, after the summer of 1997, she decided to give up on working and shaving and all those other shenanigans. She moved to a deserted island off the coast of nowhere and there she lives a hassle free life with the Monkeys and the coconuts

Speaking of bio-degradable pyjamas, we're very proud to announce that their inventor was a CIT at Kadimah in 1997. If we had known back then that our constant pestering about Naomi never taking off her pyjamas would result in a product so unbelievably popular that she is currently touring North Dakota,

But not Julie. She moved to the inside of a volcano off the coast of Hawaii in order to avoid the cold weather. We received word from her the other day. She said that she is still a bit chilly there but not to worry - she has lots of warm clothes.

So the time is near, only 48 hours until all the girls are re-united again. Did everyone change or did they all remain the same?

Stephanie, for one, stayed the same. Who would of thought you could make a job out of sleeping? Obviously, you can, because Stephanie's is now the head mattress tester at Sleep Country.

One person who stayed right on track was Jodie. She started of as a professor of medicine at Harvard University, but now she is working in an area called Zone 52. This secret government agency has no given address so unfortunately no invitation could be sent to her.

But of course, there are always exceptions. Take Miriam and Rufina for example. They went off to start cousin Lou's Fishing Tours, and is business ever great. In fact, Cousin Lou's is so popular that it is the main sponsor of the annual dog sled races. All thanks to Miriam and Rufina. It's just so nice to see that friends stayed together. Pity Danielle couldn't do the same with Krista. You see, we thought that all the "who's cuter" sibling competition between the two was over, but we thought wrong. As Andrew and Alyssa grew older, Danielle and Krista would get into arguments like "who's the better student", "who picked the better university" and "who married better". So Andrew and Alyssa decided to take action and they put restraining orders on their sisters. The camp just wasn't big enough for both of them...

And now, we return to your regular programming. Sam Waxman. She had a little problem. You have to understand that the name Dirty Girl could be taken differently, so she opened up an adult novelty store. Due to the line of work that Sam was in, Krista thought that it would be best if she didn't come to the reunion, after all, there should be lots of children around. Whose children will they be? Jen's of course, What is there to say about Jen, she: 1. married Jewish, 2. raised her children Jewish, 3. kept Shabbat etc. But she made a point of not being wealthy. I think Jen took one Friday night program a little too seriously.

And the Academy Award goes to...Anna Silver! Surprise, surprise. Anna got into acting. She toured Broadway for a bit and then she decided to write, direct, act, film, produce and all that other artsy fartsy stuff. Not to say that she didn't have time for her friends. Her and Samantha had joint weddings to,,,you know who and they see each other once in a while. We already got a fax from her agent saying that she was filming a new movie but she'll try and connect with us via satellite,

So the time has come. Krista is eagerly waiting by the camp gates for her old camp mates to arrive. After about an hour and a half of waiting, she realizes something. Mandy's bum is burned, Nicole threw out her back. Jamie is one with the monkeys, Jodie is in Zone 52, Robyn is on her book tour, Stephanie is sleeping, Anna's filming, Samantha is making adult films, Joanna's a fugitive, Naomi is in North Dakota, Jen is busy re-prioritizing the importance of the 25 things from Friday Night's program, Julie is freezing cold, and besides, the Volcanoes due to erupt any time now, Danielle is restrained, Rufina and Miriam are at sea. So who is there with Krista? Well, unfortunately the reunion wasn't a success, so what was left for lonely Krista to do? Well, let's just say that the liqueur in Martins brownies came in handy.

So we leave the scene with Krista, passed out on the Chadar steps, dreaming of the year 2037 when she will plan the next reunion.

Why Do We Get Along

Everybody, it has been a great summer. I mean it. I don't know about you, but I have had a wonderful time. A lot of that can be owed to the people in the CIT section. It was you guys who really made my summer. This is something that is difficult to figure out. Why do we get along as well as we do? What made us able to sit together on a bus for so so many hours without destroying each other. There must be something that allows us to get along. What is it that we have in common? It certainly isn't that we all live near each other. We're spread out all across Canada. At Kadimah, a camp run by the Atlantic Jewish Council, there are only 5 CIT's from Atlantic Canada. so we are not drawn together by the fact that we are all from the same place. On the other hand, you cannot say that we are brought together because we are so spread out during the year because 15 of the 24 CIT's live in Toronto. You could say that we have bonded over the memories we share of previous summers. But that is not the case either as 4 of us are new. We each look different, act different, and even thing different. So what brings us together? As I see it, there are two things we all share. One is that we are all Jewish. This unites us in both ways I can describe and in others I can't explain. There is one other most important fact that I haven't mentioned.

This is that we are all chose to come to Camp Kadimah. Most of us could have been at Biluim or elsewhere. But we chose CIT. We all wanted to come. We thought that this would be the best place for us. And it is this. I think that has allowed us to get along so well. We come together as a section because we chose to come together physically at Kadimah. Thank you all for helping with this and making my summer great.

To Cabin 74

Being here for three summer basically means that we've had the best of both worlds, camper/staff. Although Machar was incredible, CIT was much better. In CIT, we have gotten the chance to be campers and staff. We have awesome staff, our cabin A boys are amazing, but without our 16 girls of 74 this summer would be incomplete.

Miriam - you and I (Jamie) will be hair buddies forever! We love hearing you J.H. stories.

Krista - what would our cabin be like without the beauty of your alfalfa sprouts and your mom's awesome cookies. We always envy how lucky you are to have such a great boyfriend.

Rufina - thank you for guarding our duffel bags. You have a close connection to light bulbs. I (Jodie) love our private school talks too!

Danielle - Danielle, we're disappointed in your mattress this year but love your sour keys. I (Jodie) love being you next door neighbour and buggy buddy. What would I do without you!

Jodie - Michelle, I mean Jodie (just joking). Our ETBs for some reason never seemed to work, but we try anyways. I'll never forget our Baked Lays. Jode, you're the best and I don't mean second best and our raids rule. Remember heel, toe, heel toe! And pick up those feet. You're better than an awesome friend and popcorn bags are a rip!

Jenny - Stop rolling your eyes at us and your contacts are a lame excuse. Does it smell? No. Although we spent the last three summers together we still hope to spend the rest of our summer together. You're an awesome and we love your bed.

Joanna - Sheldon in the raincoat, what would we do without your mischief, look but don't touch (ancient boats), kitchen raiding quadruplets forever! You're the funniest, what would our cabin be like without you. Bread anyone?

Mandy - RED! You and your weird Dingos and Hot Tamales, what's with your taste-buds. We must admit that we love your sweet cheek, but we don't need to see them 24-7. We'll never forget that you almost endangered our whole cabin with your mousse and blowing fuses.

Julie - Have you ever heard of shorts miss beautiful? Can we call you Mrs. Noodles? We've watched you change from I hate my hair (95) to I hate my food (96) to I hate my placement (97) and we love you for it.

Stephanie - Step on Me actually on Nicole. You are the messiest person we know. How is it possible to sleep everywhere camp! Wake up, spaghetti for lunch! Hee Hee you're a turtle! But remember we're the ones with attitudes.

Robyn - Thank g-d we go to camp with you or else we'd never see your arms. The Caramilk secret is nothing compared to the secret of your laugh which we have now added to one of the great wonders of the world. Love those gold shorts.

Jamie - I am so glad that Kadimah reunited us after G5. Never forget lip smacker BFF forever. You still owe me baked lays and don't forget that you have to stick up for me in a fight, you're the one with the attitude (according to SH). Kitchen raiding quadruplets forever. I love our make-up and fashion talks you are a better than awesome friend.

Nicole - Think of adopting Samahra and straightening your shelves - they are like the leaning tower of Pisa. Raiding quadruplets forever. We love your bubbli-ness and realize what a great friend you are. We love you.

Sam - Dirty girl, thanks to you we always have to stamp before we come into the cabin at night. Don't forget to pull your shorts up. Thanks for getting country stuff stuck in our heads. But we love you anyways.

Anna - what would CIT be without you. You keep us busy 24-7. You were an awesome play organiser. You add excitement to our lives and give identity to the CITs, we love you.

To all the CITs, thanx for making our summer the most memorable one at Camp Kadimah.

Love, Jodie and Jamie

MAR THE TIMES

Ignorant people often assume that the Maritimes and just plain fields of potatoes. But what happens when you put 27 crazy, awesome, outstanding CIT friends on a bus (with a Doug) driving through the lush habitat of PEI and Nova Scotia? Not Much! Just kidding! It was actually an unforgettable experience. We putted down the road until we reached the nosiest museum (A.G.B.) where we changed our identities. From there we raced to our luxurious ensuite dorms in Cape Breton where some of us shot some hoops and met some.....Louisberg here we come. What a freak for a tour guide but laziness made our day. Tin whistles and exchanged addresses. Deep down under is where we were found. Searching for coal deep in the ground. Our backs hunched over, Ally showed us the ways of mining in the good old days. After exiting the cave, we entered a ride that went so fast, it made our hearts thrive. Bowling was fun, getting picked up was better. Out pulling pranks gave us bad weather.

Happy birthday Nicole, surprise Downtown past the bottom line. Driving through the beautiful Cabot Trail was so interesting that we didn't blink once.....because we were sleeping. We saw the whales barely off the coast those awesome pictures, boy we can boast! Up Cape Smokey we took a lift.

SWIFT.

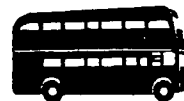

Stinky Camp was exquisite especially those roles that we got. The beach was babeless, the sand was hot (Friendship rocks). The waves were gracious and the red sand really cool. Cows ice cream rocks. Anne of Green Gables rocked the house, even though Anne was a ham. Our return from the show to UPEI we were treated as family when we walked through that town. I wonder why Rinzy!

More stories bring 'em on Sobes (over the link). Peggy here we come! Holy Rock a Molly! In conclusion, we CIT's bonded, we became better friends & even made new ones. This 5 day tour was the best ever. We will never forget it. We hope your future endeavours come true.

LONG LIVE CIT LAND.

White Team 1997 - Crystals

Captains - Amy Mendleson and Benji Roza

Dear White Team of 97,

We, Amy and Benji were very proud to be your team captains. During Hityashvut, we had a lot of fun working with you. We all got along very co-operatively and you made us very proud. Congratulations to you all and it was an honour to be your team captains.

Love,

Amy and Benji

WHITE TEAM SONG - to the tune of I Just Can't Wait to be King

Crystals are a mighty team
So blue team be aware
Together we will act as one
And Crystals we will share

Crystals are a guiding light for everywhere we go
If we learn to help and grow
Toghther we will grow

Chorus
Am and Benji show us what to do
So you gotta help us, help you
Everybody look left
Everybody look right
Everywhere you look we're, standing in the spotlight
But not yet

At the end of hityashvut we will shinr
So you gotta help us, help you

WHITE TEAM CHEER - to the tune of Coca- Cola

We came to Keji, knowing what to do
Now it's white versus blue

Do,do,do,do,do,do,do,do,do,do

Crystals represent the colours of the sky, that is why our ruach will never die

Do,do,do,do,do,do,do,do,do,do

Red, orange, yellow, green and purple too
We wish good luck to blue

Blue Team 1997 - The Planters

Captains - Jackie Pearl and Harris Switzman

We were very proud to be your 1997 Blue team Hityashvut captains. It was fun and you all did great Even though we didn't win, we all had an amazing time. Everybody did great and tried real hard. It was fun while it lasted. Congratulations to the white team.

Love you r 1997 Blue team captains.
Jackie and Harris

BLUE TEAM SONG - to the tune of Space Jam

Everybody get up, it's time to plant now
We've got a real tree growing now

Chorus
Welcome to the blue team, here's your chance
Help a friend and they will help you, alright

Wave your hands in the air if you feel fine
While Harris and Jackie take us into overtime
Welcome to the Blue Team

Chorus

Don't stop and stare
Come and help us care
And when you're there
You will hear us cheer

b - l - u - e . alright

B- L- U- E, ALRIGHT

BLUE TEAM CHEER - to the tune of Hypnotize

Blue team, blue team, can't you see
We're leading ourselves to victory
Nataim are here to stay
White team better get out of our way

Kochot Hityashvut

Red Team 1997

Captains - Darah Gaum and Noah Pink

Dear Red Team "Flare"

Well, we tried! We're very proud of you for your great enthusiasm and effort. It was a long 2 days of timeless work for all of you and for that we thank you. You are all a great bunch of people and we are were very proud to be your captains. Thank-you to all of you who showed your Ruach. Even though we were ten people short, we still had no fear to stand up against blue and white. Try your best. THANKS AGAIN!!!

Love your captains,
Noah and Darah

RED TEAM SONG - to the tune of Friends

Well no one told you life was gonna be this way
But don't you worry, Flare is here to save the day
It's like an inner flame that won't keep still It's like a force, a strength, a hope and an undying will

CHORUS:

Flare is there and true even when times are tough
Flare is there for you even when life seems rough

Flare is our bright view
Good times are coming through

Sometimes the road in life bends every way
Sometimes the road we take can lead us astray

We must follow the flame that lights our way
We must continue on the journey never run away

Chorus

The Flare inside us will always show no matter which was life's violent winds may blow

Chorus

RED TEAM CHEER - to the tune of La Vie Boheme

Two days of competition, working hard
Making Red Team 97
Unite with the teams to co-operate

To working with a flare, trying to care
In order to change

Making suggestions, asking questions, fulfilling our obsessions
Bonding with our section 'Loving' inspection,
"loving" protection, not to mention of course the spirit that we have.

Red team 97 will dominate Hityashvut...we rule...YEAH x5

Machnar Hityashvut

White Team 1997 - The Silver Lining

Captains - Katherine Devlin and Elliott Cappell

The white team of 1997 finished a close second to blue team. We would like to thank some of the many people who made our team great. First, we would like to thank our outstanding Tzofnut team led by Michael Cook, Nathan Zilbert, Aaron Cohen and Justin Hartzman. You cooked our meals, and made the best latrine we have ever seen. Molly and Sharon, thank you for writing our teams songs, cheers and for your great spirit. Thank you to our mascot team for making the best mascot imaginable. Also thank you to everyone who helped work on the Bama, it was great. To our whole team, thank you for participating in sports, song, and cheer. Finally, thank you to our staff, especially Joey Yazer, for coming up to Kedji, from Halifax to help make our Hityashvut 1997 the best ever, and we hope everyone enjoyed it as much as we did.

Love, your captains,
Katherine and Elliott.

WHITE TEAM SONG - to the tune of Joy to the World

In the darkest clouds of grey and blue
There will always be a line
Dipped in silver, to be seen by far
You'll always see the shine

Biting bugs may be at Keji
But everything will be okay
We will overcome all the struggle begun
To come out number one

CHORUS

Hityashvut is here
Everyone come cheer
See the light in the darkest night,
Good times will be here

Elliott and Kat will lead us
In spirit and sportsmanship they will guide us through everything
Our team is really hip

Scouting, swimming, sports is our game
And Silver Lining is our name
Red and Blue good luck to you
We hope you reach your aim

Chorus

You don't always get what you are hoping for,
And you don't always get what you want
But that's part of our life so just suck it up
And everything will be alright

CHORUS x 2

WHITE TEAM CHEER - to the tune I'm a Nut
We are the white team, judges know we always scream everybody looks at us, because we cheer without a fuss

CHORUS - We're white x 5
Our captains are Kat and Ell, with our spirit we will yell
Sports and game are our forte, we all get a chance to play

Machnar Hityashvut

WHITE TEAM CHEER - to the tune I'm a Nut

We are the white team,
Judges know we always scream
Everybody looks at us,
Because we cheer without a fuss

CHORUS - We're white x 5

Our captains are Kat and Ell,
With our spirit we will yell
Sports and game are our forte,
We all get a chance to play

Chorus

Now we wish good luck to you
Our friendly neighbours red and blue
We love you but with our ruach
We will win Ani Batuach

We'll win x 5

Blue Team - Busy Benders

Captains - Karen Swirsky and Adam Conter

We don't know what there is for us to say? Keji - with tents - was a great experience for our entire team. Add the sompletion of Hityashvut and it was incredible.

ON the bus ride to Keji we didn't know what to expect. But as Hityashvut progressed our team and our spirit became stronger and stronger. For instance the presentation of our cheer on Wednesday evening was astounding and our Ruach also shined through during the songg war that followed.

Soon it came time to announce the winners. We listened intently to the scores for each event. And finally we heard "Busy Benders;" Winners of Hityashvut 97"

We'd like to thank our entire team for their co-operation and enthusiastic participation. Alas a special thanks to our staff Jeff, Jen and Aaron . Lots of love and WAY TO GO !

Your captains,
Karen and Adam

BLUE TEAM SONG - to the tune of Under the Sea

The Blue Team will always win it
At Kejimikujik park
The Busy Benders will rock you
Come on now it is time to start
We all must be optimistic
Good times will be coming soon
And we've got a catchy tune

Busy Bending, Busy Bending
When troubles are found
We turn them arounf postively
When in the road we find a bend
We are sure it's not the end
Our goals we will meet we'll stay on our feet through Busy Bending
When bad's thrown our way we can just say we're Busy Bending

Love That Festival

Never before in the history of Camp Kadimah was there been a Festival of the Arts - and what a success!!!! We had 3 separate plays, 2 musical numbers, a band, and an orchestra.... WHAT A BUNCH! Where is the spirit of Kadimah? Right here on the stage with the Festival of the Arts 1997.

The first show of the Festival was Volcanic Panic, a highlight particularly because it was the play writing debut of Jo Sky. It was based on her real life experience in Central America.

The Way Out Wizard and Snow White and Friends focused the supreme comic abilities of Goshrim and Kochot who kept the audience entertained and laughing. From start to finish the show in its entirety was produced in only 13 hours!

The band and orchestra who met during rest period had a repertoire of 12 songs, some from before you were born!

Rehearsals were filled with amusement we'll never forget....Jo's Mission Impossible....in the heat of the jungle....Neely's directing a play - Neely can do anything!....Sarah and Mel doing choreography on those brand new stairs....Bellarie comes to save the day!....Shelby and Suzanne and those wicked sets!!!! Here are just 3 highlights: 1) Love love love the woodsman and his antibanana....2) Kool Aid and Mixxxx....Let's do the Time Warp 3) The famous Jeremy Mallow and his god grooming....Jocelyn, you rock....Jillian also comes to save the say for stepping in and taking over the part in so little time....Eric Goldberg, Lena Rubenstein, Samantha Smith, Andrew Field, and Ilana Zatzman - We couldn't have done it without you guys behind the scenes.

To the cast and crew of the Festival of Art 1997 we had a blast and we love you!

With love,
Belarie, Jo, Sarah, Suzanne, Mel, and Shelby

CAMP KADIMAH'S FIRST SHABBAT

The first Shabbat of the 1997 camp season is over and it was very successful. The C.I.T.s put on a terrific oneg about auditioning for the C.I.T. positions. Each C.I.T. played a candidate, and they were all very memorable characters. After the play JoSky, Melanie Kazman and Sarah Damelin, assisted by Benji Roza, Josh Mendleson and Harris Switzman, led the camp in some very exciting shirkud to end Camp Kadimah's first Friday night.

Saturday, after a well deserved sleep-in, the fun began. The waterfront was open most of the day and Banana boating was a big hit. Saturday evening cabin 32 helped lead the first Havdallah services of 1997. The first social, put together by the C.I.T.s, with the theme of "Class of '69", was carried off in true 60's style. We hope that there will be many more Shabbats as wonderful as the first one.

GOSHRIM OVERNIGHT AT KEJI.... A BIG SUCCESS!!!

The Goshrim section has had their first overnight trip - to Kejimikujik National Park, better known to camp alumni as Keji. They left camp at 10 am and returned the next day, a little dirtier and extremely tired but with a smile on their faces as they were rushed to the showers. As for the rest of camp, The Goshi Fact of the Day, recited by Miss Alyssa Byers-Heinlein, was sorely missed as morning Mifkad.

WHITE WINS IT AT KOCHOT HITYISHVUT 1997

BEAUTY & THE BEAST....
A MACHAR PRODUCTION

Saturday July 12, 1997 yet another successful Machar production was put on for the entire camp. This year's Beauty & the Beast was put together in a record three days and was a wonderful example of Machar's ability to work together. Belle, played by the talented Darah Gaum, was a wonderful representation of the favourite character. The rest of the actors were equally as talented and did a wonderful job. However, nothing would have worked if it hadn't been for the dedicated work of the crew led by stage manager Matt Abramsky. Of course, the entire camp congratulates Jacob and the rest of Machar staff on a job well done.

CONGRATULATIONS!!

- Sari Sadofsky

HITYASHVUT AT KEJI FOR
KOCHOT & MACHAR

This week at camp began with the breaking of Hityashvut for Kochot and Machar on Sunday. The surprise breaking was so well done that campers were left wondering whether it was Maccabia, Hityashvut or if their staff were just crazy. Anyway Kochot left Monday morning and spent two days enjoying all that Keji had to offer, nature, nature, and more nature! The tents this year were much appreciated, and yes tent hopping was attempted. Hityashvut activities kept campers and staff busy all day. We played games, swam in the lake and cooked all our own meals over an open fire. The winning team was announced Tuesday night around a bonfire after the bama, banner and song were presented. Both teams played hard but only one team can win and the winning team was white. Camp was a welcome sight Wednesday morning, but the kids are certainly excited to do it all again next year. Here at camp we wonder how Machar is enjoying their Hityashvut. I guess we'll have to wait until Friday to hear their results. Good luck to all teams and we hope you all had fun.

HOROSCOPES FOR JULY

Aries (March 21- April 19)

You are very temperamental this month. Try not to blow your stack over something unimportant. Talk it out.

Taurus (April 20 - May 20)

You're very bouncy and enthusiastic this month, which is great. Just don't overdo it or you'll be exhausted by August.

Gemini (May 21 - June 20)

Now is the time to figure out who you can really trust. Only tell secrets to someone who will keep them.

Cancer (June 21 - July 22)

You're feeling very creative. Let your wild side come through and show everyone the real you.

Leo (July 23 - June 20)

Don't let bad stuff bring you down. Chin up, be cheery and better times will soon come to you.

Virgo (August 23 - September 22)

You're extremely tired this week. Force yourself to stay awake and you will be rewarded.

Libra (September 23 - October 22)

Right now you are very sentimental. Go through all your memories of good times and relive them now!

Scorpio (October 23 - November 21)

You have a lot of problems, but you are not one to vent and talk it out. Now is the time to start.

Sagittarius (November 22 - December 21)

All of a sudden you find yourself questioning authority. That's cool, but don't let it go too far.

Capricorn (December 22 - January 19)

This week will be amazing for you. Go kick butt! You will achieve whatever you undertake.

Aquarius (January 20 - February 18)

You have a perpetual fear of all things slimy, especially leeches. Forget them and go swimming now!

Pisces (February 19 - March 20)

You may think you are following the crowd, but you really need to break free and form your own ideas and opinions.

- "Kadimah Starwatcher" Julie Horel

MUSIC REVIEW: SPICE GIRLS...

Okay, okay, so not everyone agrees with me, but the Spice Girls are AWESOME!!!!

Everyone knows by now the Posh Spice, a.k.a Victoria, has quit the Brit quintet. Is that any reason to be done with them? Not if Mel B., Mel C., Geri and Emma hang tight - and just watch them, they will. Their group, with the popular motto "Girl Power", is tighter than those jeans you outgrew in grade one.

With the hit singles "Wannabe", "Say You'll Be There" and "2 Become 1", the Spice Girls have rushed straight to the top of the charts in over 30 countries. As a devoted Spice Girl fan I can tell you all about why "Girl Power" has become "World Power":

Mel B. is known as Scary Spice but she doesn't mind being the Spice she is; "When someone bugs me, I just turn into Scary Spice!"

Sporty Spice, Mel C.'s favourite body part is her arm with the tattoo on it that says "Girl Power" in Chinese characters.

Emma, Baby Spice, is 21 years old and seems to be as sweet as she looks.

Geri, Ginger Spice, says: "'Girl Power' is a vibe, of believing in yourself, getting down and having a party."

BAKING CHUG

ADVANCED GUITAR WITH JO SKY

Although there weren't too many chug B's, we still had a fun time strumming the guitar. In our chug, we practiced strumming in different tempos, we learned a bunch of new chords and played songs together. Some of the highlights were definitely, Me and Bobby McGee, yellow Submarine, Drunken Sailor, One Tin Soldier, and Obladioblada, among others. After all the best part about learning the guitar is hearing the final product. One particular success story from the chug was that during a shirkud peulah, chug participant Mikey Fox played the guitar for Me and Bobby McGee while the rest of Goshrim sang along.

Jonathan Ben David, David Gruber-Benaich, and Jeremy "woody" Pass all improved their playing throughout the course of the summer from whatever place they were starting from. (Woody even remembered stuff from last summer!) unfortunately, none of us could really keep up with Zack Borer, but we're glad that he wanted to be in the chug in the first place.

Guitar chug rocks my world!!

Jo (Mir) Sky

Once upon a time, there was a chug called "Video Camera". It was run by two very technical fellows: Supercow and Neil. In the beginning there were many in this chug. But as time wore on, our numbers diminished for unknown reasons.... We then found the formula for success: Get rid of the cameras and focus on the video portion. This led to the decision to completely pull apart the film "Forrest Gump" (we did it soooo many times) After careful examination, we have decided that everyone that Gump meets dies, (with the exception of Lt.Dan)

What does all this mean? Who knows? but all the answers may lie in the nooks and crannies of that great movie....Forrest Gump.

Sincerely,
Super Cow and Neil

This summer there was a tennis chug. Two studly, beautiful romantic, and fun loving counsellors were the leaders/champions of this amazing chug. Some campers stayed, some left, all had fun and improved on their tennis and talking skills. For all those in the tennis chug, thank you, some of us will always have a gold racquet, others will go to Boston and be smackers, some may even steal seconds, others will stay on the baseline. Thanks go out to Shayna, Steve, Ace, Sheldon, and most of all my illegitimate brother.

See ya next year,
Joel Hoch

Once Upon a Thought...

Some said it couldn't be done, others said that they would never join. But I proved 'em all wrong. It all started when Matt Cohen asked all general staff back in 1995 to come up with a chug. Just as a joke, I made up "Modern Philosophy" (my other friend came up with playing cards) In any case, I beat him out with a grand total of 3 members over his. So I took my rightful place in the CL and that's where it all began.

There were many along the way who helped to make Modern philosophy what it is today: The Byers-Heinlein sisters for their incredible energy and enthusiasm. Marc Gurstein for his unique views on the world (especially the retirement home scheme) Jesse Mandell for his endless supply of idea and his generally being a good sport. Rufina for her level headedness in all discussions, and all the others (you know who you are!) For being there and adding your voices to the debate,

Sincerely,
Supercow and Cashy

Rocketry

The rocketry chug got off to a good start this year. We built our first rockets and launched almost all of them successfully. The hardest part seemed to be fin placement and attachment. We hope to have more time to build some of the bigger rockets this summer. Everybody really enjoyed the chug.

Rock Band

Our rock band this year was composed of Jordie Saperia, Anna Silver, Jordan Benson, Harris Switzman, Matt Ross and Marty Zatzman. We played at the Festival of the Arts, Visitors Day Show, and Campstock. This year saw us add some extra players for certain numbers. Thanks to our horn section of Krista, Simon, Aaron and Naomi. Also thanks to Mikey Fox for guitar backup. We would also like to thank Samantha, Joanna, Anna and Stephanie for their great spice girls routine. We would also like to thank Jo Sky for her Fame and My Girl numbers.

If You Were A Spy....

You are a spy for Israel - a country that has been fought for over 100 years. A country that has seen much bloodshed and a country that relies on your loyalty to survive. As a spy, your missions are very secretive, as the future of the entire state is often in your hands consequently you are often faced with very difficult decisions. The following scenarios are typical of the type of decision that you could find yourself facing as a member of the Israeli "Mossad" - secret service. Please review each situation carefully, exploring every possible option - then as a unanimous body determine what you would do - If you were a spy....

You are asked to put a local supermarket under your surveillance as the market is thought to be center for illegal arms trades. While watching the market one sunny Thursday afternoon you see a close friend go inside. You are almost positive that your friend is not shopping for produce - do you confront him/her as to his/her reasoning for being there and could you do so without putting your own identity in jeopardy?

A decrepit old building in the Arab section of Hevron is said to be the home of the highest ranked terrorist. As chief spy you are asked to plant the demolition bomb inside the building but you are uncertain as to whether or not there are innocent children in the building. How can you remain true to your country while also calming your conscience?

You have been away from your wife and family for over a year on various missions. Once you are finally home - an emergency call comes that requires you to leave for undetermined period of time. When you explain to your wife that you must leave again, she pleads with you as to the whereabouts of your "business meetings" and demands to know more about your profession. Furthermore she accuses you of not loving her or your children as you are rarely home. She is a strong Zionist who has often times told you that she would do anything for her country. Do you tell her of your secretive position to save your marriage - despite the damage it could cause your country?

As an Israeli spy your Jewish heritage and religion is very important to you. Furthermore, you decided to join the Israeli army specifically the Mossad because you are firm believer in the idea that Jews worldwide should be able to celebrate their holidays freely. Since on missions, you have had to miss every holiday this year. Yom Kippur is coming up but you know that disguised as a priest it would be virtually impossible for you to commemorate the holiday. The lack of Judaism that you have practiced over the year has begun to take its toll on you. Do you abort your mission?

Shabbat Shalom to all the campers and staff at Camp Biluim, Camp Kinneret, Camp Solelim, Camp Shalom and Camp Hatikvah from all the campers and staff at Camp Kadimah.

Update -- Greetings from Young Judaea's most eastern Summer Camp. This summer Camp Kadimah has 245 campers and 80 staff. The summer is off to a wonderful start and we are enjoying sunny days with temperatures over 30 degrees Celsius each day.

The first Shabbat of the summer will begin with an Oneg Shabbat and play prepared by the C.I.T.'s and will emphasize what Kadimah is all about and the importance of Shabbat at summer camp. On Saturday afternoon the house leagues will begin in softball, basketball, volleyball and ground hockey for both the male and female campers.

Our sixteen Kadimah Israel participants have arrived safely in Israel and will be spending their first Shabbat at the Kotel in Jerusalem. They are looking forward to meeting their fellow Young Judaeans from Biluim Israel at Yom Canada on July 21, 1997 at Nitzanim Beach.

Shabbat Message - We at Camp Kadimah are very excited to be participating with our fellow Young Judaeans in Shabbat Beyachad. We would like to wish all of you a peaceful, relaxing and memorable first Shabbat of the summer. Best of Luck for a wonderful summer and we look forward to receiving your Shabbat Shalom faxes in subsequent weeks.

A SHABBAT SHALOM MESSAGE FROM CAMP SHALOM

Friday July 25, 1997

Shabbat Shalom from your friends in Muskoka, Ontario. We have just begun our second session of camp today, and we are very excited with all the challenges that this new month offers our 100 staff and 240 campers. Our first month was lots of fun! Our summer's theme reflects on the 100th anniversary of the First World Zionist Congress in Basle, Switzerland, and as such we call it the Zionist Century.

The purpose of these faxes to one another is to bring a feeling of unity and chevrah among us, so let us indeed celebrate a shabbat beyachad. Although geography may separate us, we are united in our shabbat menucha. Although tonight we may eat in different dining halls, and eat different meals, and sing different songs, let us be one in our hearts. From time to time it is worthwhile for us to remember that there are other campers and staff just like us all across Canada, and that we are part of a bigger whole, part of an entire Young Judacan movement.

May everyone have a restful Shabbat, and may the remainder of our summers be filled with chevrah and happiness.

שבֿת שְׁלוֹם, from Camp Shalom.

Yours truly,

Malcolm Richmond

Program Director

	Those who deny the Holocaust how do we deal with them as Jews and as Canadians - this session will include discussions, personal accounts, as well, the seminar will explore how hatemongers/deniers operate and how we can combat their actions. Sobes and Leigh will lead the session.
	"March of the Living" This sessions will be centered around one participants experiences in Poland and Israel. An interactive slide presentation, as well as controversial debates as to the merits of returning to Poland and other topical issues will be explored. Zena will lead the session.
	Dealing with the Holocaust via drama and storytelling will be the focus of this session. Scripting, Blocking and Performing real-life Chassidic Holocaust stories will serve as the vehicle for this meeting. Jocelyn will lead the session.
	Sculpture too is a valid form of expression through which the Holocaust can be investigated. One major sculpture project and closely linked activities will form the basis for this session. Bellarie will lead the session

What the Holocaust Means to me:

It means that it was a horrifying thing that happened and my great Grandpa and his son my grandpa both survived and lived to see my great aunt die because of a disease that at the time could not be cured.

Two months after my great grandpa and grandma died in a car crash with a Nazi. They were driving in the streets and Nazis were driving crazy all over the roads and my great grandpa turned to get away from one and the Nazi went straight and crashed right into them from the side. Two days after the had died, my grandpa received a letter and it read:

Dear Mr. Leonim,

Your father and mother have died in a car crash and their funeral will be on the 23rd of July 1945.

Please Come!

Sir J. Crock!

All the tears of sadness and bloodshed are just a sign of recovery

They may look different on the outside, but inside they're the same

Who? Everybody

For every bad thing done,
there is a good thing in its replacement

If everyone can learn to love, parish, and make peace there would be reason for any arms.

With everyone working hard
Together there could be peace
Once more.

Why can't we all be even? The Holocaust should not have to happen. We should not have to kill.

THEME

“IF YOU WILL IT, IT IS NO DREAM”

The 100th year Anniversary of the First World Zionist Congress

“In Basel I founded the Jewish State. If I were to say this aloud, I would be met with general laughter. But in another five years, and certainly in another fifty, everyone will be convinced of this.”

- Theodore Herzl confided in his diary, after the First Zionist Congress in 1897 held in Basel, Switzerland -

In 1897 at the First World Zionist Congress, the creation of a Jewish State for Jewish people was placed on the international agenda. Great men like, Leon Pinsker, A.D. Gordon, and Theodore Herzl understood that the existence of a Jewish State was the only way to protect the Jewish people from persecution. One hundred years later, their collective will has become our collective dream.

Less than fifty years old, the State of Israel flourishes. One hundred years ago the dream of the State of Israel was only a twinkle in their eyes and a song in their hears, today Israel is the cornerstone of the Jewish people and a safe haven from those who seek to destroy us. The dreams of yesterday have become the realities of today, and the hopes of tomorrow.

The time has come for us to will peaceful co-existence with our neighbors, to will more tolerance amongst ourselves, to will unity for the Jewish people and to will a safe and secure future for the unborn Jewish children. If, like the founders of the Zionist movement, we commit ourselves to these goals, then we too will ensure that our dreams become tomorrow's reality.

Herzl's dream must not be allowed to wither. As Jewish people living in the Diaspora, the very people that Herzl set out to help, we must continually support the State of Israel and all that it stands for. This summer we celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the First World Zionist Congress and recognize that as young Jewish people living in the Diaspora our role in ensuring that Herzl's dream continues is crucial. Our support of Israel and Jewish issues will help to ensure that our children and grandchildren will be able to celebrate the 200th Anniversary of the First World Zionist Congress.

The 1997 Maccabia Games at Camp Kadimah celebrate this milestone in Jewish and Zionist History and in the spirit of the founders of Zionism we will pay tribute to their efforts in realizing their dream.

Chazak Ve'amatz

Dearest Chrysalids,

Once upon a time at 1:59:59 am four over tired, over anxious, and overly giddy staff captains could not come up with team names. Red Dog and Labatt Blue were suggested, and rejected for obvious reasons. CIT and Biluim were the next two options, but they too were rejected. Alas "Chrysalids" came to mind - isn't it obvious why? Besides, what's in a name anyway? Moral of the story: a purple union was formed and one of the wackiest Maccabias ever was way underway. And wacky it was from winning the Bochon on a bonus D.N.A. question (Carly!!!!) to "boiling that egg...(Yeah Rosy) and winning the Maccabathon. Of course we had the best secret weapon anyone could ask for in David "there are 2 time outs in a soccer game and yes I can sketch the banner too" Silver. Aaron " I spoke to Mr. Discovery and did some research" Pink, Jodi "I'll do anything" Sherkin and Becca "sing me a song I'm the piano man" Cash. Evelyn " It may still be wet but it's the yellow's fault" Taubin, Sarah " They don't call me head of Rikud for no reason even if I reach when I paint" Damelin, Sarah Craig, Ben Frieman, Slim, and Becky Pink and the rest of the staff you were absolutely purple who could ask for anything more? Macharniks you guys deserve a trophy for keeping us cheering and having too much fun being purple and of course helping with the Gosh supervision (Hartzman) we couldn't have done it without you. As for Rachel, Cashy, Sharon and Clint - we know who the real winners are, and next time you choose a name remember to "go with it, go with it, now finish it off go go go...."

And so we won. What more needs to be said? We like blue - blue is good....

PURPLE TEAM 1997 "RAISE THE WING"

half of.... Your Loving Captains,

David " Hmmm what should we do now," Rosy Rosenfeld

Zena " Adaptation to theme/ Lists Queen " Haberman

Ilana " Call me anything - it's okay" Kirsh

Brad " I really want to win" Halfin

Blue Team cheer - to the tune of "Sweet Dreams" (another potential team name)

Chrysalids are quite a team
Are four captains are such a dream
Brad and Rosy, Zena Ilana
Maccabathon, Bochon, Track and Regatta

Some them try to defeat blue
Some of them wanna be just like blue
Some of them wanna abuse blue
Most of them just get abused by blue.

Chorus

Maccabia of 97
4 Teams step up to the challenge
Yellow, Red White and blue
Everybody's looking for badges.

Chorus

Dear Yellow Team of 1997,

Well, this is our final item on the "to do" list for Maccabia of 1997. After this our captainship will be complete. We just wanted to let you know that we are very proud of you for all of your hard work. Without your individual artistic, athletic, and spirited talents we wouldn't have made it to our outstanding second place finish. We all knew that clumping was key and that spirit was a necessity. Speaking of which, winning for the most spirit was a tough job but one team had to do it! the last day was a bit rough guys, but we made it through with the help of our spirit keepers. To those of you who put out an extra effort, thanks for everything. "The past is not gone" yellow team "keep going strong"

Your Captains,
Neely Lerman
Saul Offman
Carly Flam - Gitman
David Herbert

Yellow Team Cheer - to the tune of Ramah Yah

Yellow team, oh oh oh Yellow Team
We are the best team that you have ever seen
As we come near you all will stand in fear
The Yellow team you'll hear
you'll hear us cheer

Our captains help win Maccabia
Neely, Saul, Car, Dave
Red, white and blue, good luck to ya
but we're the judges fave

We're Visionary Masons that's who we are
To keep going strong's our goal
One hundred years of Zionism is the theme
And we're ready to take our role endurance, ruach, strength and our yell

These are our values, can't you all tell
We're sportsmanship, fun and spirit
YELLOW

Dear Red Team '97,

History may say otherwise, but Red Team was clearly the winner of Maccabia 1997 and for so many reasons. First, we had more fun. Second, we are all much better looking and we smell nice. Finally, we made an alliance with the Blue team (GO PURPLE) which was for sure the highlight of Maccabia '97. The list goes on and on, but clearly Red was the winner.

Time for the thanks yous. Thank you to everyone on Red who didn't complain when you couldn't do whatever event you wanted, and when you had to do what you didn't want, and to everyone who cheered, and to everyone who put up with tired, complaining captains. Basically, thank you to the entire red team for 4 amazing days of fun.

And when you're sad, when you are sick of life, when you've just lost $100 playing poker or struck out in your last 10 at bats, or slept through your wedding because your alarm clock didn't go off - just look back and remember a few days in 1997 when a team that everyone said was destined to lose, managed, through hard work and sacrifice to achieve the impossible - third place. RED RULES

Your captains,

David Cashman

Rachel Pink

Sharon Alexander

Clint Israel

PS - We like Purple, Purple is good.

Red Team Cheer - to the tune of You Ain't Never Seen a Friend Like Me

Well, we are here at Maccabia
And we're going to be the best Judges you're in luck because
You won't even have to judge the rest

We've got captains who shine like stars
And we're as fast as flight
we are here to show you all
Red team is out of sight

And we'll say

CHORUS

Stars conception shine
For the past 100 years
Try to stop us if you can
You ain't never seen a team like Red

Well, spirit is our middle name
And we're going to go all the way
try to stop us if you can you ain't never seen a team like red

Chorus

You ain't never seen a team like Red! X 2

Red Team Song '97 - Change the World - Eric Clapton

We are all bright stars, glowing in the sky
Lighting up the world, with our open minds
Making Herzl's dream into reality
The red team is here you just wait and see

Chorus

Oh yes, we know the truth
Unity's the key to win Maccabia
We have come together with our hopes and strength
Star conception

Dave, Rach, Sharon and Clint, they will lead us all
Holding our ruach high and hever letting us fall
All four team continue to make the future now
And if you need some help, Red team will show you how

Chorus

100 years ago ideas started to brew
Making a place to go for each and every Jew
Just a single hope from a single man
It just goes to show what we can do hand in hand

Dear Pathfinders of '97,

Let us just start by saying that all you guys did a fantastic job this year and nobody could have asked for a better team. Even though we beat out every other team for fourth place, at least we were punctual! We may not have ruled the land, but we rocked the water! Speaking of water, we gave those judges what for! 2-0 baby!!

Some of the things that helped us through Maccabia were: peanut butter & cracker raid (with water!), Nissan and their wonderful cars (and vans), Kevin (we couldn't have done it without you!), the indomitable Slotin, Shanks, & Noah and any others that we may have left by the wayside...we're sorry!

In closing, let us not forget Marty and his wondrous meetings and schedule changes, the lack of Brian and his witty humor, and Gabe with his liquid vendetta. We may never come back this way again and things may change at a pace more rapid than we can conceive, but we will always have these bittersweet memories...White team wuz here!

Your ever lovin' captains,

Matthew "Supercow" David
Karen Born

Lisa Noik
Zack Borer

WHITE TEAM CHEER
TUNE: RUN RUNAWAY

Look for identity,
Dream of identity,
Search our identity,
Pave, Pave the way.

Chorus.

See Yisroel shining there in the sun,
Look ahead we should run.
Pave, pave the way

If you have the urge,
with the future we will merge.
We have got the urge,
Pave, pave the way.

Chorus

We are White team,

Watch us live the dream.
Follow White team,
Pave, Pave the way.

Chorus x2

WHITE TEAM SONG
TUNE: VENICE IS SINKING.

We started on our path,
A vision of what could be.
A homeland for our people,
A Zionist identity.
Other's laughed at our plan,
But we trekked on.
Theodore Herzl - Our dedications still strong.

CHORUS

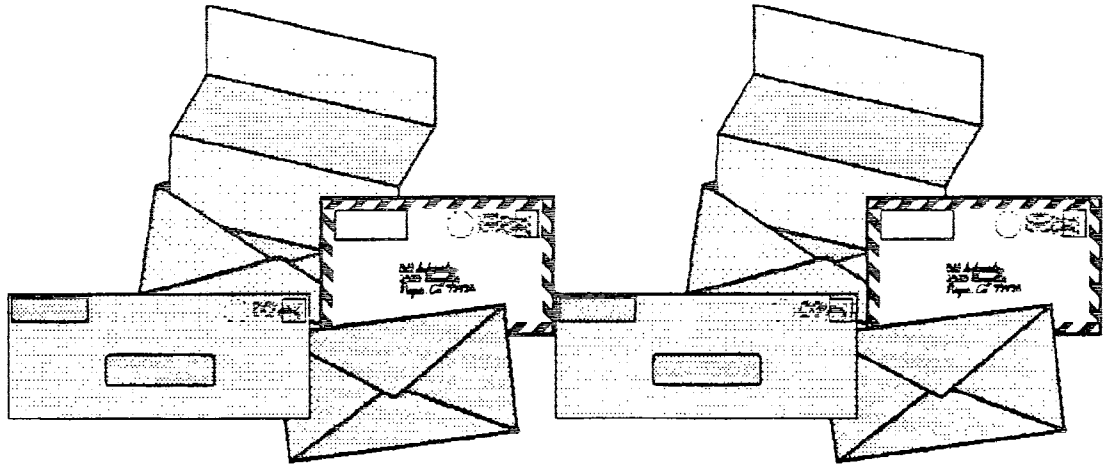

Pathfinders we're on our way,
A hundred years behind us.
We're leading the future,
While living out our dream.

Now as we make our way,
We're searching for a Whiter day.
A time of peace, hope and purity in our land Israel.
Other teams gather 'round,
We're striving for higher ground.
Red, Yellow, Blue - together there's nothing we can't do.

Chorus.

And in the years to come,
The dream will still live on.
We'll walk together arm in arm in harmony.
The next one hundred years will prove to dissipate our fears.
The Jewish homeland's a reality, a reality.
