

ITON 2000

Welcome to Kadimah 2000! Working in the office is all about listening in on everyone's phone calls, reading other people's mail, and prank-calling all the parents (we get their phone numbers from the camper's files)!!! We hope you guys enjoy what we have put together for you, considering it was done in less than a week! We couldn't have done it without the help of all the typers, (you know who you are), our artists Shelby Hirsh and Natasha Budovitch, Marty for his help with technical stuff, and of course, all of the contributors of Iton 2000! Take care and keep the memories alive!

With love,
Your Dedicated Editors,

From the Director's Chair

Kadimah 2000 is drawing to an end. The memories and friendships will continue forever. It is so gratifying to see the happy faces of kids as they play and enjoy the wonderful confines of our home away from home- Camp Kadimah.

This summer was great. Many new, exciting, and returning programs, good weather, and new facilities made Kadimah bigger and better than ever before.

Yom Israel, Yom HaShoah, Maccabia, Hityashvut, Carnival Day, Hockey Marathon, Canada Day, Visitor's Day, Talent Show, Onegs, Socials, Iton 2000, and Machar Play were some of the summer's highlights.

I would like to thank all the campers and staff for making this summer so special.

There are several people who need honorable mention. To Sari and Mindy, thanks for running the office and being so cheerful and professional. To all Section Heads, bravo on such an excellent job. T.K. and Mark, you were great filling in and doing dual jobs. To all specialists and Heads of Specialty, thank you for a fine job and being there always. Shayna, we miss you and wish you a speedy recovery.

To all the bunk councilors- you deserve all the credit- you guys were great- thank you so much.

To Michelle, Melanie and all the Doctors, thanks for your devotion and excellent care of all campers and staff.

To Ace and Peter- congratulations on another great summer in keeping camp so clean and the beautiful new additions.

To Anne and the Kitchen Staff, thanks for all you yummy meals and for preparing all meals, snacks and special snacks, Banquet, Visitor's Day, etc.

To Leigh Lampert, thanks for your organization, travel details, and administrative duties. Your work in Halifax prior to camp was greatly appreciated "Hail to the Chief". Thanks to your assistance in Halifax- Josh and Jordy.

To Marty Zatzman- the wait may be over. I do appreciate your friendship and we all acknowledge your love for Kadimah. Thanks for all your hard work, fun programs and early morning workouts.

Finally to the man himself- Michael Soberman. What can I say? "Dofsky's" (as I remove the mask) Michael, your friendship, hard work, and devotion to camp has been instrumental in our success and growth. We wish you all the best in your new job. Your cabin will be retired and turned into the Kadimah Hall of Fame. You will be our first inductee. Good luck and thanks for the memories.

To Jo Mirsky, Camp Administrative Secretary, thank you for all your work in the camp office all year and assistance at camp.

To Andrew Wolfson, Mark Rosen, Jon Goldberg, and Committee Members, Thank you for your love and devotion to camp and your support these many years. We have a wonderful camp and continue to spread the Kadimah name across Canada, the United States and across the land.

Love,

Sheldon

GOODBYE MY FRIENDS

FROM THE DESK OF MICHAEL B. SOBERMAN 1980-2000

Dear Camp Kadimah:

It seems as though I have composed my final farewell several times in the past, but alas I now find myself doing it yet again...and meaning it this time. How can I summarize 19 years of this place in once short article? I simply cannot, nor will I even try. Rather I choose this time and space to reflect on the summer of 2000 and on my life here at camp.

No one place has had more of an impact on my life than Camp Kadimah. Over the years it has been the most consistent part of my routine. It really was like coming home each summer to a place that has so many special qualities, special people and warmth. I am truly a product of Camp Kadimah and as I leave here for that "big old world" I know that what I have gained from this place will keep me safe, secure, confident and loved.

There is so much magical about this place that words cannot describe. The memories are flooding through my mind as I write and I would be lying if I said my eyes were dry. Every building, every rock and every tree have some significance memory attached to them. I am who I am because of my family and because of this place. And like with my family, while I may move away I will be always be here.

What is the greatest thing about Camp Kadimah? Without a doubt it is watching young people grow. Watching campers pass from Giborim to Machar and then to staff as a right of passage. watching staff looking after campers the same way they were looked after. This is what this place is all about.

I want to single out an outstanding group of people right now. I want to thank the CIT's of 2000 for reminding me what is important here...you, the campers. You guys are incredible and my fondest memories of this summer are spending time with you. I loved our trip, getting to know you and "hanging out" was the best. My only regret is that I was not able to spend more time with you. As you spend you last days as campers here remember that you are the future of this camp you will be the leaders of tomorrow. I am sure you will rise to challenge and make your mark. I know I have gained 41 new friends, that will grow and flourish over the years. If my last memory of a "Chevra" of campers is you, then I leave here with the "perfect picture". Thanks for being you and for being such a big part of my summer. Our paths will cross again!

Then there is the people, so many people over the years who have had an impact on me. To everyone who has been a part of my life here over the past two decades...thank you.

To all the senior staff of 2000 it has been a pleasure working with you. We really worked as team and I hope many of you return next summer because you have many good years left a head of you. To the general staff and many of my former CIT's, it is with great pride that I watch you take care of the campers and give them the life altering experience that they deserve. To the campers, this place is all about you. Your smiles, laughter, appreciation and spirit far exceed any other reward of being here.

Make sense of this paragraph if you can:

The Ardvark, the Ardvark, SMD, go for a soak, 4 pocket monkeys, "the" status times 2, more yams? Rice dream, Nina and night traumas, little Knuc, Motto, the madness, 7:27 good luck, overalls and ball caps, Peggy's Cove, the clowns, painting your cupboard door, hoaky pokey

Sheldon, let me reiterate what I said on Visitor's Day. "I feared you as camper, respected you as a staff member, and adore you as friend." I really mean the last part. We have traveled many roads together and I cannot think of a better "running mate". No more work, now its time to play... finally. The Phoenix Project in 2000. One last question? Who is the Champion? I love you Mr. Knuckle

While I may be physically gone, I will never leave this place. Camp Kadimah will always be in my heart and my heart will always be in Kadimah. I have been here for so long because this is where I was meant to be and now I am meant to be somewhere else. I leave with no regrets, only with fond memories and tears in my eyes. I will miss this place and I will miss all of you. Please remember that I am only ever a phone call away and even though camp will end, our friendships will remain forever... and then some.

My final words are these: Hold on to this place as long as you can, do not leave until you have to. Do not let people tell you that you have to "grow up", "get a real job", "stop being a kid", because you don't. have to do any of this, not yet. Enjoy the magic of Kadimah for as long as can because this is what life is all about. Love camp, love each other, love yourselves and love every moment you have here. This is your time and this is your place, take as much as you can and share it with the world.

This time has come for me to end this article, I hope it conveys my love of this place and all the people who make it so special. I hate good-byes and this is one that I have dreaded for many years, but the time has come, not to say goodbye but to say "see you around".

If you see me the last couple of day an I look sad, it is because I will be. So give me hug and tell me it will be alright....I know it will.

Remember me because I will remember you

Love always

A Message from Your Programme Director, Mark "Sparky" Hecht

When I was invited to be Programme Director at Kadimah this summer I had a few goals that I wished to accomplish before the end of the camp season. The first was to revise the scheduling system so that the campers who had been here since they were Gibbies could be exposed to something new. Therefore, we began a Sunday through Saturday rotation where each cabin learnt well in advance what their week would involve. We also introduced a Campers' Choice in the afternoons, so that each individual child could choose how he or she would spend their peulah. Chogim was moved to Saturdays to allow two full hours of hobbies and clubs, and many original chogs were introduced including baking, paint dancing, and lacrosse. Finally, we launched Schedule 2K amidst much fanfare. The new timetable included fewer line-ups, a longer rest period, a later wake-up, buffet brunches and breakfasts in bed. All campers and staff were very accepting of the changes and for that I am appreciative.

Secondly, I wanted to bring in some novel programmes "just for fun." A summer theme of Season of Simchas was selected; not only to emphasize our Jewish roots and culture projects, but all activities that would create simcha amongst the campers and staff. This included a new Canada Day Celebration, 4th of July Lunch, A Night at the Opera (air band/lip sync show), and the Sparkies! the first annual Camp Kadimah programming awards.

My third objective was to have a good time!!! I must say that I had a wonderful summer hanging out with the staff and campers, and laughing constantly with Sheldon, Michael, and Marty. I was also very lucky to have forged a special relationship with Goshrim. The time I spent with these cabins – playing, eating, and yes, even sleeping – was memorable and a highlight of the season.

So, to conclude I must say it has been a very successful six weeks. All my goals were realized. Thanks to all of you for the support and encouragement to the "new guy" at camp. I want all of you campers to remember that you are very special people and never forget that your summer isn't over until your memories fade.

Keep smiling –

Mark

The New Millennium Camp 2K-As I See It

Well, we are the campers and staff of the first year of the new millennium and Kadimah 2000 has come and gone so quickly. Thanks to all staff and campers for a fast fun filled 6 weeks. As you get older time seems to fly. It seems like we all just got off the bus on June 30th, some later than others. This, my fifth year back since starting in 1996, was one of my most memorable summers. I hope everyone enjoyed the major camp programs that included Maccabia, the Carnival, Haggannah Night and Yom Israel, Yom Hashoa, Canada Day, the annual Campwide Talent Show, The Sparky Awards, and all the socials. The staff also had fun at many evening programs including the Barbecue, the Casino Night and the staff Coffee House. I had great fun with both the Camper and Staff Bands.

I would like to thank some of my close working partners:

Sheldon Cohen- the dean of camp directors. You have been a mentor to me and many others and I hope you will continue as our leader for many more years. I am banking on that.

Michael Soberman- your ability to motivate staff and campers and market Kadimah and its appeal have been instrumental in keeping our camp strong and solvent. You will be greatly missed in the years to come, but I wish you well in your new endeavours.

Mark Hecht- your experience was evident to me when I first met you in Toronto. To me you were Manilow, Darth and a host of other characters. Good luck with your new position and have fun traveling the world.

Leigh Lampert- Your organizational ability is tremendous and it was fun listening to your 11:30 p.m. walkie talkie radio show. Your impression of me was not bad. It fooled a few people. Good luck at law School and call me for the contacts.

Sarah, Stacia, Elli and TK/Shayna/Nicole/Krista- The section heads were great. You guys are the backbone of the camp. You all need a well deserved rest before your return to the real world. Hope I was helpful with all your programs.

The Specialists- a great summer of swimming, running, painting, singing, dancing, drama, skiing, boating, sailing and all the other stuff you guys did.

The Counsellors- the hardest job at camp, but the most rewarding. You might forget some of your campers, but they will never forget you.

Mindy and Sari- Office people. You guys were easy going and great to work with. I miss you Mindy. Sari good luck at Dal this year.

The Nurses-Mel and Michelle-Great job as always Mel, and good luck in Victoria. Welcome Michelle and hope you had a great summer.

Anne and the kitchen staff-you guys did a tremendous job feeding the largest camp in history. Quantity and quality were excellent. We thank you for the occasional use of your cabin, Anne. I am not mad at you. Are you mad at me?

Peter and Ace-the camp looks fabulous thanks to you guys. The additions of the new cabins and especially the new amphitheater which we dedicated in memory of my mother and father. This was a highlight for me and my family.

Special thanks to my wife, Belarie, whom I met 26 years ago at Kadimah. Your love and loyalty to me in my camp career have made it a pleasure to continue to return to camp each summer. Love to my kids Noah at Biluim this summer and Samahra in Cabin 32 and of course Sariana who is an honorary Gibby this year. Thank you Amy for taking care of our beautiful Sariana for the last five years. You are a wonderful person and as always we wish you much luck in your career. To all, have a wonderful year and if we return for 2001, I hope each and everyone of you will be ready for another super summer.

Love to all,
Marty Zatzman

To My Dear Camp Kadimah,

I find myself writing this letter with mixed emotions, as I do every year at this time. For, on the one hand, I am excited to go home and get back to "normal life", and I am excited about this coming year, and what I will be doing. But, on the other hand, yet another wonderful summer at Camp Kadimah has come to an end. And, I realize that my summers here are numbered. Whether I am here in the summer of 2001 or not remains to be seen, but if so, it will likely be my very last, as I will be finishing school soon and will have to go out into the "real world". And, although we have camp alumni returning as doctors each summer, as of yet, camp does not employ a "camp lawyer", and so, there will be no position available for me in the future. If I am back in 2001, I look forward to spending it with all of you. If not, I will take with me only the warmest of feelings, the happiest of memories, and the best of friends.

Jordan and Mindy, my two siblings, and the best brother and sister anyone could have, it was so nice to spend another summer together with both of you. Our time together at Camp is precious, especially because we have been going to school in different cities. But, Jordan, I can't wait to live with you this year and I think it will be great for both of us. And, Mindy, you will have to visit us often. You will do well at Mount A., no doubt, and I'm sure you will have a great year.

Darcie, for two years now, you have been a very important part of my life. It is here at Camp that we met, and our time together here is very special to me. There is little more that I can say here to express how I truly feel about you other than "I love you" and a big thank you for everything, always.

Sheldon, for seven years we have been working together, and we have known each other for much longer. I value both your friendship and your advice. Thank you for everything, both past and present. Your love of, and devotion to Camp is obvious to all. Soberman, it was a pleasure working with you, as always. Camp Kadimah is obviously something in which you believe quite strongly and this is something we have in common. You will certainly be missed. Best of luck in your new position and remember The Aardvark. S.M.D., bye! Marty, it has been a pleasure getting to know you and working with you over the past few years here. And, I certainly appreciate your advice on almost any topic, as well as your friendship. It is obvious that you and Belarie are also very dedicated to Kadimah, as is your entire family, and it is nice to see you back each year.

Stephanie, as the first head of state of Drebethia, I hope your summer was all you expected it to be and more. I am glad we talked at the Boniuk Center, and I'm comforted in knowing we'll be in touch throughout the year. Raskin, our summer together really started in mid June, and it has been great. I'm sure I'll see lots of you at the apartment this year, so I'll say no more here. One. Echad. Alicia & Elli, I had heard so much about both of you from Darcie, and it was great to finally spend some time with you. Hopefully, you'll both visit Halifax this year. Jana, since our first time at Keji, we have become close friends. You are, indeed, a true friend, and I enjoy spending time with you and staying in touch all year-round. Ron, I was happy to live with you this summer in 25. It was a great cabin and I have lots of good memories from our various "meetings". Mark, your presence at Camp this summer has inspired me. It is great to see that someone who works as a lawyer in "real-life" is actually able to kick back and relax a little in the summers! Mel and Michelle (a.k.a. Hathaway & Nightingale), it was great working with you, helping you with your endless "lists", and having hot chocolate parties at the infirmary. You are both great people and I hope we will be able to see each other during the year.

Shelby and Melanie, Erika, Aaron, T.K., Stacia, Altman, Reshef, Eyal, Altman, Jen C., Carly, Sarah, Merav, Tiffany, Jonah, Lightstone, Donna, it was great working with each of you this summer and meeting those of you who were new to camp. Best wishes for the year to come.

To the girls of Cabin 33, I enjoyed visiting your cabin, having our nightly talks, and spending time with all of you. You're a great group of people, and I hope we'll stay in touch this year. Unfortunately, I have to limit the number of people I mention by name, so I will stop here.

For seventeen summers, I have known nothing but beautiful Camp Kadimah and its surroundings. My entire summers have been spent here, in this wonderful place. My closest friends have been made here, and it is here where I am the happiest. And it is for this reason that year-round, I think about camp. I stay in touch with many camp people, and I have looked forward to summer after summer in Barss Corner.

At the risk of sounding cliché, I will say that with email, phone calls and letters, I hope to stay in touch with many of you this year. When school starts and everyone is busy doing their own thing, there is not a day that goes by when I don't think of Camp, and it is always nice to hear from my camp friends during the year. Camp Kadimah, thank you for yet another memorable summer. Wishing each of you all the best for this coming year, be it at school, at work, or while traveling abroad.

As was the case in my article last year, instead of writing the same quote at the end of every Iton I sign, I will sign-off with these words, attributed to Theodore Herzl -- words in which I believe very strongly.

Have Always, "If you will it, it is no dream."

LEIGH LAMPERT
1984-2000.....???

"Shalom, Camp Kadimah..."

"Hakshivu, Hakshivu, Attention in the camp!"

How many people spend their summers at a summer camp answering phones, sorting faxes and mail, and printing 100 e-mails a day, instead of getting a tan.....?????? The answer: 2.

Sari and I have spent countless hours in the office, missing such fun activities as: Maccabia, Hagannah night, Talent Show, Carnival Day, Hityashvut, every single Oneg (sorry Alicia), water skiing, house leagues, etc... yet we rarely complain! I had the opportunity to work with, and get to know, some very interesting people during this summer in the office. For instance:

Sheldon has re-written my job description to say something like: "must sort 100 garbage bags of lost and found per day." Sheldon, you sure know how to keep a girl busy! I really enjoy working for you, even though you always seem to find the weirdest jobs for me to do. I'll be seeing you again...

Sari: all I can say is "That'a girl!" We accomplished so much together, even though we don't have much to show for it, other than this stinkin' Iton (JJ)! We ran an office very efficiently, and we work awesome as a team. If you ever see this article, that means the Iton was successfully printed and distributed. Make sure to add that to your resume! I am so happy you were here to help me out this summer. Will you help me again next summer?

Leigh: I swayer... Wanna play? Oh Leigh, I will use this opportunity to tell you that you are the most arrogant person I have ever met. And you should start doing your own tuck deductions!!! BUT, let it also be known that you are by far one of my favorite people in the whole wide world, and you mean so much to me. I could not have gotten through many situations if it hadn't been for you. You are an ideal older brother, and it's too bad the rest of the world doesn't get to have a brother like you. You probably know me the best out of anyone in the world, and for that I need to stay on your good side. Can I get you anything sir?

Snoccie (Jordan): Do you want to run around in circles in the Playroom listening to Arrow dynamics while Leigh yells at us to be quiet? I am very excited that you are moving closer to me this year, and I will be able to drive to HFX and stay with you. We'll play. You also mean so much to me, and I am so grateful to have 2 loving brothers who take such good care of me. Although I do many things that you do not approve of (as do you), I still appreciate all you do for me. Thank-you for bringing me to the infirmary that day I sprained my ankle. And thank-you for standing on guard for me outside my baby crib and handing me back my toys when I threw them out ☺

Sobes: why didn't you hang out in the office more? The best conversation we ever had was: "Hey Sobes, you shaved." And you replied: "Hey Mindy, you..." All I could reply was "6". Love the sense of humor you have. I wish you the best of luck in all you do, and I hope to meet up with you again in the future.

Marty: First of all, "Mindy I miss you." I'm glad you got a kick out of my personal e-mails ☺ How do I thank you enough for such fine technical skills? You are so pleasant to be around (unlike some), and I always enjoy your company. Is there a bad side to Marty? That is the question!

Mark Hecht: Get used to the fact that I never do, and will never remember to announce the beginning and the end of each peulah. So setting an alarm clock to scare the crap out of me, will not work!!! I do give you credit for trying though, and you are a fine person to work with! See you again soon ☺

My girls: you know exactly who you are. We've come along way since thumb wars in Giborim, and sharing boyfriends in Goshrim (RM). You guys are what keep me coming back year after year. If it wasn't for the great memories you helped me make, then who knows where we would all be. I am aware that most of you are not coming back next summer, and this frightens me. I'm sure we are all strong enough by now to be able to venture out on our own, without each other. Good luck girls, and you always know where to find me ☺

Josh Levitz and Julie Rothschild: the fact that I just wrote your names should tell you something. You guys have been two of my closest camp friends I have ever had. Even though this could very well be our last summer together, I certainly hope this isn't the end of such important friendships. I love you very much, and hope we never lose touch.

Kirsh, Ky & Fischler: 3 words....."we're so fired!" I know you guys know what I mean, so I won't elaborate. But wow! Did we ever handle a tough group of girls! From whining and complaining to laying and playing, we were lucky to get to know our girls. We could have had it a lot worse! I am so glad I ended up in Cabin 34, and that we were all together! Thanks so much for being such awesome co-staff!

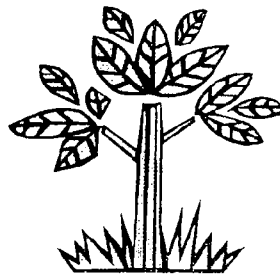

Girls of Cabin 34: my hunnies... You guys are definitely an interesting bunch. From refusing to shower to eating food you know you are allergic to, we've been through it all. "Will you make me soup?" and "I'll give you a Mr. Noodles if you let me cabin hop." Such questions were often heard in my cabin around the time I was there to put you guys to bed. I'm sorry we didn't get to spend much time together, cause I was in the office, but I did enjoy the times we did spend together. I hope to see you all next summer!

And to the rest of the camp: No you did not get mail, no you may not use the phone, and NO you cannot add your friends to my ICQ list! Take care, enjoy your year, and maybe we'll meet again....

Till next time,

*Mindy Lampert

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You!

Thanks to Sheldon, who is a great guy to work for, and never made me regret my spur of the moment decision to come to Camp. He did, however, volunteer me for the Iton, but I'll refrain from my comments about that...

Thanks to Mindy, who showed me what being an office girl is all about, and kept me (semi) sane throughout the entire Iton experience. You've been a great co, and the Iton would not exist without you (I still can't believe it'll ever happen). It's all about reading other people's personal e-mails (did I let that slip?). You rock!

Thanks to the entire Gibby Staff- Anna, Nicole, Leah, Dave, Elisa, Krista, Cookie, Micah, Karen, Robin, and T.K. for being so nice to someone so new. I'll never forget my time in Gibbyland. Staff Superhero Night will be forever etched in my memory.

To the Girls of Cabin B: Rebecca, Chelsea, Liora, Hillary, Loni, and Hilary- you made my summer fantastic! Whether it was a shaving cream fight, letter writing peulah, or you were stealing my bag so I wouldn't be able to go to the office, we always had a good time. Never stop cross-stitching!!!

Thank you Mike, for giving me a shoulder to cry on when I needed it, and going out of your way to cheer me up- I'll never say no to flowers. Everyone should have a friend as sweet as you. All set for more fun Sunday mornings next year?

To Sparky Marky- your comments in the office ("Sari, the phone is ringing") were invaluable. I'm not sure who I'll miss more, you or Clark (the evil program director), but stay a little crazy, please.

To everyone who has been so nice to me during my time at camp- Thank you too. It's been an experience. Really the Iton has been an Experience. I'd better quit while I'm ahead. I'll miss you all, it's been a blast!!!

Love,

The Life of Gerty and Sol...The Conclusion

Narrator #1:

So the years went by. Sol and Gerty's family grew larger as more weddings, Brits, and Bar Mitzvahs passed on by. As Sol and Gerty neared their 65th birthday, they planned for a big family reunion...

Sol: So, what game are we going to play next? Party Quirks? Waiting Room?

Gerty: I like murder wink best, although figuring out who the leader is on That machine game is great too!

Chava: Let's play freeze! Morris and I will start the first scene!

(Yonatan runs over to Miranda as the whole family sits in a circle)

Yonatan: Darling, if you love me, won't you please please smile?

Miranda: Darling, I love you too, but I just can't smile.

Doris: I think we should sing a song...

All:

She sailed away on a bright and sunny day on the back of a crocodile.
You see said she he's as tame as he can be I'll float him down the Nile.
The croc winked his eye as the lady waved good-bye wearing a happy smile.
But at the end of the ride the lady was inside
And the smile was on the crocodile!

(Bubby Ruth stands up, now the oldest woman alive)

Ruth: What a song! So what's the plan? Are we going to see a play? I hear
That "Free to be You and Me" is playing down the road. Anyone Interested?

(Zaidy Harry stands up, now the oldest man alive)

Harry: What did you say? Haman is dead? Let's celebrate!

(the whole family gets up and exits, on their way to see "Free to be You and Me")

DIRECTOR'S NOTE:

I don't think the names Gerty and Sol will ever be quite the same here at Camp Kadimah! In the Onegs this year I tried to bring together plays that would teach us all about the simchas in the Jewish life cycle, so I hope all of you learned something!

Darcie, I guess I have to thank you for bringing me here. Will it be eight more years before we spend our summer together again?

Elli, AIEI Airlines lives on forever! Where will our next camp be?! It has been great living with you all summer in the "love shack" (and of course, Erica too!)

Oscar, I wish you were here. I have missed you all summer and can't wait to see you in your tuxedo next month (and in my bed...)

I also want to thank Kay/a for helping me out all summer - the peulot could not have run so smoothly without you.

Gib, Gosh, Kochot, Machar, and CIT's, you all brought fun and exciting ideas to the program this year, and I think you taught me more fun and crazy games than I could ever teach you! It's been a great summer, and I want to thank all the campers and staff for making my first summer here so memorable. Tune in next time for the conclusion to the conclusion of the life of Gerty and Sol...

Love Always,

Alicia Richler

Boating Report 2000

As the summer of Kadimah 2000 comes to an end I would like to say that the boating program was a tremendous success. What can I say about the kids- they loved being down on the docks and it was great having them there, everyone was always enthusiastic and willing to help out around the docks. Both staff and campers had an amazing time on the canoe trips over to the picnic grounds and to Lake Peter. Thank you everyone for a great year.

To Sheldon and Sobes- thank you for believing in me and being there for me when needed. I appreciate it. Thank you.

Ruth- What can I say, it was another awesome summer that we have spent together. You are truly an amazing person and I thank you for everything.

Mike and Alyssa- you guys are great and did a wonderful job this summer and I could not have done it without you. Thank you.

To the two chicks of the RODEO- Merv and Shelby, you're awesome and thank you for making my summer what it was.

To the regulars of the Cabin 6 late night Shindig- Thank you for the many late nights.

Thank you everyone and have a great year,

Mel Yad Report

The summer of 2000 definitely started with a bang. Maybe it was Y2K fever, or maybe it was that camp time once again had arrived.

Each section started out with driedels, and yes they were made out of clay. This project was a challenge for many, but after figuring out how to build with slabs the driedels were magnificent, especially with the glamorous glitter.

This project was not the only with a Jewish theme. Shabbat candles and Channukah candles were made out of pure beeswax. In addition a different approach to Judaism was taken. The campers designed a "four worlds" with fabric, chalk and charcoal. This idea was based on the Kabbalistic view that the world is broken up into four worlds: thinking, being, feeling and doing. This pushed the limits of brainstorming and creativity. The end result was worth the brain drain.

On a lighter note there were also projects that were left to campers choice. Clay pots were decorated; puppets were created and best of all the psychedelic tie dye! The mel yad of 2000 touched just about all areas, and of course I cannot conclude without mentioning the mural. It's all about fusion between Canada, the Maritimes and Israel. The mural incorporated all of these areas into a glass window, similar to Chagall's stained glass. Thanks to all who helped, it could have never happened without you.

And here we go with the list of thank you's that in every article seem endless. I apologize to all unless you are mentioned in that case you should enjoy.

Cookie wish you could have stayed longer, but all was appreciated while you were there. Hope your summer was all it could be.

Melanie thank you for keeping me sane, and inspiring me everyday. Slim I love you and fishee, reach for the stars.

Meirav you made the right choice. Thank you for listening, for fixing my back pain and understanding the 2000 end of the world conversation. See you this year my friend.

Cabin 19 what can I say, iced cappuccinos, M&M, the lounge, broken toilets everyday. It was wonderful.

Suds you were with me in spirit, thank you.

Ace for all our chats, and a comfy place to hang out. Take care of yourself and your pet chipmunk. Maybe some day I'll be fortunate and get to see the sundog.

Julie for making me smile, that's enough

Jill for always putting everyone in a good mood. Especially myself.

Mel Thank you for the coffee, you are a doll. Good luck in Victoria you deserve the best.

Jonah & Steph for the few minutes that we spent together, they were precious. Careful of the cards.

Benson you've always been their official key holder. Have the time of your life in university, I'll know where to find you.

Michael B. I ♥ Borts. Thanks for your head scratching, wonderful conversations about communism, and most of all for being so damn cute. Don't forget to sometimes show you evil side.

Polit Military stories and the dollar store for some purchases made my summer. Thanks.

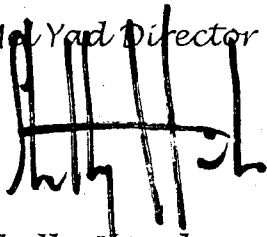

Anne & Kitchen Staff Anne you rock that's all I can say, the rest of you thanks for being so nice and hooking me up so many times.

Mindy you aren't alone I saw the German Sheppard's.

Altman Don't feel slighted because you are at the end of the thank you's. You know the expression of best till last. You made my summer with your laugh and incredible sense of humor about everything. Maybe we'll hook up over the year, that is if you aren't busy hooking with someone else.

And that's it people, if I forgot you I'm sorry. A final thanks to all of you in this camp (you know who you are) keep it real and don't let the changes get you down. It's the end of an era, good luck to everyone.

So here we are ... faced with the immense challenge of limiting the infirmary experience to one page. So where do we start? The inside jokes, known by few are condensed in Cabin 15. Habib has been dismissed; the grand prize (the fair Jezebelle) will go only to he who defeats cow.

Thanks to Toe-ny and Byron: the dynamic duo that graced the infirmary with their spectacular synchronized swimming. To Sam Roston: we love you even if you have never stood behind a line or signed a list. Mike Stern: thanks for donating your Goshies, and for goodness sake – “Stick your contacts in the OTHER way!!” To our favorite little Schmoe – “you are ‘sveet’ with a V in every way you can see!”

Hey Sushi did ya swishy – for exactly 30 seconds? Toe-Boy (Sir Soak a-lot)! The saga continues; we love your company but for your sake we hope this is the final chapter for you and all of you digits!

We can't complete this article without thanking our support staff. Gopher Leigh, Go for Leigh!! Here's your 2 lousy bucks...swabs, samples and prescriptions. A big thank you for your patience and generosity. How much will we miss you?? And we can't forget our latecomer Aaron. Your advice came in the nick of time; one of us is now single. A hearty thank-you to all of the doctors; we will especially remember Les and his role playing finger puppets.

Finally---Farkas---What's wrong THIS TIME!?!

Love Mel and Michelle (Nurses extraordinaire)

Camp Kadimah,

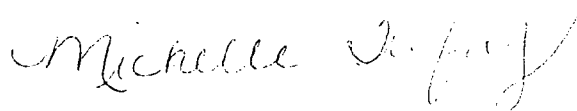

It's the year of the new millennium as well as the beginning to my years at Kadimah. I would like to thank everyone for making me feel so welcome especially my boys in cabin 15. You know who you are. Your hour long visits every night kept me well entertained.

I'm sure I'll see some of you throughout the year at Dal (Leigh, Darcie, Jen, Mike and Aaron) but for those who won't be coming back (Elana & Sobes) I hope to see you at camp visitor's day.

Melanie: you most of all have made this year a great start to my nursing career. Thanks for showing me the ropes. I wish you were coming back. I'll miss you and goodnight!

Have a great year everyone and I'll see you all next summer!!

Nurse Michelle

Camp Kadimah,

I am not fond of good-byes... and in this case it isn't necessary; you know I'll be back one day. My third and final year has been my finest; this camp has become all the more familiar and loved. There were times when I was sure that you would certainly be fine without me; but I guess I must have been wrong. Thank you to all the staff who helped with 'triage'; believe me it saved my sanity! Stacia - unfortunately you were only my companion on our 'off days'; I had so much fun, Thank-You! To Hanna: I'll miss you more than words could say. You've become like a little sister to me and I will always remember you...even...when I'm 64. And finally; Shell. You have made my summer! I'm confident that you will set new standards for our little health-hut. Don't lose your nerve either; it's definitely an asset! I'll miss U2 and goodnight!

Water Ski 2000

Camp Kadimah has water ski
I run it, that would be me.
I live with a guy named Leigh,
And people on the banana boat go pee (that's why it's yellow).
We have lots of fun as you can see,
Now give me a boat, then give me the key.
We do almost nothing, so leave us be,
Our seats only fit female guards, Yippee!!

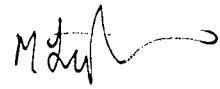

We have the Shag, Porn and J,
Come for a ride and you'll be happy all day.
We'll throw you in no matter how much you pray,
Fully clothed in the water you'll stay (Elli Mandel).
On Le Tube you can relax and lay,
Or watch Armeland make a big spray (All over the parents).
Ask us to go knees and elbows and we'll say O.K.
Until eventually in the infirmary you will stay.

For those who say we do nothing, that's crock,
We just don't run by Hecht's clock.
Lightstone doesn't listen when I talk,
And up to Bensons elbow you'll see his sock.
We sit in the sun and dish out knocks,
But that's O.K. because we're all sexy jocks.
You don't have to tell us, we know that we rock,
So thanks for coming down to our docks.

The Rikud Report

Once again the Pavilion has been the home of the greatest peulah at camp.....and if you don't agree with me, you are in denial. For the fifth summer, I have had the pleasure of teaching the art of dance and watching what many of you have learned over the years and how you have developed. I must say that I am extremely proud. Some of the most gratifying times I have had this summer have been made up of dance requests from previous years and when many of you could automatically recognize basic Israeli dance steps. Even some of the hardest ones, like the Yemenite - you all know who you are.

This summer has marked a very special time, as I remember many of the Macharnics and CIT's as the little ones I used to teach on the happy Pavilion way back when. It has truly been a delight for me to come back and do exactly what I love, in the place I love, with those people I love. For this I am extremely lucky.

Sheldon and Soberman, you have both been so supportive of all of my endeavours at this camp and I hope that I have continued to make you proud. You have both been very understanding during some very hard times and I want you to know that I really appreciate it.

Merav, it has been wonderful to work with you again. Over the years we have become closer and I have enjoyed every minute I have shared with you on the Pavilion.

T.K., I am so glad that you joined us this summer. It has been great getting to know you and you have been a great friend amidst my self-imposed madness. Stay in touch while you are in Israel this year!

Slim, what is there to say? You have seen it all. Your friendship means so much to me, even more than any of the projects we have done together! I owe you so much for helping me develop my artistic side. You have been such a strong source of support and I couldn't have survived this summer without your wisdom and beautiful smile. I love you.

Lephy, I don't even know where to begin. I am convinced that you can read my thoughts and I don't have to continue writing this, but I will. Your friendship is extremely special to me as you are a very special person. You always know how to put things in perspective, and your hugs never cease to comfort me. It has been a tough summer, and without you here, I would be lost. I love you.

Sar, oh Sar. You inspire me. You are such a strong person and watching you this summer has made me even more proud of you than I already am. You are a remarkable woman and a wonderful friend. You always manage to bring the smile back to my face while going completely crazy to dance tunes. Thank you for being so great with me this summer, amidst all of your own stresses. I love you.

On a bittersweet note I conclude this report. I have given this camp my heart and soul and if I do not return, I am hopeful that I have left this camp with a job well done.

Ramaya will live forever.

Be proud to don tartan and denim.

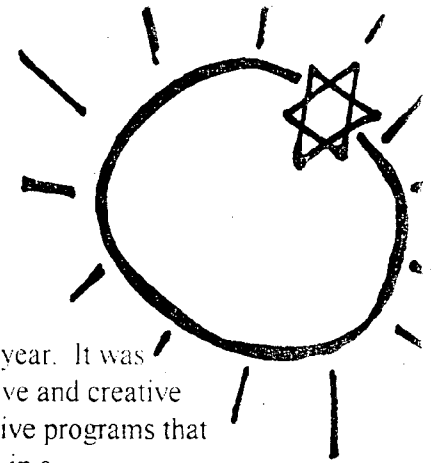

Dance, dance, dance and never be afraid to express yourself without saying a word.

All My Love,

A Summer of Roots and Culture

The Roots and Culture program was new at Camp Kadimah this year. It was designed to help campers explore their Jewish identities through a positive and creative experience. Each week, different staff planned fun, dynamic and interactive programs that encouraged campers to explore the various ways that they can be Jewish in a multicultural world. Together we considered what makes us special as Jews and we spend our time trying to identify and understand parts of our history, heritage, roots and culture. We do so through hands-on activities and games which incorporate drama, art, sports and even cooking into the program. As well, each section participates in a different program, ensuring that the programs are geared to appropriate ages. The Roots and Culture program has taken a new approach to Judaic education at camp and truly allowed the campers to explore who they are.

It was a pleasure to work on and create the Roots and Culture program for Camp Kadimah this summer. It was so rewarding to see how most campers responded to the program, asking for more peulot, in fact. Thank you to everyone who participated in the peulot and I hope that you continue to explore who you are as a Jew. Remember to ask questions and challenge and do not be afraid of experiencing a bit of change... for the better.

I would also like to thank the Section Heads and especially the general staff for their support, creativity and commitment to helping their campers explore Judaism in a most positive way. I knew it would be great right from the start at pre-camp and I was right. You all are amazing people. Thanks for taking a couple of risks with me.

It has been a phenomenal summer that was also enhanced by special programs such as Israel Day, Yom Hashoah, Tisha B'av and everyone's favorite - Shabbat. A big congratulations and thank you goes out to each section for helping to create a special spirituality that is completely unique to Camp Kadimah.

Finally, the latest addition to Camp Kadimah's Shabbat collection is the newly compiled Shabbat Choveret that features transliterations of the prayers said in camp services. Hopefully this booklet has helped many campers and staff who do not read Hebrew to participate in the services.

I hope that you have enjoyed this new experience through Roots and Culture and that you all continue to grow from strength to strength.

B'Ahavah,
(Love)

FROM THE YACHT OF DARCIÉ A. RICHLER, SAILING DIRECTOR 2000

"Can we go buddy boarding?... Can I get my level One/Two/Three? ... I don't want to get wet! ... Can I be in your boat? ... Can I go in the crash boat?...I want a bracelet!... Do I have to? ... Why???"

Well people, the answer is simple. "Y" is a crooked letter. I know that it doesn't really make sense, but somehow, in my little world it all adds up! Kadimah 2000 has been nothing but incredible. Between the beautiful weather, great company and of course, brilliant sailors, the last six weeks have been filled with lots of laughs, capsizes, bruises and talent. I often joke about how nuts you all drive me, but the truth is, I love you all (yes, even the ones who don't pick their noses...and I KNOW that you are lying!!). I hope that my love of sailing (and my nasty habits) have worn off on a few of you. I saw you come down to the docks with no sailing experience at all, and I watched you guys become capable and talented sailors. The games were fun, even if you would not admit the truth!

I feel so rewarded from all of you this summer. The levels have been a hit and the peulahs have been wild. Our boats have been...uh...well...yeah, I guess we should respect and love the Echoes and Code 40s...without them, the summer would just not be the same (heads up...falling mast!). My gratitude goes to so many but there really is not enough room to write to all. Here are some for a start:

Giborim: You guys have proved to me over and over again this summer that gibbies can do just about anything. I love your enthusiasm and your cute smiles. TK- The memories are crazy...remember: no trace living on days off!! Thanks for the hospital run. Goshrim: I love you guys...even though you show up twenty minutes late!! You love to learn and it is a delight to teach. Cabin 8- You are all awesome and I love you all. Lizzie- It's been fun, but remember, I am back to my regular behaviour back in T.O. Confidential to the chicks of Goshrim- I really feel a bond amongst ourselves that I have not had in a section since I have been on staff. I hope that this summer has turned out to be everything that you hoped it would, after all, living on a farm is hard work. Groom sessions live on in all of us! I am going to be very lonely showering after Aug. 11. Kochot: Wow! I have never seen so many keeners in my life. What an awesome section you guys are. I am so proud of the work you guys have done. Cabin 31- What a bunch of studs you are! I love hanging out with you all. Machar: I did not get to see that much of you during peulot, but what I did see was great. I love throwing you guys in the water...it's just too entertaining! C.I.Ts: I am so impressed with all of you. I loved working with you all and I can honestly say that you are the best group of CITS that I have seen in a while. Doron, Alex, and Adam, I can't thank you enough for all your hard work and enthusiasm. You are all going to be amazing staff members...never lose your determination. Waterfront Staff: I know that you can all admit that sailing rocks...how could you not! Thanks for everything. I love the tans. Alyssa and Ruthie, you guys are great. Jana Talia Suchter, Chis and Erika- I love you guys!! Our talks are the best and remember, NOTHING LEAVES THE CRASHBOAT!!

Cookie and Eyal: You are both so hot!! The sailing docks has never had such eye candy for the female staff. Thanks for the hard work and crazy times. Keep your wits about you and your bathing suits on. Long live Alfred the ugly dock spider.

Oscar: I know that there will be a summer that you will mark your territory on Kadimah soil and I can't wait for it.

Alicia: Well sis, I still can't believe that we were in the same place for six weeks together! I do not think that we have ever gotten along this well and I hope that we do not have to wait eight years to spend another summer together. Thanks for the food and major overuse of your toilet (you really need a new seat by the way).

Leigh: You know that anything that I would write to you, I would not be writing for the eyes of many, so BEAR with me. This place has special meaning for our relationship and I love coming back here to remind me about how we started out. Thanks for keeping me sane and out of trouble. Code Elephant.

Mindy and Jordan: You guys have been so nice to me this summer...what's up with that anyways? J- I am looking forward to baking with you in HFX. M- Can't wait to be roommates again at 127 Bromley Ave. Say hi to the Mashiach for me.

Robbie, Marc & Andrew: The Richler clan has taken over. If only Neil and Jo were here (and David/Lauren too, even if he/she is only married/about to be married to Alicia/Neil).

To all the specialists, section heads, staff & campers whom I did not name personally for the lack of space: I will just say that I have loved being with all of you playing and laughing and joking around. You have made my summer the best one that I have had in years and I thank you all for that. You all share this unbelievable love for Camp Kadimah and even if that is the only thing that we all have in common, it is by far an incredible love to have together. If we can all leave this summer with only one lesson, it should be that we should all remember to go to camp for as long as possible. There is no other place like this one and I know that one day around June 23 or so, I will be the most depressed person on earth when I do not go through the gates of this place for six weeks. I hope that you all have a fantastic year filled with success and happiness!

Cheers!

XOXO

SOME WORDS FROM THE ISRAELI "SHALIACH" SAILING SPECIALIST

This summer I was given the rare opportunity to be sent to Canada by the I.D.F (the Israeli army), as a representative of the state of Israel and the army.

For me, the experience of spending an entire summer, in a Jewish camp, with Jews from Canada and the U.S, was an exciting and unique experience, which really gave me some of my best moments.

7 weeks in camp has strengthened my Jewish identity.

For an Israeli, being Jewish is the obvious, the default, you don't have to celebrate any Jewish holiday or attend the synagogue or even eat kosher in order to be or feel Jewish – you just are.

In contrast to that, seeing and feeling the Jewish life in a place that it is the exception, the different, where people make an effort in order to be or feel Jewish, Has widened my point of view about being Jewish and made me feel more Jewish than I was before coming to camp.

Sailing was great this year, mainly because of my beloved head of sailing Darcie

From whom I have learnt so much about new techniques of picking my nose and enjoyed long and intelligent discussions about peeing in the lake.

We enjoyed many windy days and wild tipping drills.

I enjoyed tipping the boat with Stephanie Nightingale in almost as much as I enjoyed throwing various staff members in the lake in especially cold days...

I believe that many kids that have never sailed before, learned how to sail and even enjoyed it and will be excellent sailors in no-time.

5 things that I heard way to many times :

1. Can we go buddy boarding? Pleeeaaase??
2. We are not gonna tip right? I have just styled my hair...
3. Oh My God! That is the largest dock spider I have ever seen!
4. Can we tip the boat? (on a day with winds blowing at 40 knots)
5. Can I go in the crash boat?

I enjoyed every second. Keep in touch -- gavish@inter.net.il

The Vocal Report

Shalom Kadimah Crew!

My third summer comes to an end, and I think it's about time I write a decent report. So, singing all day (or most of it) seems to be a fun thing to do, especially with Goshrim; I love it when you beg for more Hebrew songs!

Giborim learned the "I Love" song with the ice cream, chocolate, strawberry and bags of good things. Goshrim couldn't pass without "Roni" and "Kshe at bocha..." Kochot know the meaning of "Toda" and Machar will settle down soon after experiencing "Kach lecha esha!" As for CIT's, I wish I could see you more often, but seeing you on placement, having you around on Israel Day, and special programs were a pleasure!

Thank you for your help Steph, Jonah, and Tiff- you must be proud. I can't write about my position at camp without mentioning my best colleague/roommate and friend- Me! I couldn't ask for more! Working with you is a blessing! You are always there for me and spending most of the day with you is a delight. Thank you for the late night talks in the Cabin and the smiling faces every morning. Shelby- the queen of craft, I salute you! You are the unbeatable chick! Let me just say, you inspire me in every way. I can't watch the rodeo without you being around. You are one of the people I got really close to and I'm happy to have you in my life. We are going to see each other a lot more this coming year- I can't wait! Thank you for a great friendship and for all the good laughs at "the house." You probably made me come back to camp more than anything else.

Jan & Jena it was fun to have you in the cabin although we didn't get much time to spend together. Sorry that I have never been in the lake, it's not personal. I do love the waterfront, from a distance... have a great year and I'm sure we will cross paths sometime in the future.

The three Musketeers- Benson, Borts, and Polit- you make me smile all the time, it's always fun to be around you.

Benson- we will see a lot of each other this year, save me some room in your place, I'm sure gonna need your support.

Borts- missing you already. Love the late night arguments in the pump. Show some teeth! I hope you know by now that it really turns me on! Call you know how to find me.

Polit- what a character. I know you mean well, but you need to try harder! "Ze lo nachon!"

Julie and Benson- my cheer for the day! I don't think there is anyone else in camp (besides Borts) that makes me smile so much. Thanks for good times together and "love will keep us alive!"

The former CIT's- Ilana, Kayla, Maya, Judy, Robin, and Mariy. I couldn't imagine that I would grow to like you... It was nice to have you around "big ears momy" will always be there for you. Good luck in everything, and don't forget: it's all about the situation!

Spinner! Peulah rocks! We know the meaning of the word "Steve" like no one else. We miss the speedo around. Don't think about running again, stick to the swimming part. Love the way you P E U L A H.

Now, the boys should get some credit as well...

Brian- Mervin made your summer, admit it, you love my crazy faces. Thanks for your company. I'll send the whip and cuffs later on this year. All you need to do is set the time and place. Stay safe!

Ron- "Call me, call me baby, call me anytime!" I really enjoyed those few moments we spent this smmer, talking and dancing. Come visit me, you are only three hours away. Have a great year.

Jonah - My petite shuarma! If I could kiss you more often...save me a seat for the "seder." Love the J-dog!

Matt R.- We could have worked something out on you day off. Oh well, next time. It's just getting better every year... This is the time that will always remind me of you- sweet candy.

Ghost- I guess our relationship can work only from a distance, well it's better than nothing. Take care and I'll see you in Halifax.

Lamperts- Always nice to me (each of you in your own way). Thank you for supporting my Israeli way. Love the judge.

Marty- The music department would never be the same without you...

Belarie- Thank you for everything! We still need to talk!

Aaron Pink- You kept your promise and more! I know I bug you but that's the way you like it! We'll have plenty of time to bug each other in Halifax. Tall women rock!

Erika- Talk to me baby! Love it when you emphasize my R's. Come visit me, I won't be that far this time!

Sobes- It's always a pleasure to work with you cause you're busy all the time! Goose-bay will always have a "warm" place in my heart...good luck in everything!

Sheldon & Freda- Kindness is you middle name! You always take care of me, during the year and at camp. Thank you for another lovely summer.

It has been a pleasure to be at Camp Kadimah. You are the reason for my happiness in the past three summers. I hope you enjoyed singing as much as I did. I have the "Oneg" to say: I love you and as my mom says:

"Special people create good memories out of great moments."

Keep the tune going on!

Work hard and search for the unknown...

Landsports Mean More Than Softball

Kadimah 2000

As camp draws near to a finish, it is hard to believe that six weeks have passed so quickly. Looking back at the road that laid ahead of me, the first day of camp brought much uncertainty and unfamiliarity. The cultural experience that I have endured has been both educational and interesting to me as I am not Jewish and it being my first year at camp. The sports program was my familiar ground and so everything else was a new endeavor.

I first would like to acknowledge my valued sports partner. Without Josh this year, camp life would have been extremely difficult. To Josh, thanks for your easy going manner and approach. Your input and assistance were valued as it was your past experiences that have helped shape the landsports program.

The sports program brought a variety of activities for the campers this year. We tried to accommodate the interests of all, including choice and competitive/non competitive situations. It was evident very early that softball and ball hockey were favorites. For softball, we bow before all of you who could hit the Ulam. This was a quest for many. My quest was to see how many balls I could retrieve from under all of the buildings. Camp suffered only one broken window in the Chadar. Again, we bow to you, those who have left your mark.

The campers enjoyed other activities such as tennis, soccer, ultimate frisbee, dodgeball, soccer baseball, and football, just to name a few. Gaga ball was another favorite. I had to inquire very early, "How do you play gaga?". Volleyball was another hit for some of the campers. Adding lines to the volleyball court settled any disputes that had arisen during any official games.

We would like to acknowledge and thank all of the C.I.T.'s who assisted us in fulfilling our duties. Amy Mendleson, Andrew Segal, Jared Goldlust (don't give him your keys), Zach White, DVD (Andrew Della Vedova), Jackie Pearl, Yair Avin, Josh Nevsky and Adina Herbert. I hope you enjoyed working with us as we did with you.

House leagues were very successful this summer. There were leagues for boys and girl's basketball, boys and girl's softball, girl's volleyball and a Goshrim World Cup soccer league. Some campers had a very full Saturday competing in all sports available to them. Staff was also able to participate in a variety of sports such as softball, volleyball and basketball. A special thanks goes out to the staff and C.I.T.'s who helped run the ever popular house leagues. Dara Orbach, Jared Goldlust, and Zach White for their willingness to help run the Goshrim soccer league. Our thanks also go to the basketball referees who gave up their time to help. They were Josh Levitz, Shosh Kuriloff, Toast (Albert Cohen), Daniel Engel and Daniel Rinzler. With softball, how could we forget Jordan Lampert. Thanks again to all of you. Things would not have run as smoothly as they did.

Summer at Kadimah has brought me many new friendships, expanded my Hebrew vocabulary (which was non existant), established new routines and taught me to fall asleep to the uneven pattern of croaking bull frogs. Thanks to all who made me feel welcome and allowed me to experience the Kadimah way of life. I must not forget my cabin buddies TK and Stacia. Thank you both for explaining, translating and supporting me through the summer. I have had a wonderful summer and look forward to next year.

The Tzofiut Report

Hi Everybody.

"Shalom, ma-nishma?"

Well, this is the end of one more summer that I'm in Camp Kadimah doing "Tzofiut." I like it so much. I like your beautiful country, especially this part (Nova Scotia). The never ending forests and green areas, these huge lakes, the wild animals that you can find so close to the place that you are living in. But most of all, I like to be in camp. I like to teach some knots, and monkey fists and lashings and many other things. I really like to have a bonfire with Giborim and Goshrim. We are eating Marshmallow cookies and singing songs. Don't worry, I didn't forget Keji, the national park. You guys made excellent food, especially for the staff, and magnificent latrines, which me and Joey tried. Kochot, you were wonderful and you got your award but I have to mention that the brave ones were CIT and Machar, who survived rainy nights with bad, wet old tents. (Well what about next year- I don't know, but someone should think about it)

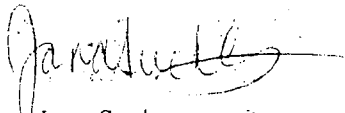

Anyway, it was a great summer and I just wanted to say some thanks. Thank You section heads for good cooperation. Thank-you Lightstone, Raskin, Brian, Erika, and everybody else who helped with fireworks, fire-sings, and all this kind of stuff. Thank you Mr. Lampert for buying everything that I needed, and have a "Shabbat Shalom." Thank you Sheldon for hiring me, most of all thank you campers for helping me, have a great summer. Well that's all for now, have a great year, hope to see you guys again sometime and remember: If you are in Israel or you just want to keep in touch, my e-mail is resh999@hotmail.com. THE WATEWFWONT STOWY

We swam the days away
With Waterfront Staff of 2K
The summer of constant snack
Look at Benson's WATERBACK
Who knows the opposite of popcorn?
I think it was Karen Born
The old white board went for a swim
Too bad Rob Richler won't get in
So we got a new dry erase board
Why is there always an extra cord?
Krista and Danielle are joined at the hip
Jen Herbert's worksheets always rip
Here comes "Where's Waldo", or is that Shaun Pearl?
As for guards, Ron and Lightstone only want a girl
When we rotate, we smack on the behind
Sharon Alexander does sit-ups to unwind
Dave Matthews appreciation, by some was missed
Yesterday at sail, Cook and Darcie kissed
Altman thinks he's head of canoe, ski and sail
But, in reality the one in charge is Eyal
Alyssa can be found on any dock
To learn to paddle find Rosenstock
Sarah Goldberg is very tall
Ruth is not, she's very small
Marci Mosher-Mandel has a long name
Anna Silver is insane
Erika listens to profane music
If she changes the CD again, Jana will lose it
Jen CHISHOLM is a raccoon
At night time you can see the moon
Jana Suchter has O.C.D.
In what order should the flutterboards be?
This is the time to remember
But it will not last forever
Sobes ran over a rabbit, not a squirrel
Thankyou, Goodnight and GOODBYE EARL!

GIBBORIM SECTION SONG

(To the tune of "S Club Party")

chorus:

Gibbys

The best little section in Camp Kadimah

Here to show you all

C'mon shout louder I still can't hear you

Gibbys

Only two feet tall

1,2,3 and

Finally summer's here

Get up on your feet

C'mon let's cheer

Gotta go swimming every day

Gotta do it all the gibby way

Hey

Pillow fighters

Ankle biters

Up all nighters

Enough everybody cause here we go

Chorus

Miniputt tetherball

Get on the banana boat

Just don't fall

Gotta use all your imagination

Gotta have the need for exploration

Hey

T.K.'s doing her thing

Where are the staff

On the swing

Then we got showers

Stay there for hours

Enough everybody cause here we go

Chorus

Put your hands in the air

Cause we really do care

There's a Gibby over here

There's a Gibby everywhere

Gibby boys make some noise

Gibby babes let's see you wave

Gibbys 2000

Dear Giborim Section 2000,

As I sit at home and try to decide exactly what it is I want to say to you, I find it very difficult as you made a huge impact on me in such a short period of time.

All year long I had been looking forward to spending the summer working with a group of children who would keep me on my toes, make me laugh, and put a smile on my face. In the very short time that we spent together, I now know that I am missing out on all this and much, much more.

Campers:

Everyday I thought about you. I wondered what new games you learned how to play, what new songs you learned to sing, who was able to get up on waterskis, what you made in Mel Yad, who learned how to sail, did you go camping, who is your date for the banquet going to be, what did you eat for lunch, how many letters did you get, what did you do for evening program, and most importantly, how are the marshmallows during the bonfires.

I miss you guys and I hope that all of the experiences that you had at camp this summer will be ones that you will remember for a lifetime (or at least until you come back next summer). I hope that you will look back on this summer and remember all of the great things that your counsellors did for you, all of the times that you ate in the candy kitchen, the nights that you stayed up talking to your cabin-mates, playing on the jungle-gym, passing your deep water tests, paddle boating in the lagoon, dancing at the socials, singing around the campfire, and all of the other special things that you did.

I want to thank each of you for being a part of my summer, even if it was only for a short time. You are all very special little people who, in any circumstance, can brighten someone's day. Thank you for the great card that you sent me when I was in the hospital. And thank you for being such good campers for Tamara and your counsellors.

Staff:

You are exceptional!

I can't say thank you enough for everything that you did this summer. Any job that I do, I take very seriously and put my entire self into it. With Crohn's Disease, they say that you have to eliminate stress from your life. Well, when I left camp on that Tuesday night and found out that I would not be returning for at least five days, I started to stress out. But, after countless phone calls to camp, trying to help run the section from a hospital bed, I quickly learned that they probably didn't even need to hire me this summer. Your work with the Gibbies was outstanding from the very beginning and any section head would be lucky to have you as part of their team.

You did a great job this summer and I am only sorry that I wasn't able to see you excel the way that everyone has been raving about. Good job!

Tamara:

They say that everything happens for a reason. And I thought that tabling for Birthright was supposed to be to get Jewish kids to Israel not to New Germany!

I was so looking forward to spending the summer with you. We were supposed to lounge on our balcony in our cushy chairs that in the end didn't fit our ... We were supposed to take a rest period here or there to go canoeing and bake in the sun. We were supposed to hang out and not talk about work. No where did it say that I was supposed to get sick and you were going to have to do my job for me. What's that all about?

I am indebted to you for everything that you have done for me this summer. You came to Kadimah for your first year and shone like the "Superstar" that you are. Thank you for everything.

Love Always

Shayna
xoxo

PS

Sobes: Thanks for letting me cry on your shoulder and giving me my necessary dose of daily Giborim updates. Since we didn't really get to spend the summer together, I guess this means that you will have to see me more frequently in the city. How about I make you dinner?

Sheldon: Thank you for your patience. I really thought that I was going to be back, but the turn of events was something that could not have been predicted. It's kind of like a poker hand, you never know what you are going to be dealt.

Melanie: Thank you so much for all of the sound medical advice. You are an asset to camp that will surely be missed. Good luck on the West Coast. Maybe you will have a "healthy" visitor sometime in the next year. Keep in touch.

Message from the Section Head

A toast to the "best little section in Camp Kadimah" 2000:

In Giborim it's plain to see that all good things must come in three.
With Shayna, Mel and now TK
each Section Head would come to play.
Three cabins play as home to us,
there's A and B now C-plus.
Three different boating groups exist;
Those peulot we sure will miss!

But what makes Giborim complete?
The campers and staff just can't be beat!

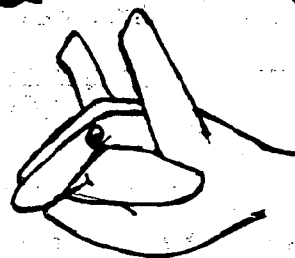

Cabin A at first held six,
and all of them were first round picks!
Carrie, Shira, Rebecca, Hannah, Andrea and Hailey, you kept our section happy daily.
Now that they are down to four;
Staff supervision's hardly a chore.
And to the staff of Cabin A,
What crazy times, we sure did play!
Elisa, Karen, Leah and Krista, at the end of the summer you will be missed-a.
Cabin A is so tidy and neat and their bed time stories cannot be beat!

Cabin B held seven for a while,
each one wore a great big smile.
Hillary, Chelsea, Liora, Hilary, Rachel, Rebecca and Loni, your giggles and funny faces are really funny.
Your wonderful staff would watch you play and make camp fun for you each day.
Robin, Anna, Nicole and Sari,
it's amazing how you were never weary.
Cabin B can sparkle so clean, and the inside of the cabin is the funkiest you've seen.

Cabin C was home to ten but now we have ourselves a den.
Matt S, Eliot, Sam, Little D, Andrew, Jacob, AJ, Eli, Mathew C and Ben were the few, the proud, the Gibby men.
We can't forget who made you laugh,
we had a blast thanks to your staff.
With Michia, David and Cookie too,
our little section was NEVER blue.
In Cabin C we bowl at night, and a tetherball game is always in sight.

Gibbyland is home to all,
where staff, campers and Quiet Coyote have a ball!
Remember now, "it's all about YOU!"
Together we explore what's fun and new.
In Gibbyland there is no pain until you hear: "Oops! I think I did it again!"

Quiet Coyote

Lives in Gibbyland

The facts, just the facts...

I have had the greatest time hanging and playing with all of the Gibbies this summer. As Giborim Section Head for a lot of the time, it has been a most memorable experience. I want to thank everyone who helped to make these six weeks so enjoyable.

Firstly, there is the infamous Shayna Allen, who can claim a lot of credit for bringing me to camp this summer. Shay - we all missed you terribly and wished that you could have been here, but we are glad that you are recovering so well.

The success of this summer truly rides on the cooperation of the awesome Gibby campers (you guys are such a fabulous group of kids!) and the exceptional eleven Giborim staff. To the counselors: I cannot thank you enough for all that you have done to help make sure that Giborim 2000 was a huge success. Here's to the greatest set of staff meetings the camp has ever seen! You are all role models for our campers and you have shown the camp what strength, enthusiasm and dedication can do for a section. Thank you.

To Sobs, my colleague and my friend: how much do I have to pay you...SMD! Just call me The TK please. It's been fun and I'm glad we did this! It'll all continue too, I know.

Sheldon, I cannot thank you and Frieda enough for all of the laundry that was done. As well, Sheldon, you were so supportive and helpful during my transition into the Section Head position. Thanks for it all.

To the girls of Cabin 21 - and then there were three. Stacia and Donna, who also have never been to Kadimah before, you guys were so supportive and fun to live with this summer. Thanks for the laughs, the chocolate, the candles, the ricecakes, the cheesies and the heater(s).

To my loving brother DAVE who helped me feel more at home here in the beginning, and who is still so adored by his old Gibby campers... you smell. It'll be lonely without you next year and I'll miss hanging with you lots..

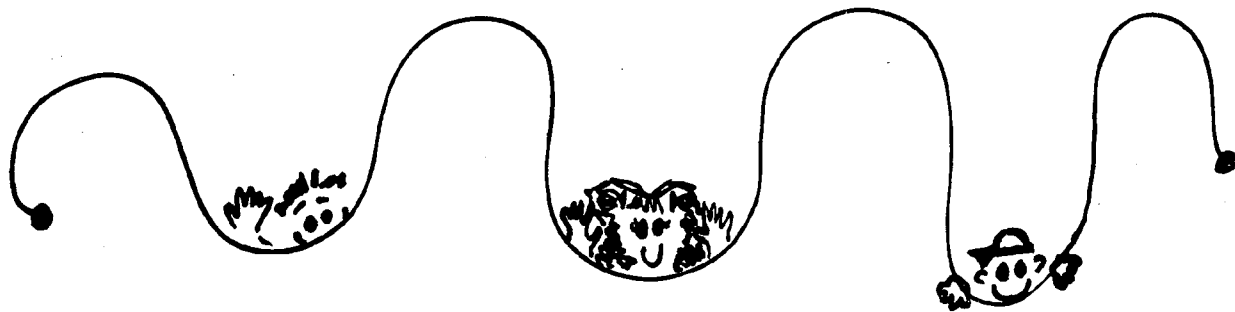

I could never forget the CITs, our neighbours in the Chadar and our friends in our cabins and all over camp. Thanks for everything... we love you! On a personal note, the CIT trip was a highlight for me this summer. Thanks for the great times and remember to "sail on, sail on, sail on Nova Scotia... where the ocean meets the sky"!

Finally, and this is an important one, many will remember TK and her first summer experience at Camp Kadimah, but can you please find out who that Tamara Kochberg girl is anyway?!

Thanks Kadimah, it's been a blast! Good Luck next year and please keep in touch!

Dear Cabin A 2000

By: Shira Strauss

I had a great summer at camp. The 6 of us- Andrea, Hailey, Cari, Hannah, Rebecca, and me- Shira. Hannah and Hailey, that was one canoe trip, NOT to forget! Cari: "the granny game" was one of our favorites. Rebecca- you were always excited and would participate in the next activity. And Andrea- always loved a game of cards. Well, I hope to see you all next year.

Camp is fun. Camp is nice. There is no better place I like to be during the summer where I can see all the happy children. But it is time to go, it is so sad, too bad, and everybody says "Next year at Kadimah."

Camp Kadimah

By Cari Covens and Hannah Rubenstein

Camp Kadimah, everybody likes it. It's the best camp in the world, Camp Kadimah! You should come to this camp because it is the best! It is fun and it is good too! We can do anything to have fun. Camp Kadimah 2000!

I Love Camp

By: Sam Chernin

Camp is great, I love the food. The boys are fun. I never used to get to waterski where I live. Here it is great.

Hi

By: Andrew Richler

Hi, my name is Andrew. This is my second year at Camp Kadimah. My staff are: Micah Tait, David Herbert and Michael Cook. The kids are: Matt Stein, Elliot Fenwick, Sam Chernin, Jacob Damelin, Jacob Stein, Ben Burgar, A.J. Szulewicz, Eli Brown, and Matt Chippin. That is my cabin. My favorite activity is MelYad. Visitor's Day is in 6 days. It is a rainy day! I am in Cabin C. My favorite activity is arts and crafts (Mel Yad). I like camp a lot, it is fun. Three days ago I was in C+ but I got moved in C instead of C+. We made C+ a lounge cabin. Cabin C is fun.

Camp Kadimah

By Chelsea Coppel and Liora Beaulieu

Camp Kadimah is the funnest place on earth. If you don't go, Come! And we have Camper's Choice every day, that's when you get to pick what you want to do. We have 5 peulahs every day but on Saturday you get a Chog at 3:30. We have evening program every night except Saturday we have socials. We have General Swim. Names of peulahs are sports, SI, boating, singing and dancing, and arts and crafts. But don't worry because there's visitor's day. Chelsea is too cool to be true.

Iton Article

By Jacob Damelin

My favorite part of camp is making friends. I have a lot of friends in Machar where my sister works. One day we had a huge waterfight. All the campers were against the counselors. We had the waterfight in the middle of a Maccabia event! I didn't want to miss it. Maccabia went well, and in the end my team won! I was so happy I lost my voice in 5 seconds.

On Visitor's Day me, my sister, and my Mom and Dad went canoeing. My mom almost tipped the boat! My brother saw me play tetherball. I played mini-golf with him. Camp is great in general.

Tetherball

By Matthew Stein

Anna Silver teaches at tetherball. It's very fun to learn. Now I'm very good at tetherball. Before I was very bad and now I can beat the second best Gibby. Tetherball is a very fun game.

Camp

By Jacob Stein

Jacob Stein that is my name. Gus is the biggest snapping turtle in Camp Kadimah. Micah my counselor acts like a chicken. I liked Maccabia. Red, Blue (my team), Yellow, White was the order of Maccabia. All the kids in our cabin are Matthew Stein, me, Sam Chernin, Andrew Richler, Micah Tait, Mike Cook and David Herbert.

An Iton Article for the Masses

By: Krista Byers-Heinlein

Some people come to camp for the food, others for the showers. I come so that I can add another iton to my collection. The book that you are holding in your hands will be the ninth volume in my collection. Who knew? I've already beaten Harry Potter.

Generally speaking, this summer has been one of the most full and enriching yet totally bizarre and backwards I've ever had. Go figure. Many times, I felt as if I was working 12 jobs at once, yet at the same time doing absolutely nothing.

Anyway, this is the part at which I must take the moment to say some special words to some very special people. To the girls of cabin A- I loved being one of your replacement moms. Even though we never understood your bedtime stories, you each showed me that you really are mature but fun little people. To all the Gibbies- I enjoyed being your replacement replacement section head once in a while. Our Saturday bonfires were the best! Shayna- I miss you. T.K- I'm so glad you were there to step in. Just ask Dave- we're family.

Waterback Staff- I feel totally bonded to you guys. I miss rotation and popsicles.

Gila, Marc, and Byron- You made those four days a pleasure. Go team fun!

Dave + Byron- You are my boys! Too bad our camping trip didn't work out. We still managed to have an interesting day off. Truth or dare...

Ms. Danielle Spinner- You are the best! I love you so much-boys, boys, boys. Waterfront 2001- we own it!

To my Co-Staff both Cabin A and everybody else- You guys made my summer. I had so many wonderful evenings chatting it up with you. Thanks to some for teaching me Hebrew, others for giving me much needed hugs and a listening ear- you know who you are.

Have a great year Kadimah, and I'm sure we will be seeing each other again soon.

Goshrim Section Song

Tune: ABC

You went to camp to do things
You never ever tried before.
Swimming, sailing, arts and crafts makin'
And there's so much more.
Now, now, now, now we're gonna teach you (teach you, teach you)
All about Goshies (all about Goshies).
Sit yourself down and take a seat
All you gotta do is repeat after me.

CHORUS (2X): Go-o-shies

A summer of firsts for me
A time to just be me
Go-o-shies
1 2 3, Goshies you and me, kid

I'm gonna teach you how to sing it out!
Come on, come on, come on, let me show you what it's all about!

Gibbie, Kochot, Camp Machar all wanna know what it's like to be
Elli's gonna show you (show you, show you)
How to have a good time (how to have a good time)
So, me, you, and all the staff too,
We'll eat goulash on Wednesday
And dinner's barbeque.

CHORUS (1X)

Goshie is so crazy,
It's like dancing on Shabbat.
Ain't our fault there's no peanut.

Look how great camp can be
When you're a Go-o-shie
1 2 3 Goshie you and me.

AAAH-YA!

(Staff): Sit down, kid, I think I love you!
No, get up, kid, and show me what you can do!

Shake it, shake it, Goshie, come on now!
Shake it, shake it, Goshie, oooh oooh!
Shake it, shake it, Goshie, yeah!

GOSHRIM 2000!

A - B - C

Dear Goshies,

Hi! It's me, Elli, the girl with the smile permanently plastered to her face! It's been such a fun summer, and I've loved the time we've spent together. You've helped make memories that will last forever!

To cabin 5: Wakie wakie! It's time to get up! (clap clap) Between the animal noises and the shmira note deliveries, your cabin was always lively!

To cabin 7: Dick-space pyjamas are our friends! I know clean-up was your least favourite activity, but you girls are so sweet with your surprises! When it comes to cabin hopping, your philosophy must be "it never hurts to try!"

To cabin 8: You could eat off the floor of your cabin! What a way to go! You girls impress me every day with your ability to clean and scrub!

To cabin 9: You've turned rafter ball and tetherball into competitive sports! It's always easy to find a good game-boy game in your cabin. Also, I never knew it was possible to eat so much junk food in one summer!

To cabin 10: I know, I know, all you wanted all summer was female staff! When you weren't busy sending banquet invitations to the Goshie girls, you were trying to cabin hop! I know you guys are always up to some sort of mischief, but that's why you're terrific!

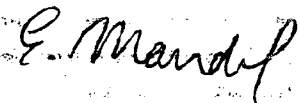

To the Goshie staff: You know the lyrics of our song are so true (Goshie is so crazy!) The best response to any unreasonable request is "meh." The infirmary knows us so well, they should make a peulah called "Goshie infirmary." I think I'm going to scream if one more of our kids gets crutches or the Goshie flu!

To Ron, Mike Lightstone, Jordan Lampert, Reshef, Aaron Pink, Melanie Kazman, Merav, and Alicia Richler: thank you so much for all the times you helped out with the Goshie section. It meant so much to me that you were there with the kids, and I know they had a better summer for it.

To Mark Hecht: You're a great guy to work with and a fabulous addition to the Goshie section. Thanks for letting me vent, and for all your help, especially during the last half of the summer.

Well, it appears that I've reached the end of the page. I'll just leave you with some final thoughts about the section. I firmly believe that Goshies are the GREATEST kids in camp. I absolutely love the laughter, excitement, and even the tears. I adore you guys and I can't imagine having spent my summer in any other way. Take care, and have a fantastic year!

Love,

Elli Mandel :D
Goshrim Section Head 2000

To the Boys of Cabin 9
Mike Stern – Counselor

We had some good times and we had some bad times. We had Sloppy Cucumbers, Flying Cheeseburgers and Talking Bathrobes. Sometimes you yelled at me and sometimes, sometimes, I yelled at you. We survived everyday battles like putting pants on a certain screaming blond child, and the all out wars like the Five day Tetherball Ban. I still can't figure out the attraction of a yellow ball hanging on a rope, but it's calling out to me right now...

Through all that, as weird as it seems, I am going to miss you boys. Some more than others and some less than others but all for different reasons. For all those little moments you made me proud: Throwing a baseball right, passing your "Deeps" and that same blond child cleaning his shelves all by himself.

To Mark and Byron

Thank you for keeping me sane. We made a good team; me doing all the work and you two floating along behind me. Or was that the other way around, oh well. Byron, I hope you can find a way to pay the RENT this winter. Mark, We'll go to the Grawood this fall.

Deep Thoughts of Goshrim
Interpreted by Byron Pascoe

Andrew Feldman – Ever Wondered why birds suddenly appear when you are near?

Andrew Feldman – Stop writing about me!

Noah Manly - Deep Thought? Umm... deep thoughts. Why are there so many songs about rainbows. What's on the other side?

Perri Maxwell – Rainbows are visions but only illusions.

Bonnie Abramsky – Sometimes our cabin smells like smelly fish.

Lauren Flam-Gitman – Sometimes I wonder why our counselors make us wash our feet when we come into the cabin? Maybe it's because our feet smell like smelly fish, like we had for dinner the other day.

Elli Mandel – Why don't we have a Goshy infirmary peulah?

Alicia Richler – I don't have deep thoughts. I'm not a deep person. How can one have a deep thought if one is not a deep person?

Mike Stern – I wonder what a leech tastes like?

Rebecca Besnos – I think camp is great. I love camp. I like Maccabia and watching the House league Baseball and Tetherball.

Noah Borer – I like the stars. I wonder how they got these.

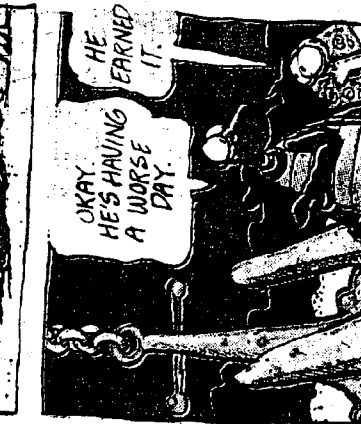

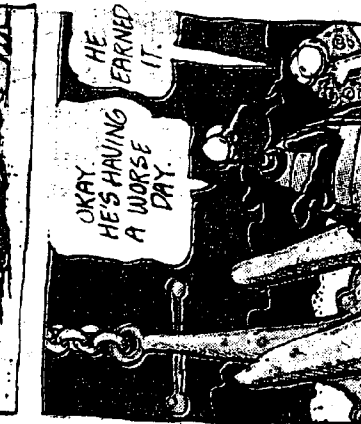

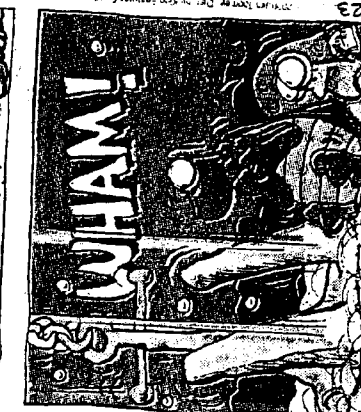

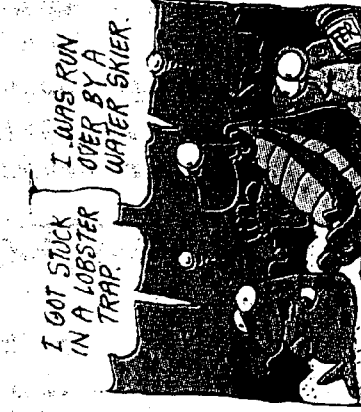

Rachel Switzman – Winning the lottery and cleaning the toilets and jumping on your back. Mustard. MUSTARD!

Danielle Spinner – Sometimes I think the world is completely mad. And then I think who cares. And then I think hey, What's for dinner. Mike Stern is hot.

Byron Pascoe – I wonder

Cabin 9

By Ari Silburt

This is my 5th day at camp and this is my 1st year of camp. I think camp is great and I love Maccabia. I was in a lot of events but my favorite was the 50 yard dash. I beat everyone easy and finished first. I really liked banana boating. I only fell twice. Everyone else fell off twice except for Andrew who fell off four times. It's really fast. I've made a lot of friends so far, but I don't really like swimming lessons. This is the best camp I've been to.

The Lake

By Nicky Frank

Dear Lake William,

You feel freezing cold,
 What kind of stuff do you hold?
 Maybe a sponge or a fish,
 And a 50 year old dish
 You are infested with leeches
 Have some green and peaches
 If you ever get heated,
 Then I'll be seated
 And for once I'll be happy (and happy)

An Interview Between Byron Pascoe and Andrew Feldman

BP- Hello Andrew

AF- Hello Mr. Pascoe

BP- How's the weather?

AF- Just give me some questions

BP- Hold your horses kid

AF- Hold the Ponies?

BP- Yes the ponies.

AF- Don't write this Byron. Just ask me some questions! Is this the Jerry Springer Show?

Jerry! Jerry! I'll call the exterminator.

BP- What's the meaning of life?

AF- Well to Elli it is "GOSHIES" and I quote. To Jon Ben-Israel it is ladies. And to Macharnicks... No don't write that Byron. To me it is - (long pause) -

BP- What's the best colour in the world?

AF- Every colour to every person. Ew-what is that? It's one heck of a big piece of gum.

Shake it to the left. What's that say? What the - no! No!

BP- What's your middle name?

AF- G. I was named after a girl and to accommodate me it's just a "g".

BP- Is it George?

AF- No, it's just "g".

BP- Yes.

AF- Stop or I'll use Joey's crutches as nunchucks. Come out here and look at this piece of gum. I bet if you shot a bullet at somebody it would come right back to you just cause you have a bad arm. And I ain't no proper English. Yes: Just ask me questions.

(In the meantime, Ryan Shusterman started to attack the interviewer with tickles. The rest of the interviewer's homies tried to get "the Beast", Ryan, out of the cabin.)

ANDREW- I've got the beast. The beast is captured. The beast is set free.

NICKY FRANK-Everyone get the beast outside.

AF-Mush! Mush!

NOAH BORER- Keep writing!

AF-The beast is out!

(Over the following ten minutes, Ryan continued to attack the interviewer.)

AF-Byron he's attacking you. Tom hold him back.

NB-Andrew, watch it.

AF-That ends this chapter. Indiana Jones. I guess we're not finishing this chapter. Byron you are an anonymous interviewer.

Tetherball

by: Rachel Switzman

Tetherball is good for the heart. Don't rope it and don't grip it or you will face your doom. Don't rope it or you will get rope burn. You can sit on it too (please take my word for it) please play tetherball with me sometime.

My Favorite Times @ Camp

We decided our favorite times at camp are when we first sleep in, then go sailing. We love sailing probably because Darcie runs it. (Go Gosh Staff)! We like Bama because we can be crazy + wild + we love Alicia. We also love BBQ's because we get to eat outside and they have hot dogs and hamburgers. We love ball hockey and golfing behind the infirmary. ~The End

Dear Iton

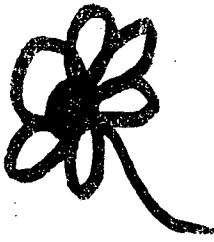

By Rebecca Besnos

Dear Iton,

My camp experience has been great! This is my second year here and I've made a tremendous amount of friends, this year and last year. When I came to camp this year and found out that my friends from last year were in Cabin #5 I was very glad! They have made big changes this year like Haganah night last year Haganah night was after visiting day and Maccabia. The Bochen last year was one of the last things we did, this year it was one of the first! Last year camp food was disgusting, this year it's way better than last year, but sometimes it's not the greatest time to be at camp because sometimes you just want to go home because people can be mean to you! But your councilors can solve the problem- only if you talk to them. The only thing I hate about Camp is the Work Wheel and cleaning because it takes so long and your councilors never ever give you a break when you have a clean area they tell you "Sweep it one more time until it's spotless!" Other than that Camp is great! I love Camp Kadimah from the bottom of my heart! I love tetherball as well I think it's great!

Well that's all for now, Bye-bye and thanks. I love Camp Kadimah always.

Kochot "Section Song" – graduation song

So we got all excited for camp to begin
Brought my favourite sweatpants even though they're not in.
Keep feeling food will never change,
Always saying please for Macaroni and Cheese.
But when we got to swim,
No we won't be going in.
Good thing camper's choice replaced General Swim
And if we, got something that we need to say,
We're gonna yell out loud we won't take another way,
And this is how it goes:

Chorus: For these six weeks, we will cherish,
All the days we spend together,
And as we grow up, coming together
We will still be Kochot forever.

Will Maccabia be tomorrow, will Keji be now,
Can we survive it together, get along somehow
We never thought that we could be on time,
Just try to keep us in our beds at night,
We're gonna rule this camp, we're gonna rock this place
Peanut Butter, you won't find a trace,
We won't, we won't let our spirit die,
Now it's time for Kochot to fly,
And this is how it goes:

Chorus: x 3

Kochot 2K

Kochot Section Song – Kochot Baby

Yo Kochot, let's kick it!
Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo x 2
Kochot baby
Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo x 2

Alright stop! Gather round and listen:
Kochot are back with a brand new section,
Stacia, has a hold of us tightly,
Playing tetherball fool daily and nightly.
Will we ever sleep, yo, we don't know,
Turn off the lights and we go,
Cabin to cabin we'll be hopping like rabbits,
Will we make it over or will shmira nab us.
Dance! We're gonna rock the socials
Down at the waterfront, we pull a no show.
Keji! When we like to get dirty,
We're Kochot and we like to get flirty
If there's a problem, yo we caused it,
We stole your beat Machar, now let's pause it!

Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo x 2
Kochot baby
Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo x 2

Now the chadar is jumpin',
With our plates all stacked and our hearts all thumpin'
Quick to mifkad, to mifkad no talkin'
Foolin' Machar with the sound we're rockin'
Burning them, staying slick and simple
We go crazy when we get a pimple.
Hit the Ulam, with some juiced up softballs
We got the flow, it's time to go loco
Swimming, in a lake so cold,
Even if we hate it, we go in when told,
With our staff on standby, making sure we aren't dry-
Does it work? No, but they still try.
Move on, to tzofiut and shirkud
Roots and Culture, boating, sports and melyad.
We do it all fool, so all you give it up for K2K.
KOCHOT RULES!!!!!!

Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo x 2
Kochot baby
Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo x 2

KOCHOT 2K!!

Kochot 2K - What's behind the name...

Yes...I'll be the section head for Kohoot? Kohot? Coohut? Ah...you pronounce it Kochot. I think I'll have to practice that a few times (right Sobes?). It's true, I couldn't say the section name correctly upon first learning that I would have the pleasure of leading the 12-13 year old section at Camp Kadimah. I would soon find out that the root of Kochot is Koach which in English, we all know, means strength. What's really in a name? Well, here's what I found...

Deep within the depths of Kochot lies the sweet smiles of 63 campers and 20 committed staff, that have gathered from near and far. More specifically, as near as Mahone Bay (Cameron Hall and his chickens) and as far away as Lee Hacham (from the Holyland). Something miraculous has brought us together...could it be the ruach or possibly the camp food? I know...it's a common need to be with old friends and to meet new ones.

As a first timer at Kadimah, I have found a wonderful place to make friends. Some of those friends include the infamous Kochot Back Street Boys (Oren Wigoda, Mikey Fox, Daniel Cohen a.k.a. DC, Ryan Borenstein a.k.a.. Ryebread, and Jay Goldberg -with a little more facial hair than usual). Their show stopping performances will remain a gem in Kadimah history. How could the Back Street Boys have performed without their trusty bodyguards namely Cam Hall, Jason Snow (with his gigantic salami), Bram Maxwell and Brian Waltman. Producers/agents/counselors Jordan Benson, Mike Borts and Mike Polit can be contacted to book the boys for a local camp talent show near you. However, you might only get a hold of Benson and Borts cause it's usually tough to find Polit. (Polit, I told you I'd get you back for that birthday dunk in the lake and yes, I know that you'll haunt me the rest of my life).

Should your taste in friends lean more toward the mysteries of the universe...please enter Cabin 28. Daniel Washburn may yell at you that he's not descent but he'll eventually let you in. Prepare yourself for Wizard's (David Zatzman) and David Wolpin's world record toilet paper roll collection, Max Rose's funky comforter, Jeremy Matlow's awarding winning acting and singing (that will some day be discovered), Adam Levin's hidden laundry that allowed him the honour of best bed for Shabbat inspection and Aaron Washburn's EVERYTHING EVERYWHERE!!! Although a little late in the game, David Ben-Israel has easily joined in the fun. David Kochberg and Sam Gauzas have somehow made sense of these little mysteries of the universe and have learned to smile while rolling their eyes in both directions. Hats off to you boys.

Has anyone got Imodium...ah, I think you can find some with my friends in Cabin 30. My little Brad Halfin, endured a summer with tummy aches, but always managed to find a smile at the end the day. Daniel Engel endured a broken bed and a broken window but never once broke a sweat over our six weeks together. He's just naturally cool. Shaun Pearl, the leaning tower of power, stuck with us through thick and thin. And, how could we forget Mr. Blue Bird who still remains on the shoulder of Cabin 30. Eric Goldberg has given a new meaning to live performances at Camp Kadimah, always leaving his audiences guessing for the next step. And the lovely Blue Bird Backup Babes who complete Goldberg include Josh Spatz (yes, your shelves are perfect), Sam Silburt, Jacob Posen, Jeff Mikelberg, Jesse Ganz, Nathan Budd and Jamie Saperia (who I'm convinced will be the next Picasso). And although Jordan Shusterman was not a BBB Babe and does not swim during SI, I know he can do both if he wanted to. Cabin 30 is, and will always be, the nut free cabin of Kochot 2K. Good night boys and Schluffie Buffie in the Bunzie.

My lovely ladies in Cabin 34...can I get you cheese and crackers...or maybe Zoodles and soup? I believe I could create a game called Cabin 34...it would entail answering 100 questions within a five minute period of time. I'm sure that it would be a close tie between the counselors (Rachel Fischler, Mindy Lampert, Kyla Rudnick and Ilana Kirsh), who always put a heroic effort forth to make their girls happy. Oh, how I will miss Ali Ciabotaru and Tanya Connor-Green's "Staaacia, could I...may I...can you...pleeeeeeease!". And, I'm sure that they will miss my "I have to think about and get back to you". Jessica Margolian's crazy nighttime dances and Aviva Silburt's graceful performance in Material Girl, will stick in my mind for years to come. Hey..what's that hanging off of Sam Levy's neck? Oh, it's her snake flashlight. Becca Silverhart, who I want to buy shares in Kleenex for, Bonnie Phillips who always gave me bedtime hugs and Mieka Lewis with her silky pajamas that were bought in the USA, all contributed to the livelihood of 34. Lee Hacham who came late to camp and remained late for just about everything, will continue to be loved by all. And, a special smile to my walkie talkie buddy, Hannah Zatzman, for keeping me company over the radio waves. Girls of Cabin 34 have definitely added a certain spice to my summer.

How many creatures really live in Cabin 32? We'll never truly know...Don't worry girls, I'm not only a section head, I'm your personal exterminator too! I applaud both Shira Levine and Genna Schnurbach for their bravery and patience while I messed up their beds to do the dirty job. While I was taking care of the unwanted visitors, Elana Epstein, Sharon Alexander, Alyssa Borenstein and Jordana Lazar did a great job taking care of the aerobics queens (namely Erin Kizell, Barbra Airst, Sarah Ickowicz, Samahra Zatzman and Nash Fransblow). Where ever did you get the energy to do 100 crunches before bedtime? The other Picasso in our section, Natasha Budovitch, has made all of her cabin mates proud with her drawings for Kegi, Maccabiah and the Eiton. Your mark will literally be left on Kadimah's history. Shayna Fried's aerodynamic tetherball skills never cease to amaze me and Gingi's (Alyssa Byers-Heinlein) sky rocketing energy levels first thing in the morning continue to boggle the mind. If Tanya Baggaley were a food, she'd definitely be molasses...slow, sweet and messy. Upon reflecting back on my friends in Cabin 32, I will always remember your lovely morning smiles. P.S. Don't forget Girl Power S.F.

And last...but certainly not least...Cabin 33. How can one possibly describe the levels of laughter that ooze out of every wall in this bunk. Of course, most of the laughter is Darah Gaum imitating my laugh. Dar, you are a crazy gal but I love ya! Karen Born...whose enthusiasm is contagious and whose fake tattoos graced many Kochotnik arms, ankles and shoulders will be remembered fondly for both her curly curls and priceless smile. Hands down, Ruth Manly gets the best bed and shelves out of any of Kochot staff and staff in general. And my rock of Gibraltar, Julie Rothschild deserves a huge thank you for her help and guidance along the way. Oh how these counselors love their girls. Lena Rubenstein can be relied on for her many inquiries (but not too many), Orlee Rose Strauss for her cute ways, Stefanie Covens for her outstanding pitching, Leora Koral for her huge smile and Erin Feldman for her quiet strength. But that's only one side...the Libfeld twins (Tamara and Nicole), thank you for always being cheery. Joanna Gryfe, Marci Sweigman and Hailey Gladstone, have always shown a natural leadership that will be greatly missed next year in Kochot. In short, the ladies of Cabin 33 rock.

So...that's what you can find behind the name Kochot. And as I look upon the many section awards that grace my cabin wall, I know that our name couldn't be more fitting.

Thank you to my excellent staff for their commitment and enthusiasm. Even in our days of exhaustion, you never let me down.

To my campers, the memories you have given me are truly priceless. Although I'm here to supervise your activities and make sure that you are safe and sound, I have also found that you in turn have taken care of me too. You added a richness to my life that will not soon be forgotten.

A very special mention must go out to our Kochot Keggi Captains, Alyssa, Eric, Nathan, Hailey, Samahra and Jay for their incredible spirit and enthusiasm. You guys were amazing!!!

It has been a pleasure working with the Kadimah senior staff and specialists. Thanks for your patience as I learned the ropes of camp life.

To Mark Hecht, my fellow Ottawan, I applaud courage and dedication to ensuring only the best for Kadimah campers.

Nurse Mel...you are truly the sunshine in everyone's day including mine. I'm glad that we had the chance to hang out. Best of luck in Victoria, B.C.

Thanks to my roommates and fellow first-time Kadimers, TK (Tamara Kochberg) and Donna Duggan for commiserating with me on rainy days. To my third roommate Shayna Allen, although you weren't here in person, you were with us in spirit. Everyone wishes you a speedy recovery.

Sheldon and Marty... thank you. Although I'm a new comer on Kadimah soil, you made sure that I felt at home. And yes, I now know what happens on a rainy day. It has truly been a pleasure working with both of you. Thank you to Freida and Beterie for your friendly smites.

To my dear friend Michael Soberman, who allowed me the opportunity to experience a Camp Kadimah summer, I thank you. Your friendship over the years has been a constant that I'm grateful for and your faith in me has always been appreciated. It has been an honour working with you (even though it was really for you). You're the best Sobes.

And so I end this Kochot Eiton article with one final thought...

Although we have "graduated" from a summer at Kadimah we will always remain KOCHOT BABY!!!!!!

What I will miss about camp:

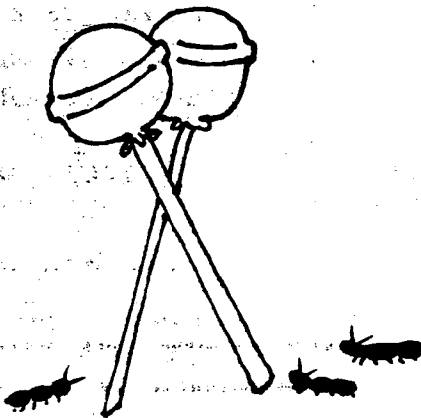

By: Natasha

Well camp is like a special place that will always have a huge spot in my heart. Here are some things I will miss most: Having a slumber party every night; Barbara and my fights; Mikey's guitar; Sam's guitar; drawing on 31's porch; I'll miss my talks with Elana Epstein. Watching Shayna go through 50 outfits a day. I'll even miss playing Allioupe to see who clears at meals. I'll miss everything. My friends I'll always love, out times we spent together I'll cherish. You'll always have a place in my heart 4-ever. Go Kadimah!

Millennium 2K

by: Natasha Fransblow

Dear Camp Kadimah 2K: It's been a pleasure to be able to come back for my 5th year, the 1st year of exciting new millennium. Second year Kochot is great. I've made lots of new friends, and the improved schedule 2K is going a lot better than last year. Machar day, Haganah night, and Hityishvut have all passed; and now we are on to another 4 days (3 and a half days) of Maccabia. I am on the white team, and we are having lots of fun while winning at the same time.

I do have a few complaints though. Kitchen staff: if you know that most campers like chocolate chip muffins the most, then why don't you just make more of them? I just don't understand. Also, I don't like Camper's Choice. I think you should offer the activities, but not make the campers go if they don't want to.

Y2K

Councilors are awesome, and cabin 32 rules! (not the cabin itself, but the girls in it)! Alyssa Borenstein wants me to say that she is the best councilor. So I will.... but it's not true. They are all great! Alyssa, you are still a good councilor. Thank-you Erin, Sarah, Barbara, Samahra, Genna, Tanya, Natasha, Shayna, Alyssa B.-H., Sharon, Elana, Jordana and finally Alyssa Borenstein whom I love, for making my summer so special so far. Have a great year everyone/ Love, Natasha Fransblow. Better known as Nash!

Maccabia: There are so many things to do in Maccabia. For example, sports, swim meet and regatta. Sportsmanship and spirit are 2 of the most important things because of all the excitement and fun it brings. Banner, song, and cheer are things that you can choose to do. And Bama lets your acting side show through. Love your neighbor as you love your self is this year's Maccabia theme, and at the end we will all smile and beam.

by Sarah Ickowicz

When I started thinking about my Iton article this year, the first thing I asked myself was, "What do I want to leave with this camp when I go at the end of the summer?"

The Best Prank Ever

By: Lena Rubenstein

The best prank ever was done by the Kochot section towards Machar. It all started when our section wanted to change the tradition of Machar singing their section song last. Then, we figured that it wouldn't work out properly and some councilors didn't think that it was right. So the prank changed. Our councilors played the little game of capture and copy. We then had the section song of Machar. Then our councilors thought of the idea of singing the first verse of their song and lead it into Kochot's new one. Machar's song was to the tune "Under Pressure." Kochot's song was to the tune "Ice, Ice Baby." Both songs having the same background beat. Anyways, Kochot went through with the plan and Machar was extremely mad at us. Then they decided to play a little prank on us... They stole our shoes from our cabins and put them in a pile on second base on the main sports field. We know that we crossed the line and when we belong to camp Machar, we will realize that our section song becomes our world, where we express all of our emotions. But for now, our names will go down in history for pulling the best prank camp Kadimah will ever see, and I am proud to say I was part of it!

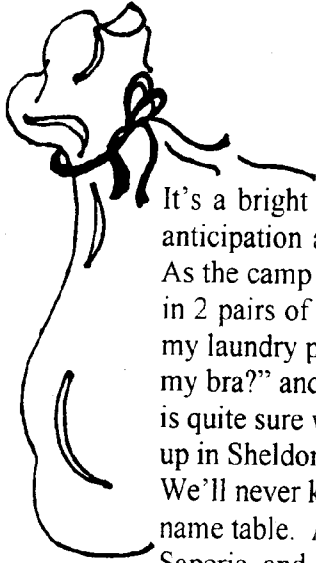

p.s You do crazy things when you are under pressure...

By: Ryan Borenstein, D.C., Ilana Kirsh

We are sitting here July 27th, 2000 on the porch of Cabin 31. We don't know what to write for an article so we thought we'd give a report of what we see. Jeff walks up in his green pants and steals D.C.'s hat. Mickey is playing his guitar while Marli lays on the floor. "Owe, Mickey hit me in the head with his guitar," Marli cried. D.C. noticed that Tanya was under the cabin. Dave & Becca are having a debate over whose socks are whose, (they are both saying the dirtier socks are theirs). In the mean time Tanya is saying "It hurts if Jay punches me!" Oh my, she just slapped Snow! Wizard keeps running in front of us, back and forth, back and forth. Bonnie and Aviva are sitting on the porch of Cabin 34, and Ryan just noticed the ants are marching 2 x 2. D.C. thought he saw a guy waving across the lake, and wait, Mindy just called Borts to the office for a phone call. Benson just came up and asked us if we were writing articles. Why is Shayna under the cabin, thinking there is a door under there? She actually thinks D.C. wants to go under the cabin. The funny thing is that he does! Well that's all for now, we hope you're having a great summer!

Laundry Day

By: Daniel Engel & Jamie Saperia

It's a bright and sunny morning at Camp Kadimah and there's an air of suspense and anticipation as all campers and staff wonder whose laundry they will get this morning. As the camp unpacks their laundry they think to themselves: "how could I only have sent in 2 pairs of underwear and 3 pairs of socks?" You hear things across camp such as "In my laundry package I got only 1 item of clothing that was mine!" or "Where the heck is my bra?" and "don't touch me there..." but that is a completely different story! Nobody is quite sure where their clothes are. Maybe people are thinking "What if my things wind up in Sheldon's laundry?"

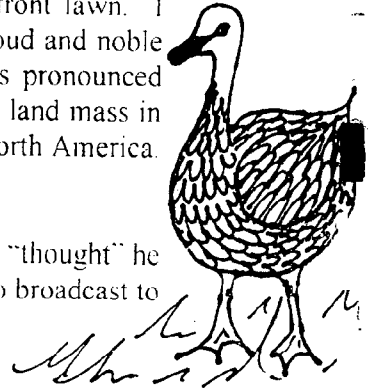

We'll never know why some things that have names (very clear names) end up on the no-name table. Also, we are very perplexed how the laundry people mix up the names Jamie Saperia and Jackie Soicher. Still, laundry day remains to be the favorite day for campers and staff alike. And as for the clothing that never gets cleaned...the Salvation Army is forever grateful!

I Am Mahonian

By: Cam Hall and Mikey Fox

I'm not a hillbilly or a hick. I don't live in a shack, poop in an outhouse or own a tractor. I don't know a Bob, a Jack or a Dick from Mahone Bay, although I am sure they have nice haystacks. I have a bay, not a lake. I speak English and Hebrew, not Yokel. I pronounce it "Florida" not "Florada". I can proudly keep geese in my front lawn. I believe in not slaughtering and vegetarianism and that the big is a truly proud and noble animal. A sucker is a lollipop, and a four-wheeler is a tractor, and it's pronounced Mahone Bay, not Mahoon Bay, Mahone Bay! Mahone Bay is the smallest land mass in Canada, the first nation of headless chicken races, and the coolest part of North America. My name is Cameron Moses Templeton Hall, and I AM MAHONIAN!!!!

Explanation: Cam is from Mahone Bay. Anonymous people from our cabin "thought" he was a hick because he lives in a small town. So we made this commercial to broadcast to Canada, to show that he is not a hick and it is not a hick town- AMEN

Wizard's Yearbook: Article on "Maccabia Hockey"

By: Wizard

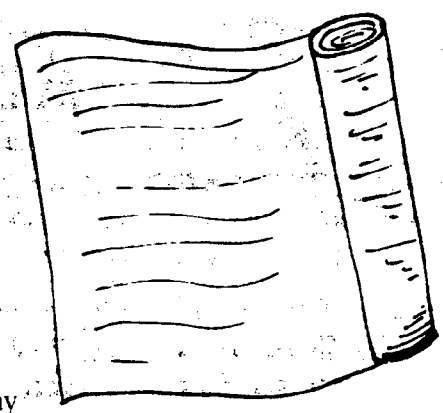

This year in Maccabia I was on White team. Everything was bad except for ball hockey. It rocked! On my team were: Jeff Mikelberg, Jesse Ganz, Charles Shanbaum, Oren Wigoda, Adam Levin, David Ben-Israel, and me. Our first game was against Blue team. We scored early and won 2-0! Against Red team, man we kicked butt! 6-1 victory! Yellow team was hard! It was 2-0 for yellow when I scored a goal! But we lost 4-2. That's a 2-1 record with 10 goals for and 5 goals against! So what's next? HOCKEY MARATHON! (but when you get this Iton, it will be over).

Freaky

By: Ilana Kirsh and D.C.

GRE

There once was a guy named Antziminer.
 To some he couldn't be finer.
 But his family could do without him,
 Against them he committed a sin.
 He chopped them up into bits,
 And then they threw big fits.
 He hates the colour green,
 Because his leg wasn't clean.
 Now little campers are scared of him,
 Because he has a big fin.

The Day

By: Rye Bread & Ilana Kirsh

One day Ryan and Ilana were sitting and unpacking Ry's clean laundry. They started talking and Ryan turned to Ilana, pulled up his shirt and asked her what she thought the strange red line across his chest was. Baffled, Ilana remembered a strange bruise that had appeared earlier on her arm. They rocked their brains as to where their injuries came from. This is what they came up with:

1. Leech attacks
2. Borts beating them in their sleep
3. Aliens
4. Gus attacks
5. Over excitement from Maccabia
6. Ryan running into a tree
7. Been there forever and only realizing now.
8. D.C. attacking them with bananas
9. Cabin hoping incidents
10. Laundry accidents

Hityashvut 2000

White team you did a great job. We had a lot of spirit and a great song. We kicked butt in banner and adaptation to theme. We didn't win but that's ok because we had a great time. It was really close even though we had the least amount of people and the biggest space to clean. I really enjoyed being your captain, you guys rule!!!!

Love, your captain Alyssa Byers-Heinlein

White Team: The official uncensored report form a Hityashvut Captain. Hityashvut was fun this year. There were three teams instead of two and my team, white, had the smallest amount of people but we had the most fun. Our banner and name were awesome, "Time's Cloak". Me and Alyssa had fun and even though we lost, we still kicked some Red and Blue butt... Good job White Team.

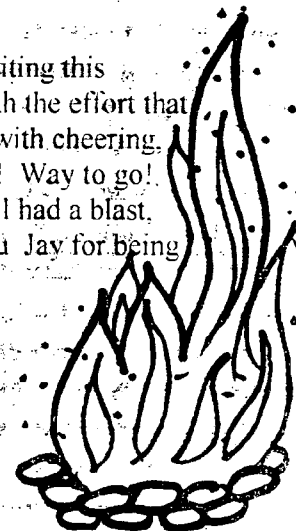

When I was a Hityashvut Captain

I was a Hityashvut Captain! It was hard but fun at the same time. I had a small team, but a great co-captain. Good job White Team. Eric Goldberg

Red Team: Hi, I'm Jay Goldberg. This year I was chosen along with Samahra to be Kedji captain 2000 for the Red Team. This was the greatest experience that I've ever had, with the best team ever. We came in second place. I'd like to thank every staff member for laying in the tents all day. Congratulations to the Blue team for showing excellent sportsmanship, and the white team for never giving up. I couldn't leave without saying thank-you to Jeff, Bryan, Jordan, Rye Bread, for the wonderful toilet. Erin x2, Samahra, Jackie and Barbara for an excellent song. Thanks to Marci, Nicole, and Becca for the awesome banner. Last but not least to Snow and Rye Bread for the excellent hot dogs. And to anyone else that I have forgotten, I thank-you. Well, bye for now, I will never forget the wonderful 24 hours that Kedji 2000 was alive for all of us.

Red Team: Okay everyone I never thought that would ever be the one writing this article, but I'm so glad I am! Being a captain was amazing, especially with the effort that red team - Holders of Time K2K- Kedji put in. You guys were amazing with cheering, working as a team, sportsmanship, and especially picking up that garbage! Way to go! Banner was amazing, even our... well um... song. Anyways, I know we all had a blast, the food was really good, and in the end I really lost my voice. Thank-you Jay for being an amazing co-captain. Red Team YOU ROCK!!!

Love, your captain Samahra Zatzman (A.K.A. Sam)

Blue Team: First and foremost we would like to thank Blue Team 2000 for a great Hityashvut. You guys were very co-operative and your ruach shined until we were #1 ! You made being a captain very enjoyable. We would like to say that being a captain isn't all fun and games. It is a lot of work, but it is worth it because we all had a blast, and to top it all off, we won!!! Thanks for lots of memories,

Love, your captains, Nathan Budd (96-2000), and Hailey Gladstone (99-2000)

MACHAR

WRITTEN FOR US, OR WRITING IT NOW: YOUNG INDIVIDUALS DISCOVERING OUR DESTINIES BOOM BOOM BAH DAY EAT IT UP HIT YASHV UT, DESIGN YOUR DESTINY, RIDE A DREAM, TAKE
THE ROAD LESS TRAVELLED. I
SEE YOUR TRUE COLORS SHINING
THROUGH LAUGHING CRYING
DREAMING, FEELING TOGETHER
WE ARE NOW ONE MACHAR
AS TOMORROW WE ARE TODAY
MACCABBIA, DAY OFF, MACHAR
PAY HEAR OUR SPIRIT, CAMP
MACHAR OOMPA LOOMPA
FEEL THE MAGIC OF A TOUCH OF A HAND: SOME-THING INSIDE THAT ONLY WE CAN UNDERSTAND. THERE ARE
SMILES AND TEARS AND LAUGHTER
HOLDING US AS ONE WHEN WE'RE APART IF YOU'RE LONELY JUST REMEMBER AND YOUR THOUGHTS ALONE CAN FILL UP THE ROOM IT CAN HOLD YOUR HAND WHEN YOU'RE ALONE IT CAN LAUGH WHEN ALL IS SILENT IT WILL BRING YOU TEARS WHEN YOU'RE AT HOME WITH THE VOICES AND THE FACES
So long my friends, I'll see you soon...

Camp Machar Section Song 2000

Tune: "Under Pressure" by Queen

Do do do do do do do x 4

Boom boom ba day x 3

Two thousand

Brought me here with you

Brought you here with me

Camp Machar.

And somehow

Now our paths have crossed

Is it fate or chance?

Camp Machar.

Boom boom ba day x 2

Eat it up x 2

CHORUS:

We're finally here to figure it out

Written for us or writing it now?!

Fortunes may be undone

We are all striving to paint the day.

Do do do do do do do x 4

Sometimes you're right, sometimes you're wrong

But we'll push on through, and move along.

CHORUS

Snaps x 4

I take off my mask, you can see me

The time is short, but it's all right

We are standing here before you

We are Camp Machar

As one, one!

Learning and feeling and laughing and sharing

We're roaming and snorting and quoting and changing

Our madrichim will show us the way

We're young individuals discovering our destinies

This is ourselves.

Two thousand (Do do do do do do do) x 2

Dear Camp Machar,

Picture it: June 30th 2000 – the first crazy Friday night at Camp Kadimah. Although many of you are still sitting with your seat belts securely fastened aboard Air Technical Difficulties, the rest of Machar is in the RCC dancing to the oneg Shabbat tunes. Once all of camp is seated, a delirious person comes to the microphone and introduces herself. Tingles surge through her body as she gazes out at your faces and says, “Hi, I’m Sarah Damelin, and I’m Rosh Machar.” And what a moment that was. A moment where I knew that I was about to embark on an adventure, face a personal challenge and experience a summer which was destined to be incredible.

So, young individuals discovering destiny. . . I’ve loved learning and feeling and laughing and sharing and snorting and quoting and changing with you. You are a talkative, a VERY talkative, but loveable bunch. You may not be so good at number off or buggy duty, but you are strong leaders, sweet friends, good listeners, obscene comedians, beautiful artists and talented individuals. Each of you has given a part of yourself to Camp Machar, and that is why our summer has been so meaningful.

Your dedicated group of staff played an enormous part in strengthening the meaning and spirit of Camp Machar. Oh my goodness, I am so lucky that you chose to play together in our section this summer! Matt Ross: I’m happy you shared your love for music with us, Rob: You are the cutest Regis I’ve ever met. Although you may sing “Not getting any, not getting any”, you gave our section lots to think and smile about. Josh: Cabin 14 is beautiful, no matter what anyone else says. Sorry about X-Man . . . how about dinner and a movie? My treat. Matt Craig: You are the weirdest and kindest M.C. Machar has ever seen – gotta love 4th year senior bunk staff! Toast (sorry your new name is not iton friendly): I can’t tell you how much I love watching you play with your kids, your goofy sensitivity is the cutest . . . and there is no one else I’d rather share my best friend with. Rinzler: My most responsible staff with the most peulot off. Thanks for the new addiction. Hopefully by the time you read this article, I will be a fellow master of the Rubik’s cube. Rach: Thank-you for understanding me, loving me and being my councillor. Hooray for McGill – I’m super excited to resume our Monday night dates. Jenny: The joy in your eyes and heart livened the section – you are a stellar cuddler and a hysterical sleepy woman. Marci: the cutest oompa lumpa ever . . . your laugh is contagious and I can’t think of another person who takes getting picked on by everybody so well. Jodie: Your organizational skills were so helpful and your compassion and love for your campers is truly inspirational . . . Shosh: Thank-you for leading by example, for making it your mission to make our experience a hard-core Camp Machar one. Maya: You see . . . you did make a difference in the lives of these 14 and 15 year olds, all of your nervous excitement payed off in the end. Jeremy: Perhaps I have shared something very personal with you and your best friend. In that case, I hope you enjoyed the show. Your gross humour really came in handy this summer and so did your ability to be serious (you proved me wrong). Carly: My most positive roomy. I am still convinced that Lincoln was a figment of your imagination, but the programs and ideas that also came out of that same crazy brain were wonderful. Now go eat some chocolatè. Jilly: How much do I love you, let me count the ways . . . You are such a strong, beautiful woman with an endless amount of energy for this place we call home.

To three women whom I love in the truest sense of the word: Steph, Kaz and Tif – You are my core – the most intriguing women with the deepest hearts – the greatest best friends I could ever have. Camp has only strengthened our friendships, and I look forward to the moments we will share in the rest of our lives.

So Camp Machar, if there is any piece of advice I can give you it is this: Take the road less traveled . . . make mistakes . . . learn and grow from them . . . continue snorting . . . find who lies deeper than the reflection in your mirrors . . . spread your talents, strengths and goodness . . . thank you for teaching me the meaning of life and making me realize that we cannot teach each other anything, we can only help each other find it within ourselves.

Love Always,

Sarah Damelin
Rosh Machar

A Note From Jerome

Right now I'm lying on my bed as a wave of exhaustion sweeps over my body.... Oops excuse me it must have been something I ate. Wait a minute this is no way to start an iton aritcle.... GALASTICO!!!! That's better.

2000 has been an interesting summer, 105 macharnicks, who are compulsive snorters, and who have a pension for buggary. Hold on I've got a great game – let's see how many macharniks we can fit into the hut at Keji. There's still two more weeks left in the summer, but already I can tell things are beginning to collapse into place.... The summer began with a bunch of disparate souls, but now at long last, we finally have a section. The first years are beginning to appreciate what Machar's all about, and the second years are showing some hardcore leadership – Giddyup!

And now for the roll call.... Matt Craig – Matty I love you boy. Whether it's in the city watching shimmy make an ass out of himself or at camp watching one of our kids make an ass out of themselves, it's always fun to be around you.

Josh Levitz – Two summers together, what can I say? We tied in that “face competition” but I know I'm better looking, don't worry.

Rob Richler – my classmate! It's been a pleasure getting to know you this summer and I hope we hang out back in K-town.

Dan Rinzler – Danzler you really impressed me this summer... you went from a man who hid from his feelings into one who's thoroughly comfortable with his sexuality.

Toast – Criotch!!!! [that is all]

Rachel Mendleson – Last year on the first day of camp you gave me a hug, but I wouldn't remember who you were. After two summers however I can honestly say I won't forget you again. You rock the show!!!!

Jen Herbert – Jenny, I never knew how funny you were. I mean I always suspected it, but man.... You are the most reliable person I've ever met. Anything that needed to get done you did.

Jody Zimmerman – Hey Frosh! You were awesome this summer, but you looked so funny in your rain gear at keji. 2) I'll see you this year.

Marci Mosher Mandel – Triple M, my Jonah replacement, why count sheep when we can count ravens? Why count ravens when we can count constipated old men?

Maya Kesler – one “s” in Kesler, I finally got it right. You really improved over the summer and you eared the kids respect. Way to go Slugger!

Shosh Kuriloff – Well I lost Gabe, but I found his clone. You are a dynamo. I told you that you made Toast and my “list” right? Good luck at Boarben this year, keep in touch.

Jill Zuckerman – The oops are back! I’m writing this while you’re still in Toronto, so I’m going through some serious “Gillian” withdrawal... I need you back!!! You did an amazing job this summer and sometimes I just had to stand back and say Shmo?

Sarah Damelin – we may have had differences of opinion; but I know I was right (just kidding). You really stepped up and ran a kickass section. Did you know Sarah backwards is Haras?

Matt Ross – My co-counselor... whether it was cuddling listening to jazz. Composing erotic tales set to music, we always managed to have a good time. You were such a punk when we were in Macher, but now I consider you a friend so keep in touch.

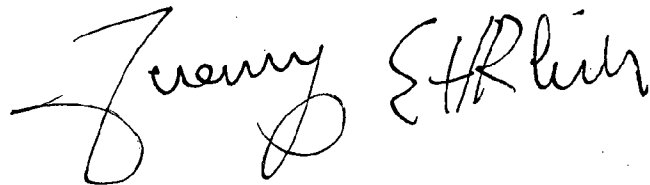

Carly Guberman – Damn I’m a lucky Guy

For the first time in 7 years I’m not sure I’ll be back at Kadimah. I’ve grown up here; from a short, bald – eagled Macharnik to a short senior staff member... I met my girlfriend here, I met one of my best friends here – it’s been quite a ride.

Love Jeremy Ehrlich 94-2000

P.S. Jonah, I didn’t forget you, you hook – nosed mofo

P.P.S. Aaron you have only been here for two days, but I’m happy you came back. You are attractive in an unconventional sense.

Dear Camp Machar this poems for you
To ensure the memories of the summer stay true.
Being S'gan was loads of fun
Therefor I would like to thank you but I can't mention everyone
('Cause that would take too long)
So, here's to the staff who gave everything they had
To a section who deserved never to be sad
They played and laughed with you guys all day
And only complained when you wouldn't listen to what they had to say.
They were there in the morning and they put you to bed
They were there during the meals to make sure you were fed.
Our staff our awesome I'm sure you all know
And I would like to thank them all in a row.
Sarah Damelin has been great you see
She is funny, caring, and likes to hug me.
She listens and laughs to all of our jokes
And I must say that I love her folks.
Jeremy I've known for quite awhile
He obviously knows how to make me smile
His thoughts and opinions I'm always all ears
For I've respected him all through the years.
Carly and I are quite a mix
We went to Billy in 1996
We say we love one another
I love her like a sister and maybe like a brother.
Matt Ross and I were like Jill and Jack
But once in Machar I dropped him on his back
(he was okay)
It's so great to hang out with him for another summer
If he wasn't around it would be quite a bummer.
Rob Richler is new and he's been great
His sister was my camper in 1998.
He made me a pen with colorful string
And I thank him for that 'cause that's a hard thing.
I've spent many summers with Joshua Levitz
And learned he like Karate and to be called Jevitz
I eat with his fam on visitor's day
And would like to mention I love him in every possible way.
Matt Craig and I were captains you see
Last year we lead a team to victory
All around he's a real funny guy
You should get to know him, don't be shy!
Mr. Toast and I have been in the same section before
And when we were younger he was never a bore
He's got this talent that never smells
And gets kids out of the cabin with his famous yells
His first name is Daniel but no one calls him that He's known as Rinzler or the guy in the Wendy's hat
He sits at the same table each and every day
But that doesn't bother me, 'cause we all love him anyway.
Rachel I'll miss you so much you know
You're my angel and my friendly shmo
Thank you for your hugs whenever they were needed
And all your advice that was feeded
Jen is the type to write notes on juice boxes
I don't think she likes mice but she might like foxes

I love her energy and I think she is great
I also had her sister as a camper in 1998
Marci Mosher lives in cabin three
She's the one with gum on her pants and likes to say Hee Hee
She explains to us that every party has a pooper
But that's never Marci 'cause she's always super duper.
Jodie is very good at art you see
She did the Macabia banner with lots of creativity
When Friday night programs come about
Jodie does it and chooses not to pout.
(Yeah Jodie!)

Shosh and Maya I must thank you together
Because if it weren't for you I'd be crazy forever
Maya you're like a sista
So in the city I won't really miss ya
('cause I see you all the time)
Shosh my dear what can I say
You're energy and spunk helps me out everyday
I certainly will miss you through out the year
But lets keep in touch and I'll sing you a cheer
To Cabin 2.5 I want this to rhyme
Thanks for a great summer and a SUPER good time
I'd like to say to Machar it was sad to go for awhile
But when I came back all I could do was smile
It was so great to see all your wonderful faces
Although I missed your day off and all the fun places.
I would now like to mention someone out of Machar
Who is 100% amazing by far
His name is Jonah and he is my rock
Without him this summer I would be in shock
His shoulder has been there for many years
Through all the laughs and the tears
I thank you so much Jonah for all that you've done
You're truly amazing and are a special one.
So Machar let's hear one last cheer
Good luck to you all and see you next year.

Love ya lots,

Jillian

JILLIAN ZUCKERMAN

S'gan Rosh Machar

SONG WRITTEN BY A MACHAR PROGRAM DIRECTOR
Tune: CALL ME AL (Paul Simon)

Doo Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo Doo

I started this song in pre-camp
Now I'm determined to get it done x2
So now here I go
Macharniks are bigger than Goshies
It's been a nice change
Thank you all for these fun summer days
I said, Macharniks, Macharniks
Know how to make me smile
Pull up a bead and we'll talk for a while
We said, "Destiny, Destiny
It is what you make of it
Be the master of your fate..."
It's the year of the YIDD

CHORUS:

"Tell me is it in the stars or do we find it in ourselves
Doo Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo Doo
Camp Machar was brought together
If it's chance or if it's fate only time will tell
Doo Doo Doo Doo
Doo Doo Doo Doo"

I'd like to tell you a little something
About a few people I know x2
And so here it goes...
Toast's got a talent I'm still waiting to hear
Marci's putting gum in Jeremy's left ear
I said, Rinzler, Rinzler
Have you got a question for me?
Rachel, you've taught me how to take it easy
I said, Robert, Robert, we're "not getting any in Machar"
Josh and Craig, thanks for Saturday bridge sing-along

CHORUS

Jillian Zuckerman
I have 3 words for you x2
They are "I love you"
But say them in a funny voice
Maya's got a black belt
Matt Ross plays a real mean guitar
I say Shosh, Shosh, sorry for putting you on bama
And Jen Herbert, get your own *@#!$ sweatshirt
I say, NOT ME, NOT ME,
This goes out to Aaron Pink
Thank you for being my very own invisible friend

CHORUS

As I finish up this song, Jodie
Thanks for being there to count on x2
Sarah thinks positively
We must remember the good times
13 good years have flown by
So thank you Kadimah for teaching me to laugh at tears (ha ha)
And then there's Jeremy, Jeremy
All I can say to you is that BUKU AND PALOOPPOO NFL 2000 RULES!
Well that's all now, that's all now
One last quote of the day:
"Don't worry about the world coming to an end today,
It's already tomorrow in Australia..."

Love always,

Carly Guberman 1987-1995, 1997-2000

Dear Camp Kadimah,

Well, as this will inevitably be my last summer here on Kadimah soil, as more than just a visitor, I feel it necessary to finally write a proper Iton article. I never thought that I'd be the one to take the time to do this, but here goes nothing...

Over the past eight summers I have met many special people, many of whom have left impressions on me that I will forever hold close to me.

-JOSH LEVITZ- Josh, you were my very first friend when I walked through the gate in '93 and we have been best friends ever since. You are a master athlete and a very intelligent, levelheaded person. You will always be close to me even if we aren't living in the same city together.

-ANNA SILVER- Well Anna. Its odd to think that the first time that we really encountered each other was when you were mocking the death of my pet rat. Since then we've become extremely close and I don't think that I know anyone who is more like me but of the opposite sex. I'll always be there for you. The only thing that I wish unto you is happiness! I Love You! South America here we come.

-MICHAEL B. SOBERMAN- Sobes you are the big brother I never had. I really look up to you. Your wisdom is truly inspirational to me. I will always be Pocket Monkey #1. And don't ever forget...W.A.D!! Expect to see me a lot next year because whether you like it or not, I'll be there!

-JEN HERBERT- Jenny...the one person who never, ever forgets my birthday. You are always able to make me smile. I only hope that we can see each other more often this coming year. You are the best grape game partner. You are very sweet. Don't ever change. MENTHOS ARE YUMMY!

-CABIN 28 of '98- Jordan, Altman, Ron and all the boys. You all inspired me to sing more often, you all gave me the confidence. I'll always remember my first year as a counselor. Long live Ron Jr. "When you wake up in the morning to the sun's yellow rays..."

-CABIN 15 of '00- All I can say is... You guys are crazy!!! If anything, you guys have probably made me much stupider but I've had a damn good time. THE COW MUST DIE!!! Televisions are the greatest and, oh yeah, "Shut your @$%&* face, UNCLE @$%&*"

-JEREMY EHRLICH- you have shown me the lighter side of being a bunk counselor and therefore made my job a lot easier. You are one of the funniest people I've ever known. MUNG is disgusting and the t.v. is one of the greatest additions to the cabin you ever could have thought of. We have the best cabin in camp. By a long shot!

-JILL ZUCKERMAN- I hate to remind you but... Remember that time at Keji when you dropped me on my back and I couldn't move for a while. We bonded!! Jill, even though we may have grown apart I still love you very much and I really treasure your friendship.

-KEIVER CALP, STEVEN INDIG and ROB MATLOW- Even tough you may never read this, I fell that is necessary to give credit where credit is deserved. KEIVER-If it weren't for you I would have never picked up a pair of drumsticks. You were my very first drumming hero and anytime I need a boost I just remember when you used to call me "Stud-Arse". Drumming is my absolute passion and I have you to thank for that. STEVE- you taught me to always have faith in myself and to never back down. You've always been one that I've been able to open up to and I will always feel a close connection to you. MATLOW- you taught me that I can get away with almost everything. Sorry about the eyebrow! You were my staff during the greatest summer of my life, KI'98. It wouldn't have been the same without you. This year we'll chill.

-STOGEY BOYS- Josh, Rinzler, Benson and later Toast. I'll never forget you guys. Our PEI missions were the greatest. I love you guys! Enough said.

-TIM BRAUDE- Last summer I drafted you under the advice of Sobes. Mistake? Maybe but I'm glad because we became amazing friends. You are my little brother. Anytime you need me, I'll be there.

-ARINN RYAN- Well, needless to say, sparks didn't fly this summer but nevertheless I still hold you dear to my heart. Although we may not speak as much anymore you know more about me than most and we have shared some very exciting moments together. The only thing I can say is ... I like Tennis! I hope that we can keep in touch this year. I would love for you to come visit me in Toronto.

-MACHAR STAFF of '00- Josh, Rob, Jodie, Rachel, Shosh, Matt, Toast, Marci, Maya, Jenny, Rinzler, Jeremy, Carly, Jill and Sarah. It's been a fun ride. The gum was gross. 1-2-3 Kosher Meat. Keep on rockin in the freeworld.

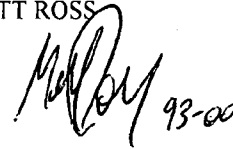

I will end by saying... Camp Kadimah is the most wonderful place on earth. Treasure its site, its people and its scenery. I hope that one day I will return. I know that I may have left out some names, but for all of those who I forgot, you know who you are. I will end with two quotes.

"Human kind's greatest mistake was doing nothing because he could only do a little." Anonymous

"Yes, there are two paths you can go by but in the long run, there's still time to change the road you're on." Page & Plant

PEACE & LOVE,

MATT ROSS

P.S. Long live the bed of no opinion!

Dear Camp Machar,

Now it is probably sometime during the school year and you have decided to look through your Iton. And for some unknown reason you have stopped to read my article. Or perhaps it has been a year or two since "Machar 2000" and you're reading this to remind you of times that once were. Or maybe you have just received your Iton and are rooting through it for the first time. Whatever the reason, it doesn't really matter, I'd like to say thank-you to all of our 105 other campers and our wonderful staff. This summer was one of the best! To my friends and anyone who knows what these notes mean:

Sharon: your existence in this world causes suckiness. Wherever you go.

Menara: your drawing is amazing! Yes it is! Don't tell me it's not!

Josh/Menara: I'm sorry but I just don't understand what those words mean!

Sonny: No Menara, Jason and I never finished our debate.

Those who knew me well- Phruikakes of the world, Unite!!

Sharon: you suck (Just kidding)!

Everyone: "I am a chicken!!!"

Camp Machar- they may take away Rod, but they may never take away our friendship!

Anyhoo, I guess that is enough little notes to you all! I love you all!

Love, Samantha (Phruitkake) Smith

Dear Camp Machar:

I have only been coming to camp for 3 years which seems like nothing compared to my cabin mates. Despite this I have enjoyed myself fully at Kadimah. I came to camp knowing 1 person very well. I was excited and nervous because everyone knew everyone here. Now though, I can safely say that when I come back to camp every summer I have friends here to greet me. This is my last summer as a camper and it is so hard to believe how fast time can go by. I want to thank everyone who contributed to my summers that made them so wonderful. To 2 ½ : I love you guys and I'm never going to forget our erotic and danceful nights. Remember that Mara isn't here right now, but Toby us. Where my dogs at! Tushy, Tribal dancer, big bird, retarded animal game, super....I would go on for ever mmkay.

I love you all, love always,

Mara Chernin

Dear Camp Machar,

105. Think of that number. Try being friends with 104 people all at once. From my experiences this summer I have learnt that you can be friends with 104 people, but not necessarily be as close as you want. This summer brought me great new friendships but also tore me away from the closeness I shared with others. Machar teaches you to open up and find the real you. Well, Camp Machar, the real me is saying that I love you all. I may not always show it but I do, please don't forget that. Through the good and the bad I'll be there for you, never doubt it. Machar brought me here with you, brought you here with me. Cherish it.

Love always and forever,
Jenn Rosen

Machar

By Andrew Spinner

Hi! My name is Andrew Spinner and this is my seventh summer at Camp Kdimah and my first year in Camp Machar. I have always seen and wanted to be in Machar since my first years as a Gibby. Machar has turned out to be everything I wanted it to be. Since my summer has been so special, I must thank a few people.

My Staff- you guys are such cool staff. Thanks for helping me have such a great summer.

Jon Greewald, Gabe Stein, Cliff Fleiser and Jon Born- Before I came to camp I was kind of scared because I thought the second years in my Cabin would kind of leave me out. Well, I'm glad to say that I was wrong. You guys helped make my summer something to remember.

Eli Burnstein, Eric Abrahams, David Gruber, Adam Armeland, Brendan Rosen- Even though we weren't in the same cabin this year after being in the same cabin for up to six years, we still managed to keep our friendship. Keep in touch.

Jenn, Jenna, Stacy, Shira, Cara, Carlie- I have become better or best friends with you all. I am glad you guys were there if I had a problem or just wanted to talk. I hope we can all keep in touch.

All new Macharnicks- I hope your first summer in Machar was as great as mine turned out to be.

Max- I am really glad that you came back. You still know how to make me laugh when I really need to. I hope we can visit each other as much as we did last year. I love just chillin' or playing basketball. BFF.

Farkas, Levinson, and Ludman- I am glad you guys were in my cabin. Even though we weren't with the rest of the boys that we have been with, we still had a fun summer in my eyes. Love you guys.

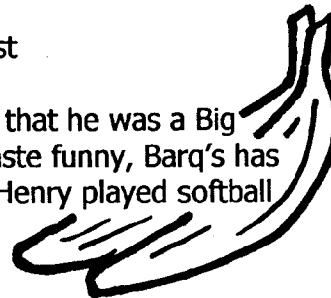

If I've missed anybody, I'm really sorry. Don't take it personally. But thanks to you guys too. Anyway I want to end my article saying good luck to everybody in school and thanks for a great summer.

Salty Toast

By: Suchter, Henry, Saperia, and Toast

It is now our letter/iton writing peula. Toast just admitted that he was a Big Geek. But now he isn't. We love Toast. Some bananas taste funny, Barq's has bite. Jamie suck her micky lollipop and squirrel meat, and Henry played softball today. Yay! Lesley's hair is ugly today because it was all in braids last night but not anymore. Birkenstocks are better than Naot but Toast's Zellers "sports" sandals top them all.

Note from editor: very creative guys!!!

Dear Camp Machar,

This is my second year at Camp Kadimah and it has definitely been a blast, from talent show to being a Maccabia Captain, to ending every day with Rad HaYom. I will miss everything about this summer: Cabin 2 ½'s inside jokes, talking on the porch, hanging out in the section, and of course, snack! To all the first years, cherish your time here. Make Machar as special to the first years as we did to you. To all the second years, wherever you go and whatever you do, I will always remember you, and I hope we'll keep in touch throughout the years. May the bests of your pasts be the worst of your futures. To Cabin 2 1½ you guys are super!!! But leave my cookie crumbs alone! You are an amazing, enthusiastic, and fun group of girls, and I couldn't have asked for a better cabin. To White Team 2000 (or United Pulse)... we had fun!!! Need I say more? And lastly to Camp Machar, you have shaped me, touched me, and taught me to let my true colours shine through. You were always there for me when I needed you. I will always remember you, treasure you, keep you in my heart and love you. "I always knew I'd laugh at the times I cried, but I never knew I'd cry at the times I laughed."

Love,

Gila Sasson

Dear Camp Machar,

This is my eighth summer at Camp Kadimah and this summer is by far the best. I'm in Cabin 2 ½ and I couldn't have asked for a better cabin. We have all become so close and I'm sure our friendship will last through the years. I have made some of my best friends here at camp and it's so sad to see them all go home. I will miss you all and good luck during the school year!

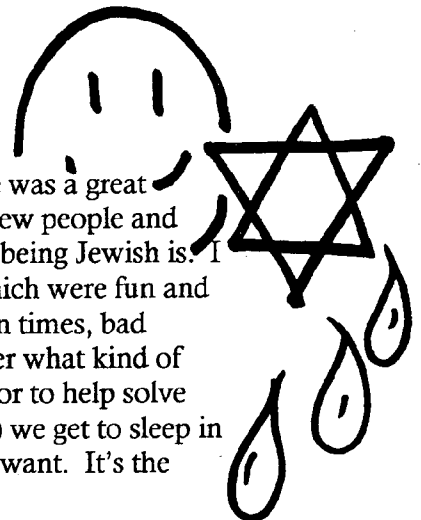

Love Always,

Diana Wolfson

Yet Another Letter
By Bryan Strasberg (Patty)

Dear Camp Kadimah/Machar,

This is my first year at this camp. I believe that coming here was a great choice for me. I've been enjoying myself since day one. I've met new people and made new friends. This camp has made me realize how important being Jewish is. I enjoyed all of the programs. There were a lot of good programs which were fun and quiet programs which were sad. There were a lot of good times, fun times, bad times, sad times. I think there were a lot more fun times. No matter what kind of time it was there was someone to comfort you or to join in the fun or to help solve problems. Saturdays are the best days at camp for a few reasons. 1) we get to sleep in 2) It's house leagues all day 3) we can shower as many times as we want. It's the greatest day ever at camp. For those that are coming back have a great time and for those that aren't coming back here have fun with whatever you're doing. And good luck in the future.

Love,

Bryan Strasberg (Patty)

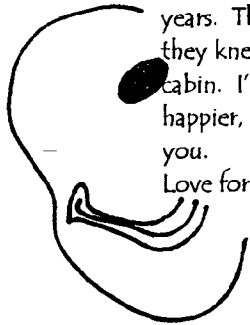

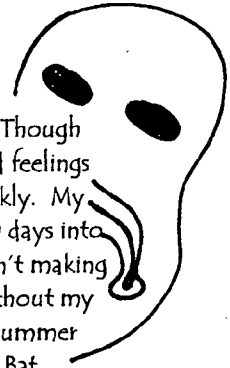

Surprise!!! Another letter to Camp Machar!

By Emily Platt

Dear Machar,

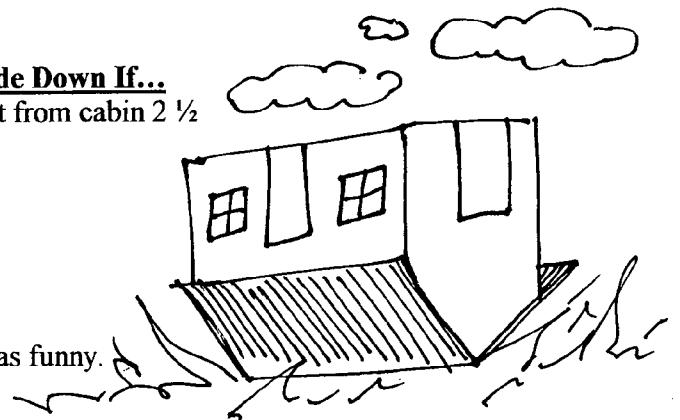

I don't really know what to say here, but I do know what I like to read in the Iton. Though surveys and polls are fun to read, I think Machar is more deserving of real, true thoughts and feelings on the summer. It's my third year at camp and when I think about it, it's gone by very quickly. My first two years at camp were pretty hard to get through. In 1998 I came with my brother. 10 days into camp he broke his leg and had to go home. I didn't want to stay at camp any longer. I wasn't making too many friends because I was very shy, and I couldn't imagine staying another 4 weeks without my friends and family. But I stayed and ended up making a few good friends and having a fine summer after all. Next summer came along and I was getting very nervous about coming back. My Bat Mitzvah was coming up two weeks after camp and my dad was very sick in the hospital. I decided I would come back. When I arrived, I got placed in the same cabin as the year before and was extremely happy with that. The summer was better and I made a few more friends, but it wasn't anything wonderful. This school year went by extremely quickly. I had ups and downs, and needed a break from my everyday life. This was the first summer I was really excited for camp. Machar seemed like such a special group of people. I remember being in Kochot watching the Macharniks walking arm in arm singing, completely being themselves. When I got here, I was feeling a little intimidated by the second years. They all had their close friends, they already knew how to do buggy, the words to the rug song, they knew everything. Plus, this would be my first year at camp being split from the girls in my old cabin. I've met so many people and I am having the summer of my life. I don't think I've ever been happier, had as many memories, or personally grown as much as I have this summer. Thanks to all of you.

Love forever and a day,
Emily

Aviva never was Ms. Fix-It

Yoli never talked about Bad Love

 Rachel wouldn't be an ostrich
 Lauren wasn't obsessed with a certain Brian Carson
 Val cleaned her shelves
 Esther had straight hair
 Dana loved getting massages
 Amy didn't like "the police speaking" ...
 Andrea didn't have F.O
 Maya. K would wear tight shirts
 Shosh was a bad athlete
 Jill would like Donald Duck
 Renee never complained

Dear Camp Machar

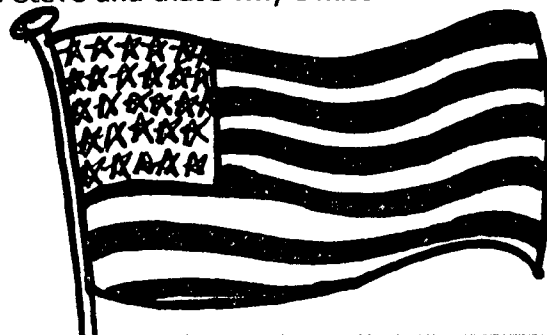

I'm so glad I finally have the chance to express all that Machar means to me. I think that Camp Machar is so special, but to every person in a different way. I came to Kadimah worried that I'd have trouble making friends, and would have to change myself to be accepted as part of the unit. I couldn't believe it when I discovered it was the exact opposite. In Camp Machar we were encouraged to express ourselves, and let our individual personalities shine through. We were a large unit, but every one of us was treated as an equal, and recognized for their talents and strengths. Thanks to the awesome staff and amazing unit we had, my time in Camp Machar has been the best of my life. Good luck to everyone during the year and I hope to see all of you back next summer.

*Love,
Maia Rotin*

I Miss Steve Indig

By Joe Ben Israel

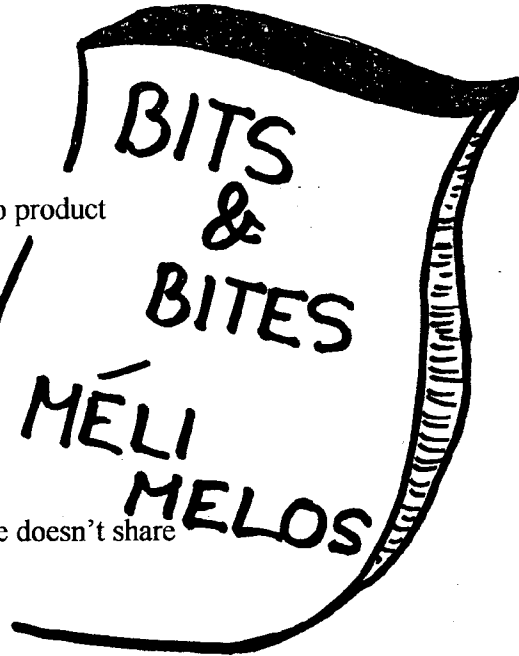

Steve "Indig was the greatest male staff emmeber ever. I met him in Giborim on the bus for a trip to a far. We are all (everybody on the bus) so bored. In lieu of that, we decided to sing every song we could thing of. Spontaneously, I decided to sing God Bless America, and Steve joined in. From that moment, I knew that I loved him. At the end of the day, we were engaged. So when I'm 25 and he's 35 we're getting married. I love Steve Indig and I really hope that I see him after camp. I love Steve and that's why I miss him.

Why I Love 2 ¹/₂
By Melissa Jones

Joe: You are funny as heck and I will always remember staying up late with you that night...
ROLE CALL! I love you Mr. Cripple.

Arielle: Thank you for doing corny nature crap with me like stargazing and Keji Walks. You are such a great friend and a really nice person.

Amy: You are so adorable! I love that 'rough' face you make, it's so cute. Thanx for lending me your clothes and caring about me when I'm upset.

Steph: We are fat we cannot lie! Haha just kidding. I love eating with you and dancing with me and making fun of each other with you.

Jill: Ar Ar Damonica! You are such a great counselor that I can trust with everything. Tell Damon Ar Ar Van Damme I say hi.

Diana: I have known you and been best friends with you forever. It's our last year as campers and I'm so glad I shared these years with you. Remember tubing and Rububa too.

Mara: Hi Poopies! Mooooove ahead and take your dreams along! I love you with all my udders and you are one of my closest friends. You're always there for me and I appreciate that so much.

Esther: You are such a sweet girl who has let me dress you up and borrow your clothes. Thank you sooooo much.

Renee: Pleeez erase the memory of my appearance in Gib from your mind. I love how you are so opinionated, funny, and loud.

Elana: You can kick anyone's butt. You are such a strong person, not only physically but mentally. I admire that in you.

Maya K. You are one of my favorite counselors. You are funny, real, caring, and non-hypocritical. Thank you for putting up with me and standing up for me.

Aviva: Your little brother has walked in on me in a bra several times, so sorry about that. But you are really really sweet and nice and have a wonderful personality.

Maya R.: When will my reflections show... I enjoyed listening to you sing. You have a lot of talent and have a down-to-earth attitude to go with it.

Gila: Congrats on being Maccabia captain! It was a great honor that you truly deserved. Thank you for the massages, you should seriously be a masseuse.

Andrea: Hey Narfy Narf! I missed you not being on my side of the cabin but my Mr. Hanky doll kept me company. Thanks for being a great listener who truly cares.

Valerie: I'm very happy for you and Jonn and how you had something genuine. This is my 4th year being at camp with you and I love you very much. Keep in touch again!

Shosh: Thank you for running with me and waiting for me as I lagged behind huffing and puffing. I'm so glad you were my staff this year because you are so sweet and funny.

Sarah: I hope you ate all your food on the right day according to your calendar. Good luck in figure skating and... "That's when I'll stop loving you!"

I ♥ 2 ¹/₂

Rachel: I hope you had fun running to the General Store and then finding out that Shosh won't let us go in. Have a good year because you deserve the best.

Hailey: I can't believe you got your voice back from Maccabia. You definitely helped our team win. You are always welcome on our side of the cabin. I love you!

Dana: You are extremely sweet and always try to keep others happy. You always have a smile and make sure others have one too. Stay the same!

Lauren: You are an adorable girl. Thank you for letting me put eyeliner on you and for letting me do your hair. I hope you liked your first year at camp.

Yoli: Hey cutie! Even though you have a bony butt, I still love you. Good job on being a DJ in Baby Got Back. Have a good summer in second year Machar!

The Meaning of Machar

By Menara Simeone

It's hard to explain what Machar is like to someone who has never had the fortune of experiencing it. Machar could be described as six weeks of togetherness or soul searching, but that doesn't sound quite as appetizing as Machar really is. Sure, it looks like we do the exact same things as the other sections- go to peulah, have buffalo hunts and compulsory rest period. But the closeness of this unit makes every moment enjoyable. There are many things that make Machar unique (not counting that we are the last ones to be quiet at meals and the first to complain about activities.) But this uniqueness is not always the first thing to be noticed about this group. Oh... what a group. A team. Being part of the largest sections in camp has its ups and downs. I mean learning a hundred and five names plus remembering your own can be quite a challenge. But conquering a challenge together, helping each other along the way is the most tremendous award. Machar has cabins just for sleeping, they don't divide us up. That would be impossible. Every Macharnick is an individual, we don't look the same, dress the same or think the same, but we always manage to come together in times of need. When one person needs a shoulder to cry on, all come to one's aid.

But all this, is just one persons honest hear-felt opinion of what Machar is. You'll have to wait until you are in Machar yourself to find the true meaning. Next big questions is the meaning of life!

Toast got naked as he handed each one of the Fembots a chocolate cigarette, as they exploded. It was the funniest act ever in the history of camp. Toast thought We should Mention that he had to pin his boxers. Toast looked really hot that night (Renee and Joe speaking). Toast was so awesome and we just wanted to tell everyone how much we love him. See that Toast? Well, we don't just love you for your cuteness, we love you for who you are. Toast you're awesome! My Iton Article

By Jon Yazer

Maybe Maccabia...no. That would be too obvious. What about Hityashvut? No, its too "passé". Hmmm. I wonder if... meh, that would probably be rated R. Now that I really think about it, it's quite difficult to come up with an Iton article topic. Maybe some tunes would help me think of an idea. Ah, Goldfinger, good music, but doesn't help me concentrate. The Peppers aren't helping either...The music idea isn't really working. I'll try asking my fellow cabin mates for ideas. That didn't work, they're as clueless as I am. Wait a sec...I've got it!!! I've already written enough for an Iton article! While everybody else spent time coming up with article ideas, I just wrote what was in my mind. This should be a lesson to younger members of camp; don't spend time thinking about stuff cause it rots the brain, like Cherry Blasters and soda pop. Speaking of which, I'm pretty thirsty. Well, I geuss I'm done now.

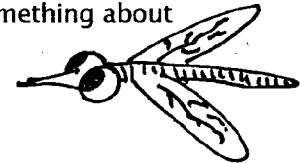

P.S. A quick sentimental message; all 105 of you mean the world to me...make that around 115 to include all you staff. Have an awesome year everybody.

The C.I.A
Eli Burnstein

Hello this article is about how I feel about the CIA, or the "Central Intelligence Agency" as some like to call it. I heard from a reliable source that the CIA is building a big robot that will destroy us all! This robot is powered by blood, human blood! The CIA came up with very tiny blood-retrieving machines that cost millions of dollars to make. These machines can fly and are often referred to as... mosquitoes. Many commoners think mosquitoes are living creatures, but they aren't! Millions of mosquitoes are sent out of the CIA headquarters everyday and they retrieve gallons and gallons for their big robot. Please spread the word to everyone as fast as possible so we can do something about this horrific ordeal. Thank you.

Message to Camp Machar

Eli Burnstein, Ben Ludman, Brendan Rosen, and David Gruber

Dear Camp Machar... and the rest of the camp to a lesser extent. We have been sent here by our overlords to give you a message. But first let's talk a bit about ourselves: (after 15 minutes of pondering) ... well... We've come to the conclusion that we have nothing much to say about ourselves, so we'll cut right to the chase. We have a question for all of you, what's the deal with jelly? It looks like jam, it tastes like jam, but it's not jam! That's for sure. And Godzilla, don't get us started on Godzilla! I mean... is it a dinosaur? Is it a dragon? Is it just a giant lizard? It's got to be something! It needs a species! Anyway, back to the point, what point? That point, where? Oh, you just missed it. As we go on, we leave you with these words of wisdom; well they're words anyway. Cow, Habib, Machar, Marklar, Bagdad, Uris, Batman, VCR, Broom.

PS- Long live Cow

PPS- Down with pants!

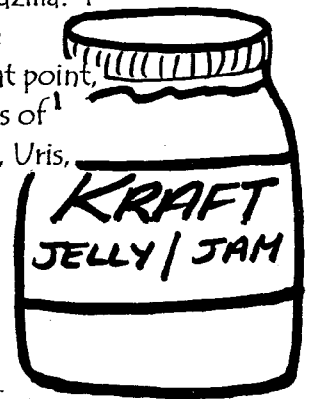

PPPS- Oh my gosh! I'm not going in the water!

PPPPS- Impeach Churchill!

PPPPPS- While you were reading this we took the time to steal your wallet.

PPPPPPS- Did you know, PS stands for postscript?

PPPPPPPS- Watch the mosquitoes!

Dear Camp Machar,

This being my second year at Camp Kadimah, and my first in Machar, I've realized how much Kadimah is a part of my life. Whether I return next year or not, just know that I love you all and this camp means a lot to me. The people here are by far the best people I've ever met. I sit here in the office, while most of you are at the Yom Hashoa program and talk to Renee about how much Machar means to us. For those who have yet to experience Camp Machar, you should definitely be looking forward to experiencing the closeness and the best section in Kadimah. To those who have already been through Machar, you understand just how much it means to everyone to sing at Rad Hayom and hug everyone goodnight. In Rad Hayom we sing a line that touches my heart every time I sing it, "So long my friends, I'll see you soon..." I hope it's true and I cannot wait to see you all again. Lots of love to Machar, and special thanks to cabin 15 for letting me be a part of you along with Yoli and Bailey. I love you Kadimah.

Love, Becky Weisbloom

A Message I Should've Written in Giborim

By Joe Ben-Israel

Hi Guys. Is till remember my first day of camp ever. Jenna, you were so friendly from the minute I got there. I remember when Witan introduced us, you invited me to sit next to you at lunch, it was really sweet.

Sammy, when we got to the cabin our beds were next to each other and you assured me that it would be an amazing time. And I really liked the shirt you were wearing (it was pink and tight).

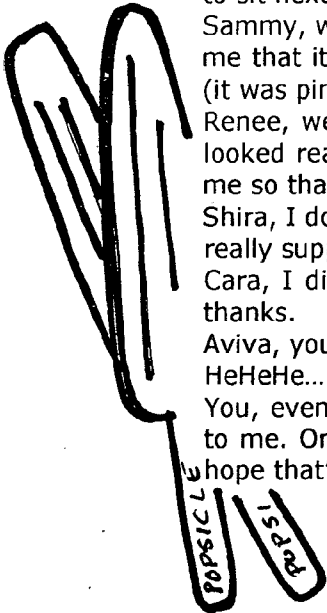

Renee, we had shirkud, and I didn't know how to dance or what I was doing and looked really stupid. Being the awesome person that you are, you danced just like me so that I wouldn't look stupid. Nothing goes unnoticed.

Shira, I don't remember much, but when I was obsessed with God bless America you really supported it. Thank you.

Cara, I didn't really know you very well, but you were always so sweet to me, so thanks.

Aviva, you and Eli were the cutest. It was so cute when you both won best camper. HeHeHe...

You, even though we only saw you for 5 days the whole summer, you were so nice to me. On visitors day when I had to visitors you bought me a Popsicle. Anyway, I hope that's all the girls. If not I apologize profoundly.

The Name Joe

By: Joe Ben Israel

Where it came from...

In 1995, I, (Karen Joe Ben - Israel) came to camp for the first time. Being the only new girl, other than Stephanie Covens, who is a year younger, I was shy. After we had all unpacked our things, our staff decided to play the name game. We decided that we would say our names and something special about ourselves. Being shy on the first day, I couldn't think of anything special about myself, so my councilor had to give me suggestions. So Rachel Solomon asked me if I had a favourite food, or any nicknames. So, I decided to be creative, and I said that my nickname was JOE and not to call me Karen anymore. And that was it. Now my name is JOE.

Dear Camp Machar,

This is my fourth and final summer as a camper at Kadimah. I just want you to know that Machar is like a second home to me. I can open up in front of you, laugh with you and have fun with you. To my girls, Ash, Ali, Les, and Darcy: I love you guys more than you can believe. We have been best friends for four summers now and I can not imagine a summer without you. To my staff who have helped make my summers so special, thank you for everything. Everyone else, and you know who you are, thanks for the memories. Keep in touch!

"Camp Machar is gonna be the best"

By Michelle Baron and Elyte Barzilay

Well, we never expected it to be this good. Not only was it our first year as Macharnicks, but it was our first summer at Kadimah and we have had the best summer that we could have wished for. From the storm at Keji to shopping on Machar Day Off, everyday has been full of memories. Stumpy, Sarah Pedicure, Rad Hayom Shemesh Tov, Mc Donalds, What colour is the big red boat? Moo, center stage, the cabins smell, and many more. Days began with laughter and ended with hugs goodnight. The occasional roam would end our nights properly. We entered the cabins laughing and the laughter continued on throughout the night until shmira had to come in to tell us we have woken up the Goshies. So, goodbye, goodnight and thank you all for the best summer ever.

Love,
Michelle Baron and Elyte Barzilay

Casual Conversation Between Friends

Rachel Mendleson, Renée Zatzman, and Joe Ben-Israel

Joe's writing: Rachel yawns, now she winks, followed by laughing.

Rachel's writing: While the play by play of my actions is quite intriguing let's get to the real point of this article Joe.

Joe's writing: Ok Rachel. Wait, don't forget Renée is here.

Rachel's writing: Sorry Renée, I thought you were busy getting me fired.

Renée's writing: No that was only a threat because you said you were going to beat me up. Hey where's Joe? Say something Joe.

Joe's writing: Ok Renée. Listen you look very concentrated on that article you're reading. Hey! I got a joke. Listen. You're so dumb you stared at an orange juice container for six hours because you said concentrate.

Renée's writing: Hey! I told you that joke in 2nd year gosh. Rachel, what peulah do we have next?

Rachel's writing: I don't know, I just work here.

Joe's writing: How responsible.

Rachel's writing: I appreciate the compliment. That's all for now. Hopefully there will be more from the dialogue of Joe, Renée and Rachel. Pu-u-lah hay is now beginning.

Joe's writing: We are now at dinner.

Rachel's writing: Renée points out that the vegetarian meal is disgusting but very creative. Good insight Renée. Where, may I ask did the banners go?

Renée's writing: I think they went to get that Saran Wrap stuff on them to be preserved. This lasagna smells strong, it's a good thing I have food in my cabin. (Renée is lactose intolerant.)

Joe's writing: Renée just got more kiwis to eat. She's enjoying them.

Renée's writing: Hey I just came up with a startling revelation... for dairy meals anybody can go to the veggie bar because technically there is no meat being served, isn't that cool Rachel?

Rachel's writing: Yeah Renée, incredible. Anyway, I assure you it is hugely under-rated, it's actually not THAT bad.

Joe's writing: I agree. I think it's really good. Jenn Rosen refuses to bring cereal. HAHA. Cereal is my saving grace at Camp. I'd be lost without it.

Renée's writing: I don't really like cereal that much, I mean I like "Fruit Loops" but they aren't kosher, and honey nut Cheerios which have nuts in them, I think I'm unlucky but hey, we still have kiwis right Joe?

Joe's writing: That's good for you..... I guess but, I don't like kiwis. We are now clearing the table. Rachel just said that this part of the meal is not fun. Renée picks up apple juice and complains that there is never any apple juice in camp.

Well Renée, that sucks for you.

Renée's writing: You wanna know what else sucks for me? Keji.

I would put my list of why I hate keji in the lton , but it's not appropriate for kids.

Hey, I think that Jill Zuckerman looks like Ms. Frizzle from the Magic school bus!

Rachel's writing: I hear you, hoss (Toasts line) Speaking of who looks like whom, and did you see that girl in Kochot who looks like Sarah Damelin. The resemblance is uncanny.

Joe's writing: No I haven't, but I'll keep my eyes open. Renée your list is soooo funny. Ohhh the cake is here. I don't like cake. I really don't like the icing.

Renée's writing: I know that girl, in fact I mentioned it to her on several occasions. Reshef is funny, he's singing a weird song. The Talent... (oh I lost my train of thought thinking of all the hot guys in this camp).... Show is tonight, I still think "super" should have made it, oh well. Here's Rachel to end this dialogue.

Rachel's writing: Some parting words: It's all fun and games until someone loses an eye; then it becomes a sport.

Hope this was as funny to you as it was for us. Thanks for reading.

Dear Camp Machar

Just incase I don't get to write in our diary, I still wanted to say something to all of you. First of all, I've had an amazing summer and every single one of you have contributed to it. You never actually realize how special camp Machar is until you experience it, and I am glad to say that I have experienced it. We had an awesome section this year and I am going to miss everyone so much. When I think about it, this is the last time this group of people will ever be all together. I love you all and think you are all amazing people. Never stop smiling!

Love always and forever,
Stacy Walman

Hityashvut 2000: to the White team:

This Hityashvut was obviously amazing. Not only did we have a great time, but we feel we have accomplished something that no other Hityashvut teams have done before. Everybody on our team put in an effort, which made us all stronger. From cooking to song writing to the latrine, to our award winning Bama, we showed that destiny can either write itself, or you can help write it out. We'll never forget Destiny's design because it represents all the good and bad things that happen in life. So our advice is follow what life has to bring you, never look back. We are all a part of destiny's design.

Love always and forever, your captains:

CIT SONG

~To the tune of "All for you" by Sister Hazel~

One day you'll figure out
What CIT's do,
Livin' in Drebetaea
We're far away from you.

Red lights on, better run
We'll learn so much, before we're done,
It's the dream before the awakening.

Chorus:

Oh Overlord we pledge our love to you
Mullets are our favourite hairdo,
Leprechauns are green not blue
Jewish kids can get lice too.

Hugs or high fives,
I like a hug please
We've got 4 nobles & 4 Israelis,
4 tables, 4 showers, 4 swings,
4 letter words
Here we come, rainbow valley.

Repeat CHORUS

Vapo pomme, ski mayim
Hacol beseder, or so it seems
All we want is a little PLUR.

Repeat CHORUS X2

LegacITs

As the waves roll on, over the waters, across the stormy skies... we look to you, our CITs of 2000 to share our lives...

Doron, you are from Israel, you eat lots of salad and walk around barefoot....Pardo, you bring the ugly baby to life and your father's name is Rene....Joseph, you like to run and you break up with your girlfriend one stop before she has to get off the subway...Bianka, your name is fun to say: Bee On Kah, is the staff lounge comfortable?...Julie Horel, you live in Woodstock and you are currently courting Aaron Fox who sends you biscuits and visits on his bike...Amy, the call you sexpot and we know where that smell came from on the bus...Samara, they call you Shnurb, you like to shower, maybe for LS?...Andrew Segal, you have a white duvet and like double meat on your subs, you would look great in a reverse mullet, hooray for FAME...Evan, you drink too much Fruite, perhaps this is why you are always late or maybe it is the goshies hanging from your arms....Noah, if you call we will answer but your girlfriend still looks old in that picture...Jared, you sleep with Pichachoo, your father's name is Gary Goldlust, that's pretty, well, you know....Julie Schneider, you always have a question and need to get help with your shopping addiction...Erin, you have a cool device to store your junk and you didn't bring back any lice this year, thanks...Jessica, you find a certain boating staff member attractive but your sister is dating him, just kidding...Debra, your last name is Manly but you are far from it, Adina Herbert, you look like Uma but sing and play softball way better than she does...Rachel, you eat lots of Cheerios, maybe that's why your hair is so curly...Yair, you too are from Israel, you like to wink and go ski mayim...Craig, you put lots of gel in your hair, maybe that is why the mosquitoes love you...Emily, you have lots of babies, beanie babies that is, thanks for not puking...Dara, you love Dunkaroo goo but don't give enough cheese for Reshef pastries...Beast, you've got great clothes, where are the teeth?...Adam Borer or should we call you Rico, you are suave and your mom sat next to Jean Chretien...Michelle, you don't say much but you are great on buggy duty...Adam Kaplan, you have a great smile, thanks for all the programming help and the water rescue...Andra, you like to rave, about your boyfriend - it's a marvelous night for a moondance...Jill, gosh Jill can we smell your fingers, that's it....AJ, we've dealt with you now, hope you enjoyed Tim Horton's...Alissa, you have many stories to tell while hiking plus your hair smells great and you dance well...Jackie Pearl, you are famoosely delectable, can we drink your bodyspray?...Benji, thanks for not shaving your head, did you enjoy the view of the Indian Ocean from Peggy's Cove?...Nomi, if you were to marry Chuck NsNo, your name would be Nomi NsNo, but that doesn't explain all the pop tabs on your knapsack, hooray for FAME...Nevsky, you got the good name in your family, valiant effort in Hockey Marathon...Udi, your last name is Shturk, maybe that is why you laugh so much...Zach, keep away from luxury cars, by the way, what do you call a Scotsman with 500 girlfriends?...Arinn, you broke some hearts this summer and ps - Sheldon saw you swimming Saturday night...DVD, dvdvdvdvdvdvdvdvd, no need to be scared to sleep alone...Jackie Rubin, you have your web pierced, what's the deal with that?...Lauren, we call you Babs, you don't like it, tough, well done BH...Adina Feldman, the melyad has a new supply closet waiting for you...Mansfield, Q: Where were you? A: Somewhere else in camp. Q: what? A: just not here..perhaps you had secretly gone back to the haunted wood...and that was the lega of the CITs...

Funny, all three of us have been some or all of your staff before this summer (ok, not for Yair, Doron, Udi or Bianka but it feels like we've known you forever) – Steph 96-97, Tif 97-98. Jonah 98-99. Coincidence that we chose to be CIT staff this summer? We think not. We took these posts because of you – yeah, CIT staff is one of the most coveted jobs in camp, all we do is shower, tan and go on trips eh....but us three get to have our Coast Guard Cahlege lunch and eat it too? Not. In layperson's terms, we got the best job, the best kids and the best land in all of Camp Kadimah.

We've shlepped a lot of naches watching you guys blossom from the ankle biting campers of yore to the upstanding citizens you are today. From spotting mullets at Whitney Pier to Chicken Soup for the CIT soul, from shanananana to FAME, you've done away with the lazy reputation of the CITs and have become the most respected group in camp. You were told that as a CIT, your experience would be what you make it, and you guys have made it.

As the eagle sits in nest adjacent to pole #7, as Sobes almost tumbles to his demise, as we are late once again for mifkad, as the red light burns....we sail on, sail on. When the three of us were first year staff, you were our campers and taught us how to be counselors ourselves. We've now returned that honour and the cycle is complete.

Carry with you the knowledge you have gained from your time in Drebethea...may these lessons allow you to love your future campers and this camp as we have loved it.

This has truly been the DREam BEfore THE Awakening...

Goodnight ladies, goodnight men
Goodnight to memories created back the Goodnight high fives, goodnight hugs
Goodnight Mr. Hooper and noodles in mugs

Goodnight Drebethea
Goodnight g-store
Goodnight Kadimah. Forevermore?

Steph, Tif and Jonah – CIT staff 2000
(not to be confused with Sharon, Lois and Bram)

PS – The overlord has now left Barss Corner. He was last seen on the 4:20 bus headed east with his new disciple, Barry.

Funny Things Doron Says

By Dara Orbach, Erin Roza, and Nomi Caplan

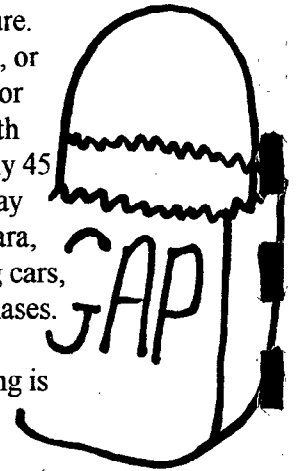

Doron is one of our Israeli CITS. She says some funny things when she gets confused, and she does funny things. Here are some of them.

- When she was bored: "I'm bored!"
- When she has to pee: "I'm a faucet... no?"
- When she won the ski award for skiing around the lake on her bum.
- She waters her arm pits

- "What we do now?"
- When she calls Evan "Heaven" and Erin "Heron" and Jared "Jerry" and Benji "Bunji"
- "Why?"
- "How you open the window?"
- "Can I have a piece of gums?"
- "Lipstick... no? you know... the stuff you put on lips for color?"
- When she forgets that she's talking in Hebrew and nobody can understand her.
- She says "bless you" to people after they burp.
- When she was trying to say Anne of green gables "Anna... Anna... Anna".

Ode to Maritime Shopping
By: Jackie Rubin & Nomi Caplan

Due to the popularity of spending, the CIT trip turned into a grand shopping adventure. While the CIT's had no preference in malls, whether it be a strip-mall, single stores, or large complete malls, there was always opportunity to spend. Time became the major obstacle to overcome when only minutes were given to go through a whole mall, with over 20 good clothing stores!! An example of such is, when upon arrival in PEI, only 45 minutes was given before dinner and those desperate to reach a mall 20-minutes away had to run frantically to maximize the shopping potential. The brave few (Nomi, Dara, Jackie R., Erin, Michelle) endured the intense heat and sexual remarks from passing cars, (there must not be any girls in PEI), and made it in time with many successful purchases. The final mall visited in PEI contained one of the most exciting stores on the trip, "Dave's Cave". Much money was blown and many articles were acquired. Shopping is truly one of the greatest pleasures in life!

The Big Question

By Julie Horel

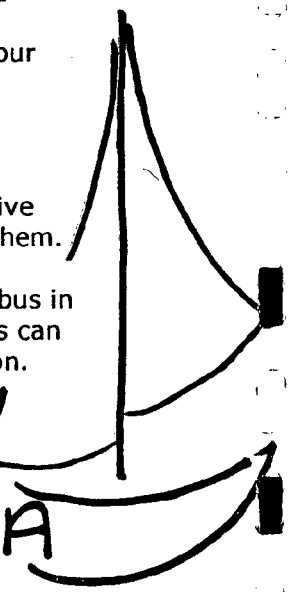

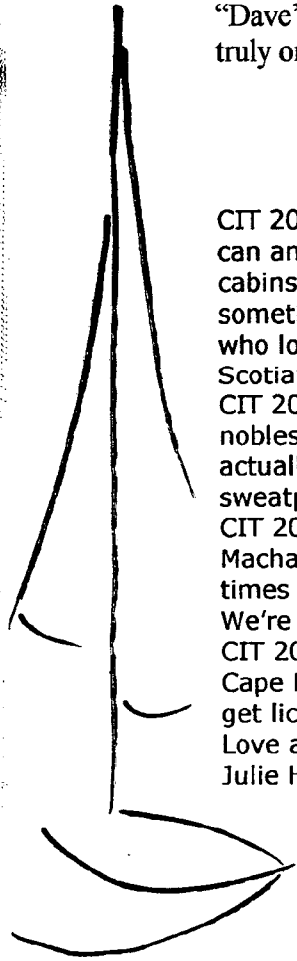

CIT 2000: what is it? A simple question with a not-so-simple answer. Where else can an entire section shower every day and yet not care about the state of our cabins? What other section considers it a major burden to actually have to do something? Could you honestly find another group of sixteen-year olds who love leprachauns and spontaneously break into renditions of "Sail on, Nova Scotia" ?

CIT 2000: were the best of the best. We're the biggest CIT ever. We've got four nobles and four Israelis. We love placements, but never seem to have time to actually be on. We run socials with names like "chaos". We wear towels and sweatpants on our heads. All we want is a little PLUR.

CIT 2000: We're special because we're so unique. We've got more spirit than Machar, but we can't get out of bed in the morning. We can watch "survivor" five times and still not get bored. We have four great swings and hardly ever use them. We're always tired but refuse to make curfew. We're perpetually late.

CIT 2000: The memories will last forever. From Keji in the rain to hours on a bus in Cape Breton, we've unified as a section and as friends. Remember, Jewish kids can get lice too. PLUR is really all you need, and Nova Scotia will continue to sail on.

Love always,
Julie Horel, CIT 2000

Ode to Shmirnoff

On our day trip to Halifax, Sam, Emily, Lauren, Debra and Jared (landscape) went for lunch at East Side Marrios, and we ate a very scrumptious lunch. There were empty Shmirnoff boxes, all yellow and flowerly pretty. Anyways, finally Sam asked for one of the boxes. The manager (not jeans) decided to give the box to us after numerous conversations. As the 5 of us walked out of the restaurant, Jared slumped the box over his shoulder very manly (not Noah) like. So, in conclusion...OKAY, SICK LIKE A DOG!

PS: Akuna Matta, Lego my Debo, and Babs (AKA Gina)- LAUGH!
Mini me!!!! MMMMMEEEEEEEEEOOOOOOOOOWWWWWWWW!!!

Ode to Sobes

On Saturday, July 29, of the year 2000 Camp Kadimah was changed for good. It is a day to remember a change in Kadimah's history. Mr. Michael Soberman has been known to most as a strict, powerful authority figure. But underneath it all, us CIT girls knew his true self. On our trip through the Maritimes, we had much opportunity to have wide and varied discussions due to the amount of time we spent on the bus. As we discussed our options for next summer, Soberman told us that Kadimah Israel was the obvious choice. All but one agreed this notion. It was up to mike to change this girl's mind. She informed him that the reason which one would not attend KI, is because she is not good with change. The conversation thickened and Mr. S convinced us that change is a good thing. With our smarts, the tables turned and the focus was now on him. We conjured up the idea of how he should shave off his goatee. At first, he rejected the idea because "mommy would not approve." To prove a point, he decided to go through with it. On top of that, he not only just shaved his goatee off, he let us do it for him! We should say that Debra Manly and Emily Hartzman with the help from a visitor, Heidi Lipkus, did a great job. There was not only one nic on his cute little face. We would like to give out thanks to our supervisors, Arinn Ryan, Jackie Pearl and Alissa Mikelberg.

Sobes, for all the years we've known you, we've thought of you as a scary man. But now with this change, we see you as a smiley boy. We love you lots and hope that the next time we see you, you're not back to your old look. So the moral of this story is some changes can turn out for the better and some for the worse.

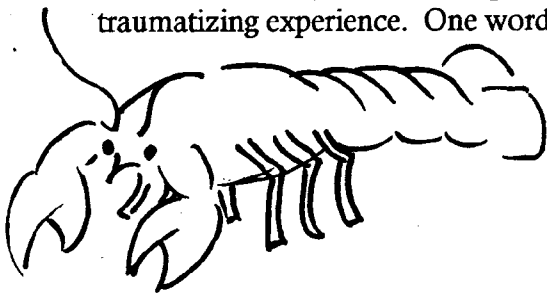

This one was a good one.

A Lobster Tale-lobsters never prosper

By: Rebecca "Oyster" Pardo & Adina "scallops" Herbert

It all started on a partly cloudy day on the main streets of Halifax, NS. The CIT's had taken a trip to the lovely city to marvel at its beautiful sights. We were approaching Subway Sandwiches when a big lobster suited man approached us. He offered us pamphlets for his restaurant, "Lobster Tails". We turned him down politely and started to walk towards Subway. He then explained that he was going to follow us until we took a pamphlet. He soon realized that he could not enter the restaurant due to a no soliciting policy. We ran inside and shut the door on him. We thought we were safe, but wait, there's more. We had to go make a phone call, and as we didn't see him on the street we went from the Subway only to find him on the street corner. We tried to avoid him as we crossed the street, but our attempts were in vain. He immediately saw us and walked over. He offered Pardo a pamphlet. She rejected. He said "Well, I am going to have to walk behind you with this 'eat me' sign." He proceeded to follow us across the street practically walking on top of us. As we reached the curb, Pardo pushed the lobster hard and said "move"! He backed off, taken by surprise and said "Woa!" He told us that he gets a dollar for every pamphlet he hands out, so he would leave us alone if we took one. Pardo agreed, and took a pamphlet, hoping he would finally leave. But he didn't. Instead, he continued to harass us saying, "What's wrong, have you had a rough day?" Pardo replied in a rude tone, "We've had a long day, we're tired, we took your pamphlet, now please leave!" He then requested our company for drinks. We eventually ran away. Later that evening we were still so peeved, that we decided to call Lobster Tails and complain. We searched the entire phonebook and finally found the #. We explained the situation to the manager, and we explained how he told us he'd get money, and how he hit on us. The manager thought it was a disgrace. She promised she would speak with him and apologized profusely. And this ends our tale, of how a simple walk down the streets of Halifax led to a traumatizing experience. One word of advice, never take anything from a lobster.

Red Team Captains Report

(disclaimer- to our knowledge Maccabia at Camp Kadimah is fair in every way)

Red Team,

It's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game. Who are we kidding? We won! But seriously, sportsmanship and teamwork conquer all. Except the winners. No really, all joking aside we were bound to come out on top. Think about it, the fix was in. Long established ties with the waterfront and the roots and cultural department alone were enough to make us a shoe in. The fact that three Zatzman children, including Marty's daughter were members of the Red Team, was just an added bonus to ensure our victory.

Despite this foundation of corruption we could never have sealed the deal without an amazing team. After the Bochon, where Red was the only silent team, we knew that we had an excellent group of people on our hands. Needless to say, some thank- yous are most definately in order. Mad props to our workhorse Hailey Banack, who kept our team loud. The spirit was unreal. Credit must be paid as well to our underdog basketball team which, by pure heart and soul, ended up undefeated- and that's all that matters. We also want to thank the hardcore banner babes, the Lovnukah Crew, and the tzofiut team who, defying all the laws of scouting at Camp Kadimah, made movable joints from sticks and rope. You all kick buttox.

In the end it all came down to warm fuzzy bunny love. (That, and the bribes of course.) We'd like to put a plug in for Microsoft Excel, which stacked our team with an unbeatable combination of hardworking, dedicated individuals. You all participated and tried your best and it didn't go unnoticed. Never underestimate the power of a humble tailor with a small, sharp, metal object.

We love you Red Team.

Your Captains,
Dave Kochberg
Rachel Mendleson
Lesley Suchter
Gabe Stein

Red Team Song

Chorus: Ani ledodi
 Vedodi li
 Veahavta lere'echa camocha
 Love and respect
 Of Jewish unity

The tailor sits
By a single flame
Alone through the night
His heart and hands
Inspired by
The strong red light
His hands move swift as he dreams
Of new horizons
Of people everywhere
Living as one

Chorus

He sews all night
Heart guides the hand
There is nothing love can't mend
And in the end
Emerges a cloth
Of unity and strength
It says let's love each other then we Can make a better Judea
Sow the seeds of love x2
So they will grow
All we need is tailor's dedication

Chorus

And through his work x2
Arriving here
Is a nation true and strong
By love and peace
And the joy to teach
Turn all troubles to song
Na na na na na ...

And as we walk through time, we will try (ss1)

To remember where we started (ss2)

You'll know your history just close your eyes and there you'll be,

Helping, taking care of others (ss2)

We're pushing the envelope we're flying high

We're shouting together till the final cry

Oh brothers keepers it's our time to fly

Reach our goals our hopes and come alive

We're breaking through we are team blue

Shomrim al kol davar vekulanu

It's our time to capture victory tonight (ss1)

Red white and yellow you put up a fight and held your ground

You built all the walls

We tore each one down

We're pushing the envelope we're flying high

We're shouting together till the final cry

Oh brothers keepers it's our time to fly

Reach our goals our hopes and come alive

We're breaking through we are team blue

Shomrim al kol davar vekulanu

It's our time to capture victory tonight ONE TWO THREE FOUR!

We're breaking through we are team blue

Shomrim al kol davar vekulanu

It's our time to capture victory, set our spirits free, CAPTURE!

We're breaking through we are team blue

Shomrim al kol davar vekulanu

It's our time to capture victory, set our spirits free, CAPTURE... YEAH!

Yellow Team '00

Dear Yellow team,

We don't know about you, but we didn't want to win anyway. Let's face it, third place is way better than first. We appreciated all your efforts. We had a great four days and we hope you did as well. There comes a time in your life when you have to realize that maccabia is really all about winning marchpast. You guys spread the love better than any tree-huggers we know! We have yellow clothes (except Toast lost a special yellow bandana. If anyone has it, please send it to 31 West Comb Crescent, Charlottetown, PEI) and everyone else has leeches on them. Thanks to all those who contributed their time and talents. Yellow 2K! Hug a tree!

Love,

Toast "Yellow" Cohen ('90-'96, '98-'00)

Shoshana Kuriloff ('90-'96, '99-'00)

Ali Flam-Gitman ('96-'00)

Jon Yazer ('93-'00)

P.S. A big shout out to the Sovereign Dolphins, the Homebodies, the victorious women's water polo team, and the depressing losses of the boys basketball team!

Yellow Team Song

Tune: Closing Time by Semisonic

Romanticize our vision of the future
Let us learn to live and love as one
Realize what we can accomplish
When we exist in what we dream to become.

CHORUS:

Yellow team will shine through to the end
With respect we'll be able to extend Love and Union, Peace and Harmony
Shlamut ya'arot hageshem

Ahavtah is what we all depend on
When we're faced with all life's daily pains
Synchronize our thoughts about survival
Or we're left as growing trees without rain

Chorus

Community, formed by individuals
Depending on each other to live
Take part in the romance of the forest
You can't get until you learn to give

Chorus

Yellow Team Cheer

Tune: "What's My Age Again?" by Blink 182

We came out it was a Sunday night
We then decided that we would win this fight
We went to the Bochon, got only 50 points
That was a bad start it seems
But that's alright because we are Yellow Team,
Nobody likes you when you don't help out
We'll show unity and respect throughout Maccabia is where it's at
We came here to participate
Who just won that game?
We just won that game!

Macabathon and Regatta, Swim meet you know we're gonna Put our force to use and settle all disputes
Let our Ruach set us free
We're gonna win because we are Yellow Team
We have love in our community
We cause a ruckus where we go
We do like being loud and playing in the lake
Is that a leech on you?
That's a leech on you!

We're gonna win this cause we are Yellow Team
Our commitment radiates a beam
Instead of talking we take action
We step forward with power and passion
Bananas are yellow
Who has yellow clothes?
We have Yellow clothes!!!

Are red, white and blue gonna win?
Do you think so?
I don't think so!

Yellow 2K

Hug a tree!!!

The Fun that was White Team

Dear White Team of 2000,

We were almost called "A Bicycle Built for All", "Double Helix", "The Garden Project", and "White Destiny". But, though great trial and ordeal, and even against the evil Matt Craig's wishes, we became "United Pulse". Right from the start we were all about fun. One of the first things we, the captains, said to you was "We would rather have a fun week and finish last, than have a miserable week and finish first." Well the moral of the story is, be careful what you wish for, because it just might come true.

Although we didn't win the Bochon, we may be the first team in Maccabia history to begin Day 2 with a negative score. Still, you guys really did come through at other times. The Maccabathon was certainly a shining moment for the team, as was our Bama. Even though our practice time was somewhat limited, we managed an impressive performance. Jerry! Jerry!

Let's not forget the fun stuff that was for White Team only: evening Machar sing-a-longs in the pavilion, fruit and juice breaks, and our favorite time-killing game, "Have you Ever...." There was Byron's Rambo-style bandana, and Krista's, ummmm, interesting hat. This is the kind of stuff that Maccabia memories are all about.

Now is the point at which a few thank you's are in order. Thanks to the people who created our beautiful banner, our cute Bama dance, and our fantastic song and cheer. Thanks to the Gibbies for letting us borrow Quiet Coyote, and thanks to the Goshies for so enthusiastically participating in the marathon. A special thanks goes to all those who led cheers and to our staff for helping and supervising. Also, thank you to the McDonald's picnic tables- you know what you did.

Finally, we hope that each and every one of you had a fun time, and that each person feels that they participated and contributed to the team. We, your captains, were certainly glad to be leading such a fun and wonderful bunch.

White Team Song
Written by Matt Ross

Tune: Billy Joel's "This is the Time"

Verse 1:

United our beat will always win the race,
Divided our pulse will stay at a medium pace
Together we'll trek on through the paths of life.
A bond between God and the Israelites.

Chorus:

This is the time for your neighbour
They don't have to return the favour
We won't live life like a vacuum
And we won't be shoved into the back room.
United Pulse, is gonna have to change
But time will never be gone
It will always roll on and on

Verse 2:

If there is a Jewish person suffering
The entire community will never win
Now all of the tribes are striging for the gold
Our foundation will never chicken out or fold

– Chorus –

Bridge:

Sometimes it's not easy to win a game, or lose,
Especially with so many others around.
But White Team is strong and will surely take the crown
And these are the days we will always recall

– Chorus –

– End –
